PRESIDENT GEORGE BUSH
THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON D.C. 20510

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT

WITH OUR PRESENT SCOURGE OF PORNOGRAPHY AND DRUGS I WAS SHOCKED TO HEAR THAT YOU INVITED MILITANT HOMOSEXUAL LEADERS TO THE WHITE HOUSE. AS IF THAT WASN'T BAD ENOUGH, YOU FIRED DOUG WEAD FOR PROTESTING YOUR ACTIONS.

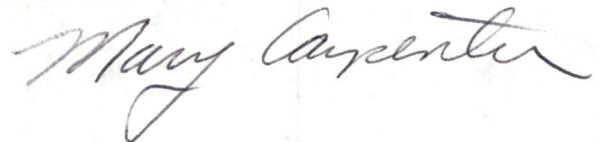

I ALSO UNDERSTAND CHRISTIE HEFNER WAS A GUEST AT THE WHITE HOUSE AND YOU ALSO SUPPORT FEDERAL FUNDING OF THE N.E.A. IN SPITE OF ITS' ANTI-CHRISTIAN BIGOTRY AND PORNOGRAPHY WITHOUT ANY CENSORSHIP!

I SINCERELY HOPE YOU RE-CONSIDER YOUR RECENT MOVES IN THE DIRECTION OF LIBERALISM. I AM FIRST VICE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLICAN WOMEN FEDERATED IN MY AREA AND BELIEVE ME I PLAN TO SPEAK OUT ON THESE ISSUES. WE ELECTED A CONSERVATIVE PRESIDENT AND HOPED TO HAVE HIM BEHAVE LIKE ONE. OUR REPUBLICAN PARTY HAS A GREAT CHANCE TO TRIUMPH AND IT SEEMS LIKE OUR ELECTED OFFICIALS ARE FORGETTING WHY THEY WERE ELECTED. YOU WERE PRO-GUN, PRO-LIFE, PRO-CHRISTIAN (ON WHOSE PRINCIPALS OUR GREAT COUNTRY WAS FOUNDED). IT WOULD PAY YOU TO REMEMBER WHY GOD DESTROYED SODOM AND GOMORRAH, THE VERY ORIGIN OF OUR WORD "SODOMY".

I BEG YOU MR. PRESIDENT BUSH, PLEASE DO NOT FUMBLE THE BALL!
THANK YOU FOR HEARING ME OUT.

SINCERELY,

MARY CARPENTER

Dear Mr. President,

In regards to the enclosed article that we are forwarding to you, it is hard for us to believe that this article is true.

Evidently it is true or it would not have been written and we understand that you have fired Doug Wead, a christian man who devotedly campaigned for you. We voted for you and had high respect for you but you have disappointed us greatly inasmuch as you have invited representatives of militant homosexual organizations, also the Playboy publisher to a meeting at the White House.

end. We are also very disappointed that you supported the government funding (our tax $'s) for the N.E.A. What a disgrace!

We are a God fearing, retired couple who will continue to pray for you.

We are concerned for our country that it may be God blest for our children and our 21 grandchildren.

Very Sincerely,
Mr. & Mrs. Charles Wulliman

Bush welcomes homosexuals to White House, fires Christian liaison

a 74 magazine

Bowing to demands of militant homosexuals, President Bush last month fired Doug Wead, special liaison to the religious community. Wead had spent years working with the President and played a key role in getting Bush elected. The firing came after Wead protested the President's invitation to leaders of homosexual groups to two meetings at the White House. Bush is the first President in history to officially invite representatives from homosexual groups to the White House.

Bush first invited representatives from the homosexual groups to attend the signing of the Hate Crimes Bill at the White House in April. When contacted about the invitation, Wead responded to letter writers that Mr. Bush "is a man who lives as well as speaks about family values." He went on to say: "Quite frankly, the President's staff did not serve him well by inviting some of the groups which attended the Hate Crimes Bill signing ceremony. In no way does the President endorse the lifestyle of all groups which attend such events. I can assure you that he is especially offended by the attacks against Cardinal O'Connor and other manifestations of religious intolerance that some of the homosexual groups have espoused... Hopefully, it will not happen again."

History showed Wead was wrong. Another invitation to leaders of the homosexual community went out. Five representatives of militant homosexual organizations were invited to be present when the President signed the Americans With Disabilities Act on July 26.

The Washington Blade, a homosexual newspaper, was given White House press credentials and the Blade sent a photographer to cover the event. A spokesman for the Blade says that "gays were instrumental" in the passage of the act, which also protects people with AIDS under the anti-discrimination provisions of the measure.

When Wead complained again, he was fired. Columnist Cal Thomas said that "Mr. Wead has been a target of the [White House] liberals 'from day one.' They are said to resent his close relationship with the evangelical Christian community that Mr. Wead helped to organize behind Mr. Bush for the 1988 campaign. Mr. Wead's 1988 book, George Bush: Man of Integrity, was written to convince conservative evangelicals that Mr. Bush is one of them." Bush's margin of victory came from the evangelical community, from which he received a higher percentage of the vote than from any other group.

The firing of Wead is only the latest in a series of events which point to the President's decision to weaken his ties to evangelical community. Earlier in the year, Bush invited Playboy publisher Christie Hefner to a meeting at the White House.

Previously, the President came out in support of continuing government funding of anti-Christian bigotry and pornography by the National Endowment for the Arts. He said he favored no content restrictions of tax-funded art.

PRESIDENT GEORGE BUSH
THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON D.C.

Dear Mr. President,

First of all, I would like to commend you for your refusal to compromise concerning the situation in Iraq, as well as for your stand against legalized abortion.

However, I was very much shocked and disappointed to learn of the recent firing of Christian liaison Doug Wead.

Apparently he was terminated for protesting a meeting in which you invited representatives of homosexual groups during which you signed the Americans with Disabilities Act on July 26.

According to an article in the AFA Journal, "The firing of Wead is only the latest in a series of events which point to the President's decision to weaken his ties to the evangelical community. Earlier this year, Bush invited Playboy publisher Christie Pefner to a meeting at the White House."

Also, the same article states that you support continued government funding of anti-Christian bigotry and pornography by the National Endowment for the Arts, favoring no content restrictions of tax-funded art.

You are supposedly one who lives as well as speaks about family values. If what I've just read about you is true, you certainly do not represent me.

Sincerely

Hello PRESIDENT BUSH:

I'm SURE you're BUSY, so I will NOT take much of your time. I know you have the Iraq-Kuwait hostage situation at hand and I would like to encourage you to "stick to your guns" and don't give in to Hussein. I will be praying that you will seek GOD'S GUIDANCE IN THIS MATTER.

Let Him give you the courage & answers as in what to do.

Now, I would like to address another "important" issue: ~~Homosexuals~~. I'm am very displeased with your firing of the "gentlemen" who protested "against" you inviting "homosexuals" into the WHITE HOUSE. I understand he is a "Christian" also, as we are. I feel that he did what was right & moral!

Mr. George Haynesworth Jr

Mrs. Judi Haynesworth

Evidently, he knows what GOD says about homosexuality and acted on that "faith". I feel that you acted prematurely in your actions and that you should apologize to him for doing what he felt & believed to be right. I THESSALONIANS 5:22 says, "Abstain from ALL APPEARANCE of evil," EPHESIANS 5:11 says, "HAVE NO FELLOWSHIP WITH THE UNFRUITFUL WORKS OF DARKNESS, BUT RATHER REPROVE THEM." HOMOSEXUALITY IS AN IMMORAL, PERVERSE, "SATANIC" LIFESTYLE THAT "GOD" CALLS AN "ABOMINATION". HE HATES THE "SIN", NOT THE "SINNER". I feel that these "homos" should get their souls right with GOD & act accordingly in the manner that He has designed for them; as MEN, NOT WOMEN! IF you ever invite them to visit or enter → over the WHITE HOUSE again I would like to encourage you to "witness" to them and tell them what "our" GOD says about "homosexuality."

MR. GEORGE HAYNESWORTH JR.

MRS. Judi Haynesworth

Now is the appointed time to do what is right, not logical nor reasonable, we need to ask GOD for "wisdom & strength" & not to knuckle under the pressure of such small so-called minority group.

Homosexuality is not a minority because it is not a race! It is a perverted lifestyle which I am convinced comes from, "not birth" and some may say, but from doing Satan's dealings instead of GOD'S GOODNESS that He has called us to do.

READS ROMANS 1:18-32. I encourage you to do so.

GOD BLESS YOU; GEORGE

Dear Mr. Bush:

I must say that I was quite upset to hear about the firing of Doug Wead, from your White House Staff! It appears you are allowing the homosexual community to run the White House. This makes no sense politically or otherwise.

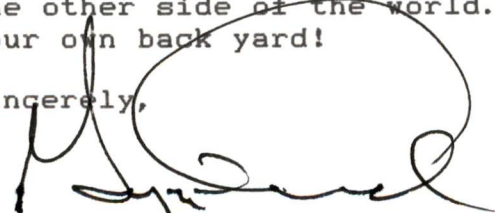

As a conservative Christian, Mr. Bush, I continue to vote for people who represent the family and the values this country was founded on. Mr. Wead represents the conservative Christian perspective that, I know, model much more of America than does the "gay community" that seem to be running your office.

If your reasoning is politically motivated, that makes no sense because the gays will not support you in the next election anyway. They will obviously stand behind whatever liberal candidate the democrates decide to run.

Mr. Bush, please give serious consideration to what is happening in this country, let alone on your own staff! The homosexuals are a very, very small minority and DO NOT represent America. America is made up, generally, of pretty conservative people who DO NOT WANT HOMOSEXUALS BEING THE ADVISORS TO OUR NATIONAL LEADER!

By the way, you are doing a great job in dealing with Iraq, on the other side of the world. Please do not lose the battle in your own back yard!

Sincerely,

Dear President Bush,
We are sorry to hear that you fired special liason to the religious community, Doug Wead. Did you want him to be a yes-man, or don't you want someone who could be a true liason. I believe you will find if you check very close you will find that there are more Christians in America than "militant" homosexuals. If you are afraid of the militant homosexuals, please know that you should be more fearful of the prayers of the Christians. The prayers of righteous men are of much effect. We pray for you and Mrs. Bush and we pray for the homosexual community. Meanwhile our God checks out the choices of men for good or ill and judges accordingly. Why do you want to weaken your ties to the evangelical community? Don't you know that as you court men with their own evil agenda (read their stuff) that they will eventually take over, and you and your family

Dear U.S. President
George Bush

I am somewhat puzzled as to what led your office to dismiss Douglas Wead, special liaison to the religious community. I have reason to believe that Mr. Wead played a key role in getting you elected to the presidential office. The main reason for Mr. Wead's campaign portrait of you as a prospective president was that "George Bush is a man who lives as well as speaks family values." Mr. Wead obviously disagreed with the White House invitation to leaders of homosexual groups. While discrimination against homosexuals as persons is of course unconstitutional - the White House need not endorse their lifestyle - it is definitely anti-family. And homosexual hate groups - like those who openly attacked Cardinal O'Connor in St. Patrick's Cathedral - are certainly not to be presidentially encouraged. Then five representatives of militant homosexual organizations were invited to be present when the President signed the Landmark Americans with Disabilities Act on July 26. The Washington Blade - a homosexual newspaper was invited to the event and sent a photographer. Mr. Wead we think rightly was opposed to the presidential move to weaken his proclaimed ties to the Christian community.

BTO

Why was Playboy publisher Christie Hefner invited to a meeting at the White House?

Why presidential endorsement of continuing government funding of the National Endowment for the Arts - regardless of content and purpose. Christians will not look kindly upon such expenditure of their tax-dollars.

I trust that Mr. Wead's dismissal does not signify a presidential shift regarding his declared family values. The destruction of family values is clearly at the root of many of our present crises - those in particular that affect children, adolescents and all students from K to Grade 12 and later in college.

Awaiting your kind reply

I am yours sincerely

Thank you for your stand against Saddam Hussein. I hope for a peaceful solution to the middle-east crisis. Perhaps, new oil supplies will be found, & also, we will become more conservative in the use of natural fuel sources.

Donald Weldon publisher of American Family Association Journal of September 1990, reports that Doug Whead your special liaison to the religious community was dismissed. He must have been your good friend & your religious shield as you are my desert shield in Saudi Arabia.

As Martin Luther wrote 450 years ago & still relevant today "For still our ancient foe doth seek to work us woe; His craft & power are great, and armed with cruel hate, on earth is not his equal."

You are doing a good job at a very difficult task & time.

Dear President Bush:

I voted for you in the last election, and I appreciate much of what you have done since taking office. However, I write to voice my deep concern and strong disapproval over your precedent setting invitations to the White House of representatives from militant gay activist groups, thus lending them regrettable credibility. I am also shocked and dismayed that Doug Wead was fired when he accurately represented my concerns to you regarding these matters. Your margin of victory came from the evangelical community which Mr. Wead helped rally to your cause. This is a substantial kick in the face not only for him but for all of us who share such concerns for family and traditional values and have heard your words to the effect that you do as well. Such actions, however, raise grave doubts about where you really stand on some very important issues. We are pulling for you and for our country. Dear President Bush:

I am writing to express our sincere regret that you have taken a stand against the Christian community in our country. It was with disappointment that I have just finished reading an article about all of the things that you have done to show you are against the Christians and the churches in the United States. I could hardly believe that the article was true, but since I had read these same things in other papers, I wanted to write to you personally and see if they are true. Mr. President, it was through our votes that you were elected. The largest percentage of your votes came from the evangelical community. How can you take this stand against us? Mr. President, the homosexual community has ruined the life of our sons and daughters. It has made them into something that God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah because of. How can you invite them to the White House and give press credentials to the reporters for their paper? And, Mr. Bush, how could you let Mr. Wead be fired?

I am so disappointed in the things that have been done that sounds as though you are against God and His people. We are so far in debt, yet our taxes are taken to provide the funds for sacriligious works of art. Yet if we refused to pay our taxes because of this, we would be jailed.

Recently, I had the honor(?) of defending you in a conversation with an acquaintance of mine because I mistakenly believed that you are a Christian. I say mistakenly believed, because no Christian could let satan's forces be used against God's people and their stand for right.

Our country has steadily gone down since the Christian people and faith has been attacked so flagrantly. Please, help us to stand for right. Please do not take satan's crowd under your wing and let them attack us. Please, please, change your stand.

We pray for you and for all the many, many hard decisions that you have to make. May God give you wisdom as you seek to do what He would have you to do.

Bush welcomes homosexuals to White House, fires Christian liaison

Bowing to demands of militant homosexuals, President Bush last month fired Doug Wead, special liaison to the religious community. Bush image suffers more damage

The firing of White House staffer Doug Wead over a letter that Wead wrote criticizing colleagues for inviting homosexual activists to an important bill-signing ceremony is further eroding President Bush's standing among conservative supporters.

The sad episode closes a reportedly long battle between the conservative press, a special assistant to Bush, and several colleagues on the White House staff.

According to sources who know about the tension in the liaison office, Wead has been a target of the liberals "from day one." They are said to have resented his close relationship with the evangelical Christian community that Wead helped to organize behind Bush for the 1988 campaign. Wead's 1988 book, "George Bush: Man of Integrity," was written to convince conservative evangelicals that Bush is one of them. (It apparently worked — Bush's evangelical base was one of his strongest constituencies.)

The letter, which also defended the president, went to about a dozen people who had written to complain. Ten representatives of homosexual groups were invited by staff members to the signing of the Hate Crimes Bill at the White House in April.

After assuring the letter-writers that Bush "is a man who lives as well as he speaks about family values," Wead asserted his own opinion about the wisdom of asking homosexuals to the signing ceremony: "Quite frankly, the president's staff did not serve him well by inviting some of the groups which attended the Hate Crimes Bill signing ceremony.

"In no way does the President endorse the lifestyle of all groups which attend such events. I can assure you that he is especially offended by the attacks against Cardinal O'Connor and other manifestations of religious intolerance that some of the homosexual groups have espoused.

"Thank you for caring enough to write about this issue. Hopefully, it will not happen again."

But it did happen again. During the outdoor ceremony on the White House lawn at which the Americans With Disabilities Act was signed on July 26, at least five representatives of homosexual organizations attended.

The Washington Blade, a homosexual newspaper, was given White House press credentials and sent a photographer to cover the event. A spokesman for the Blade says that "gays were instrumental" in the passage of the act, which also protects people with AIDS under the anti-discrimination provisions of the measure.

In an earlier event Playboy magazine publisher Christie Hefner was among a group of magazine executives who met with the President on July 17. According to a White House source, her invitation to the meeting was approved by Chief of Staff John Sununu and David Demarest, assistant to the President for communications.

Why does all of this matter? Because not all lists are sacrosanct. One frustrated Administration official, who asked not to be named, told me that some conservative activists like Howard Phillips and Richard Viguerie in effect are "barred" from the White House, while some liberal critics who oppose most of the President's policies are invited.

Given their lifestyles and political philosophy, it is highly unlikely that access to the White House is going to turn practitioners of the Playboy or homosexual lifestyles into supporters of President Bush or the "traditional values" the Republican platform supports.

What, then, can be the reason why a man like Doug Wead is pressured out of his job while those whose philosophies more closely represent the Democratic Party platform remain?

As far as insuring the interests of President Bush are concerned, the wrong person has been told to seek employment elsewhere.

■ Thomas writes his commentary for the Los Angeles Times from Manassas.

Dear Mr. President,

I am appalled to learn that homosexual and lesbian leaders were invited to the White House when you signed the hate crimes bill. That these individuals who hold such disdain for family values were invited is a slap in the face to the traditional family, the institution this nation was built on and that you in the past have defended. We need protection for the family, not its redefinition, which is the gay rights agenda.

My feeling is that those responsible for inviting these anti-family leaders to the White House should be fired rather than Doug Wead.

Washington, D.C. 20050

Dear Mr. President:

I have always been proud of the fact that you chose Houston as your hometown and the fact that we are fellow Houstonians. I have also been proud of the fact that the people of Texas and the United States elected a man of strong moral and spiritual conviction to lead our country into the 1990's. However, I question the fact that another man of equally strong moral and spiritual conviction was dismissed from his position as one of your advisors.

Mr. President, unless the people of America turn back from this spiralling descent into moral anarchy, unless the people of America return to the God of our founding fathers, we, as a nation, have no hope. As the liberal minorities continue to chip away at the very foundations our country was built on, we are destined for collapse. And, Mr. President, with the dismissal of Mr. Wead, you have lost contact with one more individual who is in touch with the true heartbeat of America.

Mr. President, in spite of what the liberal minority may try to make you think, human rights do not include homosexuality, abortion, "self-improvement" through New Age sorcery, etc. God destroyed cities and nations (Sodom and Gomorrah, the Roman Empire) because they refused to turn away from these very sins (they are sins and cannot be white-washed with such terms as "alternative lifestyles", etc.). Mr. President, I do not list these sins with a "holier-than" attitude for, in the past, I have been guilty of liberalism. However, I have seen the way liberalism destroys people and families, how it provides a haven for those who are consumed with the objective of self-gratification. Praise the Lord, I was blessed to have parents who forgive and love with the same unconditional love as the Father.

There is hope for us. Because of His unconditional love, 1 Corinthians 6:9-11 (Revised King James Version) says: "Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals, nor sodomites, nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you. But you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God."

September 7, 1990

Mr. President, millions of Christians are struggling to be heard in our capital. Unfortunately, ten riotous homosexuals are able to get front page coverage in some of our nation's largest newspapers while three Christians trying to save unborn children's lives spend weeks in the Harris County jail for peaceful protest (and the only reason I know of this incident is because I listen to a Christian radio station here in Houston, not due to any responsible reporting on the part of the secular media). With the dismissal of Mr. Wead, these millions struggling to be heard, praying for revival in the land, have lost just one more means of vocalizing our beliefs, the beliefs the conservative majority hold.

Mr. President, please listen to the Lord. Surround yourself with Godly men. Pray. Prayer and obedience to God are this nation's only hope.

Dear President Bush:

This is the reddest looking paper I could find. While it was upsetting to see your administration 'courting' homosexual groups, it makes me downright angry that Doug Wead would be fired because he did not think the idea was fine.

It seems to me that the wrong people are leaving the White House staff. The so-called 'Gay Rights Groups' are vocal enough, way beyond their numbers, without 'courting' them.

Hasn't the homosexual lobby hurt the country enough without bringing them into more prominence? Why not honor causes that elevate mankind rather than emphasize depravity? If we don't soon start to recognize the source of our problems, there won't be a country for anyone to be President of. We are certainly on a slippery slope.

Sincerely yours,

R. C. Weedy, P.E.

Dear Sir:

I'm sorry that you have weakened your ties with the evangelical community by firing Doug Weed and by inviting representatives from homosexual groups to attend the signing of the Hate Crime Bill and the American Disabilities Act. By inviting Christie Hefner to a meeting at the White House you appear to be endorsing a life style which is not profamily.

I'm sorry that you have come out in support of continuing government funding of anti-Christian bigotry and pornography by the National Endowment for the Arts.

When I voted for you I thought you were staunchly pro-family and that you practiced a faith that was pro-Christian.

I'm praying for you.

President George Bush,

Dear President Bush:

Recently on TV I saw and heard you ask for the prayers of the American people as we face a serious international crisis in the Mideast. And well we should pray for you as you seek a solution to this crisis.

Many prayers have gone up for you, especially at the presidential election two years ago, and many of them came from the evangelical segment of the population. Some who were life-long Democrats, switched their vote to assure your victory.

Recently, however, the confidence of this evangelical segment is beginning to wane. Why? Because, in April, you seemed to favor a group who follow a non-traditional and anti-family life-style - the homosexual life-style, and you invited them to the White House to witness your signing of the Hate Crimes Bill. Then in July, this same group was back to witness the signing of the Americans with Disabilities Act. To add insult to injury, just recently, your liason to evangelicals, Doug Wead, was fired, apparently because he voiced objection to the presence of the homosexuals.

Mr. President, you entered your office as president who stands for "traditional values" and the traditional family, but I fear that, if you continue to turn your back on the evangelical segment of the population, you will lose their vote for your party at the ballot box in November, and more importantly, their prayers for you. The homosexuals, generally speaking, did not vote you into office; the evangelicals did.

Please, Mr. President, do not turn your back on those who have supported you these past two years.

Sincerely,

Elfrieda Falk

I am deeply distrubed and very disappointed in you, as our National Leader. Recently you fired one of your most stanch supporters because he dared to disagree with you, how sad. He was right you know, rehire him.

I thought you professed to be a christian and yet you uphold the homosexual and even invite them to the White House, how awful. I have never been invited to your office because I'm morally straight and a decent law abiding citizen. In case you don't know it, according to scripture, homosexuality is an abomination to the God who created men and women. No other president in U.S. history has ever bowed to the demands of these sicko's or invited them to the White House. Why should they have special consideration because of being a deviate? These people are militant, and demanding everyone accept their life style, even our children. I refuse and will do everything I can to stop them! Let them return to their closet!

Also you promote through the N.E.A. funding with my tax dollars, all kinds of filth and degradation to bring shame on the name of Jesus Christ, and call it art. Something is wrong with the thinking in Washington. I demand as a tax payer that you stop funding the N.E.A..

Dear Mr. Bush,

You don't know me, but I am one of those shining lights.

This letter is to express my disgust with the Federal Government over its continued support of the National Endowment for the Arts which promotes such sick and perverted Anti-Christian bigotry and pornography. Isn't there some government agency that you've set up to try to crack down on Child pornography. Such irony!!! My tax dollars are going towards fighting pornography and supporting it at the same time. I know your job is tough, trying to appease all the special interest groups that this nation has come to be composed of, but unless you let go of this horrible double-standard, unless you hold up some symbol of righteousness, and wholesomeness to our youth, adults and those who call themselves adults, this Nation will fall.

Furthermore, you're decision to invite five representatives of militant homosexual organizations during the signing of the Americans with Disabilities Act on July 26 only lends credibility to that perverted group. It says to me that you recognize homosexuality as a viable alternate lifestyle.

Was it worth firing Doug Wead over?

I represent the majority of Americans, young and old. How do I know this? During President Reagan's terms, he held up a high moral standard that caused the nation to take notice and feel proud again. Because he won the vote of the states overwhelmingly, that tells me that this nation is still composed of people (shining lights) that want to be led by a President who will hold up a Standard of Righteousness.

In contrast, if you hold up a double-standard, people will quickly begin to distrust you, the core will become rotten and the glossy outer shell will soon become tarnished and bitter.

Please know that I pray for you to possess the Wisdom of God, without Whom you would not be holding the office of the Presidency. (I just happen to be a Christian.)

Remember,

"Fear of the Lord is the beginning of Wisdom..."
Proverbs 9:10

And,

"There is a way that seems right to a man; but the end thereof are the ways of death." Proverbs 14:12

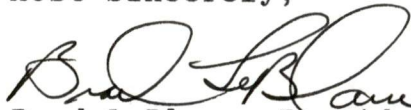

Please have the courage to support your Christian heritage and have the confidence that the majority of the common people in this nation will stand behind you.

Most of us are like sheep and need a strong political leader who recognizes the priceless spiritual and moral values necessary for a nation to thrive, and who can battle against the political wolves and organizations like the NEA and the ACLU which will most certainly bring this nation to moral bankruptcy and ruin.

Is it too late Mr. President? Can we stop the tidal wave of moral corruption? I feel like we are drowning. Please help.

But I know that there is a Hand that we can reach up to, to pull us out of the mire and I am encouraged. Please take His Hand, Mr. President, and lead.

Most Sincerely,

Dear President Bush,

I was very disappointed to hear that Doug Wileed was fired for doing his job. From what I understand he advised according to those he represents, no one said his advice had to be taken.... but why should he lose his job for advising against homosexuals at a bill signing.

The word is, from several different sources, that you are assured of the Christian vote in the next election because of the liberal stance of the democrats. So you are going after other votes, such as those of the homosexuals. Can you honestly do that without compromising your belief in God and His Word?

You may be right about the Christian vote, but we didn't put you into office - God did. I know your job is not an easy one especially now with the Middle-East Crisis, but please don't turn your back on those of us who are praying for you.

Dear Mr. President,

It is with deep regret that I write to say I won't be voting for you in 1992, if you run for re-election.

Your determination to take a vacation right in the middle of sending our boys to a God-forsaken land was terrible but that only adds salt to the wound.

Today I read about your submission on 2 occasions to homosexual groups - inviting leaders to the White House for important events. On top of that you fired Doug Wead.

I've known for years that Christianity has been outlawed in this country by the legislative branch of government but I thought it was protected by the executive branch. I was wrong.

On top of it all, one of your right-hand men, Frohnmeyer, and his support of anti-Christian bigotry and perversion of our society through promotion of homosexuality through the NEA is not tolerable.

Thus, I find I cannot support you in the future

Dear President Bush:

I feel that we of the evangelical Christians are being betrayed by some of your decisions of recent weeks in these ways:

1. Your firing of Doug Wead, who has been a special liaison to the religious community. He helped you get elected in 1988 by organizing the Christians to vote for you and wrote the book, "George Bush: Man of Integrity." I feel your margin of victory came from the evangelical community.

2. By bowing to demands of militant homosexuals and inviting their representatives to attend the signing of two bills at the White House.

3. By inviting Playboy publisher Christie Hefner to a meeting at the White House.

4. By allowing the anti Christian bigotry and pornography to continue receiving funding from taxpayers through the NED.

5. I also understand that you did not take time to speak to the Pro Life Rally in Washington last spring because you were playing golf.

Recently I learned that you dismissed Doug Wead as special liaison to the religious community and I am distressed over this decision. Since your election, which I wholeheartedly supported, I, and many of the Christians whom I know, have felt comfortable with a man of your character and moral fiber in the office of President of the United States; but in view of your recent invitations to homosexuals to visit the White House and the firing of Doug Wead, I am deeply disappointed that politics are molding your policy rather than standing firm for what I truly thought you believed in - morality and a strong family unit. Your recent decision to

Dear Mr. President,

I was recently saddened by your invitation to group of homosexuals to the White for the signing of the Hate Crimes Bill.

When contacted about the invitation, your special liason to the religious community stated Mr. Bush "is a man who lives as well as speaks about family values." He further stated that in no way does the President endorse the life-styles of all groups which attend such events.

Following on July 26th you again invited five representatives of militant homosexual organization to the signing of the Americans With Disabilities Act.

Your further inviting of Playboy publisher Christy Hefner to a meeting at the White along with your continued government funding of anti-Christian bigotry and pornography by the National Endowment for the Arts with no restrictions and your firing of Mr. Wead leads me to only one conclusion; that is you have again decided to rethink some previous statements made during the last election campaign. This is certainly of grave concern to me personally. This is a slap in the face to the very evangelical Christian community of which you could not have been elected president without their support.

We are living in very perilous times, the crime within Washington, DC is one of utter disgrace. Government is spending money for aids research in larger amount than all other disease combined. Yet we are attempting to irradiate a moral problem with more money, and the government position is safe sex. Go ahead and continue your life-style just use a "condom". Our education standards are sinking lower, our saving & loan problem is about to bankrupt the country and all these conditions point to one basic problem, morality. Where do we learn this. I submit to you Mr. President we learn it from the Holy Bible. Through study and prayer. We need to teach Biblical principles yet our public schools cannot be even mentioned in the classroom since it cannot be proven by scientists.

I submit to you Mr. President the scientists have never proven evolution and never will, however it is taught as the only truth. The humanist's agenda is to prevent any religious message to be taught there- by freeing them to subvert the human mind to their thinking. If we choose to exclude God from our lives we are sealing our own fate very rapidly.

It is very ironic to me the U.S. is called a Christian nation when is is in fact again the law to even pray within our public schools. Our money has the inscription "In God We Trust." I feel there are few within government or the mainstream of education who believe the inscription, but rather worship the almighty dollar in getting all of them that is possible through hook or crook. The thinking today is man is superior and he (government) will care for all your needs. This is only going to get worse regardless of the amount of money which is spent. We need to change the people attitudes. When will be be awakened to the fact this will not work nor can we continue encourage life-styles not sanctioned by God's Holy Word.

What is desperately needed at this moment is for you our President to be 100% honest and stand for human decency, speaking out on the wrongs within our society including the consequence of deficit spending of our nation. We need a president to will truly lead our country rather than lowering our values and becoming one of them. These groups will only be satisfied when brought down to their level of morals. St. Luke Chapter 6, verse 39: Reads as follows; As he (Jesus) spake a parable unto them (the people), "Can the blind lead the blind? Shall they not both fall into the ditch."

I shall continue to pray for your enlightenment of God's word for his guidance and strength in the leading of our country as president.

Bush welcomes homosexuals to White House, fires Christian liaison

Bowing to demands of militant homosexuals, President Bush last month fired Doug Wead, special liaison to the religious community. Wead had spent years working with the President and played a key role in getting Bush elected. The firing came after Wead protested the President's invitation to leaders of homosexual groups to two meetings at the White House. Bush is the first President in history to officially invite representatives from homosexual groups to the White House.

Bush first invited representatives from the homosexual groups to attend the signing of the Hate Crimes Bill at the White House in April. When contacted about the invitation, Wead responded to letter writers that Mr. Bush "is a man who lives as well as speaks about family values." He went on to say: "Quite frankly, the President's staff did not serve him well by inviting some of the groups which attended the Hate Crimes Bill signing ceremony. In no way does the President endorse the lifestyle of all groups which attend such events. I can assure you that he is especially offended by the attacks against Cardinal O'Connor and other manifestations of religious intolerance that some of the homosexual groups have espoused... Hopefully, it will not happen again."

History showed Wead was wrong. Another invitation to leaders of the homosexual community went out. Five representatives of militant homosexual organizations were invited to be present when the President signed the Americans With Disabilities Act on July 26.

The Washington Blade, a homosexual newspaper, was given White House press credentials and the Blade sent a photographer to cover the event. A spokesman for the Blade says that "gays were instrumental" in the passage of the act, which also protects people with AIDS under the anti-discrimination provisions of the measure.

When Wead complained again, he was fired. Columnist Cal Thomas said that "Mr. Wead has been a target of the [White House] liberals 'from day one.' They are said to resent his close relationship with the evangelical Christian community that Mr. Wead helped to organize behind Mr. Bush for the 1988 campaign. Mr. Wead's 1988 book, George Bush: Man of Integrity, was written to convince conservative evangelicals that Mr. Bush is one of them." Bush's margin of victory came from the evangelical community, from which he received a higher percentage of the vote than from any other group.

The firing of Wead is only the latest in a series of events which point to the President's decision to weaken his ties to evangelical community. Earlier in the year, Bush invited Playboy publisher Christie Hefner to a meeting at the White House.

Previously, the President came out in support of continuing government funding of anti-Christian bigotry and pornography by the National Endowment for the Arts. He said he favored no content restrictions of tax-funded art.

Dear President Bush, Sept 12, 1990

I have just read an article in the Journal of the American Family Assoc.

It talks about Mr. Wead being fired and about you signing the Americans With Disabilities Act, which protects people with AIDS. It also said that you said you favored no content restrictions of tax funded art and that you had invited the publisher of Playboy magazine to the White House.

President Bush I'm trying hard not to judge you for these things, but I thought that you were a strong Christian man with high morals. That's why my family voted for you and tried to influence other people to vote for you also.

Would you please explain to all of us Christians why these things were done, so that we could try to understand? It will be a big factor in our voting next election.

President Bush we do pray for you, your family and our nation. We also pray that you are seeking God in all of the things you do.

Please remember this scripture.

Proverbs 14:34 Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people.

We watched your speech last night and it was very good. You have been a good president except for the issues I stated before. I just want to understand how a Christian can agree with these different issues that are clearly against decency and God's Word.

I pray God will bless you with all wisdom knowledge and understanding as you seek Him for guidance in all things.

Dear Mr. President;

~~We~~ We have just learned that our Christian brother Doug Wead has been fired from your staff, and the reason for his being fired is quite unacceptable to the Christian body. How can a group of people, the so called "Gay" community, have such power over the people in our government when they are such an abomination to our God ??? while at the same time the Christian body is thought of as wimps, children and little old ladies in tennis shoes?

We have had to stand by and watch another Christian brother, Jim Bakker, be railroaded into a 45 year prison term on a trumped up fraud charge while those involved in the S & L scandal are getting by with a slap on the wrist for a real fraud charge. Where is the justice?

We think its time that our government comes to realize that Christians do vote and that elections are coming up. We are going to be very careful who we vote for. We are going to find out how the candidates stand on abortion and gays. We are sick and tired of being thought of as second class citizens, or less.

Our nation was founded on Christian principals. We are sick and tired of hearing "Church and State," which is not in the Constitution of the U.S.A. Even politics are not supposed to come ahead of our Lord Jesus Christ, but its for sure it does in this day and age.

We are hoping that you, who say you are a "believer", will help us turn this nation back to being a Christian nation. Lets hope and pray it isn't already too late.

Respectfully yours,
Clair and Grace Moyer

Dear Mr. President:

I've never written to a President before but am compelled to protest the firing of Doug Weed.

Sir, The homosexuals in this country would only be about 2% of the Evangelical Christians. In 1988, because you were anti abortion and have proven by your life that you stood for family values; because your wonderful wife is a role model for wives and mothers in this country, the silent majority of the Christian community voted for you.

On the other hand, I'm sure you remember that the pro-abortionist voted and campaigned for your opponent as did the homosexuals.

Mr. President, I don't know who is advising you but the firing of Doug Wick was wrong. Why should a small minority who prefer to live a perverted life-style dictate how this government which was founded on Judeo-Christian principles, should be run?

On the contrary, we need many more men - God-fearing men - in government to push back the power of darkness that pervading our government.

What congress did to Barney Frank was a disgrace. Where is our standard of justice?

And while I'm at it Sir I protest the use of my tax dollars for the Endowment of the Bitch.

My dear President, would Barbara take your beautiful children and.

grandchildren to see the displays that our tax dollars helped to promote. When you sit in Church. could you picture Jesus Christ in a bottle of wine? Would you like pictures of your precious grand daughter in the vulgar poses in these expositions? She's somebody's grand daughter.

If the depraved minds of these so called artists, wants to have this kind of a showing, so be it but I resent one penny of my money being used to pay or promote this kind of iniquity.

Therefore, I asking you, Sir, to recall Doug Webb not only for the good of yourself but also the good of America.

Dear President Bush:

I know that you will not read this letter as it would be physically impossible to read all of the mail that comes in to your office, but I hope two things can be presented to you.

1. I was very disillusioned at your reversal on new taxes, primarily because you were so adamant that there would be no new taxes, i.e. "Read my lips - no new taxes". Now I don't feel I can trust what you say.

2. The fact that you fired Mr. Doug Weed and that you had radical homosexuals come to the White House for the bill signing. I do not see how any Christian (and you say you are one) could possibly accept homosexuality in light of what the Bible says about it. I am amazed at the arrogance of gays in demanding that homosexuality be recognized as an alternate, wholesome life style when it was homosexuality that first brought AIDS to this country. I feel sorry for them & firmly believe that they can be delivered from this filthy lifestyle, but I feel for their sake, and our own, we should resist them with all the power we have.

I sincerely hope that the Rohrabacher amendment to the NEA reauthorization bill will pass. I would prefer to see the NEA completely defunded as I feel there will constantly be trouble generated by the immoral people in this country.

It is sad to be disappointed in someone who you trusted & looked up to,
as I have been in you;
however, I will continue to pray for you.

Sincerely,

Margaret Talley
P. S. I trust that you will remain firm in your opposition to the ABC (S.5) bill & N.L.3 chid care bill and will not weaken.

Dear President Bush,

I have heard the tragic news that our brother in Christ, Plong Weed have been terminated from his job in the White House.

President, we regret to hear of this decision. We are hoping that you will review the situation and that it will be ^{be} prayerfully ~~be~~ worked out. We hope to hear a good report of restoration of this man's job.

Thank you,

P.S. Also, will you do some investigating ^{concerning} about these "blood sucking", "black billing" Credit Services which are very damaging to people. They have pulled up things that people don't owe & didn't owe it wasn't their bills. The banks use these credit agencies rather than take your word. Also I understand (this came from an agency) the lady told me if you paid a bill they can keep it on the computers for 7 yrs. Is this right. This one agency CSC has there main terminal in Houston TX. If you want a Credit report You have to submit a written statement plus your name, SS num, where you lived the last 5 yrs and if you don't have a statement where you have been turned down on a loan, you have to send them money, and here in Indiana you have to send it to Houston TX. Protection yes I believe. Now is this right? You see the banks does their credit ^{checks} (Computer) Indianapolis Ind, but the person has to send their request out of ^{the} ^{law suite} ^{protection} states. Check this out. Is it right? 1-800-333-0082 Ind num 1-800-231-6783-Houston TX

President Bush, some of these companies has people unfairly messed up on their computers. My friend works in a book store and she read in this one book and ^{it} told of the high percentages these credit agencies have made. I hope that you will out law them and make a more fair way to where a person can defend themselves (their rights) They have a ^{penalty} bill in which I gave as a credit reference, they have it wrong on their computer. I have had to write to CSC Credit Services in Houston Texas and we live in Indiana. Now I couldn't get this straight out where the banks gets their information, in Indianapolis,

Dear Mr President,
My sadness and disappointment is great. Your decision to go back on your word about taxes, and now the discharge of Doug Weed is quizzical. ^{spelling?}

You couldn't say "No New Taxes" if it were not possible, and we all know it is, and without cutting dependence.

Please honor your commitment to the American People and not to the Liberal Congress!

My prayers are with you and your family. I know Neil will be undisturbed.

We will vote for you again if you run, but please don't make it a choice of the lesser of two evils.

 seems little hope for ours.

May God bless, guide, and keep you.

Dear President Bush,

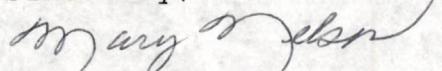

This is the second letter I have written to you this week-end. The first one got thrown in the waste basket. Perhaps it was a good thing since it figuratively set the basket on fire, it was such a hot letter. I think I am calmed down now and be a little more objective. AND OBJECTIVE I am! In fact my objection borders on being furious. I was very disappointed when you decided in favor of the tax increase. One of the reasons I voted for you was that you knew the ropes of the Senate and the House of Representatives. I thought you would be more able to control their spending. Why have so many programs actually had their allotments raised? Keeping them even would be unwise to say nothing of raising them.

I am extremely upset, frustrated and angry that Doug Wead has been fired. Who in the world has your ear? Where can you possibly be getting the idea that we are happy with you succumbing to pressure from a limited segment of the population. And why have you had your picture taken with them giving tacit approval of that life-style? Have you forgotten the millions of us out here who value our families and the traditional values?

You must be feeling intense pressure due to the situation in Kuwait, but if we go down the tube, so to speak, it won't matter what is happening anywhere.

The old adage says that the wheel that squeaks the loudest gets the oil. When the homosexual population is squeaking, don't forget the rest of the wagon.

Sincerely,

Dear President Bush,

I am writing to say I am very disappointed to hear about the firing of Mr. Danqu Reed. I think he was a good christian man and I don't think he should have been fired.

I am also disappointed to see you favoring the homosexuals, as the Bible says they are not living a good clean life. It also says in 1 Thessalonians 4, 3 "that we should abstain from all evil," and they are not doing this.

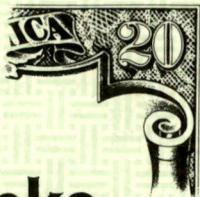

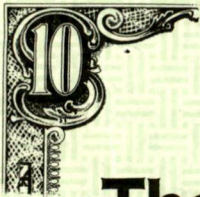

I also don't think you should raise tax is either. I am very disappointed in your decisions lately and if you do not change, I will not be able to vote for you next time.

I do pray for you every day and ask God to give you the wisdom you need to make the right decisions as you deal with the many problems that you have to deal with each day.

I hope & pray that you will turn your life over to Him & let Him guide you in the problems you face each day.

What are you going to do about Iraq?
They should be stopped!
God told a preacher we should have stopped Hitler
when he first got started I also ~~at~~ al Capone, before they become too powerful.
Give them a warning. Then wipe them out, unless they stop. I out worry about what other countries think,
they don't like us anyway,
I help our muscles exist going to help. They aren't its bluff. They aren't stupid! They count on the U. S. not doing anything. but talk. Bomb their capital & all their industries & they will stop.
Israel doesn't fool around & aren't afraid to take drastic actions when needed, & they know it.

They figure the U.S. will do nothing that hurts them.
freezing assets won't hurt them. Do something & like a surprise attack against them, & then warn them
"to back off." Our nation will back up. They intend to blackmail the world with oil & we can't let them.
They aren't going to stop taking over other countries in the middle east, unless we take action.

Aug 4, 1990

Dear President Bush,

If the information I have received is correct concerning the firing of one of your advisors, then I am voicing a clear and loud disappointment in the wisdom of your administration. The one in question was Mr. Thompson, who advised you that allowing gay leaders to attend a formal government activity (I don't know the proper name) would be a strong statement to the American people that you really are just a hypocrite.

Mr. Bush you are my Commander and Chief. I serve in the United States Air Force, stationed at Dyess AFB Texas. But I serve a much higher authority than man, I serve a living God! This country's ~~was~~ forefathers were all born again, spirit filled Christian men who feared God. They were all statesmen, NOT POLITICIANS! How in the world do you think some fifty odd men sat down and wrote a document so true that it established the basis for the most powerful, free country the world has ever known. Plus, they all were in agreement! How? Because they didn't rely on their own abilities, they trusted in God and his wisdom.

Its time, way past time, Mr. President that this country have some mighty men. Men that will fall on their face before God in repentance of sins, and seek his will, his guidance, his wisdom, and then, stand before the American people and say:

"We're going to begin this day to destroy all of satans politics and lift a standard toward heaven, and serve our God with all our strength."

Are you the one to bring revival to America President Bush, or are you just another man with no backbone, fearing men more than your creator?

Our country is rapidly racing toward apostacy, our lawmakers and judges bow down to every ungodly pac of filth that has a picket sign. Who will end it?

Let me give you one ~~example~~ example of Americas injustice. We have a law that states, anyone found guilty of destroying or even tampering with a whooping Crane egg will be fined 2500.00 and possible jail time, but its ok to destroy a human baby, its ok to take the life of humans but not birds.

Rights! Everyone is crying rights, rights, I want my rights.

What about God's Rights?!!

I remind you of the word of God,
 Luke 12:1-10 and Romans 14:11-12;
 "every knee shall bow and every tongue confess to God." We will give an account of ourselves to God.

So, my President, my Commander, who will you choose to serve this day? You can speak many words, but remember God knows your heart, and his people see your fruit. It isn't too late, but time is quickly running out, most of the bible's prophecy has come to pass. Your our President, the people will look up to you. Set your heart on God, and lead the Country back to Him! For, thus saith the Lord, "If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive them their sin, and will heal their land."

Dear President Bush,

I am writing this letter to you because I am a Christian.

I try to pray for you daily because I truly believe that "righteousness exalted a nation and sin brings a reproach". We need godly leaders.

Your actions are very disappointing. Your attitude toward Israel is wrong - your no new taxes out of your own lips and now your dismissal of one of your few Godly Counselors. Don't lead are a few examples against God.

I hope and pray that you will truly seek God for His wisdom.

I really believed that you were an honorable man.

Dear President Bush,
The events at the White House & within ranks of presidential advisors has given me cause for deep concern. Despite your campaign rhetoric avowing morality and family priorities, I see flagrant erosion and violation of both promises not only in Washington, but all about me. Five Americans, God-fearing citizens are being dealt the grossest, most tyrannical blow by the police & the courts for simply assembling & voicing their opinions against our national policy of abortion on demand. Rangoon courts are bullying them, and jailing them after the police have mishandled them and often maimed and degraded them. Where are the vows to uphold ^{the} dignity of all our people?

What high moral ~~plane~~ provides that "Gay" Rights & Lesbian leaders are at your elbow as you sign unfortunate legislation which they helped to engineer & under which they hope to entrench their aberrant lifestyles into "One nation, under God!" Who on your staff had the gall to invite them to this place of honor? What an affront! all of us who elected you to represent our moral values of decency and honoring marriage & family values!! For objecting to such duplicity, your faithful advisor, Doug Wood has now been fired & sodomy has won the day, an overwhelming tragedy for a nation fighting acid erosion of its very fibre!

Let's not talk of going to battle if a fanatical Arab leader threatens our oil supply. What will there be left to fight for if our courts & our govern-(Remember Barney Frank & the SLD's) ing bodies have now become corrupt & greedy, our schools are teaching selfishness & paganism, our children and old folks are endangered species, our churches are threatened by the ACLU & the IRS. if they dare to voice their dissent, and there is no redress. Sounds like Stalinist country or the days

This is not what I voted for this

Dear President Bush,

We are disappointed that you have invited representatives of the homosexual movement to the White House, and that you have fired a staffer who was critical of this invitation. Homosexuality is unnatural and perverse, and should not be encouraged or given credence. The homosexual lobby represents only about 3% of the nation, while the majority is opposed to this type of activity.

Also, we oppose continued funding of the N.E.A., which has funded obscene and distasteful displays and performances. Make funding of this organization an option to be checked off by taxpayers on their tax returns. Then those who support it may so specify.

Dear President Bush:

I'm writing you my first letter to any president. I'm writing you for two reasons. First, I'd like to let you know that I'm very sad that Doug Wead was fired from your administration. As an ordinary citizen, it's an impossibility for me to have enough true facts to really know if the firing was warranted. However, from what I do know, I am very sorry that he was fired.

Secondly, I'd like to tell you that I feel that you are the best President we've ever had. I feel you are handling the Middle Eastern crisis with strength and wisdom. I'm almost forty-four years old and I have always voted for Republican presidents.

Dear President Bush:

We are very disappointed in the way you have backed away from a conservative stand on issues - everything from "no new taxes" to wanting to continue funding for the National Endowment for the Arts. There's plenty of money in the private sector for the arts.

But the straw that broke the camel's back for us was your firing of Doug Wead. We couldn't believe that you would get rid of a fine man like him. We felt that he was an excellent person for you to have on your staff. We supported his strong moral and pro-family views. We feel that he was a casualty of the very vocal homosexual lobby. We are very disappointed that you would cave in to the homosexuals.

We will be voting for someone else in 1992 unless you start demonstrating the conservative and moral values that you once claimed to represent.

AUGUST 8, 1990

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT

THERE ARE A NUMBER OF THINGS THAT I'M VERY UNHAPPY ABOUT THAT ARE RELATED TO WHAT IS GOING ON OR NOT GOING ON IN THE CAPITAL.

1. TAXES WE DO NOT NEED MORE TAXES. WE NEED LESS SPENDING AND LESS WASTE. IT IS LIKE TAXATION WITHOUT REPRESENTATION. KEEP TAXES DOWN.

2. THE ECONOMY: WE AS A NATION ARE IN TROUBLE. INDUSTRY CANNOT COMPETE IN THE WORLD MARKET. PEOPLE ARE LOSING THEIR JOBS. WHY CAN'T WE DO SOMETHING TO GIVE INCENTIVES TO INDUSTRY TO BE MORE COMPETITIVE?

3. MONEY: I DO NOT LIKE THE IDEA THAT I, AS A TAXPAYER MUST GUARANTEE THAT BANKS THAT ~~THE~~ LOAN MONEY TO RUSSIA OR ANY NATION. THAT IS A REAL SHAME ON OUR GOV'T PUTTING THAT BURDEN ON THE TAXPAYER. WE SHOULD NOT BE LOANING MONEY ANYWAY, BECAUSE WE ALREADY OWE SO MUCH, I ~~DEBT~~ WE CAN EVER PAY IT BACK.

4. I DID NOT LIKE THE TRIBUTE GIVEN TO NELSON MANDELLA. OR THE FINANCIAL SUPPORT GIVEN TO HIS COMMUNIST LEANING ORGANIZATION.

5. I DO NOT LIKE THE SANCTIONS PUT ON S. AFRICA. S. AFRICA TREATS THE BLACKS

BETTER THAN ANY AFRICAN NATION. PLUS, THEY ARE FRIENDS TO THE US. IT IS NO WONDER THE REST OF THE WORLD DOES NOT RESPECT US THE WAY WE TREAT OUR FRIENDS.

5. IT IS HARD FOR ME TO SEE HOW THE S&L SAVINGS AND BANKS HAVE LOST SO MUCH MONEY WITHOUT THE OWNERS AND BANK OFFICERS EITHER STEALING OR GETTING KICK BACKS UNDER THE TABLE. I UNDERSTAND THAT EXCESSIVELY HIGH SALARIES MAY HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO THESE LOSSES. ^{ALSO} NOW THE TAXPAYER HAVE TO FORK OVER AGAIN, AND I DON'T LIKE IT!

6. I DO NOT LIKE THE WAY THE GOVT HAS RECOGNIZED THE HOMOSEXUAL SECTOR AND AT THE SAME TIME, HAS GIVEN NO SUPPORT TO THE CHRISTIAN VALUES THAT HAD MADE THIS COUNTRY GREAT..

7. AIDS, BEING CONTAGIOUS, I BELIEVE ALL AIDS PATIENTS SHOULD BE IDENTIFIED OR BETTER YET, QUARANTEENED. I'M TIRED OF ALL THE PUBLICITY AND PITY THEY GET. WHEN THEIR PROBLEM WAS BROUGHT ON BY THEIR OWN ACTIVITIES. (IN MOST CASES).

8. THE OIL CRISIS: IN ~~1973~~ 1973, PRES CARTER SAID "LET'S MAKE OUR NATION SELF DEPENDENT ON OIL RESERVES." THE INDEPENDENT OIL OPERATORS WENT TO WORK FINDING NEW RESERVES, THEN IN 1980, ALL OF A SUDDEN, TO OUR SURPRISE!?! WE HAD TOO MUCH OIL! PRICES OF OIL DROPPED TO $10⁰⁰ A BARREL. THE INDEPENDENTS HAD TO SELL OUT TO THE "MAJORS" BECAUSE $10⁰⁰ OIL COULD NOT PAY THE BILL. THIS RUINED MANY BUSINESSES

SELL, BANKS, AND INDUSTRIES. THE FACT IS WE DID NOT HAVE ENOUGH DOMESTIC OIL. THE OPEC COUNTRIES WERE A MONOPOLY AND OUR GOOD OLD US GOV'T DID NOTHING TO PROTECT OUR OWN INDUSTRIES. AN IMPORT TAX ON FOREIGN OIL COULD HAVE HELD THE PRICE TO $20⁰⁰ A BARREL AND THAT WOULD HAVE ALLOWED THE OIL INDUSTRY TO CONTINUE TO FIND NEW OIL RESERVES. NOW WHERE ARE WE? WE ARE AGAIN AT THE MERCY OF FOREIGN OIL. WE DO NOT HAVE DOMESTIC RESERVES TO FILL OUR NEEDS.

9. I HAVE A REAL PROBLEM IN WONDERING WHAT OUR CONGRESS IS GOING TO DO ABOUT OUR SAGGING ECONOMY. THERE IS NO EXCUSE IN DOING NOTHING. PEOPLE ARE BEING LAID OFF FROM REAL INDUSTRIAL JOBS. INDUSTRY NEEDS TO BE MORE COMPETITIVE. THEY NEED MODERN PLANTS. BETTER MANUFACTURING TECHNIQUES., INCENTATIVES TO MAKE THE NECESSARY INVESTMENTS.

I KNOW THIS IS LENTHY, BUT I AM VERY CONCERNED. WE NEED TO PRACTICE FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY. PLEASE LET ME HEAR FROM YOU ON WHAT YOUR PLANS ARE TO MAKE OUR NATION A BETTER PLACE TO LIVE.

THANKS,

W.

2305 Gettysburg Pl.

Dear Mr. President:

First let me Thank you for the many good things you are doing for our Country. You are a strong and true President. Your stand on the Iraq situation is to be honored.

I am also aware that many situations which come and go, such as the savings and loan, cannot be placed on you, our budget and many others, that distinction rest on the Congress. which many of us will try to correct at the Voting Booth.
Congress should become aware that the American people are very close to saying, "Enough is Enough". There have been & etc are not acceptable now. With all the waste they have.

No one believes any Congressman is there in the interest of the people. Show me one is the attitude now. More Tapes, we don't need more Tapes, we need some men and women that will stop supporting things that are not necessary.

But, Mr. President, I have to write my disappointment in the firing of Lang Wein. You were, in reality, placed into office by the Christian vote and yet you have taken all steps to weed out any that may have a voice. We trusted you as was seen in our support. Throughout the Christian Community I constantly hear the mistrust this has established in our minds. We do not expect every office to be manned by Christians only a portion, so our voice can be heard. In order to gain our trust and our vote, changes should be made. We feel like we are on the outside looking in, this is wrong.

I love America, I respect the office you held.
 I will continue to pray for you and our country.
 God's wisdom. Re-instate Doug Winn, or let us know the full reason why you can't., if there is a real reason that is honorable, I'll listen.

Thank you for listening to me. My prayers are constantly with you for God's Wisdom, your job is awesome. May God's grace and mercy be with you.

Sincerely

Dear Mr. President,

I'm sending this letter in extreme protest to your policy of taking advice from some of your liberal staff, in regards to:

1. The firing of Doug Wead.
2. Bowing to the demands of the homosexual community.
3. Continuing government funding of anti-Christian bigotry and pornography by the National Endowment for the Arts.

Mr. President I have been a loyal Republican all of my life. I was able most of that time to support our candidate.

If you continue to bow to the whims of the few liberal advisors in regard to God, the Church and our Christian family values, I will stop my support and urge my friends to do the same.

Dear Mr. President,

WEAD 2
I am writing to let you know of my disappointment at hearing of your firing of Douglas Wead. I think you have done the Evangelical Christian Community a great disservice by this action. Mr. Wead stood up for his beliefs and because of that he was let go. In my opinion that is wrong. Why have someone in this position if, when they do what they should do they are dismissed?

While I'm writing I will also let you know that I believe unlimited funding to the National Endowment for the Arts is not good. I thought, first off, that our country was in bad financial shape. I enjoy art and know several artists but this is not a necessity when our country's finances are already overstressed. Secondly, but more importantly, we should at least put limits on the art. I think most Americans are very shocked at the so called "art" which was recently funded by our government. Please take a stand for decency. You are a figurehead, if you don't stand for what is moral why should anyone else feel they should.

Dear Mr. President. Bush,

I feel that someone close to you has given you extremely bad advise on two counts. One - those who advised you to invite the gay activists to the signing of the Hate Crimes Bill and the Disabilities Act. Two - the firing of Mr. Doug Wead, Special Assistant for Public Liason. Mr. Wead was doing a good job, trying to protect you from the ire of those who would criticize you for the mistake of inviting the gay activists to the White House.

By your invitation to the gays you have given credility to a group (only a 3% minority of our population) who have the agend to undermine traditional values to suit their own intent. This is the same group who have done the vilest things to churches, and mocked traditional values. If the Republican party let them into their ranks, it will be the demise of the Republican Party. The Republicans will be lowering their standard and be just like the Democrats.

I feel you are alienating the very majority of those who voted for you because we trusted you to uphold traditional values as you said you would. Your 1000 points of light have turned to betrayal and darkness.

Please have the courage to admit that these two mistakes have been made . Do your best to exert leadership in the right direction- away from courting these fringe groups who will crucify -even you, if they get the chance. You are the leader of the Republican party and we expect you to uphold the best traditions of that party as well as the best interest of the nation. Please supportt traditional values that the majority of those who voted for you hold dear.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. President:

I will begin this letter by introducing myself. My name is Philip Beach, and I teach science in the Aldine School District in Houston. My wife, Dana, is a teacher in the Spring School District and is co-signing this letter. My wife and I voted for you in the last election, and we both love this country more than most people could know. Lately, my wife and I have been frustrated over several things that have happened in this country. We voted for you due to many issues. One reason we voted for you was because of your strong view on the family. Once eroded, the very foundation of this country will also be eroded. I'm sorry, but homosexuality is not the basis for a family. Homosexuality is defined in the Bible as an "abomination before God". If you are a Christian as we are, there is no other way to look at it. We don't hate the homosexual people, but we do hate their lifestyle. The current aids crisis is everyone's problem, but you say that you want to stop this crisis, and yet allow the main means of spreading this disease to go unchecked. Doug Wead had the true view on homosexuality, but as in the past, he was put out due to the loud mouths of the homosexual lobby. I find this hard to believe, since he represented millions of Christians throughout the country. The homosexual groups did not vote for you or support you, but we did, and feel let down.

The next issue is gun control. Any intelligent person knows that the guns are not the problem with crime in this country, but it is the weak judicial system that allows criminals to get a slap on the wrist and then walk free to victimize someone else. Our constitutional right to bear arms has been eroded as well. The guns that are used in crimes are not legally owned guns, and can be verified from statistics. To take legally owned guns from the citizens is to let the fox into the hen house. You might as well put up a sign and open your door to allow the criminals easy access to your home, not to mention foreign governments. This was the initial reason for this right, and yet again I feel betrayed.

The next issue is the communist pampering that has gone on. The problem is that we are not as gullible as most of the people who think that communism is equal in morality to our form of government. We have freely elected representatives of our views, and our leaders are there because we want them there. Their government positions are appointed, and not elected. To call them leaders is wrong. Gorbachev is not a leader; he is a figure head being used to get the money necessary to continue their aggression against not only the world but that of their own people. Has our hope for peace so blinded us as to not be able to see how communism works? Find out how many people are still being held because of their religious view, and then tell me they are on an equal moral footing as us. Unfortunately our media has a different agenda in mind, and many people are not able to see the truth. To rate a communist leader anywhere near a freely elected president is unbelievable. It also angers me when millions of dollars are being poured into Russia, while like me, hard working Americans find it almost impossible to get loans necessary to survive. I would love world peace, but do we really think that there will be peace without Jesus Christ? Man's moral position is still the same, no matter how much new technology comes about.

A little bible study will also prove that abortion is murder. You have had a good view on this, and for that, I, and those that have made it in this world thank you. Once again, however, we are being led to believe that most in this country are for abortion. To make innocent babies pay for the crimes of others is murder. People no longer want to take responsibilities for their actions.

Being a teacher, it is easy for me to see much of the problem with education. The erosion in education can be traced back to when absolutes were taken from the schools. These kids want direction, and answers, not theory. They have questions that need to be answered, but we can't without moral absolutes. When prayer was taken out of the schools, education took a dive. How can you have truth apart from God? I am tired of the ACLU eroding this country's morality. The funding of the arts goes hand in hand with this. Having my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, who is still alive, blasphemed and slandered in the name of art is not right, and that I am helping to pay for it with my tax dollars that I work so hard for is wrong. The National Endowment for the Arts needs to be stopped now. This is not art, and if it is, then I am ready to hang up my paintbrush.

How can we fund such things, raise the salaries of congress, and pay for abortion clinics, and then say we need to raise taxes?

Making a living from politics was never the intent of the founding fathers. Public service is an honor, not a way to make a million dollars. There is a definite contradiction between our liberal congress getting higher salaries, and the raising of our taxes. I think the majority of them should be forced to be a teacher for a number of years and see how hard it is to make ends meet, and then they would see why I am outraged at the waste from government.

The last point I want to cover is the American flag. To me the flag is the representation of this country and all the men who died to make this country free. To burn the flag is to me an attack upon this country. Who are these people burning the flag? If they were true Americans, they would hold the flag in esteem. This is not free speech, this is an attack upon everything that this country is about.

I will end this letter by saying that my wife and I will pray that God will give you the wisdom to stand up against these special interest groups. You are the President of The United States of America, which puts you in a very special place for us. You are our elected leader, and as such we stand behind you 100%. All I ask is that you come out for or against these issues publicly. We are the one's who support you, defend you, vote for you, and ask if you will stand up and help defend our issues before those special interest groups? I am tired of the big mouth's, Kennedy and Biden, getting their say-so, and yet hearing nothing from the other side. If the other side was more popular or numerous, then Dukakis would be in office instead of you, and I thank the Lord that he is not. Please do not let us patriotic Americans down.

Respectfully,

Philip Beach
