THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 21, 1990

Dear Ms. Nall:

Thank you for your recent letter to the White House regarding Special Assistant to the President Doug Wead.

Over the years Doug has been a valuable member of the President's team and has served him faithfully. For several months, however, Doug has been discussing with a variety of people, and specifically with me, his decision to leave his White House position to pursue other avenues. During that period of time, several options were presented to Doug and discussed.

A short time ago, a mutual decision was made that Doug would end his tenure here as of September 1. Both Doug and others here recognize that there have been rumors and innuendos regarding his decision to leave. None of these has any basis in truth.

The President has named Ms. Lee Ann Metzger as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. Lee Ann shares your values and concerns. You will find that she brings a wealth of experience to the job and will be a valuable addition to our team.

Thank you again for taking the time to write and share your thoughts with us.

Sincerely,

Andrew H. Card, Jr.

Dear President Bush,

I wish to strongly urge you to reconsider the unfortunate decision to fire Mr. Doug Wead. Mr. Wead is a voice for millions of people, who voted for you, trusting that you would uphold evangelical Christian values.

To the president of the United States -
I am terribly disappointed in the way you are doing things. Entering to homosexuals and firing a long ~~ago~~ devoted friend who has stood by you and encouraged you to stand by the principles, for which the Christian Community voted for you in the first place - Don't fool yourself into thinking they (homos) are going to vote for you - You are the 1st president ever to invite homosexuals to the White House for discussions -

So you fire Doug Wead - You pass that hate act, which you know who it will protect, you pass the disabled act, you know who wants to be declared disabled!

You promise "No New Taxes," you said yourself that if wasteful spending was checked, there was no need of new taxes, why don't you stick with that? Why do you listen to people who want to make slaves of us, thru taxation?

We trusted you to stand up for moral principles, no abortion over funds for the N.E.A. making blasphemous pictures. Don't you realize where we are headed, filthy education - etc

What's the use for us to put in good people, and you go ahead and fire them. Why don't you seek wisdom and discretion from God to make the right decisions.' That is what I ^{was} expectel from you and are praying for.

Reinstate Doug Wead! and appoint godly people in offices - !! that my advice for you if you expect God's blessing on this beautiful land of Ours.

Dear President Bush,

I am a registered voter of, (at this time the republican party.

I am writing to you about the firing of Doug Weed.

As I see it; he got fired for doing his job. It was his job to advise you there'd be a reaction to the gay people being invited to the signing. He was trying to tell you there'd be a strong reaction from at least 50 million people. Because they do not all write letters or maybe phone calls, does not change their opinions or views.

I feel it is a deep error of the firing of Doug Weed from his position. Most likely you've been ill-advised, or under some spiritual attack.

I am a christian who follows our Lord Jesus & you are in prayers of me & many many

I know you are of the same Lord, & I pray God gives you every revelation you need.

God Bless you

Re: Wead Firing

Dear Mr. President,

I want to say I strongly disagree with your decision to fire Mr. Doug Wead. Mr. Wead was my conservative voice in Washington D.C., Now, I feel you have turned your back on myself and many others who share my views. We voted for you in confidence, but you seem to be showing a secret side. Please review your Pro-family strategies and election promises.

Dear Mr. President,

I am very upset over your dismissal of Doug Weard. I don't understand how you can dismiss a man for a statement or his belief.

You know that he must stand up for what is right, and the only way to judge that is by the Bible.

Although God loves the homosexual he hates their sin and the acceptance of that sin as normal and good.

I feel you have abridged this man's first amendment rights. Are your shoulders not big enough for criticism. Why don't you change your decision and not let him go.

Dear Mr. President:

I wish to express my dismay at what would seem to be your change of heart on several issues. Specifically, I disagree with the firing of Mr. Doug Wead, the inclusion of homosexuals and AIDS victims as protected groups in the Civil Rights Protection Act, and the softening of your no new tax position.

Mr. President, it must be lonely up there for you and Mr. Quayle, being a conservative oasis in the midst of the otherwise liberal desert of Washington. But we of the conservative Christian majority elected you because you promised to protect traditional family values and control federal spending. I'm sorry we have neglected to give you more constant encouragement, leaving your ear to be dominated by liberal lobbyists and your liberal colleagues. Conservative Americans who embrace traditional family values are still in the majority, as shown by certain poles and by your overwhelming victory over Mr. Dukakis.

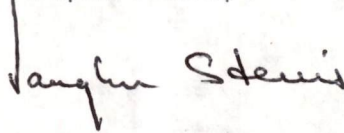

Sunday I was privileged to teach I Samuel 7:3-14 to an adult Sunday school class. When Israel (like America) worshipped Baalim (fertility, abundance of crops, prosperity, national debt) and Ashtaroth (sex, perversion, promiscuity, abortion), God allowed them to be defeated by the Philistines (like Russians). But when Israel "put away Baalim and Ashtaroth, and served the Lord only", then "the hand of the Lord was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel".

When America began to worship prosperity and sex in the 1960's, God permitted our defeat in Viet Nam, our first defeat in American history. America stands today at the same cross roads where Israel stood those centuries ago. We may choose to continue worshipping prosperity and perversion with increased subservience to the East, or we may choose returning to the traditional values of economic and sexual self control that brought God's blessings to our forefathers.

President Reagan was the greatest president of my 44-year lifetime.

Mr. President, you have the opportunity to become the greatest president since George Washington. Please stand firm on your promises of preserving traditional family values and controlling spending. Please lead America, as Samuel led Israel, back to favor with God. We of the conservative Christian majority will boldly follow.

Respectfully,

The Honorable George Bush
President of the United States

Mr. President:

Words seem too little to express just how appalled I am at the recent events surrounding the dismissal of Doug Weed from your staff. And I sincerely hope that it wasn't you who did that.

May I direct your attention to the much heralded First Amendment to the Constitution you swore to uphold and defend. On your staff, is there exception to being afforded protection under the law of the land? Weed's letter simply stated that you were done a disservice by your staff when gay and lesbian leaders were invited to the signing of the Hates Crimes Bill. Certainly, Weed was very soft-spoken on this. But, he was absolutely correct. Where, then, Mr. President, were Mr. Weeds rights. Temporarily misplaced, perhaps?

Mr. President, you have the distinction of being the first President of the United States who has allowed, much less invited, avowed homosexual leaders into the White House. Go ahead! Follow the example of Mr. Carter, who among his many other non-accomplishments, was the first to have his staff using illegal drugs there. Now, it appears, you have your first. Know this. I object most strongly, speaking as one of the owners. And I remind you, sir, and whoever of your staff led you to this, that you are only a tenant there, a tenant whose lease may just have been abbreviated. You and/or your staff have desecrated a national treasure by this action.

In your last campaign you were strong on families and traditional values. Partying with homosexual leaders is in direct contravention to that expression of support. Your expressed support of such traditional values won you quite a lot of votes. Your inviting these groups into the White House can lose as many or more.

Sincerely,

Forest C. Beavers, Jr.

Dear President Bush:

When you were elected as President I was immensely happy and thanked God for answer to prayer. A country is blessed when its leader is a child of God, as he will receive His wisdom when asked for guidance.

You have proven to be a great President, and I am so proud to watch press conferences & hear your knowledgeable comments & the manner in which you handle the press with ~~with~~ authority as well as warmth & humor.

Needless to say I have the deepest love & respect for you & your lovely down-to-earth Barbara, your family, as well as Vice-Presidents Quayle & Marilyn & pray for wisdom & safety for you all.

In light of the foregoing I am in shocked disbelief to learn that your advisor, Doug Wide (SP?), concerning the political ramifications of decisions affecting to conservative Christians, was fired from his position. He is a well-respected Godly man who was giving his opinion from the conservative's perspective as he was employed to do, reportedly regarding an invitation to homosexuals to attend the signing of a Civil Rights bill.

Needless to say I'm not apprised of all of the details & do not know if you were personally involved in this action. As a child of God, I'm certain that you are aware that homosexuality is forbidden in the eyes of God & His blessing could not possibly rest on a people who continues to promote the lifestyle of perverts (or murderers), such as is being heavily "promoted" by Hollywood & the liberal press.

We are to love all people, but we are not to love & accept their perversion anymore than we are to accept the lifestyle of a murderer who continues to murder.

Do hope the decision will be reversed regarding Doug Weide.

With highest respect for you &
yours.

Dear President Bush,

I would like to protest the firing of Doug Weed.
How contrary to all that we believe in and value, to have him dismissed in favor of a people that are perverted in their lifestyle.

The late Dr. J. Vernon McGee states it so well in his Bible notes (p. 238, Vol II, Thru' the Bible with J. Vernon McGee) when he says:

"It is obvious that the decisions made in our government today - regardless of the party - are not made 'in the fear of God.' They are made in the fear of the voters. There is little effort being made to please God in our government. I wish it could be said that the United States of America is a Christian nation. It is not."

How descriptive of the times in which we live. I'm sorry the forces of evil. You certainly need our prayers.

The Honorable George Bush

Dear Mr. President:

It was a shock and a disappointment that Mr. Doug Wead was dismissed from his important position as being a liaison between you and the Christian people of this country. There are many thousands of us who look upon this with disfavor.

For a Godly man to be dismissed for doing his duty and warning against undesirable and immoral people attending a signing at the White House just to appease those who sympathize with people who commit sexual acts which, according to the Bible, is an abomination to God, is a disaster for this country. 2

The Christians have been gaining some lost ground, as far as moral values, Christian young people using the schools for Bible study, and several other important issues for the establishing and keeping the values which our founding fathers intended for this country.

I hope Douglas Wood will be exonerated by being reinstated or given a position of equal importance to the Christians and their high moral standards.

Dear Mr. President,

This letter is written in protest of your firing of Doug Weed as a liason person on the White House Staff, and pandering to the Homosexual or "gay" lobbies.

We who are Christians do not have proportionate representation in Washington as it is. We are thrown a crumb occasionally as regards appointments.

Apparently, your feeling is "we Christians have no where else to go" except the Republican Party so you can pander to the homosexuals and liberals.
We don't need either in the Republican Party.
The Democrats are the party of the liberal, the homosexual, and the abortionist. That is as it should be. There needs to be a clear distinction. A more accurate name would be conservative and ~~the~~ Liberal Parties

We conservative Americans may not have "anywhere else to go." However with conservative estimates placed at 50,000,000 of us, that would be a pretty good start for a 3rd party or we can always "go fishing" on election day. That is just what I for one may do if you continue your attempts to bring liberals, abortionists and homosexuals under and into the Republican party. I will be praying for you.

Yours.

DEAR MR. President

Mr. Martin Maddoux of Point of View from Dallas, TX has recently informed the public that you fired Mr. Doug Weads — your special Assistant and a conservative that took a strong stand against homosexuality.

I'm very disappointed in your decision to fire Mr. Weads. I love America; therefore, I hate to see it being turned over to those who take no stand for morality. And, God forbid, that our President be partaker of such degradation of our country by firing the conservatives and replacing them with liberals.

As a voter, I cast my vote for you in '88, but let me say kindly, Mr. President, that if such action continues, I'll be changing the course of my ballot come '92.

I believe in America, but unless we hold true to God and

Dear Mr. President Bush:

First we want you to know we have your picture here before us each day and pray for you and for Barbara that you would each day pray together and that you (from your busy life) would pray yourself alone with God. We pray you would listen to God's voice and not the voice of your fellow government.

We prayed that Doug Head would be your Christian influence and we are very sorry you have lost his influence. We know the Lord will take care of him but the loss is yours and ours.

If we keep up our morality in our country we will not have the judgement upon us as Sodom and Gomorra because of Homosexuality in the Bible which is a warning to our country.

Now we are praying you will have Wisdom (Godly Wisdom) to lead our country. We were so very glad to have a Christian President.

We think this is going to ruin the influence of another term for a republican president.

We are very sorry about this and we want to protest of having the homosexuals to help to run our country. It is not that we do not love their soul but God is angry with this kind of life. We are concerned for our government and our country.

Praying for you and your family

Dear President George Bush,

I strongly express my disagreement with the firing of Doug Wead. He stood for our Christian values. Many Christians voted for you on the expression of your Conservative Christian values. Ask effect you to uphold these values. As I observe, you are shifting your values when you welcome in pro-abortion and homosexual people and fire Doug Wead, who represented the Christians of America. I ask that you reconsider your decision as I will be expressing my views now and before the '92 elections.

Mr. President:

I would like to express my disagreement to the firing of Mr. Dug Weed by your administration.

I hear a lot about discrimination against blacks and other minority groups, but I never hear anything about the blatant discrimination against christians in virtually every aspect of our society. I view the termination of Mr. Weed as such discrimination and a violation of his right to voice his opinion. This is evident in light of the reason for his termination being his refusal to advocate the inviting of members of the homosexual community to the White House.

I urge you to reconsider this decision and reinstate Mr. Dug Weed to his office at the White House.

Mr. President,

I am in full support of the goals of the Republican Party. I feel they best represent the desires of my Christian brothers and sisters.

When President Regan ran for office the first time I wasn't sure I liked him but I liked you and I was very glad he asked you to run with him. So you might say I voted for you 3 times!

I strongly feel you are one president who can and will make a difference in our government.

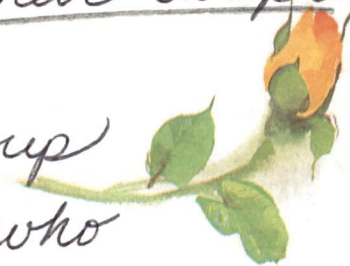

However, I am greatly concerned over some new actions taken. The firing of Doug Weed.

I hate the homosexuality movement!

Our constitution was made up by Christians, designed to protect our rights. Now the lesbians are controlling the White House.

They are a small group in comparison to the Christian group of people in America. Our rights are being violated by the White House's response to their acceptance to this perversion!

How could this group of people, a group who has cost us (the tax paying Christians) several dollars in research and moreover the lives of men, women and Children to AIDS, be openly invited to a function up against this deadly group of perverts. Our forefathers would

3 of 3

I do want to thank-you for

Dear President Bush,

I stongly disagree with the firing of Mr. Doug Wead. He seemed to ~~serve his position with excellence and, I'm sure he was a~~ beneficial member of your administration. As the liason for evangelical Christians in America, he effectively communicated the views of the evangelicals who voted for you and trusted you to uphold the ~~pro-family, Judeo-Christian values that made this nation~~ great. Please ~~reconsider your decision to fire him.~~

Dear President Bush,

Being a 30 year old mother of two preschoolers and a registered nurse who works part-time in this capacity, your position of a "family orientation" appealed to me and was the chief reason for my voting for you at election time. I truly believed that you and your wife held similar values as to the sanctity of the family. Now, however, I am much disappointed and question this. I believe the firing of Mr. Doug Wedd as special assistant for public liason was a great mistake and was brought on by the homosexual community placing pressure and using their money and influences. I am saddened at this incident and others in our America that causes seemingly upright leaders - elected leaders to lose their backbones and lessen their characters.

Dear Mr. President:

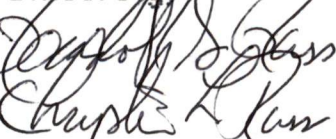

We have been very pleased with the selection of Mr. Doug Weed and his impact in allowing the Christian community to have a voice in the White House.

Yesterday we were made aware of his firing, supposedly as a result of his opposition to the homosexual forum which has recently been given a priority position in your administration.

The Christian community was instrumental in making its voice known by overwhelmingly selecting you as President. You recently abandoned us with your statement that raising taxes is a very real possibility. If Mr. Weed's position is less important than the homosexual community, which has no record of supporting you or your administration, then it will be difficult for us to continue to support you, except through much prayer. Is this the reward the homosexual community is due for their treatment of Mr. Sullivan recently, while making a speech in San Francisco to the AIDS conference?

Please reconsider your stand on this issue and return Mr. Doug Weed to his place in your administration, even at the cost of the homosexual community. May God bless you!

Dear Mr. President:

With the crisis in the Middle East, perhaps one would think that your firing of Mr. Weal is not very important. But I feel very disappointed and sad over this matter. Without moral values held high, how can we expect to prosper

Dear President Bush,

Recently I became aware of the dismissal of Mr. Doug Weed, special assistant to the President, from the White House Staff. I would like to express my concern that this man was a very effective spokesman for many in the Evangelical Christian segment of the citizenry of the U. S, and his dismissal appears to have been in response to a small but vocal segment of society.

I would ask that you look into this matter and reconsider Mr. Weeds dismissal as well as determine the person or persons responsible for this most questionable act. I believe that the Evangelical Christians have supported you in the last election and I trust that we would still have a reason to do so. It appears that there is a steady erosion of ethical and moral values in our nation and we must be diligent to guard every aspect of our society against this do your own thing, or if it feels good do it perspective of life. What about Mr. Weeds, replacement? If he is effective in his job he will also come under attack, if he isn't he shouldn't be in the position either.

I believe there is a concerted effort by certain groups to eliminate all Christian influence from society. The laws or interpretations of them, the school curriculums and textbooks, the bias reflected in the media as well as many bureaucrats bear this out. I expect that within a few years to see a severe persecution of Christians in this the very nation established by those with Christian values and convictions. I trust you and those in your administration will not be a part of this.

I understand that there is an effort to court those from the homosexual community into the republican party and it appears the mainstream of american life. This is an abomination to the God I serve and must not be. I have been a republican all of my voting life, but if this trend continues I won't be for long.

Dear Mr. Bush,

Concerning the firing of Doug Wead, Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison, I am greatly upset. Because of this move, in the White House, there is now no voice to represent the Evangelical community.

If you believe your Bible to be true, then you must know that the wrath of God will be poured out upon alternate lifestyle groups, such as the homosexuals and lesbians. You are listening to their needs rather than those of the moralistic people who are concerned for where this nation is headed.

If something is not done about this quickly, God will judge accordingly. I suggest prayer for starts.

Dear President Bush:

This is to inform you of my total disbelief and disagreement of the firing of R. Douglas Wead, special assistant to the president for public liaison.

If you are to be a president of traditional values, you certainly are headed in the wrong direction. It is obvious that you are leaning toward these special interest groups that have reeked havoc on our moral and medical communities in this country.

I am just one of over 25,000 people in the Jacksonville, Florida community who has agreed to make public my statement to the president and to my senator and congressman. The active courting of homosexual lobby by the Bush administration goes far beyond any argument of your being "president of all the people." Also, I agree that it is damaging to the administration's standing among many of your constituents.

I would appreciate a full explanation as to why Mr. Wead was fired.

Dear Mr. President:

As a charter member of the Republican Presidential Task Force as well as many other Republican organizations, I wish to let you know how betrayed I feel.

I feel betrayed because you fired Mr. Doug Wead, Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. As an evangelical Christian, I supported and worked in your campaign for President. I did this because you supported traditional moral values during your campaign. Why did you change? How could you honor homosexual gay activists by inviting them to the White House to witness the signing of both the Hate Crimes Bill and the Americans for Disabilities Act? Don't you realize the millions of hard-earned dollars being spent on AIDS research and the heartbreak of many Americans because of the selfish homosexuals who refuse to change their lifestyle? Why should you be the first President to honor such self-centered persons? Millions of hard-working, moral, honest citizens have never received such honors. I am amazed that you cannot see the dichotomy of your actions.

Mr. Wead informed you of the way evangelical Christians would feel about your honoring homosexuals. Mr. Wead was exactly right. Nevertheless, he was fired for doing the job for which he was hired. Do you actually think that the homosexuals will vote for you in 1992? Not a chance--as long as you support traditional family values. But--maybe that is changing too.

I cannot express in words my feelings of disappointment in your firing of Mr. Wead. Whomever advised you in this matter was certainly wrong.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. President:

We are in disagreement with the firing of Mr. Doug Wead, special assistant to the president. Mr. Wead has upheld the traditional family and christian values we and so many in our nation espouse.

The evangelical community put you in office. Now, however, you are turning your back on us.

- you support increased funding of the NEA despite the anti-christian and homo-sexual erotic art it supports. You are also against applying restrictions on the art this organization sponsors
- you invited homosexuals to the White House - put them in a place of honor in spite of the fact that they are killing off the nation with AIDS
- the pro-life stance you had when you were campaigning has weakened.

We consider the firing of Doug Wead as a personal slap in the face. We ask that you reconsider the termination of Doug Wead and reinstate him immediately.

Dear Mr. President

I am deeply upset over your inviting homosexuals to the helping to legitimize their life style. Infact, you should be speaking out against it. The homosexual life style and values if excepted will destroy our nation. God cannot honor a nation

I am also upset that you would fire a fine christian man like

Dear Mr. President,

The firing of Special Public Liason Doug Wead is a sad fact to me. Especially considering the apparent reason for his firing - that he was resistant to the homosexual agenda(s).

Mr. President, the homosexual vote did not put you in office. The conservative vote did. So it is easy to see why we feel ^{slighted} betrayed. It may feel the same way.

I'm sure it can be tough to stand up to special interest groups who (that) continue to badger you to fulfill their agenda(s). But it has to be done.

Dear Mr. President:

First, let me say that we have been very pleased with your Presidency and have great respect for you and Barbara Bush. We realize how many and great the decisions you must make every day. You are often in our prayers.

It has been brought to our attention, however, that your Chief of Staff and those who work closely with him, have decided to ease your friends, and ours, Doug Wead from his position. This, Mr. President will be a grave mistake.

Already the news of Dougs dismissal is causing a furor in the Evangelical circles which is several million strong. So strong, in fact, that it could seriously effect your re-election, and that would be sad.

I am sure that many that work on your staff are not fully aware of the stength of the Evangelicals, and are therefore inclined to make decisions that could be harmful to you.

Mr. President, I feel that the best thing you can do at this time is to inform your Chief of Staff to retain Doug Wead in his position. We pray that this will be done.

As a conservative Republican, I have long admired you, and am praying daily for you these days, in the midst of the chaos in the Middle East. Surely God will guide you in choosing the right course of action.

The immediate purpose of this letter, however, is to question your dismissal of Doug Wead, a born again Christian who I thought was serving you well in your liaison office. He certainly was well thought of by evangelicals who make up a large portion of your support. His absence from the White House is a blow to those of us concerned about family values. If it is true that the liberals on your staff got him out because of his letter criticizing the invitation to homosexuals to a bill-signing ceremony, the more the pity!

Dear Mr. President:

I am a Pentecostal Christian, called to preach and teach and minister the gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

In 1988--the whole year, up until Election Day-- I prayed day and night for the elections. First I prayed to find out from the Lord who the right men were for the offices of President and Vice President. When He told me that you, Mr. Bush, were His choice for our new Chief Executive, I began at once praying for you to be nominated. And you were nominated!

Then I began praying for you to be elected. All year long I prayed and watched your campaign and prayed some more. On Election Day I fasted and prayed, holding you up before our Lord and Savior. And you were elected! Praise the Lord!

Since the day you took office in January of 1989 I have continued to pray for you daily--that the Lord would bless and protect you from all harm, and that He help you to make right and good decisions concerning the people of this nation. And you have done a good job so far, in my opinion, except for one thing.

Your recent decision to put Special Assistant Doug Wead out of his position as Public Liaison, in my personal opinion, was not a good one. We Christians of America need a fellow Christian representative in the White House to set a Christian example before the nation and to act as our spokesman; to do whatever is necessary to maintain good sound Biblical principles and values in our country.

As I write this letter on this, the Lord's Day--the 5th day of August-- I prayerfully request that you seriously reconsider letting Mr. Wead remain in his position there in Washington DC. Please keep him, and other good men of God, in White House positions. We Christians are "the salt of the earth" ! Without us, and without our Blessed Lord and Savior who lives in our hearts, the earth would immediately cease to have any purpose for existing! (Scripture quote: Matthew 5:13).

Too, I, and many of my brothers and sisters in Christ, are greatly disturbed over the recent invitation to have homosexually perverted people present at our nation's capitol for the signing of certain bills. WE ARE GREATLY DISTURBED BY THIS! We see such an invitation as being White House ACCEPTANCE of their sordid, ungodly lifestyle! Public acceptance of it! Although we do not reject the person of any human being, we do reject and loathe the homosexuals' abominable lifestyle, which has served to corrupt the high moral standards of our country!
