THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 15, 1990

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your recent letter to the White House regarding Special Assistant to the President Doug Wead.

Over the years Doug has been a valuable member of the President's team and has served him faithfully. For several months, however, Doug has been discussing with a variety of people, and specifically with me, his decision to leave his White House position to pursue other avenues. During that period of time, several options were presented to Doug and discussed.

A short time ago, a mutual decision was made that Doug would end his tenure here as of September 1. Both Doug and others here recognize that there have been rumors and innuendos regarding his decision to leave. None of these has any basis in truth.

The President has named Ms. Lee Ann Metzger as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. Lee Ann shares your values and concerns. You will find that she brings a wealth of experience to the job and will be a valuable addition to our team.

Thank you again for taking the time to write and share your thoughts with us.

Sincerely,

Andy Card

MR. PRESIDENT,

I WOULD LIKE TO REGISTER
MY STRONG DISAGREEMENT ON THE FIRING OF DOUG WEID.

IF IT WAS MR. WEID'S STAND
REGARDING THE INVITATION OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE HOMOSEXUAL COMMUNITY TO THE
WHITE HOUSE, THEN I BELIEVE THIS DECISION TO FIRE MR. WEID SHOULD BE RECONSIDERED.

WE, AS AMERICANS, NEED TO DO
ALL WE CAN TO PRESERVE THE TRADITIONAL FAMILY IN OUR COUNTRY, NOT TO PROMOTE THE HOMOSEXUAL LIFESTYLE. I BELIEVE THAT WE NEED MR. WEID TO HELP US PRESERVE
OUR HERITAGE.

PLEASE RECONSIDER YOUR DECISION TO FIRE MR. DOUG WEID.

SINCERELY,

Dear President Bush,

We are disappointed about the firing of Doug Reed.
He is a strong advocate for Christian values. With the moral decay in this nation we need him.

It seems as if the homosexual community has much more clout, even though it is a small percentage of the population, than the rest of us.

We wish you would reconsider Doug Reed's firing.

Dearest President Bush,

My heart is broken to hear about what has transpired in the White House.

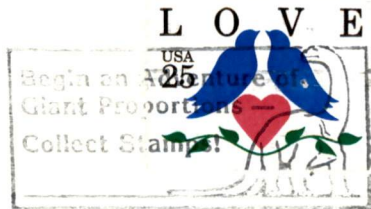

Mr. Wead is a Good man who has served you well. It is a shame that People would rather listen to those who represent two Million or oppose to those 50 million People who prayed and voted to elect you. President Bush, I know you are a man of God and I believe you will make the right decision.

Thank-you so very much for your Time.
We will pray for you.

Dear Mr. President,

I ask you to reconsider your Firing of Mr. Doug Weid. We strongly protest this Firing. You seem to have done an "about face" since you took office. Inviting homosexual's to the white house is a slap in our face. We are democrats who voted for you because of your pre-campaign stand. We helped put you in office, not the homosexual. Your stand on the national arts is disgusting as well as on the Aids. Remember, the homosexual voted against you in the last election and will again this next election. You can't win without the conservatives.

It would appear to me
you were ill-advised about firing Doug Weed who is an

he felt you should know about

Dear President Bush:

I can't believe that Dr. Doug Weed was fired!! What a mistake. Did you not know that Dr. Weed was your adviser appointed by God? He was doing his job - and he should have advised you against inviting homosexuals into the White House for a bill signing - when are you officials going to be strong enough to stand up against things like them? There are so many more evangelical people (who voted & put you in office) than there are homosexuals -

What a shame & what a mistake !!

You have inherited a brewing scandal. This was known and you were given help by God in the person of Dr. Daugl Weed.

But God will use his firing for good. Dr. Weed will not suffer - you will be the loser.

In the age in which we are now living it would be to your advantage to nurture men of God in your cabinet - Events are happening rapidly - The attack of Iraq upon Kuwait is the beginning of the War in the Middle East. Why want you in the White House pay attention to Bible Prophecy - ?

I'm sorry about this mistake of firing Dr. Weed. God help you is my prayer.

Dear Mr. President,

I am writing relative to the dismissal of Mr. Doug Wead from your staff.

Your standing among the Christian Community was damaged considerably by the official representatives of the homosexual community at the White House.

The homosexual vote represents only about three

per cent of the population compared to the large segment of evangelical vote.

Lest we forget the homosexual vote in 1988 was for Mr. Dukakis and will probably support your opposition in the next election.

Our country was founded on a strong moral stance. You and Mrs. Bush have raised a beautiful family, founded on these principles.

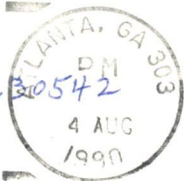

Romans chapter one is still in the Bible. We find there God gave them up to their moral degeneracy three times. Sodom and Gomorrah are examples of

of this degeneracy and the judgement for their promiscuity.

Please reconsider the reinstatement of Mr. Wead to your staff and protect his departure.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir:

As a Christian parent and voting citizen who thought she helped elect a president sympathetic to the family and Christian values, I am very concerned.

The inviting of homosexual groups into the White House sends a dangerous message to our nation and our children.

This weeks' firing of Doug Wead for disagreeing with this homosexual presence at the White House is an outrage.

I feel I have totally misjudged your position. Seems homosexuals have more clout than conservative Christians and traditional families.

Dear Mr. President:

So our Chaplain, we have just learned that you have released Gary Wed from his position in your Administration. According to the Washington Star, it is because of his opposition to and remarks regarding your seeming alliance with the homosexual/lesbian lobby. Is this true?

Mr. Bush, we are evangelical Christians who believe in and adhere to Bible-based morality -- we thought you did too -- you have let us down. This Alliance (homo/lesbian) opposed you in 1988 -- they will do so again, probably, in 1992. We supported you, but will we be able to in 1992? Please comment.

Dear Mr. President,

I was very disturbed to hear that you had fired Mr. Doug Wead, who is in the office of Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison.

Mr. Wead was a very important advocate for the moral, Christian facet of our society and I would like to remind you of his loyalty to you and to those who voted for you.

I don't understand this decision you have made and intend to let others know. Mr. President, what is happening? Have you forgotten what our country was based on? Please don't go back on what you promised us when we voted you into office. The small groups you are hearing from do not voice the majority feelings!

Please reconsider this decision and reverse it and place Mr. Doug Wead back in his position as Special Assistant for Public Liaison.

President George Bush
White House

Dear President Bush,

I seem to be on all your mailing lists; now you are on mine.

I have voted for you and have helped in every way I can. I believed you were what was needed for America.

I am voicing a loud cry of discontent at this time. First, I am very disappointed that you fired Mr. Doug Wed. He was about the only link I had to voice my conservative views. Secondly, I am appalled that you have invited homosexuals on two occasions to be with you at the signing of various bills.

I do not believe they live an "alternate" lifestyle. I believe it is perversion. We must hold on to the American lifestyle. That is a lifestyle with a real father, a real mother and children. I know we are losing the battle. I did not have the opportunity to grow up in a "real home, but it only made me want to provide it for my children.

I, too, was a single mother for several years, but I worked very hard.

Now, thank God, I have a wonderful husband and I try to do whatever I can to help others. This is the way our forefathers wanted it to be.

We cannot allow homosexuals and their militant attitude to change our foundations of our beautiful America.

I know you will probably not even read this, but if you do, please let me tell you a little story.

When I grew up here in Mission
Iexas (where Floyd Benson & Rika de la Torza is from), we didn't speak
Spanish. We did not even date Mexicans. We were polite, but we didn't associate with them very much. Now, forty years later, my daughter will be marrying a Sonzalez. I love him so very much. I now speak Spanish and my dearest friend is Mexican. I asked her one day why a Mexican superintendent had treated my daughter so badly when she applied for a job as a speech therapist. She said, "When we were down &

Anglo people were up, we were discriminated against all the time, but you were kind when you did it. Now, the Mexicans are up and you are down, and they discriminate with anger and ugliness. I am sorry."

We are letting homosexuals step into teaching positions and they won't be as kind as we were. They act with anger.

Please do not allow this lifestyle to be approved and even publicly accepted by you. I do not want to hurt anyone and I have never been unkind to a homosexual, but we should let them know that it is not an accepted and alternate, normal lifestyle.

You had convinced me that you were conservative. Please don't join in with the liberal view. These people didn't even vote for you, and they won't next time. You will be losing the traditional family oriented voters - and that amounts to a lot of votes.

I thank you for your time, Mr. President. I pray for you all the time.

Respectfully,

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing to express my regrets that your administrative assistant, Doug Weed, has been fired. Mr. Weed represents the conservative Christian values and I thought that you did also when I voted for you in 1988. However, your recent invitation of homosexual leaders to the White House and now the firing of Doug Weed damage your standing with the conservative Christians who voted for you.

In the past, you've conveyed that you believe and represent traditional family values and now you are not upholding these values.

Dear President Bush:

I was distressed to hear recently of the firing of Mr. Doug Wead your special assistant for public liason to the Evangelical Christian Community.

As I understand it, Mr. Wead was fired because of his outspoken opinion concerning the inviting of members of the gay community to the recent signing of hate legislation. There is also the feeling that some members of your adminstration engineered Mr. Wead's dismissal because of his strong stand on tradition^{al} family values.

I trust this is not so. If time bears out that this is so then I must seriously consider whether or not you and certain members of your adminstration are living up to campaign promises of the last presidential election. I would be less than candid if I am not already sensing that you do not really believe all the positions you enunciated during your campaign. You obviously didn't really commit yourself to no new taxes. You may have hoped you would not have to raise taxes, but you surely had some idea of the shape of the nation's economy when you made the statement about no new taxes. And Mr. President why has Vice President Quayle become the major spokesman of pro-life values? Why could you not find time to attend the April 1990 Rally For Life in Washington instead of phoning your comments in? Are you trying to keep a low profile on this issue? I appreciate Mr. Quayle's stand on the issue, but I am beginning to doubt if you have a burning commitment on the issue.

Mr. President there are other areas of concern, but those can wait for another time. To sum it up, I voted for you in the last election because of the positions you took on certain issues. In 1992, my vote will be determined by how well I preceive you have tried to live up to your election promises.

Mr. President, please don't turn out to be just another politician who serves himself and his own agenda, and does not live up to at least trying to carry out his promises. I will be discussing these issues with my friends, and will be praying for God's blessing on your efforts relative to Holy Scripture.

This letter is to express my outrage at the firing of Mr. Doug Meed! I am requesting that you consider his reinstatement.

In my opinion, this action is indicative of your swaying views of the importance of "The Family." Mr. President, when I voted for you in the last election, I was convinced that I was voting for a leader who held family values at their highest. I now question that belief.

I will continue to keep abreast of this and other family-related issues and make my vote count for "The Family."

Dear Mr. President:

I am a 32 yr old married woman living in Wisconsin. I am compelled to write you on the firing of Doug Weed. It saddens me deeply that you would be rid of a fine man committed to his responsibilities, over some poor advice. I feel as much hurt for all us traditional family members; as well as for Doug Weed. How you handle this affair personally, is entire up to you; however; I think you owe all Americans an apology.
I pray for you daily. I know that you are confronted with issues every day; and it may seem like hard ball at times.
But; I beg you; please keep your eyes on the goal of what is pure, truth, and right. I know that everyone, every group wants

How saddened I am that I can no longer support you & your values. The

in your decisions to invite homosexuals to the White House

Dear President Bush,

I strongly disagree with the firing of Doug Wead, who was doing his job with much integrity. The homosexuals should never have been invited to the White House for the signing of the Civil Rights Protection Act. He should be reinstated and given an apology. It sound like there are some other bad "weeds" which need cleaning out.

Also, I am disturbed regarding the taxpayers support of ponographic art.

Dear Mr. President,

I am distressed with the news concerning the dismissal of Mr. Doug Wead. This was a man who represented the conservative Christian constituency who supported you in 1988. It seems your advisors have been intimidated by a very vocal homosexual lobby. I assure you sir, the voting evangelicals in this country far outnumber the 2-3% homosexual population who did not support you in 1988 nor will they in 1992.

I implore you Mr. President to uphold the traditional family and its values which is the backbone of this country. The family is in grave danger today by a humanistic liberal minority. I am afraid for the rights that my family may lose. My children are the future of this country and my husband works hard so I can raise them at home just as Mrs. Bush did for your children.

Please hold fast to the moral issues and promises you made to this country during your presidential campaign. We chose you because of values you seem to possess. If you cannot reconsider Mr. Wead, consider someone who upholds the concerns of a patriotic majority of peoples without wavering.

Respectfully yours,

Mrs. Leslie F. Albritton

Mr. President:

This letter is to register my disappointment with your decision to fire Mr. Doug Weed from your administration. I truly believe that you are receiving bad counsel from individuals within your administration who have personal agendas separate from your interests and separate from the interests of the bulk of the American population.

While I am writing to you, I must add that I do not understand why you would risk alienating yourself from a voting population of approximately 50,000,000 persons (conservatives, christians) in favor of a small, albeit vocal and powerful, special interest group (homosexuals) of say 1,000,000 or so who have never and will never vote for you.

Please weigh the counsel you receive against those principals that I believe (or at least hope) you stand upon.

Respectfully yours,

Daniel L. Byce

Dear President Bush,

We are shocked to say the least, that you let your public liason officer go. He was only doing what you hired him for. We hate to see this, since he was a devout Christian, and when he did what he did, he was holding his body tight. Since when does righteousness become partners with unrighteousness, and our Bible plainly states that the homosexual will be forever damned to an eternal hell. We surely hope you would not only give him an apology, but fire the one that wanted to fire him. You certainly let us down.

Dear President Bush,

As a somewhat irritated and interested taxpayer, there is a few things that we, along with other people that have some moral principles, wonder which way our beloved country is headed. We are living in very immoral and dangerous times.

Our world is deeply decietful. The "'liberal,'" humanistic element of American society do not play by the rules they espouse; the rules of open-mindedness, fair-play, and equality under the law.

Deceit and evil go hand in hand always, and our own age finds them wedded once more. The abuse of language today is a good example. 'Choice' has come to mean death. Government assitance, control of the population. "Liberal," an indefinite tolerance of everyone and everything, except those who disagree about issues on the basis of moral principle. "Pluralism" no longer means that men may differ in their views of truth, but truth does not really exist, outside the limited sphere of science.

The labeling of life, people, politics and social action cannot be reduced to one-word categories; when they are, falsehood and political manipulation becomes the norm. Mass media, by their very nature, must to a certain extent indulge in the shorthand of labels. But the deliberate abuse of labeling has conditioned the population to respond negatively to any mention of religious concern in the public sphere.

Deceit always deals in stereotypes; The Indian was a "savage red man," the black person as a shuffling Uncle Tom, these images have been used in our nation's history to oppress and exploit minority groups. The secular humanist, although he would never dream of committing the social faux pas of calling a black man a Negro, feels perfectly free to castigate Chritians and their leaders in any way he likes. Many who work in mass media, with their secular humanist preconceptions, deny their true role; they consider themselves "objective reporters" who do not value judgements. This is total fiction. The "myth of neutrality," the ways of thinking by which secular humanists derive themselves and others about the nature of their own beliefs. Their pretense of objectivity contributes mightily to this collective illusion. And yet, hardly anyone challenges the media, and other opinion-making institutions about their incredible double-standard, their on-again, off again "morality".

Nowhere do they, or those like them, have the guts to face the real issue; that is, having denounced all absolute morality as "puritanical and oppressive," they never consider that they have no basis on which to make value judgements of any kind. After all, they have come to accept abortion and casual talk of euthanasia, SO WHY STOP THERE? For some it isn't a matter of principle, not even sensible thinking.

The "myth of neutrality" includes the widespread (often deliberate) misunderstanding OF GODLY PRINCIPALS AS OF THE SEPERATION OF CHURCH AND STATE!!!! The Constitution separated the institution of the church from the state, but not a religious understanding of TRUTH FROM THE STATE!!! THE IDEA THAT CHRISTIANS WITH MORAL CONVICTIONS WOULD BE DISQUALIFIED FROM ANY POLITICAL ACTIVITY, ON GROUNDS OF OUR SO-CALLED BIAS, IS AN ULTIMATE CONTRADICTION OF THE FIRST AMENDMENT. THE AMENDMENT GIVES FREEDOM F O R RELIGION, NOT FREEDOM F R O M RELIGION.

The basis framework of our legal system in our country was, until recently, based on the traditional British common law, which looked to the TEN COMMANDMENTS AND BIBLICAL ABSOLUTES AS ITS BASIS. Religious truths, specifically the JUDEO-CHRISTIAN tradition, was the ground on which the REPUBLIC stood.

The authors of the self-serving constitutional "re-write" have revised American history in accord with their secularist views, and deliberately ignored these facts. Their teachings have produced an UNEDUCATED generation which firmly believes in the erroneous notion of the SEPARATION BETWEEN CHURCH AND STATE. This group then uses this LIE to keep Christians and those with morals out of "the process" with the mature logic being on the level of a two-year old refusing to share his toys.

The powers of the federal government and those of the courts are no longer deliberately few and defined, but total and arbitrary. In the humanistic conception of law, the citizen is the creature of the state; his rights are granted not by GOD, but by the state; which can remove them as they wish. Law has truly become the law of the jungle.

Many federal judges, and members of the Supreme Court also, have extended the effects of this LIBERAL HUMANISTIC LEGAL REVOLUTION BY USURPING THE POWERS OF THE LEGISLATURE and making it possible by which the decisions made was totally out of keeping with tradition of our country. Thus, we now have a built-in bias AGAINST JUDEO-CHRISTIAN belief. If there is no place for civil disobedience, then the GOVERNMENT has been put in the place of the LIVING GOD. How long will a loving, compassionate, forgiving HEAVENLY FATHER put up with us? We just want you to know we loved you, and we have several millions of CHRISTIANS praying for you, and best of all, JESUS LOVES YOU, AND HE WANTS YOU IN HEAVEN WITH HIM!!!!

Dear President Bush,

I voted for you because I believed in you and now I am sorry for things which you have allowed to take place.

Mr. Doug Weed was a valuable voice where moral and family standards were in question. Please reconsider and stand firm for those principles you know to be right in God's sight as I continue to pray for you.

Dear Mr. Bush:

I am writing to you concerning the dismissal of Mr. Doug Wead as Special Assistant and of changes of policy or attitude which I believe may have contributed to that dismissal.

Mr. Wead served as principal liaison to a number of Christian organizations. I am a Christian, and I have been to the White House and have heard you voice the position which the White House has with regard to traditional Christian values as they affect the lives of individual families in this country. I have heard you say that you are aware of who Jesus Christ is and of the role He holds for Christians and should hold for all people.

I cannot be certain of the reasons for Mr. Wead's dismissal, but there are some coincidental events which may shed some light for me on those reasons and motivations. One of these has been overtures to homosexuals from the White House of late. I don't know for a fact, but I suspect that Mr. Wead objected to such overtures and rightly so.

Homosexuality is clearly identified as a sin in the Scriptures. Traditionally, we have drawn from the Scriptures in establishing laws and standards of moral conduct. I continue to adhere to those traditions.

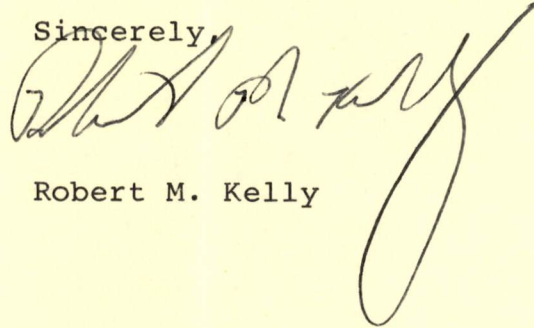

Another issue is abortion. The Scriptures are clear on the sanctity of life, that life begins at conception, and that the intervention in a pregnancy is a serious error. Again, we have heard the Administration's opposition to abortion in the past; where is that opposition now?

Mr. George Bush
The White House

I am compelled (and indeed I willingly accept the challenge) to stand firm on my beliefs. I have worked for you and supported you for some time. But the wavering of late and the seeming lack of resolve on the fundamental issues in support of traditional family values gives me cause for concern.

Doug Wead has stood for the Administration's commitment to the basic tenets of Christianity and to the basic tenets of traditional family values. I urge you to re-consider his dismissal and that you reinstate him in his position of Special Assistant.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President:

I strongly disagree with the firing of Mr. Doug Wead, Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. He is a strong advocate of Judeo-Christian values.

In the Bush Administration, there seems to be a shift away from traditional family values, in favor of homosexual "values". This is very disheartening to those of us who helped to elect you as our President. We are now fairly sure that you do not share our concerns for our families and our values. We are very, very disappointed. We would ask you to reconsider your actions, and to reinstate Mr. Wead.

Homosexuals at the most only represent about 3% of the vote. Mr. President, we, the Christian community are the ones who made the difference as to whether you were elected or not elected, and we can do it again in 1992. Please remember this. Do not cave in to the homosexuals' demands. They are not friends of the traditional family.

Dear Mr. President,

I am a 25 year old college educated stay-at-home wife and mother. I am also a committed, evangelical Christian. I tell you this so you will understand my point of view as I write.

I voted for you in 1988 primarily because I believed in your commitment to the same traditional values that I hold. I hoped that you would be a champion for what the Bible teaches is right even when under attack by a secular press and a society that is increasingly hostile to Christians.

I am learning that, while your convictions may be intact, you have found it prudent to remain silent in matters of the traditional family, the right to life, and freedom for evangelical Christians to speak their opinions without fear of ridicule. The firing of Mr. Douglas Weed is an example of how Christians are losing what little input they once had to White House policy.

I strongly disagree with the firing of Mr. Weed. He was an advocate for Christians and represented me as a voter. Today, when politicians sell their convictions for votes, it is refreshing and empowering to know there are still men in Washington who stand up for their convictions in the face of strident opposition.

Please, Mr. President, reconsider the Mr. Weed's firing. You stand to lose the vote of millions of Christians if their interests are overrun by the lobby of a vocal minority who never voted for you. However, you will secure the votes of those same millions of Christians if you support the convictions of the Christians on your staff.
