To: President Bush

Dear Sir:

With sadness I read you have discharged Doug Wend because of his stand against homosexual's.

We have admired your integrity and assumed you wanted the best for our great nation of America.

No doubt the pressure is great to "go along" with those who care only for their own selfish desires and lusts.

Perhaps you should remember not only will our grandchildren suffer at the hands of such people but yours will also.

May God have mercy on us all.

Sincerely, Roy Wil

Dear Mr. President,

I imagine you're pretty busy at this point in our history as a free nation. Please do your best in keeping it a free nation under God.

I am deeply concerned, angered, and somewhat confused when Doug Wead was released from his responsibilities in the White House. I am a Republican, and proud of it, and a Seventh-Day Adventist Christian, and proud of that, too.

Without a spokes-man for the religious right and other conservative constituencies in the White House, what will become of the freedom to freely worship God? Of the family? Of our morals? of Our Nation?

Please make it a priority to return Doug Wead to the White House, Thank-you.

Sincerely,

Peter Taves Lendway

Dear Pres. Bush,

We are disappointed that such a moral man as Doug Wead has been fired. We respect him as a leader that truly represents Christian values.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. President,

I am protesting your decision on the giving of Christian hason Doug Wead - Based on your past character of family promotion, I am surprised of your actions in this situation. If you believe in the sovereignty of the Bible you will know that homo-sexuality never has been condoned in any age. What God did to Sodom & Gomorrah was not because he was having a "bad day."

Please reconsider your action and reinstate Doug Wead to the special hason position for the sake of Christianity and our families. Thanking you in advance for your time in reading and your early response. My prayers are with you and our military.

Much Thanks
And God Bless You
Mrs. Marie C. Hall

Dear Sir,

I am very unhappy to read of the dismissal of Doug Head, the White House Liaison! It's getting harder for a Christian American to feel a representation in government circles and causes a sense of isolation. Perhaps you will see fit to send me an answer.

p.s. many friends
share my feelings

Dear President Bush:

I regret your decision to fire Doug Wead. I voted for you because I believed you strongly supported the conservative, traditional, Godly values upon which our country was founded. It appears you may be wavering in trying to appease vocal minorities who reject the standards of conservative America.

In addition, I do not want one single cent of our hard-earned dollars going to support pornographic and anti-family artists who mock the very taxpayers supporting them!

Sincerely,

President George Bush: Sept. 23, 1990

It was an insult to the Christian community to fire Doug Auld. You know who really elected you. As I am an active member of concerned women for America my duty is to reach out to others with information concerning discrimination against Christians.

It should be that all Americans look up to their President we pray for God to endow you with wisdom in the affairs of the Nation. Gertrude C. Robert

RE: Doug Wead Denial

Dear President Bush,

I have never written to an elected official before so this letter carries some extra weight as far as I am concerned.

I am a registered Democrat who voted for you in the last election because I thought you were the man to do the job.

I must say I found it appalling that in a country that prides itself on freedoms that you choose to endorse Doug Wead's firing for not supporting the White House's overtures to homosexual groups.

I thought you stood strong for all Americans not just the inflammatory groups whose values undermine even your own values.

I am sure certain concessions must be made, but when your personal integrity becomes suspect and you fail to stand up for what you believe in you step on the road that takes you down the dwindling spiral.

Doug Wead should be commended for speaking his beliefs - in a truly free society all people are ensured freedom of speech. Obviously the hard won right our forefathers established and our soldiers have fought and died for have become meaningless if one citizen can be fired for speaking his mind.
