DISABLED AMERICAN VETERANS

NATIONAL SERVICE and LEGISLATIVE HEADQUARTERS
807 MAINE AVENUE, S.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20024
(202) 554-3501

August 2, 1991

Scheduling 9-12-91

Honorable George Bush
The President of the United States
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

On Thursday, September 12, 1991, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m., the Disabled American Veterans (DAV) will host a special recognition ceremony for those men and women who were injured or disabled during Operation Desert Storm.

We would be honored if you could share this special evening with us. As disabled veterans of this nation's past wars, we in the DAV feel a special bond with these servicemen and women. It's a bond we would like you to share as we recognize their service and sacrifice at special ceremonies to be held at the DAV National Service and Legislative Headquarters.

The outpouring of national support and appreciation for the fighting men and women of Operation Desert Storm has been unmatched in recent history. Much has been made of both America's superior military technology, and her highly trained and motivated troops. As a result of this nation's preparedness and her leadership, the casualties were relatively slight.

But for those who were injured or disabled, the war's end has not eased the pain of recuperation or shortened the long road to rehabilitation. We believe this special recognition will lend a big morale boost to not only those in attendance, but those hundreds of others who are still occupying military and VA hospital beds.

I hope you can find time in your busy schedule to make this a truly national demonstration of support for our injured and disabled Operation Desert Storm troops.

Sincerely,

Cleveland Jordan
CLEVELAND JORDAN
National Commander
