President Carter - August 5, 1980

Greetings from Dallas Texas -

I am writing this letter to let you know that the removal of Doug Wead from Special Assistant to the President was deeply mourned throughout the Christian community nationwide. He was a refreshing ray of hope into a government that seems to have forgotten why America was founded. Please reconsider his appointment. I wrote him concerning a Prayer group, actually I addressed it to you, sir.
Attached is an example of the reply and a standard form to be filled out by people wanting to pray for "Our President". I hope this does not offend you. I don't expect an endorsement and so far we are few in number... but for what it is worth this is an example of Doug's handiwork and our love for you Mr President. We are praying for you daily.
Most sincerely yours
Gwen Be the Porter

Dear Brenda:

I want to thank you for taking the time to write me; I apologize for the delay in getting back to you.

Since being on TBN recently, I have received many letters from interested Christians all over our great country. It is so good to hear from people like you who want to get involved in a significant way to improve the spiritual climate of our nation. I assure you that this also is very much on my mind as I go about my duties here at the White House.

It is encouraging to hear of your interest in praying for President Bush and this administration. Our success depends on this. Thank you so very much.

All the best,

Doug Wead

25 Dear President Bush, Weed I was very disappointed to hear of Doug Wead's firing. We need strong Christian men in the Government especially ones working so closely with you. You need his support, encouragement, insight, wisdom & most of all his prayer. Please consider this !! Satan wants to destroy America lets not help him by taking Christians out of office! The Christians of America are behind you & praying for you. Please make decisions that will benefit America!
God Bless you! Mrs Lou Parsons

Dear President Bush,

We are writing this letter in response to learning of the firing of one of your advisors, Doug. We are greatly disappointed to hear of this news and the loss you suffer in losing a godly man to give you direction. Doug was fired because of doing his job and that certainly seems like a mistake.

We know Mr. Bush that you are human and only capable of doing so much in each days time. We are aware of the importance that having a godly man advise you plays in each decision you must make. We voted for you because of the statements you made concerning your own relationship with Jesus, and knowing that relationship would help you to lead this nation during these very difficult times. We know personally that it would be impossible for us to live each day successfully without that personal walk with Jesus. We also know the same is true for you in such a huge responsibility you have leading us.

Homosexuality is an abomination to God according to His word, and He hates it. Therefore, people living in that lifestyle should no more be able to lead or influence than someone in prison. They have both broken God's laws.

We love you Mr. Bush with the love of the Lord and pray for you as we are commanded to do in God's word.

Respectfully,

Donald and Rosalie Rippie

Dear Mr. President:

We strongly protest the firing of Doug Weed.

He was one of the very few Christians in your administration and now someone has decided that he was one too many.

There are 50 million evangelical voters in this country and they are getting mighty sick of the way your administration is pandering to homosexuals and mistreating the christians.

We have been Republicans for 50 years but we are seriously considering going to the Third Party that is being planned.

I can not understand the meaning behind the firing of Doug Wead, "Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison."
How could you allow this to happen..

By allowing this decision to be made,
you have literally took a stand against Christianity here in America.
What is worse is you have sided with the acts of homosexual and lesbian groups. (God and we as christians are not against the person only their sinful acts).

Our nation was founded on prayer and faith in God. We definitely do not stand on this same faith. Satan is our enemy and you as our President is going to be under pressure we may not understand and I understand that. But you as our President need Gods help, Allow Him to work through you and your decisions.

The only choice you and I have as a nation to go immediately to prayer at the white house, at home, at church for America is on the brink of destruction, not from man but from God.

We expect to hear from you publicly as soon as possible.

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I was devastated when I heard that Doug Wead had been terminated from the staff of the President.

Doug has been a loyal, hard-working member of President Bush's staff for many years. He has been a very important connection between the President and the evangelical community. Many of us feel betrayed. Doug's leaving leaves us with serious concern as to how this Administration views the evangelicals. We have been loyal and supportive to the President and his Administration. It seems there has only been token recognition of this.

While I am very dismayed over this matter, please be assured, Governor Sununu, that our prayers remain faithfully supportive.

Sununu's warning. Here's what insiders are saying about last week's firing of Douglas Wead as official White House liaison with conservatives: Chief of Staff John Sununu felt that Wead, 44, was establishing too many personal links to the right outside prescribed channels.

His most recent offense was writing what Sununu considered an unauthorized letter to conservative leaders apologizing for a White House invitation to homosexual groups to witness a bill-signing ceremony. But Wead's defenders say Sununu got rid of him only because he had independent connections to the Oval Office through his old pal George W. Bush, the President's son.

Dear Governor Sununu:

I am writing to express my shock and dismay over the dismissal of Doug Wead from the White House staff. I have met Doug, heard him speak, been part of White House briefings he has organized, and read his fine book about you! The conservative, traditional value supporters, such as myself, feel the White House Staff must include a man like Doug.

It seems inconceivable to me that a liaison in Doug's position would be forced to abandon his values in regards to the Gay and Lesbian Task Force. I have heard the President, express his sincere values on the Pro-Life issue. Why is Doug fired when he takes a similar stand on a controversial issue?

As a faithful Republican voter, I am deeply concerned about the religious, conservative influence on Capital Hill. I strongly protest Doug Wead's dismissal, and wish to see this decision reversed.

Most Sincerely,

Don Cole

The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear President Bush,

I am a born again Christian. I am writing you to let you know that you are in my prayers as Jesus has directed us. I pray that your mind and your heart be flooded with the wisdom and knowledge of God in your work to govern our country and in yours and your family's lives also.

However, I am also writing concerning a matter that disturbs me as a Christian. I am concerned about your firing of Doug Wead. It is my understanding that you appointed him to advise you in matters that would be sensitive to the Christian community. And it is my understanding that he advised you that the Christian community would not tolerate individuals who flagrantly exploit sin to be honored at a public ceremony by being invited to a bill signing. And for doing his job, he was fired.

Doug Wead was correct. Homosexuality is clearly a sin and not an alternative life style according to the Word of God - our final authority. The founding fathers of this country recognized the bible as the foundational truth for moral living and establishment of our government. Why are you deviating from these principles? Historically every great empire that could not be conquered from without was conquered from within by the moral decay of the people, and always at these times homosexuality came out of the closets and into open public tolerance if not acceptance. Why are you taking our country in this direction?

But let it be clear, it is not the people we hate but their sin. As Jesus came to love all and save all then so too do we Christians endeavor to follow in His footsteps and love the people also. Personally, as a physician, I have several AIDS patients who contacted the disease through their homosexual practices. I give them them the best care I can. And I beg God to pour out His heart of compassion to them through me during this very difficult time in their lives. Some have come to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ and the glory and peace of the Lord is seen on their hearts and faces. For this I am grateful. It is the people I love but their sin I hate and cannot tolerate.

PRESIDENT BUSH

AUGUST 14, 1990

Mr Bush, to invite people to the White House who flagrantly exploit and flaunt sin, to honor such a group as a group, by having them participate in a bill signing ceremony is a disgrace. When you ran for president, you told us you stood for traditional Christian values. Please hold to your promises. I hope this firing of Doug Wead was a move made by one of your subordinates and not you.

Mr President, according to the Word of God: Daniel 2:20-21 "Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, for He alone has all wisdom and all power. World events are under His control. He removes kings and sets others on their thrones. He gives wise men their wisdom, and scholars their intelligence." If you do not change your heart and your actions, I believe by the next election God will raise up another leader that we the Christian community can support and stand behind. Please reconsider. Please just take the time and seek the heart of God on this matter.

Yours truly,

CAROL CARIDEO, M.D.

Dear President Bush, And Mr. Sununu;

I Am Shocked at the dismissal of Doug Wead. This man stood for those of us in America who claim to be Apostolic in our Faith.

It Seems the special interest groups have wormed their way into the administration of our country. The very idea of serving these immoral groups is a disgusting thought And there will be consequences to be suffered.

Our country needs a "Hotline" to God And the power of PRAYER. Key people need to be retained that are right with God as well as an asset to our country. I believe Doug Wead was one of these key people.

Please reconsider this firing and think of the Evangelical Community of America. PRAYER POWER is a mighty force, please keep those of us who pray for this nation in your heart. Restore Doug Wead -

Dear President Bush:

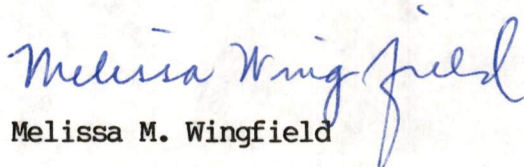

I do not often voice my opinion as I feel I should, but in this instance I could not help but take the time to both call the White House Opinion Line and write you a letter. I am extremely disappointed over the firing of Doug Wead, your special assistant for public liason. He was a champion in the eyes of millions of Christians throughout the United States, and was a great representative at the federal level of the fundamental values we hold dear.

The fundamental Christian vote played a pivotal role in your being elected to the office of President in 1988, so I assumed you held positions similar to ours in many areas. Now I am disillusioned . . . we have been slapped in our faces by this firing.

I know you do not have time to respond to each letter, but I wish you could respond to the Christian population in mass as to the reasons behind this firing.

Thank you for the opportunity to voice my opinion.

Liberal victory in White House

Firing of aide is another blow to Bush credibility with conservatives

By Cal Thomas

THE firing of White House staffer Doug Wead over a letter that Wead wrote criticizing colleagues for inviting homosexual activists to an important bill-signing ceremony is sure to further erode President Bush's standing among conservative voters.

THE SAD episode closes a reportedly long battle between the conservative Wead, a special assistant to Bush, and liberal colleagues on the White House staff.

According to sources who know about the tension in the liaison office, Wead has been a target of the liberals "from day one." They are said to have resented his close relationship with the evangelical Christian community that Wead helped to organize behind Bush for the 1988 campaign. Wead's 1988 book, George Bush: Man of Integrity, was written to convince conservative evangelicals that Bush is one of them. (It apparently worked — Bush's evangelical base was one of his strongest constituencies.)

The letter, which also defended the President, went to about a dozen people who had written to complain when representatives of homosexual groups were invited by staff members to the signing of the Hate Crimes Bill at the White House in April.

After assuring the letter-writers that Bush "is a man who lives as well as speaks about family values," Wead inserted his own opinion about the wisdom of asking homosexuals to the signing ceremony: "Quite frankly, the President's staff did not serve him well by inviting some of the groups which attended the Hate Crimes Bill signing ceremony."

"In no way does the President endorse the lifestyle of all groups which attend such events. I can assure you that he is especially offended by the attacks against Cardinal O'Connor and other manifestations of religious intolerance that some of the homosexual groups have espoused."

"Thank you for caring enough to write about this issue. Hopefully, it will not happen again."

But it did happen again. During the outdoor ceremony on the White House lawn at which the Americans With Disabilities Act was signed on July 26, at least five representatives of homosexual organizations attended.

The Washington Blade, a homosexual newspaper, was given White House press credentials and sent a photographer to cover the event. A spokesman for the Blade says that "gays were instrumental" in the passage of the act, which also protects people with AIDS under the anti-discrimination provisions of the measure.

In an earlier event Playboy magazine publisher Christie Hefner was among a group of magazine executives who met with the President on July 17. According to a White House source, her invitation to the meeting was approved by Chief of Staff John Sununu and David Demarest, assistant to the President for communications.

Kristen Taylor, the White House director of media relations, tells me she sent an invitation to the Magazine Publishers Association (MPA) but that the MPA made up the list. Ms. Taylor said it "wasn't appropriate" to single out one publication and bar its representative from attending. She confirms that the list was approved by Demarest. She does not know if Sununu saw the list, and his office did not return a call.

Why does all of this matter? Because not all lists are sacrosanct. One frustrated administration official, who asked not to be named, told me that some conservative activists like Howard Phillips and Richard Viguerie in effect are "barred" from the White House, while some liberal critics who oppose most of the President's policies are invited. But not all liberal critics. According to The Washington Post, the American Civil Liberties Union had its invitation to the Americans With Disabilities Act signing ceremony pulled. President Bush frequently lambasted the ACLU during the 1988 campaign.

Given their lifestyles and political philosophy, it is highly unlikely that access to the White House is going to turn practitioners of the Playboy or homosexual lifestyles into supporters of President Bush or the "traditional values" the Republican platform supports.

What, then, can be the reason why a man like Doug Wead is pressured out of his job while those whose philosophies more closely represent the Democratic Party platform remain?

As far as ensuring the interests of President Bush are concerned, the wrong person has been told to seek employment elsewhere.

Dear Mr. Bush,

We are registered voters in the State of Ohio and very involved in pro-family issues. We appreciate the positive stand you've taken on behalf of the traditional family.

We are writing in regard to the dismissal of Mr. Doug Wead, and feel that it was a mistake. Mr. Wead has worked very hard to represent you, as well as the evangelical community and he will be greatly missed. It appears that the militant anti-family groups, small as they are, are having a tremendous impact in Washington. We are very concerned about the future of the traditional family.

Again, we do appreciate all of your hard work and we thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Walter & Barbara Schneider

Dear President Bush,

I want you to know that you are in my prayers on a daily basis and so is your family. I pray that skillful Godly wisdom enters your heart, that knowledge and discretion keep you from the influence of evil. I pray that the upright dwell in government and the wicked are rooted out. I pray that you surround yourself with men and women who make their hearts and ears attentive to Godly Counsel and do that which is pleasing in His sight for He has promised to bless and heal our land, if we turn to Him and away from evil.

Please re-consider the termination of Doug Weed and others who speak out for the restoration of "one nation under God".

Yours truly,

Dear President Bush,

I am writing to tell you how disappointed I am with your decision to fire Oliver Wead. It is my impression that the reason you fired him was his stand against having two gay-activists invited to the white House for the signing Hate Crimes bill.

If that, indeed, was your reason, then I'm concerned that you have lost your Christian perspective and are being influenced by what you deem expedient rather than morally right.

It is my pray that you will reconsider and invite Mr. Head to, again, be a part of your advisory staff.

We need all the Christians possible in places of importance in our government.

In spite of what the A.C.U.

Mr. President:

I was most disappointed to learn of the firing of Doug Wead from your staff. I understand that it was within his job perimeters to be a liaison between your office and the Christian community and to advise your office of how the Christian community stood on a full spectrum of issues. It is also my understanding that he was fired for communicating certain of these Christian views to your office, namely those about homosexuality.

It is my opinion that Doug Wead discharged his duties well and was able to advise your office about the true concerns of the Christian community.

Mr. President, please use the staff available to you to investigate the firing of Doug Wead.

President Bush,

I disagree with the firing of Doug Weede. He is a godly man who was performing the job he was assigned to do and doing it well.

I'm a supervisor and have experience in evaluating performance. It is my opinion that Doug was terminated for all the wrong reasons.

My husband and I have been faithful supporters of you, President Reagan, and Vice President Quayle. We have also been loyal Republicans for the past fifteen years. It hurts deeply when it appears that the support for our beliefs is ^{not} reciprocated.

I request that either Doug be reinstated with honor to his position in government or that a godly man of equal or greater competence be placed in this position. Also, a public apology to Doug is in order.

Dear President Bush

This letter is to register my dissappointment with the firing of Doug Weed for the reasons mentioned in the Washington Post article.

My right to vote has always been a very valued right. I come from a family where it is a disgrace not to vote. My grandmother was one of the first women to vote and she traveled miles in a horse + buggy with her baby on her lap to do so. Voting was never an option to me, but for the first time I actively supported a candidate and encouraged many friends to do so as well. We went to strategy meetings we manned phones stuffed letters even transported people to the polls. It is very frustrating and ~~dissappointing~~ to know the man I believed in no longer wants my support or the support of others like me. It really hurts to feel you prefer the support of the Gay task force over the conservative Christian family.

I know you will never see this letter and maybe never even hear that I or others like me ~~we~~ wrote to you but I am sending my letter to Maine instead of Washington because when I called 1-202-546-7639 after many busy signals no one even answered the phone. Obviously even the opinion pollsters will not hear from us.

If anyone is home I hope you are listening, who will support President Bush in 1992?

On behalf of the Christians in our nation who are praying for wisdom in leadership, I request that Doug Wead be returned to his position.

We need more people like Doug Wead who will stand for the Biblical Principles in our government. Our nation was founded on these principles of the Bible and unless we get back to those Godly Principles of the Bible and Prayer, we will become candidates for God's judgment instead of God's blessings. Dear Mr. President:

Being born into an American family, Texas, U.S.A., in the twenties, there has been honor and respect to my parents. My daddy (father) was quite a patriarch, a sharecropper who worked his way to become a landowner. He was the head of his household, set rules for us as we were equipped for life by the Golden Rule. There was security and protection in his decisions when choosing what was best within, as well as, outside the family.

Above all, we are members of the Household of GOD. He is the Head of His Kingdom of which He has promised us to be citizens. He has set for us rules and protective powers to adhere to and follow. I am blessed to have the promise of Eternal Security and so are you. I pray for you that you may not sit in the counsel of the ungodly (anti-Christian bigots) but act in God's wisdom.

Being the Head of our Country, the role of a father should be portrayed and practiced. Persons with pro-family and Biblical values from the Evangelical Conservative Christian Community elected you to your White House authority. We're looking to you to fulfill your genuine promises.

~~The release (firing) and the nature of it for Mr. Doug Wead from his Public Liaison position has weakened the fiber for which every red-blooded, flag-pledging, God-fearing, Country loyalist stands.~~

Please reverse the decision to discharge Mr. Wead. We need more Doug Weads and Ollie Norths who support, fulfill, protect and choose right and "rights" for 'We the People'. They find favor with GOD and man.

Thank you, Mr. President. Sincerely,

Dear Mr President,

I want to thank you for your standing with God on abortion. It indeed is murder.

Mr President, I was unhappy to learn that you had fired Donald Wead a man who stood up against homosexuality.

When you brought this group into the White House I was filled with anger and disgust.

Men seems to think that men & their plans put people into office, but it is God, Himself. psalms 75:7 God is the judge; He puts down one, and exalts another.

Mr President, you have sinned and this sin is against God.

Mr President, I know you have read what God said about homosexuals. I want to remind you what God has said.

Leviticus 20:13 " If there is a man who lies with a male as those who lie with a woman, both of them have committed a detestable act;

Leviticus 18:22 You shall not lie with a male as one lies with a female, it is an abomination.

Romans 1:27 calls it 'indecent acts' Please read Romans 1:18-32. You might read God's word every day if not please start.

Mr President, I voted for you but you have made me ashamed.

Mr President, I have been faithful to pray for you, and I will continue.

God can not be gracious to America if we are not faithful to Him. Our leaders have to stand for God's principles.

A prayer that I pray for myself. Psalms 69:64-7 May those who wait for Thee not be ashamed through me, O Lord God of hosts. May those who seek Thee not be dishonored through me O God of Israel.

The Holy Spirit wants you to read. 2 Kings 20:12-21, I suggest you plead with God Psalms 51:2, 7-11. Sincerely,

Dear President Bush:

I am writing you to express my support for Doug Wead. I would hope that The Evangelical Vote is more important than the Gay/Lesbian Vote.

In addition, I find it difficult to understand why your administration has not even proposed guidelines for the nation and endowment for the arts.

Instead of withdrawing support for tax supported art (which our budget cannot afford), your administration seems to favor another five years of funding tax dollars to support homosexual, erotic, and blasphemous art which evangelical Christians find offensive.

You are in my prayers Mr. President.

Dear President Bush:

This letter is to express strong disapproval of the firing of Doug Wead, special assistant to the President for public liaison.

Although the evangelical Christian community provided you with millions of votes in the 1988 election, the number of high level appointments of conservative Christians in your administration has been almost non-existent. With the removal of Mr. Wead you have eliminated an important voice for the values shared by a great many loyal Americans.

I appreciate Mr. Wead's stand regarding homosexuality and deplore the recent overtures made by the Executive Branch to give recognition and comfort to a group of people clearly condemned in Scripture.

While sodomites may be citizens due all the rights of any of us, they should never be given special rights or special recognition as a minority.

When Doug Wead was dumped for no apparent reason other than his Biblical values, you can be assured of the loss of support among those of us who agree with him.

We evangelicals don't expect any special favors in your administration -- just equal treatment under the law and before God. May I respectfully urge you to either re-employ Mr. Wead in the position from which he was fired or find another position of equal responsibility within your administration. May the living God who will judge us all bless you and direct you.

Sincerely yours,

1) Hello; This may not be a formal letter, but it is from my heart. I am writing first of all to tell you I am praying everyday to God for you according to - 1st

WEA Timothy chapter 2 verse 1 & 2. I have given my life over to Jesus & believe in His Word & love Him, So because of my love for Him I have you in Jesus Name.

2) - On the second point of my letter, this concerns the dismissal of Doug Wade. I know that you sir are not believing any bad report concerning this faithful employee (and friend). All he has done has been for your very best & the best for our country. To my understanding all he did was do his job & advising you against entertaining radical (as & otherwise) homosexual groups. I know God is not pleased according to Romans 1 verses 26 & 27 of any approval of a government condoning homosexual practices - giving them any 1st Amendment rights to protect their lifestyle - The Word of God calls it a sin & then says "Righteousness exalts a nation but sin is a disgrace". Please sir prayerfully consider this letter & the White Houses actions. Thank you

President Bush, we did not like what happened this summer regarding the firing of Doug Wead from your advisory staff. It was such a shock to us! We have known Doug for many years and heard him speak this year in Phoenix. He represented you in a superb way, and gave such a wise and excellent speech.

We can't condone having gays come to the White House and get publicity when they represent anti-Christian practices. They don't produce life and are like the abortionists who are against life.

And why dismiss such a fine man of the calibre of Doug Wead? He lives and extols the virtues, morals and righteousness of God.

Please return Mr. Wead to your staff, representing millions of Americans who believe in life and Bible principles. "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord." Psalms 33:12

Dear Mr. President,

I am a member of what the political system likes to call "the conservative Christian community". I'm not really sure if that is good or bad, but I do know that I am a Christian, and I am also an American...and proud to be both!

I'm upset, Mr. President, about many aspects of the U.S. government. I see a decay creeping into what was once a strong system, founded on sound moral principles and ethics. I used to say, as a schoolgirl, "I pledge allegiance to the flag, and to the country for which it stands, one nation under God ...". Is it still a nation under God? Do you believe it is? And if you do, why do you invite homosexuals into the White House and thereby give Presidential approval to a lifestyle that is clearly against Biblical teaching? Why have you allowed the firing of Mr. Doug Wead, your public liason, for voicing his disapproval of the gay community? What happened to free speech there?

Just what message are you really trying to send out to the American public? Don't family values count any more? Don't you believe in the traditional Christian family? Would you want your grandchildren to grow up in a home with two homosexual men or two lesbian women as the parents? Think about it!

I voted for you, Mr. President, because you were a "family man", and said you would do all you could to promote the values of the Christian home. I'm really disappointed in you and unless I see some changes in White House policy, be assured I will not vote for you again!

In the mean time, I will pray for you...knowing the pressures you are under to please everyone...and trust that God will give you the wisdom you need and the courage to stand "against the rulers of darkness of this world, and against the spiritual wickedness in high places". (Ephesians 6:12)...read all of chapter, Mr. President, it's powerful!

Dear President Bush,

I was disappointed to learn on a Christian radio station (KWIL in Albany, Oregon) that liberal staff members had been allowed to terminate the employment of your special assistant, Douglas Wead.

Mr Wead had sufficient influence to allow easy access of conservative and evangelical groups to see you and your chief of staff, John Sununu. The incident that led to Mr. Wead's firing was his apology on White House stationery to these groups of your invitation to homosexual leaders to witness your April 30, 1990 signing of the Hate Crimes Statistics Act.

It is disturbing to me that your staff is so predominantly liberal. As an example, your staff except for John Sununu has a decidedly pro-abortion viewpoint. When liberal staffers begin to muscle out the few conservative staffers, it worries me.

I find it difficult to believe that conservative and evangelical groups will have the same type of access as before with the type of staff remaining. I recommend that you install a systematic appointment schedule to at least listen to conservative and evangelical viewpoints on a regular basis to balance the situation.

Dear President Bush:

I wish to express my disappointment in the firing of Mr. Doug Weed. Mr. Weed, in my opinion, fairly and competently represented the conservative, Christian, values in our country.

In addition to my disappointment in your firing Mr. Weed, you should know that I many in America are opposed to the homosexual community participating in public government functions. I am not against the people, but against the lifestyle. The homosexual lifestyle is contrary to our Jeudo, Christian, heritage. This lifestyle is anti-family and is the direct cause of an epidemic we know as aids.

Though I have supported you for your conservative policies, I am unhappy with Mr. Weeds firing and your new position toward the homosexual community.
