Mr. President:

I am a thirty-three year old truck driver residing in the state of Texas. I consider myself a christian conservative. Although I have not been politically active in the past, there are some situations occurring in this nation which cause me great concern. One item in particular which happened just last week was the firing of Doug Weed from your White House Staff. Mr. Weed is a man who represents the christian perspective in a place where it should be represented much more thoroughly. Mr. President I want to respectfully request that you reinstate Doug Weed to his former position. I have confidence in your leadership and I feel that you will make the "right" decision.

I am writing this letter to protest Doug

Dear Mr. President:

I am very concerned about the resignation of Doug Wead due to some special interest groups. Since he was serving in the office of Public Liaison, we feel he was representing the Christians and their traditional values in the establishment of the home. Doug Wead is a genuine Christian who has high moral values.

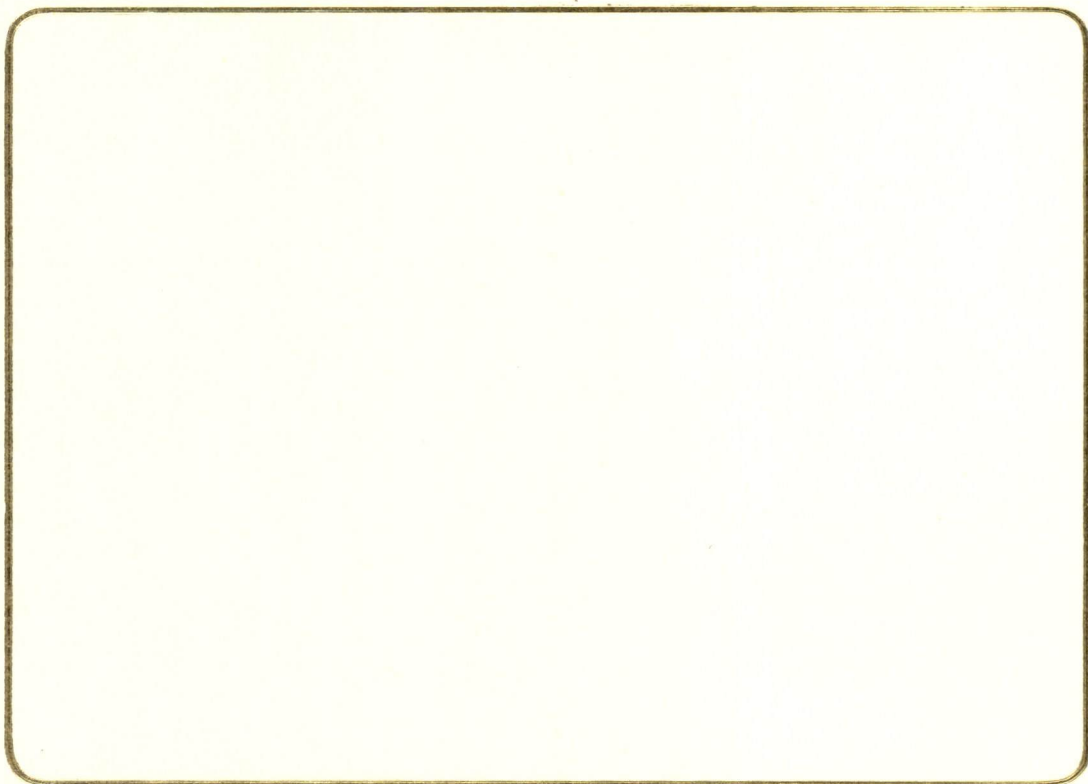

Would you please consider appointing someone to fill this position that will represent our traditional values in the home?

No one can fill Doug Wead's shoes, but we can have someone who represents the same ideals he has.

Thank you very much for considering this request.

Dear President Bush,

I am writing to respectfully register my complaint concerning the recent firing of Mr. Doug Weed. Mr. Weed represents the views of the Evangelical Christian community, the same group that voted overwhelmingly to put you into office as President of the United States. I feel strongly that you have done a disservice to us by firing Mr. Weed. No doubt his removal was due in part to his opposition to the invitation of official representatives of the homosexual minority to the signing ceremony of the Civil Rights Protection Act at the White House. I, too, oppose that decision. It is a slap in my face.

I respectfully ask you, Mr. President, to reconsider the firing of Mr. Weed and your apparent decision to court the favor of the homosexual minority. I, as a Christian and patriotic American, await your response.

Sincerely,

Dear Pres. Bush,

I am writing to express my disappointment in hearing that Doug Weed was fired from your liaison staff. His voice was a valuable one - one of integrity and of truth. It distresses me that because he advised you not to cater to homosexual groups that that would be cause for dismissal.

I think you have made a mistake in letting Mr. Weed go. Please reconsider and place him back in a position of greeting & meeting the public on your behalf. You need him as one of your special assistants.

Please continue to stand support you in your

Dear President Bush,

I pray for you daily in asking God to guide you with all of your important decisions. Great responsibility falls upon your shoulders while governing our country at this day and time.

Some of my friends that have actually met and seen you, say that your stature reminds them of President Lincoln. This comforts my mind to know that America is in the hands of another truly great leader.

I write today about my friend Doug Wead. He came to our church to talk about his roll in the government and Christianity. He was very joyfull when he talked about his appreciation for you as being our President and what a fine leader that you are.

We (our church) were thrilled when we learned (sometime back) that our Pastor, Rev. Tommy Barnett, was one picked to visit the White House along with many other clergymen such as Billy Graham and etc. We were told that Doug Wead was directly involved with the attendance of over 50 religious leaders from all around America in this visitation. We were excited to think that a President of the United States would seek council and refer to God's anointed as a sounding board for future direction and decisions.

I was completely shocked to hear just recently that Doug Wead was let go from his position. We as a church in Phoenix, Arizona, are greatly concerned over matters of such importance to the body of Christian believers. Can you please explain to me why such a thing happened? Thank you.

President Bush, please don't draw back from this special relationship that has begun, as to the many special groups and advisors that you associate yourself with, this group of religious clergymen sincerely want God's will to be done in the administration of this country. Seeking God's will first before anybody elses needs, wants or demands, will surely set us in the right direction. No matter how you get critized by certain groups or put down by the news media, if you know in your heart you have sought God's will first, then this should substain you through anything great or small.

What an awesome undertaking of the Iraq embargo. You may feel more pressure then ever in your administration during this period of time. This is also very important because of the area that you are dealing with. These regions are talked about in the Bible. Iraq and Kuwait are countries where Babylonia once stood. Many people that are familiar with Bible teachings are even more interested and concerned in what is taking place at this time.

Thank you for letting us as Americans during your administration respectfully ask questions about events that take place as well as give our opinions and also write and let you know we do appreciate your efforts in trying to make the correct decisions.

I attend Phoenix First Assembly of God Church in Phoenix, Arizona. Pastor Barnett loves and admires you greatly as well as the people of our church. I teach the 3rd & 4th grade boys along with my wife, Margaret.

God Bless You.

Most Sincerely,

Don Brinlee

The firing of Mr. Dan W. Wead, is a very sad thing that has happened. I am a Pentecostal believer, as all the New Testament book authors ^{"were"} are. Your invitation of homosexuals to the white house was a slap in the face to all decent people.

Was it a vote getting tactic?
The fact that you fired Doug Wead for making a true remark about these people indicates we must keep silent about their ungodly lifestyle.

MR. GEORGE BUSH, PRESIDENT
THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20500

Dear President Bush,

We have heard of the firing of Mr. Doug Weed. The decision is wrong. It is wrong because it is the spirit of anti-God that are making these things happen. We are praying for our leaders, but if they do not adhere to God's way, then may God remove them from office. We can almost feel the pressure that you must be going through, against anti-Christian spirits working through unbelievers there. But we are praying for you and your family, peace above all, and great wisdom from God to make you a wise man in your office. As for Doug Weed, we believe God will take care of him, according to His riches in glory, for the stand that he took. It takes a brave man to do what he did, even though it cost him his job. If there is anything you can do as President, we pray God's will in this matter. As for you, keep up the good work of a Godly President. We love you in Christ Jesus. Again, we think you are a great President and will always support you.

Mr. President!

I don't know where to begin to express how I feel about things that are going on among politicians in this blessed land of America.
I am from behind the "iron curtain"

it as a teenager. Under this terror-

I pray that: Sir you would search your heart between you and our God, because someday you will have to give account to Him for this action!

Mr. Weed was in the perfect will of God doing his job.

I have been your supporter this far but I might change my mind - in the upcoming election.

Although I back this administration and desire for it to be a successful period in our history, I find myself in a position to voice my concern about the handling of the Doug Wead situation.

I have observed that you, as a leader, want to have peace, justice, and fairness as priorities. I admire these qualities and acknowledge them as strengths for sound leadership.

As a fellow Christian I'd like to share a thought with you from The Living Bible Psalms 38:19-20. "But my enemies persecute with vigor, and continue to hate me - though I have done nothing against them to deserve it. They repay me evil for good and hate me for standing for right."

I'm sure you would agree with me that, on any level, a careless discharge of any staff member for standing for truth and things that are right goes against the truth itself.

Give us Doug Wead in place of Bobbie Kilberg. I want a man of integrity and loyalty sitting in positions of authority.

Allen R. Papp

Mr President,

I'm writing to you concerning the firing of Doug Wead. As a Christian, I'm very concerned about traditional family values.

Doug Wead was an excellent voice for those family values and I feel you have made a big error in judgement. I know he spoke against homosexual lifestyles and I'm concerned that he was fired because of that issue.

I hope you were not pressured into that decision because the Christian vote out numbers the homosexual vote ten to one.

Please reconsider your decision Jan Rikard

Dear Mr. President,

I have for the past 20 years been a grass roots supporter of the Republican Party. I have worked phones, car-pooled, written letters, volunteered for events and help raise money.

I am a pro-life, pro-family person. I enjoy life, have a great family and care about helping others.

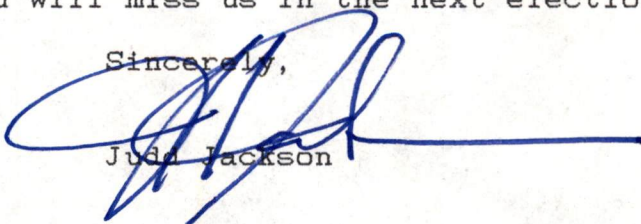

Why is it that those values are now being considered a negative within the party.

The firing of Doug Wead is a mistake. It continues to send negative signals to those of us who have worked and voted for the party for many years.

If you and the party leaders feel we have no choice you are mistaken.

Believe me, you will miss us in the next election!

Dear President Bush,

I want to express my approval for the manner in which you have handled the Persian Gulf situation. May God's wisdom continue to lead you.

I also want to express my dismay at the firing of Doug Wead from his White House post. Especially, since it seemed to come as result of pressure from the Homosexual Lobby. They make a lot of noise but I do not feel that they reflect the best interests of this country. Neither do they represent the values of very many Americans.

The United States of America was founded on Christian principles as outlined in the Bible. I find myself supporting political candidates based on the principles they support rather than their Party. It is believed that most Americans are doing likewise.

Thank you for hearing my concern.

Sincerely,

Gene Saunders

Dear Mr. President,

We are appalled that you would yield to homosexual organizations and pressure and fire Doug Wead from his post.

As a fellow pilot - USMC, and an evangelical Christian, I'm very disappointed in this action.

If you rid yourself of conservative influence, you've lost the ship.

Our prayers are with you.

MR. PRESIDENT:

I just learned that you have dismissed (fired) Doug Wead and I want to strongly protest this action.

I voted for you because you ran on a "Traditional Family Values" platform. I realize that many politicians do not live up to their campaign platforms. I was praying that in this instance you would be different. As you can probably tell, I am a conservative Christian.

Please re-instate Mr. Wead and continue to support the Traditional Family Values that you campaigned with.

Dear Mr President,

I recently heard that Doug Wead was let go from his position with you due to a protest from some Gay Group.

Well I'm protesting that you released him. You're a conservative President with old fashion christian values & I would hope that the people around you are that way too. I've voted for Republican presidents all my life due to the values they share with me.

Please bring Doug Wead back to his position due to conservative people wanting him there.

Thank you.

Dear President Bush:

This is to let you know how disappointed I am to learn that DOUG WEAD, was dismissed from your Office because of what he believes and stands for.

I am a conservative and a Republican and proud to tell you that I voted for you as I admire you for your good moral values and high standards.

My prayers include you as you rule our great nation and the continued placement of good people, like Doug Wead who represents my views and is a voice of what I, too believe!

PRAYER WORKS! and I believe you will reconsider what has happened to Doug Wead and put him back in your Office, to represent us who believe and trust God to rule our great nation, and for everything it stands for...TRUTH and justice for all!

Thank you, Mr. President, for taking time to hear this little voice of mine, crying out, to you, for HELP!

Dear President Bush:

I am writing in regard to the recend firing of Doug Wead, who was fired because he expressed an opinion of an invitation of gays and homosexuals into the White House for a hearing.

I feel as if our country is in a great need for people who are willing to stand for what they feel is morally and spiritually acceptable to our Saviour.

We are known as a God fearing country and our Bible clearly takes a stand on behavior that is not becoming to a man or woman.

I feel as if Doug Wead took a biblical stand in the matter and that his convictions should be praised, not used as a tool against him.

Please reconsider your decision.

DEAR MR PRESIDENT,

I HAVE JUST BEEN MADE AWARE OF THE RECENT "RELEASE" OF
DOUG WEAD FROM THE OFFICE OF PUBLIC LIAISON. I WISH TO STRONGLY
PROTEST HIS RELEASE IF, INDEED, IT WAS BROUGHT ABOUT BY PRESSURE FROM SOME OF THE MORE LIBERAL ELEMENTS OF SOCIETY.

IT WAS GREAT TO KNOW THAT HE STOOD FOR AND WORKED FOR THE GROUPS THAT REPRESENTED MANY OF US AMERICAN CITIZENS - THOSE OPENLY DESIRING A RETURN TO THE TRADITIONAL FAMILY VALUES AND NOT SOME OF THE QUESTIONABLE LIFESTYLES THAT ARE SO PREVALENT TODAY.

I AM HOPING THAT YOU WILL ENTER INTO THIS SITUATION AND DO
WHAT YOU CAN TO REINSTATE MR WEAD TO HIS POSITION AND LET US BE REPRESENTED MORE FAIRLY.

WE MUST NOT LET OUR COUNTRY TOTALLY DISINTEGRATE BECAUSE OF THE EROSION OF THE FOUNDATION UPON WHICH IT WAS BUILT. WE MUST STAND FIRM AS CHRISTIANS AND UPHOLD THAT WHICH WE BELIEVE IN. I TRUST YOU WILL DO THE SAME, MR PRESIDENT.

To whom it may concern;

I am writing in regards to the pressure that was put on one of your aides, who recently left. I'm refering to Douglas Wead. It sadden me to learn that the office of the presidency of the United States would allow the "gay" lobby to have such an influence. This "gay" lobby only represents a very small minority of the America populas, so my question is how can this happen when almost none of them voted for the Bush/Quayle ticket in 1988? The great mass of people who voted for this administration are God fearing folk who agreed with President Bush during his campaign that we as a nation should return to traditional values. Ones which were founded by our forefathers and based on Biblical principles. I just wanted to say that you should thank the Almighty for men such as Douglas Wead who make a stand for Bible truths. It is men like these who make this country great. The gays can only work to destroy this great nation. Winston Churchill once said that a nation who forgets the past, has no future. History does repeat itself. Are you going to allow this kind of thinking to go on, or are you going to open up your Bible and find thee truth concerning the gay issue?

Please re-instate Douglas Wead as one of President Bushs' asides. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Dear Mr. President:

I was greatly disturbed to hear that Doug Wead will be leaving the White House Staff because of his conservative beliefs.

As a long time conservative and a supporter of you I can only ask that you intervene for him. Mr. Wead has been a breath of fresh air to conservatives across the country.

Would you please let me know what I can do to help Mr. Wead? It is such a shame to get someone as honest as he is only to lose him in such a short period of time.

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing in regard to the departure of Doug Wead as advisor to the President.

I specifically protest this evident departure from the traditional values represented by Mr. Wead. It should be remembered that Mr. Wead's strong support of your candidacy was most influential throughout the evangelical community during your 1988 bid for the Republican candidacy.

It is very distressing to see your administration show preference against long-held Biblical Christian values in this matter. Despite all so-called evidence to the contrary, it should be clear by any reading of Holy Scripture--New and Old Testament--that God is not capable of such error as claimed by the homosexual rights people.

Please reinstate Mr. Wead as soon as possible, so that the evangelical community may once again have a voice to be heard in the higher eschelons of our government.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing in regard to the recent release of Mr. Doug Wead as advisor to the President.

I must strongly protest this evident departure by your Administration from the traditional values represented by Mr. Wead.

It should be remembered that many of us were swayed by Mr. Wead's strong support during your 1988 bid for the Republican candidacy against Pat Robertson; also during your later campaign for the presidency.

It is distressing to see your administration show preference against long-held Biblical Christian values. Our confidence in your promise to stand for traditional values is somewhat shaken by this disappointing turn of events. We are deeply concerned for the future of our nation if we continue to make choices which follow the historical pattern for disaster.

Please reinstate Mr. Wead as soon as possible, so that those of us who hold traditional Judeo-Christian values will again feel we have a voice in the higher echelons of government.
