Dear Mrs. Daniels,

Thank you for your recent letter to the White House regarding Special Assistant to the President Doug Wead.

Over the years Doug has been a valuable member of the President's team and has served him faithfully. For several months, however, Doug has been discussing with a variety of people, and specifically with me, his decision to leave his White House position to pursue other avenues. During that period of time, several options were presented to Doug and discussed.

A short time ago, a mutual decision was made that Doug would end his tenure here as of September 1. Both Doug and others here recognize that there have been rumors and innuendos regarding his decision to leave. None of these have any basis in truth.

The President has named Ms. Lee Ann Metzger as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. Lee Ann shares your values and concerns. You will find that she brings a wealth of experience to the job and will be a valuable addition to our team.

Thank you again for taking the time to write and share your thoughts with us.

Washington DC 20500

Dear President Bush,

I strongly disagree with the firing of Mr Doug Wead, from his position as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. He has defended you, been loyal to you and served you faithfully. Please reinstate him.

Firing Mr Doug Wead is a major blow for the thousands of your friends who depend on you to defend traditional family values. You promised us when we elected you that you would defend these traditional family values.

The homosexual activists, who represent only 2 to 3 % of the people, are not the ones who elected you. They are a minute minority. More than once they have been invited to the White House for ceremonies. They seem to have more influence on you than your friends who elected you. These homosexual activists are so well organized that they have brought about the dismissal of Mr Doug Wead. They will never be loyal to you or to our Lord. They are under the judgment of God, and to honor them in the White House brings judgment on our nation. Our nation was founded by Christians who honored God and the Bible. If we expect the Lord to bless our nation, we must honor and obey Him and His Bible.

Respectfully yours,

Beulah Belle Daniels

Dear Mr. Bush,

I just wanted to let you know that I'm very unhappy about the firing of Mr. Doug Weed. Mr. Weed represented millions of Americans in terms of a moral America. I would like to ask you to re-consider the employ of Mr. Weed, and not be swayed by a ~~few~~ mere 2% of American opinion. This is still a government of the majority of America, is it not?

President Bush,

I recently heard that Doug Wead was fired from his position on your staff. From what I hear he was a good man and his dismissal was due to his position against homosexuals. Any man you will hire as Mr. Wead's replacement will not be worth his salt if he will bow his knee to the issue or issues for which Mr. Wead was terminated.

Please do reconsider your decision over this matter. I am farmer and not involved with any right wing political group. Thank you for your time.

Dear President Bush:

We like many others in central Louisiana Supported you in your election for President. WE have virbally and with our prayers held you up in the community.

This is not a station opinion, only a personal one from my Husband, Coy and myself. But you were so highly regarded by many of us who feel that you have let American Christians down by your dismissal of Doug Weaks.

We believe that you should love the homosexuals, but not condone their lifestyle. We feel that by your choice you have chosen the perverse over the sanctity of the family.

Please believe this will be greatly considered in the next Presidential election.

We appreciate the stand you have taken on the abortion issue. PLEASE DON'T LET US DOWN BY ALLOWING SIN IN THE CAMP. Joshua 6:18. We will continue to pray for wisdom in this very trying time for you.

I sincerely hope you are not attempting to straddle the fence.

Dear Mr. President:

Please consider this letter my strong protest and dissatisfaction of your permitting the termination of Mr. Doug Wead as your liaison officer in your administration.

We need more of the type of man that Mr. Wead is in both the executive branch and legislative branch of federal government, not fewer of them.

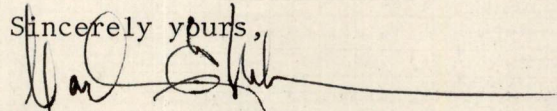

You profess to be a born again Christian, why have you as the head of state not insisted on appointing men of integrity and conviction in your administration?

We have enough of political hacks in government. Men who continually vacillate on every major issue it seems, and in Congress men whose only ambition seems to be reelected as soon as they arrive in Washington.

I can assure you that there soon will be multiplied millions of Christians in American like myself who will be fed up with the immorality in government at all levels, the current S & L crisis being only one example and instead of being passive and non-involved in the electoral process, we will finally through prayer and exercising our rights to nominate and vote in men of honesty and integrity clean up the mess that is now so prevelant in Washington.

Please be assured of our prayers and may you be very sensitive to His direction in your heavy responsibilities as our President, each day.

Sincerely yours,

Carl E. Nelson

Dear Mr. President:

I was greatly distressed to hear of the firing of Doug Wead, the Christian liason between the White House and the large fundamentalist Christian community. The fact that he was dismissed because of his biblical stance against homosexuality was even more disturbing.

I voted for you because I thought you espoused traditional family values. Homosexuality is totally opposite and alien to Christianity and the family.

Homosexuals account for only 2% of the total population but are so loud they are getting whatever they want. I didn't raise my children to be a part of this destructive lifestyle, and it's for sure homosexuals are not going to reproduce their kind - it's only through recruiting our children and grandchildren that they can continue to exist.

Please re-evaluate your position on this most important issue.

Dear Mr. President,

The people here in the Midwest are deeply concerned that you have dismissed Mr. Douglas Wead. They feel it a disgrace that you would eliminate the public liaison for one-third of the American voting public, the evangelical community.

The Washington Times said that the dismissal related to Doug's stand regarding homosexuality. If you would read in the Bible Romans Chapter One, you would see how homosexuals come into being. If you study them, they have up to 300 mates with whom they commit sin.

The people of this area are deeply disappointed and looking forward to your reinstatement of Mr. Wead.

Sincerely,

Dr. Lester Sumrall

HOW TO COMPLETE A DHL AIRBILL

PLEASE ENSURE THAT YOUR PACKAGE IS CLEARLY LABELED.

Just follow these 11 simple steps when filling out your DHL Airbill.

1. SHIPPER'S ACCOUNT NUMBER:

Fill in your assigned DHL nine-digit account number. If you do not have one, please complete payment details in Box 10 or ask your local DHL office for assistance.

2. SHIPPER'S REFERENCE:

Fill in your own reference information: the first 12 characters will appear on your invoice.

3. PIECES/WEIGHT:

The weight of the shipment is subject to correction. Please round up the weight to the nearest 1 lb. If your shipment is light but bulky it may be subject to an additional surcharge.

4. SENT BY:

Please list your company name, your name and department and your telephone number.

5. RECIPIENT:

Include company name and address, the name of the recipient (consignee) department including suite number and telephone number. DHL cannot deliver to Post Office Box numbers.

6. SERVICE: INTERNATIONAL AND USA OVERNIGHT SHIPMENTS:

DOCUMENT: For domestic or non dutiable international shipments. Please call your local DHL office for assistance.

EXPRESS DOCUMENTS: For domestic or non dutiable international shipments of up to 15 packages and placed in DHL Express Document packaging. Please check with your local DHL office for the availability of this service.

WORLDWIDE PACKAGE EXPRESS: For international commercial value shipments. Requires a signed Proforma or Commercial Invoice.

WORLDMAIL: Call your local DHL office for further information. Indicate 1st or 2nd Class as appropriate.

SATURDAY SERVICE: Contact your local DHL office for availability and rates.

INSURANCE: Check appropriate box and enter amount. If you request DHL to purchase insurance on your behalf (US $50 per $100.00 of coverage) list the amount of coverage in the space indicated. Insurance coverage is not to exceed US $25,000, unless prior arrangements have been made. Insurance against consequential loss is not available.

PROOF OF DELIVERY: Indicate if a telex confirmation or photocopied facsimile providing time of delivery and recipients name is required. Please insert your fax or telex number (with answer back) in the space provided.

OTHER: Contact your local DHL office about additional available services.

REMEMBER TO KEEP YOUR COPY OF THE AIRBILL. REFER TO THE AIRBILL NUMBER IN ANY CORRESPONDENCE WITH DHL.

ONFORWARDING: Deliveries to some locations may incur additional surcharges from the nearest DHL office to the recipient.

EXPRESS CENTER DROP BOX DISCOUNT: Contact your local DHL office for availability and rates.

7. DESCRIPTION AND CONTENTS:

Accurately and briefly describe contents of shipment including any markings on the packages. If your goods are packed in non DHL packaging please enter dimensions in the spaces provided.

8. INFORMATION FOR WORLDWIDE PACKAGE EXPRESS SHIPMENTS:

For commercial value international shipments.

TOTAL DECLARED VALUE: Must match the total Proforma Invoice value. For shipments to Canada valued at $900.00 (CAN) or more, a Canadian Customs Invoice is required. For an international shipment valued at US $1,500.00 or more, a Shipper's letter of Instruction/Export Declaration is required. This figure does not alter DHL's liability limits and is not a request for insurance. (For document shipments, state "No Value Declared").

EXPORTERS EIN or SSN: For commercial value international shipments valued at more than US $1,500 if a company, enter employer I.D. number, if an individual, enter your social security number.

EXPORT LICENSE NUMBER: Provide a valid license number and expiration date.

ULTIMATE DESTINATION: Federal law requires that this information must be provided if:

- (i) The value of the shipment is US $1,500 or more; or
- (ii) The shipment requires any form of licensing; or
- (iii) The shipment is proprietary or technical data.

9. IMPORT CHARGES:

Indicate whether you wish to be billed for the duty and government taxes incurred on the importation of dutiable shipments into the country of destination. It will be assumed that the recipient will pay for these charges if this box is not completed.

10. METHOD OF PAYMENT:

Indicate type of payment. If payment is by VISA, Master Card or American Express fill in your credit card number and expiration date. If the recipient or a third party is to be billed, check box and fill in recipient's or a third party's DHL account number. Special arrangements may be required for billing the recipient or a third party. Liability remains with the shipper if charges cannot be collected from the designated recipient or third party.

11. SHIPPER'S SIGNATURE:

The shipper must sign the airbill here, and in so doing the shipper accepts DHL's terms and conditions of carriage, which are printed on the reverse of the shipper's copy of this airbill.

Dear Mr. President:

Surely you have made a mistake, Mr. President, in the dismissal of your loyal assistant for Public Liaison, Mr. Doug Head. His presence on your staff has long been a big plus in our opinion. We strongly urge you to reconsider that decision; you need more men like Doug Head - men of fine character and high moral values dedicated to the traditional values most Americans hold dear.

Though lifelong Republicans, our commitment to Judeo-Christian values & the traditional family supercedes any party loyalty. The obvious clout of the heavily financed homosexual lobby representing a very vocal minority concerns us. We object to their being invited to the White House and we support Doug Neade's stand. Please consider his reinstatement.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mr. President,

Upon travelling to Aspen, Co. for a brief vacation, my husband and I were listening to the radio. It was announced that Doug Weed, liason was fired for standing up for what he believed.

My daily prayer for our Nation is that God will raise up Men and women of courage, integrity and honesty in high places, so this firing is upsetting to us.

I appeal to you to have the courage to reconsider Mr. Weed and reinstate him into this valuable leadership position.

Yes, and I hold you in my prayers each day as you lead this nation, and your family.

Dear Mrs. Hennessee,

Thank you for your recent letter to the White House regarding Special Assistant to the President Doug Wead.

Over the years Doug has been a valuable member of the President's team and has served him faithfully. For several months, however, Doug has been discussing with a variety of people, and specifically with me, his decision to leave his White House position to pursue other avenues. During that period of time, several options were presented to Doug and discussed.

A short time ago, a mutual decision was made that Doug would end his tenure here as of September 1. Both Doug and others here recognize that there have been rumors and innuendos regarding his decision to leave. None of these have any basis in truth.

The President has named Ms. Lee Ann Metzger as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. Lee Ann shares your values and concerns. You will find that she brings a wealth of experience to the job and will be a valuable addition to our team.

Thank you again for taking the time to write and share your thoughts with us.

Dear President Bush:

You may well never see this letter but I do trust those who handle your mail will pass along my concern. I have been unable to get through on the opinion line, thus this letter.

I want to strongly object to the firing of Mr Doug Wead. Mr Wead was a strong advocate of Christian values and I can't help but wonder Mr President, if your interests are being well served by the firing of a man like Doug Wead?

Would you please reconsider this action.
Thank YOU.

Dear President Bush,

I am writing for several reasons. The first is to express my sorry at the firing of Doug Weab, Special Assistant to the President. I cannot ~~ed~~ understand the reasoning for it and I would like to know why you allowed it to happen.

Next I would like to talk to you about the way you seem to be turning in another direction than the one you were going when running for president. I voted for you because I understood that you stood for the family values that have made this nation great and now you have ~~signed~~ signed two bills that support homosexuals and their life styles. And then you also invited them to the White House for the signing. Mr. President they do not represent moral family values and furthermore they campaigned against you in the election. The Homosexual lifestyle is not a normal lifestyle and should not be condoned by the government. You are a Christian and I know you read the Bible. God said it is wrong and that should be all the reason we need.

I also feel my taxes should not go to the NEA that funds artist or any programs that are against my Christian values. The money can be used for better things. Just take the $171 million and put it toward our debt and ~~don't~~ then you won't have to raise taxes.

Remember you said read your lips "No New Taxes" and that is what we all heard. But now you have changed your mind on this issue also. ~~That~~ Higher taxes will only mean the government will spend more, Congress will raise their salaries and all their benefits and money will continue to be misused. Now is the time to stop this. Not tomorrow or next year but now, you expect the individual to balance their budget we also expect our government to do the same.
People are tired of being lied to and given the run-around.

Mr President I know you probably will never see this letter and one of your Aids will write me back but somehow I hope you will know Christians are watching and we do go to the polls and vote. We care about this country that was founded on Christian values. If we turn away from God he will no longer allow this country to be the free country we have been.

May God be first in your life always with everything you do and say.

Love in Christ

PRESIDENT GEORGE BUSH
THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON DC 20500

Dear President Bush:

We are very disappointed in your accepting and recognizing of homosexuals in the White House and in your unjustified firing of Doug Wead from your White House staff. Recognizing homosexuals as legitimate lifestyles is a serious blow to this country and is anti-family, anti-Bible and totally against the Judeo-Christian values upon which this country was founded.

We believe that these moves are a weakening of your position of pro family and pro country stance which you expressed when campaigning for your office and again upon taking the office of the Presidency of the United States.

We hope and pray that this trend will be reversed, Mr. Wead will be reinstated, and pro family, pro country, and pro Bible individuals will be placed in positions of authority in your administration. We are praying for you, your staff, Congress, all others in the government and those in the Judicial Branch of the government.

Thank you.

Dear Mr. President

You have made a terrible mistake by firing Mr. Douglas Wead from his office.

He was one man that was helpful to all especially, the Christian believers in this country.

I had a lot of Faith and hope in you Mr. President, but after things that have happened in the last few months it is fading.

I've had you and your family in my Prayer daily.

Some people don't bother to read the Old Testament. God is the ^{same} today as He was then. Chapter Ezekiel 25-1-11 is a good explanation.

Excellency:

Dear Mr. President Bush,

we are missionaries and just returned from overseas.

While listening to the news we heard to our dismay the Mr. Dough Wead was released from his position.

It is sad, that the conservative and christian citizen has no more voice in the United State Government.

And the minority groups, like pro-abortionist and gay and lesbianist groups have all the right.

They did not vote for you. It is people like my husband and our family who did vote for you.

Also giving money to the art from our taxes is not right. Especially where the art offended our Lord Jesus Christ.

We are proud to be citizen of this country and would not live anywhere in the world. We are naturalized citizen and proud of it.

Living in the mission field, many times people introduce us as German and when we ask why, the American has a bad name there. We are still proud of being American. We hope you will install Mr. Dough Wead again, then we need a voice also and not only the minorities.

We are praying for you,
The Lord bless you,
and your family,
Sincerely

CALL!
CALL! CALL!

THE PRESIDENT'S FAMILY PRAYS

The boy winced with pain. The doctor looked grave. He examined the leg and pursed his lips, "It's not likely we can save it!" The boy sat up stiffly. "What does that mean?" he asked huskily.

"It means," explained old Dr. Conklin gently, "If things get worse we will have to amputate."

"Not me!" stormed the boy. "I won't have it! I would rather die."

"The longer we wait, the more we will have to take off," urged the Doctor.

"You won't take any off!" The boy's voice broke with a boyish crack, as his mother turned away, shaken. But there was no boyishness in the eyes that defied the doctor's reproachful gaze. (It all began with a scratch, but now it was a matter of life or death.) They left the bedroom; the doctor warned the parents.

The sick boy called his brother Ed and sent him to the kitchen to get a fork to bite on, to keep him from screaming.

"If I go out of my head, Ed, don't let them cut my leg off. Promise me, Ed. PROMISE." Then Edgar stood outside the bedroom door, his arms folded. Quite clearly he was standing on guard.

The fever mounted, and the suffering boy babbled in torment, but the elder brother showed no weakening resolve. Ed remained firm because he had promised, and he shared also the frontiersmen's horror of being less than physically perfect.

Eventually, in helpless dismay, Dr. Conklin shouted: "It's murder!" and hastily left the house. Nothing but a miracle could save the boy now.

Mother and father and elder brother now remembered their faith in the midst of their fears.

"Call upon Me in the day of trouble, I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify Me" (Ps. 50:15).

PRAYER was left. GOD was there.

In this desperate hour, the three bended their knees at the bedside. They prayed in turn, continuing through the night. The next night four other brothers joined them in prayer. It was the next morning when the old doctor called again, that his experienced eye noted that the swelling was going down! Dr. Conklin offered a spontaneous prayer of his own—prayer of thanksgiving. The boy had dropped into a normal sleep, but the family continued the vigil of prayer.

Three weeks later—pale and weak, but with clear eyes and strong voice—the boy stood on his feet.

IKE EISENHOWER was ready to face life again.

"Call upon Me in the day of trouble, I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify Me."

God, through prayer, gave to the world the Liberator of Europe.

Do you pray? Have you ever realized the mighty power of true prayer?

In true prayer there is a sense of companionship. In the home of the Eisenhowers during those two desperate days and nights the family was not alone. God was there. He is at hand for you also. Turn to Him now. "Call upon Me."

Note the ring of certainty. "I will deliver thee." There is a strange and holy dogmatism about the promises of God.

Mark the desperate alternative. There is no picking and choosing. The issues are wonderfully simple.

This Divine Companion—or heart loneliness?

This Divine Deliverer—or servitude to evil?

This Divine Saviour—or none at all.

And how simple is the plea. "Call!" —that is all.

Dear Mr. President,

I want to say that I am very disappointed to hear about the firing of ~~Mr.~~ Mr. Doug Weed. He stood for what I and millions of others believed in, which was good Christian values. These are the same millions of people who voted you into office. The people of the homosexual groups which only make up a very small percent did in fact not want you to be in office in fact most of them voted for your ~~opponent~~ running mate. I think that it hurt you rather than helped you by letting these homosexuals come into the White House & sign that hate bill. Mr. Weed knew that and was very aware of the controversy that would follow. Thank. Please reconsider his termination. You

Dear President Bush:

My husband and I protest the firing of Douglas Weed from the Presidential staff. In writing to evangelical groups to explain (and apologize for) the inviting of gay rights leaders to the White House for bill signings, Mr. Weed acted in a right and proper way. He reflected the concerns of millions of Americans who do not hate homosexuals, but are concerned that in giving them recognition, and accepting their lifestyle, those who would otherwise seek to get help to leave the gay way of life are condemned to a lifetime of sadness, disease, and guilt. We are concerned, too, that children and teens vulnerable to the issue of sexual orientation be sucked into homosexuality.

I understand that the argument has been made by the White House that gays and lesbians were included in the bill signing because "President Bush represents all Americans." ~~As~~ You also represent murderers, pedophiles, thieves and members of the Mob. That doesn't mean that representatives of these groups are singled out for recognition and privilege by the White House.

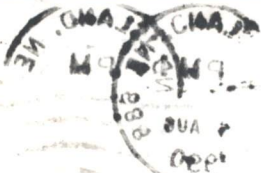

Sincerely,

Mrs. Fran Ediger

I am writing to you concerning the firing of Mr. Doug Wead. If what I am hearing is true, that the reason for his firing is because he continues to speak out against the homosexual movement, then my confidence in your value system has been damaged.

I want to register my protest concerning Mr. Doug Wead's firing. Would you reconsider your decision?

Please do not disgrace traditional family values and the God in whom I trust by catering to the homosexual community.

Dear Mr. President:

I voted for you and have defended you and your lovely wife many times. I feel you brought dignity, character and moral strength to the White House. Yes, I have admired you and Barbara for the stand you take.

However, I was disappointed in the firing of Doug Wead. A man who stood for truth and righteousness.

I believe the catering to homosexuality is a sad happening for the family in America.

Mr. President in the Bible - Romans 1:24-32 tells what God says concerning homosexuals. I believe Psalms 33:12 and 11 Chronicles 7:14 are a warning to us in America.

I hope Mr. President you will revoke this decision.

I hope and pray America is not headed down the drain.

Dear Mr. President,

I would like to register my strong disapproval of the firing of Doug Wead. I am a Christian that voted for you along with millions of other Christians because you said you were a Christian that wanted to uphold Christian and family values. However, in the recent past, your actions have made me doubt your honesty and integrity. Some of these actions include the firing of Mr. Wead, the invitation of homosexual leaders to attend the signing of the Hate Crimes Bill (you were the first president to ever legitimize the homo lifestyle), your support of funding the NEA and their anti-Christian bigotry, your welcoming pro-abortion advocates into the Republican Party, and breaking your promise of no new taxes.

Millions of Christians are watching and we won't forget your dishonesty when it comes time to elect another President unless you apologize to the Christians you've embarrassed and change your decisions.

The homos and liberals you're embracing didn't vote for you in the last election and they won't vote for you in the next one. I think you're cutting your own political throat. Nobody, not even liberals and homos, likes a person that is dishonest.

The Bible says that God put you in power and that we are supposed to pray for you. I have been praying for you and will continue to diligently pray for you. Just remember that you will have to answer to God for the way you led this great country.

Sincerely yours,

Billy J. Smith

I realize homosexuals are very powerful in influencing our media, movies, television etc., but I am always guarding my children's minds against this influence. I voted for you because I believed you would oppose those who are bent on destroying our family values, hence destroying our country.

Dear President Bush,

I strongly object to the firing of Doug Wead. I'm a democrat who has strongly supported you and your party for some years. My one reason for strongly supporting you and the republican candidates was all of you seemed to support moral values and conservative views.

I see that view slowly changing. you said no new taxes, you are pro life, no group who chose a certain life style would not be granted civil rights as our blacks and other minority deserve. The firing of Doug Wead is another red flag item that has me concerned about whether you are going to do as many of our pro life candidates have done. The press has made them run scared on that issue

I am familiar with your speeches getting into the office of presidency. as a matter of fact I voted for you. all that you said I believed. I took you at your word.

However, I'm sorry to say I am highly disappointed in your recent actions. like the firing of Doug Weed. I believe this to be poor judgement.

The Bible is very specific about it's punishments to those who are lesbian and gay. It's very immoral and God won't stand for it.

I pray also that your decision on abortion is still against, or God will also be ~~being~~ judging you very ~~seriously~~ on this matter since you are in authority of many people.

I'm sorry Mr. President but I have to say unless something changes I see the way your headed I will not vote for you again.

I was shocked and disappointed when I heard that you had fired Doug Wead from your staff. Mr. Wead has stood for conservative family values. He is a voice for those of us who are shunned by the media. You have been given wrong advice. You have compromised your standards by listening to those who have encouraged you to include homosexuals in White House meetings. These homosexuals are ruining our society. For several months, however, Doug has been discussing with a variety of people, and specifically with me, his decision to leave his White House position to pursue other avenues. During that period of time, several options were presented to Doug and discussed.

A short time ago, a mutual decision was made that Doug would end his tenure here as of September 1. Both Doug and others here recognize that there have been rumors and innuendos regarding his decision to leave. None of these have any basis in truth.

Mr. President,

8-3-90

At present my husband & I have been giving volunteer time to our local Republican party supporting your re-election. It was bad enough to hear about your honoring of the minority homosexual groups, but now firing Mr. Doug Wead is a BIG mistake.

Mr. President we have always supported ~~for~~ you, pray for you & voted for you because of your refreshing, wholesome stand for the traditional pro-family issues. If you don't continue to strongly stand for the majority of conservative Americans we will not support you any longer.

Mr. Bush where do you stand; whose side are you on? Straddling the fence won't make it. Please don't bow down to the voracious minority sub-cultures.

Dear Mr. President:

We want to protest the recent firing of Mr. Doug Wead as one of your Special Assistants, which is a position of importance.

Mr. Wead represented the views of the Conservatives, and that of the Evangelicals. We need Christians and God-fearing men and women in our Government to give it a sense of stability and endurance, and most of all HOPE. We certainly do not need people who are ultra liberal in their views and who seemingly do not know the difference between right and wrong.

Let us never forget that we are a Christian nation; our Government was founded on Christian beliefs and principals which is often forgotten in the rush of business and in the heat of debate. The Foundinf Fathers acted wisely in laying the foundation of our Nation in God-given Truths.

We voted for you in the last election but if you continue to heed the advice and recommendations of liberals and non-christians over that of men like Doug Wead it is certain that Christians across the nation will withhold their votes from you in the 1992 election.

In our opinion the Christian vote played a major role in electing you as President of the United States.

Dear Mr. President,

I am writing to express my disbelief and shock of hearing about the firing of Doug Weed, one of your advisers for the religious right.

He is one of the finest Christian men and it seems that we have so few of them in government.

I am not aware of all that transpired concerning this firing, but I understand that it concerned some advice that he gave you of his opposition to the homosexual groups visit to the White House. Etc.

Well, we know that he ↗ was Paid to advise you on these matters. The homosexuals did not put you in Office, Mr. President,

And they will not be voting

Dear President George Bush:

I just want to share with you that I am very upset with the firing of Doug Wead. I voted for you because I was under the impression that you would uphold moral values in this country and along with many other Christians I trusted you to do so. That is why so many Christians voted for you and I'm not alone in being disappointed with some of the recent happenings.

I understand that Mr. Wead was fired because of his Christian, Bible-based, God-serving views on homosexuals differing with yours. This will be on my mind, among other things you have been doing, as I choose whom to vote for in the next election. For example: allowing tax money for the NEA, your welcoming pro-abortion people in the Republican party.

As a Christian, a disciple of Jesus Christ, I feel you have used us. You have used our language and yet have not shown yourself to be true to Christian views. To me that is being "two-faced" and I am very disappointed in you, for whom I had felt so comfortable voting.

We'll see about the next election.

I am appalled at the news that Doug Wead has been fired. How can you fire someone who was hired to be a liaison between Christians and the White House, and when he tells you what we believe, he is fired!

When I voted for you, I thought you would at least listen to my views as a Christian, and Doug's appointment was a

I am saddened and shocked by the firing of Mr. Doug Wead, however and think that you made a terrible mistake in letting this fine, Christian gentleman go. Mr. Wead did a great service for the cause of Jesus Christ in the White House and it is a shame that he was let go. I disagree also, sir in having homosexuals allowed into the White House for the signing of the hate-crimes bill and for handicapped individuals. Dear Mr. President,

The firing of Mr. Doug Weads has been upsetting to us, as he promoted traditional family values as far as we know. The reason seems to be his stand against promotion of homo-sexual lifestyle. We fully support him & hope you reconsider your action. AIDS is a tragedy and unnecessary. These people need to know we love them, but hate the sin.

Also, we feel the National Endowment of the Arts should no longer be funded. The trash our tax dollars are supporting is unbelievable.

Why should taxpayers be expected to bail out the S & L's? Terrible losses and no one seems to be held accountable.

These are some of our concerns today. Raising taxes is not the answer, cutting spending is. We are certainly wondering why you are doing the things you do! Also we feel Russia is a wolf in sheep's clothing.

Please Mrs. President, work to promote God's Holy Word in a nation that has lost its way.

Dear Mr President Bush:

You are disappointing many of us who worked locally to influence people to vote for you and we voted for you -- but the way you are bowing to homosexuals and ignoring Fundamental Christians I believe we the Christian element in America - will a-mass against you, at the next election! — This last act, firing Mr Weed, is a hard slap in the face of Christians & USA morals! He was "our" voice to you!

We do urge you to remember your many campaign promises and the things you stood for - America was founded on high morals and religious convictions & equality - The Evangelical Christian is not being considered much - and believe me, we are not the minority! If pushed, we can unite our prayers & efforts and vote in a concerned conservative President! PLEASE stop funding this vile vulgar National Arts not too! —

Sincerely & Hopefully
Mrs G Herald Taylor

Dear Ms. Skinner,

Thank you for your recent letter to the White House regarding Special Assistant to the President Doug Wead.

Over the years Doug has been a valuable member of the President's team and has served him faithfully. For several months, however, Doug has been discussing with a variety of people, and specifically with me, his decision to leave his White House position to pursue other avenues. During that period of time, several options were presented to Doug and discussed.

A short time ago, a mutual decision was made that Doug would end his tenure here as of September 1. Both Doug and others here recognize that there have been rumors and innuendos regarding his decision to leave. None of these have any basis in truth.

The President has named Ms. Lee Ann Metzger as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. Lee Ann shares your values and concerns. You will find that she brings a wealth of experience to the job and will be a valuable addition to our team.

Thank you again for taking the time to write and share your thoughts with us.

Sincerely,

Andrew H. Card, Jr.
Assistant to the President and
Deputy to the Chief of Staff

Dear President Bush,

I am extremely disappointed in your position of compromise on the Homosexual issue. Firing Doug Wead (a christian with value) for his view on the opposition to the Homosexual community was unjust, unfair and did not recognize the constituent that voted you into office.

My heart sinks, as a mother of two boys, to see how the world and now our leaders are catering to the one sect whose behavior is bring on a deadly disease. This disease of AID's has been handled politically thus insulating the "Gays", As opposed to medically!

I fear the future for our children who are unprotected medically and well as educationally from the Homosexual community.

Now that you are considering the HOMOSEXUAL lobby ~~and~~ ^{as} "acceptable" where is a parent to go for support for our children.

Please respond to my deep concern.
