THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

September 4, 1990

Dear Ms. Mashburn:

Thank you for your recent letter to the White House regarding Special Assistant to the President Doug Wead.

Over the years Doug has been a valuable member of the President's team and has served him faithfully. For several months, however, Doug has been discussing with a variety of people, and specifically with me, his decision to leave his White House position to pursue other avenues. During that period of time, several options were presented to Doug and discussed.

A short time ago, a mutual decision was made that Doug would end his tenure here as of September 1. Both Doug and others here recognize that there have been rumors and innuendos regarding his decision to leave. None of these has any basis in truth.

The President has named Ms. Lee Ann Metzger as Special Assistant to the President for Public Liaison. Lee Ann shares your values and concerns. You will find that she brings a wealth of experience to the job and will be a valuable addition to our team.

The President values the views and suggestions of individual Americans, and he appreciates your sharing your comments with him on this matter and on the other issues you discussed. You can be sure that they have been taken into account.

Thank you again for taking the time to write and share your thoughts with us.

Sincerely,

Dear President Bush,

I'm writing to you to enter my protest regarding the release of Doug Wead from your advisory staff. As a Republican and supporter of you and traditional values, I fear the loss of Doug Wead is a sad statement of the state of our nation, potentially.

I'm certain Mr. Wead's traditional, conservative, wholesome point of looking at things is somewhat offensive to some of our citizens. This alone should stir up an inquiry into how and why this release came about.

With deepest gratitude and sincerity,

Dear President Bush,

We were very disappointed to hear that Doug Weed was fired from his position on your staff. We are a young family of 6 with Christian values and have really appreciated the representation Doug Weed has given in the White House.

We would hope that this decision could be reversed and that Mr. Weed could once again be the positive influence and voice in the White House.

Dear President Bush;

It has come to my attention that Doug Wead was fired from the White House. It is my understanding that he was fired for protesting that homosexual advocates were invited to the White House.

President Bush I realize that you are President to all the people in this country including homosexuals, but to even appear to encourage or give those advocates legitimacy is detrimental to our country and to your presidency. No one who looks at their behavior in an objective manner can deny how destructive it is to the participants or to the moral climate of our country.

I want to make a comparison. We have a lot of alcoholic wife beaters in this country. I'm sure that those who exhibit this behavior on a regular basis feel it is acceptable. The rest of us know better. Is it really any different for homosexuals?

Please, I'm not asking you to persecute these people, but if you give them the appearance of legitimacy you are encouraging behavior that is destructive to them, our country, and to your presidency.

Please, please look at this and have the people responsible for firing Doug Wead apologize to him and hire him back if possible. I believe you will be glad you did.

We have been a moral country in the past and I don't want us to slide down the slippery slope of condoning homosexuality or any other perverted behavior.

Dear Mr. President,

As a conservative republican and a supporter of yours in the last election, I am dismayed with the recent dismissal of your special assistant, Mr. Doug Wead. Doug Wead's opinions on the homosexual "rights" lobbies represents the sentiments of the majority of mainstream Americans, especially those who voted for you in the last election. His counsel should be seriously considered, as opposed to the very vocal minority of homosexual "rights" crusaders. People who have strong traditional religious and family values are the silent majority who put you in office to represent them. It is in your best interest to represent them as they so expect.

On a separate subject, press on with your handling of the Kuwaiti situation. You are handling it superbly. ~~If we, unfortunately~~ must handle it militarily, please deliver an initial shattering blow, completely destroying the Iraqi will and ability to fight. This will save the most American lives, as opposed to a policy of escalated involvement, and protracted entanglement.

Thank you for your time and attention. Best regards.

Dear President Bush,

Aug. 3, 1990

Today I learned from Marlon Maddoux on the program "Point of View" that Doug Wead has been fired from his job because of his stand against homosexuals. This concerns me very much.

When I voted for you, Mr. President, I was under the impression that you were on the Christian community's side. Now I am not so sure.

Please, Mr. President, reconsider this issue and restore Mr. Doug Wead to his rightful position on your staff.

President Bush,

Dear Mr. President,

I am writing due to information I received regarding Mr. Doug Wead.

I understand Mr. Wead was dismissed from his employment because he spoke out what he believed to be right regarding a certain group.

Was not this his Constitutional right?

I therefore, as an American Citizen and a Conservative Republican request that he be re-instated to his position.

Dear President Bush,

I heard news that a man named Doug Weed was recently fired from your staff. What prompts this letter is the reason for his dismissal.

I am for fair treatment of all people. Those who are physically disabled, those races and socioeconomic groups who have been underprivileged need special help from all of us.

I believe grouping homosexuals in with others who need special consideration is wrong. They are not underprivileged in any way. Their lifestyle is a choice.

I understand that Doug Weed's advice not to meet with them cost him his job. I think he should be commended for acting on his principles instead of bowing to political pressure.

It is not popular any more to say anything is wrong. The fact of the matter is many Americans still do believe homosexuality is. I am one of them.

I do hope that you set this matter right.

Dear President Bush:

Thank you for the many good things you have done for our great Country. However, I don't understand some of the recent things you have done.

Our Country was founded on Christian Principles as expressed in God's Holy Word. In the beginning the founders sought God's wisdom and guidance, and we have had a wonderful nation, as our Country has nullified many of the Christian Principles on which <sup>it</sup> was built, we no longer have the <sup>same</sup> Country our founding Fathers passed on to us. <sup>(over)</sup> It has

Mr. President, it disappoints me that you have given support to the homosexual lifestyle by inviting homosexuals to the White House.

It is also disappointing that Doug Wead was dismissed from your staff. This apparently occurred after Mr. Wead suggested that it had been a mistake to invite gay activists to come to the White House.

Dear President Bush,

As a conservative long-standing member of the Republican party please understand the disappointment in the removal of Mr. Doug Wead.

It is becoming common knowledge of the influence of the gay and lesbian community on administrative decisions in Washington. The conservative constituency in this country - those who voted you into office - find this fact alarming.

The platform which you ran for office endorsed fundamental conservative, Judeo-Christian beliefs - those views which Doug Wead supports.

Please restate Mr Doug Wead and send a positive message to the liberals in our country that you will not be bullied by MINISTRY, ANTI-CHRISTIAN pressures.

Our church prays for you regularly.

Dear President Bush:

I am writing in regards of Doug Wead, who was relieved of his duties at the Whitehouse. I am writing in hopes of him being reinstated. Doug Wead is a Good Christian man with strong tradition values and he should not be dismissed because of these good moral values. Many gays have petition for his dismissal because of his stand for good and traditional values and I feel this is a shame. Yes, Doug believes that homosexuality is wrong but he has not wage war against those who believe it is right, or against those who practice homosexuality. I feel that Doug Wead should be commended for his stance and not punished for it. He is a good and honest man, who I am sure gave the best to his job. We need more like him, not less. I voted for you and I would like to think that my one vote is worth my voice being heard and my request being strongly considered. Thank you for your time and your consideration.

Dear Mr. President,

I am writing on behalf of Mr. Doug Wead. I have known about Mr. Wead and have had the privilege of hearing him speak many times. I have high regard for him. I was distressed to hear that he was fired from his position at the White House.

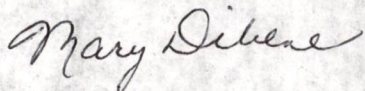

Mr. Bush, I voted for you because I thought you had a respect for family values - the traditional family values - not the type such as the homosexual community are trying to corrupt this good country with.

I am a Republican and have always voted for Republican because so far they have always stood for traditional, moral family values. I would hate to see the Republican Party turn into the type of the party that the Democrats maintain.

I would like to see Mr. Doug Wead restored to his job. I would also like to see more people with the moral responsibility working on your staff. Mr. Bush don't forget the people that elected you to your high office. You needed the conservative vote to get you elected. Please don't let us down. We need a strong president who will uphold the traditional family values this country needs to keep this country a strong nation.

My husband and my eighteen year old son (first time voter) join me in this letter and express the same desire that you please do not let this country become weak because of a few people who want to weaken our moral fibers.

With deepest regards,

Dear President Bush:

I am disappointed that you fired Doug Weed. It has been reported that he was fired because he would not endorse and condone your recent overtures to homosexuals. As a believer in traditional values I am greatly disturbed by your apparent abandoning of conservative Christian values which I thought you supported. As the leader of our country I find it alarming that you have apparently started down the road to endorsing the homosexual lifestyle, and homosexual rights. Please tell me where you stand in this matter.

I also think that it is misguided to spend over 1 billion dollars a year on AIDS research when in the past 9 years 80,000 people have died from AIDS. Over 700,000 people a year die from heart disease and less money is spent on heart disease research. Does this indicate that you are more sympathetic to homosexuals, since most of those who have AIDS are homosexual, than to those who suffer from heart disease? Don't you think there should be a more sensible approach to medical research spending?

I would appreciate hearing from you in regard to these matters.

Dear Mr. President,

Our prayers are with you concerning all the decisions & policies that you must make daily.

I was quite distressed concerning the firing of Doug Wead. I know politics is a cruel <sup>job</sup> & sometimes unfair decisions must be made, but I think instead of firing Godly men, you need to surround yourself with a few more. There has never been a more critical time in man's history, than now. (too listen to the voice of God.)

May God richly bless you & your family.

Sincerely,
The Mark P. Seyfert's

Dear President Bush -
I am writing you
to protest the ousting
of Doug Wead from representing the Christian peoples of our nation in its Capital.

This man is so valuable in his concern & stance on traditional values. The Christian voice needs to be heard there - we need God in our government. I am a Republican & I pray
for you, your family,

2
your leadership & especially at this crucial time in history do I ask God to give you &
all those in Congress
the wisdom, knowledge &
understanding needed
to make right decisions
at every turn in the road.
I pray His light shine upon everyone there.
And I ask that Doug Wlad be reinstated in his God assigned task.

my loyalty & love,

Dear President Bush:

I am deeply concerned and offended by the recent firing of Mr. Doug Wead.

I believe that the Bible teaches that we should pray for and support our leaders in government offices. However, I cannot in good conscience, support anyone who fires a man for standing up for Christian values and Biblical principles.

I trust that this will receive your immediate attention. My continued prayers go with you.

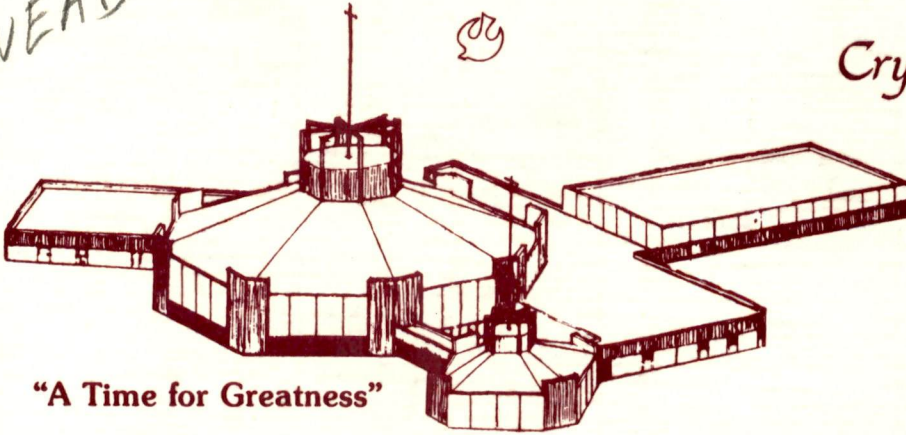

Sincerely,

In Regards to the Firing of Mr. Doug Wead, Special Assistant to the President, Liaison to Evangelicals

Dear Sir:

I am appalled at the firing of Mr. Doug Wead. His expertise and worth to your administration cannot be adequately measured. He is an exceptional man of character and integrity.

Please sir consider that there are some 40 million plus evangelicals who supported you during the election. Now to have one of our own railroaded out by the liberals is absolutely unacceptable.

I hope that you will reconsider and place Mr. Wead back in his position and then find another position of lower responsibility for the person responsible for causing such an embarrassment to your leadership.

Mr. President, we have supported you and we want to help now. Please listen to our wishes. Thank you.

Dear Mr. President :

I learned that Mr. Doug Weed is no longer an employee of yours and the news has greatly disturbed me. I am not sure exactly what the situation is surrounding this matter, however, I hope that as a Christian yourself you will consider this decision very carefully knowing that he is a fellow brother in Christ.

I believe that if our brethren does something that displeases us, we should always think and pray before we act. Jesus said that we must forgive our brother seventy times seven times, meaning four hundred and ninety times. I really don't mean to preach to you and would like you to know that I respect you very much, but as a Christian who is interested in the well-being of all mankind it is my duty to get involved.

Regarding Mr. Weed, from the little that has been written and from what I have heard on TBN, I really don't understand why a dismissal was warranted especially since you have worked so closely together. I know that the task of being a president is a great one, but it is so important that wisdom be applied in each and every situation in our lives both private and publicly. More often than not we condone things that we shouldn't without considering the consequences.

Remember that we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities and spiritual forces which are not seen with the natural eye, therefore we as God's children have got to be twice as cautious and always on guard.

Again, I hope you will review the circumstances and come to a final decision in favor of Mr. Weed and his family. Thank you for your kind consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Mildred A. Cabral

Mr President

My wife and I both would appreciate you bringing back to his position DOUG WEAD. I don't feel you should let him go because some Gay protesters don't want him there. So I'm protesting you, or whoever under you, let<sup>ting</sup> him go. I'm 35 1/2 years old & work for the state. I use to be an independent voter but once I married my wife I've turned very conservative and became a registered Republican and appreciate a conservative President sticking to conservative values.

Chief of Staff
The White House

Dear Mr. Sinunu:

This letter is sent in protest to the firing of Mr. R. Douglas Wead as Special Assistant to the President.

As a conservative Republican, I have cast my votes not to those that crumble under every political whimper. Instead, I cast my votes to those that stand up for their beliefs and convictions.

I understand that Doug Wead was fired for discussing concerns for the number of gays in the White House. Mr. Wead should be applauded for his stand rather than fired. This country still allows freedom of speech, the White House is our prime example of which to follow. Was Mr. Wead expressing his freedom of speech? YES! And he should not be fired for it!

Respectfully yours,

Mr. President,

I would like to register my disapproval of the firing of Doug Weed from his position at the White House.

He is a strong advocate of Christian values and represented the people who voted for you.

Surge you to reconsider this decision.

In Re: Dismissal of Doug Wead - Protestant liaison to White House

Dear President Bush:

My friends, my family and I strongly feel that a mistake was made in dismissing Doug Wead, who is a decent and fair man and very loyal to you. To dismiss him for taking a stand for morality is unheard of!

We are most concerned about the direction our Nation is headed when you will dismiss someone for taking a stand for morality. America is supposed to be a country where we have Freedom of Speech, and for Mr. Wead to voice his disapproval of your inviting homosexuals and gays into the White House is not enough reason for him to be fired.

Thank you for letting me express our opinion.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. President,

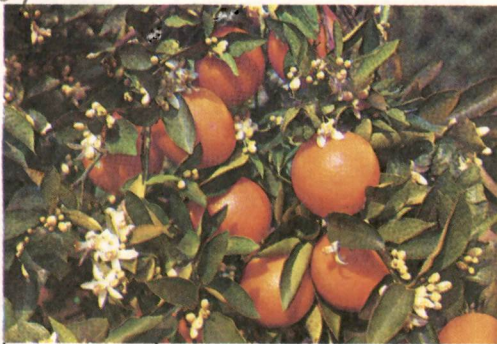

As a christian I was thankful to know you had a man of stature on your staff. Doug Wead is just such a man. I knew He would represent the christian ideals that I hold dear. I was very distressed to hear of his dismissal. Through his influence many voted for you.

My prayer would be that you would do everything to have him reinstated. A vote against Doug would be a vote for everything we as christians hate. Which would also be a vote against yourself.

Dear Mr. President,

As a member of the Republican Party and a supporter of yours, I feel it necessary to express my concern regarding the dismissal of Doug Wead. I believe the Republican Platform should support, not indict, a person of Doug Wead's convictions.

The real test of integrity is not in what is overt and public and popular, but rather in what is truly right and not seen by all. Please do not allow this injustice to Mr. Wead pass. Otherwise it will spread in your administration.

I urge you to stand for biblical righteousness.
