THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 22, 1990

Dear Mr. Baughman:

Thank you for your recent letter to the White House regarding Special Assistant to the President Doug Wead.

Over the years Doug has been a valuable member of the President's team and has served him faithfully. For several months, however, Doug has been discussing with a variety of people, and specifically with me, his decision to leave his White House position to pursue other avenues. During that period of time, several options were presented to Doug and discussed.

A short time ago, a mutual decision was made that Doug would end his tenure here as of September 1. Both Doug and others here recognize that there have been rumors and innuendos regarding his decision to leave. None of these has any basis in truth.

The President has named Ms. Lee Ann Metzger as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. Lee Ann shares your values and concerns. You will find that she brings a wealth of experience to the job and will be a valuable addition to our team.

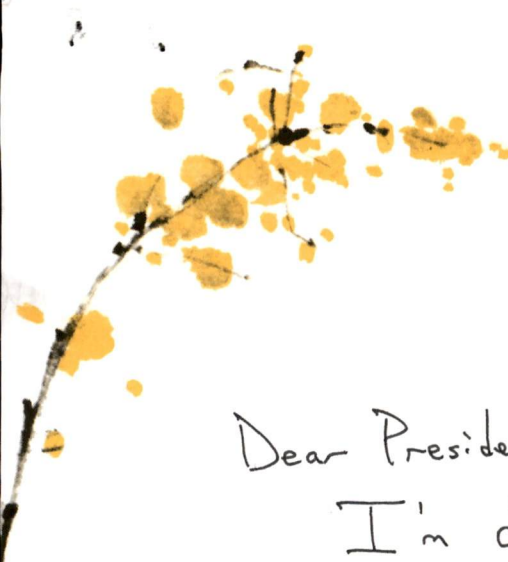

Thank you again for taking the time to write and share your thoughts with us.

Sincerely,

Andrew H. Card, Jr.
Assistant to the President and
Deputy to the Chief of Staff

Dear President Bush,

I'm disturbed and disappointed at the apparent shift in your administration's policy and philosophy toward homosexuals in our country. This is a social sickness and perversion that will undoubtedly harm our nation the more it spreads, and you took a firm stance in your presidential campaign in this regard. By officially inviting representatives of homosexual groups and organizations to White House ceremonies, including recent bill signing events which seem to further their cause, you are lending official credence to that which you opposed as a candidate.

The millions of citizens who hold to the traditional Judeo-Christian morals and ethics which made our nation great didn't forget your commitments on election day. They probably won't forget your actions next election day. Regardless of your thoughts about running for a second term, please honor your prior commitments for traditional family values and against the spread of homosexuality into our nation's fabric.

I appreciate the apparent efforts which your former Special Assistant for Public Liason Doug Wead made on your behalf to uphold your administration's position concerning the gay movement. Gay Rights representatives have no place in official White House functions, and Doug Wead appropriately said inviting them was a mistake.

I think you made a mistake by allowing Doug Wead to be fired. He was a faithful public servant to you, Mr. President, representing a much larger group of Americans than those over whom he was fired.

Mr. President, I can not support you any longer if your actions are based upon political expediency rather than moral and ethical commitment. However, sir, if you place your moral & ethical commitments (made to your electorate) first, I think that you will find them to be politically expedient in and of themselves.

Sincerely,

Gregory L. Baughman

Dear President Bush:

I would like to commend you for your antiabortion stance. I feel that you are honoring the Lord with your position on this issue. I am very happy to live in a nation whose leader believes in the sanctity of life.

However, I would like to protest the recent dismissal of Doug Weed. It seems that all political persons are entitled to their own convictions, yet this person was wrongly dismissed because of his. I would like to see him reinstated to his rightful position.

May the Lord God of this nation, The United States of America, guide you each moment as many great decisions are set upon your head and your heart.

Sincerely,

Dear President Bush,

I respectfully urge you to appoint another liason to the Christian people of this country. The Judeo-Christian principles upon which this country was established need to be reaffirmed.

I am opposed to homosexual activists being invited to the White House. Their presence is a contradiction to the stated Republican Party values of the traditional family.

We, as Christians, pray for you and all the leaders of our country. May God give you wisdom as you seek to lead in these troublesome times.

Sincerely,

Mr. President,

I wish to register my strong objections of your firing of Mr. Doug Wead.

I have been a registered republican for twenty-one years and I am ashamed to say that I voted for you.

I believe your firing of Mr. Wead is just another example of your bowing to the influence of liberal minded associates. It was embarrassing enough, that you invited homosexuals and lesbians to participate in functions at the White House, but then to fire Doug Wead for his stand as a conservative evangelical is too much.

Sir, I strongly urge you to reconsider the firing of Mr. Wead.

I will be watching your decision patterns in the future and my voting and active campaigning will reflect the confidence or lack of confidence that I have in your stand for moral and religious responsibilities to this country.

I urge you, not to be convinced that conservative evangelical types will not become political activists and do everything within the law and under the constitution to see that the moral decline of this country and its leaders are reversed.

Thank you,

Dear Mr. President,

I am writing you concerning Mr. Doug Wead. I feel that you have made a mistake in terminating him. I hope you will reconsider your decision about this and come to another decision in reinstating him to his position of Special Assistant for Public Liaison. I am praying for you Mr. President, I know it must be a lot of pressure on you when making such decisions. Just remember to always go to God when you are confused or frustrated when these things come up.

Thank you,

Dear Mr. President:

I was extremely disappointed to read that you had relieved Doug Wead of his responsibilities at the White House. I feel that you have turned your back on the people who put you in office and you have bowed to the pressure of a small minority.

I would like to see Bobbie Kilberg removed from office and Doug Wead given that position.

Mr. President, I voted for you and I would like to vote for you again. The Gay and Lesbian Task Force is a small minority and they should not be governing the majority.

Dear Mr. President,

I wish to express my disappointment regarding the dismissal of Mr. Doug Wead. We were so pleased to have a man of his integrity representing the Evangelical Christians of the United States. I am very thankful that he took a stand against inviting homosexuals to the White House. We need such men of strong Christian convictions representing fellow Christians in our country. I would ask you to please reconsider this dismissal of Mr. Wead and to re-instate him in his position. Thank you so very much.

Dear President Bush:

This letter is in regards to the firing of Doug Weed, your advisor. We need more Christians like him in the White House that will take a stand against the immorality and the moral breakdown of the United States. As president of the United States, I would think you would appreciate this in your employee.

I do not think the firing of Doug Weed was fair and just, and as a Christian I would not want homosexuals in office or having positions that might affect other people's lives.

I just wanted to express my opinion on this matter, and I appreciate you taking the time to read this.

Dear President Bush,

I am writing this letter in protest of the firing of Doug Wedd. I feel that by doing this you have made a very poor decision. I also feel that you have shown the evangelical voting block that you are not concerned with the issues that concern us. Compared to the Gay Community I believe you will find that the evangelicals vote is much larger and we strongly believe that there should be someone in the White House who represents us.

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing to express regret over the firing of Doug Wead, one of your aides. I believe Doug has always done his job well and was doing his job, that is, advising you of your best interests, when he was fired. Doug was called of God and anointed by God for that position, and because of wrong information by other parties he has been fired.

Mr. President, please reconsider!

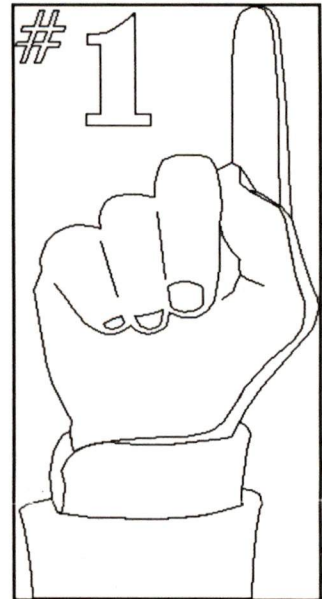

I pray for you, and there are thousands of Christians praying for you daily. We continue to pray about the current crisis in Kuwait and believe God has given you wisdom. Your heart is in God's hands, and He makes known His ways to you. I believe you are quick to hear and quick to obey.

VBA I was very saddened to-day to hear that you had fired Doug Wead. He is such a wonderful upright Christian man. He has appeared on so many Christian programs such as the 700 Club, PTL and TBN.

He was so happy working for you. I can't imagine how his wife and children feel over his being fired. Mr. President, I gave what I could to get you elected and, I voted for you and, I have stood up for you whenever others have condemned you but, I am really saddened and ashamed that you have fired a Christian man that really loved you. From now on, I vote only for Christian men and women. May God Bless you

It had seemed to be the very best time for Doug Wead to be in the Now, suddenly all that is

Dear Mr. President:

This letter is in strong protest against the firing of Doug Wead. This is an outrage to the Christian community. As a born again believer and voter, to take the voice of Doug Wead away is unacceptable. Replacing his voice in order to have the support of the Gay & Lesbian Task Force and those in favor of abortion is a disgrace and does not line up with Judeo-Christian beliefs.

With so much happening in the world today, I know you need the council of wise people around you who uphold the traditional values and morals this country was founded upon. Doug Wead is a man you can trust.

President Bush, I pray you will strongly reconsider this heinous decision.

Very respectfully yours,

Dear Honorable President Bush,

Recently I heard that our Christian Liaison to the president Doug Wead has been "fired" from his position. I have been shocked, yes, even horrified at this news. I have felt that Doug Wead has done an outstanding job in this position, which I feel is a very important one. He is a godly man and I felt his appointment was very appropriate as I believe it was in God's plan for our government and for his life as well.

Doug has been an outstanding example to our children and our young people as an "Ambassador for Jesus Christ". Truly he is a hero in that he was and is unafraid to fulfill his appointed position with honor and boldness against evil powers, spirits and principalities in high places.

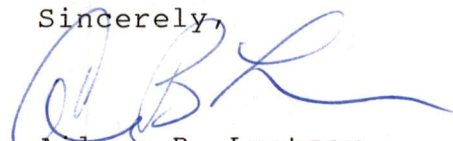

This whole episode smacks of the kind of treatment another hero in our time has received -- Col. Oliver North. Truly another example of an heroic, patriotic and brave man who has been crucified for doing the best, most creative thing that could have been done in the circumstances and situation our country was in at the time.

Praise God for men like these who should be examples of heroism to our young - but have, by evil men, been made an example to put fear into our youth, trying to keep them down in their spirits, so that patriotism would not arise in their hearts and that they may not be "Vessels of Honor" for "The Master's use" - ie. salt and light in this present darkness.

I have been praying for you every day for years, even that you would be elected. God answered prayer and you are in office, and I continue to pray for you and others who are in authority over us, that "we may lead a quiet and peaceful life in all godliness" and so "that the people will rejoice, as Righteous people rule".

I pray that what the devil meant for harm, God will turn around for good.

Sincerely,

Aileen B. Luetzow

Dear Mr. President Bush:

I wish to express my disapproval and disappointment in the dismissal of Doug Wied because of his stand against the gay community. Also the inviting of the gays to the White House is an outrageous act!
These people make up only 3% of the voters and the cultivation of gay favor is saying yes to indecency and immorality and no to decent Christian morals and values!

Sincerely,

Dear Mr President:

For many years I have admired and respected you. I campained for you and did all I could to assure your election in 1988. Your recent decision to fire Doug Wead though has me greatly concerned. It seems that you have allowed the voice of a very small group of people who are in direct conflict with the traditional moral values of our country to move you to make this dicision. Let me remind you that it was those who stood for traditional moral values in America that elected you. And it is they who can seek another candidate who will not bow down to small interest groups and better serve those who elected him.

I am deeply disapointed in your dicision to fire Doug Weed. It shows me that you are not that concerned with those who put you in office. I feel taked forgranted and betrayed. It sends a strong signal to all evangelical Christians and those who uphold traditional moral values in this country that you simply don't need the single largest voting block anymore.

Dear Pres. Bush,

I am very distressed at the firing of Doug Mead.
Please reconsider.

Doug Mead, I think, spoke for perhaps 50 million of us.

I despise the lifestyle of homosexuals. We love them, but my temper goes up at their gift to innocent decent healthy human beings.
Aids is their contribution to us.

To me war is war. The homosexuals (~~Senators~~, congressmen, ~~democrats~~, republicans of that persuasion) should be penned in some obscure part of the country. Perhaps Hussein could use them. I pray for their souls but I wish they would be told

the truth.

Please keep the filthy
trash out of our White had enough trash in there. Let us clean up the mess. This country was built on decency and good.

Pres. Bush we are proud of you. We appreciate the finest,

Dear President:

This is to register our disapproval of the firing of Doug Weade, a Christian man who holds to Godly principles. This appears to be a slap in the face to the Christians who put you in office. We voted for you because we felt you were for many of the things we held dear. Now you have betrayed that trust.

How can the small minority of homosexuals that the Bible calls reprobates have so much clout in Washington? They already have as many rights as anyone else.

We also want to register our disapproval of a tax hike when you promised before you were elected, that there would be no tax increase.

We would like to think that the Republican president we voted for would honor his promises and respect the Christian moral standards that he professes, instead of succumbing to political expediency.

DEAR PRESIDENT GEORGE BUSH,

MY NAME IS DOUGLAS H. BLACKER AND I AM A DEEPLY CONCERNED CITIZEN OF THIS FAIR NATION. I FELT IT IMPERATIVE TO VOICE MY OPINION REGARDING THE RECENT DISMISSAL OF DOUG WEAD FROM HIS DUTIES AS SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT FOR PUBLIC LIASON.

UPON RECEIVING INFORMATION OF THIS ACTION, MR. PRESIDENT, I FELT PERSONALLY ALIENATED AND GRIEVED. I FELT ALIENATED BECAUSE DOUG WEAD REPRESENTED A RAY OF LIGHT IN YOUR ADMINISTRATION. WEAD WAS THE CLOSEST INDIVIDUAL TO YOU, AND STILL ACCESSIBLE BY THE PUBLIC, WHO REPRESENTED THE CONSERVATIVE CHRISTIAN VALUES WHICH ARE INDEED FOUND IN A LARGE SECTOR OF THE UNITED STATES.

AT THE SAME TIME, I FELT GRIEVED FOR THE CONDITION OF THIS NATION'S GOVERNMENT. IT IS MY UNDERSTANDING THAT THIS ACTION AGAINST DOUG WEAD HAS BEEN GREATLY APPLAUDED BY THE LIBERAL HOMOSEXUAL-RIGHTS ACTIVISTS. IT HAS ALSO BEEN BROUGHT TO MY ATTENTION THAT SOME LEADERS OF THESE HOMOSEXUAL-RIGHTS GROUPS HAVE BEEN INVITED ON MORE THAN ONE OCCASION TO THE WHITE HOUSE. BOTH OF THESE FACTS HAVE MADE ME STOP AND SERIOUSLY QUESTION WHAT DIRECTION YOUR ADMINISTRATION IS HEADING DOMESTICALLY.

PLEASE RECONSIDER YOUR DECISION TO RELEASE DOUG WEAD OF HIS DUTIES. I SINCERELY URGE YOU TO CONSIDER THE FACT THAT THIS DECISION IS A SLAP IN THE FACE TO MILLIONS OF CHRISTIANS AND CONSERVATIVES ALIKE. AT THE SAME TIME,

THIS DECISION IS A GENTLE PAT ON THE BACK FOR THE LIBERAL HOMOSEXUAL-RIGHTS ACTIVISTS.

MR. PRESIDENT, PLEASE DO NOT FURTHER
ALIENATE THE CONSERVATIVE CHRISTIAN SECTORS OF THE
UNITED STATES. PLEASE RECALL THAT THIS NATION WAS BOUGHT LARGELY WITH THE BLOOD OF CHRISTIANS WHO SOUGHT TO HAVE A VOICE IN THE AFFAIRS OF THEIR GOVERNMENT.
DON'T SILENCE THAT VOICE. IT'S STILL SPEAKING, BUT

Dear President Bush,

I want to strongly disagree with your position in firing Mr. Doug Wead as your Special Assistant for Public Liaison. Mr. Wead is a strong advocate of conservative Judeo-Christian values, and this country needs him. I would like to remind you, Mr. President, that it was the conservative Christian coalition that helped you to be elected. We are counting on you to uphold the values that have made our country great. In this period of moral crisis within our nation, please do not alienate the conservative Christian people who voted for you while embracing the homosexual rights groups. Do not give in to the pressure to welcome the gay rights people. Stand up for what will make our country strong, men like Mr. Doug Wead in leadership.

Don't forget us, Mr. Bush. Please reconsider your position on the firing of Mr. Doug Wead.

Sincerely,

Angela Richey

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing this letter to protest the firing of Doug Wead as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. Mr. President, the evangelical community supported your candidacy when you were elected to the highest office in 1988. We voted for you because we trusted your promise to support traditional values.

We are very disturbed about you inviting Gay Rights leaders to the White House to be present at the signing of various bills. We feel you are not a traditional President if you include people who are avidly against traditional moral values. We are concerned about who will be placed in this vacant position, and want to urge you to fill it with someone who will reflect our values.

These Gay Rights Voters are only 3% of the population. The Christian and Judeo

Christian Community represent a far greater group of voters who will certainly remember these incidents when we go to the polls in 1992.

Sincerely

Dear Mr. President:

Our family keeps you and your family in our prayers daily as we feel it is a blessing that a man of God is in the White House.

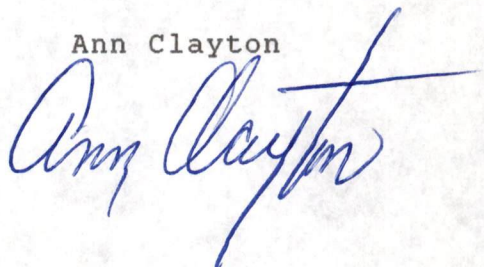

As I am in management myself, I realize that you have many around you that are basically good men, talented men but are not led by the Lord and that you receive much input from them as to the affairs of the world. Therefore, I would hope that when you find a talented man that is a man of God that you would use him.

I know you to be a man of discernment, therefore I would hope that you take great thought in the firing of Doug Wead. I know him to be a true man of God, and although I do not know all of the facts, only what I read in the newspaper, it does cause our family distress.

May the Lord Bless you and your family, I remain

Sincerely,

Ann Clayton

Dear Mr. President

Wead

I want to register my disagreement of your firing of Mr. Rausch, who represented the Evangelical Christians and our families in our government. I want you to know that my son and I voted for you! But, we didn't expect you to do an about face on us! We are very concerned about this firing action!

Thank you!

Dear Mr. President,

I resent mightily your letting Doug Wead leave your staff and your bow-towing to the gay and lesbian pressure group. These people (according to census figures) are only 3-4% of the population and represent a deathstyle, not an alternate lifestyle. We average folk are not as vocal, but will in the long run elect our representatives.

Please reinstate Mr. Wead.

Sincerely,

Joe Armstrong

Dear President Bush:

As a voting Republican and supporter of your presidency, I am writing to protest the recent dismissal of Doug Wead from your cabinet. I find it difficult to understand why this man of high moral character, so needed in this time of national distress, would be found not fit to serve you. Could it be that a small number of vocal deviants have been heard and valued above the many who voted for you? If not, then why the dismissal of this staunch supporter of family values?

Please, Mr. President, ~~reconsider your decision and~~ allow Doug Wead to serve you and this great country.

Thank you for your consideration.

Yours truly,

MR. PRESIDENT,

I WANT TO EXPRESS MY APPRECIATION FOR YOU SINCE YOU HAVE BEEN PRESIDENT! I (WE) THINK YOU HAVE BEEN SPLENDID! YOU SEEM LIKE A TRUE GENTLEMAN AND A WONDERFUL FAMILY MAN! I BELIEVE YOU ARE A MAN OF INTEGRITY AND A CHRISTIAN MAN WHO STAND ON STRONG MORAL PRINCIPLES! SO FAR YOU ARE MY FAVORITE!

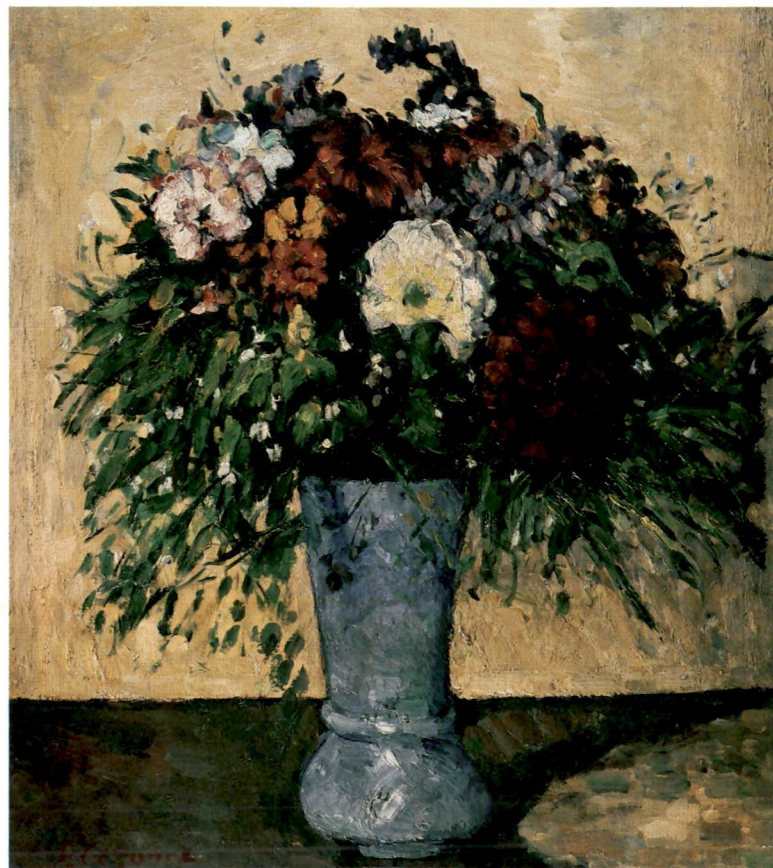

THEREFORE I CANNOT UNDERSTAND HOW YOU LET DOUG WEAD GO. YOU SURROUND YOURSELF WITH PEOPLE WHO OPENLY SUPPORT EVERY- THING THE EVANGELICAL ^{THE BIBLE} CHURCH CONDEMNS, AND GET RID OF THE LOVE DISSENTER WHO SPEAKS TO YOU THE BIBLICAL PRINCIPLES. + THE TRUTH.

I AM VOTING AGAINST THE FIRING OF DOUG WEAD WHO WAS A VERY INFLUENTIAL MAN IN THE EVANGELICAL WORLD. WE NEED MORE VOICES SUCH AS THIS INSTEAD OF ECHOES OF THE ^{LIBERAL, GAY, PRO-ABORTION} NEWS MEDIA!!!!!!

I ADMIRE YOU, MR. PRESIDENT

Dear President Bush

~~Wead~~ ^{afraid}

I am disconcerted to learn that you have fired Mr. Douglas Wead because of his complaint about your public endorsement of the gay life-style in the White House. I totally disapprove of Mr. Wead's firing.

By doing so, you have alienated your pro-family and pro-traditional value constituency who elected you to office.

I therefore urge you, Mr. president, to seriously reconsider this action.

Very Truly,
Manuel Esiong

Dear President Bush,

Wend I am amazed that Doug Wead was fired for criticizing colleagues for inviting homosexuals to the white House. Proverbs 17:26 SAYS It is also not good to fine the righteous, Nor strike the noble for their uprightness. God help us if every time a man stands up for righteousness he is fired. Ps 33:12 says Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord. I'm beginning to think the Lord of America is the majority instead of the God of this universe. Please work to prevent this from happening in the future.

Love in Christ

Dear Mr. Bush:

I heard recently that you fired Doug Weed or had him fired through Bobby Kilberg.

I believe this to be a significant mistake. Not only am I a Christian, but also a Republican. Hopefully the other 50 million fundamental Christians as well as the other Christians in this Country will respond as well. Doug Weed should be reinstated and Bobby Kilberg should be gone.

I would appreciate a reply.

Dear President Bush:

We are extremely dismayed that homosexuals have been invited to witness your signing of 2 bills into law giving them favored status.

This action has told the American public that you are in favor of the sinful and illegal conduct of sodomy.

To add injury to insult, we now understand Doug Wead was fired because he said the above action was a mistake.

Please rehire Doug Wead, give him a raise for the disgrace he has suffered, and fire those that had him fired.

We voted for you to be our President, because we thought you would stand for traditional Christian values. Please do not let us down Mr. President.

Sincerely,

Dear President Bush,

I would like to strongly express a negative opinion on your firing of Doug Wead, special assistant to the president for public liaison.

Although the evangelical Christian community provided you with a plurality of many millions of votes in the '88 election, the number of high level appointments of conservative Christians in your administration has been almost non-existent. With the removal of Mr. Wead you have eliminated an important voice for the values shared by a great block of Americans.

According to the August 2 "Washington Times," Wead "was fired from his White House job after he declined on several occasions to support White House overtures to homosexual groups."

There is a liberal "correct" position on gay and lesbian rights that goes well beyond protecting constitutionally guaranteed civil rights. This philosophy is seen by many Americans as promoting homosexuality as an alternative life style that has equal merit and validity with traditional family values. Fundamentalist Christians believe this liberal platform will tend to ultimately undermine the very social structure of our society.

When someone like Doug Wead, who represents the values of the enormous evangelical segment of America, is no longer welcome in your administration - it seems inevitable that your support with this constituency will erode.

In the democratic and pluralistic society in which we live, evangelical Christians do not expect to "win" every battle - but we do expect to be heard and we do expect to be included in the political process.

Sincerely,

Bob Adams
