The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear John,

I called Mrs. Kennedy this morning regarding a query from Alberto Kohan, chief of staff to the President of Argentina, asking me to contact the White House regarding a possible September meeting between President Bush and President Menem either in New York or Washington during that two day period in time when both President Menem and President Bush will address the United Nations.

Alberto Kohan also would like to meet with you sometime prior to the 20th of September to make appropriate introductions and review the topics to be discussed in any possible meeting.

First let me explain. President Menem and his staff never held national office before his election to the presidency of Argentina and so he and his staff are unaccustomed to international relations. Indeed they are absolutely green when it comes to these matters and are more than a little conscious of possible slights and bruised egos should their request be rebuffed. For that reason, perhaps, they do not wish to make contact through their own Embassy here or the foreign office there to make suitable arrangements. Thus my involvement in this matter.

For your information, with respect to a possible meeting between President Bush and President Menem, Mrs. Kennedy referred me to Phillip Hughes in Presidential Scheduling and when I spoke to Mr. Hughes' secretary I was informed that Presidential Scheduling would first have to receive a request from the NSC.

Because we are already in mid-August, and because even the impression of a rebuff caused by bureaucratic delays should be avoided, I am writing to ask if you would personally intervene to arrange for this meeting, and also, if the meeting can be arranged, to meet with the Chief of Staff of the President of Argentina prior to that event.

Alberto Kohan informs me that President Menem's personal friend, Maureen O'Ryan, who resides in the United States and who has recently returned from Argentina after extensive meetings with Menem and Kohan, will provide you any information in person you may wish to have about what the President of Argentina wishes to discuss, and how important it is to him that on his first visit to the United States as President he be given the courtesy of a meeting with President Bush.

I understand that she also will explain why they have chosen these channels by which to make contact, and not the usual ones.

Ms. O'Ryan, who is also a personal friend of President and Mrs. Bush, will also enlighten you about the personal backgrounds of those you may meet in Menem's entourage.

She can be reached today at the Washington offices of US West International where she is employed to represent US West in international matters. Her telephone number is 337 4364.

Sincerely yours,

Richard J. Bishirjian

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief Of Staff
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

I am writing to you today in support of New York State Assemblyman George Pataki, who is seeking the position of Regional Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency.

Assemblyman Pataki was first elected to the Assembly in 1984, after having served as Mayor of Peekskill, New York, for three years. He has rapidly earned a well-deserved reputation as one of the Republican Minority's most articulate and aggressive spokesmen, especially on environmental matters.

I am also informed that Assemblyman Pataki will be named "Legislator of the Year" for 1989 by the Environmental Planning Lobby, an umbrella group of 200 environmental groups here in New York. It is almost unheard of for such an honor to be bestowed on a Republican.

I am totally confident that Assemblyman Pataki would be a credit to the Bush Administration, and I urge you to give him every possible consideration.

Thanks, Governor. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Warm regards,

J. Patrick Barrett

Hon. John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Gov. Sununu,

Thank you for your kind letter of June 19, 1989.
Please excuse the lateness of my reply.

It has been a very long two months for those of us who are active on the Lebanese issue. We have begun the process of unifying our voice when addressing the Administration and our representatives in the Congress. Also, following the President's suggestion made to the delegation of Lebanese American leaders on April 21, 1989, we have developed some rather concrete, and we hope constructive proposals, within the context outlined by the President.

In conjunction with the first formal meeting of our unifying organization, known as the Council of Lebanese American Organizations, which will take place in Washington on August 25-27, 1989, we hereby request a meeting with the President to personally present to him the results of our efforts.

We make this unusual request due to the heightened urgency of the situation in Lebanon and to the new levels of violence to which the conflict has escalated. Our network has also produced information which reveals new dangers to the United States by the continuation of the crisis. That information consists of the following:

1. There has been a recent movement of Syrian tanks and other field artillery up from the Bekaa Valley to the mountains overlooking Beirut and the areas to the north and east of the city. This has been matched with a new and heavy deployment of field artillery pieces by the Lebanese Army aimed at Syrian targets.

2. Syrian gunners are now employing tactics in Beirut as were used in Hama, Syria, by shelling with 240 mm shells which have the capacity to hit the people in their underground shelters. I make reference to the bombing that took place in Fayadiyeh over the weekend which collapsed a 10 story building on the civilians hiding in the underground shelter.

3. Syrian gunners are now shelling at civilians in small boats attempting to reach larger ships that can ferry them to safety in Cyprus. I make reference to the August 7, 1989 report in the Washington Post where a 1 year old and her 2 year old sister were killed when the Syrians shelled their small boat.

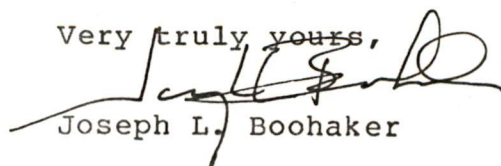

4. Finally, and most dangerously, we have obtained access to verifiable information that this same Syrian regime is in fact exploiting the Bekaa Valley as a center for narcotics production and manufacture, and that the various allied militia are serving as agents for the Syrians to grow, manufacture and ship the product from "illegal militia ports" on the Lebanese coast. There are contacts being made, that we can verify, between South American drug cartels and drug merchants from Lebanon to either cultivate a cocoa crop in Lebanon, or to manufacture a combined cocaine/hashish product known as "crash".

Lebanon's apparent slide into oblivion must be checked now before we are faced with a permanent state of lawlessness in Lebanon from which any and all types of outrages can be perpetrated on countless new victims.

The Lebanese American community and its leaders are greatly aroused over these new and dangerous developments. We view them with great alarm and we wish to present our case for U.S. action directly to the President now, before addressing these issues to the Congress upon the Members return following the August recess.

Awaiting your reply, and with kind personal regards, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Joseph L. Boohaker

JOE BARTON
TEXAS

August 8, 1989

The Honorable John Sununu
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave NW
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Recently, I invited you to participate in an event that is very important to me, a seminar for my Congressional Council in Texas that was scheduled for December 2nd. Unfortunately due to a conflict, I have moved the date to November 18th. I know you declined the previous invitation but with the schedule change maybe it would be possible for you to attend now. I would be very pleased if you could participate as a guest speaker at this event. The exact time of your speech is flexible. We will make every effort to accommodate your schedule.

The event will take place at The Woodlands Inn, just twenty minutes north of Houston Intercontinental Airport. Transportation to and from the airport will be provided.

The Congressional Council is a group of my top supporters who contribute $1,000 in a year. This is a fine group of men and women. I am sure you would enjoy the opportunity to meet them. I expect approximately 50 - 100 participants at this meeting. They and I would be delighted if you could attend.

I would be glad to discuss this invitation with you personally. If your staff has any questions, Margaret Somereve is the Campaign Coordinator, and she can be reached at 214-875-8688. Her mailing address is P.O. Box 1444; Ennis, Texas 75120.

I hope to hear from you soon, and see you in Texas in November, if not sooner!

Sincerely,

Joe Barton

Dear John:

When Ernie Daman and I met with you last year, you encouraged the engineering societies to speak out on public issues.

I am pleased to enclose ASME's position paper, "Energy and the Environment." The paper urges action to reduce the potential for greenhouse warming of the Earth, despite current uncertainties in the scientific data, by developing and implementing not one energy option -- but many.

ASME's recommendations have received considerable notice in the press, and we are now carrying our message to key people in the administration and Congress.

Chuck Velzy, ASME's new President, Ernie Daman, and I would appreciate the opportunity to meet with you, or whoever you suggest on the White House staff to discuss briefly the statement's recommendations. If Dr. Bromley is aboard, perhaps he would appreciate ASME's counsel on this important issue. Janis Tabor of ASME's Washington Center will call your office in the next few days to see when a meeting might be arranged.

Thank you for your continuing interest and support for our profession. I hope to see you soon.

Sincerely,

August 8, 1989

Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

On behalf of the Board of Directors, the 2,200 state legislators and the more than 400 private sector members of the American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC), I want to take this opportunity to commend President Bush for his plans to convene a national summit on education.

As the nation's largest membership organization of state legislators, ALEC shares the President's commitment to improve and strengthen America's educational system. ALEC members stand solidly behind the President in his mission to improve education in America, and they are eager to "roll up their sleeves" and work with the President and the Governors in rebuilding our education system, school room to school room. ALEC is ready, willing, and able to carry the President's message directly into the state capitols.

ALEC is playing a major role in formulating public policy at the state level, and is rapidly becoming a potent force in setting the terms of the debate and changing the agenda as America moves into the 21st century. If America is to be again in the forefront of education work at the grassroots level through ALEC and its members, who are the catalyst of reform, is essential.

ALEC's commitment to improve education is strongly evident in our members work. We have developed and successfully initiated model legislation to fundamentally reform America's failed education system through open enrollment, alternate certification, grade-level assessment testing, strong curricula standards, civic literacy, career ladder opportunities for educators, and accountability for results.

ALEC legislator members are uniquely qualified to assist the President and the Administration in this great national effort. Recently, the Ohio legislature, under the leadership of ALEC members Senate President Stanley Aronoff and Senator Cooper Snyder, Chairman of the Senate Education Committee, passed into law a comprehensive education reform initiative that was drafted in conjunction with proposals developed by ALEC. The Ohio legislation (S.B. 140) implements open enrollment, alternate certification, requires grade-level assessment testing, and establishes school accountability.

ALEC members have also worked closely with the Governors in Minnesota, Iowa, Arkansas, and Nebraska to implement open enrollment programs. In Texas and New Jersey, ALEC leaders have worked to develop and support alternate certification programs allowing qualified individuals who want to teach the opportunity to do so. And, in a timely manner given the recent U.S. Supreme Court decision regarding the legality of burning the American flag, our members in Texas and North Carolina have sponsored and passed legislation, drafted in conjunction with ALEC's American Civic Literacy Project, which requires the teaching, knowledge, and understanding of America's Founding Documents, including the Declaration of Independence, the United States Constitution, and the Federalist Papers.

These proven examples of our commitment to improve America's education system underscores the fact that state legislators, and ALEC members in particular, are the single most important group of elected officials whose decisions will have the greatest impact on education. As a former Governor, you know from first hand experience that education reform will not occur without the active involvement and commitment of state legislators. The appropriate vehicle to initiate this commitment in the states is ALEC. ALEC is the key action link between the White House, Congress and the state capitols.

Therefore, ALEC believes that to ensure victory, the President's education initiative must be inclusive from the start. It is crucial to the success of the President's commitment to strengthen and improve education that ALEC be represented at the national summit. It is respectfully recommended that Representative Frank Messersmith (R-FL), ALEC National Chairman; Senator Cooper Snyder (R-OH), Chairman, Senate Education Committee; Senator Roger Heath (R-NH), Chairman of ALEC's Task Force on Education; Mr. Ronald F. Scheberle, Vice President, Government Affairs, GTE Corporation, and Chairman, ALEC Private Enterprise Board; and myself as the Executive Director of ALEC, attend the national summit as representatives of the American Legislative Exchange Council.

I truly believe ALEC's participation at the national summit would ensure the success of the President's initiative. I would be most grateful if you would let me know, as soon as possible, how ALEC may assist the President in this vital and urgent national endeavor.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

Samuel A. Brunelli

August 3, 1989

The Honorable John Sununu

The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

I've just returned from a leave (my happy announcement enclosed) and I thought I'd take the opportunity to send along special thanks for all the help and support you gave the arts during your tenure as Governor. I also want to personally thank you for your confidence in my ability to make the State's contributions meaningful. I'm very proud of how far we've come in the last few years, but we have a long way to go.

Fortunately, your tradition of support and interest has continued into the Gregg administration. And the 15-member Council itself is probably one of the best in the State system.

Since we have been able to improve administratively over the last few years, we are now in a position to attract even greater federal funds. For that reason I am particularly pleased to see a competent leader nominated for the position of Chairman of the National Endowment for the Arts. Word in the field is that John Frohnmayer is an excellent choice and can likely lead the Endowment very capably through its next period of development.

I hope you will continue your support of the arts by taking a personal interest in the future of the National Endowment for the Arts.

Again thanks so much.

Sincerely,

Susan Bonaiuto
Director

Mr. John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington DC 20500

Dear Gov. Sununu:

Because you are mentioned prominently in the editorial in our forthcoming August issue, I am sending this advance copy as a courtesy. It contains references to programs that many people believe will interest you.

After writing the article, I was informed that President Bush had been invited by Adapso to address the U.S. software industry's annual conference next June in Washington. A proposal by the National Education Association to equip every classroom in American with a computer brings relevance and a sense of urgency to this invitation.

The Adapso conference, not specifically mentioned in our editorial, will actually be held in conjunction with the World Computer Services Congress. I wanted to point that out now, so as to clear up any possible confusion regarding the two meetings; major speeches such as the keynote would address both audiences.

I am ready to serve on an advisory or study committee that might be established for researching the NEA proposal, which is new material to contemplate. If you are visiting New England with the President later this month, I would be pleased to take time out from this magazine's annual editorial planning meeting (at the Ogunquit River Plantation in Maine, Aug. 23-25) to discuss the important NEA proposal, and/or other matters pertaining to computer literacy..

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely yours,

Dear John,

News media coverage of the President's remarks at the National Governor's Conference included the announcement of his intentions to convene a national summit on education in September. As I had written to you earlier, I truly believe that such an event will clearly lead the way to long lasting educational improvement in our nation.

I simply wanted to write to you to thank you for all you did to encourage the President to take such a positive step. I know you played a major role in the final decision making process to undertake such a major initiative.

Please let me know if I can be of any assistance.

Hope to see you soon!

Dear Governor Sununu,

The Government of Sierra Leone has asked if I would be interested in being considered for the position of Honorary Consul General for New England.

Of course I would be honored.

I have a problem! I am in need of your recommendation. If you will take the time to draft a letter of recommendation, I would be most grateful.

Please send your reference to:

His Excellency Dr. George B. Carew

Dear Governor Sununu:

Your attention has no doubt been directed to the July 19 Jack Anderson column attacking Secretary Clayton Yeutter.

This article was even more inaccurate than the typical Jack Anderson column, --- and "typical" is pretty bad.

The day after the article appeared, we were holding a semi-annual meeting at Purdue University of the Indiana Farm Policy Seminar. This is attended by some 30-35 farmers, agribusinessmen, and state government personnel, representing both political parties. The group is strictly non-partisan.

Most of them had read the article the day before. The rest of them read it at the meeting.

The chairman then solicited the opinion of the group.

They felt that Jack Anderson rose to a new high in inaccuracy, and sank to a new low in the unfair smear. They then verbalized strong support for the direction Clayton is giving agricultural policy.

I travel the country a great deal, meeting with a wide variety of agricultural groups. I find an unusually high level of support for Clayton Yeutter in his posture on agricultural programs and policy.

The same goes for President Bush.

You're all on the right track.

Hang tough!

With warm regards, I am

Sincerely,

Earl L. Butz
Dean Emeritus of Agriculture

cc: Clayton Yeutter
Lee Atwater

an adversary, not an advocate for farmers

Washington — New Agriculture Secretary Clayton Yeutter was billed as the best qualified American for the job. It turns out he may be the best qualified to ensure big profits for corporate farmers and foreclosure for the rest.

Yeutter has spent his first six months in office boosting the interests of corporate agriculture, thumbing his nose at family farmers and, as a sideline, promoting the Republican Party at the taxpayers' expense.

A former trade representative in the Reagan Cabinet, Yeutter is a cheerleader for free trade, even if it means the demise of some American farms.

Yeutter has offended people on both sides of the political aisle. Rep. David Nagle, D-Iowa, told us Yeutter's first six months were a "disaster." Nagle said, "Our worst nightmare would be to have the archenemy of the American farmer as secretary of agriculture, and that's exactly what we have with Secretary Yeutter."

A Republican congressman told our reporter Tim Warner that Yeutter is more often an adversary than an advocate for farmers. One Democratic congressional staffer summed up his "unofficial" opinion of Yeutter with a raised middle finger.

FARMERS ARE more likely to raise a whole fist when the name Yeutter comes up. The secretary has made no secret of his agenda to get rid of any quotas that protect farmers but distort the free flow of trade.

Peanut farmers are a prime victim of Yeutter's knee-jerk philosophy. Production quotas keep American peanut farmers from flooding the market and that keeps prices high enough market nor free trade is free. The free trade philosophy that Yeutter has pushed so adamantly has opened American markets to foreign producers of virtually every agricultural product. Yeutter can make no guarantees that American products will be as freely welcomed overseas.

The farmers might forgive Yeutter his shortsightedness if he showed a little more concern for their welfare when he traveled the country. Instead, he plays Republican politics. On a trip to Nebraska in May, Yeutter's pretense was to tour drought-ravaged farms, some of which had so little water they couldn't fill their toilets. Instead, Yeutter attended three Republican fund-raisers and drummed up $15,000 for the state GOP. He managed to stop for about 45 minutes at one farm in Elwood, Neb.

THE TAXPAYERS picked up Yeutter's $1,057 airline ticket to and from Nebraska and the state GOP paid for the short trips to the three fund-raisers and the farm. Yeutter's spokeswoman Kelly Shipp told us there was nothing illegal about the trip. She said Yeutter flies coach to save the taxpayers' money. But according to travel vouchers for the Nebraska trip and another jaunt to Iowa, the fares were in the first-class range. When confronted with those vouchers, Shipp admitted Yeutter sometimes goes first class.

When Yeutter isn't busy working against farmers, he is speaking against them. They ask for help from the drought and he tells them to ask their state and local governments.

And when it comes to stirring up public anger against farmers, no one does it better than Yeutter. At a recent speech to the American Seed Growers Association, Yeutter said, "The federal deficit would double or even triple if all requests for farm aid were honored." That typical Yeutter hyperbole only worsens the perception Americans have of their food producers.

Dear John,

Enclosed is a copy of a letter I sent to Senator Rudman, Congressman Douglas, Senator Joe Biden, Senator Arlen Specter, and Senator John Heinz concerning a former shipmate of mine. I am writing to you and enclosing some information relative to Buel Black because I would like to ask your help in getting him the care and attention he deserves.

This is a proud man who served his country with dignity and that is what he is entitled to. I am asking you to please direct my concerns to the proper authorities so that the V.A. Hospital in Pennsylvania can secure the care he is entitled to.

Thank you for any consideration you are able to give in this matter.

August 3, 1989

Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff

Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

The members of the National Science Board and I invite you to join us at one of our upcoming Board dinners on the evening of August 17, October 12, or November 16. All of us were gratified by your interest in attending the annual awards dinner in May. We appreciate the demands on your time and hope that one of these dates will accommodate your schedule.

The dinner meeting would provide the opportunity for an informal discussion with the Board and Foundation executive management. We are very interested in your views on opportunities to translate Federal support for basic research in science and engineering into contributions toward the Administration's goals for improving our Nation's economic competitiveness and quality of education and for leveraging support from industry and other sectors.

I believe there is much to be gained from such an exchange between you and the members of the National Science Board. The Board and NSF play a unique role in Federal support for basic science and engineering research. Board members are appointed by the President at least in part for their significant ability as individuals to be influential in affecting change or implementing initiatives both in industry and academia.

Please choose a date that is convenient for you.

Sincerely,

Erich Bloch

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Enclosed is a cassette tape of a message delivered by Pastor Glen Cole of the Capital Christian Center in Sacramento, California on July 2, 1989.

The message is entitled, "God Bless America."

I was deeply blessed to have been in attendance at this service.

As a fellow governmental official, I can assure you that you will find no better use of an hour of your time than listening to this extremely important message some evening at home.

You and I have been given a position of authority and decision-making by our fellow citizens and, of course, God. I know you will find, as I did, that this tape will improve your ability to carry out those responsibilities.

May God bless and richly keep you and your family.

Most cordially,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Dennis", written in dark ink.

DENNIS BROWN

P.S. As you can see, on side two of the tape is another message by Pastor Cole which I hope you will also find interesting.

Dear Mr. Sununu:

On June 5, 1989 President Bush announced that he is planning to create an education policy advisory committee to help improve the nation's schools. I would like to recommend Philip E. Pagano to be considered as a candidate for a member of this committee.

Mr. Pagano is an outstanding citizen who has been interested and involved in the educational system here in Ocean County New Jersey for most of his life. I am taking the liberty of enclosing a biographical sketch of Mr. Pagano who resides at 1810 Greenwood Road in Toms River, New Jersey. I would like to encourage that he be given consideration for an appointment to the advisory committee.

If I can be of any further assistance, or if you have any questions concerning Mr. Pagano, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Your attention to this matter is greatly appreciated.

Bethlehem Steel Corporation

BETHLEHEM, PA 18016

CURTIS H. BARNETTE
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

July 27, 1989

The Hon. John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

We wish to acknowledge your leadership in connection with President Bush's Steel Trade Liberalization Program. We will support you and your Staff, the Administration, and the Congress in connection with the implementation of the Program. We had, of course, hoped for a longer period of time which we believe necessary to achieve the international consensus and complete the transition program that Bethlehem and the industry are going through.

Enclosed for your review and retention is a copy of Bethlehem's Report for Second Quarter 1989. Bethlehem's reported second quarter net income is lower than a year ago primarily due to charges related to restructuring. We continue to remain a company in transition and certain sections of the Report are marked to indicate areas of progress and concern.

1. Common Stock Dividend

As a result of rebuilding our financial strength, we restored a very modest common stock dividend of 10¢ per share.

2. Troubled Operations

A number of our operations including Bar, Rod and Wire (Johnstown); Rail Products and Pipe (Steelton); BethForge (Bethlehem); and Baltimore Marine (Baltimore) incurred losses. Bethlehem Structural (at Bethlehem) continues to have a very difficult business situation.

3. Pensions

Even though not required to do so, we contributed $220 million to our pension fund in 1989, and continue to reduce our unfunded liability.

4. Capital Expenditures

In addition to the capital expenditures mentioned in the second quarter, we announced today a $300 million capital spending program regarding coated sheet products and a copy of our release is enclosed. We did this in reliance upon President Bush's steel decision.

5. Bush Administration Steel

Trade Liberalization Program

We will work with and give our full support to the Administration and Congress to achieve the effective implementation of President Bush's Program. We regret that the Program is not being continued for a longer period of time which we believe necessary to provide the stable environment for Bethlehem's and the industry's continued transition and recovery.

6. Outlook

Order entry has declined and we anticipate lower domestic shipments in 1989 compared to 1988.

Please let us know if you have questions or if we ever can be of assistance.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

Harry Bennett

I wanted to throw my two cents in on your impending decision on the SEC Chairmanship.

My support (on an unsolicited basis) goes to Richard Breeden. Not only did I have the pleasure of working with him over the years as a longtime Bush supporter, but I've had regular contact with him in our respective roles on the S & L bill. Richard has at all times been well informed, tough, forthright but most importantly, loyal to the President.

If our mission is to put a thorough George Bush imprint on the machinery of government through competent and loyal people, then you need look no further than Richard Breeden.

No need to reply to this, just wanted you to have the benefit of my thoughts.

Thanks, as always, for listening.

Sincerely,

Rich Bond

Many thanks!

STATE OF FLORIDA

OFFICE OF LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR BOBBY BRANTLEY

July 24, 1989

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

It has come to my attention that there is an opening on the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit. I would like to enter the name of H. Terrell Griffin for consideration.

I strongly recommend Terry. Not only would the people under his jurisdiction be well served, but the President would find in Terry a man of integrity, wisdom, compassion, and an individual he would be proud to have appointed.

The aforementioned qualities are ones I have come to know make up the man. In the over fourteen years I have known Terry, I have watched his career develop. He has become one of Florida's most prominent and respected attorneys.

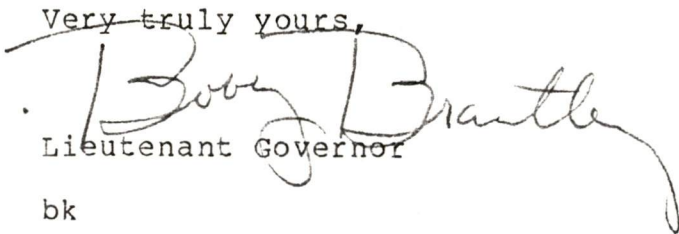

In addition to his most auspicious career, Terry has always demonstrated volunteerism as a regular component of his schedule. In particular, he has given many years to the Boy Scouts, and Eagle Youth Sports organizations.

Terry and I have had close personal contact in his affiliation with the Republican Party, which he has faithfully and effectively served on a local and national level for many years.

Page Two

Knowing the responsibilities associated with this appointment, and knowing Terry's ability and character, I feel his appointment would be a most beneficial one for the court and those served by that court. I respectfully urge you to consider H. Terrell Griffin for appointment as judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit.

Very truly yours,

Lieutenant Governor

CITY OF COSTA MESA

CALIFORNIA 92628-1200 P. O. BOX 1200

FROM THE OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

July 26, 1989

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

By way of introduction, you and I spoke very briefly during the President's April visit to Rancho del Rio. I also had the great pleasure of meeting Mrs. Sununu during her March visit to Orange County.

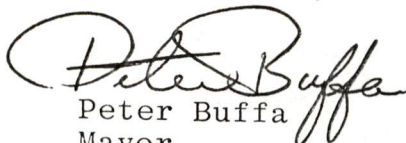

The purpose of this letter is to express my strong interest in a position on the White House staff, particularly in Political Affairs or Communications/Media. I've also sent letters of inquiry to David Demarest and Marlin Fitzwater.

As the enclosed vita will indicate, I can offer a unique combination of political and media expertise. Using that combined experience in the service of the President would be an extraordinary privilege.

I plan to be in Washington on city business in mid-September. If your schedule permits, I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to meet with you, at your convenience.

Thank you very much for your consideration in this matter, and I look forward to your reply.

Warm Regards,

Peter Buffa
Mayor

p.s. - Please pass on best wishes from my wife, Sharyn, to Mrs. Sununu. Sharyn and Jolene Fuentes accompanied Nancy during her visit to Costa Mesa.

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

LLOYD BENTSEN, CHAIRMAN

July 24, 1989

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

It has come to my attention that Ed Mihalski, the Minority Chief of Staff for the Senate Committee on Finance, is being considered for director of the Health Care Financing Administration.

As a Member of the Senate Committee on Finance, and especially during my tenure as Chairman of the Committee, I have witnessed Ed's work first hand. He is well respected by Members of the Committee and, in my view, would bring excellent skills as a health policy analyst and negotiator to the Health Care Financing Administration.

I hope you will give Ed Mihalski your most careful consideration as you continue your search for an administrator. If additional information or clarification would be helpful, please feel free to call on me.

Sincerely,

Lloyd Bentsen

WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY, JR.
Editor-in-Chief

July 24, 1989

Dear John:

I am told that you are receiving nominations for membership in the Office of Substance Abuse Prevention's Advisory Committee, and accordingly I write most enthusiastically to endorse the naming of Mrs. Gloria C. Merritt of Stamford, Connecticut.

I have known Gloria Merritt for over a dozen years and have for her the highest professional and personal respect. She is the mother of two young boys, the husband of a successful young advertising salesman (who has been a lifetime friend, and the closest friend of my son, Christopher). In addition to managing her household, Mrs. Merritt is a highly trained expert on drug abuse, and was recently appointed to the board of directors of the National Association for Children of Alcoholics (NACOA). The objective of the principal administrator of this program, Miss Elaine Johnson, is to effect an amalgamation of experts in alcoholic abuse and drug abuse, to which end Gloria Merritt's experience and interests critically coincide.

If you will permit me a personal word: Mrs. Merritt, whose c.v. I enclose, is as you will see highly disciplined in all the relevant disciplines. But she is also an extraordinary woman: industrious, intelligent, literate, warm, and totally devoted to the enterprise you seek to advance.

I'd be glad to expand on this letter to anyone you direct me to. In fact, I'll even drink to the success of the Office of Substance Abuse Prevention, with Gloria Merritt on its Advisory Committee.

My warm personal regards,

Wm. F. Buckley Jr.

Re: Immigration of Miss Rita Arambulo

I have written you, under separate cover, in regard to the plight of Miss Arambulo, who has been attempting to join her parents in The United States.

Proceedings were started 18 years ago when Miss Arambulo was 11 years old. Full documentation is included in my letter to you dated July 18, 1989.

Any assistance you can give the Arambulo Family, both of whom are in their sixties, will be appreciated.

Hope you and your family are enjoying Washington.

The Prosperity Caucus

Washington, DC 20026-4186

The Honourable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington DC 20500

July 22 1989

Dear Mr. Sununu:

The Prosperity Caucus hereby requests you to be our guest of honor at a gathering in the Autumn.

The Prosperity Caucus is a group of several hundred progressive "supply side" economic policy makers and analysts, international in scope but with membership concentrated in Washington D.C.. This year we have honored Donna Fitzpatrick, acting U.S. Secretary of Energy; Dr. Lawrence Lindsey, Harvard economist and currently senior White House economist; Jack Kemp, U.S. Secretary of Housing and Urban Development; and Dr. Michael Boskin, Chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors. We have in the past also honored governors of the Federal Reserve System, several prominent economists and other officials and dignitaries.

Enclosed is a news article profiling the Caucus two years ago. It is even larger and more influential now, and we follow your work with admiration.

We would be pleased to schedule a meeting of the Caucus at a time and place convenient to you, to hear your thoughts on administration and economic policy, as Dr. Lindsey and Dr. Boskin have done.

With respect

Ralph Benko
Secretary

Dear Governor Sununu,

Like many schools throughout New Hampshire and the country, Sunset Heights is attempting to educate youngsters about the dangers of drug abuse. To emphasize this message our "Just Say No" Club under the direction of Counselor, Dorothy Simpson, designed the enclosed T-shirts. Under the sponsorship of our Parent Teacher Organization the shirts were sold at cost to promote this all important message.

The PTO wanted you and President Bush to be aware of their efforts and asked me to send each of you a shirt. They stand in strong support of President Bush's efforts to continue the battle begun by former President and Mrs. Reagan. Hopefully, the end result will be an elimination of this plague on our society.

In closing, we wish you and the Bush administration continued success.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Sununu:

Since January, 1987, I have served as program manager for the New Hampshire Child Passenger Safety Program based at Dartmouth Medical School and funded through the Governor's Highway Safety Agency. You may remember signing proclamations for Child Passenger Safety Awareness Week and being photographed with Bucklebear and me. As of September 30, 1989, this program is no longer being funded and I am currently conducting a job search.

You will see from my enclosed curriculum vitae that I have a Master's in Public Health with an emphasis in Health Education/Rural and Cross-Cultural Health. Previous work experience in the human resources area gave me the opportunity to develop skills in staff management, policy development, and communications. My training and own values have given me a deep concern for and desire to help people develop their own capacities and resources, particularly those who may be underserved for a variety of reasons.

I would very much appreciate any assistance you may offer me in contacting officials in government agencies concerned with health-related issues. I am free to locate anywhere in the country or to accept U.S. positions abroad.

Thank you very much for your help.

Sincerely,

Barbara Bostian

Would you be willing to write a letter addressed To Whom It May Concern about Johnny, Jr. He has a chance to transfer from Boston University to Wesleyan, and he would dearly love to make that transfer.

If you could mention the New Hampshire primary and Johnny's work on it, it would be most helpful.

Would you send the letter to me in New York. Thank you so much.

The trip to Argentina was grand.

Congratulations on your triumph abroad.

Kind regards and thanks.

Dear Sir,

Being aware of your great love of skiing the beautiful New Hampshire Mountains, Fr. Croteau wished you to have one of the "artist's proof" copies of his latest poster which will be on the market in October, 1989. The poster evolved from a series of paintings that he did on "Skiing in New Hampshire".

We hope you like it and we send it with our good wishes for continued success in what must be a difficult as well as rewarding job.

Dear John:

Because you have not heard from me lately does not mean that my attention lingers... You will, I hope, have remarked the stoicism with which I read the news that Schuyler Chapin was not named as head of the National Endowment for the Arts. But--I am told that you and Chase got a very good man, and I congratulate you, while crying in the inside.

I learn that the moment has come to make a decision concerning the independent member of the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, and on this matter I feel strongly enough to flag your attention and that of Chase Untermeyer, to my recommendation last March, in language unequalled since Romeo addressed Juliet, on behalf of Henry Cauthen. I am taking the liberty of appending to this letter, which will go down to you via MCI Express which guarantees delivery before noon tomorrow, Wednesday, the letter I sent to Chase in March, which I do urge you to read. And, Deo volente, to act upon.

Trust you are well, my friend. I am as always at your service. The telephone works better at midnight here in the New York area than in Switzerland.

Ever cordially,

((Bill))

Dear Chase:

May I second the nomination of Henry Cauthen, of Columbia South Carolina, for a position on the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, as an independent member?

To recite his mechanical qualifications is rather like reciting those of the Eiffel Tower. I can't think of one American human being of his age who has done more, created more, cared more about public broadcasting. Not long ago, in a contest judged by his peers, he was named the Outstanding Public Television Manager in the country. This was a formal recognition of the work he has done, with headquarters in Columbia, South Carolina, for television in general. He has served as President of the Southern Educational Communications Association, which presides over more public television stations than any other regional center in the country. President Nixon nominated him to serve on the National Council for the Arts. Henry Kissinger named him a member of the board of the INdo-US Subcommisison on Education and Culture, an organization with members from 69 countries. He has been decorated by the Governor of South Carolina, who is a Republican, mirabile dictu. It goes on.

I have been professionally associated with Henry

Cauthen because my program Firing Line, which has been on the air for 24 years, first went to PBS 17 years ago at Mr. Cauthen's beckoning. Since then I have seen him in action of every kind, handling administrative crises, economic problems, artistic challenges. I have seen him at work in Vietnam, in Israel, in London, Paris. It was he who put together the debate I had with Ronald Reagan on the Panama Canal Treaties in 1979 which featured prominently in the Senate debate on the treaties.

In short, his qualifications are manifest, and I can't imagine that anyone would wish to compete with them. I do hope you will make a favorable recommendation. I am taking the liberty of sending a copy of this letter to Governor Sununu since he invited me to share my enthusiasms with him, even as he shares his disappointments with me.

With cordial regards,

Congress of the United States
Washington, DC 20515

July 18, 1989

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House

Dear John:

As members of the Energy and Commerce Committee, we are writing to express our concern regarding the alternative fuels portions of President Bush's clean air package.

While we commend the Administration for the constructive and positive approach taken towards amending the Clean Air Act, we would like to see some of our reservations addressed before the final draft is introduced. We are supportive of the President's stated intention to introduce a plan that is written in the most cost-effective and economically efficient manner.

There is no question that alternative or clean fuels will play an important role in reducing ozone in non-attainment areas. However, we would like to see the law written so that methanol is not the only alternative fuel available for areas to use, giving states some control over which fuel, if any, is selected. A "level playing field" needs to be established to give all alternative fuels the opportunity to participate. Each state and affected region needs to be given the flexibility to effectively use the fuel which best suits their environment. The Administration should not presume that reformulated gasolines in clean, low emission vehicles cannot achieve equal or better results to methanol at similar or lower costs to society. Current gasoline powered vehicles have been shown capable of emission levels as low as or lower than methanol vehicles.

A methanol-only strategy is not a cost-effective approach to reducing ozone levels. To reduce only moderate amounts of ozone, it could cost $100,000/ton or more, of equivalent VOC. Other measures taken into consideration by EPA have typically cost $2,000/ton VOC or less. In order to accomodate the large methanol market that would be created, prices for a gallon of methanol and gasoline (on a mileage equivalent basis) would edge up to $1.50. This would have a negative impact on the U.S. economy. A large methanol market would also make the U.S. more dependent on the importation of foreign energy sources since the USSR and the Middle East control three quarters of the natural gas reserves in the world used to make methanol. As we enter the 21st century, it becomes more and more important for the United States to become more and more energy independent.

We are also concerned that widespread use of methanol would not result in ozone reductions in every city in which it were used. Unless and until durable formaldehyde control technology is developed, formaldehyde presents very real health concerns and also affects the VOC reductions that will be achieved. As you know, the effectiveness of methanol as a clean fuel is dependent on the relationship between the amount of formaldehyde emitted and the emissions of VOC and NOx in a certain area. We would like the legislation to be drafted to ensure that adequate pilot programs demonstrate that reductions would in fact be achieved before major investments are wasted. Areas which do not have appropriate ratios of NOx to VOC must be free to use a fuel other than methanol.

There are too many cost-effective concerns and environmental uncertainties with a methanol mandate program to legislate or regulate its use exclusively in the nine most severe non-attainment areas. Administrator Reilly has indicated that the legislation will give cities 18 months after enactment to opt-out of the alternative fuels program by showing comparable reductions from other sources. This period is far too short. We feel areas should be given up to three years to petition to opt-out, and EPA six months to act. This would give the states 18 months after EPA promulgates a rule to petition.

We appreciate the opportunity to express our views, and look forward to working with you in the very near future.

Sincerely,

Joe Barton

Dear Governor Sununu,

The author of the enclosed letter suggests that I talk to the President about the acid rain legislation which the author feels is taking a direction contrary to the very constructive intentions of the President.

I have long been determined not to use my occasional personal communications with the President to convey viewpoints of others on public business - or for that matter, of my own. I don't plan to make an exception.

But I do presume to call this letter to your attention because I respect Gorge Freeman, who wrote it, and I believe the substance is important to one of the President's major initiatives. I would appreciate your having a look at it.

Everyone I talk to, at home and abroad, speaks with real admiration of the President's performance. I can imagine what a large contribution you make to its excellence.

Sincerely yours

FitzGerald Bemiss

Dear John,

When Col. North was first brought before the special prosecutor many people thought that he should be given a pardon. This did not happen. Maybe the reasoning was that, if North was tried and found to be not guilty on all counts, his innocence of any criminal acts would be more convincingly established than if he got a pardon.

Now that Col. North has been found guilty on three counts (see the attached xerox of the Wall Street Journal article) it seems high time to give Col. North a pardon. This is also requested in the attached petition which was signed at a small FTS meeting. It was forwarded to me with the request that I write a cover letter to ask you to send it to where it will be most effective.

Many thanks for anything you can do. I hope this finds all of you in good shape.

With my best regards,

E.H.B. Bartelink

The Hutmen's Association

52175

PO Box 2185
Quincy, MA 02269
July 7, 1989

Honorable John H. Sununu
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Governor Sununu,

Recently the Steering Committee of the Hutmen's Association sent the enclosed invitation to President Bush, to send greetings to---or perhaps even to attend---the 75th Anniversary celebration of the Appalachian Mt. Club's Carter Notch Hut on August 13. (The Hutmen's Association, or the OH Association as we are sometimes called, is the "alumni" organization of former crewmen and crew-women in the AMC's Hut System in the White Mountains.)

Knowing of your past strong support for the programs of the AMC, and especially for its New Hampshire facilities, the Steering Committee wishes to ensure that you are aware of this invitation and to extend it equally to you---whether it be to attend or to send greetings. We realize of course that both you and the President have busy schedules which would probably preclude attendance at this celebration; but we would certainly welcome the presence of either or both of you if it is possible to arrange.

Unfortunately, unlike the re-dedication ceremony of the Crawford Notch Depot at which you spoke several years ago, we have not yet found the stage coach which can negotiate the Nineteen Mile Brook Trail to the Hut. Still, the hike up that trail is a very pleasant one as you probably know; and this is one of those cases where "getting there" constitutes half the enjoyment of the celebration.

Incidentally, next summer we will commemorate the 75th Anniversary of Lakes of the Clouds Hut on Mt. Washington. Lakes is a larger, and some would say more important, hut (though not as nicely situated as Carter). More important, it is more easily accessible than is Carter---whether by helicopter in good weather or by driving up the Mt. Washington Auto Road and hiking 1.5 miles down the Crawford Path. Thus, if the difficulty of accessibility prevents either you or the President from attending this year's celebration at Carter, perhaps you would be able to attend next year at Lakes and would like to mark it down on your long-range calendar for a date, probably in August 1990, still to be determined.

With greatest respect and all best wishes.

Sincerely,

William S. Barrett
President of the Steering Committee

The Honorable John Sununu
White House Chief-of-Staff

Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear John:

Congratulations on the great job you are doing there in Washington. This administration you helped create is very effectively rising to the challenge and gaining respect and credibility worldwide. The President's recent European trip showed strategic leadership sensitive to the major European issues and accomplished a great deal without ruffling many feathers. You can take great pride in your part of what was accomplished.

Possibly you can help me on behalf of George Rossiter. George will be retiring from MARKEM early next spring, has always been a loyal ex-Marine and would, I know, enjoy going to Evening Parade at the Marine Barracks. He still has the program I received when I went as Chairman of the Boston Federal Reserve Bank. What would you suggest I do to obtain an invitation for George and Donna to attend Evening Parade and the Reception that precedes it at the Commandant's home? You know well of some of George's contributions to Keene, the state of New Hampshire and the country. He is a deserving guy.

Please have someone let me know how I can cause this invitation to become a reality.

Let's hope our paths cross in the not too distant future.

Sincerely,

Joseph A. Baute

Dear John,

I am delighted to read of your assignment in the Bush Administration. The President is fortunate to have the benefit of your experience and ability. The country will be better off for your having been put back on "active duty." Congratulations!

I am taking a respite from public service to tend to some long neglected personal interests, including starting the new business you see on this letterhead. I enclose a sheet about my partner, Bob Giese, and me because we will not send out formal announcements until later this year.

My year of required "non-contact" was spent at the Institute of Politics at the Kennedy School of Government, on a summer holiday in Turkey and in Ohio tending to rental property and additional papers our family newspaper business acquired in 1986. Mark Policinski, formerly my Associate Deputy Secretary at Commerce is now president of the publishing firm in Ohio.

Joyce and I hope to see you around town in the future. If we can be of any service to you or the Administration at anytime, don't hesitate to call on us.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Sununu:

I was a speaker at the Republican Governor's Conference in Mobile, Alabama, in November, 1988. You sat in the front row.

I would like to remind you of a suggestion I made in that speech: namely, that all or a part of any increase in the minimum wage should be tied to a literacy and numeracy attainment level. Thus, a fifteen-year old who is thinking of dropping out at age sixteen, could be looking at as much as $1.00 an hour more if the student achieved a certain literacy level, say tenth grade. Otherwise, that teenager would continue to work for a lower minimum wage. Admittedly, at a certain age any increase in the minimum wage should apply in order to avoid the objection to older persons who have a greater need for the income.

I have shared this idea with Richard Heckert, Chairman of the NAM, and he seems to think it is a good one. Perhaps this is a way to break the bottleneck with Congress on an increase in minimum wage. It would certainly send a message to all high school youth that pay levels are based on education, not just age attainment.

Sincerely,

David L. Brennan

Dear Mr. President,

I am writting a letter about someone who has become very important to my family and many other families in New Hampshire.

Jane DeGange has been director of David's House in Hanover, New Hampshire since it opened three years ago. David's House is a home for families whose children are undergoing treatment at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center and Norris Cotton Cancer Center.

In April of 1987, Dick Cyr spoke to my Junior Women's Club about his son David. David had been treated for leukemia at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center in Hanover.

After David died, Dick built David's House. The entire house was funded by donations from businesses and private citizens.

Two weeks after Dick's talk, I took my son Benjamin to the doctor. He had been pale and cranky a couple of weeks. The doctor took blood and promised to call later in the day.

Two hours later the call came. There was concern about Ben's low red cell count. He needed an immediate transfusion. "We suspect a bone marrow problem. We suspect leukemia"

I rushed Ben to the Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center in Hanover. The bone marrow showed that Bed did indeed have leukemia. There were more tests, more transfusions, more lumbar punctures, more pain.

In the midst of all the confusion came Jane DeGange from David's House. She arrived with good humor, love and stickers. She took care of Sarah and Grama and Great Grama. They had a home to go to, a playground to play on, and a room to sleep in.

Ben's disease-fighting cells were non-existant. We couldn't go out in crowds, we couldn't go out anywhere. We could go to David's House. We picnicked in the backyard, played on the swings, and had a "normal" day.

For the first six months of our protocol, Ben had to be hospitalized every three weeks for four days. During our hospital stay, I could stay with Ben, and my husband, Dick, and daughter, Sarah, were able to stay at David's House. It was as if we had to stop our lives every three weeks, but at least with David's House, there could be some semblance of normalcy and a feeling of "Home".

If there is any good that has come out of this terrible experience, it has come from David's House and the people we have come to know and love. No matter what kind of "work" Ben has to have at clinic on Wednesdays, he looks forward to going to David's House to have lunch with Jane and her daughter Rosemary. And I look forward to it too. It is a place I can relax and meet with other parents in our own kind of "Support Group".

That first time I heard Dick Cyr speak in April of 1987, I could never have imagined what an important part David's House would play in our lives. I could have never have imagined that so much love and support could come from one house.

Jane is now leaving David's House. Her husband's company is moving to North Carolina. We all know that David's House will always be there for us, but we also know that we will suffer a great loss when Jane leaves.

I know these three years have been wonderful for Jane because of the special families and children she has come to love and have come to love her. I also know that because of her love for the children, she has suffered great losses. Many of her special children have died. Yet, Jane goes on to take more children into her heart.

I don't think any of us will ever find another Jane DeGange again. We will all miss her so.

The other night, on television, I heard about a woman receiving a Presidential Commendation. It seemed that if anyone was deserving of this honor, it was Jane.

On August 6th, we are planning a large surprise party for Jane. I thought that it would be a wonderful time to present a Presidential Commendation to Jane. Now isn't that pushy?

Thank you for taking time to read my letter. I'm sure if you ask Mr. and Mrs. Sununu, they can tell you about Jane and David's House. They may even remember my son Ben. The governor cut the ribbon when the house opened. In fact, when you were campaigning in New Hampshire, you attended a truck convoy to benefit David's House.

Again, thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Patricia Bruno

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear John:

I was sorry to learn that you will be unable to speak at the closing plenary session of the annual Southern Legislative Conference this fall. I understand your reason for not attending, and I hope that the President's trip to Europe will be successful.

I look forward to seeing you again soon.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

NO PAY RAISE UNTIL THE BUDGET IS BALANCED

It baffles me why such an idea - GARANTEED TO WORK - is being ignored.

We have written some 50 letters on the subject. This is probably the third to you.

Are you really committed to balancing the budget!

Respectfully

G. Blanc and C. Blanc

Dear Governor Sununu,

I've been meaning to drop you a line to congratulate you on your appointment as Chief of Staff to President Bush. He deserves credit for an excellent choice. My family and I wish you and your family all the best in your new environment.

We have found central Florida to be an exciting place to live. The pace of growth here is even greater than in New Hampshire. I have been enjoying directing a private agency. We even had a budget surplus this year, something that was a pleasant experience for me.

Children's Home Society operates a wide range of Children's programs, many for the State of Florida. We are the largest private adoption agency in the state and one of the largest in the country. Many of our staff and volunteers have been pleased to see President Bush's strong support of adoption as a loving option for birth parents facing an unwanted pregnancy. We are developing an extensive outreach effort to bring our message to as many young birth parents as we can.

Would it be possible for you to determine if the President or Mrs. Bush could assist us in that effort? For example, we believe it would have a tremendous impact if we could use a quote supporting adoption from the President or Mrs. Bush or even greater impact, would be a taped public service announcement for either radio or television. We have offices located throughout the state should it be possible to arrange during one of President Bush's visits.

I realize the tremendous demands on your schedule and would be extremely grateful for any assistance you could provide. Children's Home Society can supply you with any information you would need. Thank you for any assistance you could offer.

Best wishes,
