Honorable Samuel Skinner
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Skinner:

It is with great pleasure that I invite you to be the guest speaker at the R.A.M.S., (Republicans Associated for Mutual Support), luncheon meeting on Thursday, January 16, 1992.

RAMS is an organization of Republican Senate and House Chiefs of Staff, Staff Directors, and Chief Counsels, founded over thirty years ago during the Eisenhower administration.

The organization today is over 150 members strong composed of nearly equal numbers of Senate and House staff, plus "downtown" alumni in the private sector and the Executive branch.

The luncheons are held in the private dining rooms at the Capitol Hill Club, with a hospitality period beginning at 12:00 noon and lunch at 12:20. Your remarks would begin at 1:15 p.m. with a question/answer period to follow. We adjourn at 1:45. Meetings are closed to the press and you are welcome to speak on any matter you wish.

Past speakers have included Vice President Quayle, Secretaries Cheney, Martin, and Watkins, Senator Ted Stevens, (a founding RAMS member), Governor John Sununu, and FBI Director William Sessions. As President of Rams, I recently conducted a poll of potential speakers and your name is at the top of the list of individuals our membership would like to hear. We would be honored and intrigued to have you join us at our January meeting.

Should you have any questions regarding the organization or the meeting, please feel free to contact me at 225-2676. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

James K. Conzelman
Chief of Staff to Congressman Michael G. Oxley, M.C.

Dear Sam:

During the week of January 27, I will be in Washington for an interview with the Department of Justice regarding the vacancy on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

The interview is scheduled for the morning of Wednesday, January 29.

Would it be convenient for you if I were to drop by The White House to say hello while I am in the District that week? I would, of course, call your office first.

With every best personal wish, I remain

Respectfully yours,

Jim Burke called to let you know that Hillary Stout of the WALL STREET JOURNAL is aware that you and he met as she asked for an interview on the subject. He declined, even after she promised him anonymity.

// You may expect a request from him for a meeting with you and Bob Teeter on drugs this week. He's very concerned about communications on the drug issue, much of which can be presented positively. Recently Gov. Martinez responded to the release of incorrect data that were statistically insignificant, thereby uselessly calling attention to it. Statistics and data on drug use are not understood by the public because even the people working with the data don't understand it. The government does not view drug abuse through the eyes of the consumer, and the drug problem is driven by the consumer.

Soon the survey of drug use among high school students will be released, and Mr. Burke wants to ensure that the survey results are correctly communicated. A major cultural change is happening among American youth, and we should take advantage of the release of this data and the State of the Union address to appropriately inform the public -- before the election.

Dear Sam:

Thank you for your letter of January 8, 1992. While I regret that you are unable to serve on the Law School Board of Visitors presently, I understand your reasoning and support it totally. I would have very much regretted any action which would have prevented you from full involvement in education related issues.

Dear Mr. Skinner:

Thank you for all your help in arranging today's White House ceremony with the President. It was a great event.

I believe that presenting the President with one of our alternative vehicles will bring much needed attention to this Administration's leadership in the areas of energy conservation and environmental priorities.

Again, I appreciate your help. It was a personal honor and pleasure to participate in this event.

Again, thank you for sharing this successful event with me.

Dear Easter Seal Golfer:

As we start our second decade of the Golf Classic, we're very excited to announce a change in host clubs.

Located in Lake Geneva, Geneva National Golf Club is the home of two new golf courses designed by Arnold Palmer and Lee Trevino. We know you'll enjoy the challenges and the fabulous surroundings of these spectacular courses.

In addition, please note that our entry fee now includes all "on course" games. These are the Par 3 contests (including hole-in-one prizes) and the longest drive contest.

We hope you'll plan to join us on June 26 for a great day. Thank you again for your generous support.

VICTORY 1992

SALUTE TO

Congressman Sam Johnson took office in May of 1991 after serving seven years in the Texas State House. A native Texan, he earned a business degree from SMU and a master of international affairs from GWU.

In the Air Force, Sam served as a fighter pilot in Korea and Vietnam, was shot down over North Vietnam in 1966 and held as a POW for seven years—more than three years in solitary, as one of the eleven POWs marked as leaders of the POW resistance effort and isolated in an earthen-walled Hanoi POW camp nicknamed "Alcatraz." The "Alcatraz Gang," an elite group of highly decorated POWs, received extensive torture for their adherence to the Code of Conduct. Two noted members of the "Alcatraz Gang" are RAdm Jim Stockdale and former Senator Jerry Denton.

Sam was director of the USAF Fighter Weapons School (Top Gun), flew with the USAF "Thunderbird" precision flying demonstration team, graduated from the Armed Forces Staff College and the National War College. Sam also served as a wing commander and finally an air division commander.

On February 13, 1973, the day our POWs were released from Vietnam, Sam Johnson knew he won his war and returned home with an unyielding commitment to honor freedom and serve America.

Pepperdine University Associates

Celebrating sixteen years of progress and accomplishment, the Pepperdine University Associates enlist outstanding men and women who mobilize their resources and support to meet the important needs of Pepperdine University. The Associates personify a spirit of commitment for the future of the institution, providing annual gifts of $1,000 each to ensure support and encouragement for the unique mission of the University.

The Associates convene once each year at a members-only black-tie dinner to herald the University's achievements and to enjoy presentations by distinguished guests. Keynote speakers at the annual dinner have included former First Lady of the United States Nancy Reagan; Secretary of Housing and Urban Development Jack Kemp; Nobel Laureate Milton Friedman; Alexander M. Haig, Jr.; Pulitzer Prize-winning columnist and television commentator George Will; and on one occasion, a nationally televised debate between William F. Buckley, Jr., and John Kenneth Galbraith.

The Associates have also sponsored special luncheon seminars on world issues and numerous private receptions and showings of art collections, such as the impressive Treasures of the Vatican exhibit at San Francisco's de Young Museum; the priceless Armand Hammer Collection: Five Centuries of Masterpieces at the Palm Springs Desert Museum; and the Masterpieces of Impressionism and Post-Impressionism: The Annenberg Collection at the Los Angeles County Museum of Art.

The Pepperdine University Associates are the standard-bearers of the University, a vital testimony for the progress that can be achieved when people accept responsibility for the education of young people who will one day provide the leadership for America.
