Andy ~

Just returned from my trip, gave your office
a call as per your first note, & now just received your second note re my letter to Gov. Sununu.

I deeply appreciate your patient courtesy in responding to my notes & inquiries. I can imagine people must be about as tired of hearing about my position interest as I am of formulating new forms of self-marketing.

I fear that, based on past experience, I will continue to make no progress towards being considered for an Administration position
unless I have the active follow-up support (ACTIVE SPONSORSHIP)
of someone 'higher up' such as you & the Governor. There is otherwise no motivation I can think of for any of the "relevant" or "appropriate"

White House officials (or in Liaison) to lift a finger on my behalf.

Indeed, my letter to Gov. Sununu was only the latest effort to 'get through' to someone. For some 15-16 months I've been attempting to contact people in and about the Administration - you, Atwater, State Department people, Vernon Walters, etc. - now Gov. Sununu. My inquiries either don't get acknowledged at all, or else they invariably wind up ^{referred} back ^(to) OPP or Liaison, apparently for all I know to sit on the shelf - where once again after some pause I try to devise some new way of 'getting throughs' only to find the process once again repeating itself the same cycle over & over.

Last August I wrote Ron Kaufman (with copies to Chase Untermeyer & Tom Kranz) asking, please, for a report on my status. I never received an acknowledgement from anyone. Despite further submissions this year to Ron's office, I've never received an acknowledgement - in fact, I can't recall receiving any communication from OPP, not even "boiler-plate," since May, 1989.

Having worked there myself in Transition, I do not discount the thankless & difficult task facing OPP. But added to my own experiences comes a barrage of criticism from diverse sources over months. Being on the outside, it's hard to know what is going ~~on~~. Invariably people will assume that I am frustrated, but 'puzzlement' much better describes my state of mind. I cannot tell whether the lack of ^{& progress} response (you excepted) lies with me, or with the 'system', or some combination. Like trying to fathom a Kafkaian bureaucracy parable, it's all a big mystery.

I can't assume that my Campaign service combined with cognitive skills & learning qualifies me for an Administration position (though I feel I have a great deal to offer in a number of respects). In fact, I've never taken the position that I or anyone 'deserves' or is 'entitled' to an Administration position. But I do think I, deserve get a bottom-line, no 'border-plate,' straightforward expression from the Administration as to where I stand in its estimation vis a vis my interest in a position, & if the estimation is positive, some kind of structured follow-through & follow-up procedure in moving step-by-step towards filling a position when the appropriate time & place & my place in line conjoin.

Again, thanks for your kindness in continually responding to my inquiries. I deeply appreciate it.

best regards,

Paul Corley

Andy Card

Dear Governor Sununu,

As a former academic I thought perhaps you might perceive something in my resume which could be of benefit to Administration policy service but has so far otherwise escaped notice.

Since the Transition I've been on file with White House Personnel, & Andy Card referred me to Ron Kaufman's office a year ago. My file has been passed on to State Liaison as well as DOD & HUD, but I've had no interviews beyond Liaison & my own separate efforts to contact individuals in various Bureaus & Departments have not yielded follow-up.

White House references include Andy Card (I worked with him tangentially in the Campaign), Jim Pinkerton & Ken Yale. In the Summer of '88 Mike Hanay briefly introduced me to you when I gave you a paper I wrote on Campaign strategy, & once as well in Transition when you stopped by in our Personnel operation - chatted about N. Ft.

snow, skiing & Lake Winnepesaukee.

Thanks for any attention you might extend to my interest in service in the Bush Administration.

best regards,
Paul Corley

AC HAS SEEN

Andy,

Enclosed is a revised resume which I'm sending around the Administration - redesigned according to a 'topical' format.

Sent a copy to Gov Sununu in case with his ^{academic} background he might see something of relevance which had escaped OPP's notice (where I was recently informed I had been earmarked as a "real estate agent" (?)).

Currently winding up a FLA/TX business tour with a Rocky Mt. excursion - splendid scenery, trees blossoming just now in Aspen CO.

Now headed for the 'Flatlands' & back to the DC. ~~Flatland~~ "Badlands" with a foretaste of summer experienced in Miami.

best regards,

Honorable John Sununu
Chief Of Staff
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Governor:

Whereas I have not corresponded for some time I am taking this opportunity to advise that your continuing support and that of Mrs. Sununu has been much appreciated. Through your efforts I have had correspondence from Andy Card, Ron Kaufman, and Brenda Hart, however to date my 15 month quest for a Washington assignment has been unsuccessful.

Adhering to the advice provided by Mr. Card I have continued to apply for posted vacancies in career positions and have paid twice with my own funds to take annual leave and drive to D. C. for personal interviews. I really thought I had an opportunity to join OMB as my personal interview went quite well however nothing has happened in months. As for the Department of HUD the situation becomes even more frustrating as many Field Office staff have been called into Headquarters either on detail or permanent reassignment, even from my own New England Region, however I have been unsuccessful to date. Although I have continued to perform well enough in my own office to have received my 14th Outstanding Performance Award this year, I have been unable to obtain any reassignment potential. The real frustrating thing is that you will recall months ago that Congressman Douglas wrote to me and told me my problem was that John Sununu had to approve all appointments out of New England. I was immediately assured by your staff that this was not quite accurate although I was very confident that even if it was your past interest in my career would have resulted in your assistance if it was possible. Now, I keep hearing through friends in HUD Headquarters that all those field office personnel who have been reassigned to Washington are former workers for our HUD Secretary in his past campaigns or donors to his campaigns. Even though I really respect our HUD Secretary and consider him the best HUD Secretary I have worked for in twenty years, I am totally frustrated by this because....how could I have worked for the HUD Secretary in his campaigns when I was a devoted a hard working member of our President's team? This makes my quest even more difficult.

As a result of this rumor or fact, I wrote recently to Ron Kaufman and clearly indicated that, if necessary, I would resign my current career position to accept an appointment in Washington and hope that something may become a reality this way.

Hopefully, you may be able to pass on just a word or two to our HUD Secretary when you are together on May 20th here in New Hampshire. Even though our entire family is in Bob Smith's camp, at this time I do not have the resources to be at the May 20th function. My Dad has been very ill for months now and we have had to place him at the Greenbriar Healthcare facility in Nashua where my only brother and I, now share the $137 a day costs. As you can imagine, this does put a drain on the financial resources of a family like mine. I just know that affair will be a huge success and of course am already considering that he will be our next Senator. Although I had a good friend in politics tell me once.....!"Always run scared!"

Next week, May 7 to 11 I will be in Washington once again for some HUD training at the Quality Inn in Arlington. Should any opportunity come up for any interviews or anyone you feel I should speak to, I can be reached at the Quality Inn and I thank you most sincerely for your support and candor throughout this 15 months of patient waiting.

It would be the thrill of a lifetime if you could speak to our HUD Secretary during the affair on the 20th. It might be easier being a non HUD affair and one in which our good Republican Party will be the topic. Thoroughly enjoy reading about you in the papers and magazines. Hopefully one day you will write a book of your experiences because I believe it would be a wonderful addition to any young person's library. I know my son would be among the first to read it!

Thank you again for any help you can give me once again.....

Sincerely,

Dear Andy —
Many thanks for your "May Day"
letter in response to my letter, dated April 24, 1990, to Governor Surin.

Congratulations on your well deserved appointment in the Administration!
I called you several times following the President's election but my calls were never returned. That is unfortunate, because early communication may have averted an unpleasant situation.

The November 1988 publication of Policy and Supporting Positions lists
the position of "Chief Director, Medical Center"

at the V. A. Medical Center in Wilkes-Barre as a "PL" type of appointment. The "Legend" on page (v) defines PL as follows:

Position excepted from the competitive civil service by statute.
If this category has been changed, I would appreciate an explanation.

Regardless of the position's career or political status, it was my understanding during my 30 years of Federal service that I would qualify in both categories:

Career - as a 28-year Civil Service Career employee at a senior management level in the Executive and Legislative branches.

Political - as a former Republican Member of Congress and Co-Chairman of the Bush Campaign in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Again, I would appreciate an explanation of any misunderstanding of current policies or regulations I may have.

Thank you for the courtesy of contacting me on other opportunities as they develop. In all candor though, Andy, OPP made this promise in December 1988. Since then, it is I who have been doing
all the contacting.

Good luck, Andy! I wish you and yours well. Should the opportunity arise, please convey my best to the President.

Dear Andy:

I would like to reiterate my interest in serving the President in a White House position. After leaving Bush and Company, I continue to serve as a schedule C (GS-13\14) for the Under Secretary of Defense (Acquisition) in the area of international programs. I assist in the implementation of the Defense Management Review and in the creation of directives that would streamline the international acquisition process.

While I feel my background and experience at DoD would suit me well for a position in Intergovernmental\Political Affairs, Public Liaison, Cabinet Affairs, Policy Development or the Office of the Vice President, I would consider other offices.

I realize the demand for your time is great, however I would appreciate 5 minutes at any time of the day to discuss the best possible approach.

Thanks for keeping me in mind and I look forward to speaking with you at your convenience.

Dear Andy,

I believe you are familiar with the volunteer work I did for nearly a year in the campaign. You also have probably heard that the assignments I had hoped for in the administration just did not materialize.

However, you probably are not aware of my extensive background in international sports and sports politics. Since I understand you are heading up one or more task forces in this area I thought you should know of my experience in this area (see attached).

During the transition, at the request of Bob Grady, I drafted a position paper on sports, fitness and health. I have been involved internationally in the three biggest sporting events in the world: The Olympic Games, soccer's World Cup and yachting's America's Cup.

I also have worked closely with the President's Council On Physical Fitness & Sports since its very first meeting. And, by the way, my former firm was Arnold Schwarzenegger's first public relations representatives when he came to the U.S.

I am familiar with the work done of the President's Commission On Olympic Sports, the Amateur Sports Act of 1978 and am tuned-in to the politics of amateur and professional sport domestically and internationally.

If ever I can be of help, please let me know.

Regards,

Rene A. Henry, Jr.
