The President
The White House
Washington DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

I am sorry to learn of the firing of Doug Wead. It was very unfortunate for the institution of the traditional American family that homosexual and lesbian leaders were invited to the white House when you signed the 'hate crimes' bill.

The fact that the homosexual life-style holds such a disdain for family values and these individuals were invited to the white House for the signing of this bill is a slap in the face to the traditional family which our country was founded on. We need more protection for the family, not the tearing down and redefinition of the family, which is their agenda.

My feeling is that the people responsible for inviting the anti-family homo-sexual and lesbian leaders to the white House are the ones who should be fired.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Marilyn Lawson

Dear Mr. President,

I am writing to thank you and to express a concern. Thank you for your strong stand for the unborn in your governance as President. We are glad for your past vetoes which repulsed the attempts to widen abortion's influence.

There is a concern that I have about a matter that occurred recently. At the recent signing of a bill homosexuals as a recognized group were invited to come into the White House and be represented. I find this most reprehensible and I am most disappointed to think that you would be the first President to allow this. Homosexuality is just as much of an evil ^{today} as our forefathers knew that it was. The functioning of homosexuality in our society is a danger to it. The AIDS situation should show us that. Also, the Bible refers to homosexuality as an abomination. We should not be supporting what God considers abominable.

Mr. President, I supported you believing that you would uphold all traditional moral principles. These principles are just as necessary today as ever for the perpetuity of our nation. Again, thank you for your stand for the unborn. And please stand firm against homosexuality.

Finally, the news to the public concerning the firing of Doug Wead indicated that he was fired because of his opposition to homosexuality and the administration's giving credence to the homosexual lobby.

I'll be watching to see what happens in the future concerning this. Thank you for your consideration of this letter.

Sincerely & Respectfully,

Samuel Rutow

Dear President Bush:

We were deeply distressed to hear of the firing of Mr. Doug Weed and feel you have done not only a great disservice to Mr. Weed, but also to our beloved nation.

As a lady minister of a small congregation in Southeastern Arkansas and as an American patriot, I have become alarmed at the trends your administration has been taking since you have taken office. I not only voted for you as did my Mother, but at great risk urged others to do so. If the liberal trends continue, we will feel impelled not to make the same mistake in 1992.

And, my dear Mr. President, how could you permit the homosexuals to be a recognized group at the signing of the "Hate Crimes Bill"? They represent only one per cent of our wonderful country. They did not vote for you in the past election nor support you in any way, nor can you trust their political support in the future. God has not changed His mind about homosexuality and He hates it. His wrath is soon to break upon our heads because of this sin and that of abortion and it is not long coming if America does not repent.

Sincerely
Shirley Furlong

Dear Mr. President:

I am sorry to learn of the firing of Doug Wead, and that family values have been discriminated against by the invitation of anti-family homosexuals to the White House.

The "family" needs to be supported, not torn down and re-defined. Those that invited the homosexual and lesbian leaders to the White House should be fired.

Dear President Bush,

Whead-2
I'm praying for our country and you to make the
the right decision over in the Middle East.

Since you want things to go on as usual-----
This letter is really to let you know how outraged I am that the Homosexual's were invited to the White House.. I commend R. Douglas Wead who lost his job, for speaking up against Ms.
Kilberg. I've enclosed a copy of The Homosexual Agenda, I hope sometime in the future you will read it and pass it on to Miss Kilberg.

I read in the paper 8/19/90 that according to the Public Health Service (PHS) that cancer will kill in the next two months almost as many people who have died of AID'S in the course of the entire epidimic. The Center For Disease Control
(CDC) they are spending $10,000. for each Aids patients, $185.00 for each cancer patient and $7. for each mental health patient.....Seems very lop-sided?

incl
Aids is contagious almost exclusively through avoidable behavior-----just think...Behaviour modification could in theory reduce future Aids cases to virtually Zero..... without a single medical breakthrough , while most cancers will remain completley unavoidable until medical intervention in developed. "most of this is from the news article".

President Bush I voted for you because you repressed traditional Values ; the life of the unborn child, family values..
Please Stand for you Values....the agenda of the Homosexual is against our Values.

I again commend Mr. Wead for standing up against the homosexual community, he did not compromise his values.

I'm closing with a quoto from James Russell Lowell one of our founding Fathers when asked a question by the French historian Francois Guizot "How long will the American republic endure?" He sagely replied, "As long as the ideas of the men who founded it continue dominant." Ref; from the book
"Faith of Our Founding Fathers"

THE HOMOSEXUAL AGENDA

This essay is outré, madness, a tragic, cruel fantasy, an eruption of inner rage, on how the oppressed desperately dream of being the oppressor

We shall sodomize your sons, emblems of your feeble masculinity, of your shallow dreams and vulgar lies. We shall seduce them in your schools, in your dormitories, in your gymnasiums, in your locker rooms, in your sports arenas, in your seminaries, in your youth groups, in your movie theater bathrooms, in your army bunkhouses, in your truck stops, in your all-male clubs, in your houses of Congress, however men are with men together. Your sons shall become our minions and do our bidding. They will be recast in our image. They will come to crave and adore us.

Women, you cry for freedom. You say you no longer are satisfied with men; they make you unhappy. We, connoisseurs of the masculine face, the masculine physique, shall take your men from you then. We will amuse them; we will instruct them; we will embrace them when they weep. Women, you say you wish to live with each other instead of with men. Then go and be with each other. We shall give your men pleasures they have never known because we are foremost men too and only one man knows how to truly please another man; only one man can understand with depth and feeling the mind and body of another man.

We shall sodomize your sons, emblems of your feeble masculinity, of your shallow dreams and vulgar lies.

All laws banning homosexual activity will be revoked. Instead, legislation shall be passed with engenders love between men.

All homosexuals must stand together as brothers; we must be united artistically, philosophically, socially, politically and financially. We will triumph only when we present a common face to the vicious heterosexual enemy.

If you dare to cry faggot, fairy, queer, at us, we will stab you in your cowardly hearts and defile your dead, puny bodies.

We shall write poems of the love between men; we shall stage plays in which man openly caresses man; we shall make films about the love between heroic men which will replace the cheap, superficial, sentimental, insipid, juvenile, heterosexual infatuations presently dominating your cinema screens. We shall sculpt statues of beautiful young men, of bold athletes which will be placed in your parks, your squares, your plazas. The museums of the world will be filled only with paintings of graceful, naked lads.

Our writers and artists will make love between men fashionable and de rigueur, and we will succeed because we are adept at setting styles. We will eliminate heterosexual liaisons through usage of the devices of wit and ridicule, devices which we are skilled in employing.

We will unmask the powerful homosexuals who masquerade as heterosexuals. You will be shocked and frightened when you find that your presidents and their sons, your industrialists, your senators, your mayors, your generals, your athletes, your film stars, your television personalities, your civic leaders, your priests are not the safe, familiar bourgeois, heterosexual figures you assumed them to be. We are everywhere; we have infiltrated your ranks. Be careful when you speak of homosexuals because are always among you; we may be sitting across the desk from you; we may be sleeping in the same bed with you.

There will be no compromises. We are not middle-class weaklings. Highly intelligent, we are the natural aristocrats of the human race, and steely-minded aristocrats never settle for less. Those who oppose us will be exiled.

We shall raise vast, private armies, as Mishima did, to defeat you. We shall conquer the world because warriors inspired by and banded together by homosexual love and honor are invincible as were the ancient Greek soldiers.

The family unit—spawning ground of lies, betrayals, mediocrity, hypocrisy and violence—will be abolished. The family unit, which only dampens imagination and curbs free will, must be eliminated. Perfect boys will be conceived and grown in the genetic laboratory. They will be bonded together in communal setting, under the control and instruction of homosexual savants.

All churches who condemn us will be closed. Our only gods are handsome young men. We adhere to a cult of beauty, moral and esthetic. All that is ugly and vulgar and banal will be annihilated. Since we are alienated from middle-class heterosexual conventions, we are free to live our lives according to the dictates of the pure imagination. For us too much is not enough.

The exquisite society to emerge will be governed by an elite comprised of gay poets. One of the major requirements for a position of power in the new society of homoeroticism will be in indulgence in the Greek passion. Any man contaminated with heterosexual lust will be automatically barred from a position of influence. All males who insist on remaining stupidly heterosexual will be tried in homosexual courts of justice and will become invisible men.

All churches who condemn us will be closed. Our only gods are handsome young men.

We shall rewrite history, history filled and debased with your heterosexual lies and distortions. We shall portray the homosexuality of the great leaders and thinkers who have shaped the world. We will demonstrate that homosexuality and intelligence and imagination are inextricably linked, and that homosexuality is a requirement for true nobility, true beauty in a man.

We shall be victorious because we are fueled with the ferocious bitterness of the oppressed who have been forced to play seemingly bit parts in your dumb, heterosexual shows throughout the ages. We too are capable of firing guns and manning the barricades of the ultimate revolution.

Dear President Bush:

I as a Christian feel very sad and betrayed that you have deliberately chosen to weaken your ties with the evangelical community by firing Doug Wead. You have decided to choose between the homosexual community and the Christian community which will be well remembered in the next election.

You no longer stand for family values and we are very saddened. Doug Wead helped to organize your 1988 campaign. You have chosen rather to associate with people such as Christie Hefner and to continue government funding of the NEA which contains much anti-Christian bigotry and pornography.

Please reconsider your stand.

The American Family Association indicates many decisions you made recently have weakened your Christian witness — inviting homosexuals, firing Wead, the Playboy & art experiences. I do pray that you seek the Lord's help in making major decisions on the world scene for He alone can guide and sustain you.

Clear direction for each step of the way are thrown in for extra measure — just because He loves us so much!!

I believe God has raised you up as His man for the hour and the great Christians you have called to help also have a great responsibility.

Dear Mr. President:

I have just become aware of your weakening ties to the evangelical community, by firing Doug Wead, special liaison to the religious community, and bowing to the demands of militant homosexuals, inviting leaders of homosexual groups to two meetings at the White House.

You are the first President in history to officially invite representatives from homosexual groups to the White House.

Earlier this year, you invited Playboy publisher Christie Hefner to a meeting at the White House. I understand also that you are in support of continuing government funding of Anti-Christian bigotry and pornography by the National Endowment for the Arts.

2) I am very disappointed to learn of this action on your part.

I did vote for you in the last election, but I must vote for a man who stands for Christian values and the American family.

Thank You for listening

Dear President Bush,

I would like to know your stand on why you have invited homosexual organization representatives to the White House. Mr. Wead would respond to people like me that "The President does not endorse the ~~lifestyle~~ ^{lifestyle} of all ~~all~~ groups that attend
White House functions," and "is offended by attacks against Cardinal O'Connor & other manifestations of religious intolerance that some of the homosexual groups have espoused." When Mr. Wead complained, he was fired. You even invited Mr. Keener, a leading pornographer.
I especially want to know your stand on the govt. funding of anti-Christian bigotry and pornography by N.E.A. I have given you my full support but these allegations have me wondering.

Respectfully,

Mrs. Diane Wead

Bush welcomes homosexuals to -White House, fires Christian liaison

Bowing to demands of militant homosexuals, President Bush last month fired Doug Wead, special liaison to the religious community. Wead had spent years working with the President and played a key role in getting Bush elected. The firing came after Wead protested the President's invitation to leaders of homosexual groups to two meetings at the White House. Bush is the first President in history to officially invite representatives from homosexual groups to the White House.

Bush first invited representatives from the homosexual groups to attend the signing of the Hate Crimes Bill at the White House in April. When contacted about the invitation, Wead responded to letter writers that Mr. Bush "is a man who lives as well as speaks about family values." He went on to say: "Quite frankly, the President's staff did not serve him well by inviting some of the groups which attended the Hate Crimes Bill signing ceremony. In no way does the President endorse the lifestyle of all groups which attend such events. I can assure you that he is especially offended by the attacks against Cardinal O'Connor and other manifestations of religious intolerance that some of the homosexual groups have espoused... Hopefully, it will not happen again."

History showed Wead was wrong. Another invitation to leaders of the homosexual community went out. Five representatives of militant homosexual organizations were invited to be present when the President signed the Americans With Disabilities Act on July 26.

The Washington Blade, a homosexual newspaper, was given White House press credentials and the Blade sent a photographer to cover the event. A spokesman for the Blade says that "gays were instrumental" in the passage of the act, which also protects people with AIDS under the anti-discrimination provisions of the measure.

When Wead complained again, he was fired. Columnist Cal Thomas said that "Mr. Wead has been a target of the [White House] liberals 'from day one.' They are said to resent his close relationship with the evangelical Christian community that Mr. Wead helped to organize behind Mr. Bush for the 1988 campaign. Mr. Wead's 1988 book, George Bush: Man of Integrity, was written to convince conservative evangelicals that Mr. Bush is one of them." Bush's margin of victory came from the evangelical community, from which he received a higher percentage of the vote than from any other group.

The firing of Wead is only the latest in a series of events which point to the President's decision to weaken his ties to evangelical community. Earlier in the year, Bush invited Playboy publisher Christie Hefner to a meeting at the White House.

Previously, the President came out in support of continuing government funding of anti-Christian bigotry and pornography by the National Endowment for the Arts. He said he favored no content restrictions of tax-funded art.

Dear Mr. President,

I was distressed to hear of the firing of Mr. Doug Wead, who opposed the invitation of homosexual leaders to the signing of the hate crimes act.

I do not feel that homosexuality is a criterion for special protection or rights as a minority group. Our nation has seen much needed advancement for the rights of racial, ethnic, and religious groups in our society. I feel this has been diluted by the inclusion of homosexuals into the same classification.

I choose to remain celibate until marriage, which is certainly a minority in this society yet receive no special status as a minority for this 'personal life style choice'. Why are homosexuals treated specially?

Our country has come to a sad state when anti-family homosexuals can receive special status and protection.

The different ethnic groups, races, and religious sects worked hard to build a strong family unit and to receive equal opportunities and treatment which they deserve and have been denied in the past — what has the homosexual community done to improve the lives of these groups — nothing — they are simply trying to obtain extra advantages by claiming to be a 'special minority'. Homosexuals should not receive this special protection, nor should they force their 'personal choices' onto the rest of society demanding to be accepted any more than I can demand everyone convert to accepting my religion.

Thank-you for your time.

Dear Mr Bush,

I am very disappointed with your stogy decision to fire Doug Green.

His record doesn't need defending but I am alarmed at what his firing means and what it says about your new post & values.

There is no comfortable or lukewarm positions any more for any of us here in America.

Do you & your advisors (as in past years) not wanting to risk offending any group or cause (art rights, abortion rights, gay rights etc) - You are only causing this nation to fall.

This country is decaying - not from USSR, Japan & economics but from within. Look outside your windows, see the faces of desperate, lonely people.

There is nothing to hold on to anymore because this country built on Christian foundations has slowly been eaten away by "the rights"

gang. We are a segrated society of "rights" and no one seems to understand or percieve the quate "a house divided against it self will stand".

This country is sick because "the church" is sick but there is a few people in each city who are standing up & demand a change.

We have lost a generation of young people to sex, drugs & violence. And you in Washington have no right to compromise God's standart anymore.

"Art" that depicts Jesus in urine is PERVERTED & far you to worry about "rights" of the minds of perverted people who think this trash up is just as insane.

This country east of ^{you} far fathers their lives, all took blood - a high price to build us -

It now has the blood of innocent babies running the streets of our land and at will take the "BLOOD OF JESUS" and repentance to turn this nation around -

I am praying for you to see thru "~~this eyes~~ ifal ~~them to~~ give you ~~this heart~~" and the Holy Spirit to give you a vision"

I hope you will change your mind about NEA funding & stand up for decency and moral standards.

Since when has it become a land ashamed of God, afraid to speak truth and hate evil from wherever it comes?

President George Bush

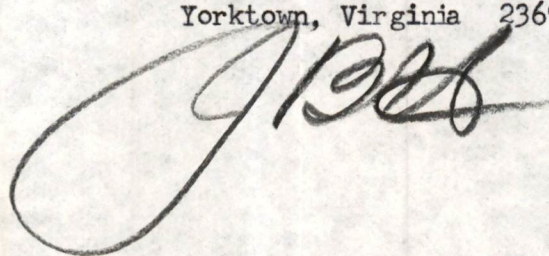

I voted for you as did my wife and family. It was our belief that you were the candidate that stood for conventional family values and a civilization and society with the same values.

It has been stated that you and your staff, acting at your direction, have repeatedly invited leaders of homosexual groups to meetings at the white house. Reportedly, five representatives of militantly homosexual organizations were invited to be present when the Americans With Disabilities Act was signed. (As a matter of note, my wife has been in a wheelchair for over ten years and we have never asked for a dime of subsidy from any governmental organization - our family handles the matter).

It is further reported that White House press credentials were given to the Blade , a homosexual newspaper and that Mr. Wead was fired for taking his stand on his christian based beliefs. It was definitely stated that you invited Playboy publisher Christie Hefner to a meeting at the white house. As you came out in support of continuing government funding of Anti- Christian bigotry and pornography by the national endowment of the arts (postion - no content restrictions of tax funded art)....I, nor my family can any longer support you as our family chosen candidate and we shall continue to ignore requests from the Republican party for renewing our contributions until actions taken reflect the character and morals we expect.

Dear Mr. President:

My satisfaction with the present administration has been considerably diminished with the firing of Doug Wead and the invitation of the homosexual community to be considered a political force. Homosexuality is not a minority group and should not be given status and recognition as such. The firing of liaison Wead shows that concessions are being made at the cost of fairness and equity and principle.

I was outraged to learn that Doug Wead, your special assistant for public liaison has been dismissed from his position due to disagreements with Bobbie Greene Kilberg.

How could a fine conservative such as Mr. Wead be dismissed in favor of a liberal feminist such as Bobbie Kilberg? Did the liberals and feminists assist in your election in 1988? Did they even vote for you? Will they vote for your re-election in 1992. The answer to all these questions is NO.

I would suggest that in the future, you remember that conservatives such as myself did assist you and vote for you in 1988. If you continue to ignore our concerns, we might ignore you come 92.

Dear sir,

This letter is in reference to your firing of Doug Wead. I understand that you fired him because he criticized the White House's invitations to homosexual groups to attend the signing of the National Hate Crimes Act. If this is true, that someone was fired because they spoke out on something that they felt strongly about, then it sounds like you have been unfair to him and lacking in understanding of free speech in our country. Of course, if you are, you're not the first! Do I misunderstand the issue? Please inform me.

While we're on the subject, Mr. President, in my opinion, Mr. Wead was right on the mark. To quote an article that I read on the subject: "How is it that the homosexual lifestyle is touted as 'natural,' but those that get AIDS because of that lifestyle want to be included in benefits for the handicapped? Activists holler about being victims of 'hate crimes,' but then such groups as Act Up interrupted Mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York a few months ago and spit on the communion host."

Mr. President, I voted for you and I support you on most issues, but was disappointed this time and I would venture to say that most of main stream U.S. is too.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President:

I was dismayed to learn that Doug Wead has been fired as special liaison to the President basically because he expressed the evangelical community's feelings that the White House staff made a mistake in inviting homosexual leaders to a bill signing ceremony. I had written to you earlier about my feelings on that subject.

I just hope that this does not signal that the President is caving in to pressure from homosexual groups while ignoring the desires of many evangelicals.

Pres. Bush,

What? as a Pres. of our Country are you doing? firing Doug Wead, because he's a Christian? Our Country needs more Christians, leading us in right direction!!

Please stop supporting Anti-Christian bigotry and pornography. Arts with our tax money, this is not fair. The dirty stuff that comes out, should not be paid by tax money.

We have a bussiness in a small town, Warner works too hard, we hardly make it finanicly, there are soo many people in this Country that need help, our son cannot work, he's trying to get on his feet, does not get enough help, he will probably be living off street
soon, hope this makes you happy,
Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President Bush:

This is a letter of protest and concern for the way things were handled by your administration concerning the dismissal of Doug Wead.

I am appauled to think that our President would support anyone within his organization who would support anything but conservative moral issues. But as was reported on the news, you chose to support and acknowledge the gay community at the signing of your last bill. I am outraged that our government would support a group that is trying to corrupt the family strcture of our nation

I agree with Doug Wead, it was a real dumb thing for our republican government to support the gay rights movement and acknowledge them publicly.

I am an active republican in the Denver County Republicans. And I voted for George Bush in the last election. I am a ~~XXXXXX~~ conservative and a born-again christian.

I want to know who you will now have to represent us as the next Christian Advocate. I feel that Doug Wead did a spectacular job in this office and am very angry with the way things were handled.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. President,

I would like to express my opinion on several issues. But first I would like to tell you that I am a registered voter and I voted for you in 1988. On several issues, you have totally gone against your word or you are not standing behind the promises and values of the who voted for you, and I can assure you, that unless you change your direction on these issues, you will certainly not be re-elected.

#1 "Read My Lips; No New Taxes!" Where's the promise? Higher taxes would not be beneficial to our economy.

#2 I am out-raged by the totally unfair firing of a good man like Doug Wead. Won't you see what you can do to right this situation?

#3 I feel it was a great mistake inviting homosexuals to the white house. This is a betrayal of the moral values the republican party stands for.

#4. I am totally against the funding of the NEA because of the immoral and pornographic stuff which is being called art. Please open your eyes and see what you are advocating by giving our tax dollars for such slop.

Thank-you for your time and your action.

Yours truly,

Verna Shehara

Dear President Bush:

May God bless you for your decisive action in responding to Saudi Arabia's request for protection against Iraq's King Hussein. The unofficial news polls show a very supportive America, and no one at this point in time is busy second-guessing your decisions, or the action taken. Your speech to the Nation was balm to the American spirit! You managed to strike the right balance of protection, defense and strength, which is no small feat at the best of times, let alone when the Arab nations are inter-feuding with global consequences.

I was sorry to hear of your recent decision to dismiss Doug Weed. Whether this decision was yours alone or based upon advice offered by your advisors I do not know, but I register this as a disappointment, in either case. I believe the evangelical Christians of this country should be represented at all levels in government, whether it be the White House or the local school board. And I do not know that you haven't, but I would hope that you would select an evangelical Christian to be amongst your advisors, as you have received the evangelical vote.

Mr. President, I join several thousand others in praying for you and all of our world leaders, for the soldiers, sailors and Marines and their families, toward an expedient and peaceful conclusion to this conflict. As you said in your Address, May God bless the United States of America, and I add, may God bless you, Mr. President, for your leadership at this unprecedented time.

Very respectfully,

Mrs. Jane Streek

Dear President Bush;

It grieves me deeply to know that you fired Doug Wead. It appears his services were finished after getting the votes for you to be president. We, the people, who think we're supporting men who will work for Christian principles end up disappointed. Maybe we fail to "yell" loud enough. Did you not know why God destroyed Sodom & Gomorrah? I'm only one individual but our group of 38 women would like to know why you are entertaining homosexuals, Christie Refner and support taking our hard earned money for obscene art.

Your secretary will censor this but I want you to read this personally because our country will not stand if we fail God. That is history facts. We are praying for you and appreciate your consideration concerning these immoral issues. Thank you for some things you're doing. Please let God lead you especially in this eastern conflict. We have our best young men going out for battle and these welfare non workers, homosexuals & artists are trying to take over our government.

Dear President Bush,

It grieves me deeply to learn of three actions which you have recently taken:

1. To dismiss Mr. Doug Loud as your special liaison to the religious community.
2. To continue to endorse federal funding of the N.E.A. (with no guidelines) when it has used our tax dollars to sanction pornographic and offensive works.
3. To welcome to the White House representatives from the militant homosexual lobbies.

I, along with many other conservative family-minded voters, feel that we are being betrayed by such actions. I do hope that in the future you will reconsider our point of view.

Sincerely yours,

Wead?

Dear Mr. President,

Thank you for ~~you~~ the recent photo of you & your wife. My wife and I have been supporters of yours but have recently been concerned about what seems to be bending under minority group pressures. With the firing of Doug Wead and the apparent approval of the homosexual (antifamily) militants, it appears that you have shifted from the moral stance you ~~so~~ had taken at the time of the election. I understand also.

You had invited "Playboy" publisher
Christie Hefner to the White House also. To Christian this is like ~~inviting~~ ~~and~~ approving ~~of~~ ~~inviting~~ to the White House a terrorist who has just aggressively has ~~super~~ destroyed another country without cause or like inviting to the White House in a respectful way ~~a~~ a drug dealer whose Just destroyed grade school aged kids life with his drugs.

Please reconsider this ~~direction~~.

Dear President Bush

Being a Conservative evangelical we prayed and worked hard to get out the votes for you. This is a outrage, this Anti Christian art by the National Endowment for the arts

P- Christ by - Serrano
Sincerity for ever by max wellman

Why is it all right to knock and put down christians and also blaspheme our God JESUS christ and on top of that we have to pay for it with our tax money

What are you doing for us, this is very important to all christians
Where do you stand when you invite militant homosexual organizations to the signing of the disabilities Act on July 26th and also firing Mr. Wead

Mr. President your the 1st President in history to officially invite representatives from homosexual groups to the white house were really ashamed.

here are Some others that fell the way I do.

A Petition to Congress to Stop Tax Funding of Pornographic, Anti-Christian 'Works of Art' by the National Endowment for the Arts

We, the undersigned, oppose the use of tax dollars to help fund pornographic, anti-Christian "works of art" by the National Endowment for the Arts, a federal agency supported by taxes. Specific examples of NEA funded art include, but are not limited to, a photo by Andres Serrano of Christ on the cross submerged in Serrano's own urine entitled "P— Christ", a photo by David Wojnarowicz of Christ depicted as a drug addict with a needle in his arm, and explicit, graphic photos of homosexual sex by Robert Mapplethorpe and David Wojnarowicz.

When Congressman Pat Williams (D-MT) asked NEA Chairman John Frohnmayer if the NEA would continue using tax dollars to fund such "art" in the future, Mr. Frohnmayer responded: "I would say yes." Congressman Williams praised Mr. Frohnmayer for his positive answer, saying: "It shows real determination that the NEA not be used as a censorship agency."

The refusal of government to fund such pornographic, anti-Christian "works of art" is not censorship. The artists are still free to produce their "works of art", but let them compete in the marketplace. Tax dollars should not be used to fund such "works of art".

Since the NEA says it will continue to use tax dollars to fund such pornographic and anti-Christian "works of art" in the future, we ask that you vote against all funding the NEA.
