Dear Mr. Hibbard,

Thank you for your recent letter to the White House regarding Special Assistant to the President Doug Wead.

Over the years Doug has been a valuable member of the President's team and has served him faithfully. For several months, however, Doug has been discussing with a variety of people, and specifically with me, his decision to leave his White House position to pursue other avenues. During that period of time, several options were presented to Doug and discussed.

A short time ago, a mutual decision was made that Doug would end his tenure here as of September 1. Both Doug and others here recognize that there have been rumors and innuendos regarding his decision to leave. None of these have any basis in truth.

The President has named Ms. Lee Ann Metzger as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. Lee Ann shares your values and concerns. You will find that she brings a wealth of experience to the job and will be a valuable addition to our team.

Thank you again for taking the time to write and share your thoughts with us.

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing to you in regard to the firing of Doug Wead. It is appalling to think that someone who upholds the traditional family values would lose his position because of pressure by a group of immoralists like the homosexuals! This is an outrage and a slap in the face to all of us who voted for you that believes in Christian principles!

Mr. President, please read Romans, Chapter 1. In this chapter the Greek empire had turned their back on God. They wanted their own gods, to live their own perverse life-styles, and destroy all that Christianity stands for. There were unnatural acts - men with men, women with women. God's judgement on that nation was to let them have what they asked for. No guidelines - just whatever felt good to them. No matter if any one else was effected by what they did, they continued on. Eventually their empire was destroyed from within. This sounds like our nation today. We're sitting back and letting the ungodly ruin our country that so many have died for!

The very sin of homosexuality is being brought into our nation's capitol and being overlooked by those who make our laws! What has happened to morality? I cannot understand the obsession with homosexuality. Our nation is in judgement now - AIDS!! The homosexuals don't want to take the responsibility of spreading this disease, but AIDS is primarily in the homosexual community!

Nature itself tells one that homosexuality is not normal!! We need people in leadership who have standards above those of an alley cat! This has got to stop!

The term "our rights" has been used to totally do away with any moral guidelines! Sodomy is a sin against God! and against nature! There must be a change! So many times Christians are persecuted when they stand up for our basic moral standards! Mr. Wead is a prime example of that persecution!

We had better wake-up as a nation and get back to the basics our nation was founded on!

The homosexuals only carry 3% of the vote in this nation. You can bet they didn't vote for you! No offense meant - but they knew you were a Christian and they knew you had moral standards! I voted for you because of your stand on abortion, and because I really felt you believed in traditional family values! President Bush, please don't prove me wrong! Don't let these people destroy our wonderful nation from within!

Thank you for your time. I'll be praying for you and others in the administration. Please help us to bring this country

Dear Mr. President,

I am a dedicated republican - so far! I've worked at the polls, I canvassed neighborhoods, helped with dinners to raise money for our party, etc. The picture has changed. I am now ashamed to be a republican, which I have been for many years. Hearing about the dismissal of Doug Wead who had done an excellent job for many years has really turned me against you. As a Christian I cannot understand why you have turned your back on the evangelical community who helped put you in office.

When I heard that your phone was ringing off the hook by homosexuals commending you for dismissing Mr. Wead I just couldn't believe it. They are less than 10 percent of our population and make the most noise. When you cater to them you are going against God's Word, you are sacrificing your honor for these people. My feeling is one of compassion for them, and I do pray for them. I'm so thankful that your wife shows compassion for the little ones born with aids and I just can't see how you can condone the actions of the homosexuals. What is so frightening is that you must realize that you are accountable to God who created you! I could quote many verses from the Bible to substantiate what I have written but I think that you really know better than to do what you are doing in behalf of God's children.

I am hoping and praying that things will change for the good of God's people or we will all be destroyed!

Remembering you in prayer!

P.S. My husband thinks as do!

wants to forgive us and give us a full, meaningful life. When we trust in Jesus Christ and let Him put our lives together, the Bible says that we become "God's masterpieces, created in Christ Jesus."⁵ Can anyone be more special than that?

Yes, you are valuable to God! If you have never trusted Jesus Christ for your salvation, you can accept His love for you today.

God considers you so important that He will not force His love upon you. You must choose to receive it. "As many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name."⁶

You're Special

You're Special

"There are no ordinary people. You have never talked to a mere mortal," wrote C. S. Lewis. It's true—each one of us is a special creation of God.

Believe it or not—no one else is just like you. Your physical appearance, your voice and personality traits—your habits, intelligence, personal tastes—all these make you one of a kind. Even your fingerprints distinguish you from every other human being—past, present or future. You are not the product of some cosmic assembly line; you are unique.

But the most important facet of your identity is that God created you in His own image.¹ He made you so you could share in His creation, could love and laugh and know Him person to person. You are special indeed!

The Bible reveals God's total interest in you as an individual. The psalmist wrote in one of his most beautiful prayers, "I will praise Thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made:"² God knew you even before you were born. Then, and now, He has plans just for you, plans conceived in love.

As we appreciate God's constant concern for us, we really begin to grasp the awfulness of sin. He loves you and me so much; yet how often we go our own way, turning our backs on Him. God's designs for our lives are then blocked; His mercies do not come to the unwilling.

But even here we are precious to God, for He continues to love us even when we pay Him no mind. He still sees us as individuals with great value. No wonder the psalmist declared, "How precious are Thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them! if I should count them, they are more in number than the sand."³ God is not an unfeeling, cold-hearted monarch of the heavens. He feels our pains; He shares our sorrows. He cares, and He considers each one of us important enough to love.

In fact, He loves us so much that He gave His only Son to die for our sins. "Herein is love," the Bible says, "not that we loved God, but that He loved us, and sent His Son to be the propitiation (full payment) for our sins."⁴

Because you and I are special to God, He

Dear Mr. President:

I am appalled at the firing of Doug Wead!

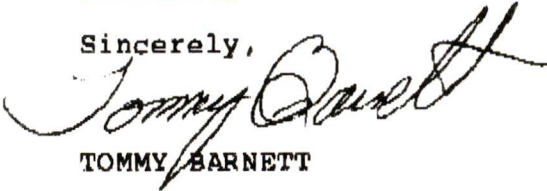

I am one of about twenty religious leaders who met in the Ritz Carlton under the direction of Pat Robertson and Jerry Falwell. We organized to get the evangelical community registered to vote. Together we registered millions of voters.

I have an annual Pastors' School that I host at which over 4,000 pastors and leaders attend. Each one represents an entire congregation. We strongly urge the attendees to register their people to vote as we know they will vote in the conservative camp.

Mr. President, I have been one of your greatest supporters and fans, but we the evangelicals have been dealt a big blow in the firing of Doug Wead. I want you to know that the whole evangelical world is in an uproar. Please do not think that this will just blow over. I believe if some consideration is not made, this will haunt you.

The evangelicals will find an alternate candidate if forced to. I urge you to reconsider the firing of Doug Wead. We, your biggest block of supporters, feel we have been betrayed. I strongly urge you to do something about this before it becomes a major issue in the evangelical community.

Sincerely,

Dear President Bush:

You have made a grave mistake in the firing of Doug Wead.

His release due to his stand against abortion and the homosexual crowd is unconscionable.

Are you next planning to adopt the Democratic platform?

We, the Fundamentalists of the nation, will rise up with all our might to bring a strong candidate against you in the next election if you do not retract this great miscarriage of justice.

Re: The Firing of Doug Wead

Dear President Bush:

When I heard of your reason for firing Doug Wead, I was appalled at your action. I thought when I helped vote you in that you were a man after the heart of God. We have been deceived and your action to fire a man, who would stand against killing our babies and would not tolerate the sickness of homosexual practices, is a disgrace to you and your administration. I for one, of many, am going to vote against you in your next election. I thought we had a "man" in office "not a wimp".

We, the Christians, are going to make a stand for once and fight such garbage, against your administration, like yourself, that believes in a weak nation of garbage people. We are not a nation of sick people, we are a nation founded upon the MOST HIGH GOD, and you have no right to change that. "ANY" law that affects the whole nation of people is to be voted on, where do you get the right to change that either? You are stripping the American nation of our voting rights all the time. We have very little say to anything, and that is not the way our forefathers set it up.

I believe that since there are more Christians in the United States with voting power, we need to vote everyone of you out and fill our government with Christians, such as Tommy Barnett, Jimmy Swaggert, Oral Roberts, Pat Robertson, Rex Humbart, Richard Roberts, Paul Crouch, Fred Price, R.W. Shambach, these are a few of those that have money and power with the Christian nation, and could run our nation and plenty more.

We want Doug Wead reinstated to his post and we want all the laws dealing with the rights to kill babies and uphold homosexuality destroyed or you can count yourself history next election.

I am going for signatures against you and your administration and these laws and I'm sure we will make a difference.

I am disappointed and ashamed of your presidency.

In Psalms 139:13-16 says, Lord, you made all the delicate, inner parts of my body, and knit them together in my mother's womb. Thank you for making me so wonderfully complex! It is amazing to think about. Your workmanship is marvelous and how well I know it. You were there while I was being formed in utter seclusion! You saw me before I was born and scheduled each day of my life before I began to breathe. Every day was recorded in your Book!

How do you explain that Mr. President?

Romans 1:18-28 Says, God's anger is revealed from heaven against all the sin and evil of the people whose evil ways prevent the truth from being known. God punishes them, because what can be known about God is plain to them. Ever since God created the world, his invisible qualities, both his eternal power and his divine nature, have been clearly seen; they are perceived in the things that God has made. So those people have no excuse at all! They know God but they do not give him the honor that belongs to him, nor do they thank him. Instead, their thoughts have become complete nonsense, and their empty minds are filled with darkness. They say they are wise, but they are fools; instead of worshiping the immortal God, they worship images made to look like mortal man or birds or animals or reptiles. And so God has given those people over to do the filthy things their hearts desire, and they do shameful things with each other. They exchange the truth about God for a lie; They worship and serve what God has created instead of the Creator himself, who is to be praised forever! Amen. Because they do this God has given them over to shameful passions. Even the women pervert the natural use of their sex by unnatural acts. In the same way the men give up natural sexual relations with women and burn with passion for each other. Men do shameful things with each other, and as a result they bring upon themselves the punishment they deserve for their wrongdoing. Because those people refuse to keep in mind the true knowledge about God, he has given them over to corrupted minds, so that they do the things that they should not do. (Verse 32) They know that God's law says that people who live in this way deserve death. Yet, not only do they continue to do these very things, but they even approve of others who do them.

Mr. President how does your decisions, you just made about homosexuality, fall into place with the WORD OF THE MOST HIGH GOD?

Mr. President, God's Word says, EVERY KNEE SHALL BOW AND EVERY TONGUE SHALL CONFESS. WHAT WILL YOUR TONGUE CONFESS?

Dear President Bush:

Thank you for the excellent job you have done as President of the United States over the last two years. However, as a conservative Republican, I was very disappointed to read of your dismissal of Douglas Wead.

Douglas Wead was a worthy representative of your administration and a great supporter of family values, and I believe that it is a great mistake to release him. Please reconsider your decision to fire him.

Thank you again for your support of family values in this country.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Klaas,

Thank you for your recent letter to the White House regarding Special Assistant to the President Doug Wead.

Over the years Doug has been a valuable member of the President's team and has served him faithfully. For several months, however, Doug has been discussing with a variety of people, and specifically with me, his decision to leave his White House position to pursue other avenues. During that period of time, several options were presented to Doug and discussed.

A short time ago, a mutual decision was made that Doug would end his tenure here as of September 1. Both Doug and others here recognize that there have been rumors and innuendos regarding his decision to leave. None of these have any basis in truth.

The President has named Ms. Lee Ann Metzger as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. Lee Ann shares your values and concerns. You will find that she brings a wealth of experience to the job and will be a valuable addition to our team.

Thank you again for taking the time to write and share your thoughts with us.

Dear Mr. President:

We are writing to register our dismay and disgust with your firing of Mr. Doug Wead. Doug Wead spoke out for traditional family values and against the homosexual community. You have made a grave error in judgement in allowing the blatant gay community to be such an influence on this and maybe other decisions.

I was raised in a staunch family of Democrats and I, myself, voted that way til 1980. I started voting Republican because I believed they stood for traditional values, strong defense, and less government versus let the government do it all.

Kathi and I have decided to become activists, for we've now witnessed, what such a small group of people have, and are accomplishing--a group of people who do not want to take responsibility for their lifestyle but want the government to take on that responsibility. They have a choice of how they live and now want to impose that on the rest of society.

I believe President Bush, that you are going to find this error in your judgement will start a wave of activists who are no longer going to stand for this small group of people (A group based on their sexual preference yet! Unbelievable!) pushing their abominable agenda. This of course means, no longer will the Republican party or yourself have a free ride when it comes to the traditional family vote. I intend to help ensure that.

Sincerely,

Greg Klaas

Dear President Bush:

I am appalled at the firing of Doug Wead. Doug Wead is a man of the highest character. But he is a man that will not compromise his high moral character. Your administration will suffer with the loss of this outstanding Christian. The religious community is aware of the reason for his firing.

The gay community did not elect George Bush, it was the religious community across America. We need a man like Doug Wead in Washington.

Mr. President, we the entire religious community, implore you to stand with us.

Dear Mr. President:

I am responding to the dismissal of Mr. Doug Wead as liaison to the White House for the evangelical community. My impression has been that he has served well to bring our concerns relating to federal policies before the Administration. I will be greatly troubled if it continues to seem evident that his disfavor stemmed from the fact that he expressed views that were not popular with some special interest group also seeking to get the attention of the Administration.

At times I feel increasingly voiceless in this pluralistic society, and a man like Dan Wead is important to me.

Dear President George Bush,

I am in total disagreement to the firing of Doug Weed. It is like a slap in the face to the Christian Community, who stood behind you in your election to the presidency, trusting you to hold forth the traditional family values. Here is a man who stands up for the values of America and was fired because of his opposition to the homosexual lifestyles

I am outraged that you would consider inviting homosexuals to the white house.

Why are ^{you} ~~why~~ changing from the traditional family values? And ^{what} ~~why~~ will America become if we continue to allow this pattern of evil and corrupt lifestyles to come into power, which is slowly taking place. We have a country that was build on GOD's moral principles. Lets keep it that way and not compromise our values to satisfy groups of people who are in opposition to the values of GOD.

I would ask you to search deep and reconsider your decision on firing Doug Weed. I praise GOD for people who are willing to stand up for the Christian Community.

Re: Homosexuals, Etc.

Dear President Bush:

This is in follow-up to my telephone call to the White House this date regarding the referenced matter.

First of all, I am a citizen of these United States dedicated to the Christian principles upon which this nation was founded. I OBJECT to the firing of Doug Weit (not sure of spelling) for his position against inviting a homosexual to witness a signing by you. I OBJECT to any "special" recognition given to homosexuals, period! This country was founded on the Word of God. Read Romans Chapter 1 and see what God thinks about homosexuality, lesbians, etc. You'll find it is an ABOMINATION in his nostrils. We are letting them get their foot in the door in the name of "rights" and you are being put under pressure to recognize them. DON'T DO IT!

If rights are to be considered, don't I have a right to NOT want this degraded influence to seep into our schools, places of instruction, etc.? I have grandchildren to be concerned about. In the past, I didn't have to speak up for this right, it was expected. The average citizen is now being bombarded with "rights" of all sorts; many coming from immoral avenues. A woman has a right to her body, but SHE DOES NOT HAVE THE RIGHT TO MURDER! Yet, in our present confused thinking, we now have to discuss when a life is a life. How far have we gone? If it's a life at birth, it's a life at conception. Whoever had to question this before. The immorality of our nation and the lack of wisdom and truth from the leadership of our government has reversed all we held sacred and true. When we have to say it is cruel and unusual punishment to carry out a death penalty to those who premeditate murder of a life, we are nullifying God's word. When we have allowed such abhorrent pornography to prevail in our magazines, music, drama, art, etc., we have asked for the very trouble we're in. And we no less support such with government (our) money. Such is the recent art conflict. Is it Art to show complete hatred for the very Son of God who gave His life for us that we might have abundant life here and hereafter? To draw this Holy Christ in the most contemptuous form of Art which, in truth, reveals the present existing condition of distorted minds? THIS HAS GOT TO STOP!

PRESIDENT BUSH
August 6, 1990
Page Two

Have we no longer men of strength and wisdom to see where we've allowed our country to go? Is there none who fear God? Yes, Doug Weit was such a one and he was let go. We've begun and are headed toward duplicating Sodom & Gomorrah. DON'T LET THIS CONTINUE. As no doubt the very last President who could hold this country to the values our forefathers molded for us, you have a choice to be strong and hold true to the values of the past which brought us great blessings from the hand of God. What is even more devastating to think is that it is MINORITY who is bringing about the wrong change which, in turn, influences the families of America to untruth. It took one woman to take prayer out of our schools and commenced the beginnings of our woes. Dear President, you have a majority of supporters in the things of truth. Hold fast and be counted as a president who would follow God's laws and not man's.

It is my sincere hope that you will get this letter to read personally. Too many weighty matters are indicated within and I implore you to meditate and seek the right answers. Numerous other citizens feel the same but don't always write. While I know God will have the last word ultimately, it would please so many of us to have strong men at the helm of our nation. We hold you in our prayers.

Mr. George Bush
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear President Bush:

I am taking this opportunity to express my sincere opposition to the firing of Mr. Doug Weed, Special Assistant to the President for Public Liason to the evangelical Christian community. Mr. Weed was fired due to his exercise of free speech in regard to the invitation of homosexuals to the White House. By so doing, Mr. Weed was, in fact, trying to place you in a better light, Mr. President.

Sir, you now have the distinction of being the first President in United States history to invite homosexuals to this nation's White House. I would not wear that badge proudly. I need not remind you that the homosexuals and lesbians did not vote for you in 1988, nor will they support you in 1992 because they hate the moral standards you say you espouse.

The "Christian Right" was the one single group that solidly put you into the presidency because they do hold dear those moral principles. The firing of the man who has done such an excellent job in the position of liason to the Christian community is a slap in the face of the very people who believed you, worked for you and voted for you. I am one of those people. I would hate to think that all those hours at the phone bank were wasted.

If you were to replace Doug Weed with an equally good representative to the Christian community, this person too, by virtue of the word "Christian", would have to offend the homosexual community. The Bible says homosexuality is an abomination to God. I would ask you to please reconsider your decision terminating Doug Weed. He is a good man doing a very good job. Homosexuals are people who thoughtlessly place others' health and lives in jeopardy just so they can continue in their selfish, lustful sin. Acquiescing to them can only spell political suicide for you with the people who have supported you. Please beware, sir--"...friendship with the world is hatred toward God." James 4:4 Thank you for your prayerful consideration.

I recently became aware of the firing of Mr. Douglas Weed. I am writing this letter in protest of Mr. Weed's dismissal. According to my understanding, Mr. Weed was dismissed for representing the fundamental Christians in some of our basic moral beliefs. I and the members of my church and organization strongly recommend that this action be reconsidered and Mr. Weed reinstated.

I believe you as a good American citizen want to maintain the basic moral tenets that our country was founded upon. As the Bible instructs, my congregation and I are praying for you that you will be able to stand against the strong immoral pressures coming from a small portion of our society. May God bless you and give you wisdom as you lead this great nation.

I am greatly disturbed that Mr. Doug Wead was fired as your special assistant. I believe that he was only doing his job: trying to make you look good in the midst of a bad political decision.

George Bush
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

First of all, I thank God that I was born an American, and as an American one of the privileges is to correspond directly with the president of my country if I am troubled. This is not a crank letter, but one that I pray will be from my heart to yours as a citizen and also as brothers in Christ.

The office you hold is an awesome, frightening one. It is one, I'm quite sure, that might prompt anyone who holds it to ask himself if any sane man would seek it. You have to know that millions of Christians are praying for you and our country. Only with God's grace can any man hope to be as great as is required, and only by His grace can a country survive.

That said, let me proceed. Specifically, I want to protest the firing of Doug Weed. There may have been viable reasons for your action; however, if it is to placate the homosexual community you have made a grievous error. Just because they are loud, crude, visible, and openly disrespectful of any decency they seem to have the ear of every gutless politician in Washington. If you pander yourself to such a group then you conceivably will have to cope on a national basis with an organization of adulterers; an organization of alcoholics; an organization of satanists; and any other Godless group that becomes militant enough. Far fetched as it may seem this is the type precedent being set! It seems that as a nation we have forgotten the simple definitions of "Liberty" and "License". Any citizen has the solemn right to the pursuit of happiness, but NOT at the expense of the whole. Am I right, sir? All of the above mentioned have the "right" to be what they are with full cognizance of the consequences as a result, but they most assuredly do not have the right to political influence or to even gain approval.

This is only one of the Godless, un-American influences that would appear to have our people in leadership roles, government and otherwise, mesmerized. I write you as a 61 year old American who is frightened about the way our country is going, and is frustrated because we can't find the men who will plant their feet, set their jaw and say - - ENOUGH! We work hard; we take our families to church to teach them right from wrong; we try to teach them the basics of family life, honesty, and decency. What do they see? They see the President of the United States invite the homosexual rabble into the White House and cater to them. They see crime running wild because an ex con and professing communist organized the A. C. L. U. which has more power over our police and judiciary than you, Mr. President! They see a senator who stole from the people merely getting a slap on the hand followed by embraces from the members of congress! They see it is legal to kill millions of babies while two-faced politicians cry about the holocaust! They see their fathers working hard to do the best they can for their families, unable to get a raise while the congress votes itself a ridiculous raise, and now wants another ridiculous raise for their staffs!

Mr. President, I realize you are not God, and there is just so much influence and power you can exert, but as Harry Truman said, "the buck stops here". You have promised no new taxes, but you have allowed yourself again to be pulled in either by bad advisors or for the sake of political expediency. God said, "where is there a man who will stand in the gap". Mr. President, the responsible people of this country are begging for him too, and praying for God to lift him up. I'm a veteran too. I have been to Arlington, the Arizona, and many of the Civil War battlefields. I have seen the rows of crosses at the Punch Bowl. Excuse me, Mr. President, but dammit there has been too much blood spilled by good men to allow those who would destroy America from within by division and selfishness to succeed.

Mr. Atwater keeps sending me these pleas for money to support the R. N. C. I have been a republican for 40 years because I believe in the precepts upon which the United States was conceived and the Constitution, but I can no longer lend my support until the R.N.C. takes a stand to support these same precepts again. We cannot condemn what God Almighty has approved; and, God help us, we must never for any reason approve what God Almighty has condemned!

Thank you, Mr. President, for taking the time to read this(if you do). It is in frustration and sadness that I write. Americans who love God; who love the family as the basis of all order; Americans who are trying desperately to convey the love of God and country to their children over the roar of the lawless and subversive have been placed in position of ridicule and the seat of scorn. I shall continue to pray for you, sir, that you will once again be the man who piloted that bomber to fight for such things. That you will dare to be a Daniel. That you will be the man we elected to "stand in the gap". May God strengthen and support you.

Respectfully,

Murray C. Cox, Jr.

Dear Mr. Chittenden,

Thank you for your recent letter to the White House regarding Special Assistant to the President Doug Wead.

Over the years Doug has been a valuable member of the President's team and has served him faithfully. For several months, however, Doug has been discussing with a variety of people, and specifically with me, his decision to leave his White House position to pursue other avenues. During that period of time, several options were presented to Doug and discussed.

A short time ago, a mutual decision was made that Doug would end his tenure here as of September 1. Both Doug and others here recognize that there have been rumors and innuendos regarding his decision to leave. None of these have any basis in truth.

The President has named Ms. Lee Ann Metzger as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. Lee Ann shares your values and concerns. You will find that she brings a wealth of experience to the job and will be a valuable addition to our team.

Thank you again for taking the time to write and share your thoughts with us.

Mr. President:

My opinion of you has slipped SEVENTY POINTS in one stupid act on your part!

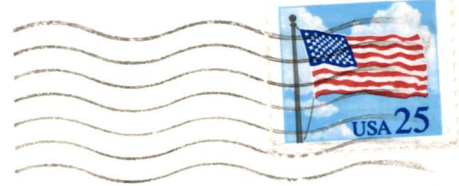

I can't believe my ears. Could it be true that you fired Doug Weed because of some homosexual opinions? Would you risk your standing before the millions of Christians and Jews of America because some perverts are offended at God's opinion of their lifestyle?

I am appalled. I am shocked beyond measure. I will never forget such a fantastic blunder on your part.

Rather than firing Doug Weed, you would be best advised to fire everyone who advised you to take such an action ---- EVERYONE ---- WITHOUT DELAY!

Dear Mr. President:

I just heard that Mr. Doug Weed was fired to appease the homosexuals. Mr. Weed was standing for family values and righteousness and I was very sorry to hear that this good man was fired. In fact I have been very unhappy with the broken promises lately. It was people like me and my wife that voted you into office and with this firing, we are not going to support any candidate for office that is not definitely opposed to abortion, govt. waste, taxes, and unrighteousness in general. I have sent my last dollar to help!

Very Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President:

It is incredible to our family that you would have fired Mr. Douglas Weed from your staff. People who stand for traditional moral values and Christian principles feel this is a direct slap in the face. The homosexual community who are the group irritated with Mr. Weed are flexing their muscles and testing their strength in Washington. It was a mistake for you to invite such a radical group of people to the White House.

We would ask you to reconsider the move to fire Mr. Weed and call him back into your employment. Please stand up and put into action your "implied" stand for our traditional values.

Respectfully yours,

Re: Protest Firing of Doug Weed, Special Assistant

Dear Mr. President:

I strongly protest your firing of Doug Weed from your political staff.

The Christian Conservatives like me help put you in office in 1988, yet, you are catering instead to the homosexual lobby which did not support you.

Your recent invitations to homosexual groups to appear in the White House are historically unprecedented and are reprehensible to a disgusting and alarming level.

In the name of honor and decency, the American people deserve an explanation for your actions if indeed there is one. We need to hear it now.

Mr. Weed as Christian-right liason was needed on your staff to represent the Christian coalitions that supported you. Now you have collectively slapped us in the face because he spoke his mind against the homosexuals.

Sincerely,

Dear President Bush:

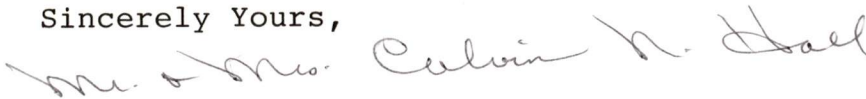

I am a hard-working Christian American citizen highly insulted by the steps you have taken the past few weeks.

The firing of Douglas Wead (Special Assistant for Public Liason) is clearly against what I thought you, as a Christian president stood for.

I would have telephoned you, but due to Reaganomics I along with my husband are now earning $650.00 a month and cannot afford a telephone.

I remain
