Dear Mr. Skinner:

We would like to invite you to speak to a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Independent Petroleum Association of America on either Tuesday, February 4 or Wednesday, February, 5, anytime convenient to you between 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon on either of those days. The meeting will be held at the Hyatt Regency on Capitol Hill in Washington.

Approximately 120 of the country's leading oil and gas producers will be attending this meeting along with representatives of the state and regional cooperating oil and gas associations. We would be honored if you could meet with us.

The infrastructure of the domestic oil industry is in a free fall state of collapse. All indicators of industry activity are at record lows. More than 300,000 jobs (over half the jobs in the industry) have been lost since 1986.

There is unfortunately, a perception throughout the industry that the Bush administration is not concerned about maintaining a healthy domestic oil and gas producing industry. If you could speak to our group you would have the opportunity to address this perception.

Sincerely,

Gene Ames, Jr.

Dear Mr. Skinner:

I am pleased to extend a personal invitation to you to attend the Independent Petroleum Association of America's 1992 Washington Reception.

The reception will be held on Tuesday, February 4 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the Regency Ballroom of the Hyatt Regency at 400 New Jersey Avenue, N.W.

This year's reception is being held in conjunction with the IPAA Executive Committee meeting. Leaders from the nation's independent oil and natural gas industry will be visiting our nation's capitol to discuss several key issues affecting the independent industry, with a primary focus on the alternative minimum tax and oil field waste management. They are also vitally interested in national energy strategy legislation and natural gas regulatory matters.

Our reception is cosponsored this year by the National Association of Royalty Owners, whose executive members and Washington representatives will also attend.

I hope you will be able to join us. Please RSVP to Mary Stahl at 202-857-4722.

Sincerely yours,

John Coleman of Lake Forest and I have about 55 financial people (list enclosed) coming to the Watergate Hotel for one of our Washington Focus seminars on Wednesday, February 5. Our thought, and our hope, is that you might be able to drop by for a few minutes on your way home to give them your observations on the challenges that face the President. All of us have great admiration for your readiness to tackle this enormous task of reorganization and these people would be very interested in hearing how things look to you.

There will be no press and we can make the time rather flexible - anytime from 6:30 p.m. on will be fine. I know you are incredibly busy and I have held off this invitation until the SOTU was out of the way. If you can work this in, it will be just great.
