Dear Sir:-

wead

You will probably never see this letter, but it is worth the 25¢ Stamp for me to give someone in your employ my opinion on the ghastly mistake you made in discharging Doug Wood, one of the few Godly brilliant men in Washington, D.C. You did this in favor of a sinful bunch of homosexuals.

I wonder how many phone calls came in from the millions of Christians who listen to Paul Crouch's "Praise the Lord" TV Program.

Won't you reverse your bad decision and regain the admiration of your Republicans?

Dear Mr. President,

How said we Christians were that you let Doug Wead be fired. He is a good Christian man and we need more like him in the White House.

Also in allowing people like you did to be invited to "our" white House.

We know God loves all people, but it's the "sin" that is committed by various people that God hates.

What will sinful people say when they have to stand by a righteous God who is the final judge. We know according to the Bible and the way the people in this world are doing that Jesus is coming soon. Even so we have no guarantee of tomorrow.

Please put him (Doug Wead) back in his rightful place. Thank You!

We will remember this at Violet

Dear President Bush.

I am disappointed that you chose to dismiss Doug WEAD - I think he was a person of great insight on your behalf. Perhaps in days to come you will realize that and find a place for him to serve in our government again. My trust in you has wavered - therefore, after much thought, I'm returning my membership card of the Republican National Committee. I can not give money to support your ideas down at the grass root. Knowing now that you are not coming through on your promises to us as evangelicals. NO WAY do you need to invite the homosexuals in to see you sign a bill! Your signing was ENOUGH!

Dear Mr. President:

This is the first letter I have ever written to our president in my life. This is hope will show you how seriously concerned I am about Doug Weed being dismissed from your staff. Mr. President, I feel we need the input and the presence of strong committed Christians in government as never before. I would hope that his stand on homosexuality would not cause you to be influenced to make such a decision. We, like they, have the right to voice our opinion without fearing loss of jobs. It really concerns me that it seems that our country is giving everyone else their freedoms and rights while taking away the Christians'. I would certainly hope that we will not be the minority group fighting for our rights before it is all over.

Mr. President, I was at the pro-life rally in Washington in April and was very encouraged by your stand and your remarks. I have confidence in you and voted for you. I know that many Christians did so. Please don't betray that confidence by reversing some of the values that we admired when we cast our vote for you. I believe that Christians are finally beginning to realize that we to have a voice and that we need to let it be known that we are against the un-Godly lifestyle of the homosexual. I can not understand how one can read and know the word of God and then condone the lifestyle of these people. I do not hate the homosexual, but I certainly don't think that a Christian nation should aid them in their sin by recognizing them for their homosexuality alone. To specifically invite homosexuals to the White House is the same as asking a group of bigomists. Are they not breaking the law in some states by admitting they are homosexuals? Please forgive my bluntness, but I really don't understand how a Christian nation can allow such immorality to prevail. No, we cannot stop what these people do in the privacy of their own homes, but we can certainly discourage their flaunting it. What ever happened to Christian's rights and Christians being offended by what we have to be subjected to on a day to day basis? Almost everyday someone offends my beliefs but thus far we haven't formed ACLU II (American CHRISTIAN LIBERTTES UNION) to protect our rights.

Please reconsider your decision on this matter. I know that I am not the only one who is disappointed and upset by this decision.

Sincerely,

Pat Scalf

I would like to strongly disagree with you in firing Mr. Doug Wead, that in the Christian Community is a major tragedy. Not only was Mr.
Wead an asset to your administration
He is also an Outstanding Citizen for wanting to stand for righteousness.

Your press agent Mr. Duegen stated that when Mr. Wead was fired, the phones were ringing off the walls from the Gay Community stating how happy they were that you fired Mr. Wead. When in fact it was the Christian Community who held the majority of votes that elected you

Mr. Wead served in an office as honorable as The White House and turned to God for guidance, this country would be a lot better off.

Dear Sir:

Now that Donny Weed is no longer a voice for us who stand for traditional values at the White House, I pray that his replacement will carry the strength necessary to keep these values alive.

I am a Charismatic Catholic and I love God and my country. I am a conservative and a concerned voter as I see legislation being passed that seems to undermine family and the values that has made our country great in the past. At present we seem to be swaying not sure which way to go. Stand firm. ~~Know~~ what history shows that made us great. We mustn't forget the God that has blessed us in the past. Without him, we'll fail.

Con firing of D. Weed

Dear President Bush,

August 7, 1990

I am very discouraged by the recent firing of Mr. Doug Weed. The large pro-family body of Americans who supported and voted for you in 1988 needed Mr. Weeds voice in Washington.

I am concerned that a lawbreaking organization be given recognition by our government. (Isn't sodomy still considered against the law in most states?) An organization that beats on those who disagree and spits on policemen, and shouts obscenities when gathered together hasn't earned a voice in the White House. Obviously Mr. Weed agreed with so many of us and won no favor from the Homosexual Lobby. I feel that you gave into their pressure when you dismissed Mr. Weed.

Are you trying to win the homosexual vote for 1992? There are perhaps a million homosexual or lesbian Americans, but there are many more millions in the pro-family ranks. You may very well lose the many to gain the few, because these are issues that are not in harmony with one another and cannot co-exist.

Please do not let us down and change your convictions, the ones that you were voted in with. We cannot have a strong America when we give anti-family organizations a legitimate voice in Washington.

Sincerely,

It is our understanding

We are unhappy with the

I must say that this seems to be the next event in a long string of disturbing activities to the evangelical community. For example, the invitation of radical homosexual groups to the White House.

Dear President Bush:

I write in order to let you and your staff know how disappointed I am in your decision to fire Mr. Doug Weed (sp?). I believe you have abandoned one of the few good individuals who stood for those values in which many evangelical Christians believe. He was a light shining in our very dark country, and you chose to put it out. How very sad to know that you would acquiesce to the dictates of those within gay rights groups, etc.

Mr. Bush, America's moral fiber is looking rather holey, and the structure of the traditional family is on shaky ground. Little by little our society is crumbling around us, and for the most part Americans don't even recognize it. And to think it is happening in the name of First Amendment rights. I truly believe the founders of this country would be appalled and scandalized at what we in 20th Century America have done to their document. We are so blinded by egocentric thinking and the idea that the First Amendment allows any madcap behavior, we are destroying all the things that are good, honest and upright -- we are destroying ourselves.

I have personally seen the God of the universe in my own life, and I have seen Him convict me of sin. He not only convicts individuals of sin, but He convicts nations as well. All we need to do is to look back on biblical history as well as secular history to see that this is the case. As I look at America, I think His judgement is already upon us. God help America, and God help you too Mr. Bush.

Sincerely,

Kathy Lundgren

Dear President Bush,

I just heard last night that Mr. Doug Weed has been fired from his duties at the White House.

It appears it is over the signing of a 'Hate Bill' and another bill that was signed in the presence of homosexuals at the White House. This would only benefit the homosexual community.

I believe your own good conscience should tell you, although we love the sinner, we do not condone the sin of homosexuality.

There are millions of Christians, which is our heritage in America, and only thousands of homosexuals. You are taking the part of a sinful minority.

I am a Christian who is very disappointed in some of your actions lately. I realize it is not a simple task to lead a free society with all the pressures.

The 'Hate Bill' appears to be a concern for our clergy and the like. It could pressure them under the law to not be able to speak about Bible principles. This is abominable and will be under God's judgment.

Christians are no longer in the 'closet.' We are going to fight for what we believe is God's will in our lives.

Thank you for your kind attention.

Cordially yours,

Ms. Janet M. Allen

Dear Mr. President:

encl.
Mr. President, how disappointing to hear of the firing of a very fine diligent staff person in the White House, Douglas Wead.

It is so important to have one such as Mr. Wead in the place where he can be of help to our nation because he is a man who loves God, loves his country and sees you as a man of integrity.

Mr. Wead is a man who prays and hears God. No doubt we all have been beneficiaries of wisdom that God has given him by virtue of the fact that he was in a position to advise you on certain matters. There is much "un-American" anti-christian activity right here in Oklahoma City being committed by white-collared professionals and corporate executives. Government employees have been drawn into this, and justice has not been rendered. Mr. Wead, I believe, would understand this subversion by New-Agers; whereas, someone who does not read the Bible and meditate on it would be baffled and confused. We need clear thinkers in government.

Prayers will continue to go forward in your behalf. God's blessings are voiced for you, your cabinet members, the Supreme Court, the Vice President and all leaders in congress.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Jim Thomas
