The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

Enclosed is a copy of a letter I have sent to Ambassador Hills regarding our strong opposition to the inclusion of maritime in any way in the GATT discussions. I wanted you to have a copy, because GATT is a fundamental threat to the continued existence of our industry, not just to its growth or one segment of it. And our industry is absolutely united in its opposition. Unfortunately, we have the clear impression that our negotiators intend for us to be expendable in these negotiations, a bargaining chip and nothing more.

I thank you for your consideration of this matter.

Sincerely yours,

C.E. DeFries

WORLD AFRICA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

OHENE DARKO
President/FounderGovernor John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

April 19, 1989

Dear Governor:

I received your letter dated January 10, 1989 when I returned from a two month official visit to Cote d'Ivoire, Mali, Egypt, and Tunisia per invitation of their heads of state.

I will be writing you again regarding the possibility of Jerry John Rawlings, Chairman, PNDC (head of state, Republic of Ghana) to be invited to the United States by President Bush.

I am writing now to introduce you to my friend, John Calvert. John has expressed to me a desire to be connected with this country's effort in crime prevention and enforcement. I am asking for your help.

By way of background, John and his wife, Beth, are both lawyers and have their own small practice which consists mostly of criminal and bankruptcy work. John handles my business matters and we are currently working on several deals related to Africa. Although I could use any number of big firm lawyers, I prefer John. First, I use him because I like him. He shows none of the prejudices that sometimes can be seen when whites work with blacks. This helps him deal effectively on both a professional and personal level with my black colleagues and with African leaders. Second, I use him because he is a competent lawyer.

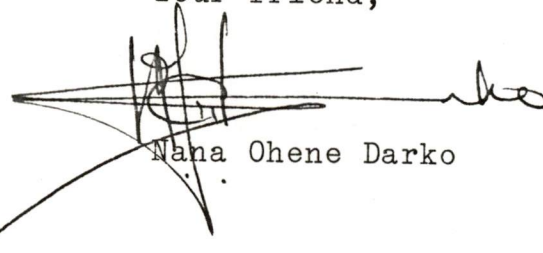

I feel that John would be qualified and interested in one of the Department of Justice's criminal task forces or the Department of State's Bureau for International Narcotics Matters. In addition, although unknown to me, there must be some sort of relevant positions under the newly established "Drug Czar".

Governor Sununu
Page 2

However, if he could be persuaded, I could also see John in a federal position here in D.C. or in Africa that would take advantage of his unique abilities to work with Africans.

I appreciate any thoughts that you may have in this regard or any help that you can provide. I am enclosing one of John's resumes.

Your friend,

Dear Governor:

I would like to follow up on the suggestion by Dr. Berry Brazelton that Mrs. Bush be appointed to the National Commission for Children. Dr. Brazelton believes that Mrs. Bush's participation on the Board would enhance the success of the White House commitment to children's issues.

Dr. Brazelton is a renowned pediatrician and spokesman for a number of children's issues. Recently, he met with Mr. William Roper from the White House. I hope you may have an opportunity to visit with Dr. Brazelton yourself.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Sununu,

It seems so strange not to refer to you as Governor Sununu! We enjoyed your terms in office, I hope Washington is treating you well.

I am writing to urge the President to sign an Executive Order prohibiting the use of organs or tissues from aborted babies in any federally funded research.

Enclosed is a copy of an article I wrote for the Valley News in January - it probably expresses everything I want to say. Our prayer, and our request, is that President Bush will stand up for the unborn in this manner.

Thanks for your time.

OFFICE OF THE REPUBLICAN LEADER
WASHINGTON, DC 20510

April 14, 1989

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear John,

The constraints of the appointing procedure of the Older Americans Act as amended (P.L. 100-175) have made it impossible for me to recommend the reappointment of Dr. Russell Mills of Kansas to the Federal Council on the Aging. I therefore wish to strongly urge Dr. Mills be appointed for one of the President's five membership slots, once an appropriate opening becomes available.

Dr. Mills most recently served as Chairman of the Council's Task Force on the White House Council on the Aging. The Task Force's recommendations are presently being studied by the White House Domestic Policy Staff and the Secretary of Health and Human Services.

Should President Bush call a White House Conference on Aging in the 1990's, I would like to ask that Dr. Mills be considered for appointment by the President or the Secretary of Health and Human Services to the Conference or to the advisory committee that shall oversee planning of the Conference.

Dr. Mills has been an excellent member of the Council and I personally would like to see him continue to serve the aging community through public service. I urge President Bush to consider his appointment once an available opening occurs.

Sincerely,

Bob Dole

Mr. John Sununu
Chief of Staff
White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear John:

As a fellow cadet lieutenant colonel at LaSalle, I decided to write both to congratulate you on your current position, and to tell you to "hang in there". The final impetus was a recent article in the U.S. News and World Report (which by the way had a great picture of you). I was struck by the comment: "for a man like Sununu who has enjoyed giving orders since he was in charge of marching the other boys to class at military academy, that must represent a disappointment: He is a caretaker government's caretaker". That seemed like a rather "cheap shot" but, as you know, there is a price for being a public figure in contemporary America.

As both of us realize, it's your family that provides the support to withstand such inanities. Like you, I am happily married. My wife of 22 years is successfully teaching French in a Baltimore County middle school serving a mix of white, black, and Asian students. My daughter is graduating this year from Princeton with a major in East Asian studies and will probably obtain a scholarship to go to Japan to continue her studies. We have twin sons who are sophomores in college. Tom is at Brown studying Russian and international commerce and Paul is at MIT studying economics and urban studies. Our last child is entering college this year and will choose from among MIT and other schools. She is also interested in Russian studies already having taken, like her brother and sister before her, 5 years of Russian.

I have been teaching medical ethics at the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine for the past 6-7 years and have directed for the past 11 years, an Office of Medical Practice Evaluation aimed at trying to improve patient care and decrease costs. I am very concerned about the state of our profession and of the American society. I hope that they both can withstand the major challenges they face. The drug epidemic and associated violence are tearing up both poor and affluent neighborhoods. In a pluralistic society groping for shared values, it threatens to erode our very fiber. The full force of the AIDS epidemic is yet to be felt on the health care system, insurance industry and other societal institutions. The health care system is reeling from cost containment initiatives. The professions of nursing, medicine and law are in some disarray. The infrastructure of our cities and even of the American heartland need considerable attention. We have a major budget deficit and extraordinarily difficult problems abroad in Latin America, the Middle East, Africa, and Asia. In short, there's plenty to do. Meanwhile, as you have

Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

On behalf of the Governor's Planning Council on Developmental Disabilities, we wish express our opposition to the appointment of Dr. Robert Davila to the position of Assistant Secretary of Special Education and Rehabilitation Services in the Department of Education. We represent twenty-seven Council members from several state agencies and approximately 67,000 individuals with developmental disabilities and their families in Minnesota.

Although it is clear that Dr. Davila is capable in the field of deafness, we are primarily concerned about Dr. Davila's ability to relate to the wide range of other disabilities that are addressed by the fields of rehabilitation and special education. We are particularly concerned about Dr. Davila's basic position regarding the effort to place children in educational settings which are the least restrictive environment (LRE).

When you were Governor in New Hampshire, you were nationally recognized as a leader in integration.

We urgently request that a candidate who is capable of and committed to furthering the quality of programs serving all persons with disabilities be selected as Assistant Secretary.

Cordially,

Roger Deneen

We are strongly opposed to the nomination of Richard Armitage to the post of Secretary of the Army.

Comments reaching us from our members and readers reflect grave concern that Mr. Armitage's appointment will result in the erosion of leadership and diminished morale within the Army.

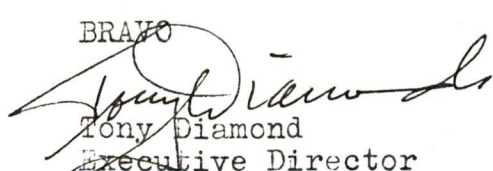

Firstly, Mr. Armitage is a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy. Certainly there are many West Point graduates capable of filling the assignment. What self-respecting sailor would want to run the Army?

Second and most important, the unresolved allegations of his involvement in drug trafficking from Southeast Asia and his involvement in the Iran-Contra matter cause us to render a vote of "no confidence" in Mr. Armitage. On his behalf, we urge that these charges be publicly investigated to permit Mr. Armitage to clean the slate.

As veterans we have all taken an oath to "preserve and protect the Constitution of the United States", so it is in that context that we have taken this action.

Respectfully,

BRAVO

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave. N. W.
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

Your commitment to public service and to the issues affecting our country, and our youth in particular, has moved the Board of Directors of The Washington Center to recognize your outstanding contributions by inviting you to be our special guest of honor and to deliver the keynote address at this year's gala to be held on Tuesday, May 9, at the Corcoran Gallery of Art in Washington, D. C.

In its fourteen year history, the Washington Center has developed into the largest independent, nonprofit education organization that enables students to earn college credit for internships and academic seminars in the nation's Capital. Over 14,000 students, representing 700 colleges and universities have participated in the Center's Internship and Academic Programs.

The Washington Center established the Honor Roll as an annual event in 1987 to recognize individuals and institutions in business, education and public service who have been most instrumental in contributing to the education of the youth of our country. Proceeds from the event are used to advance the center's internship and seminar programs. This year's event is sponsored by RJR Nabisco.

Governor Sununu, I hope you will honor us by attending the 1989 Honor Roll. We believe that your participation will reinforce The Washington Center's fourteen year mission to encourage more of our nation's young people to become involved in public service.

Sincerely,

Rose Ann Domenici

Dear John:

Now that you're settled into the White House and everything is running smoothly, I want to give you the opportunity, at least for an evening, to be an engineer once again.

A good friend of mine, a former Republican colleague in the Delaware legislature, has extended an invitation for you to address the annual Engineers Banquet in Delaware next February. As both a Congressman and Governor, I spoke to this group and can attest both to its quality and to the enthusiasm and high turnout it will produce.

You are something of a hero to all of us technocrats and the engineers of Delaware would be delighted if you would apply a little of your good humor and common sense to the problems of the nation for our benefit.

I very much hope that you will plan to join us. If I can supply any further information, I would be happy to do so.

In the meantime, keep giving 'em hell. You're doing good.

Best regards,

Dear Governor Sununu:

I wanted to follow up on my previous letter concerning Dr. Alan Heslop, candidate for Director of the Bureau of the Census. As you know, I believe Alan would easily be confirmed by the U.S. Senate and I wanted to outline some specific points which might be of use to you in this regard.

Alan has the open and vociferous support of top minority group leaders -- NAACP, MALDEF, LULAC, MAPA, etc. The biggest controversies over today's Census involve exactly such minorities. He has run a non-partisan research center since 1973. Even when it handled such intensely partisan issues as redistricting, Alan maintained his scholarly reputation and the non-partisan image of the Institute.

Alan's professional background in demography and census materials (his most recent publication being an Atlas of California's Latinos) will counter any charges that he is being nominated for merely partisan or political considerations. Alan has a Ph.D and is a well-known professor: the academic credits protect him from charges of partisanship.

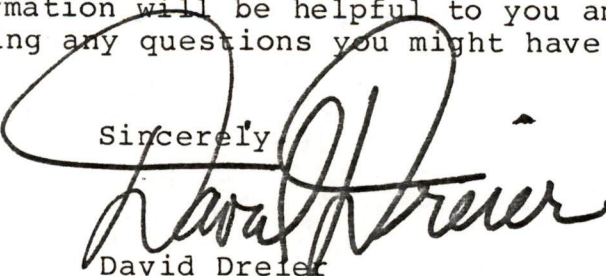

In addition, Alan has excellent relations with many top California Democrat donors (many of whom give money at a national level) and has effective working relations with many elected Democrats. In fact, Senator Cranston has indicated that he would be pleased to introduce Alan to the Government Affairs confirmation hearing.

Also, I have concerns about reports which are circulating here in Washington that there are candidates for the Census who are associated with campaign and polling firms. Democrats who have come up against these organizations could easily make trouble, directly or indirectly, in the process. I believe that candidates with ties to major Republican politicians would make an inviting target for the Democrats in the confirmation process, opening up the possibility of embarrassment to the President.

I hope this additional information will be helpful to you and trust you will call on me regarding any questions you might have regarding Dr. Heslop.

Sincerely

David Dreier
Member of Congress

Dear John,

Just a note to let you know it was special to meet you in the Grand Hyatt Lobby. You are looking very well. The high power of D.C. seems to be a plus for you.

My friend Bernice Harper from H.C.F.A. was delighted to make your acquaintance.

Whenever we leave to go to Washington our staff always jokes "Say hello to John". How fortunate I was to have had the opportunity.

Susie and I are having a small dinner at our home on Saturday, April 15th at 7:00 p.m., including Maureen and Nino Scalia, Leslie (Barr) and Richard Perle, and perhaps one other couple. We would love to have you join us, and your wife if she is in town. (We mailed you an invitation a few weeks ago but it may have gotten lost in the shuffle.)

Please let me know at some point whether or not you can come by having your secretary call me at 862-5895. This is all very informal and if your schedule is uncertain we're happy to wait and see.

With best wishes,

Yours cordially,

Opera Ball

March 29, 1989

The Honorable
The Chief of Staff to the President and Mrs. Sununu
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor and Mrs. Sununu:

On Friday, June 16, the annual Opera Ball will be held at "Villa Firenze" under the patronage of The Ambassador of Italy and Mrs. Petrignani.

The Opera Ball is not only the major fundraiser for The Washington Opera, but also an elegant and most entertaining evening. Small dinners at many different embassies precede the Ball.

We would very much like to have you join our Honorary committee and attend an embassy dinner and the Ball as our special guests.

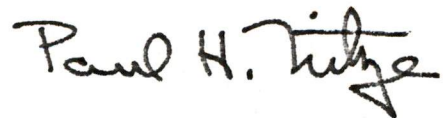

Please let us know if you can join us for the evening of June 16th by filling in the enclosed response card. Should you have further questions, feel free to call The Washington Opera office at 822-4744.

We look forward to seeing you on June 16th.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Charles J. DiBona

I would urge you to oppose efforts to ban so-called assault weapons. If the problem is that such weapons have more shots

The clips can be modified so that only five shots can be fired at a time which is all that is legal for hunting,

CITIZENS FOR AMERICA

March 24, 1989

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Attention: Ms. Jackie Kennedy

Dear John:

Thank you for taking the time to meet with me about beginning a relationship between the Bush Administration and Citizens for America. I very much appreciated the opportunity to outline CFA's plans, under our Honorary Chairman Ronald Reagan, to pursue long-term structural reforms of government (including your suggestion for enhanced recision authority), and to offer our assistance in lobbying for President Bush's conservative agenda.

You suggested that I write to you specifying what actions by the White House would be helpful to Citizens for America in assisting the Bush program. The following four items would be most important:

- (1) During the Reagan Administration, CFA had one Fall luncheon with the President, restricted to one hundred individuals in the East Room, preceded by a briefing by Cabinet officials for CFA's top supporters in the Indian Treaty Room. The second event, held six months later, consisted of an East Room briefing and a drop-by appearance by the President. We realize that CFA had a special relationship with President Reagan, as his official grassroots lobby, but a continued White House relationship would build a bond between the Administration and the grassroots which would be helpful to the success of the Bush Presidency.
- (2) For CFA to be effective for the Bush Administration, forums for Administration speakers should be created to spread the Administration's viewpoints across the nation. It would be helpful, therefore, if the White House would request that the Vice President, Cabinet and Sub-cabinet members, and other top assistants to the President, occasionally make themselves available for CFA events.

The Honorable John H. Sununu

March 24, 1989

- (3) It would be very helpful for CFA to have a letter from President Bush addressed to me as chairman, thanking CFA for its help during the Reagan-Bush Administration and looking forward to our relationship under his own Administration.
- (4) For CFA to publicize Administration activities, it needs to receive all regular communications, issue papers, budget briefings, etc., from the Bush Administration as it did during the previous one. It is also necessary that CFA have access to pictures of the President and his Cabinet for its publications.

Whatever you can do on these items would be appreciated. Each would enhance your efforts to sell your initiatives to the grassroots and for them to inform their Congressmen.

Thank you for your offer to tell Roger Porter I will be calling regarding policy coordination, and for your willingness for me to call you next week about key Bush supporters becoming active with CFA.

Best of luck to you and President Bush. You say yours is an easy job, but I know it is tough. Don't let the bad guys get you down.

Sincerely,

Donald Devine
Chairman

WASHINGTON STATE REPUBLICAN PARTY

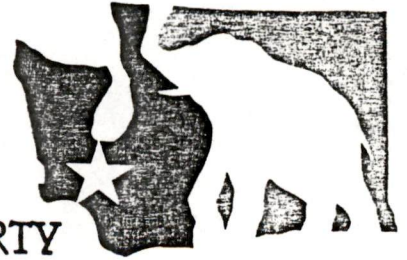

Jennifer B. Dunn
Chairman

March 23, 1989

The President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

On behalf of the people of the State of Washington, I am extending to you an invitation to be guest speaker at the Washington State Republican Party's 12th Annual Fall Dinner on October 13, 1989.

You have been our guest speaker at this event in the past and you may recall that this function is our major fundraising effort of the year. With your presence we believe we can turn out 1,000 Republicans to raise funds to help in such critical races as the 1990 Third Congressional race. In 1988 we came within 600 votes of winning the election in this southwestern Washington Democratic stronghold.

I have just learned that you have agreed to be the banquet speaker on October 14 in Salt Lake City at the Western States Conference. It would appear to me that the combination of the Western States Conference speech and your appearance at the Washington State Party's Fall Dinner would be an appropriate focus for your attention.

I hope you will consider arranging your schedule to include a stop in Washington State and I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Jennifer B. Dunn

Dear John:

I am writing to express my strong support for the appointment of George B. Rathmann, Ph.D., as Assistant to the President for Science and Technology. I believe that Dr. Rathmann's knowledge, experience, and success in science and business uniquely qualify him to serve the President and our national interest in this key position.

President Bush has correctly stated that, in an increasingly competitive world market, we need to revitalize our technological position - and Dr. Rathmann has the vision and drive to achieve this important goal. After managing research and development in such major companies as 3M Corporation, Litton Industries, and Abbott Laboratories, Dr. Rathmann founded a new company, Amgen, Inc., in October, 1980, that has since become the third largest biotechnology firm in the United States.

I am confident that Dr. Rathmann's proven ability and determination would make him an outstanding Assistant to the President for Science and Technology and am pleased to have the opportunity to recommend him.

Sincerely,

BOB DOLE

Dear Mr. Chief of Staff:

Please accept the 1988 Annual Report of the Chicago Board of Trade (CBOT) with our compliments.

This year, we celebrated the 140th anniversary of the CBOT. We are proud that our Exchange was the first to provide risk-management services for investors around the world.

Throughout its history, the CBOT has consistently proven to be the world leader, providing liquid markets where investors can obtain the best price at the lowest cost with the highest degree of integrity. Our record performance during the past year reinforces our commitment to provide these services along with the innovations necessary to effectively compete in the international marketplace.

In 1988, the CBOT set its 20th annual volume record in the past 21 years, registering a trading volume of 143 million contracts. This demonstration of customer support of our markets has not only continued to make the CBOT the largest exchange in the world, but larger than the next four domestic exchanges combined. In addition, 1988 witnessed the further success of the CBOT's evening trading session as total volume for the session grew to 5.8 million contracts.

The 1988 Annual Report highlights these accomplishments and others, providing a pictorial history of the Exchange. This report underscores the Chicago Board of Trade's commitment to compete, and to lead, as the futures industry continues to grow from its origins as a small forward contract market 140 years ago to the global marketplace it is today.

Sincerely,

Thomas R. Donovan

Dear Mr. Sununu:

The dinner in your honor last Saturday at the Sheraton-Washington was most enjoyable. The tribute your friends and admirers paid you was well deserved. The high esteem in which you are held and the affection felt toward you are obvious.

You may recall that I have written you before about the serious situation regarding the nation's health problems. I mention it again because they are escalating into a crisis as self-interested groups offer fragmented, and often irrational, proposals. As you know, health is now a $500 billion industry and deserves serious study and a sound, coherent policy. As you also know, the Administration is being criticized by some prominent people and organizations, including the American Medical Association, as having acceded to those who have taken advantage of the confusion by proposing hurried, ad hoc solutions.

One way to quiet the criticism is to appoint the Presidential Commission of distinguished experts in the health field, which I have recommended before, to do a thorough examination of all facets of the health industry and, on the basis of factual information gathered, to recommend rational and realistic solutions. I sincerely hope that you and President Bush will give serious consideration to my suggestion, for I believe that without it, the Administration will continue to be bombarded with ill-conceived health proposals and will be pressured to make fragmentary decisions that will provoke further criticism.

I will be glad to suggest qualified people for the Commission and to help in any other way I can with this important national issue.

Sincerely,

Michael E. DeBakey, M. D.

The White House

Dear Mr. Sununu:

We are writing to request your assistance in identifying Bush Administration witnesses for our upcoming hearing on the working poor. The hearing will be held on Wednesday, April 5, 1989 beginning at 10:00 a.m. in room B-318 Rayburn House Office Building.

After all our work last year on welfare reform many of us became concerned about a group of families who are poor yet receive little government assistance. They are the working poor. In some 2 million of these households, someone is working full-time, all year and yet the family is still poor. Despite playing by all the rules, these families qualify for almost no Federal help. For them, work simply doesn't pay.

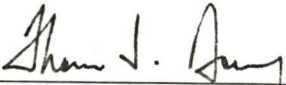

Proposals to help the working poor vary. They include expansion of the earned income tax credit with adjustments for family size, altering and making refundable the dependent care credit and expanding the Title XX social services block grant to assist working poor families with their child care expenses. A number of bills have been introduced in this Congress, including the Downey bill, H.R. 882, the Employment Incentives Act, and the Bush Administration bill, S.601.

At its first hearing on this subject, the Subcommittee heard testimony about H.R. 882 as well other bills, including Mr. Petri's legislation on the same subject. On Tuesday, March 21, the Subcommittee will hold its second session on the problems of the working poor, this time with testimony from public witnesses. We'd like to devote the entire April 5 hearing to testimony by the Bush Administration and have held off extending an invitation before now to give the President time to get all the key players in place.

Dear Mr. Sununu,

I am aware that as many as three new commissioners will be appointed at the Federal Communications Commission this year. In light of the increasing profanity, violence, and sexual immorality now pervading television and radio, I see the need to fill these positions with individuals who will stand firm in enforcing current decency laws and who will work to reverse this trend toward more explicit programming. I wish to lend my endorsement to three individuals who have already been brought to the attention of Mr. Chase Untermeyer, Director of Presidential Personnel. They are Colby M. May, John Richard Price, and Jack D. Smith, Jr. Each of these men have both the professional qualifications and the personal values that I believe would bring renewed vigor to the F.C.C.

Thank you for your consideration of these recommendations as you go about the task of appointing new commissioners.

Sincerely,

The Honorable
John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

I appreciated the opportunity to meet with you on July 28th and thank you for your offer to consider our expanded comments on the alternative fuels provisions of the Administration's Clean Air bill. The petroleum industry supports the objectives of the President, as articulated on June 12th, and shares his commitment to a cleaner environment. In particular, we support his commitment to providing maximum flexibility to both fuel and vehicle manufacturers and his emphasis on harnessing the power of the marketplace. We believe it is in our best interest, as well as the country's, for the Administration bill to be the vehicle in Congress for new clean air legislation. However, we believe that the legislation as introduced is not completely consistent with the President's June 12 statements.

You asked us to identify the specific detailed changes that are necessary to level the playing field among the various alternative fuels, including reformulated gasoline. This letter delineates those changes. While we believe these changes would ensure greater equity among fuels within the context of the Administration's bill, we continue to believe that the best way to properly test methanol, reformulated gasoline and other alternative fuels is to establish a substantial research and demonstration program. Such a program will yield far better data than will exist even after the research and testing program called for in the Administration's proposal. This data would ensure that the wisest strategy was chosen for improving air quality in a cost-effective manner.

We are concerned about whether the legislation would permit fair competition among all alternative fuels. We believe it does not achieve this goal in its present form.

In our meeting, you correctly observed that our specific concerns focus on whether alternative fuel regulations will be developed and implemented in a fair and equitable manner. Having worked with a good many Administrations, we are acutely aware that circumstances and people change in the Executive Branch.

Therefore, to ensure a consistent interpretation of the President's program, we believe the legislation establishing it should include explicit criteria to be considered in developing fuel and vehicle standards and program implementation requirements. Provisions for formal rulemaking procedures also are needed to assure that those with legitimate interests will be allowed to participate in the program's development. Thus, while we were pleased to see the inclusion of "reformulated gasoline" in the bill, we believe this language itself is not enough to achieve the President's objectives.

We are working with the automobile industry to try to jointly develop specific legislative language to amend certain sections of the bill regarding alternative fuel systems. The changes will be consistent with the President's objectives. By establishing a process in which appropriate criteria and public views are considered, these changes will strengthen the bill and provide the basis for choosing the most cost-effective approach to improving our air quality. We hope to provide you with additional details on those areas of concern to both of our industries.

Although it is of primary importance, we do not want to imply that the alternative fuel system section is the only section of concern to us. We anticipate offering additional comments on other sections at a later date, but want to use this letter to highlight our concerns regarding the alternative fuel system provisions.

Principles for a Level Playing Field

There are four principles which underlie our proposed changes. Inclusion of these principles in the legislation will help ensure that all fuels are treated equitably:

- 1) Adequate time must be provided to evaluate all alternative fuel/vehicle systems, including reformulated gasoline and methanol.
- 2) Precise criteria which do not discriminate between fuels should be established for assessing alternative fuels, including consideration of the impact of each on health and safety, the economy, and energy security, as well as their cost effectiveness and their impact on air quality. Any regulation utilizing these criteria should be issued only following a formal hearing process.
- 3) The Department of Energy (DOE) and the Department of Transportation (DOT) should be full partners with EPA in evaluating and developing the alternative fuels program.
- 4) All competitors who manufacture vehicles or supply or market fuels should be treated equally.

Adequate Time Must Be Provided

As you know, the current bill requires performance standards to be promulgated within 12 months of enactment and initial program requirements within 18 months of enactment. This is clearly insufficient time to evaluate fully all alternative fuel/vehicle systems, especially as reformulated gasoline still must be developed and tested. Instead, we propose a research and testing program to assess all candidate systems and a formal rulemaking process to promulgate the performance standards and program requirements. We urge that the testing program be conducted in conjunction with the National Research Council. Only when these results are available can sensible and realistic performance standards be set.

In order to provide adequate time to evaluate these systems, the President's program should be revised to require proposed performance standards to be issued within 24 months of enactment with final standards to be issued 6 months thereafter. Program implementation requirements would be proposed 18 months after the final performance standards and the program requirements would be finalized 6 months thereafter. This process would take about four and one-half years, but there still should be time to implement the President's program beginning with 1997 model year vehicles.

The President's program already envisions a possible two-year extension in the final implementation date if the EPA Administrator determines such additional time is appropriate. We believe that the additional time is necessary and our proposed changes take advantage of it to ensure a full assessment of these systems and to prevent a costly and unwise decision based on speculation and not evidence. This is not inconsistent with the President's intent.

Fair Criteria for Evaluation of Alternative Fuel/Vehicle Systems

As noted above, in order to ensure a full and fair assessment of all alternative fuel/vehicle systems, two formal rulemakings should be conducted. We propose that explicit criteria be established for reevaluating these fuels and vehicles in each of these rulemakings.

In setting emissions performance standards which alternative fuel/vehicle systems would have to meet, the following criteria must be considered: cost-effectiveness of various alternative fuel/vehicle systems in reducing ozone-producing and air toxic emissions in actual vehicle use; health and safety impacts; global warming impacts and energy security concerns. A formal rulemaking procedure should be followed and a public hearing held before these performance standards are finalized.

Next, when the specific program implementation requirements are developed, even more detailed criteria must be applied, including: fuel and vehicle cost and availability; consumer costs and potential for consumer acceptance; consideration of all known environmental costs and benefits; economic practicality and impact on the U.S. economy and balance of payments; results from any ongoing alternative fuel/vehicle demonstration programs; energy security; and health and safety impacts. In addition, implementation problems should be considered, such as vehicle misfueling; adequate vehicle maintenance; fuel contamination; as well as how to assure that any supply requirements are applied equitably to all fuel suppliers/marketers and vehicle manufacturers. Again, a formal rulemaking procedure should be followed and a public hearing held before the program requirements are finalized.

Explicit criteria such as these are necessary to ensure a full and fair assessment of all alternative fuel/vehicle systems and to ensure a consistent interpretation of the President's program over time. Therefore, this change is not inconsistent with the President's intent.

DOE/DOT Role

Due to critical issues inherent in any alternative fuel/vehicle program regarding energy security, transportation and safety concerns, DOE and DOT should be full partners with EPA in developing and implementing the President's program. To this end, we propose that a board be established composed of the Secretaries of Energy and Transportation and the EPA Administrator to develop the performance standards and program implementation requirements provided for in this legislation. DOE, DOT and EPA also would jointly administer the research and test program that we believe is necessary to gather further data and experience with these fuels and vehicles. Again, this change is not inconsistent with the President's intent.

Equitable Treatment for Competitors

A section of the bill as currently drafted permits the exemption of service stations with sales of less than 50,000 gallons-a-month from the requirement to dispense alternative fuel(s). If the fuel chosen is more costly than regularly-available gasoline, not only will price subsidies and a massive government auditing and control system have to be put in place, but because all fuel suppliers and marketers are not required to comply with all requirements, tremendous competitive advantages will be created for some. This exemption must be removed as it is clearly inconsistent with the President's intent as well as his long held commitment to regulatory reform.

Other Programs To Be Considered

In addition to the demonstration program, there are other programs which should be considered, including:

- an accelerated retirement program for older vehicles;
- an enhanced inspection and maintenance programs; and
- development of better air quality models and improved emissions inventories.

John H. Sununu
August 28, 1989

These programs will result in air quality improvements and better data for evaluating the cost-effectiveness of other programs.

The petroleum industry shares the President's commitment to cleaner air as well as his preference for relying on market-based solutions. We believe our proposed changes are consistent with the spirit of the President's program. We appreciate your willingness to listen to our reasons for these changes, which we hope you will find constructive.

Reps. Dingell and Lent of the House Energy and Commerce Committee have asked that I provide them with a copy of this response to you and I am doing so. Also, I think it would be helpful for others working the problem within the Administration to be familiar with our views and, unless you direct otherwise, I will send copies to Messrs. Boskin, Reilly, Skinner and Watkins.

Sincerely,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

August 28, 1989

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor:

I had the great privilege of being with the President on July 25th when he signed into law the Decade of the Brain Resolution, which, when implemented over the forthcoming decade, will enable neuroscience research to push back the frontiers of the unknown against such terrible diseases as schizophrenia, Parkinson's disease, manic-depressive disease, and epilepsy. Those of us in the Oval Office that day briefly discussed with the President an additional step he might take which would add enormous impetus to this enterprise. It was suggested that the President and Mrs. Bush hold a candlelight ceremony in the Rose Garden at the time he signed the declarations for the Decade of the Brain and Mental Illness Awareness Week Resolution, which was also signed into law by the President on August 14th.

I cannot imagine a more timely and significant move the President could make at this time to draw attention to neuroscience research opportunities and their clinical applications which offer so much hope and encouragement to millions of our citizens who are struck down by mental illness or serious neurological disease.

Governor, I would be deeply appreciative of anything you can do to make this idea become a reality.

Very warmest regards. I look forward to seeing you soon.

Your friend,

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear John:

The support that the President and the First Lady have always given to disabled Americans is well known. It goes from the support of the government and private programs to the highlighting of significant events which demonstrates the abilities of handicapped Americans.

A great opportunity presents itself in the form of the U.S. Disabled Rowing Team's Freedom Row '89 and historic eight-day voyage by five disabled rowers pitted against the Hudson River. The rowing by the outstanding four man and one woman team begins in Albany September 6th continuing with stopovers, including West Point Academy, ending in New York on September 14.

It would be a real cue and a real show of support if the President or First Lady could call the participants at some point during the trip or receive them at the White House for a brief ceremony after its conclusion.

Again, John, this would provide a nice "defining moment" of Presidential support and empathy for those who have overcome the limitations of a disability. If something can be worked out please contact Mr. Robert Bulick of Northstar Bank in Upstate New York at 518/447-4159.

Thank you for what you can do personally to make this happen and for your many courtesies and considerations.

Sincerely,

Alfonse D'Amato

Dear John:

By now, you have probably spent a lot of your time thinking about how to deal with the most politically divisive issue to come along since the Vietnam War - abortion. It comes to center stage because of both the incredible emotion and phenomenal media attention that it generates.

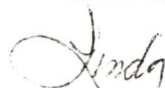

This issue is one that candidates and incumbents alike will most certainly have to address during the 1990 election cycle. We hope this information is helpful in your efforts to bolster GOP success at all levels.

I have attached a summary of a question we posed to the public asking what advice they would give to their state legislator when discussing this issue. The rhetoric given to this open-ended question underscores the intense emotional feelings the public holds on this issue.

As the only female political pollster on either side of the aisle, I think that we bring certain sensitivities to analyzing this issue on behalf of our clients. Since the Supreme Court's decision, I have met and discussed this volatile issue with our nation's Republican Governors, and been interviewed by CBS News, NBC News, "The National Journal" and many other publications. I am also enclosing a reprint of a recent article in "The National Journal" on the issue of abortion, for your information.

If you are interested in discussing this further, please give me a call at your convenience.

Sincerely,

*Linda DiVall
President*

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

On behalf of the Legal Services Reform Coalition, of which the Farm Bureau is a founding member, I request that you delay announcing any nominees for the Legal Services Board of Directors until you have the opportunity to meet with representatives of the Coalition.

The request for such a meeting has been made and efforts are underway to find a mutually agreeable time for the appointment.

Farm Bureau is committed to reform of the present federal legal services system. We believe it's time to return the federal program to delivery of day-to-day legal services for poor clients and eliminate the liberal philosophical orientation of many LSC grantees' agendas.

Therefore, it is vitally important that the White House speak with the Legal Services Reform Coalition. The Coalition is composed of a broad spectrum of conservative and agricultural organizations with the mutual goal of reform of the current LSC. A copy of our mission statement is attached for your information.

Thank you for your cooperation and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

John C. Datt

Governor's Residence

August 11, 1989

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear John:

I am writing to recommend Elinor J. Clapp, the Republican National Committeewoman from Rhode Island, for appointment to a Commission or a Presidential Board. As her enclosed resume indicates, she is a highly competent and experienced woman in many areas, and a Republican who has served on the local, state, regional, and national levels with great distinction.

Elinor has already been in contact with Chase Untermeyer and with Ron Kaufman regarding such an appointment, and it has been suggested that my writing to you should be added to her files. Work with the White House Scholars, the Fellowship Program, or the Board of Foreign Scholarships have already been mentioned as areas that would utilize her talents and her interests. This would focus her more in Washington, where her husband, the Honorable Charles E. Clapp II, is a judge on the United States Tax Court.

I would truly appreciate whatever you might do in this regard on behalf of this exceptional woman who has and continues to serve the Republican efforts with tireless energy and outstanding competence.

Sincerely,

Edward D. DiPrete
Governor

Dear Mr. Sununu:

On behalf of the 400,000 members of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, I wish to thank you for your commitment to passing the Americans with Disabilities Act. The recent passage of the bill by the Senate Committee on Labor and Human Resources marks the beginning of a new level of awareness of and participation by people with disabilities.

Eliminating employment discrimination, providing access to transportation and for public accommodation is the Society's top legislative priority. The National Multiple Sclerosis Society and its 140 local chapters and branches are very appreciative of your efforts to develop compromise provisions for the bill.

It is with your continued support that we can assure that all physical and psychological barriers imposed upon people with disabilities are systematically removed.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear John:

As the President and Bill Bennett draft the final details of the National Drug Control Strategy, I would like to take this opportunity to suggest that the President recommend the creation of a new "Committee on National Drug Control Policy" in Congress.

Under my proposal, all legislation relating to the manufacture, distribution, or use of illegal narcotics would be referred to the Committee on National Drug Control Policy. The Committee would also be granted exclusive authority to receive the testimony of the Director of National Drug Control Strategy.

Let me briefly explain why I believe the creation of a Committee on National Drug Control Policy is necessary: According to the Congressional Research Service, 54 House committees and subcommittees and 21 Senate committees and subcommittees have jurisdiction over some portion of the Federal government's fight against drug abuse. While the number of committees and subcommittees with jurisdiction over drug-related issues may indicate Congress' commitment to find real answers to the drug problem, it also highlights the pressing need to coordinate the activities of Congress in this area. Creation of a Committee on National Drug Control Policy would also help to relieve the enormous time demands placed on the Director of Drug Control Strategy, who conceivably could be called to testify before every Congressional committee and subcommittee that claims jurisdiction over drug-related issues.

I have attached for your review a copy of a brief statement elaborating on the points that I have made in this letter. I have also attached three Senate resolutions that outline alternative membership structures for the Committee.

If you or your staff have any questions about my proposal, please contact Jim Whittinghill of my office. I appreciate your consideration.

Sincerely,

BOB DOLE

Mr. John Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
New Executive Office Bldg. Room G-1
725 17th Street, NW
Washington, DC

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Now that the President has introduced his Clean Air bill, we wanted to take the opportunity to thank you for the cooperation you showed us in entertaining, and, in many cases adopting, the suggestions we shared with you concerning the acid rain provisions of the bill. It was a privilege to work with so many people who are so deeply committed to the intellectual soundness of a policy initiative.

As we hope you know from the public statements we have made, we are ecstatic that Title V of the President's bill includes four elements that we believe are key to a successful acid rain program: 1) a commitment to a 10-million-ton reduction goal for sulfur dioxide emissions below 1980 levels; 2) a cap on total emissions once the reductions are achieved; 3) highly credible and automatic penalties for sources that do not comply with their emissions reduction obligations and 4) full flexibility, including emissions reduction trading, for sources.

We realize that the President had to make difficult political decisions when he chose to include each of these elements in his acid rain initiative. Accordingly, we salute him for the commitment to environmental protection and to innovation that these provisions represent -- and for surrounding himself with a high-caliber Clean Air team.

Finally, the Administration's dedication to leading a constructive process for enacting Clean Air legislation was no more obvious than in the meeting with environmentalists held last week in the Roosevelt Room of the White House. Such dialogues are, we believe, vital, since they will allow the environmental community not only to air complaints, but also to explore with you the considerable merits of the President's initiative.

Thank you again for permitting us to provide some help in formulating the acid rain initiative. We would welcome the opportunity to provide assistance in efforts to enact strong, innovative acid rain legislation.

COUNCIL ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

KEMPTON DUNN
Director
Membership Affairs &
International Affairs Fellowship Program

August 9, 1989

Hon. John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave., N.W.
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

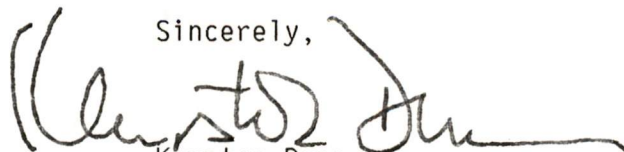

We are pleased to announce the International Affairs Fellowship competition for 1990-91. The Program seeks to nourish the relationship between scholarship and stewardship in international affairs by facilitating active policy involvement for scholars and analysts and reflective policy analysis for those in more active roles. As in the past, the Council will offer a number of grants to candidates between the ages of twenty-seven and thirty-five (with an extension of the age ceiling under special circumstances) from government, academic life, business and the professions.

If you know of any exceptional man or woman who might be a suitable nominee for the Program, we would be very pleased to have your suggestions. We need to know the name, age, and address of your candidate, and we would appreciate a brief description of his or her background together with the reasons for your recommendation. You need not go into great detail since we will request a full curriculum vitae from each person we invite to apply for the competition.

We are especially interested in two types of candidates: (1) promising people in public service who have displayed notable intellectual gifts and whose professional growth would benefit from a period of reflection and writing about an important contemporary issue in international relations; and (2) those now in private life whose professional development and potential contributions to foreign policy would particularly benefit from a period of active public service. Thanks to a recent supplementary grant from the Ford Foundation, the program is particularly eager to attract candidates with Ph.D.s in economics who are interested in spending their fellowship tenures in government.

We plan to extend our invitations promptly, so nominations should be submitted as soon as possible, in any case no later than September 15, 1988. I hope we shall be hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Kempton Dunn
