THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 20, 1990

Dear Mr. Nordahl:

Thank you for your recent letter to the White House regarding Special Assistant to the President Doug Wead.

Over the years Doug has been a valuable member of the President's team and has served him faithfully. For several months, however, Doug has been discussing with a variety of people, and specifically with me, his decision to leave his White House position to pursue other avenues. During that period of time, several options were presented to Doug and discussed.

A short time ago, a mutual decision was made that Doug would end his tenure here as of September 1. Both Doug and others here recognize that there have been rumors and innuendos regarding his decision to leave. None of these has any basis in truth.

The President has named Ms. Lee Ann Metzger as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. Lee Ann shares your values and concerns. You will find that she brings a wealth of experience to the job and will be a valuable addition to our team.

Thank you again for taking the time to write and share your thoughts with us.

Sincerely,

Andrew H. Card, Jr.
Assistant to the President and
Deputy to the Chief of Staff

Wead

Dear Mr. Duvvuri,

Aug. 7, 1990

I am outraged to hear that Mr. Doug Wead, Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison, has been fired. Mr. Wead is a one-of-a-kind man. He was the only man to have a voice with God in his mind and heart.

This great nations fore fathers believed and trusted in God. Like it or not that is what has made this nation strong. If we, as a nation, don't turn back to God and the Bible soon, His wrath and judgement will fall upon us. I challenge you to pray for 15 minutes every morning you get up. Your day will go better.

We would like a public explanation and apology.

Sincerely,

Dawn L. Cox

Dear Mr. President:

I urge you to reinstate Mr. Doug Wead to his post as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. You need loyal advisors like him to give you frank advise on what is true, honorable, right, pure, lovely, of good repute, excellent and praiseworthy. Such counsel comes most consistently from godly men such as Mr. Doug Wead.

Your embracement of the homosexual community is sure to further undermine the structural support of this country which is the traditional family, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Jesus Christ as the cornerstone. Widespread homosexuality was one of the ills plaguing Nazi Germany and other, perhaps all, former world powers who now lie buried under the rubble of their ruinations.

You are sadly mistaken Mr. President, if you believe there is right and principle, apart from the word of God Almighty, by whom our country was established and bountifully sustained. Certainly you do not believe that we as a nation can long protect right and principle abroad, as you stated this morning on television, while simultaneously trampling other essential rights and principles domestically.

De Tocqueville insightfully observed "America is still the place where the Christian religion has kept the greatest real power over men's souls; and nothing better demonstrates how useful and natural it is to man, since the country where it now has the widest sway is both the most enlightened and the freest...."

Mr. President, please stand for right and principle at home and reinstate Mr. Doug Wead to his former post where he faithfully served you and the One True God.

Sincerely,

Carlos R. Sierra

Dear Mr. President:

My wife and I were horrified to discover that you fired Mr. Doug Wead, Special Assistant to the Office of Liaison, over the issue of the White House inviting homosexuals to attend Washington ceremonies.

All our friends agree the main reason for voting for you was because you indicated you stood for traditional family values. Inviting homosexuals to the White House and the firing of Mr. Wead has raised the Presidential office to an unprecedented level of anti-Christian bigotry.

We want you to reverse this greivous error immediately. Homosexuals are nothing more than sinners in God's sight; quite treating them as if they have a special station in life.

Sincerely,

Mr. & Mrs. Jay Pierce

HONORABLE GEORGE BUSH
PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

The purpose of this communication is to protest, most vigorously, the firing of Presidential Aide, Doug Wead.

I have supported your Presidency through good times and tax increases alike. I am a Republican candidate for Precinct Committeeman, and obviously active in the GOP.

I find it unconscionable that you would fire a man of the obvious high moral character that Doug Wead has proven himself to be. In his firing, I feel that you have let the American people down. Mr. Wead STOOD FOR MORALITY AND STRONG FAMILY VALUES. Mr. President, we, the people of morality and strong family values, are the ones who are responsible for you being in the White House today. I feel that you have compromised a trust.

Is Mr. Sununu the next to go? Will you cave in to the wishes of a liberal contingent of homosexuals by removing him from your cabinet as well?

Mr. Wead took a stand that cost him his position. Please know that most Americans also stand for the ideals that cost Mr. Wead his position in your Cabinet and we feel that you sold us out to the whims of an evil minority of homosexuals. What can they possibly contribute to America besides AIDS, immorality, and noise? Make no mistake, they are the ones who applaud your actions in this case.

I urge you, Mr. President, to place Mr. Wead in a position of greater importance than before, and allow his influence to guide your Presidency. America needs men of integrity and ethics which will not allow them to COMPROMISE THEIR BELIEFS. Please, Sir, surround yourself with persons of character and traditional ideals.

I shall continue to pray for God to grant you wisdom and guide you in your decisions.

Thanking you for your attention, I remain,

Most respectfully

Alan D. Scherling

Dear Mr. President,

Permit us to add our voice of dissent to those protesting the firing of Doug Weice.

The group who instigated this action are not your friends; they voted against you in the last election & will again if you run.

We are disturbed that for someone who professes Christianity that you would permit the firing of your one visible Christian on staff.

We pray for you daily & now we also pray for the people who caused this decision.

Dear Mr. President,

We were dismayed when we heard the news that Doug Weed had been removed from his position as liason between the Executive branch and the Christians. From what we have heard that decision was made because Doug recommended that homosexuals not be invited to the signing of the Disability Act.

Mr. President, we agree that they should not have been invited. We do not dislike or hate the homosexuals but we certainly do not condone their life-style. In inviting them to the signing shows to the christian community that you do go along with their way of life. This is very offensive to us and we wonder how strong your commitment to christian family values is. We voted for you because we thought your values lined up with ours. I'm sure that the whole christian community feels let down by your action.

You could do a lot for our faith in your ability to lead this nation by re-appointing Doug Weed back to his former position.

We do pray for you daily and trust that you also seek God's guidance for this wonderful country of ours.

Respectfully,

Dear President Bush:

Upfront, I would like to say that I am a registered Republican who voted for you in the 1988 election.

I want to register with you my complaint about the firing of Mr. Doug Wead, who served as the liaison for the evangelical constituency. Aware that his release was due to the fact of his position against inviting representatives of the homosexual community to the White House, I am truly stunned. The percentage of evangelicals in this country far exceeds that of the homosexuals. Moreover, this action indicates a departure from your stance with mainline Christianity, and I consider it to be a grave compromise of moral standards.

How much longer can our country continue to overlook decadent behavior? Do you remember what caused the collapse of the Roman Empire? Are you more concerned with being a strong, moral leader or with getting reelected?

Faithfully yours,

Dear Mr. President:

We would like to express our opinion on the firing of Mr. Doug Weed. He is in high standing with the Christian community and should be reinstated to his office.

Why should homosexuals be invited to any formal gathering in our White House. They did not vote you into office and they will not vote for you next term. We would like to know how inviting them to the White House will promote good solid family living were as we are to be represented as one Nation under God.

Homosexuality is an abomination to God and should therefore not be held as acceptable by the leadership of this Country, America.

Please reconsider your decision and reinstate Mr. Weed to his office. Thank you.

Honorable President Bush;

I am writing in protest of the dismissal of Doug Wead. He is a man of high standards, high principles, and dedication to duty. There is a lack of that caliber in your area. (I watch C-Span) I doubt that you had anything to do with his leaving, as the Mideast thing was sprouting about that time and taking your attention.

Just as you are taking deliberate and decisive action in the Iraq situation, I think the same is called for in the Doug Wead case. It is perhaps not as dramatic, but at least equally as important to our nations future to have HONORABLE PEOPLE in leadership positions. I would suggest that a way to handle this is for you to fire the person responsible, and give that job to Doug Wead.

Sincerely

Dear President Bush,

I was very disappointed to hear that you had fired Doug Head as one of your advisors. It is quite evident that a small group of activist perverts pressured your office to cave in to their demands. There are at least 70 million evangelicals in America who hold to strong family values. We want government leaders who are deeply committed to FAMILY (not homosexual) VALUES. Please reconsider your decisions.

Dear Mr. President:

I have been told about the dismissal of Doug Weed from his position as an adviser on your staff. This is disappointing to me. Weed represented a conservative moral viewpoint, which many other Americans and myself value.

In and of itself, the dismissal is a vagary of a political appointment. What truly bothers me is the report that Weed was removed as a result of pressure from Homosexual Lobbyists. If in fact the decision to make this change was the result of Bobbie Kilberg, I would suggest that Doug be reinstated in Bobbie's current position.

I voted for you in the last election because of your moral position on several issues. Please do not let those who are truly a minority in this country hinder the good staff selection you made earlier in your term.

In closing, I am in support of your steps in dealing with the crisis in the Mid East. May you have wisdom in the coming days.

Dear President Bush,

I am writing to express my disappointment in you for firing Doug Wead from your administration. I urge you to reinstate Mr. Wead into his former position.

As you are aware, one-third of the voters who elected you into office are evangelical Christians. Without the support of Christians, you would not be in the oval office.

This country needs to return to the Christian foundations from which it began with our forefathers. If you do not act and base decisions with the help of Christian advisors, this country will end up like Sodom, and we know what happened there.

Dear President Bush,

This letter is to express my opposition to the firing of Doug Wead. Mr Wead represented the evangelical voters. One third of the voters who elected you into office were evangelicals. Without them, you wouldn't have had a chance at the presidency.

This Country needs to go back to morality, starting at the White House, down through our elected representatives to the voters. How can we expect the people in this Country change from their wicked ways when our leaders promote and encourage those who oppose every Christian right that was given to us by our founding fathers.

If we don't repent and change our ways, our country is headed for hell. You being president will be held responsible before God almighty. Being held accountable to God, you should have as many Christians advisors as you can.

Proclaim a day of fast & prayer like Abraham Lincoln did.

Pray & seek the face of the Lord and obey his commands.

Dear Mr. President:

I am very upset at the firing of Doug Wead. When I voted for you you were a Conservative. Firing someone who stands up for your Campaign platform is very unjust of you.

If all the homosexuals are to be believed (& who in their right mind believes them?) only 10% of our Country are homosexual. We do not run our Country or make laws for 10% of the people. We take of the majority of the people (& the 90%) & make laws for them. After all you won your office on the Majority vote not on the minority. And I am sure they will not vote for you in 1992.

Please take a Stand &
then Stand for the Conservative issues.

on it.

Thank you very much for your

Our nation needs you to be strong in the Lord and let Him guide you.

Dear President Bush,

It is my opinion that the firing of Doug Wead was wrong.

I believe that he was doing the job that he was hired to do.

I'm sure that he hates homosexuality, just as I do. But, I'm also certain that he loves those precious people that have been overtaken in this evil.

We should not condone the harmful effects of homosexuality. Your invitation of homosexuals does condone this practice, and hence, its effects.

I'll keep loving you, and praying

Mr. President;

I am writing to express my displeasure of your decision to fire Mr. Doug Reed, your ~~Special~~ Assistant.

Mr. Weed has been your supporter for 10 years. He has represented you to people who are concerned about family issues as one who is deeply concerned about these issues. This is one of the main reasons why I voted for you.

Yet, when he represented to you our viewpoints about inviting the homosexual groups to come to the White House during the signing of the Disabilities Act, you fired him. You are saying by this action that you consider homosexuality a viable lifestyle.

These homosexual groups did everything they could to get your opponent elected.

We supported you and helped get you elected. Yet, you support these groups over our groups. This is like a slap in the face to us.

This decision, if not rectified, will definitely lead me to work against you in the next election. Therefore, I pray that you will change your mind after thinking seriously about this and rehire Doug Reed.

Dear President Bush,

I must write in reference to the dismissal of Doug Wead. I feel this is very regrettable. As a part of the Christian community, which was the largest single block of voters to vote for you in 1988, I can't understand why this action was taken.

As I understand, a group of homosexual activists were invited to the White House for the first time in history this past week. Where were they in 1988? Where will they be (this minority 2-3% of the entire population) in 1992? Please stand by your moral convictions which you have stated in the past.

Mr. President,

We are writing in response to your firing Mr. Doug Wead. In all respect Sir, that was a big mistake. He was a good man.

Mr. President we voted for you, because you supported traditional, moral family values.

Why are you catering to the homosexuals?

Their life style is not normal, nor is it a disease. It is a sinful, perverse act, and an abomination unto God. These people opposed you before you were elected and still will.

Mr. President, God's Word states clearly -

Lev. 18:22 - "Thou shalt not lie with mankind as with womankind: it is abomination".

Lev. 20:13 - "If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination".

Ro. 1:27 - "And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet."

I Cor. 6:9 - "Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the Kingdom of God? Be not deceived - →

neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind (men)."

Our Nation was founded on moral, Godly values.

Why are our leaders allowing our freedoms to be abused and misused? One should fear God not man! It is God who honors, exalts and blesses a man and the Nation who follows God's Word, His Ways. (Not one who condones or pat's sin on the back.)

Ps. 33:12 - "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord,"

Pr. 14:34 - "Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people."

Pr. 29:2 - "When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice; but when the wicked beareth rule,
the people mourn."

Pr. 15:9 - "The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the Lord; but He loveth him that followeth
after righteousness."

We pray that you will seek God's Wisdom (His Word) and Counsel, because without God, man will fail and his nation will fall.

May God bless you with wisdom, understanding & discernment.

Sincerely,

Mr. & Mrs. Charles L. Mason, Jr.

Dear Mr. President,

We were shocked when the news media told of the firing of Doug Wead..

Mr. President, I believe you are aware of the militant homosexualists efforts at destroying the traditional family that has made and will continue to make America strong.

We, the American Voters will not stand quietly by and watch our great country taken over by those who would destroy the very foundation for which we are built on.

It has been said that the Conservatives forget easily when their elected officials go against them, however, from what we see in Arizona, there is a new strong Coalition of Hard working Platform
Republicans determined to keep America great.

We believe Doug Mead was a great asset and a keeper of the things which make America great.

President Bush -

I am writing you concerning the firing of special assistant to the President Doug Wlead.

Apparently someone in your administration was "offended" by Mr. Wlead's stand as a Christian and his opposition to homosexuality.

Has the day come in the United States when we as citizens must fear loss of our jobs because of our beliefs? I didn't realize that the homosexual community had such an influence on you. Do they?

You are a man of immeasurable moral fiber.

Please check into this firing and reinstate Mr. Wlead. Thank you in advance for your help.

Sincerely -

Nancy Hughes

Dear President Bush:

I learned today that Mr. Doug Weed, Advisor to the President, has been fired. I am very disappointed about this. This man advises you on my behalf and I strongly urge you to rehire Doug Weed to represent me in Washington to you.

Mr. Doug Weed was doing the job he was hired to do; advising you on how this country would react to many situations. I feel he did not receive a fair shake.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President.

Will you please reconsider firing Doug Weed. He is a very fine Christian and a wonderful person. Lots of Christians are very up set about this. In these times, you'll be needing all of God's people's prayers and love.
Please feel free to call on all of us. We pray you a lot of times and we should be able to get a favor of you. Only God can give you the wise and wonderful keep in times like these.

Don't let people who have no interest in our Country before, only their own sinful selfishness tell you what to do. My prayers and love are with you - Sincerely yours in Christ, Geneva Bowyer

DEAR PRESIDENT BUSH:

I THANK GOD THAT HE CHOSE you to BE PRESIDENT, - for you exemplify the traditional values of the UNITED STATES... FAMILY Life, BELIEF IN GOD, good moral values, and a concern for your fellow brother.

I TURNED my LIFE OVER TO CHRIST, and BECAME A RE-BORN CHRISTIAN, and my HUSBAND AND I PRAY for you EVERY DAY so THAT GOD will LEAD you in a proper, productive and good way.

my HUSBAND, family, AND FRIENDS HAVE BEEN VERY UPSET TO HEAR OF the DISMISSAL of Doug WEAD, who WAS a GREAT SPOKESMAN for you and your country's VALUES. I PRAY THAT you PLEASE RE-CONSIDER THIS ACTION AND DEAL properly WITH THOSE WHO ADVISED you OF such a tragic action.

Homosexuals, Advocates of the ACHL, Pro-ABORTIONISTS, AND PLAYBOY EXECUTIVES DO NOT STAND FOR THE TRADITIONAL VALUES OF MARRIAGE, STABLE FAMILIES, the life of the "UNBORN", AND RESPECT FOR GOOD MORAL PRINCIPLES... AND SHOULD NOT BE INVITED AND HONORED AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

ADVISERS OF SUCH AN ILL-ADVISED MOVE SHOULD BE EVALUATED FOR THEIR SKEWED JUDGMENT.

Thank you for GIVING ATTENTION and concern to OUR REQUEST. BE ASSURED of my DAILY PRAYERS THAT GOD
WILL GUIDE you properly.

Respectfully & in Christ

Dear Sir;

My concern is great in the dismissal of Mr. Doug-Weed, a special assistant to the president. He has been a great help in assisting christians in their belief in what should be done in Washington, as well as many other decisions.

Sincerely,

Ms. Claudia Lee

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing to register my disapproval of your recent firing of Doug Weed. He was a strong advocate of conservative Christian values.

The recent invitation you extended from the White House to representatives of the homosexual community damaged your credibility to the Evangelical Christian community. Let me remind you that it was due largely to the support of this vast group that you were elected to this most important position as President of the greatest country on earth.

I strongly urge you to reconsider your position on this issue.

Sincerely,

Dear President Bush:

Please know that I strongly disagree with the firing of Doug Wead. Please reconsider this decision.

Mr. Wead represented the evangelical community and was a champion of Christian views.

I am very concerned that gay advocates are twisting the arm of your administration.

This is critical time for us, the Christians, and I beg you to either re-instate Mr. Wead or at least fill this position with a person from the evangelical community.

I feel that your decision to allow Mr. Wead to be fired is yet another major defeat for those of us who care about preserving the Judean Christian values.

Sincerely,
Melissa A. Shaw

Dear Mr. Bush,

I don't understand how you let a highly qualified man slip through your hands. In firing "Doug Wead" "Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison," was a big mistake.

By this gross error, you have literally turned your back on the Evangelical Community of America.

You are catering to the special interest group of homosexuals and lesbians upon whom the wrath of God is about to be poured.

You need to call a prayer meeting in the White House about this problem.

We expect an apology publicly.

God Be With You.

Sincerely,
John Pizzano

Dear Mr. President:

It was very distressing to hear you have relieved Doug Wead of his responsibilities in your administration. He represented the views of my family when he opposed recognition of homosexual organizations by their White House presence. You were elected by voters who seek to maintain strong marriage and family ties and who believe in Bible-based principles for guidance in the significant issues of life. Please reconsider and restore Mr. Wead as a representative of my views in your administration.

Re: The Firing of Doug Weed

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing this letter because I am greatly concerned over the firing of Doug Weed. He is a great leader in our nation and I feel that he was fired because of Bobbie Kilberg. This man is not a great leader and will only bring our great nation down into disgrace because of his immoral beliefs. I feel and many hundreds of thousand evangelical Christians in this country feel that the man who should be removed from his office is Bobbie Kilberg and Doug Weed should be reinstated.

Men like Doug Weed are what make our country strong, homosexual leaders will only bring this nation into moral decay and it will fall as other great empires have fallen in the past when they stooped to this depth of sin.

We feel that you are compromising your leadership and are leaning toward ungodly moral leaders and we will not stand behind you if you continue to do so.

Sincerely,

Charlene Owensbey
