Dear Mr. Sununu,

On behalf of the Board of Directors and the members of the Horatio Alger Association, I request your assistance in scheduling the President of the United States to attend the 1989 Horatio Alger National Youth Seminar.

Mr. John Rollins, Chairman of the Horatio Alger Association, recommended that we contact you to schedule this truly unique opportunity for both the students and the President. This program is designed to pay tribute to outstanding young Americans who have overcome adversity throughout their secondary education in order to look forward to promising college and professional careers.

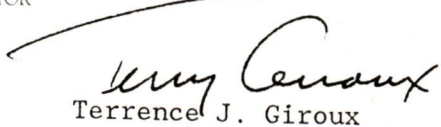

Enclosed is a copy of correspondence which has been forwarded to Mr. Donald Rhodes. Specific information about the program as well as logistical considerations are outlined in this correspondence. We appreciate any further assistance you may provide in scheduling the President's attendance.

The most recent issue of the Association's publications the "Executive Forum" and Only in America Opportunity Still Knocks are enclosed for your review. These publications outline many of the Association's goals while highlighting some of our recent events and providing a brief overview of our membership.

If you have any questions or comments, please feel free to contact me at 684-9444. We certainly hope that the President is available to meet with these outstanding young Americans and look forward to hearing from you soon.

With every good wish,

Sincerely,

Terrence J. Giroux

Dear John:

My son Maco is the most "JIBARO" of my children but with a name like Charles Garity needs all the help he can get in applying for a Hispanic job with the Deputy Director of Outreach Communications at the Republican National Committee.

Maco, at Pete Connell's suggestion, called your office yesterday. Along with being ambitious and Republican, he expects to graduate with honors from St. Joseph's in Philadelphia next month and has already interviewed for the job.

Brother Joseph in his annual visits accompanied by Brother Francis and Coach Dudack would always keep us abreast of your achievements and I have to admit that in recent months' I have mentioned our La Salle association once or twice. I hope that the past will stretch far enough to cover this request.

Best wishes, John, to you and your family and may Maco start now to prepare to work for you in your future campaigns.

Sincerely,

Thomas Garity

Dear Governor Sununu:

On behalf of our 250,000 grass-roots members and as a member-organization of COFIRE, the Coalition for Fiscal Restraint, I would like to offer our support for the administration's resolve to fight a tax increase.

The administration has reportedly come under pressure during the budget negotiations to raise taxes by $5 billion to $6 billion next year. We agree with President Bush that taxes must not rise. A plan to raise $5 billion in new revenue through "loop hole closers" and other euphemisms would constitute a tax increase, and is not acceptable. Such a move would also set the stage for a bigger tax increase next year.

The members of Citizens for a Sound Economy, along with the other COFIRE member-organizations, stand behind your efforts. We offer our continued support to resist tax increases in this year's budget negotiations.

Sincerely,

Wayne Gable

My dear Governor:

It was a pleasure sitting at the table you hosted at the Mubarak dinner at the White House on Tuesday night.

The pleasure had a touch of frustration because you were so far away I could not have a conversation with you to talk about your predecessor, New Hampshire Chief-of-Staff Sherman Adams.

I worked for Governor Adams, first in charge of Presidential Personnel, then as Appointment Secretary to the President and finally as Secretary of the Cabinet.

Someday I hope you will have time to let me tell you some of the things which I think made him effective. Till then, I will wish you all the best.

Dear John,

Delighted to read the Washington Times "Inside The Beltway" article indicating your soon location to the lovely community of Oakton.

Judy and I bought a home there in 1987 when I officially relocated from California. I think you will enjoy being there. Hopefully the proximity will give us some opportunities as families to spend some time together in our swimming pool.

Wish you much success in your new responsibilities.

Governor John Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

You are undoubtedly aware that Dr. B. Stanley Pons, a University of Utah scientist, and a British colleague, Martin Fleischmann, have pioneered a cold fusion experiment apparently producing significant amounts of energy. As you may also know, Texas A&M scientists recently held a press conference to indicate that they had duplicated the same excess heat experience and observed the same phenomenon, which they indicated cannot be explained by any known or conceivable chemical reaction. Researchers at Georgia Institute of Technology have since found similar results.

Dr. Pons and University of Utah President, Dr. Chase Peterson, have agreed to perform a demonstration for appropriate Congressional, Scientific and Administration leaders on Saturday, April 29, in Salt Lake City. On behalf of Governor Norman H. Bangerter, we join in inviting you to attend that briefing, along with one staff member. If you are unable to attend personally, we can accommodate a designee.

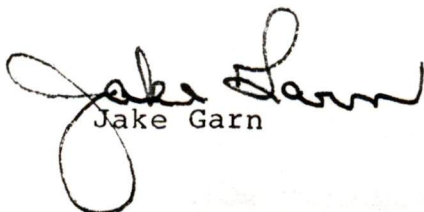

In addition, scientists at Brigham Young University have conducted similar experiments with cold fusion, and will be providing a briefing on their results before the delegation returns to Washington.

Tentative plans call for an Air Force aircraft to depart Andrews Air Force Base for Salt Lake City at 5:00 p.m. on Friday, April 28. We will meet for breakfast at 8:00 a.m. Saturday morning and the demonstration will begin at 9:00 a.m. Following lunch, the aircraft will return to Andrews Air Force Base. Further details will follow.

We anticipate a heavy response to this invitation and suggest that you call Alvina Wall in Senator Garn's office, at 45444 to reserve your place.

We look forward to hearing from you and to your participation in this vital demonstration.

Sincerely,

Jake Garn

The White House

Dear Governor Sununu,

The enclosed letter to Canadian Prime Minister Brian Mulroney was hand carried to him by the Hon. Alan Redway, Minister of Housing and a member of Parliament who asked him to read the entire package. It is my understanding that the Prime Minister will read every word. I think it is worth your time to read too. The Prime Minister is being asked to declare drunk driving a "National Crisis" in Canada. President Bush (see enclosed) has already said he agrees drunk driving is a "National Crisis" in the United States and has promised effective leadership. It is our hope that the President will make a public pronouncement by Mother's Day and will speak to our citizens on this important problem.

I am also enclosing some additional material on the drunk driving issue that will help our country come to grips with this terrible nightmare. The tanker captain who trashed Alaska shows the horror that one drunk driver can do, but much worse is done by drunk drivers every hour — they kill people and children.

Please Governor, will you help bring drunk driving under control in America?

Sincerely,

WE'RE ON THE MARCH!

Chief of Staff

1600 Pennsylvania Avenue N.W.
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Governor:

I hope this finds you well. It was a pleasure meeting you this week at the briefing for the Orthodox Jewish Political Coalition in the White House.

On their behalf I wish to express our sincere appreciation for taking the time from your busy schedule to meet with us and discuss the agenda and accomplishments of the Bush Administration.

Despite the tone of the April 5th ad in the New York Times by a very small group who represent only their own very left wing political views -- far out of the mainstream of the American and Jewish political spectrum, the American Jewish, but especially the Orthodox Jewish community is united in our support for the Government of Israel. The membership of our combined groups is well over one million. The Orthodox Union alone speaks for 1,000 member synagogues.

We are passionately interested in a true peace. The Egyptian Israeli accord leaves much to be desired. Primarily the lack of normalcy, tourism, and trade from the Egyptian side plus the virulent anti-Israeli and anti-Semitic articles in the Egyptian press are of great concern. It is unfortunate that President Mubarak did not see fit to accept the invitation of Prime Minister Shamir to meet face to face in Washington or New York. How can he be called a seeker of peace after snubbing peace in so demonstrative a fashion? The Administration should have pressed him on that specific point.

As noted by the questions at the briefing, our community is extremely upset by the continued U.S. - PLO dialogue. As one of our college students pointed out in his question, "let Mr. Arafat be forced to convene a special session of the Palestinian National Council for the purpose of obtaining the necessary 2/3 vote to amend the PLO covenant calling for the destruction of Israel." Then we would have a different atmosphere. At present the continued PLO terrorism, the persistent attacks on the peace process, the absence of recognition of Israel by members of the PLO and PNC as witnessed by their statements to the Arab world in Arabic and their failure to amend their Charter makes a mockery of Arafat's peaceful declarations made for U.S. television consumption.

Our community is extremely sensitive to the problems of international terrorism. We lost one of our most ardent workers when Joseph Miller of blessed memory, treasurer of the Orthodox Union, was killed on Pan Am flight 103. Since published reports seem to indicate a Palestinian source for the bombing we urge the Administration to punish with meaningful retribution the perpetrators and instigators of this travesty and to insure safety for all American citizens who travel.

After our meeting on Tuesday afternoon, several members of our group expressed vigorously to me some valid concerns we would hope the Administration will consider. Our community was very troubled by the meaning of three comments by the President: the need for Israel to "end the occupation;" the need to give the Palestinians their "legitimate political rights;" and that there was an "appropriate time" for an international peace conference.

As to the first item, Israel has always stood ready to negotiate and has always longed for a peaceful resolution to the administered territories from the day those territories were captured during the Six Day War in self-defense. We would hope that our government will exert its influence on the Arab countries, still in a state of war with Israel, and to encourage Palestinian leaders to translate their words of peace into actions of peace and refrain from acts of terror and war.

As to the second item, it simply is not in the interests of the United States, let alone Israel or Jordan for there to be an independent Palestinian State in the administered territories. That state would be "independent" of American influence and will fall prey to direct Soviet hegemony and indirect Soviet influence through its client state, Syria, in Syria's quest for an Empire incorporating those territories. A demilitarized Palestinian state in the territories would be a lamb sent to slaughter. A militarized Palestinian state in the territories would be unconscionable.

With respect to the last point, the President, throughout his campaign, rightly called for a resolution to the conflict between Israel and her neighbors through direct negotiations. When Israel -- through a Likud government -- and Egypt negotiated directly, with the help of the United States, Egypt obtained every single inch of territory it lost during the Six Day War and Israel returned 91% of the territory it obtained in that war. The formula of direct negotiations works far better than stop start, start stop diplomacy.

We support the call for free elections by Palestinians in Judea, Samaria and Gaza for the purpose of Israeli - Palestinian direct negotiations. Let's give the Arabs a whiff of real democracy. We oppose an international conference forced upon Israel against her wishes. China and the Soviet Union still do not recognize Israel and their role in selling silkworm missiles to Saudi Arabia and long range bombers to Libya respectively further dampen the peace process and create serious potential dangers to Israel's security.

We applaud the contribution of President Bush to the ongoing U.S. - Israel strategic relationship. We also deeply appreciate this Administration's continued emphasis on the right of Soviet Jews to emigrate and to develop cultural and religious freedom for Soviet Jews who choose to remain.

We appreciate the openness and clarity of your presentation and your kindness in addressing us.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Dr. Mandell I. Ganchrow

Dear Mr. Sununu,

As you know, the situation in Lebanon is grave, and the suffering of its people is mounting daily.

You are certainly aware of the concern of the Lebanese communities in the USA and all over the world, expressed in scores of demonstrations and thousands of messages sent to the President, the State Department, and to yourself.

I hate to impose on the time of the President, but the situation requires me to make some views known to him. Perhaps he has the time at least to scan through some of them.

I shall be grateful to you if you could bring my letter to his attention, in one form or another.

With anticipated appreciation and deepest respect, I am,

His Excellency Mr. George Bush
President of the United States of America
The White House
Washington, DC, 20501

Dear Mr. President,

I have known for a long time of your friendship for Lebanon and the Lebanese people, and of your concern for their tragedy and suffering. Once you wrote to me that your "heart is aching" because of the tragedy. Last month at Mr. Sununu's testimonial, your commitment to find a way to make a difference in the Lebanese crisis demonstrated once more your "deep affection for Lebanon." Your statement was most encouraging and gave our people here and in Lebanon hope that the United States of America stands ready to renew its efforts to help find a solution to the Lebanese dilemma.

Mr. President, timing is of the essence at this stage. The situation has become unbearable to the Lebanese, who have been suffering for fourteen years. The new cycle of violence unleashed by the Syrian armed forces against defenseless and civilian areas is causing great loss of life and wide destruction. The sustained, systematic, indiscriminate, and merciless shelling has paralyzed wide areas in the country. These areas are under complete siege and a reign of terror. There is an outcry by Lebanese at home and all over the world for international assistance to stop the Syrian onslaught.

I need not go into details of events. Reports from your agencies are replete with the facts. However, Mr. President, allow me to call attention to the following:

- 1) For the first time, an official of Lebanon, Prime Minister General Michel Aoun, has put the problem in its true context, that of "occupation" of 65% of Lebanese territory by Syrian forces. The war is one of "national liberation."
- 2) General Aoun attempted to close the illicit ports under control of militias allied to Syria. His aim was to restore the authority of the State over these ports, which are known to be outlets for arms, drugs, and terrorists.
- 3) The cultivation of hashish plants in Lebanon has flourished in the occupied areas. The Beka'a Valley, once considered the breadbasket of the Roman Empire, became a verdant garden for hashish and heroin poppies exported to Western Europe and the USA.
- 4) Terrorism, kidnapping, and hostage-taking have equally flourished under Syrian occupation in cooperation with Iranian, Libyan, and Palestinian organized terror groups. The notion that Syria could be helpful in freeing the hostages has not proven to be well founded. It must be determined whether Syria is unwilling or unable to help in that process. As we wait indefinitely for the liberation of the hostages, Lebanon and its people have become hostages of a ruthless military regime.

H.E. President George Bush

5) The notion that Syria is a peacemaker and a stabilizing force in Lebanon does not hold water. Syria has become a principal party to the conflict. It has obstructed every national, regional, and international effort to resolve the Lebanese problem. My views about the Syrian role in Lebanon are well-known to you. Events of the last few years have confirmed any apprehensions about Syrian objectives. In simple terms, they are: either annexation, or dismemberment, or complete military, political, economic, and educational hegemony. Syria attempted to impose a document of reforms on Lebanon. It was in a form of "Diktat," which was rejected by the Lebanese, for it ran against their free and democratic principles and practices.

6) Syria attempted in another "Diktat" to impose a President, with the threat that this rejection would lead to chaos. And this is exactly what Lebanon is experiencing now.

7) From 1976 to 1982, Syria assumed the role of peacemaker by decision of an Arab Summit (October, 1976). Instead of restoring peace and order and helping the Government and its armed forces to regain their authority, it succeeded in creating division in the Government and among the Lebanese communities, and in establishing several physical and political "Berlin Walls." For years, some members of the Government under direct orders and pressure from Damascus have obstructed the normal functioning of Lebanese institutions.

8) The legal Arab and Government cover for the Syrian so-called "Deterrent Forces" was terminated by a decision of the Lebanese Government in 1982. The League of Arab States never renewed the Syrian mandate since then. The Syrian armed presence has become "illegal" against the will of the Government and people of Lebanon. Consequently, the Syrian forces became forces of occupation.

9) It is needless to repeat the whole litany of Syria's involvement in the affairs of Lebanon and its participation on many occasions in severe fighting against the Lebanese. I only wish to recall one episode, for it has significant bearing on the present one. I refer to what has become known as the "100 days war" in the summer of 1979. The Syrian forces were engaged in heavy fighting against the Christian areas. The Syrian shelling was then unprecedented. The loss in human life and the widespread destruction aroused international public opinion.

10) The problem was brought before the UN Security Council. The USA took the lead in drafting a resolution. Secretary of State, Cyrus Vance, attended the Council's meeting to demonstrate US concern.

11) The Security Council adopted its Resolution 436 (October 6, 1979) without the slightest debate, not because of the urgency of the situation alone, but because of an effort to prevent a debate that might expose the role of Syria in the fighting. The resolution referred to "all those involved in hostilities". Everyone knew who was involved. It was a neat diplomatic camouflage for which the Lebanese have been paying a heavy price ever since in their freedom and security.

When that resolution was taken, Syria was still enjoying a certain legal cover for its presence in Lebanon. That cover is now off, and we are facing a clear case of occupation and aggression against the civilian population of Lebanon by the Syrian regime. Since March 15, thousands of shells and rockets have rained daily on residential areas, hospitals, schools, and vital economic centers.

H.E. President George Bush

12) As defined by Prime Minister Aoun, the problem has become one between two States -- not a civil war between Christians and Moslems, as the world has been led to believe by simplistic news media references and the constant Syrian propoganda.

13) As a founding member of the United Nations, Lebanon is entitled under the Charter to protection against the use of force and to respect for its unity, territorial integrity, independence, and national sovereignty. These principles were asserted in Resolutions 436 and 425 (which deals with Israeli occupation in southern Lebanon) and in scores of other resolutions and statements from the USA and other friendly nations.

14) I believe that we are now facing a situation more serious and more flagrant than in 1979. Resolution 436 can be used as a basis to bring the Lebanese problem before the Security Council. Humanitarian and political considerations necessitate urgent action. The appeals of the Lebanese should not go in vain. The fate of their country and their own destiny are at stake.

15) It is true that an Arab Committee is endeavoring to find a solution. It is supported by the USA and other friendly nations. But the Syrian actions have by-passed the efforts of the Committee. The signs of progress that it was showing ran against Syrian interests and ambitions. The new round of violence is obviously intended to scuttle the Arab initiative as Syria has scuttled all previous initiatives.

16) Failing a dramatic and speedy success by the Arab Committee, a resort to the Security Council becomes imperative.

17) In that case, an imposition of a strict ceasefire must take precedence to alleviate the suffering of the people.

18) But the Council should also go beyond that to the discussion of a phased withdrawal of Syrian, Iranian, Israeli, and all other foreign forces from Lebanon.

Mr. President,

The USA stands in the world as the champion of democracy, freedom, and human rights. You have emphasized these principles on many occasions. The Lebanese people are not asking for more than the enjoyment of freedom, because in freedom, they can reactivate their democratic process and recover their sovereignty and dignity.

I am confident that the Lebanese people have in President Bush a trusted friend.

Please accept, Mr. President, the expression of my highest consideration and respect.

Dear Governor Sununu:

I realize how much in demand you are as a speaker, but I am holding an event in Dallas on September 23 and 24, which I hope might be of interest to you. The event is my annual Texas Founder's Club Meeting which will be attended by about 200 people who have contributed on average between $4000 - $8000 to my previous campaigns, and who have either given or committed $2000 to the 1990 campaign. In short, this group is made up of the key conservative givers in the State of Texas.

At previous meetings, the group listened to off-the-record presentations by Frank Carlucci, Jim Baker, John Herrington, Elizabeth Dole and key members of the Senate and the House. That meeting was a big success, which I hope to out-do this year.

The September meeting will be held at a hotel convenient to the Dallas-Fort Worth Airport. I would be honored to have you come speak to the major investors in my political endeavors. Needless to say, I would be happy to work within your scheduling constraints to find a mutually agreeable time for you to address the Club, either as a speaker at mealtime or for half an hour during the day on Saturday, September 23 or Sunday, September 24. I will also provide you with a round-trip ticket to Dallas.

This gathering will be a major campaign event of the year for me, and I would be honored to have you participate. Please let me know if you require additional information, or have your staff call my Chief of Staff, Ruth Cymber.

Thank you for your consideration.

Yours respectfully,

PHIL GRAMM

Dear Governor:

The President has made a fine selection in nominating Larry Garrett as Secretary of the Navy. I worked with him during my tour of duty in the White House. He is a gentleman, a loyalist, and a hard-working individual. As a retired member of the Navy, I give him my total support.

Larry will need some strong staff members to make a success of the very difficult job which confronts him. To this end I would like to submit the credentials of another loyalist, as well as an outstanding expert in naval matters. He is Norman Polmar. Reading his bio, which I have enclosed, I am sure you will be convinced this is true.

Norman has been a friend for some ten years. He was most helpful to me on behalf of my service with President Reagan. I am sure would do a similarly good job for President Bush.

Norman would fill well the post of an Under Secretary of the Navy for Research or other related duties. His knowledge of the Soviet Navy is vast, an asset which would be of great assistance to any Secretary of the Navy.

He is willing to make the sacrifices required. I hope you will give him serious consideration as he could be a real asset to the Administration.

Please stay well. We need you there.

Dear John,

It is my understanding that Paul McCarthy, a former associate of my daughter Kim in Boston Television, is currently under consideration for appointment to fill one of the two vacant seats on the Federal Communications Commission.

As the owner of radio station WPOR in Portland, Maine and formerly WFEA in Manchester, New Hampshire, I recognize the importance having experienced professionals like Paul McCarthy served on the FCC. Broadcasting in both small and large markets would benefit from Paul's input.

Paul has won rave reviews from broadcasters throughout New England for his work in securing the coverage of their stations on local cable systems. He made my daughter's first sales job at WQTV a little easier by persuading cable systems to carry the struggling independent. In fact, my old station in Manchester participated in an unique cross-promotional contest with Warner Cable to introduce Channel 68 in Nashua, New Hampshire.

His first-hand experiences in solving our industry's toughest problems would be a major plus for the President. I highly recommend his selection to serve on the FCC.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Gold

RE: Grant to John Gagnon

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I am against giving Mr. John Gagnon of the State University of New York at Stony Brook a grant for $15 million for a study on American sexual habits.

Mr. Gagnon has questionable credentials which tie him to the far-left sex industry for the past 20 years.

His credentials include:

1. Served as an official and trustee with SEICUS which receives funding from Playboy.
2. Senior research sociologist at the Kinsey Institute which receives funding from Playboy.
3. Served on the SEICUS advisory board.
4. Served on the advisory board to National Sex & Drug Forum which promoted legalization of illicit drugs & normalization of homosexuality and bisexuality.

Mr. Gagnon states in his book Sexual Scene that pornography is harmless and that Playboy is a useful sex "Boy Scout Manual" for society. The President's Commission on Pornography and Ted Bundy's final confession have proven that pornography is not harmless.

I believe Mr. Gagnon's research would have results that would be beneficial to those groups trying to justify their activities (homosexuals, incest, adult/child sexuality, etc.).

Please deny this grant to Mr. Gagnon and save the taxpayers and the American family from an unnecessary and expensive study.

Sincerely,

Charlene Golden

Dear Governor:

I presume you are still in search of a few good men and women; if not so good, at least loyal.

It is my understanding that John T. Conway, Executive Vice President of Consolidated Edison Company of New York, is being considered for a post at the Department of Energy.

My old boss, Admiral Jim Watkins, is reportedly on the driving side of this nomination of John as chairman of the Nuclear Safety Oversight Board.

I have known John for a number of years and have found him to be a man of honesty, hard working and loyal to a cause he supports.

His knowledge of the nuclear industry is far greater than most. I have taken the liberty of enclosing his biography for your review which I think you will find supports the opinion above.

I hope, not only for the good of the President Bush Administration, but the country and the nuclear industry, you will support his nomination.

Thank you for being where you are. As one citizen who has done a tour at the White House, I understand the personal sacrifices you are enduring.

Thank you.

Most sincerely,

Dear Governor Sununu:

On behalf of the Board of Directors of The International Business Center of New England, Inc. (IBC), I should like to invite you to be our keynote speaker at our Annual Meeting on Wednesday evening, May 24, 1989, at the Westin Hotel, Copley Place, in Boston. We should like you to speak on aspects of the recent Carnegie Commission Report on Science and Technology, including the Commission's emphasis on international scientific and technical cooperation in the decade ahead.

We thought that you, with your unique public service and scientific/technical background, would be an appropriate keynote speaker for the IBC membership. All our 400 member companies, including many high technology firms, are involved in some aspect of international trade; they range in size from the Fortune 500's to entrepreneurial start-up operations. The IBC's mission is to assist its members to do more international business more profitably.

Our members are keenly aware of the tenuous U.S. position in the world marketplace. They are also aware, however, of the opportunities for exports from high tech firms in New England in the 1990's. In this context, we read with concern the recent news articles about The Carnegie Commission Report on Science and Technology which indicated that the U.S. is suffering critical losses in technological disciplines that will seriously erode the U.S. role in global competitiveness, industrial productivity and trade positioning. Consequently, I believe this topic presents an opportunity for you to make a major speech on the Commission's Report for the Administration from historic Boston, focusing on how important New England's unique mix of academic, industrial and technological cooperation is in assisting the U.S. in restoring American leadership in engineering education, manufacturing technology, and research and development.

If your schedule also permits, I should like to arrange an afternoon, pre-banquet meeting, or a next morning breakfast for you to meet and share ideas off the record with a select group of New England CEO's and corporate leaders from the business, educational and technological communities.

Our Membership Directory and Spring 1989 Calendar of Seminars and Special Events are enclosed for your information. We will contact your office in the next few days to learn your response.

Dear John:

Herb Drake's present term on the New England Fishery Management Council expires in a few months, and it is my understanding that he will seek reappointment.

As a member of the Council myself, I can state without equivocation that Herb has done an excellent job, and his input and effort has been valuable to all of us. His intimate working knowledge of the commercial fishing industry coupled with his concern for the long-term health of the marine resources off the New England coast puts him in a unique, and desirable, position as a fishery manager. I know I speak for other Council members in asking for any help you may be able to offer in securing his reappointment.

Many thanks. We could use more members with Herb's insight on the New England Council.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Sununu:

We are honored that you have agreed to speak to TIME's Executive News Conference participants during our April 16 dinner session. As I mentioned in my March 16 letter, and in a conversation today with your assistant, Jackie Kennedy, we hope that you will speak for 15 - 20 minutes on a topic of your choice. We will then open the session to questions from the floor. The dinner will be held at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel on Massachusetts Avenue from 7:00 to 9:30 PM. We also hope that you are able to join the group for cocktails beginning at 6:00 PM in the hotel.

Susanna Schrobsdorff in our Washington bureau is handling the logistics. She is available at (202) 861-4000 to answer any questions you or your staff may have. Please let her know if there are any special arrangements we can make for you.

We look forward to hearing your views during what should be a intriguing discussion.

Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I am writing on behalf of the Massachusetts Biotechnology Council and its forty one members, to make you aware of our enthusiastic support for the nomination of George B. Rathmann, Ph.D., for the position of Assistant to the President for Science and Technology. I have enclosed a copy of a letter I have written to Mr. Chase Untermeyer, as well as copies of other letters which have been sent in support of this nomination.

I am sure that you are aware of the importance of the rapidly growing biotechnology industry to the future economic growth of the entire New England region. The health of the New England biotechnology community is crucially dependent upon the success of national science and technology policies aimed at maintaining the American competitive edge in all areas of technology. While we have been encouraged by recent government initiatives in this area, it is critical that the Bush Administration continue to strive for policies that encourage the growth of technology-based industries in this country. The appointment of a strong Presidential Science Advisor, with first hand experience in an industry directly affected by competitiveness issues, would be one important step towards such goals.

Dr. George Rathmann is uniquely qualified for such an appointment. His background and specific qualifications are well described in the enclosures. His nomination is broadly supported in the biotechnology industry, the pharmaceutical industry, and in other technology-based industries. We in the Massachusetts biotechnology community believe he will be an excellent choice for this position, providing the nation with strong scientific leadership, while also contributing the knowledge and expertise to develop the policies necessary to ensure the future economic growth of our industry in New England and in the United States.

Thank you very much.

The Honorable John H. Sununu

Dear Mr. Sununu:

As you probably know, Chevron is one of the American companies involved in the American Trade Consortium, an organization established in April 1988 to develop business opportunities in the Soviet Union for its member companies. The ATC was initiated after positive changes were made in Soviet joint venture law and in response to encouragement from both U.S. and Soviet leadership following the December 1987 meeting between President Reagan and President Gorbachev.

I'm writing in confidence to advise you that the ATC will make an announcement in the near future when it has signed a "general trade agreement" (GTA) with its counterpart Soviet organization, the Soviet Foreign Economic Consortium. I'm letting you know in advance so you won't be surprised by any news coverage resulting from an announcement.

The GTA will serve as a framework covering such areas as legal, economic, financial and human resources issues for all the individual joint ventures now under consideration by the ATC member companies and the Soviet organizations with which they're dealing. The GTA, once it has been completed and signed by both consortia, will establish consistent understanding of how these issues (among others) will be handled in the various joint ventures being discussed.

There are about two dozen individual joint ventures under discussion among the companies and the Soviet entities with which they're dealing. Some are merely under consideration; others are in the negotiation stage. (In addition to Chevron, the ATC members, as you may know, include: Archer Daniels Midland, Eastman Kodak, Johnson & Johnson, RJR Nabisco and Mercator Corporation.) All ventures under consideration would involve non-strategic business activities in full conformance with all applicable laws and regulations of both countries, and would be undertaken only after any necessary approvals have been obtained from the U.S. government.

Chevron is continuing to evaluate possible joint ventures in the Soviet Union involving oil exploration and development. However, much study will be needed before we can decide whether to move forward. Our best guess is that we're many months away from developing a Chevron/Soviet joint venture, should we decide to pursue one.

Please do not hesitate to call me if you have any questions at 457-5800.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Sununu,

I wanted to thank you for speaking at our reception last Tuesday night. We were very honored to have you attend. I also appreciated the good things that you said about Citizens for a Sound Economy.

This year CSE will be working very hard supporting many items on the administration's agenda. We are concentrating our efforts on making sure that there are no tax increases this year. Through the Coalition for Fiscal Restraint (COFIRE), and our tax and budget work, I'm sure we can be an important ally to the administration's efforts.

Again, thank you for attending our reception and giving your remarks. I look forward to working with you in the future.

Dear Honorable Sununu:

I am writing this letter to support the nomination of Dr. Lowell T. Harmison for the position of Science Advisor to the President. Dr. Harmison obtained his Ph.D. from the University of Maryland in 1965 and worked as a U.S. Army Field and Air Defense Artillery Officer. He later worked as an engineer with Pratt and Whitney, Martin-Marietta and Hittman Associates.

Between 1967 and 1974 he worked as a scientist, and a Division Director at the National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute, NIH and was responsible for the development and testing of implantable artificial heart and holds a patent on this invention. In 1974, Dr. Harmison became Science Advisor to the Assistant Secretary for Health and was responsible for coordinating efforts on recombinant DNA and toxic substance issues, drugs and vaccine research, biotechnology transfer, and was instrumental in the FDA approval and commercial development of a blood test for AIDS virus developed in our laboratory. In 1986, Dr. Harmison was appointed as the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Health and was responsible, along with the Assistant Secretary of Health, for overseeing the activities of the National Institutes of Health, FDA, CDC, HRSA and the Agency for Toxic Substances and Licence Registry. During his tenure as Deputy Assistant Secretary of Health, he was involved in the development and implementation of the Federal Technology Transfer Act of 1986 which made the results of biomedical research supported by the Public Health Service to the biomedical industry. Since December 1987, he is the Chief Operating Officer for the Maxwell Foundation, an independent philanthropic and research organization established to promote individual self reliance through scientific knowledge, communications, entrepreneurial growth and world harmony. Dr. Harmison has been very much involved in science and technology transfer and has had discussions with a number of U.S. and foreign universities, industrial organizations and the Governments of USSR, Estonia, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia and German Democratic Republic.

I believe that Dr. Harmison has the valuable scientific background and international experience necessary for a candidate for the position of the Science Advisor to the President. I, therefore, would like to strongly support Dr. Lowell T. Harmison for the position of the Science Advisor.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Governor,

It was a fine tribute last weekend and the residual beneficiary, the hospital and the heritage. What came through that particular evening is the importance of the dignity of the human person and the importance of freedom. This is the unique contribution of the East to the West.

We pray for your continued good health and peace in the unique position you hold in the White House.

May the Heavenly Protector bless your decisions with wisdom and righteous judgement. Also, I was happy to see your parents after so many years. I knew them when I was a seminarian in New York.

Faithfully yours,

Archpriest Antony Gabriel

P.S. The invitation stands regarding St. George's.

MEMORANDUM FOR: JOHN SUNUNU
 CHIEF OF STAFF
 THE WHITE HOUSE

FROM : JOHN GAUGHAN
 CHIEF OF STAFF TO THE SECRETARY

SUBJECT : MEETING OF THE PRESIDENT WITH THE FAMILIES OF THE VICTIMS OF PAN AM
 103 BOMBING

EVENT:

On April 3rd, the 103rd day since the bombing of Pan Am 103, the families of the victims will hold a memorial service in Lafayette Park. It will begin at 2:00 pm and will last approximately 1 hour. After the opening remarks by Paul Hudson, 6 poems of prayers will be read, interspersed with the reading of the victims' names in blocks of 40. As the names are read, the families will cross the street to lay flowers or momentos along The White House fence. The Park Service is coordinating. It will close with remarks by Bert Ammerman, and then the families will proceed to the Hill to contact every Senate office requesting support for an independent investigation by the White House or the Congress. At 5:00, they will have a press conference to announce their supporters.

The families have formed a very active group, Victims of Pan Am 103, to protest U.S. policies. They have elected a steering committee of 6 and have subcommittees investigating different aspects of the incident. Their spokesman, Mr. Ammerman, wrote the President on March 15, requesting a meeting with the President and a few of the family members. They would like for this to take place April 3rd. Senators Lautenberg, D'Amato and Helms have endorsed such a meeting.

BACKGROUND:

The families are outraged at the government and Pan Am due to the way the families were treated in the wake of the bombing. They state that they were not able to get information on the bombing, they were poorly treated in Scotland by the State Department and Pan Am, and heard nothing from the government in regard to sympathy for the families until a meeting with Secretary Skinner last week. They are highly critical of U.S. policies and of the government's failure to carry out those policies that are in effect. They believe there is a government cover-up going on and that they were not told the truth about the events surrounding the bombing.

The group has instigated hearings in the House Foreign Affairs Committee, the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Transportation, and the House Public Works and Transportation Subcommittee on Aviation. It is expected that the House Government Operations Subcommittee on Government Activities and Transportation, the Senate Commerce Subcommittee on Aviation and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee may also hold hearings.

They have appeared on the news and talk shows, as well as McNeill-Lehrer. In addition, they are planning to publish a letter to President Bush in the New York Times and Washington Post next week. Major press coverage for the days proceeding the 3rd have been arranged.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

Pursuant to Secretary Skinner's meeting with you, the President called to tell him he wanted a small meeting with representative families, as I sure you are aware. This is also the forum suggested by the leaders of the families. It is not sympathetic remarks that they are seeking, but the opportunity to let the President know of their concerns. They will be asking for him to support an independent investigation. We suggest the following individuals be invited: Mr. Paul Hudson, Mr. Bert Ammerman, Mr. Joe Horgan, and Ms. Wendy Geibler. I will be pleased to provide further background on the families' objectives and on the individuals to attend, at your request.

Please do not hesitate to have your staff contact the Secretary's Special Assistant, Betty Monro, who accompanied him to the meeting last week.

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
White House

Re: Application and resume of Robert O. Goodman to remain in position as Special Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Shipbuilding and Logistics).

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I remember with gratitude the warm hospitality extended by you and the people of New Hampshire to my son, Lt. Robert O. Goodman, Jr., U.S.N., upon his return to the states from Syria in January of 1984.

Now, I seek your support for my application to remain in my current position as Special Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Shipbuilding and Logistics) (ASN(S&L)). This position is a presidential appointed position, Schedule C.

I have contacted both Mr. Chase Untermeyer at his office in the Old Executive Office Building (1 February) and Mr. Ted Lewis at the Transition Team Office in the Pentagon (17 February). Mr. Lewis recently replied and indicated that my application was being processed.

I have enclosed a copy of my standard form 171, a supplemental statement, and to indicate the type of projects that I enjoy the most, I have enclosed a copy of the "proceedings" from a conference it was my privilege to direct and chair on the subject of the Navy's support for historically black colleges and universities. This initiative springs from Pub. L. 99-661, § 1207, the five percent contract goal for minorities. These colleges prepare their students for contributions to our society and citizenship. Some have ROTC units on campus.

In summary, I desire to continue in this interesting and challenging assignment as a member of the Bush-Quayle administration. Your support would be much appreciated.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Robert O. Goodman", is written over a horizontal line.

THE JAMESTOWN FOUNDATION

March 22, 1989

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

I am writing to invite you to be a member of the Honorary Committee of our third annual benefit dinner. The highlight of this event will be the presentation of the Jamestown Freedom Award to Max Baucus, recognizing his outstanding contribution to world improving Western understanding of the Soviet Union.

Briefly, the Jamestown Foundation works to enable the voices of high level defectors from communist countries to be heard in the West. The work of the foundation is described in more detail in the enclosed brochure. If you would like more information, you might wish to check with Clayton Yeutter, Lt. Gen. Brent Scowcroft or Dick Cheney, all of whom have served on the foundation's Board.

This year's dinner will take place on Tuesday, May 2, 1989, at the Mayflower Hotel. The attendees at the dinner will include our benefit committee, chaired by Mrs. Marcia Carlucci and Mrs. Elaine Crispin; major corporate donors; members of the media; and members of Congress.

In previous years, the annual dinner attracted over 400 attendees. Cabinet members and Senators served on the dinner committee and attended the past two events, and President Reagan conveyed his greetings to the attendees.

We sincerely hope that you will lend your name as we honor the brave men and women who have fled high positions in communist societies, and who are devoted to helping Americans to better understand the nature of the systems which they left behind.

We look forward to your response.

Sincerely,
William W. Geimer

Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff, White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20500
(Personnel: Attention: Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy)

Dear Governor Sununu,

I was recently in touch with a fellow Chaminade High School alumnus and mutual friend, Dick Torykian. He suggested I write to you directly.

I retired in 1985 after a successful thirty-three year career in the U.S. Navy. During a significant portion of that time I was directly involved in the research, development, test and evaluation business both as a Navy test pilot and in key staff assignments in the Pentagon.

My staff tours as Director, R & D Priorities Analysis for Admiral Zumwalt; as Executive Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Research and Development) and as Director Aviation Plans and Programs constitute direct involvement in the Navy's R & D efforts at the highest level. The attached biographical sketch details this involvement.

During the early and mid-1980's, as Director, Aviation Plans and Programs I was deeply involved in the formulation of the Naval Aviation modernization program. During those years I was sometimes at odds with the key staffers in the Navy's R & D secretariat in my attempts to ensure our efforts were responsive to operational needs. As such, I know where most of the skeletons are buried, and what the real issues are.

I voluntarily retired when it became apparent that my views of the future of Naval aviation were no longer in congruence with those of the then Secretary.

Since my retirement, I have worked as Director, Corporate Test and Evaluation for the Northrop Corporation. Among other things I have stayed deeply involved in the Navy Advanced Tactical Fighter, the Advanced Tactical Aircraft and B-2 programs from a T & E standpoint.

I believe I am an excellent candidate for the post of Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Research, Engineering and systems) in the Bush Administration. I hereby throw my hat into the ring!

For references, I suggest Honorable John Krings, Defense Director, Operational Test and Evaluation, Senator Pete Wilson, Congressman Bill Lowery, Admirals Isaac Kidd (former CINCLANT), Tom Hayward (former CNO), Jim Holloway (former CNO), Mike Michaelis (former Chief of Navy Material), and Mickey Weisner (former CINCPAC).

Yours very respectfully,

Paul T. Gillcrist

Dear John:

I am writing to recommend Mr. Eric M. Thorson for the position of Assistant to the President for Issues Analysis, or for any other such assistant's position should one be available.

Mr. Thorson has been a devoted public servant who combines a high level of integrity and competence with steadfast loyalty to the President. His record of achievement, both personal and for his country, would make any administration proud. His executive background as a businessman and his effective management of federal resources while in the Defense Department demonstrate Mr. Thorson's success as an able administrator.

In addition to these strong qualities, Mr. Thorson also brings expertise and experience in a variety of issues, including drug interdiction, economic analysis, financial control, environmental analysis, personnel management, and several others. His broad background, together with his administrative abilities, would certainly qualify Mr. Thorson for this position.

I would greatly appreciate your consideration of Mr. Thorson to serve the President and the nation. Many thanks for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

I was pleased to have the opportunity to meet with you recently on environmental issues, along with Roger Smith of GM and Jerry Greenwald of Chrysler. During that meeting, you asked about the steps that the automotive industry might take to increase exports and whether there were areas where industry cooperation might be helpful to accomplish this.

We continue to be concerned about the high trade deficit and want to do what we can to help. There are limits, however, to what is likely to be accomplished through automotive exports. When Ford first established foreign operations, the only way to sell vehicles in most nations was to "build where you sell." We have, for example, an extensive network of plants throughout Europe that build European vehicles with almost complete European content. Many nations (not only in Europe, but also in Latin America and Asia) have local content laws that encourage this practice. Following World War II, Japan virtually prohibited the sales of imported vehicles, as well as foreign investment, until Japanese manufacturers had a stranglehold on their home market.

The U.S. automobile industry exports nearly 1 million vehicles made in the United States. But about 80 percent of these go to Canada -- which for years has been a free trade area for U.S. automotive products -- and substantial numbers of vehicles are exported from Canada to the United States as well.

August 29, 1989

With government pressure for better access for U.S. products in foreign markets and a more competitive dollar -- along with vehicle characteristics that are becoming more global in nature -- we hope to export an increasing number of vehicles. In the last year or so, we have begun exporting North American vehicles, such as the Ford Taurus, the Mercury Sable, Ford Thunderbird, Lincoln Continental, and the Ford Probe, to Japan, Taiwan, and South Korea -- as well as to the Middle East, South America, and the Caribbean.

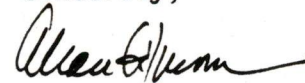

However, these exports still will be limited because of the relatively small demand for American vehicles and restrictions that reduce the opportunity for imports into many countries. Over time, it is possible that newer and emerging markets, such as India and China, may produce new opportunities.

Recognizing the seriousness of the auto trade imbalance and the various limitations to increasing U.S. exports, we have encouraged the Japanese manufacturers to establish plants in the United States and to purchase components from local sources in order to reduce imports. We have assisted Mazda in establishing an automotive assembly plant in Michigan; have provided the distribution system for a major portion of the output of that plant; have assisted Mazda with development of supplier relationships; and, in the future, will provide Mazda with compact trucks from our U.S. assembly plants. We also have reached a joint venture agreement with Nissan for the future production and distribution of a small van in the United States.

In summary, we want to help on the trade deficit and are actively working on a number of programs that we believe will help. We need continued U.S. Government support to achieve further currency realignment and improved market access.

I look forward to future discussions with you on these and other subjects.

Sincerely,

A. D. Gilmour

Mr. John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I am sure that you are aware that the Archdiocese of Hartford was overwhelmingly supportive of the President's most recent bid for office. I believe that the President is also open to continued support by the Archdiocese on issues that concern people whom we all serve especially as that applies to the crisis of AIDS.

Six months ago, in a maverick effort to address the crisis of AIDS, Archbishop John Whealon established the Office of AIDS Ministry and appointed me director of this agency of the Archdiocese. It is my responsibility to serve the needs of those who are affected by this virus and the family members who cope and struggle with it, many of whom have been left behind with the experience of great loss. I share their concerns at the edge of life and seek to dignify the little time that is theirs to improve the human condition.

I write to you today in an effort to offer my experience as a possible candidate to serve the President of the United States on his Commission on AIDS. As the only priest-director of AIDS Ministry in New England and perhaps the only full-time director of AIDS Ministry in the country, I feel I have much to offer such a commission.

I have met with several bishops in the nation and have discussed with them the need to establish a National Office on AIDS sponsored by the American bishops. I have asked them to continue discussion on this at the annual National Catholic Conference of Bishops meeting in November. It is my hope that a search committee will be appointed and an eventual development of this office might be realized as an outcome of our efforts.

With hopes of hearing from you soon and with the offer of my loyal service to the Administration that you serve, especially on matters that concern AIDS, I remain optimistically yours. . .

. . . as together we celebrate the living years,

Dear John:

I know you are working on the President's speech and the drug issue will be its very core. There is an extremely influential group of people in this country who have a role to play but may not have been fully motivated and next Tuesday might be a perfect time to start the process. I am referring to the college and school leadership from the graduate level right down to the primary grades. Words that would produce their active, regular, on-going support are vital to the effective communication of the dangers of cocaine and crack (I think we should concentrate on these two nightmare drugs). At the high school, college and graduate school level, I fear that too often there is an elitist attitude that this is not the job of an "educator" and I don't think that anyone has adequately motivated this group.

Best personal regards.

Very sincerely,

Bruce S. Gelb

Dear John:

We are currently in the process of clearing the enclosed two-minute video with the Attorney General, Drug Enforcement Agency and State Department and see no problem. In line with what you have been doing with the President re his September 5 speech on drugs, our plan would be to show this video tape on our satellite TV network broadly right after the President's speech.

I would be interested in your reaction.

Regards.

Very sincerely,

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
Executive Office of the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

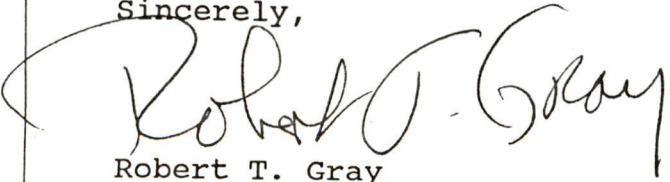

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Through its monthly poll, "Where I Stand," NATION'S BUSINESS magazine obtains the views of its readers on major public-policy issues of concern to the business community.

These readers number more than 850,000 owners and managers of businesses of all sizes and types. We believe that this audience is more representative of the full spectrum of American enterprise than that of any other publication or organization.

I am therefore sending to you another in our series of reports to key decision makers in government on the outcome of these polls. We hope you find them informative and useful in developing your own position on these issues.

Sincerely,

Robert T. Gray

Dear John:

A belated congratulations to you on your latest accomplishment in politics. It was clear to some of us in your ES7 Thermodynamics course that you were driven to supra-academic success. Bravo and wow, even in light of your New Hampshire record.

The enclosed article from the IEEE Institute refers to important issues, including your points on trade barriers. However, I believe the Control Data Corporation (CDC) shuttering of its supercomputer subsidiary, ETA Systems, had very little to do with competitive issues involving Japan. This includes any issues of supply market competition (e.g., supplier cartels in semiconductors), customer market competition (e.g., buyer cartels), or product market competition (e.g., Japanese capturing excess market share). Al Moschner and Carl Ledbetter, the former COO and CEO, have first hand knowledge, where I rely on public data, but it would not be surprising if:

- ETA's hardware and software product development was fundamentally flawed in a way that precluded viability
- ETA's execution of the design (e.g., manufacturing) was less than perfect and caused excessive costs
- Organizational conflict between CDC and ETA -- implying questionable management practices -- diluted any opportunity that might have existed
- Customer's (including NASA Ames and NASA Goddard) were imposed upon and were rejecting the product on its merits

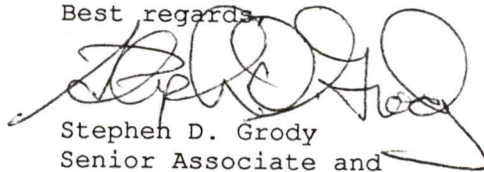

If true, little additional Federal or State intervention should have been useful. Your positions on supercomputer trade issues are well taken. However, the case of ETA Systems appears to have much less to do with trade policy than it might for an R&D policy that you might put forward. It does appear to say a lot about a lack of skill, in US corporate management, in launching and nurturing such ventures into self sufficiency.

Please take these brief comments in the spirit of their offering; intending to add clarity and incremental substance to policy discussions. By creating insightful solutions to companies' and the country's competitive problems, you in policy and I in the practice of management consulting share a common objective. Let us hope we are successful.
