Sig already has a copy (I had sent one to Studdert and NSC).

Gov. Sununu had wanted to keep this one (which was intended for POTUS) until he was ready to review the entire subject with him. If he's changed his mind I'll be happy to keep this. Thanks.

PERSONAL & ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The Honorable Nicholas Brady
Secretary of the Treasury
Department of the Treasury
1500 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20220

Dear Nick:

When you addressed the Board of Directors of the Greater Houston Partnership (the umbrella organization for the Greater Houston Chamber of Commerce, Houston Economic Development Council and the Houston World Trade Association), I hope you sensed the admiration and friendship which those business leaders of Houston have for you and for the objectives of the Bush Administration.

Nick, this observation is pertinent to the Administration's decision on where the 1990 Economic Summit will be held.

If you will invest no more than five minutes in reviewing the enclosed proposal depicting the qualifications and attributes of Houston as the host city, in my capacity as Chairman of the Greater Houston Partnership and as your friend I would be forever grateful.

To conserve your time, Nick, I shall abbreviate this letter...with the resultant goal of equipping you to invest your time in reading the substantive material enclosed.

Warmest regards,

Ben F. Love

Dear Secretary Brady:

I am pleased to submit to you, from the City of Houston, Harris County, the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau and the Greater Houston Partnership, the enclosed 1990 Economic Summit Proposal for your review and consideration.

We feel Houston not only has the expertise, experience and resources to plan and host the 1990 Economic Summit and related events, but also offers flexibility and convenience coupled with a strong spirit of cooperation between many groups and individuals to ensure a memorable occasion for everyone associated with the Summit.

I would like to offer to you the services of the Greater Houston Partnership in developing any further information you may require to assist you during this decision making process and would welcome your thoughts and comments on the enclosed proposal.

Yours truly,

Lee W. Hogan
President and CEO
