Dear Sam and Honey:

The Senatorial Trust will be holding its second meeting for 1992 on May 21.
In the evening, the Trust will be hosting a dinner at the Decatur House, 748 Jackson
Place, N.W. at 6:30 p.m.

I would like to take this opportunity to invite you to be our guests. The dinner will be a excellent opportunity for the Trust members to spend time with you. In the past, the Trust events have been a big success, and with your participation I know we can look forward to another successful event.

I sincerely hope you will be able to join us for what promises to be an exciting evening. Please have your office contact Laura Yeates at (202) 675-6101 to confirm your availability. She will be able to answer any questions you may have.

I look forward to seeing you on May 21.

Paul A. Allaire

Paul A. Allaire is chairman of the board of directors, chief executive officer and chairman of the executive committee of Xerox Corporation.

He joined Xerox in 1966 as a financial analyst. For eleven years Allaire was with Rank Xerox Limited, the company's London-based overseas subsidiary, and was managing director of Rank Xerox from 1980 to 1983. He returned to the United States in 1983 as senior vice president and chief staff officer of Xerox. Allaire was elected president and a member of the board in 1986, chief executive in 1990 and chairman in 1991.

Allaire is a member of the board of directors of Rank Xerox and Fuji Xerox Co. Ltd. He also serves on the board of directors of Sara Lee Corporation, the New York City Ballet, and Catalyst. Allaire is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations, the Business Roundtable, the Business Council, and the Council on Competitiveness.

He is a member of the board of trustees of Carnegie-Mellon University and Worcester Polytechnic Institute, and is a graduate of both institutions.
