THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 21, 1990

Dear Ms. Wall:

Thank you for your recent letter to the White House regarding Special Assistant to the President Doug Wead.

Over the years Doug has been a valuable member of the President's team and has served him faithfully. For several months, however, Doug has been discussing with a variety of people, and specifically with me, his decision to leave his White House position to pursue other avenues. During that period of time, several options were presented to Doug and discussed.

A short time ago, a mutual decision was made that Doug would end his tenure here as of September 1. Both Doug and others here recognize that there have been rumors and innuendos regarding his decision to leave. None of these has any basis in truth.

The President has named Ms. Lee Ann Metzger as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. Lee Ann shares your values and concerns. You will find that she brings a wealth of experience to the job and will be a valuable addition to our team.

Thank you again for taking the time to write and share your thoughts with us.

Sincerely,

Andrew H. Card, Jr.

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT —

I AM CONCERNED ABOUT THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE RECENT FIRING OF DOUG WEAD. YOU NEEDED THIS MAN'S VOICE IN YOUR OFFICE AS A LINK NOT ONLY TO "FUNDAMENTALISTS" IN THIS COUNTRY BUT ALSO WE PENTECOSTALS AND CHARISMATICS. WHAT STEPS WILL YOU TAKE TO ENSURE THAT CONSERVATIVE TRADITIONAL VALUES WILL BE VOICED IN THE WHITE HOUSE?

MY LISTENERS AND I MENTION YOU IN A DAILY MOMENT OF PRAYER ON MY PROGRAM. MAY YOU AND YOUR STAFF BE BLESSED IN ALL YOUR DECISIONS DURING THE CRISIS OF THE MOMENT.

Dear President Bush,

I am writing this letter to say that I disapprove of the firing of Mr. Doug Wead this last week. I am very concerned because this is just one more instance in which you are showing the conservative coalition, who helped to elect you, that you no longer are concerned over traditional family concerns. Inviting homosexuals to the White House for the signing of the Anti-Hate Bill and also for the Handicap Bill, which includes AIDS victims, shows us that you are being swayed away from traditional family values. Please don't buy into the homosexual philosophy, for as a psychiatric nurse I have worked with homosexual people for years and I have yet to see a "gay" homosexual. It has been my experience that they are just the opposite and are doing their best to cover-up.

In our society we are currently going through an upsurge of anti-Christian bigotry. Please don't let Doug Wead and others like him end up as casualties of this problem. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Jan Haglund, RN, C.

Dear President Bush:

I'm writing to express my strong objection to your firing of Doug Wead.
The Christian community feel betrayed, & I'm afraid you have lost more than you gained. Certianly, you've lost a lot of votes, remember, it was The Christian vote that put you in the White House.

The gays did not vote for you, & most likely will not next time. Think about how many more Christians there is out here than there is gays.

Doug Wead is a fine man, I think that you have been ill served by your advisors. We love you, and are praying for you, and hope you will find some way to get Doug back where he belongs.

Dear Mr President,

I was very disappointed to hear about your firing Doug Weed. You certainly didn't campaign like a person who would support Homosexual causes over the traditional family. If you had I wouldn't have voted for you.

It is the good Christian people who voted you into office not the homosexuals. Please don't betray your friends.

Dear President Bush:

It is with much shock, concern and disappointment to learn that Doug Wead, Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison, has been fired because he disagreed with the policy of inviting avowed homosexuals to the White House for the signing of the Hate Crimes Bill.

It is difficult to support an administration who allows such a thing to happen, and it will certainly alienate you and the administration from thousands of evangelical Christians throughout the nation.

I pray that the powers-that-be will reconsider this action.

Dear Mr. President:

I would like to tell you I appreciate your efforts on behalf of our nation. I realize you have a plethora of concerns before you.

However, I must say I am shocked and amazed at the firing of Doug Wlead. To my mind it indicates a scary tendancy of the White House to cater to homosexuals, which in turn reflects a demoralization of our nations top officials, as does the inviting of the homosexuals to various signings of bills (the provisions of which are distressing also.)

I for one voted for you for President because I liked the moral values you seemed to hold.

Please Mr. President, re-hire
Mr. Wead & do everything you can to preserve family, life & morals in our nation.

Thank-you.

Dear Pres. Bush,

We have recently learned of the firing of Doug Weed. We are in strong disagreement with this action feeling he has the values so needed in our government today.

We are opposed to the homosexuals "preferential" treatment through invitations to the White House and the promoting of their life style through the funding of their Art. (?)

We strongly feel you are losing the very people who voted you into office by such actions, as the majority of people do not deny them their choice of life style but do strongly object to their demands & hostile activities.

We ask you to carefully consider this in the future.

Dear President Bush,

It is with great regret that I write this letter to you. I was an ardent supporter of your bid for the Presidency and have supported your decisions. Recently, however, your policies are getting far away from those I thought you supported and I now must re-think my support. In particular, your blatant embracing of homosexuals and lesbians by officially inviting their most radical leaders to the signing of the Hate Crimes Bill and the Disabilities Act recently. As you know, Homosexuals and lesbians only comprise about 3 percent of the American populace. They are against the traditional values of the family and are anti-Christian Bigots. Many psychologists and Sociologists of this era are blaming the crime and moral deprivation of the United States on the break down of the American Family, yet the White House openly courts those who are calling to re-define the family as any group of people who happen to live with one another or have sex with one another. The icing on the cake is the firing of Mr. Doug Wead. I protest strongly this decision and feel that it casts a shadow on your Presidency. Those of us who supported you in 1988 and continue to do so are those 50 million or so evangelicals, Christians, and Conservatives who believe in traditional values. We supported "No new taxes" and believed you when you said that what we needed was less spending not new taxes. We supported you in your Pro-life stance that is against Baby-Killing. We supported your ideas about traditional family values. Now we find that you are for unrestricted funding on the National Endowment for the arts which has granted funds for such pornography the world has never before seen. You have taken a timid stand against abortion; and you have catered to the small minority groups at the expense of the vast majority who made you President. You can't for one moment believe that those homosexual lobbyists, leaders, or artists voted for you in '88 or will vote for you in '92.

In a positive light I would like to commend you for Vetoing the parental leave act and I hope you will veto any legislation that comes which forces Christian or Church run daycare centers and Family centers or private schools to teach only certain curricula or that would make those centers undesirable for parents because of tax rules.

I believe that for the sake of our Children we must protect the family and Judeo-Christian values at every cost and we must be strong in our commitment to them and not bow down to liberal minorities who would have us accepting their lifestyle at the expense of our own.

In closing, I URGE you to reconsider your decision concerning Mr. Wead who in the past has served you so faithfully and I would ask that you remember the promises you made to the American People when we elected you. Please note that it's partially the fault of such high taxes that the average family has to have 2 incomes, which leaves the children to be raised by institutions instead of by loving parents. Mr. President, please continue to be part of the solution instead of ✓ part of the problem.

I continue to support you and I hope to receive a personal reply to this letter, however, I know that you are probably one of the busiest men on Earth. May God Bless You and Your Family and know that I am remembering you and your awesome task in my prayers.

Sincerely Yours,

Re: Doug Wead firing - Con

The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear President Bush,

Mr. President, I write to you in view of recent events from the White House to simply ask, "What are you doing?" I was glad to vote for you because you stressed the importance of traditional family values which you endeared. But now I am wondering about your sincerity. I am speaking specifically concerning the influence that the homosexual community seems to wield on your Administration. I think it was a terrible mistake to fire Mr. Doug Wead from his position because he would not compromise his beliefs to conform to Administration views on homosexuality. Nothing could be more anti family than the advancement of homosexuality on any front. And to see the influence that this faction has upon this Administration is very disturbing at the least to me. I hope the reason for the firing of Mr. Wead is from poor advice and not the carrying out of the President's wishes. Christians are looking for unshakable commitment to traditional family values. Please don't let us down. Homosexuality is never profitable for family life, a nation's survival in the past, present, or future, and for political posturing. Mr. President, righteousness exalteth a nation. Return to your campaign promises. Help restore traditional family values, before it is too late.

Sincerely,

Pat Smith

Wlad

President of United States
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President,

In writing in regards to the firing of Doug Wlad from your staff. My husband and I were so comforted to know an individual with the great Christian heritage, such as Doug has, was in this position to represent all the Christians and like the Hebrew children, Doug would hold the standard and faith of His and our God, speaking only the truth as his God-Conscience prompted. Pres. Bush, we were reminded of ~~Herod~~^{HEROD} requesting the head of John the Baptist to please the ungodly desires of his daughter, because his ungodly wife's Conscience was disturbed about John the Baptist voice of God's message. This is ^{what} ~~how~~ we felt was happening to Doug. He was doing his job both to man and God as he was committed to doing. Someone made the request for his removal and it was allowed to happen. Therefore, Doug's head was delivered to be removed in spite of what was right in God's sight.

The Christians are very disturbed that God's voice, through Doug was removed. This is a reduction to our being heard in these kind of events etc.

My husband and I know Doug's roots. His parents were highly respected people in the mid-west for their leadership in Christian work. We have confidence in Doug that he lives according to God's Word and would never bring reproach on his parents and especially God. He has the respect of all the Christians and we hold him up always in our prayers. Truth always prevails.

I'm so glad Doug spoke out and like the Hebrew Children God will take care of Doug and vengeance is *God's as *He sees fit and in His *time for those who permitted and were involved in Doug's removal -

Tho, Doug's voice was quieted or stopped in the place, we sincerely was where God placed him & God will see that Doug will be His voice elsewhere as God Himself deals with those guilty of interrupting Doug's work for God in the work at the white House.

Mr. President, we wish you well and also pray for you and your family daily. We know "the heart of man is in God's hand" - He stalts and brings down all in His time, whomsoever He wills. Doug's removal was man's doing - Not God's -

God Bless You
Mrs. Faye Neal

Dear President Bush,

As my President as well as my brother, in Christ, I want you to look into the firing of Doug Weed. If he was doing his job to inform you how I would feel when you counted the less than one million homosexual votes as compared to our 50 million Christian votes then he should be reinstated.

I want you to look into this personally. I think it is quite possible there is a spirit of anti-God operating in your atmosphere. Doug Weed is called of God and to mess with him (if he was doing right) is to mess with God. I don't want any area of your White House staff to come under His condemnation.

I will be writing again soon to see if you have taken care of this matter.
Thank you, sir! God bless you!

Dear Mr President:

This letter is to let you know that I am very upset with the firing of Doug Weed. It looks to me that you are turning your back on the evangelistic community who voted you into office. And your inviting representatives from the Gay Rights group a couple of times to the White House is a puzzle when they voted against you in 1988 and will do it again in 1992. Also this group represents only a small percent of the population (3%).

I do hope that Mr. Weed's replacement will serve you and those consider family valuse important. The family is the glue that holds this nation together.

Dear President Bush,

This letter is not to pass judgement for a situation that I don't know the whole story about. That is for God and I know His judgements are always right.

I would like to express my concern for the recent firing of Doug Wead from your staff.

Certainly, as you may suspect, my first reaction was selfish in that Mr.

Wead represents our voices for the fundamental Christian citizens, in the White House.

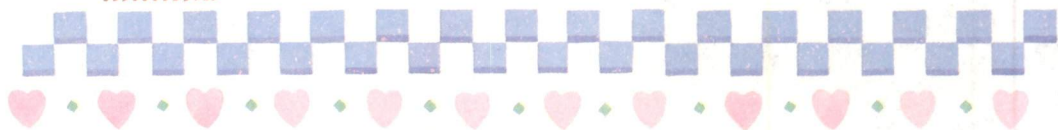

He was the one we looked to to express the morals and biblical values that has been acknowledged as the foundation for the greatness of this country. To be an influence in the leadership and guidance for this country which would cause us as citizens to continue believing God's blessings and favor for our lives. This of course would be our desire of a selfish nature.

But more importantly, if Mr. Wead was relieved of his duties as advisor because he gave advice for which he was hired to do and this advice was not heeded, It sends out a message to the citizens of this country that only one voice will be allowed. That is a voice which is consistly anti-Christian anti-moral, anti-righteous...

To consistently follow after these ideals will be more dangerous to the welfare of this country than any foreign hostile enemies army on our borders.

Proverbs 14:34 tells us "Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach (disgrace) to any people." What is "disgrace" but a loss of God's favor. With God's favor (grace) we can turn away

"every" enemy to our nation.

President Bush - a minorities vote, such as the abortionists, homosexuals, anti Christian, humanists or any other group is never enough to turn your ear from God's voice and he moved from righteousness. His desire is to find a people and a leader for His people such as you President Bush who will obey His voice and stand for His values so he may do His will in this land.

Your place as President of the United States is by God's grace.

Please respond to Him and He will see you through even the darkest hour.

We are committed to pray for you to hold you before the Lord so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty . . . so that ^{all} men may be saved, and to come ^{into} the knowledge of the truth. (1 Tim 2: 2 & 4).

this country to be able to approach you today

The purpose of this letter is to express my deep concern about the removal of Mr. Doug Wead from the White House Staff.

It is my understanding that the reason for his dismissal was because of his ongoing advise to disregard the gay community and because of pressure from the gay community to obtain removal of Mr. Wead from the White House staff.

Dear President Bush:

I'm absolutely shocked that you would let your liason officer, Doug Wead, be released from your staff as your Communication Advisor for the Evangelical community.

We of the Evangelical ranks, including myself, have supported you--and supported you well simply because we believe in you. However, I was disappointed to find out that David Demarest and Bobbie Greene Kilberg would have the authority to dismiss Doug Wead on the basis of denying the gay and lesbian group at a White House event.

You must realize that a very large Evangelical group helped put you in office. Prior to your election you articulated to us that you were behind the Christian traditional moral values that we, as Evangelicals, stand for. This recent turn of events is a great disappointment to us.

If there are reasons other than the ones listed in The Washington Times (Thursday, 8/2/90) concerning the release of Doug Wead, then the Evangelical community should be advised.

Sincerely,

Sometimes I wonder if the word Honorable is recognized as such in our changing times, when I look at ways our Country is deteriorating so rapidly.

I like many other Christians voted for you because, of course you were the better of the

I am very disappointed, I know your tasks have been heavy and hard, and even our President does not always have the right

I WAS ONE OF YOUR SUPPORTERS IN THE LAST PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION. I VOTED FOR YOU BECAUSE OF YOUR PROCLAMATION AGAINST NEW TAXES, AND FOR WHAT I PERCEIVED TO BE IN YOU AS ONE WHO WOULD STAND FOR TRADITIONAL FAMILY VALUES.

Dear Mr. President:

We are Republican supporters of yours and voted for you in 1988. We pray often for you, that you will be led of God in the many and awesome decisions which you must make. However, we feel that you were misled in your decision to fire Mr. Doug Wead from the White House staff. We feel that the homosexual lobby was able to sway you in this decision, and we feel that this is both a politically unwise move and a dangerous one for the sake of our country. Please keep in mind that the homosexual minority comprises only about 3% of the population of our country, but the Evangelical Christians, who were represented in the White House by Mr. Wead, are a far larger group. While we would not deny homosexuals their legitimate rights as citizens of our country, we would point out to you that the majority of Americans prefer that our country maintain its traditional (and Biblical) family standards and morals.

May we urge you to reinstate Mr. Wead and also to resist the efforts of the homosexual group to obtain a disproportionate amount of influence over you and those under your direct authority.

We shall continue to pray for you and the other leaders of our country.

The Honorable George Bush
President of the United States
The White House

Dear Mr. President:

I am deeply concerned about a recent very negative event in the White House. This was the firing of Mr. Doug Wead by the Bush Administration. Mr. Wead was the liaison for the Christian community and a strong advocate of conservative views.

Such information is seldom available by way of our regular media. I am glad about having a personal routine to listen to a special radio program that includes such events that everyone should have the opportunity to hear in an unbiased manner but doesn't.

It is my understanding that certain homosexual groups were responsible for the loss of this valuable person, Mr. Wead. I am fairly well aware of some of the efforts being made by the various minority pressure groups. I also listened closely quite recently to a talk show with a one-on-one plan of conducting the discussion. A homosexual man made it clear that homosexuals have no plans to change their life style. Instead, society must accept them. This man showed no consideration for the results of such actions.

I have also paid close attention to other information as to this group's methods to gain strength, power, in other words, by increasing their numbers. The methods are indeed alarming.

I realize these people are also human beings. However, I can not understand how they can be permitted to "take over" the rest of us.

I also understand, Mr. President, that many people help you carry out the affairs of government. From this point of view, I recommend some positive courses of action such as the following:

- 1) Make a point to visit with a trusted conservative clergyman who is familiar with the many ramifications of such actions and this way of life.
Someone of the caliber of Dr. Dobson might be a good choice. He is familiar with the effects of such groups on the family.

As a starter, I referred to the word "homosexual" in the index section of my reference Bible and found several entries. Try reading 1 Corinthians 6:9-10.

A research scientist familiar with Aids would also provide valuable information.

- 2) Try putting yourself in the place of Christians and think how their rights are being taken away. How can we let man replace Christian values with his greed for power? Which man's views shall we use as a standard?
- 3) Then, please think about how you felt about the trust you placed in the President of our country when you were not a public servant.
Yes, we voted for you with that kind of trust in mind.
- 4) Then, please reconsider returning Mr. Wead to his liaison position immediately.

I will add that I am interested only in hearing of some positive course of action to solve this problem before it increases in strength. I want no form letter or justification for such action as the firing of Mr. Wead.

I would like to express my gratitude to you for your sincerely expressed complimentary remarks about Senator Pressler and his complete devotion to the welfare of the South Dakota people in his work as our senator. I am appreciating these remarks from you and other facts about this caring and unselfish public servant in a recent campaign ad for Senator Pressler.

President Bush:

I would like to voice my strong personal disappointment in the firing of Doug Wead, Special Assistant to the President in matters of Public Liaison. His views, including those on homosexuals, are a reflection of those of millions of conservative Christian Americans who voted for you in 1988. Your seemingly firm stance on pro-family, pro-life, traditional value issues led conservative Christians to support you. You are letting us down.

I firmly believe that you still hold those traditional American views. I fear that you have surrounded yourself with advisors who are ill-informed or simply do not care about the views of the average American. The number of conservative Christians in this country far outnumber the outspoken, gay-rights activists.

For far too long the Christian community has set back waiting for God to intervene on their behalf. We all know that throughout recorded Biblical history the Enemy has always been powerful enough to lead God's children astray. We also know that to get back in God's "good graces" his people had to pay dearly, both in death and in being led into captivity. I certainly hope you will see the error of your ways before it is too late for the whole country.

Thank you for giving this opinion serious consideration. I have never been moved to write a letter to the President of the United States before but I sincerely feel this is a very serious issue.

Dear President Bush:

Firing your assistant, Doug Wead, from the White House staff because he opposed having homosexuals in the White House, was a major step backwards for America's well being. Mr. Wead supports what traditional Americans stand for and you have dealt a terrible blow to what we believe in. Another mistake your administration made is when homosexuals were invited to the White House to witness the signing of the hate crimes bill. Homosexuals were also invited to the signing of the civil rights protection act. The justification for this was because the law protects AIDS virus carriers. Whatever happened to "AIDS is not a gay disease?" Did you also specifically invite heterosexual individuals? In your election campaign, you professed to support the cause of traditional American values, and the Republican party. Is the goal of the Republican party to eliminate Christianity in America? I refuse to believe it! The Bible teaches that homosexuality is against God's will. I strongly urge you to hire a Christian assistant or rehire Mr. Wead. By doing so, you will not only be protecting what the majority of Americans believe in, but you will also be insuring your re-election and popularity among the people of the United States.

Dear President:

I am writing because yesterday I heard of the firing of Doug Wheaton from the White House staff. This seems like a very unfair decision that was made in haste. Doug Wheaton (I have heard) is a man of integrity and faith and it seems to me that this is the kind of person that you would want in the White House.

Because a man advises you that it is not a good idea to cater to the whims of every liberal group that wants your attention, he is canned. Not only was he "just doing his job", he was advising you to do what I believe to be wisdom.

It seems as if the conservatives are being squeezed right out of the political scene and it's not right that our voice be ignored. I am a born-again Christian, one of many thousands in the United States, and I think we deserve at least equal time with the ungodly, humanistic groups who think their opinion is the only one that counts.

President, I'm praying for you and your advisors, the Senate, the Congress and the Supreme Court. By the way, I'm very happy that the Supreme Court is starting to shape up!

TUESDAY JULY 3

But Christ [is] a Son over His own house, whose house we are if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm to the end (Hebrews 3:6).

Confidence is a much-admired trait that all successful people seem to have in common. The winning coach, the successful job-seeker, the marathon runner . . . each won the mental battle before the physical battle even began.

Confidence is a vital ingredient in the spiritual life as well. A. B. Simpson describes the problem of spiritual insecurity.

Walk with A. B. Simpson

"Seldom have we seen a sadder wreck than when the enemy has succeeded in undermining the simple trust of a child of God and gotten him into self-accusation and condemnation.

"It is a fearful place when the soul allows Satan to take the throne and act as God, sitting in judgment on its every thought and act, and keeping it in the darkness of ceaseless condemnation.

"This is Satan's objective point in all his attacks upon you: to destroy your trust. If he can get you to lose your simple confidence in God, he knows that he will soon have you at his feet.

"For the soul that has known the sweetness of God's love to lose its perfect trust in Him is enough to wreck both the reason and the life. Beloved, 'Hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of [your] hope firm to the end.' "

Walk Closer to God

In the children's story The Little Engine That Could, the little engine climbs a steep incline by puffing, "I think I can, I think I can, I think I can!"

Christians can draw courage from a true story of infinitely greater importance—the story of "The Mighty Savior Who Could . . . and Did!"

And what did the Savior do? He conquered sin and death by climbing the hill of Calvary and declaring, "It is finished."

By placing your confidence in Him, you can meet any situation that lies ahead of you. "I can . . . I can . . . I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." (Philippians 4:13).

Underling is mine - W. George

WEDNESDAY JULY 4

Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest any one fall after the same example of disobedience (Hebrews 4:11).

Scientific inquiry always looks for the cause-and-effect relationship between observable phenomena. But what if, like the proverbial chicken-or-the-egg dilemma, the effect also happens to be the cause? In that case, a vicious circle may ensue.

For the Christian there is another question that deserves an answer: "Which comes first—faith or obedience, unbelief or disobedience?"

Alexander Maclaren explores how those ideas fit together in either a vicious—or a victorious—circle.

Walk with Alexander Maclaren

"Important lessons are given by this alternation of the two ideas of faith and unbelief, obedience and disobedience.

"Disobedience is the root of unbelief. Unbelief is the mother of further disobedience. Faith is voluntary submission within a person's own power.

"If faith is not exercised, the true cause lies deeper than all intellectual reasons. It lies in the moral aversion of human will and in the pride of independence, which says, 'Who is Lord over us? Why should we have to depend on Jesus Christ?'

"As faith is obedience and submission, so faith breeds obedience, but unbelief leads on to higher-handed rebellion. With dreadful reciprocity of influence, the less one trusts, the more he disobeys; the more he disobeys, the less he trusts."

Walk Closer to God

Which cause/effect relationship is at work in your life: faith and obedience, or unbelief and disobedience? The question is worth careful study, for eternity is at stake.

Perhaps John the Baptizer said it best: "He who believes in the Son has everlasting life; and he who does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him" (John 3:36).

The chicken-or-the-egg controversy may never be resolved to everyone's satisfaction. But don't let that keep you from resolving the most important question in your life: your relationship to the Lord.

Cause and effect in spiritual matters

Worship from the Heart

Your relationship with God, established by faith, is the only basis for peace of mind and satisfaction. Ponder the cause and effect expressed in this verse as you put it into practice today: "Delight yourself also in the LORD, and He shall give you the desires of your heart" (Psalm 37:4).

VOL. XLII, No. 14, July 4, 1990

Dear Friend:

What is the "chief end of man?" - first question in the Reformed catechism.

What is your Sumum Bonum? Your supreme purpose? Your reason for living?

This Perspective comes from an article by Gary Player in "The Links Letter"*, a monthly publication that connects pro golfers with each other and with anyone who is interested.

Gary told how his supreme goal was to win the Grand Slam of Golf (U.S. Open, Masters, British Open and PGA Championship).

He achieved his goal and, to his surprise, found it was not enough!

Life was still empty!

The answer to the question with which this letter begins is, "Man's chief end is to glorify God and enjoy Him forever."

This is the ultimate reality in life - consummate fulfillment! Any other goal is subsumed under this.

As one seeks to "glorify God and enjoy Him...", one realizes his maximum potential - gifts - talents - abilities - aptitudes...

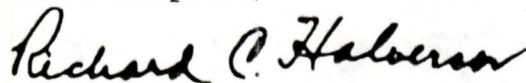

Solomon tried everything - wisdom, wealth, women, pleasure, power and found all "vanity" - emptiness.

Far too late in life, far too many discover this incalculable tragedy - having achieved all they sought, they discover in the end emptiness.

To know God is to know LIFE in all its fulness.

"For in Christ the whole fulness of deity dwells bodily, and you have come to fulness of life in him, who is the head of all rule and authority." (Colossians 2:9-10)

Grace and peace,

Dear President Bush:

I was appalled to learn that Doug Weed was relieved of his job, not necessarily by you personally, but by someone & as I understand it ^{was} over a Biblical question which tells us Christians that Homosexuality is wrong. ~~God~~ God put his stamp of condemnation early in human history. Now we appear to condone what God condemns. The destruction of Sodom & Gomorrah was not condoning a sin but stating His (God's) dislike & condemnation.

We know the bible tells us in the end time men's sins will wax worse & worse.

In Rom 1:18-32 we are told God is giving these people over to themselves, to believe lies & all types of evil.

Doug Weed was doing his job advising you about the Christian Community & I am hoping you will investigate this issue. As a Christian ² I am against homosexuality as a command from God. If they want to practice it that is their right but error.

I cannot support blatant sin in public or public Office.
I am against it, & as I understand you claim to be a Christian, & from the Bible this should be your stand also.

I am expecting you to thoroughly investigate this issue & be reprimanded or fired. Whether you replace Deep is something else, But I expect Christian representation to plead forces & evil are allowed to exist

Over Christian, ³ I will have no other recourse but to seek for Christian
