The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

It has been some time since we last talked and our roles have changed. However, I am writing about a mutual interest. In addition to my role at Bear, Stearns I am now the Chairman of the National Association of Securities Professionals. I have attached a note outlining the organization.

On March 22 - 23, 1990, we will hold our National Legislative Conference in Washington, D.C. We expect to have 200 - 300 top people from the securities industry in attendance. Our first day of activity will be spent on the Hill with appropriate Congressional leaders. I would like to devote Friday morning, March 23, 1990 to issues important to us and the Bush administration. I would like to request that the White House provide us with a briefing from 9AM to 12 Noon that day. We would like the President to address the organization, yourself, and other Cabinet members such as Treasury, HUD, SEC, Commerce and the Council on Economic Advisors. We would be especially interested in a briefing on the FIRREA legislation.

I plan to be in Washington on January 12, 1990 and I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss this with you, Andy Card or other members of your staff whom you deem appropriate.

We appreciate your interest in our request and I personally feel that this meeting would be most beneficial for us and the Bush administration.

Sincerely,

Bill Hayden

RE: Charles Thomas Yarrington, Jr., M.D.

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I am writing on behalf Dr. C. Thomas Yarrington who is currently a candidate for a position on the Board of Regents of the Uniformed Services University of Health Sciences.

I have known Tom Yarrington for over 20 years and have worked closely with him on many committees in our mutual medical specialty of otolaryngology. Tom has made considerable contributions to medicine and to our specialty in particular, and has been extremely active on a national level.

It is also important to note that he has served his country in many capacities. He first achieved the rank of Lt. Colonel in the U.S. Army and then went on to a career in the U.S. Air Force where he achieved the rank of Brig. General. He retired in 1986 but has continued to maintain a close association with the Armed Forces in his capacity as Consultant to the Surgeon General of the United States Air Force. In addition, Tom is a graduate of the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College and the Air War College.

Tom would bring a broad background to the Board which would include patient care, research in medicine, and a deep understanding of military medicine.

As you know, I worked quite diligently for the President's election, and thus I would only recommend an individual whom I felt would serve both the country and Mr. Bush well.

I sincerely hope that you will give Dr. Yarrington every consideration for this position, as I feel he would be a credit to the Uniformed Services University of Health Sciences and his country.

Best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year.

Sincerely yours,

Gerald B. Healy

Administered with the cooperation of Harvard University

December 15, 1989

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear John:

I was very interested in your explanation and interpretation of the administration's foreign policy on the MacNeil-Lehrer Report yesterday evening. I thought that your emphasis on including within U.S. policy all of the conflicting impressions of the Soviet phenomenon, provided one aspect is dominant, was entirely valid.

With my respects, I enclose two copies of my own commentary on the Bush administration foreign policy, so far. Within the critical review that it presents, there is an argument for a formalization of the American-West European-Japanese relationship (see especially pp. 27-28, although the supportive argumentation precedes those pages).

Secretary Baker has previously spoken about finding a way to institutionalize transpacific relationships and, more recently, he has spoken of a new transatlantic architecture (relying on NATO but perhaps formalizing the U.S.-E.C. relationship). For the reasons that I adduce in the enclosed study, I suggest a major American effort to construct an Atlantic-Pacific political entity, an "Economic Summit" Community. We need to have Japan better included in Western political cooperation now.

Re: MIT Club of Washington

Dear Governor Sununu:

On behalf of the MIT Club of Washington, its Board and members, we would like to express our appreciation to you, Dr. Bromley, Mr. Siv, and Mr. Duncan for your informative and fascinating briefing to MIT Club members on November 13, 1989 in the Old Executive Office Building. This meeting stimulated a very high degree of interest among MIT Club members -- the greatest we can remember.

The briefing we received more than fulfilled our expectations. We appreciated the insights you gave us about the Office of the President, and your role in the Administration. You were most generous with time spent answering individuals' questions.

Dr. Bromley's presentation concerning goals for his office and opportunities for input directly and through advisory groups was of great interest. Our science-oriented members were glad to hear from both you and Dr. Bromley of the ways in which science and technology concerns are factored into the decision-making process in the White House.

While this program provided a unique opportunity to better understand the Bush Administration's policies and programs, it was the individuals who addressed us that made the afternoon special for all who attended, and to whom we are deeply grateful. We were sorry that time ran out before we could hear Dr. Porter. We hope we can arrange for a session with him in 1990.

Sincerely,

Anne W. Howe, President

Dear Mr. Sununu:

This coming January, in conjunction with the Republican National Committee meetings in Washington, Republicans Abroad International, the overseas arm of the party, will hold its Executive Committee sessions in Washington.

As part of the planned agenda for Republicans Abroad, approximately 35 Country Chairmen and Executive Committee members representing over 3 million Americans in more than 65 countries around the world, will attend a special White House briefing on the political outlook and strategy for the 1990 elections. It would be an especially meaningful and appropriate gesture for this group to have the benefit of your insight and thoughts on the current political outlook.

The leadership of Republicans Abroad is composed of leading Americans, many of whom are heads of multinational corporations and other important American interests and enterprises overseas. In addition to the absentee ballots brought in by Republicans Abroad for our candidates, our leadership has been thoroughly supportive of this Administration's national agenda and initiatives.

Realizing the demands on your schedule, I hope that you will give this request special consideration. We would be honored if you could address the group at some point in the January 18th meeting, scheduled for 3:30 - 5:00 P.M. in the Old Executive Office Building.

Thanking you in advance for your interest, I am,

Sincerely,

Dear Governor:

Congress' loss is Staten Island's gain!

Let me take this occasion to extend to you an invitation to join Stu Spencer and me in wishing Congressman Guy Molinari farewell and bon voyage before he returns to New York City to become President of the Burrough of Staten Island.

As you know, Guy has been a great friend here in Washington having served in the Congress for the past nine years. In addition to his public service leadership posts, co-chairing the George Bush for President Congressional Steering Committee and serving as the Bush for President New York State Chairman were assignments that he undertook with great relish.

On Tuesday, December 19th we are hosting an Italian send off at the Capitol Hill Club from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Again, despite the short notice we do hope you can join us. Replies should be directed to Kelly (Ph. # 225-5614) with Congressman Gerald Solomon.

Best regards,

Dear Mr. Sanunu:

I want to share with you a matter of grave concern. An American citizen, Lonnie Rex, President of David Livingston Missionary Foundation, an international relief agency, is being held under house arrest by security police in Ghana.

Mr. Rex, along with two other foundation executives, Robert Boyd and Larson Perry, have been detained for an extended period of time with no formal charges made. It has also been brought to our attention that these gentlemen have been denied basic human needs of adequate food, water, and essential medications.

Sir, I urge you to use all of the power invested in your office and the prestige of your personal name and position to do everything possible to secure the immediate release of these men.

I thank you in advance for your prompt response to this letter.

PERSONAL

Dear Governor Sununu:

On Saturday, January 27, 1990, the West Virginia Republican Party will be conducting an all-day program entitled "A Republican Revival: Leadership For The Nineties" in Charleston. During the morning, we will be conducting the Winter Meeting of the State Republican Executive Committee. In the afternoon, we will hold a huge rally at the State Capitol, followed by a reception and dinner at the Charleston Civic Center.

We expect to have at least 1,000 Republicans, including many converts from the Democratic Party, in attendance at the rally and dinner.

The reception will be a big-ticket fund-raiser, to be attended by 100 persons contributing $1,000 each.

We hereby invite you to serve as a featured speaker at either the reception or dinner, or both. Your presence will help to ensure the success of these events, and will help propel the Republican Party in West Virginia into an election campaign that is critical to our State.

We have also extended an invitation to Vice-President Quayle to be a featured speaker at one of the events.

At the moment, we are in the midst of recruiting top-notch candidates to run for U. S. Senate, Congress and the State Legislature, as well as for Attorney General and Treasurer. January 27 is exactly one week prior to the filing deadline for candidates, and I strongly believe that your presence at this event will inspire several reluctant candidates to go ahead and file.

Hon. John Sununu
December 12, 1989

We have been struggling mightily to resurrect our Party after the devastating defeat of Governor Arch Moore last year, and you can play a major role in that resurrection if you will favor us with your presence on the 27th. Please let me know at the earliest possible time if you can accept this invitation. Should you have any questions, please call me at either of the following numbers: (304) 599-8175 (law office) or (304) 594-3555 (home).

Most sincerely yours,

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President

The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

Ambassador Dubinin just informed me that the Soviet Union has agreed to trade an "SS-20" for a Pershing-2 missile, making possible our proposed exhibit to memorialize the INF Treaty. A copy of his letter is enclosed. The timing of this response, after more than a year of inquiries from us, may have something to do with the recent expression of interest by you and by Dr. Bromley. In any event, I wish to thank you for your support.

I want to raise with you the possibility that the INF missile exhibit might be opened to coincide with the June 1990 summit conference in Washington. As a concrete manifestation of the world's first nuclear disarmament treaty, this opening could provide an appropriate setting for a symbolic gesture by the two presidents, should they wish to avail themselves of it. It may be difficult logistically to meet the June deadline, but if this interests the Administration, we will of course plan accordingly and make every possible effort. Please let me know.

Again, thank you for your support.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Martin Harwit

Dear John:

My good friend Phil Meinhardt has been nominated by the Honorable Stephen J. Hadley, Deputy Secretary of Defense, to be a DOD Arms Control Representative.

In addition to his substantial technical qualifications for the job, Phil earned my respect for his commitment to President Bush and the Republican party last year when he took on the task of challenging the three-term incumbent congressman in Kansas' Second District.

For the nine months of his campaign, Phil and his wife, Elizabeth, carried the Republican banner into every community in northeast Kansas. In addition to campaigning with Neil Bush, Phil used every opportunity--in television debates and other joint appearances with his opponent--to articulate the contrasts between the records of Mr. Dukakis and President Bush.

Among the first Kansans to graduate from the Air Force Academy, Phil's Air Force service career includes eight years in space and missile technology, and eight years in planning and policy.

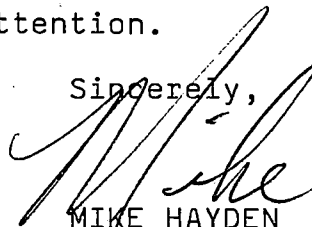

Phil Meinhardt served this nation well for three decades in southeast Asia and other trouble spots around the globe. I believe he would serve the nation--and the Bush Administration--with distinction as an Arms Control Representative.

Governor Sununu

I'm enclosing a background report on Phil which details his experience and qualifications. Please get in touch with me if I can be of any assistance in providing additional information about Phil.

Thank you for your kind attention.

Dear Governor Sununu

This is to enlist your support in reaching President Bush. We seek the Presidential Freedom Medal for Earl Elmer Bakken of Minneapolis.

We have support from the President of the University of Minnesota, the Chairman of Medicine and his colleagues in cardiology at the Mayo Clinic and the Minnesota Senators, David Durenberg and Rudy Beshwitz.

To identify myself and our meeting five years ago, I attach a copy of the generous citation you gave me in 1984. At dinner you reminded me of your work on the Beth Israel heart lung machine.

We thank you for your service to us all.

Sincerely

Dwight E. Harken, M.D.

P.S. November 20, 1989. At dinner last evening our Russian authority, Professor Richard Pipes, indicated that you met again last week, at Camp David during the President's briefing for the upcoming Summit. He mentioned and you recalled, our meeting at the pleasant ceremony in New Hampshire indicated above and in the attached.

December 7, 1989

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I am writing on behalf of the members of the Interstate Natural Gas Association (INGAA) to request you require reconsideration of the recently released Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) between the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the Department of the Army Concerning the Determination of Mitigation Under the Clean Water Act Section 404(b)(1) Guidelines, which will become effective December 14, 1989.

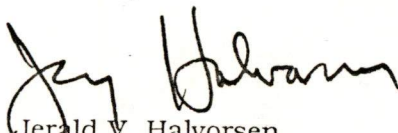

The MOA sets new binding wetlands mitigation policy and standards beyond those required by the current guidelines without public comment and consultation with other agencies involved in wetlands protection policy. In addition, the MOA is premature in light of recent congressional actions on wetlands protection. We believe an issue with such far-reaching implications should be discussed with all interested parties.

Of particular concern to interstate natural gas pipelines is (C) on page five of the MOA, which states that "other reviews, such as NEPA and the Corps public interest review, cannot be used to nullify any Guidelines requirements or to justify less rigorous Guidelines evaluations."

Many pipelines are planning to expand their natural gas service to regions of the country such as the Northeast which do not currently have access to gas supplies. It seems inconsistent to us that the Administration on the one hand encourages the use of clean-burning natural gas in the clean air debate and on the other is limiting the criterion of "public interest" in approval of pipeline construction. We believe many of expansion projects awaiting approval by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission could be jeopardized by the MOA.

Thank you for your consideration of our request.

Sincerely,

Jerald V. Halvorsen

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I am writing on behalf of a close personal friend and associate of mine who is seeking employment in the Washington, D.C. area. His name is Bob Friant and I have enclosed a copy of his resume for your perusal.

Bob served as my legislative assistant and Chief of Staff for many years. And, as you can see in his resume, went on to do service with Congressman Jim Courter and the New Jersey Republican State Committee.

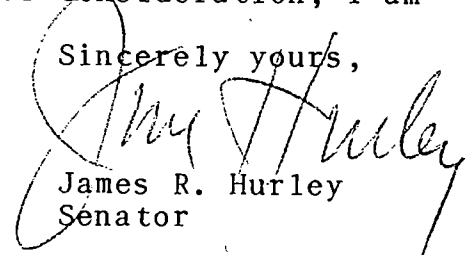

Although he is just 26 years old, Bob has amassed a great deal of knowledge and experience over the past ten years. He enjoys working with people and excels at establishing a good rapport with the public. Bob was a candidate for public office in my home county at the age of 25.

I can tell you from first-hand experience that he is a hard working, dedicated and competent individual. I submit his resume with my highest recommendation.

If you have any available positions, I would urge you to grant Bob an interview. He would be an asset to your office.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration, I am

Sincerely yours,

James R. Hurley

Dear John:

Undoubtedly the prompt placement of a Commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration is a high White House priority. Situated here in Washington, D.C., is a man eminently qualified for the post.

Dr. Edward J. Burger, Jr., a physician, is presently Director of the Institute for Health Policy Analysis at the Georgetown University Medical Center. He has had Executive Branch experience. He has received two degrees each from McGill University and Harvard University, two of which were at the doctoral level.

During his entire professional career Dr. Burger has been involved in public health and has vast experience as an administrator and a supervisor. He served for nearly a decade on the faculty of the Harvard School for Public Health. He served in the White House office of the President's Science Advisor for five years during which time much of his work concerned the regulatory agencies including the FDA.

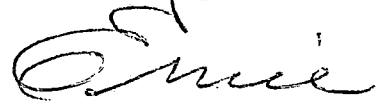

My personal association with Dr. Burger covers many years and centers upon his service as an advisor to the National Legal Center, over which I preside. I have found Dr. Burger to reflect the highest standards of his profession; to be serious, straightforward and competent. His role as Commissioner of the FDA would prove to be an asset for the Administration and, more importantly, for the Nation.

The Honorable John H. Sununu

While the National Legal Center takes no official position with respect to any candidate for any office in government, I, as an individual citizen, commend Dr. Burger to your serious evaluation beginning with his impressive Curriculum Vitae, enclosed.

Personal best regards.

Dear John:

I am sending you this material on behalf of a great many people in American higher education who are concerned about the status of Ph.D-trained engineers in the United States. This is an effort which has been led by Dr. Steven Sample, President of SUNY-Buffalo and Dr. Ross Mettler, retired President of TRW.

We would greatly appreciate a few minutes of your time to explain this initiative. We believe it will have substantial Congressional support in its efforts to address this tremendous problem.

Sincerely,

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

ASSUMPTION COLLEGE

500 Salisbury Street, Worcester, Massachusetts 01615-0005 Telephone: 508/752-5615

November 20, 1989

Dear Governor:

It was nice to see you at the New England Council annual dinner in Boston the other night. Congratulations again on the signal recognition you received on that occasion.

We think highly of you here at Assumption and are proud that you are a fellow New Englander. I am acquainted with Andy Card and Ron Kaufman and am active in Republican affairs here in Massachusetts. There is strong support for President Bush in this area, especially in light of our unfortunate fiscal crisis in the state. His strong leadership at the national level is an inspiration to us all.

I hope you will consider the possibility of addressing a commencement exercise here and receiving an honorary doctoral degree. A possible date would be Saturday, May 18, 1991, our seventy-fourth Commencement. It will be held at 10:00 a.m. on the College campus, and these ceremonies are attended by about 5,000 people. Please give it some thought.

Enclosed, for your information, is a copy of our most recent view book.

With every good wish,

Sincerely,

Mr. John Sununu

President George Bush
The White House

Dear John:

I have been contacted by the Mobile, Alabama, chapter of the National Alliance of Lebanese Americans. According to Mr. Ed Kahalley, Sr., Chairman of that chapter, the Council of Lebanese American Organizations is sponsoring a peaceful demonstration to show solidarity with the people of Lebanon, on Thursday, November 30, 1989, in Washington, D.C.

I am writing you in support of that request. In light of the recent assassination of Lebanese President Rene Moawad, it is very likely that more fighting will erupt and more shellings will ensue.

As you are probably well aware by now, Mr. Kahalley and his colleagues strongly disagree with U.S. policy in Lebanon. They say that is a pro-Syria--not a pro-Lebanon--policy.

It is my sincere hope that President Bush will take this opportunity to assure these Lebanese Americans that the United States is genuinely concerned that Lebanon resolve its problems peacefully and democratically.

Please be kind enough to let me know of President Bush's decision regarding this request. Should the President decide to meet with them, please be kind enough to advise Mr. Joseph Esseff, Council President, P.O. Box 28312, Washington, D.C. 20038.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Howell Heflin

NATIONAL AIR AND SPACE MUSEUM

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION

WASHINGTON, D. C. 20560

November 24, 1989

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
of the United States
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

As we discussed this morning at the World Stamp Expo, I am sending you some background material on the proposed museum exchange of INF missiles, which I believe would have great symbolic significance for the nation and for our relationship with the Soviet Union.

For about 18 months, the National Air and Space Museum has been working to obtain a Soviet SS-20 missile to exhibit next to an American Pershing II missile, as a permanent memorial to the first nuclear disarmament agreement ever consummated. The recently negotiated INF Treaty allows each party to retain 15 INF missiles to be modified for public display.

The Museum has proposed an exchange with the Soviet Union of a Pershing II for an SS-20, which would permit both countries to mount parallel exhibits of the two missiles in their respective capitals. We have the cooperation of the Departments of State and Defense, and the Army is prepared to offer a second Pershing II missile for such an exchange. Dr. Allan Bromley also told me that he is enthusiastic about the idea.

Prior to retiring as Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Admiral William J. Crowe Jr. formally offered such an exchange on our behalf to his counterpart, General Mikhail A. Moiseyev. I have enclosed a copy of Admiral Crowe's letter.

We have also discussed the proposed exchange with Ambassador Yuriy Dubinin, Marshal Sergei Akhromeyev, and Defense Minister Dmitri Yazov, during their separate visits to the Air and Space Museum. All of them agreed that the exchange would be desirable and all agreed to try to help expedite the matter, but we have yet to receive any formal response from the Soviet Union. I have enclosed copies of my letters to Dubinin and Akhromeyev.

We are concerned that if we do not have a concrete response within a few months, the possibility of an exchange may evaporate. The U.S. Army has let it be known that it cannot keep its offer open indefinitely, while in the Soviet Union the remaining SS-20s are gradually being destroyed, with pieces given to visitors for use as paperweights and lapel pins.

The matter could perhaps be expedited by a word to Secretary Gorbachev during the December 2-3 meetings with President Bush. This might be an appropriate subject to be mentioned informally between sessions, perhaps at the staff level, or perhaps by the President himself. The proposed exchange of missiles would have great symbolic value, both as an expression of improved relations between the two countries and of hopes for a more secure world.

Just after I saw you this morning, Ambassador Dubinin told me he had been notified yesterday that prospects for the proposed exchange "look favorable."

I am very grateful for your expression of interest and willingness to look into this matter.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Martin Harwit
Director

HAGGAR APPAREL COMPANY

November 20, 1989

Dear John:

I believe this administration is going to accomplish a great deal. We are just grateful people like George Bush, John Sununu, and your team, are the kind of people who are dedicated and have the great sense of direction in how to lead our country.

I am going to play a long shot and see if the following is possible: I am a member of the Board of Trustees of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, Tennessee. Several years ago we established a chapter in the Dallas/Ft. Worth area to help St. Jude in their fund raising efforts. The major effort is a soccer game called "Kicks for Kids." The Dallas Sidekicks Professional Soccer Team and the St. Jude Chapter work together to fill the stadium on the night of the game which benefits the hospital. This game will take place on Saturday, April 21, 1990.

We sell sponsor packages which cost $2,500.00 or $5,000.00. One of the attractions is a dinner at my home in which all sponsors are invited, the press is invited, and the two co-chairmen of our event, which are Roger Staubach and Tatu, the soccer player, are in attendance.

Last year Danny Thomas was gracious enough to attend the functions and was present at our home. This made a very delightful evening and also because of his notoriety, attracted some very good press and helped our "Kicks for Kids" program.

I know that President Bush and Barbara are in the Dallas area quite frequently and I do realize the demands on their time, however, my question is: Would Barbara Bush be kind enough to attend? I know they are in Texas quite often, and if it is at all possible, it would be a great event. Because they are so heavily involved in volunteer work, it would be something she would enjoy.

As I said, this is a long shot, but I know that if it is possible, it will work; if it is not, you will certainly tell me so.

I hope everything continues to go well. If I can be of help in the Dallas or Texas area, please let me know.

With best personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

J. M. Haggar, Jr.

Re: Computer Program Trading/New York Stock Exchange

Dear Mr. Sununu:

My brokerage is handled by A.G. Edwards & Sons and an enclosure ~~and~~ a recent statement suggested that I correspond and let you know my opinion regarding computer program trading. My opinion is that I think it should be eliminated entirely or at least sharply curtailed.

I am by no means an expert but to the extent wild gyrations of 200 points or more are caused by these programs when certain prices hit predesignated levels, I think small investors such as myself tend to shy away from the market. Your attention and courtesy is appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Anthony S. Hartnett

Dear John:

This follows up on our phone conversation concerning the nomination of Robert Sweet, Jr., for the position of Administrator of the Office of Juvenile Justice at the Justice Department.

I am confident that Bob will do an excellent job in this important position on the strength of his past government experience and his strong personal qualities. Juvenile justice issues are especially important today, especially with the persistent problems of crime and drug use among our youth. I think it is important to get the President's nominee on the job at the Office of Juvenile Justice to provide needed leadership.

I understand that some consideration may be given to the possibility of making recess appointments to certain key posts for which pending nominees will not have been confirmed when this session of Congress concludes. If a list of recess appointments is prepared, I urge the President include Bob Sweet on that list. Although Bob's nomination has not been pending for an inordinate amount of time, it is not such a high-level position that a recess appointment should be considered inappropriate. Bob has advised that he would be glad to accept a recess appointment if the Administration determines that such action is appropriate and workable.

Thanks for your consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Gordon J. Humphrey

Dear Governor Sununu:

I was very happy to be able to chat with you briefly at the dinner of the Arab American Business and Professional Association.

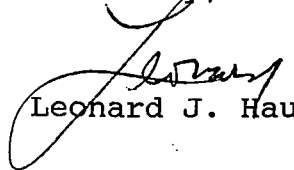

In response to your question, the Institute is making excellent progress in all three of its programs: the Fellowship Program (there will be twenty Fellows next year from ten "places" in the Middle East); the Aqaba-Elat environmental protection project; and the Seminar on Economic Cooperation.

The latter should prove to be of greatest interest to you. With the backing of all relevant political authorities, we have Egyptian, Israeli, Jordanian, and Palestinian economists working together on the economic aspects of a peace accord.

I will send you materials from time to time.

Warm regards.

Sincerely,

Leonard J. Hausman

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear The Honorable Sununu:

You recently received a letter dated November 7, 1989 from Dr. Stephanie Marshall, Director of the Illinois Mathematics and Science Academy in Aurora, Illinois. The letter requests President Bush's attendance at the formal dedication of the Academy on December 14, 1989 at 10 a.m.. I am writing to strongly support this invitation.

The Academy is being dedicated in honor of two outstanding Illinoisans: Governor James Thompson and Nobel laureate Dr. Leon Lederman. Both gentlemen were responsible for bringing the Academy to life and consider it one of the greatest achievements of their careers in public service. I know it would mean a great deal to Governor Thompson to have the President there.

Since its inception, the Academy has been in the forefront of mathematics and science education in Illinois and the United States. This is evidenced by recently released data on ACT scores. The Illinois Mathematics and Science Academy had the highest ACT average of all secondary schools in the nation -- even higher than some very prestigious institutions with along history. We are very proud of that achievement.

I hope that you will give this invitation every consideration. I think it would be a good way to continue to highlight the President's commitment to education and especially the importance of math and science education to our continued competitiveness.

Sincerely,

J. Dennis Hastert
Member of Congress

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Congratulations on your appointment to Chief of Staff. We are very proud to have a fellow New Hampshireman there to represent us. It is incredible that the little State of New Hampshire is so well represented in Washington.

I am a native of New Hampshire and a Republican. I'm an owner-manager of a real estate brokerage of 8 persons in Conway, N.H. I've a lot to be thankful for. I grew up in Conway and graduated from the University of New Hampshire. An older brother graduated from Plymouth State, my younger brother from Harvard and my younger sister from Tufts. I feel privileged to be able to have the opportunity to have a good business. Thus, I don't feel that I'm a complainer and that the United States system has cut me short in any way.

I do have a request. My wife is from Costa Rica. her mother visited us here in New Hampshire when our son was born 2½ years ago. She had received a temporary visa to come to the United States. Since then we have tried on several occasions to obtain a visa for one of my sister-in-laws to come to visit. I was present at the United States Embassy in San José, Costa Rica, this past January on her second attempt to procure a visa. I was insulted at the way she was treated. We are not asking that she, my mother-in-law or father-in-law be allowed to come to the United States to live. We are only asking that they be allowed to visit. I would like them to have Multiple Visas so that they could come here to visit when they wished or to come in the event of an emergency. I am willing to vouch for their expenses while they are here or post a bond if required. I'm concerned that if anything should happen to my wife or me, and my in-laws presence be needed here, that they would be held up in a pile of paper-work in the embassy. I feel somewhat disallusioned about the word "Freedom" as it is used in the United States, when we don't allow relatives to come to visit.

I realize your time is valuable, but if you could have one of your staff

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL HISPANIC ASSEMBLY
2411 S.W. 83 CT MIAMI, FLA. 33155

November 1, 1989

The Honorable John Sununu,
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I want to take this opportunity to thank you and President Bush for appointing Hispanics within this administration.

In this respect, I am interested in assisting you in identifying a qualified Hispanic to fill the position of U.S. Commissioner of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission recently held by Commissioner Antonio Gallegos, and whose term has expired. It is imperative that the position held by Mr. Gallegos be replaced by a Hispanic, since it is evident that the Commission must continue to be concerned and sensitive to the cultural background of Hispanics.

Enclosed, please find the personal resume of Administrative Judge, Gilbert Carrillo. Mr. Carrillo's experience as an Administrative Judge for EEOC, a Field Attorney for the National Labor Relations Board; an Adjunct Professor of "Industrial Relations," at the Florida International University; and as a litigation attorney with a private labor law firm, together with his commitment to the civil rights of Hispanics qualify him for such a position. Additionally, Mr. Carrillo is a Puerto Rican from the Miami area and a registered Democrat, which is the party affiliation required for that position; however, his conservative philosophies complement those of the Republican Administration.

Again, thank you for your interest in this matter. Mr. Carrillo is available for an interview at your convenience.

I urge you to consider Judge Gilbert Carrillo for this very important and meaningful position.

Sincerely,

Arturo P. Hevia,
Chairman, State of Florida
Republican National Hispanic Assembly

OFFICE OF THE ARCHBISHOP

November 3, 1989

Dear Governor Sununu,

Upon my return to Washington from a brief trip to Rome I received your kind note and a copy of the President's letter to Senator Byrd. I am grateful for your thoughtfulness in sending me that letter; I am even more grateful for the action which the President took in vetoing H.R. 2990.

It is my hope and prayer that abortion be eradicated from our Nation. Opposition to abortion, of course, is not enough. Ways must be found to help poor and disadvantaged women facing difficult pregnancies. The violence of abortion is not solution.

With the assurance of my prayers and with kind personal regards, I am

Sincerely in Christ,

Archbishop of Washington

Dear John:

You were a fine governor, but a lot of us avid Republicans are concerned that you are being overzealous in your counsel to the President on the whole abortion issue.

At a couple of dinner gatherings recently, I heard only favorable comments about the L.A. TIMES editorial (attached) on this subject. I'm passing it along to you, John, in hopes that it might help temper your thoughts. Otherwise, I sense the press and a majority of our party will start leveling their cannons at you.

Meanwhile, here's wishing you a world of success in your important new role.

Sincerely,

I am very concerned with the drug scourge this country is suffering and I thought it had to be high right is useful. The approach to solving this problem seems (although I don't know) that we have to do what is good -- long term -- for people. I don't like the idea which the fact that drugs are illegal for you. Unfortunately, we know what is what is. I don't know. I don't know. Paul will be of the mind that within a few years we will be what we would not be not to do that. I don't know.

If only 50% of the addicts in the country were to receive legal medical treatment, the drug problem would be reduced to a fifth of its current level, the courts would be broken, the legal system would be overloaded, new jails would be less needed, and all crime would significantly decrease.

I hope such an idea is considered. I think it would be "sold" as a necessary and effective action which does not "give the farm away" and completely legalize drugs.

Mr. John Sununu

Dear Mr. Sununu:

The Economic Development Administration (Department of Commerce) has been without an Administrator for a number of months. We are writing to encourage the President to nominate a candidate for this important position.

The EDA's authorization expired in 1981. Despite the previous Administration's efforts to the contrary, the agency continues to enjoy strong Congressional support. Just today the House passed the conference report to the Commerce, Justice, State, Judiciary Appropriations bill that includes FY90 funds for EDA.

In light of the certainty that EDA will continue to be funded, we believe it would be wise for the President to nominate a new Administrator. It is far better to have an effective Administrator in place overseeing day to day operations than to allow the agency to languish and exposing EDA and the Administration to potential public and Congressional criticism for failing to carry out its mission.

Additionally, the tremendous damage incurred by Hurricane Hugo and the Loma Preita earthquake may vastly increase EDA's workload, although that issue remains to be resolved.

Page Two

We understand the Administration has been prepared for sometime to submit the name of Ms. Joyce Hampers as EDA Administrator. In view of Congress' actions to continue funding EDA, we hope the President will move shortly to submit her name or the name of any other qualified candidate.

Respectfully,

Dear Governor Sununu,
~~Sununu~~

The New Hampshire Committee. Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve will be hosting approximately thirty-five (35) Company Presidents/Chief Executive Officers from the Granite State on a Department of Defense Tour of Washington DC, November 30 and December 1, 1989.

Our objective is to familiarize major employers with the vital role of the Guard and Reserve. In addition, the committee will encourage each executive to sign a Statement of Support at the conclusion of the visit. We feel that public awareness efforts of this magnitude will enhance Guard and Reserve strength management in New Hampshire.

Governor, if you are unable to attend the reception and are available during the hours of our tour Thursday or Friday, please contact me and I will adjust our schedule so that you can meet with our group at your convenience. I have included the itinerary for your reference. I can be reached at my home, 603-623-7350 or you can contact my Executive Director, Major Vic Rogers at 603-225-1215.

Dear Governor Sununu:

I understand that there is a possibility that you may be traveling to Dallas with the President on the occasion of the November 10 dinner honoring Bill Clements. I obviously am not aware of what your plans would be for that dinner, but yesterday I phoned Andy Card and mentioned that I would be both pleased and honored for you to sit at our table if you do not already have other plans or commitments.

While Nancy and I have known George and Barbara for many years, I have only had the occasion to shake hands with you in the midst of large crowds and I would enjoy very much having the opportunity to improve upon that relationship.

Governor Sununu, you may have prior commitments or for any number of reasons this might not be an opportune time, but I did want to run this invitation up the flagpole. Once your plans become firm I would appreciate it if you or Andy could give my office a call with respect to the above.

Sincerely,

Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear John:

I would like to bring to your attention the enclosed newspaper article which discloses that I have voted with the President more often than any other Missouri Republican in the House.

I don't know if this entitles me to a tie pin or cuff links, but I would appreciate it if the President knew that we in the Ozark hinterlands are guarding the chicken house.

Yours for BETTER - but LESS - GOVERNMENT,

Mel Hancock
Member of Congress

Re: Americans With Disabilities Act

Dear John:

I am sorry to bother you with this but time is running short if any compromises are to be made in this unbelievable piece of anti-business legislation. I seriously doubt if anyone has read it. If they had, it would not be flying through Congress.

I have been working on getting some reasonable language into it and am told at every turn that "The White House has signed off on it so there is not going to be any change". I know you can't openly oppose it, that would be political suicide but maybe someone could just read it!

As written, this bill places an enormous financial and legal burden on all business, small and large. There is a 15 employee minimum but it is so full of caveats that few will actually be exempted. That part is a real joke.

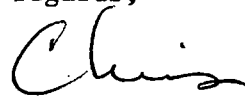

This bill allows a person to sue a business for for compensation and unlimited punitive damages if they only think "they are about to be discriminated against". They haven't even been aggrieved and they can sue. Whatever happened to due process. As well, this bill makes it just about impossible to be selective in the hiring process. How would you like it if you had to hire whoever walked in. That is not going to make us more competitive. Business does not need these headaches and I haven't even mentioned the building requirements this bill includes.

I realize how busy you are but perhaps a White House sponsored meeting with proponents and opponents would produce some reasonable thinking. It sure could use it. At least get these guys to read this thing.

In my mind, this legislation is far more pernicious than the Minimum Wage and we sure had to fight that one. It will cost more in lost jobs and lost competition and unless someone starts reading real soon, it will be too late.

Thanks for your consideration.

Best regards,

Christopher P. Hitchcock

Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I have known Dr. John Habib for over 40 years - since we both attended the University of Detroit. We have stayed in touch over the years and have remained close personal friends.

John has devoted his life to understanding the Middle East. He has had an extensive and varied career in business, teaching and diplomatic affairs. He has had almost 40 years of continuous contact with the Middle East as a professional diplomat, security expert and international businessman. John has an intimate understanding of the business, political and cultural values in the Middle East and Europe. He is a brilliant Middle East scholar and multi-lingual.

I understand John is a candidate for an appointment as a U.S. Ambassador to a country in the Middle East. Dr. Habib would make an excellent ambassador and an outstanding representative of the United States. I hope you will give him favorable consideration.

Respectfully yours,

Clifton E. Haley

Dear John:

Believe me, dear friend, when I assure you that I don't pass along even one out of a hundred invitations to the President.

This is one of those once in a hundred times. I really believe that you folks ought to consider this one. The American Farm Bureau is strongly supportive of the President's agenda, and especially his "no new taxes" pledge.

It would be great for everybody concerned if he could go down to Orlando next January 8th for the annual meeting of the Farm Bureau.

I enclose copy of the invitation extended to the President by Dean R. Kleckner, president of the American Farm Bureau.

Kindest regards.

Recently, Bill McGowan, the Chairman of MCI, addressed the Cleveland City Club on how telecommunications and information technologies are providing a competitive edge to United States industry in the global market place.

I want to share with you his view on the pro-competitive policies which have made it possible for MCI to help propel American business into the Information Age, during a period Bill McGowan often refers to as the era of the Transnational Company.

It is my hope you will find the remarks of interest, and I will be pleased to answer any questions you may have.

WASHINGTON, DC 20510

October 24, 1989

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear John:

I believe you may want to give another thought to Dr. James Wyngaarden's nomination to be the next Associate Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy. This fellow gives me (and many others) a severe heartburn. I am obliged to oppose his nomination.

First, Dr. Wyngaarden's views on abortion flat-out contradict those of President Bush. Second, as you recall, when Dr. Wyngaarden was director of the National Institutes of Health under President Reagan he vehemently and publicly opposed Reagan's order banning federal funding of fetal research on aborted babies.

Most significantly--and this is of particular concern to you--Dr. Wyngaarden has, once again, gone public in the last few days to oppose President Bush's continuation of President Reagan's ban on funding for research on aborted babies. In some countries, aborted babies have been kept alive in order to conduct such research--and even in this country cells from aborted babies continue to be inserted into animals in the name of research.

Dr. Wyngaarden's record of open opposition to the President's public policy is doubly troublesome when he is permitted to lodge such opposition from a platform within the Administration itself. I question in the strongest terms the wisdom of his being given yet another government post when he will no doubt publicly damage not only the President's policy decisions, but the President himself.

Dr. Wyngaarden's confirmation hearings are set to begin this Friday morning, and with haste, the Administration still has time to withdraw his nomination. I reiterate that, in my view, such action is demanded since Dr. Wyngaarden has had the temerity to publicly criticize the President's policy decisions even before the confirmation process has begun.

Kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington D.C. 20050

Dear Governor Sununu:

I would appreciate the opportunity to meet with you or your designated representative at your earliest convenience to discuss alcohol public policy in today's emotionally charged environment.

With three decades of full time leadership experience in the field of alcoholism - primarily in the area of public policy - I am, along with many colleagues, concerned that the dramatic but unpublicized progress in the reduction of alcohol-related harm in the United States is now in jeopardy.

More and more severe restrictions on alcoholic beverages and consumers are being advocated. If adopted as public policy these draconian measures will reverse this dramatic progress.

I look forward to hearing from you and to meeting with you and/or your representative.

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear John:

I understand that Wade M. Plunkett is under consideration for possible appointment to a position on the White House staff. The positions in question are in the Office of the Counsel to the President and the Office of Administration.

The purpose of this letter is to let you know of my strong support of Wade for either position. Wade has been a long-time supporter of the President and would be an effective and loyal member of the Bush Administration if appointed.

Wade has had extensive experience in both the executive and legislative branches and could be expected to make a significant contribution immediately.

Such consideration as can be given Wade will be appreciated.

With kind regards,

Sincerely,

JOHN PAUL HAMMERSCHMIDT

Having had the privilege and pleasure of hosting President and Mrs. Bush at the Center I know I do not have to delineate either the mandate or achievements of our institution. As Dean of the Center, I was honored to give the invocation at the Republican National Convention the evening President Bush was nominated.

We are requesting a briefing session on Monday March 5th, 1990 at the White House.

Mr. Wiesenthal will travel from Vienna to especially attend this event.

Because of your obligations and hectic schedule we can still revise the conference to accommodate your calendar.

I look forward to hearing from your scheduling office as soon as possible so that we can have this opportunity to spend this time with you.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Marvin Hier,
Dean

WAKE FOREST
UNIVERSITY

83653

Thomas K. Hearn, Jr.
President

October 19, 1989

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Leadership and ethics are subjects of primary concern at Wake Forest. In recent years, our students have developed and participated in many leadership programs. As you know, last year three undergraduates exercised what they had learned in helping to bring the first 1988 Presidential debate to our campus. Wake Forest's mission is to educate young men and women of integrity to lead us into the next century.

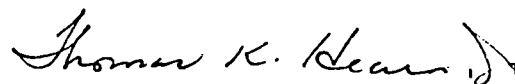

Because your career in academe and public service exemplifies ideals we admire and commend to our students, I am pleased to invite you to speak to us on the occasion of Founders Day.

On Thursday, February 15, 1990 at 11 a.m. during our Founders' Day convocation, we will install two new deans---Robert Walsh in the School of Law and John McKinnon, former president of Sara Lee Corporation, in the Babcock Graduate School of Management. We will also install Ms. Rhoda Channing as director of our Z. Smith Reynolds Library. With the serious ethical issues facing all of our graduates, especially those in the professions of law and business, your delivering the address at Founders' Day would be an auspicious inaugural for these three new leaders.

With your permission, we would also confer an honorary degree on you during the convocation, which will be held in Wait Chapel, site of the Presidential debate. We expect approximately 2,000 in attendance at the convocation. If you accept our invitation, our Office of Public Affairs will provide you and your staff with background information on the university as well as the details of Founders' Day.

Wake Forest is a proudly Southern university with a national outlook. We would be honored to have you here as our guest. I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas K. Hearn, Jr.
