Dear Clay:

Thank you so much for the terrific picture of my favorite place. Even though my hours on the golf course will be curtailed, your picture will bring back fond memories of my pleasant hours at Robert Trent Jones.

I look forward to getting together with you as soon as the pace slows down a bit. Thanks again for thinking of me. I wish you and your family a wonderful holiday season and all the best in 1992.

With warmest personal regards,

Sincerely,

Samuel K. Skinner

Dear Ginger and Stuart:

It really meant a lot to receive your message of good wishes and the delicious popcorn. As I begin my new duties, I am looking forward with enthusiasm and some trepidation. I cannot tell you how helpful it is to know that I have the support of good friends as I face the formidable challenge the President has offered me.

Thank you for your confidence in me. I look forward to catching up with you when the pace slows down a bit. Have a wonderful holiday season and all the best in 1992.

Dear Jim:

Thanks very much for your letter and good wishes. I also appreciated the PEP award, which is displayed prominently in my office.

But it is really I who should be congratulating you, because you have brought great credit to the Department of Transportation. Your dedication and support have made the Department a showcase, and the confidence that the President has placed in me is testimony to your accomplishments. For your help, for your support and for your friendship, I am grateful.
