Dear John:

Your speech at Harvard's Kennedy School of Government on Friday, May 19 went great. I was sitting on your left in the front row and started the applause on several occasions. You simply could not have done a better job. Roger Porter and I got a chance to talk briefly but my efforts to say hello to you were made impossible by the eagerness of others in the audience to stampede you at the end of the presentation.

I remain hopeful that we might get together briefly in Washington. Please let me know of your availability.

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear John:

I much appreciate your recent help concerning the Board for International Broadcasting. Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty play an absolutely central role in the present international situation.

I would also like to suggest a new theme for President Bush. In his Inaugural address, George Washington expressed the daring hope that one day the nations of the world would repair to the American idea. This is now happening around the world. The President should stress this theme.

The Novus Ordo Seclorum that is the humble boast that our Framers placed, with great deliberation, on the Seal of the United States, really has captured the imagination of the world: the picture of the pyramid captures the ideal very well.

For the first time in history, the new American order separates the three fundamental powers of human life: political, economic, and (above both) moral and cultural institutions, such as the churches, the press, and the institutions of intellect and the arts.

Today, more and more citizens of the world desire the three liberations represented by these three powers: liberation from torture and tyranny, liberation from poverty, and liberation of conscience. These are the three great liberties promised by societies such as ours, which have taken root in some thirty or forty other free nations of the world, and are now aspired to by most of the others.

I think the President can get out in front of the ideological turmoil shaking the world by expressing satisfaction that the institutional ideals to which our novus ordo is pledged have now captured the imagination of the world, even in the Soviet Union and in China. Just as Roosevelt spoke of the "four freedoms," President Bush can speak of the "three liberations." Such a statement would nicely capture perestroika, glasnost, and the tumult in China. We have every reason to gain new confidence from these events.

The President can then stress how these three liberations require basic changes in institutions and habits, which are the only sound foundations of lasting (seclorum) social change. An emphasis on institutions and habits is a conservative theme. An emphasis on the ideals of the three liberations is a progressive theme. In the real history of this country, both themes have always been kept joined tightly together.

Warmest wishes,

It was a pleasure seeing you again during National Consumer Alert Week. As a Director of Consumer Alert, I certainly appreciated the time you took to attend our luncheon at the Willard Hotel.

The events of the week and the luncheon has sparked a renewed interest in Consumer Alert. Many of the Board of Directors feel that Consumer Alert is finally off the ground and running.

FROM: Catholic Center for Information
Beirut, May 17, 1989

May 17, 1989 has been declared a day of mourning in both East and West Beirut. National funeral is to take place this afternoon in West Beirut. So far, no organization has claimed responsibility for the murder of the Mufti.

The last statement that the Mufti had made to his visitors just before he was murdered was "I am afraid for Lebanon...for the symbols of moderation in Lebanon, or else what does the shelling Dar-al-Fatwa and Bkerke at the same time mean? We are working "hand in hand" with Patriarch Sfeir to save Lebanon from this cursed plot...but what would be left for Lebanon if they destroyed Dar-al-Fatwa and Bkerke on their occupants?"

A communique was issued this morning by Bkerke announcing that the Patriarchate is open this afternoon, May 17, and tomorrow before noon to receive condolences for "the loss of Mufti Khaled and his companions is a national loss, painful to all Lebanese Moslems and Christians alike." Moreover, says the communique, it is "to assert the spiritual ties and the solidarity which have existed between Dar-al-Fatwa and the Maronite Patriarchate in their cooperation to pull Lebanon out of its ordeal."

The blockade is tighter and tighter. Starvation is felt by more people every day. Although the U.S. Embassy declared Lebanon a war stricken region three weeks ago, no help has been offered to the affected people so far. Moreover, instructions were given by the U.S. Embassy to "Save the Children" and "Catholic Relief Services" both humanitarian organizations to stop assisting people in the Christian regions of East Beirut. The CRS refused to comply by the Embassy's instructions. The feeling here is that U.S. administration is still implementing Henry Kissinger's scheme of handing Lebanon over to Syria and Israel. Great hope is being attached to the visit of His Eminence Cardinal O'Conner to Lebanon next week. The Lebanese expect the backing of the U.S. Church to keep their independent Lebanon.

OFFICE OF THE AMBASSADOR

The Honorable
John Sununu
Chief of Staff
to the President
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

I was in the Washington area April 10-18, 1989 for annual consultations. Although I had hoped to meet and talk with you, your full schedule did not enable me the opportunity.

Since September 1986, I have served as the U.S. Ambassador to Czechoslovakia and am scheduled to return to the U.S. in July of this year as Ambassador Black has been appointed as my successor.

It was indeed a pleasure for me to have had an appointment on April 17 with President Bush, for whom I worked at the RNC during his term as Chairman of that Committee. During our discussion the President asked what I planned to do when I leave Prague post. I replied that I would be very honored to serve his Administration.

The President is aware that Chase Undermeyer has my file and is trying to match me with some other possible post.

Your support on my behalf would be very much appreciated. Although we have never met, I have been very active with the Party at the RNC as Director of the National Republican Heritage Groups, and as C/S of the Nationalities Division with the Reagan-Bush Campaign Committee in 1980.

I have attached a list of references for your review. All are aware of my past Party affiliation and related activities. Thank you for taking the time to read this letter. I very much hope to be able to serve President Bush.

Sincerely,

Julian M. Niemczyk

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
Office of the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I take this opportunity to recommend Douglas Wheeler as a candidate for the position of Assistant Secretary for Fish, Wildlife and Parks with the U.S. Department of the Interior. Having had the privilege of working with Mr. Wheeler on a professional basis over the past 15 years, I can readily attest to his outstanding commitment to the balanced use of America's natural resources and the high regard in which he is held by both the business and conservation communities.

As an individual who ably served in the Nixon Administration as a Deputy Assistant Secretary of Interior, he is well versed in the many issues facing the Department and as such would be a great asset to moving forward programs sought by the current Administration. As both Doug and his wife Heather were active in the Bush Campaign, their commitment to the ideals of the President are extremely appropriate.

As a profession in the conservation field for the past 20 years and one who is proud to have served on President Reagan's Commission on Americans Outdoors, I know of no individual more qualified for the important position of Assistant Secretary for Fish, Wildlife and Parks.

Thanking you for your attention to this recommendation, I am

Sincerely,

Patrick F. Noonan

URGENT

Your Honorable Dear Sir:

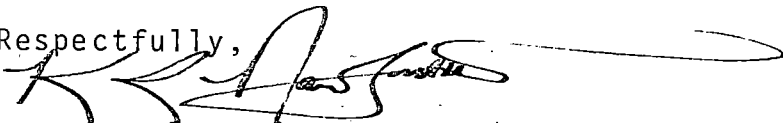

For several months now since your Presidential nomination and appointment to the post of Chief of Staff, the news media have described you as, "abrasive, arrogant, condescending, aloof, lordy, and lofty...", the latest article on you is being attached.

I myself would beg to differ with the media since I believe together with Einstein that "Genius is always a threat to the mediocre". I think the extraordinary brilliance of your mind and how you successfully function in all the endeavors placed before you is too complex for the ordinary to grasp, but then there is always the dual elements of professional jealousy and hearsay and not having a personal interview with you so that these media hounds would truly see for themselves how wonderfully able and competently dynamic you truly are.

Chief Sununu, I am a Pacific American. In December of last year I received an invitation from Mr. Chase Untermeyer to submit to him my Resume for beginning process of the post which I had written to President Bush of whom I have been supportive of his Presidency bid since 1980, of United States Ambassador to the United States Embassy in Suva, Fiji, for Fiji, Tonga, and Western Samoa. To date I have not heard from the White House as to the result of your deliberations, and so I implore you Chief Sununu since you are an American of Lebanese descent and so I feel immediate bonding with you because of my ethnic background to please look into the matter, and hopefully to have your support since that would hurdle and pole-vault me over some invisible barriers.

I readily avail myself Chief Sununu of this opportunity to extend to you assurances of my highest esteem and topmost considerations.

Most Respectfully,

DR. KAROLINE L. NAUFAHU, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR.

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Thank you very much for your recent letter on tuition tax credits. I hope with you that the President keeps building support for that idea. It will help the working poor most of all.

Several years ago President Reagan appointed me to the Board for International Broadcasting, on which I still serve. I want to indicate to you my willingness to continue to serve, if President Bush so desires. But let me qualify that.

For very serious institutional reasons, it is important for President Bush to keep this small Board (of nine) as intact as possible. Radio Liberty and Radio Free Europe are such powerful and frontline instruments of U.S. policy, especially in an age of glasnost, that it is crucial to maintain the Board in a certain stability and in a bi-partisan spirit. (This Board is a new institutional arrangement, now barely eight years old. It replaces an unwieldy arrangement of two separate Boards that over the years had caused much mischief. It took strong bi-partisan agreement to get it to where it is.) BIB is a crucial institution in which to have bi-partisan consensus.

In the same spirit, since I hold a "Democratic" seat, I am also willing to be replaced on the Board, should President Bush want new blood. My only plea is that the replacements not be wholesale. Three members come up for renewal annually, and resignations occur, so changes have a natural rhythm. It is important that the Board as an institution maintain substantial continuity.

It is, e.g., extremely useful to have Democrat Lane Kirkland, head of the AFL/CIO, on the Board, both in dealing with workers behind the Iron Curtain, and in his rapport with our own unions at RFE/RL in Munich. Similarly with James Michener and Ben Wattenberg (co-chairman) -- the other Democrats on the present Board.

Malcolm Forbes, Jr., (Steve) has proven to be a superb, active, and probably irreplaceable, chairman. You can't do better. I urge you to support him to the utmost.

In brief, if you need an open seat, take mine before any of these others. Please know that I am at the President's service, on the Board or off.

Respectfully,

Dear Governor Sununu:

Please find enclosed a copy of a statement read on my behalf at a recent press conference regarding the Environmental Protection Agencies decision to veto the Two Forks Water Project here in Colorado.

As a State Senator representing highly agricultural northern Colorado, I am deeply concerned by the lack of foresight shown by EPA Administrator William Reilly. Without the Two Forks Dam, the Denver Metro area will be forced to look to northern Colorado for its water supply, thus draining the water and with it the agriculturally based economy.

I hope you will consider the complete ramifications of this decision, both politically and economically. The refusal of Administrator Reilly to meet with the Colorado congressional delegation concerning a Colorado water project is quite unusual. The Two Forks project is a locally funded project with no state or federal funding.

I would appreciate your reviewing this situation and acting as quickly as possible to bring this back to the attention of the President. If I can be of further help please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

Dear John:

Between now and November, 1990, we have an incredible amount of work to accomplish in our quest to elect a Republican majority to the United States Senate. President's Bush Inauguration has us off to a great start.

As Chairman of the National Republican Senatorial Committee, my Republican colleagues in the Senate have placed me at the helm of this difficult task.

One of the programs that the NRSC has created to help raise money for our candidates is the Senatorial Trust. Each member of this group contributes $10,000 annually to the NRSC.

We would be honored if you would be our keynote speaker at the Trust luncheon on Tuesday, May 16, at 1:00 p.m. here in Washington.

This is an up and coming group of contributors. With your help, we will be able to build an even larger base to help our candidates.

Please have your office contact Ann Barrier at (202) 675-6062 to confirm your availability and answer any questions you may have.

I look forward to seeing you on May 16.

April 7, 1989

The Honorable John Sununu
The White House
Washington, DC 20501

Dear Governor Sununu:

The Sixteenth Annual Channel 11 Auction is scheduled for May 6 through May 13, and we are hoping to top last year's earnings of $324,000.

Our community support now furnishes a large part of our budget, and the auction is, of course, a vital contribution.

May we hope that you will again send something to auction, as you have for so many years? We look forward to your continued support, and the large audiences here and in adjoining states will enjoy bidding on any item sent by Governor Sununu.

We shall be very grateful.

Cheerfully yours,

Hope E. Noyes

AMERICANS FOR TAX REFORM

GROVER G. NORQUIST
President

Governor John Sununu
The White House

Dear Governor,

Great to see you at the Citizens for A Sound
Economy reception.

My taxpayer group, Americans for Tax Reform is working to build support for George Bush's pledge to oppose tax hikes.

I enclose the list of 108 members of the House who have signed my letter. They all pledge to support
Bush's veto of any tax hike.

My goal is 147, the one-third needed to sustain a veto.

Take care.

Sincerely,

Grover Norquist

P.S. I was just reminded that you were invited to my sisters wedding in 1984. Loraine and her husband Maged Tomeh were just in town visiting and they said
to say hello.

Mr. John Sumunu

Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sumunu:

I am extremely concerned about reports that the administration is being pressured to accept a $5 billion tax increase as part of this year's budget agreement. As founder and president of a resource network of approximately one million entrepreneurs across the country, I strongly urge you to resist any tax increases.

The American people sent a very clear message to Washington with the presidential election--No New Taxes! The proposal to raise $5 billion through changes in the tax code would constitute a tax increase, which is not acceptable.

Venture Magazine's Entrepreneurs of America is an active member of the Coalition for Fiscal Restraint (COFIRE) and we are dedicated to supporting policies that will provide an economic environment in which the small business owner can prosper. Our position is that additional federal revenue would not be used to reduce the federal deficit. The only effective remedy to reduce the deficit is through restraint in the growth of federal spending.

On behalf of entrepreneurs in this country, I request that you bring fiscal sensibility to the budget process and oppose any increase in taxes.

Sincerely,

Ted Nicholas

Dear Governor:

I hope that your transition from the "hot seat" in the capitol of the State of New Hampshire to the "super hot seat" in the White House has not been too devastating.

Now, on to the business at hand.

In the two weeks since the Alaskan oil spill, courtesy of Exxon, the oil refiners and marketers have raised the price of gasoline and other petroleum products by more than 15%.

Millions of Americans believe that these refiners and marketers are gouging the public on the pretext of limited supplies due to the oil spill, when in reality, the real cause is greed and opportunism.

The high price of gasoline will soon be reflected in the rate of inflation and will, without more, bring us back to the Carter era of stagflation. The plans of the Bush Administration to bring the budget deficit under control will soon lie at the bottom of the sea covered with globs of oil garbage.

BUT IT NEED NOT BE SO!

An appropriate public question by President Bush to the oil refiners and marketers may well bring them to their senses. And, importantly, it will show the American people that their concerns are the Bush concerns.

A kinder, gentler nation can only come about through an unabused, un-gouged people.

This is a great opportunity for our President to serve his constituency, while enhancing his standing with them. The elections of 1990 and 1992 are right around the corner.

Best wishes to you for your continued success.

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
New Executive Office Building
725 17th Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20503

Dear Governor Sununu:

I am writing to invite you to participate in Congressional Quarterly's conference, "New Strategies for State Government Relations," which will be held on Monday, July 10, 1989, at the Capital Hilton Hotel, 16th and K Streets, N.W., Washington, D.C.

I am inviting you to deliver the luncheon address which is scheduled for 1:15 - 2:15 p.m. The topic is the role of the governor in the modern state. Although you have moved on to the White House as the Chief of Staff for the President, your tenure as the Governor of New Hampshire placed you at the forefront of the resurgence of the political importance of the states. You can speak from experience on the pressures and demands faced by state executives as they act to provide many of the services and programs which the federal government can no longer provide. Some suggested areas for discussion are: What is the current climate of the relationship between governors and state legislatures? Are the powers of the governor declining? How does a governor influence legislation? When and how should a lobbyist try to approach the governor for assistance? In other words, how can a government relations representative work with a governor to identify and pursue mutually beneficial goals? During your time as New Hampshire's Governor, there must have been many instances when you had to determine a proper course of action by balancing the multiple demands that were placed upon you. The participants at this conference would benefit greatly if you could share some practical "do's and don'ts" based on your experience.

Based on past seminars, the program attendees have many questions, so you could speak for about 30 minutes and leave the remaining time for "Q & A." Lunch and the address are scheduled for 12:30 - 2:15 p.m. If you are unable to present the luncheon address, but would be willing to participate at another time during the day, we do have some flexibility in our schedule and could accommodate you accordingly. The program will run the full day and you are welcome to join us for as much of the day as your schedule permits.

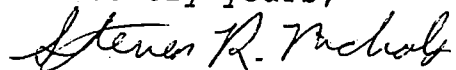

The goal of this conference is to present information and ideas to state government relations representatives that will enable them to anticipate and influence legislative, executive and other political activities concerning their interests. Other topics that are scheduled to be discussed during this one-day program include: current concerns and future trends in state governments; how to chart the the power structures within the various state legislatures; coalition building and grassroots organizing; and initiatives and referendums. There will also be concurrent sessions for corporate and association representatives on designing and expanding a state government relations effort.

CQ has held this seminar twice in the past, in 1986 and 1987. Based on past experience, we expect 100-125 people to attend. Half of these likely will be from the Washington, D.C. area and half from out of town. In the past, the majority of the attendees from the D.C. area have represented associations while most of those from out of town have represented corporations. This is a professional audience with an average of 5-10 years of experience in government relations. They want to leave this seminar with "nuts & bolts" information that they can apply now to do their jobs better.

We at CQ hope that you will be able to participate in this conference. I will contact your office on Tuesday, April 4th to see if you are able to accept this invitation. If you or your staff have any questions, please feel free to call me at 887-8682.

Sincerely yours,

Steven R. Nichols

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I attended the fundraising dinner for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital given in your honor on March 18, 1989 in Washington, D.C. I was honored to be there and pleased to assist your efforts and the work of St. Jude's.

I am an attorney in Tampa, Florida, and I am a third generation Lebanese-American. The evening for me therefore held added significance. I took great pride in the achievements of the Lebanese Americans at the podium and in the audience.

Although I am a registered Democrat, I am encouraged by policy positions taken by the new administration, and I strongly support increased federal assistance in the areas of education, drug enforcement, and legislation for the homeless.

I am sorry that I did not have an opportunity to meet you during the evening and hope to have the opportunity some other time.

Best wishes to you in your work.

Very truly yours,

Joyce A. Nader

Dear Mr. Sununu:

The Leadership Conference on Civil Rights will hold its annual Hubert H. Humphrey Civil Rights Award Dinner on Tuesday evening, May 9, in the Ballroom of the Hyatt Regency on Capitol Hill. We would like you to be our guest. The reception starts at 6:30 p.m. and dinner at 7:30 p.m.

This annual bipartisan event brings together 1000 prominent civil rights, political, corporate, and labor leaders from around the country to pay tribute to those who best exemplify "selfless and devoted service in the cause of equality."

The 1989 honorees are the Honorable Lowell Weicker and the Honorable Barbara Jordan. In addition to saluting our distinguished honorees, this year's dinner will commemorate the 25th anniversary of the enactment of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

As the oldest and most broadly based coalition in the nation, the Leadership Conference consists of 180 major national organizations representing minorities, women, disabled persons, older Americans, labor, religious groups, and minority businesses and professions.

In its 39th year, the Conference continues to mount both bipartisan legislative initiatives to promote equality of opportunity and rearguard actions to protect the hard won civil rights gains of the past.

We hope that you will be able to join us. We look forward to hearing from you. Please use the enclosed form or contact Lisa Haywood for reservations (667-1780).

Sincerely,

Ralph G. Neas

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I appreciated the opportunity to meet with you recently to discuss the President's Clean Air Act proposals.

In our discussion, you asked that we identify our major concerns with the proposal. We believe that, in order to meet the President's objectives in a flexible, cost-effective and efficient manner, the following major issues should be addressed.

- o Sulfur dioxide emissions caps and offsets.

The sulfur dioxide caps and offset provisions are unnecessary to achieve the emission reduction goal of 10 million tons by the year 2000; an annual SO₂ emission rate of 1.2 lb/mmBTU would be sufficient to meet the bill's emission reduction objective. The caps and offsets substantially increase the cost of the bill; could severely inhibit economic growth; penalize the cleanest, most efficient units in operation; minimize potential trading under the bill by providing a powerful incentive to utilities to hold excess allowances for future use; and place the reliability and integrity of electric systems in jeopardy by effectively limiting the hours of operation by utility boilers.

- o Baseline dates for the purpose of computing allowable emissions.

The baseline dates for purposes of computing allowable emissions introduce major inequities and regional disparities among utilities and groups of utilities due to differences in operating factors in different systems.

o Emissions trading program.

The plan takes a major step in emissions control by proposing an innovative trading policy. However, little emissions trading is likely to occur due to cumbersome administrative procedures, permit program and compliance plan requirements, the tight compliance schedule, and the offsets requirement for future new sources. The complexity of the administrative process could make the program unworkable and streamlining is necessary.

o Clean coal technologies.

While the advantages of clean coal technologies clearly are recognized by the legislation, insufficient time and incentives are provided to bring the full spectrum of clean coal technologies into widespread commercial use. The extension should be lengthened, and this and other incentives should be available to the full range of technologies under development.

o Enforcement and judicial review.

Title VI would make major changes in the enforcement provisions of the current Clean Air Act, even though current law provides broad and effective civil enforcement and criminal prosecution powers. It would limit the right to judicial review of EPA actions, and limit the ability of parties to get a full and fair hearing in civil and criminal cases.

o Oxides of Nitrogen reductions.

It is not clear that the NOx standard to be developed will take into account significant differences in boiler designs and the difficulties of measuring NOx emissions.

As you suggested in the meeting, we will send papers providing a detailed discussion of these issues and will be pleased to provide additional information in the future. We assure you that we intend to be attentive to the President's proposal as it moves through the legislative process and hope that the Congress and the Administration will consider our concerns about these and several other provisions.

Page three

As we stated in our June 7, 1989, letter to the President, our objective is to implement clean air goals in a way which protects the nation's energy supply, environment, and its economy.

We look forward to working with you and your staff.

Again, I enjoyed meeting with you. If I can be of assistance in any way, please call me or John Shlaes of my staff.

Sincerely yours,

Dear John,

The leaders of the two organizations on the masthead of the enclosed letter know -- from me -- that I have no political clout.

We are all well aware, however, the enclosed letter cannot come to President Bush's attention except through you.

It asks nothing. It seeks no favors.

It is, instead, a sincere expression of beliefs I have many times shared with you directly here in New Hampshire -- the uniquely prosperous state I see as the most nearly "Georgist" of the fifty.

Henry George's prescription for a healthy economy, in his own words, emblazoned in the newspaper he published, is quite simply this: "The Standard advocates the abolition of all taxes upon industry and the products of industry, and the taking, by taxation upon land values irrespective of improvements, of the annual rental value of all those various forms of natural opportunities embraced under the general term, Land."

That comes pretty close to the effective way you successfully governed New Hampshire.

It goes but little farther than the campaign pledge.

It is consistent with things Secretary Kemp has written.

We are small organizations, but steadily gaining strength in state legislatures, city councils, mayor's offices, among economists in leading universities, and increasingly with the people.

Most important, we want you and the President to know how much we appreciate the courage you are showing in the struggle against privilege and greed which must, at times, seem overwhelming.

Sincerely,

Richard Noyes

Subject: Restoration Trust Corp.

Dear Governor Sununu:

As a resident of "our" New Hampshire, I feel very comfortable writing to you with my concerns and opinions. This letter, however, is also an offer to be involved in the process of making the Restoration Trust Corp. successful and viable.

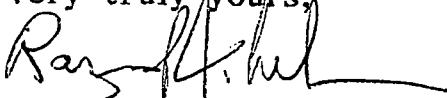

It is my understanding that the Restoration Trust Corp. (the restoration of the S & L assets) is or will shortly be in its formative stages. As my attached resume will show, I bring with me a unique talent and uncommon, but extensive experience in resurrecting "poorly planned and executed" real estate adventures. Hard work, experience and a liberal sprinkling of the creative intellect are what it takes in the private sector and will be all the more applicable in the quasi-public sector. If restoration is truly to be achieved, the answers will not be found drowning within a bureaucracy, but through a blend of private initiative and public fortitude in a spirit of compromise.

My assumption is that one of the primary objectives of the Restoration Trust Corp. will be to define and implement a viable alternative to the forced liquidation of the assets. This would demand, as a prerequisite, for disposition or restoration a comprehensive financial analysis, market feasibility, and designation of short and long range Return on Investment goals. These decisions must come from management personnel accustomed to dealing in this genre and committed to expediting the designated objectives. My experience encompasses all these areas.

At this time in history, with this monumental problem in the foreground, the development industry has a great deal to offer to its government. As an individual, I am prepared to make good that offer with my skills, my experience and my personal commitment. Your endorsement of me to this task is most appreciated.

References as to my character and abilities are available upon request. Please do give this request your consideration. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss this further with you.

Very truly yours,

Raymond X. Nolan

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

AUG 2 1989

Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear ~~Mr. Sununu:~~ ^{Governor,}

As a part of the Office of Personnel Management's mission, we oversee the operation of the Senior Executive Service (SES), that personnel system which employs approximately 7,000 top career and noncareer managers and policy advisors who serve just below presidential appointees.

With the enactment of the Civil Service Reform Act of 1978, Executive Resources Boards (ERB's) were given the responsibility of molding the SES into a dynamic and effective corps, a powerful force for increasing federal productivity. ERB Chairpersons are selected by their Department and Agency Heads and include both career and noncareer executives. In order to assist Departments and Agencies in the management and planning of their executive workforces, OPM is hosting a conference for Executive Resources Board Chairpersons.

I would be extremely pleased if you could be part of this much needed conference. President Bush, in addressing the SES on January 26, 1989, recognized these executives as those who will help him formulate and carry out his programs and policies. As this year is the 10th anniversary of the creation of the SES and also the first time that OPM has called the ERB Chairpersons together since 1979, I would be very honored to have you address the conference.

Because there are 130 ERB Chairpersons, we are planning two sessions of 65 attendees each during the week of September 18. There will be two dinners at 7:00 p.m. on September 18 and 21, 1989, in Charlottesville, Virginia. During whichever one of these you choose, I would appreciate your speaking on the Administration's support of the SES and the important role the ERB's will play in the accomplishment of our goals.

Your presence would greatly enhance the success of our objectives at this conference. I am looking forward to your being a part of this important initiative.

Sincerely,

Constance Berry Newman

Honorable The Dr. John H. Sununu

Your Honorable Dear Sir:

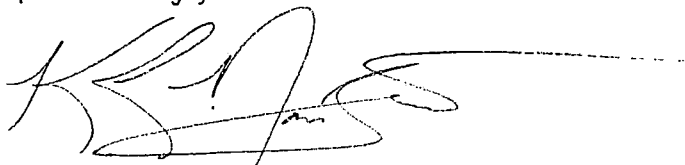

Way back in 1980 when the Republican Party refused to consider George Bush having Presidential material, I strongly believed in George Bush, EVEN THEN, and still do, and now when he has proven to be a dynamic and outstanding President in having pulled the country up and out of mountains of difficulties already, I am glad for it, because the 47 millions of Americans who have voted for the other candidate are now proven wrong, including the Republican Party for not believing in him in 1980.

And so, I am permanently grateful for President Bush for having been my role model in refusing to take NO for an answer, in having guts, courage, self-confidence, and tenacious belief in oneself. Hence my continuing to write him indirectly through you in my appeal, since news media indicated that communications only get to the President through his Chief of Staff, and that is You.

Chief Sununu, even if the President and his Administration refused to believe that I am Ambassadorial material, just as the Republican Party refused to believe that the President had Presidential material in 1980, and now HE HAS PROVEN THEM ALL WRONG, then at least please seriously consider me for Consul General/Consul for either one of the American Embassies in New Zealand/Fiji.

Please accept once again reassurances of my highest esteem and topmost considerations.

Respectfully,

I am writing on behalf of Edward Nagel who is seeking a position on the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

Ed is a lifelong Republican who has the type of credentials we need to help make balanced decisions on the energy matters which are of crucial importance to our country's economic progress. I have enclosed a copy of his resume.

We in Pennsylvania feel we are deserving of representation on the FERC. The Northeast has not had a representative for quite some time so I would urge you to give Mr. Nagel every consideration.

The Honorable John Sununu

Dear John:

On October 2, 1989, we will be celebrating the 10th Anniversary of the founding of the Republican Senatorial Inner Circle.

As you know, the Inner Circle was established in 1979 for the purpose of electing a Republican Majority to the United States Senate.

What started with a few hundred people ten years ago, has now grown into a nationwide organization of thousands of loyal Republicans. These dedicated Americans have given millions of dollars to the Inner Circle and our Senate candidates directly as a sign of their loyalty.

I am writing today because I would like you to play a very special part in our Inner Circle Fall Briefing being held on October 1 and 2 here in Washington. Specifically, I would like you to be our keynote speaker at our "Salute to Republican Leaders" luncheon on October 2.

The luncheon will be held from 12:15-1:30 p.m. in the Grand Ballroom at the Mayflower Hotel, 1127 Connecticut Avenue, N.W. We would ask that you speak for 15-20 minutes.

Please have your scheduler contact Ann Barrier of my staff at 675-6082 by July 31 to confirm your participation. I'm looking forward to your keynote speech at our "Salute to Republican Leaders" luncheon on October 2.

It is a pleasure to offer my endorsement of Mrs. Linda Arey Skladany for appointment to the Administration.

My understanding is that she is interested in remaining at the Occupational Safety and Health Review Commission as chairman or commissioner. She would also be amenable to appointment to another commission such as the Federal Trade Commission, the International Trade Commission, or the Consumer Product Safety Commission.

Linda's list of accomplishments and contributions to the Republican Party is quite impressive. A copy of her resume is enclosed for your information.

Linda has much to offer the Administration and the nation, and I believe her expertise and experience would be valuable assets. Your consideration of her qualifications would be very much appreciated.

Sincerely,

DON NICKLES

Dear Mr. Sununu,

On behalf of the New Hampshire Coalition for Available and Affordable Insurance Protection, I would like to extend our gratitude for the New Hampshire legislative sessions you supported the Coalition's liability reform initiatives, accompanied by a measure of grief from the opposition.

This session, the NH General Court passed a modification of the doctrine of joint liability. - a realization of the initiative supported by your administration. In New Hampshire as of January 1, 1990, defendants in liability lawsuits who are less than 50% at fault will only be held liable for thier percentage of fault, regardless of other insolvent defendents (an exception was made for environmental cases).

The Coalition is knowing that this realization of our efforts would not have been possible without the previous four years of information and support to the NH General Court. Three years of that effort would not have been possible had we not been fortunate to have a Governor who supported the concept of fairness in liability cases.

Even though the enacted bill does not provide a total abolishment of the doctrine of joint liability, it provides more than most states and is certainly a milestone in reinstating fairness in liability laws.

Thank you for your stalwart support as Governor of our State - the results were evidenced by the House roll call vote on the Bill (SB 110).

Very Truly Yours,

Yvonne L. Nanasi

Best wishes from the Coalition

Dear Governor Sununu,

Thank you so much for taking the time to meet with the Catholic educational leaders last week at the White House. President Bush's acknowledgement of the contribution of Catholic schools to our Nation was greatly appreciated. Your willingness to meet with us to discuss the concern that "parental choice" not exclude Catholic and other non-public schools as well as some of the funding problems we confront was cause for hope.

I am writing at this time to ask that President Bush include someone to represent the Catholic school perspective when he appoints his Education Advisory Committee. As I mentioned in our meeting, Catholic schools are generally overlooked despite their well-documented contribution to our Nation.

With gratitude and warmest wishes, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Reverend Douglas R. Nowicki, Ph.D.
Secretary for Education

NATIONAL OFFICE OF TONGAN/PACIFIC AFFAIRS

June 9, 1989

Your Honorable Dear Chief Sununu:

Thank you very much for your letter of June 5th.

Would the President please consider me for Deputy, or the Cultural Affairs Attache, or the Consular post for the United States Embassy in Fiji, for Fiji, Tonga, and Western Samoa for the following reason germane to the Bush Administration's articulation that the United States is a Pacific power.

Even though another American has been chosen to represent the President and the United States in that Embassy, I still respectfully ask to serve the Bush Administration in that Embassy because I am an American from that area of the Pacific, and has lived there; KNOWS the area, its geography, its history, its peoples, their multifaceted cultures, various customs, their different "languages" both in written feature and oral traditions, their fundamental beliefs, spoken and unspoken, defined and undefined mores, and sometimes ambiguous yet acceptable formal and informal social behaviors crucial for effective American diplomacy to enhance lasting diplomatic relations needed for bilateral understanding and meaningful American/Pacific comprehension during the Bush Administration so that the United States in its entire history would finally during the Bush Administration have the unrefutable stronghold and palpable presence in the Pacific for the United States to be taken seriously in both Pacific dynamics and global politics undeniably as truly a Pacific power.

Chief Sununu, let me please hear from you about my humble appeal as stated in the foregoing. By all media accounts, your word has great weight and worth in the Administration and that you have the ear and confidence of the President. I avail myself of this opportunity to again extend to you renewed reassurances of my highest esteem and topmost considerations.

Most Respectfully,

DR. KAROLINE D. NAUFAHU
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR.
