The Honorable John Sununu
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu,

When, on the day you announced the exciting Diamond land purchase in your Concord office, I inadvertently spilled coffee on your suit, I didn't imagine I would next be writing to you in the White House.

But I know you like to keep up on New Hampshire affairs, so I thought you would like to see that LandVest has now offered Walter Dunfey's Rye estate for sale. It's the premier property on the New Hampshire coast.

I even imagine that, despite the partisan differences, you might have attended one of his and Barbara's eclectic and spirited dinner parties.

If you can picture someone you know occupying this choice piece of New Hampshire's coastline, please let me know.

In any event, as you busy yourself there at the nation's business, you might enjoy these summer scenes of home.

Mr. John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
Executive Office of the President
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

The American Association of Exporters and Importers (AAEI) is a national organization comprised of close to 1100 U.S.-company members. AAEI members are involved in the export, import, distribution and manufacture of a wide range of products. On behalf of its members, AAEI requests that the harbor maintenance fee of 0.04% ad valorem be eliminated. Further, AAEI members are universally opposed to an increase in the fee 0.125% ad val., as suggested in the FY 1991 budget.

AAEI has opposed this tax on cargo since its inception on both economic and fairness grounds. Tripling the tax places another financial burden on all U.S. business for waterway maintenance and dredging, which are government functions. These functions benefit everyone and as such should be borne by the general revenue.

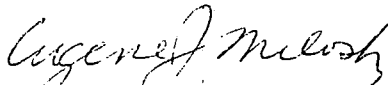

The tax also inhibits competition in two ways. First it has already led to diversion of cargo to foreign ports that do not impose fees. For example, businesses are now more likely to ship their products to a Canadian or Mexican port and then move the goods by truck to the U.S. This avoids the fee. Second, these "harbor taxes" are a particular burden to U.S. exporters who are making a strong sales effort in foreign markets. In light of the U.S. trade deficit a tax on exports, even one of .04% ad valorem makes little sense.

In its application, the tax has been and is likely to continue to be unfair. Certain commodities and ports are exempt, while others (for example, those commodities shipped domestically by water and then exported) pay twice. Importers and exporters pay the tax to Customs, while domestic shippers pay quarterly to the Army Corps of Engineers. AAEI members are complying with the law, despite its confusing language. Unfortunately, there has been little evidence that the Corps is adequately monitoring or enforcing the tax or can do so given the law's complexity. Increasing the tax does nothing to resolve this quity. If the fee is not repealed, at a minimum, collections ould be suspended until adequate resources are given to the Corps to enable it to comply with the law.

U.S. businesses need to be encouraged, not discouraged from expanding international trade. Eliminating the Harbor Maintenance Tax is an important step in the right direction.

Sincerely,

Eugene J. Milosh
President

Dear Governor Sununu:

Please be advised that we are planning to run the column I wrote on the May 21 interview you so kindly granted me in our Weekend section Friday, June 8. It will move that day on our news service to a number of newspapers around the country which also run the column.

In addition, Mike Laurence, editor of Linn's Stamp News, is planning to run an a transcript of some of your comments in an edition later in the month. He was very excited by your remarks and hopes the interest of a highly visible official such as yourself will do much to spur new interest in stamp collecting.

Again, thanks very much for your time and I hope you enjoy the article as much as I enjoyed meeting you.

Sincerely,

Bill McAllister
Stamp Columnist

Dear Governor Sununu,

I'm sending you today's editorial page from the Las Vegas Sun because next to your unflappable charm, unparalleled good looks, dazzling intelligence, and your incredible tolerance of unprepared reporters, I'll most remember you for having a pretty outrageous sense of humor! A long overdue Congratulations on your present position is also in order, but the value of your time being what it is, I'll cut to the chase.

I'm being considered for an executive sales position with the Las Vegas Convention and Visitors Authority, having left the Anchor desk of Channel 13 here several months ago. The job involves promoting the city both here and nationwide and I want it badly. I'm asking your help to make it happen.

R&R Advertising handles the multi-million dollar account for the LVCVA and a call from their President, Sig Rogich, would significantly improve my position. I've met Sig several times, but our encounters were not much more than exchanging pleasantries. Would you please speak to him on my behalf?

Thanks for your consideration in this matter. I'm sending Sig a note today as well, mentioning our professional relationship in New Hampshire, so when you discuss this request, it won't be a complete surprise to him.

Please call if you have any questions, I'd love to hear from you. Give my best to Nancy and the kids, and continued success with your work and life!

Warmest Regards,

Kyle Meenan

Mr. John Sununnu
c/o The White House

Washington, D.C.

Dear John:

I read in the paper where the President stated that somebody needs to go into the formerly communist countries to help them out of their dilemma. Well, here is one true story about a young man (of Lebanese descent) who has sold his house, stored his furniture, and put his law practice on "hold" while he is in Latvia to teach law at the University.

Enclosed is an editorial from the DALLAS TIMES HERALD which makes mention of it.

In March of this year the DALLAS CITY COUNCIL passed a resolution making Riga, Latvia our sister city. In April a group of attorneys and judges (15 of them) and the dean of the S.M.U. law school went to Russia and the Baltic states to have a legal conference. Steve Malouf was one of them. One of the things that impressed him most was that the students at the university were learning how to operate computers....but there was not a single computer for them to use!

In the light of the news you get, I thought that you deserved a bit of GOOD news.

Kindest regards,

Ed Malouf

Ed Malouf

P.S. Since when have you seen a editorial in a major American newspaper that compliments the President on TWO different subjects? If it isn't too much trouble, you might write to Lee Cullum, the editor, and thank her for it. Her Zip Code is 75202.

P. O. BOX 48
GAFFNEY, SOUTH CAROLINA 29342

May 29, 1990

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

As your brief meeting on May 16, 1990 with a group of South Carolina textile executives in the Capital was neither of your choosing, nor of our initiation, and resulted in a bland forum for any exchange of information on an issue that is vital to the survival of the textile industry in the United States, namely the international trade policy of the U. S. Government as it applies to the textile industry, we would propose that a more candid meeting at a convenient time and place could be productive to all concerned.

We would certainly like to apologize for any appearance of ungraciousness on our part that may have been perceived by you at the meeting on May 16. None was intended. We appreciated even the brief opportunity to call to your attention the dilemma of the U. S. textile industry as it finds itself once again on the trading table at discussions in Geneva and elsewhere. We don't know what you would do without us.

The discussions in Geneva are a good example of the unacknowledged fact that all trade is controlled, and that the discussions are really centered around which sector of the economy, or what political need, the controls will benefit.

With the multitude of government-mandated cost increasing factors that textiles and all industry has to contend with in our country, farm programs that deny textile companies access to world markets on cotton--a major raw material, and tax structures that discourage and limit competing with international shippers from other countries, we do become discouraged when the best advice and assistance our government gives us is, "You should export more." Competing is especially difficult when other countries work with and subsidize their own textile industry, and our own government seems to assist them also to the detriment of U. S. textiles.

The Honorable John Sununu

The group you met with, at the insistence of Senator Thurmond, represents survivors of years of textile domestic competition and ever increasing textile imports, which now have captured over 60% of the apparel market and over 35% of the total U. S. market. One company is celebrating its 100th birthday this year, one is a winner of the Malcolm Baldrige award for excellence in manufacturing in 1989, and all are determined to continue to survive unless our government makes survival impossible.

We thank you for your continued involvement in working with the industry to find an acceptable solution.

Sincerely,

John M. Hamrick

John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I believe you will find the enclosed information very interesting and I would appreciate any assistance you might be able to provide regarding this serious situation.

Of particular concern to me is the fact that the excess property designated in the DOD Excess Program is being sent somewhere other than to a priority country (ex; Laos, Cambodia).

The Office of Humanitarian Assistance (OHA), specifically Dr. Walthius, has told my staff repeatedly in the last two years how difficult and troublesome the Thai government and AID has been in implementing the program. All the while the office of OHA has spent the dollars earmarked for the Non-Communist Resistance (NCR) on other missions, most of which were less critical in nature.

My chief of staff, Vaughn Forrest, has just returned from Thailand where Thai government officials, State Department officials and AID officials all informed him that they have been begging for materials for at least the last twenty months. Apparently, the Department of Defense, particularly Dr. Walthius, informed them that under the "excess" program only $500,000 a year was made available to the NCR, instead of the $3 million authorized and appropriated by Congress. Dr. Walthius also informed these agencies that the supplies could only be drawn from the Pacific area. It appears that Dr. Walthius has used NCR monies for projects he feels are more important than the priorities set by Congress. If so, this is a major problem and must be quickly addressed.

I am also greatly concerned with continued reports of the use of chemical weapons by the Pathet Lao forces as late as last month, April, 1990. This should be investigated and any U.S. aid, contracts or grants to either Cambodia or Laos should be held in escrow until this investigation is completed. It is also my understanding that certain non-governmental (NGO's) are providing aid to the Pathet Lao and Communist regimes. If that is so, is this consistent with U.S. policy in that region?

Honorable Dick Cheney

Dear Dick,

Research done by my staff shows that the Lao Non-Communist Resistance and displaced persons are not receiving any humanitarian aid in comparison with their needs, particularly in view of the communist offensive in that country which started earlier this year. In addition, the DoD excess property they are receiving is not appropriate to their needs. The priority needs are medicines, food and vehicles.

The Cambodian Non-Communist Resistance and displaced persons are in a decidedly better but still inadequate supply situation in view of the offensive conducted by the Vietnamese backed government in Phnom Penh and the further threat from the Khmer Rouge.

I understand that through the DOD Excess Program, an already authorized and appropriated program, that some of these emergency needs can be met and met quickly, if a top priority is given to addressing this emergency situation.

I also understand that the State Department Office of Foreign Disaster Assistance can move quickly to address the emergency needs of the Lao and Cambodian Non-Communist Resistance and those displaced by the communist offensives taking place in both countries.

I suggest the International Red Cross be asked to assist those displaced, sick and wounded in the areas of conflict in Cambodia and Laos immediately.

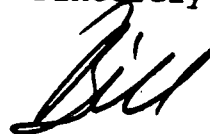

I commend to you the wonderful work that is being done to address this emergency situation by the Thai government and the Thai military.

There are continued reports of the use of chemical weapons by the Pathet Lao forces as late as this month, April, 1990. This should be investigated and any U.S. aid, contracts, or grants to either Cambodia or Laos should be held in escrow until this investigation is completed.

There is only one major problem to the successful completion of this program and that is Dr. Walthius. In the hopes that we may be able to expedite this process, my chief of staff, Vaughn Forrest, is available to meet with Ed Rogers and answer any questions you might have.

This is a serious situation as people in these countries continue to suffer. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any further questions. I will be in touch.

Sincerely,

Bill McCollum
Member of Congress

The Honorable John Sununu
Whitehouse
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

I would be honored if you would consent to be my special guest at a reception held in my honor by the National Federation of Independent Business here in DC.

As you are aware, I am the top targeted race in the country by the National Democrat Congressional Campaign Committee. The Democrats want to see me defeated because I beat one of their leaders in the House, Banking Committee Chairman Fernand St. Germain, in 1988.

We can arrange the event around your schedule. We would need only a half hour of your time.

I will contact you shortly to see if we can arrange this and what I can do to assist you.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

RON MACHTLEY

Dear John:

Enclosed are some combination tie tacs and lapel pins that I thought you might enjoy. I have also sent the President a "bunch". I have formed a club and the pin represents the club: D E B E P R — which means: DON'T EAT BROCCOLI, EAT PORK RINDS! I think we have the jump on everyone else. To join the club, you must be of good, moral character, and support the President. You certainly fall into that slot. I told the President that I was going to make Billy Conn, the great world champion boxer, sergeant-at-arms. In the event people get out of line, we will send Billy to "fix" them.

Seriously, you and the administration are doing a great job. I think all of you are the greatest. Take care. Keep in touch.

Dear John:

I am writing you to thank you for arranging the meeting between Ms. McGettegan, Dr. Barry Manuel and myself. As you know Dr. Manuel is President of the Massachusetts Medical Society. We had an excellent meeting with Marianne in regards to the Medical Professional Liability. She was very kind to spend almost two hours with us. We went through all of the pros and cons of our No Fault Malpractice Liability and the problems that we are facing, because of the adverse affect on the quality delivery cost of health care in the United States.

Dr. Manuel has been an advocate of the solution of No Fault Professional Liability and he discussed in great length all of the details on the No Fault Plan. She was very gracious and she assured us that she was going to get this information to President Bush.

As you know the Massachusetts Medical Society has twenty thousand doctors. We hope that something is going to be done by the Bush Administration. All of the doctors are willing to support him and we will be very grateful to the administration for taking some action in favor of the delivery of medical care in this country.

It was very nice meeting with you personally, and we had a very nice chat with Nancy. We had a really great time in Washington and we enjoyed every bit of it. The reception was great and your speech was outstanding. You are doing a great job in the White House, and my wife and I wish you continued success and good luck. With kind regards to you and Nancy.

Sincerely,

Dear John:

I was recently contacted by the Executive Director of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States regarding the VFW's repeated desire to schedule a meeting between the VFW Commander-in-Chief and the President.

As National Chairman of Veterans for Bush in 1988, I want to add my strong personal support for such a meeting. Traditionally the President has met with the VFW Commander-in Chief on an annual basis, and Mr. Hogan's tenure is coming to an end. I strongly suggest that Mr. Hogan be given an opportunity to meet with the President to present the VFW legislative and security goals. I would personally appreciate your assistance in arranging such a meeting for Mr. Hogan.

I know schedules are very tight, and that such requests sometimes fall through the cracks. Mr. Hogan has indicated his willingness to travel to D.C. whenever it is convenient for the President, and I thank you in advance for your assistance.

Sincerely,

John McCain

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear John:

Thank you for your letter of May 14. The court ruled for us at the district level and against us at the appellate level.

We still have a problem. If the Corps could be directed to shorten its time for review of the master manual so we did not face this problem next spring, it would be the greatest thing that could happen to us.

It would not be sensitive for the White House to buy into an expedited work plan, as even the downstream states agree with the revision. They have not necessarily bought into an expedited schedule, but we have been battling this thing for three years.

I appreciate your interest and concern.

My best to you, Nancy and your family.

Very truly yours,

GEORGE S. MICKELSON

Dear Governor Sununu:

I recently compiled a summary of my legislative activities in the Senate for some of my constituents in Arizona. I have enclosed this summary for your information.

This list is by no means exhaustive, but it does reflect the variety of issues I'm involved with in Arizona and in Washington, D.C. I would welcome any comments or suggestions you may have about any of these initiatives.

With best wishes, I am,

Sincerely,

FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE

May 21, 1990

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

Just a note to introduce myself and ask for your help in my campaign for State Representative in Pennsylvania. Our campaign has just come off a tremendous victory in the May 15th primary, and now we are earnestly looking forward to challenging the freshman Democrat incumbent in the general election. I have enclosed some newsclips to give you some background information.

As a former Governor, I'm sure you know how important it is to have a Republican majority in the Legislature. In Pennsylvania, House Republicans need to net just three seats to do just that. I am confident that our campaign will be successful and help take that step to majority status.

I am confident because I have extensive campaign experience having held staff positions in campaigns for Congress, State Attorney General and President (Kemp and later, Bush). Most importantly, I know how to raise money. In the primary I raised and spent about 20K, an amount some campaigns would be happy to have for just the general election. To take this seat, I expect to have to raise an additional 80K, and that is why I need your help.

We are in the preliminary planning stages for a summer fundraising event in late June or early July. I would be most grateful if you would consider being the featured speaker at this important fundraising event. Hazleton is only 40 minutes by air from Washington, and I would be able to provide the plane and any other arrangements needed to ensure an effective campaign stop.

Thank you for your consideration. I can be reached at (717) 825-0800 extension 304 or at home (717) 455-5004. Your help will be a big boost to our effort, and help Republicans on their way to wining the State House. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

P.S. I enjoyed article on you, Joe.

RE: Bush/Gorbachev Summit

Dear Mr. Sununu:

From the Soviet side, President Gorbachev is expected to present to President Bush the first U.S. edition of Commersant (The Soviet answer to the Wall Street Journal and Business Week; originally founded in 1907 and suspended until recently, the Russian version of the publication has flourished under Perestroika.

This first U.S. issue, dated May 30th, will be titled The Commemorative Summit Issue and will contain numerous hard news features of vital interest to America's business, investment and international community.

We want to be sure that this happens and that President Bush is properly alerted, prepared and hopefully enthusiastic about the work of this private sector cooperative and what such a private sector enterprise portends.

Any assistance you could provide would be most helpful and, if possible, for someone on the Summit task force to call President Gorbachev's Press Secretary regarding this would also be helpful so that the presentation doesn't come out of the blue.

President Gorbachev's Press Secretary, Arkadey Maslevekov, can be reached at 011-7095-224-0017 and he would very much appreciate a call regarding this possibility.

I will be in Jamaica, West Indies, for the next two or three days and can be reached at The Pegasus Hotel, telephone # 809-926-3690 or at the residence of the Minister of Tourism, Mr. Frank Pringle, telephone number 809-927-8936.

Ms. Jai Imbrey will be serving in my stead if you or your designee wish to discuss this further (her telephone # is 212-838-3050).

Very truly yours,

Dear John Sununu,

Perhaps you will recall that I was your family medical doctor when you were a boy growing up in lovely Forest Hills Gardens N.Y.

I have been following your brilliant career as Governor of New Hampshire and more recently our smart White House Chief of Staff.

I have retired several years ago to address below - am a Republican - and am proud of your being in your position with Pres. Bush.

I send my best wishes to you and trust you'd be politically active for a long time - We need you

Sincerely,

Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

As Chairman of the Senate Standing Committee on Veterans and Vice-Chairman of the Senate Task Force on Defense Spending in New York State, I would like to make you aware of my support for the United States Navy's Staten Island Homeport.

There is a definite need for this base which include several reasons, as I will outline, herewith:

- The Staten Island Homeport will serve as one of the few fixed-base ship repair facilities in the Unites States;
- With the Homeport at or near completion, millions of tax-payer dollars would be wasted by not opening the base;
- Staten Island and New York City are obviously areas of significant population. This will increase efficiency of Naval recruiting;
- Over 4200 jobs will be created which will benefit New York's ailing economy and assist in a national revitalization;
- Present Naval bases are already overcrowded;
- New York Naval Reserve readiness will be enhanced;

I join with President Bush in the desire to pursue all viable and verifiable efforts to reduce arms among the superpowers. However, those who maintain an understanding of world affairs realize that the Soviet Union is undertaking a continual naval combat buildup.

I believe that Mayor Dinkins' opposition to the Staten Island Homeport isn't well founded since he has not participated in Navy briefings which at least theoretically could possibly have cleared any reservations or objections he may have.

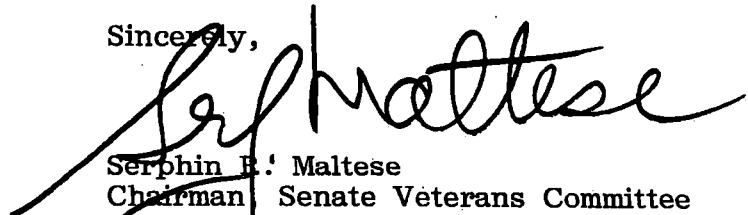

The Senate Majority Task Force on Defense Spending has recently forwarded a letter to Congressman Charles E. Bennett; Chairman of the Sea Power Sub-Committee, which further details our position with regard the the Staten Island Homeport. (I have enclosed the aforementioned for your perusal.)

Page two

I appreciate this opportunity to provide this background information on our position and to state our complete and unwavering support for this base.

Please contact me if I can supply any additional information on this important matter.

Sincerely,

Serphin E. Maltese
Chairman, Senate Veterans Committee
Vice-Chairman, Senate Majority
Task Force on Defense Spending

Dear Chief of Staff Sununu:

Congratulations on making the cover of TIME Magazine!

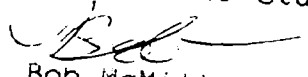

I thought you might be interested in the attached items...

a. My letter to TIME regarding their recent cover story about you.

b. Two items I wrote that were just published in the Tufts Alumni magazine, one mentions you, the other chronicles my experiences during the Quake of '89.

Best wishes on the continued great job you are doing!

Dear Governor Sununu:

Attached is a copy of Mr. Robert Mosbacher's letter honoring Proler International with the most prestigious "E Star" Award. Mr. Herman Proler, CEO and Chairman of the Board, myself, and our wives will be in attendance at the Rose Garden ceremony.

Mrs. Evelyn Scott suggested that I write to you to mention that President George Bush and I are classmates, Yale, 1948. It has been a number of years since I have talked to the President; however, he may remember me as former Congressman Phil Ruppe's Yale roommate and tennis partner.

Very truly yours,

Dear Governor:

I am taking the liberty of enclosing, for your information, the copy of a letter sent to President Bush today and endorsed by the attached list of sixty-nine member-organizations of the Coalition for Fiscal Restraint (COFIRE).

The letter is self-explanatory.

We hope that the support of these organizations will encourage the President in his efforts to reduce the deficit by way of spending restraints and not with any new or additional taxes for reasons stated in the letter.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Michael Monroney".

The White House
Washington, D. C. 20097-0146
Attn: Chief of Staff

Gentlemen,

There were 1,400 americans of greek decent who were at the Order of Ahepa Banquet in Washington, D. C. on Monday, March 19th waiting for the President or his representative to address them.

In error, someone at the White House canceled the President's address before the Order of Ahepa in favor of a speaking engagement before some gathering sponsored by Archbishop Iakovos, leader of the Greek Orthodox Church.

The Order of Ahepa is the political action group for the Americans of Greek decent.

Archbishop Iacovos is the religious leader of the Greek Americans.

My we strongly recommend that all future political contact be made through the Order of Ahepa, and not Archbishop Iacovos.

Your White House actions are causing great harm to our political efforts.

Sincerely,

George P. Manos
Coordinator
State of Ohio

Dear Governor Sununu:

Following up my letter to you of May 1, 1990, I am enclosing comments on the Task Force review of U.S. whale policy, as requested in the April 27 Federal Register.

Please appoint someone to review the reviewers and help establish a more objective and compassionate policy.

Thank you for your consideration.

Mr. John Sununu

Dear Mr. Sununu:

As ranking member of the House Interior Committee's Subcommittee on National Parks and Public Lands, I feel it imperative that I write to strongly urge your support for renewed drilling on America's Outer Continental Shelf.

Domestic oil supplies are already on a treacherous slide and OCS drilling is vital to U.S. energy security. As you know, the federally controlled area of the OCS is estimated to contain roughly one third of the United States' undiscovered oil reserves.

Environmental concerns cannot be ignored. However, the superb environmental track record of offshore oil rigs, which account for just two percent of all the oil spilled in the world's oceans, deserves an equitable response.

In developing OCS policy, I respectfully ask that you consider creation of a coastal community impact aid program, which would encourage communities to allow drilling projects to proceed. Only new OCS revenues would be utilized for this program.

I trust my input is helpful in making your recommendation on this crucial issue.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Ron Marlenee".

Dear John,

Just a word about how proud we are of the job you are doing in the big house. You are obviously in a swivel chair but handle the press easily. Hope you're having some fun, too.

All is well in the north country. Jobs slack but the work ethic is improving. We're spending money just like we always do for a great summer. Our best to Nancy and the kids.

Cordially,

Ruth + Bob

P.S. We're holding Zeff's hand and keeping him solvent.

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
Executive Office of the President
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

America's research-based pharmaceutical industry strongly opposes H.R. 4638, the "Orphan Drug Amendments of 1990," since that bill would seriously undermine the important incentives contained within the Orphan Drug Act of 1983. Rather, we have recommended that Congress enact the improvements recommended by the Congressionally chartered National Commission on Orphan Diseases in 1989 to strengthen the incentives to develop needed treatments for rare diseases.

A seven-year market exclusivity provision is the most important incentive in the Orphan Drug Act. Marketing exclusivity is important because it provides the pioneer drug sponsor with the ability to recover at least a portion of the millions that it has spent in researching and developing an orphan drug. H.R. 4638 would force the pioneer to share that exclusivity with later developers of the orphan drug, and the provision would be applied retroactively. Should a "shared exclusivity" provision be enacted, recovery of the investments in research and development would have to be realized in a much shorter period, if it were to be possible at all.

By any standard, the Orphan Drug Act has outperformed expectations. Since 1983, there have been 333 drugs designated as "orphan drugs," with a remarkable 45 approved by the Food and Drug Administration and now on the market. Yet, this can only be considered a beginning. Since it requires well in excess of $200 million over 12 years on average to discover and develop a new pharmaceutical product, we are convinced that if the Orphan Drug Act were to be changed as proposed, it would no longer be a major factor in a corporate decision to pursue orphan-drug research.

Dear Governor Sununu:

I would like to take this opportunity to highly encourage your appearance at a joint White House briefing for the Republican Party of Kentucky and the Republican Party of South Carolina in the Indian Treaty Room on Tuesday, May 22nd from 1:30 to 2:30. This event is part of a two day tour of Washington by some of our most faithful fellow Republicans.

This would be an excellent opportunity for you to meet and greet the most devoted members of our Party from the Commonwealth of Kentucky. It seems only fitting that they should like to meet with you, and receive the benefit of your insight into the workings of the White House.

Once again, I would like to impress the importance of your attendance. Thank you for your time and consideration of this matter. If I may be of any future assistance, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Mr. John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
Executive Office of the President
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

As a national organization comprised of 1200 U.S.-companies which export, import, distribute and manufacture the complete spectrum of products, the American Association of Exporters and Importers would like to take this opportunity to urge you to support a renewal of Most-Favored-Nation Status for the People's Republic of China.

Since the opening of trade with China a decade ago, total U.S. trade with China has almost tripled from $5.6 billion in 1981 to more than $14 billion in 1988. Virtually all U.S. firms involved in international trade would be affected by abrogation of a normal trading relationship with China, from actual out-of-pocket losses for importers and retailers, to lowered returns on the more than $4 billion in U.S. investment in China and lost market share for U.S. exporters, to general chaos in the global market as firms seek new sources of supply.

Denial of MFN treatment for China would clearly make most Chinese exports to the U.S. prohibitive, with duty rates increasing by an average of 40% or an extra $4 billion cost. Moreover, removing China MFN status would undoubtedly pull the rug out from under the close to $6 billion in U.S. exports to China as well, since China would almost certainly seek, and find, new import sources in countries that do not have a de facto prohibition on their exports. Finally, withdrawal of China MFN treatment would raise prices and lower quality of goods purchased by U.S. consumers with a limited per capita income because, in many cases, similar low-cost, good-quality merchandise is simply not available from other manufacturers, either domestically or internationally.

Trade sanctions imposed for foreign policy purposes have a poor history of effectiveness beyond serving as symbolic gestures at the expense of irreparable injury to U.S. small business, a reduction in U.S. foreign market share, and higher prices for American consumers. The influx of free-market ideas and a higher standard of living brought about by the opening of trade a decade ago may have been the most important impetus to the democratic movement that erupted a year ago in China. Likewise, a cut off in trade and withdrawal of Western economic influence in China could precipitate further political repression of and economic injury to the most liberal, entrepreneurial sectors of the Chinese economy.

Therefore, I respectfully request that the President renew an annual waiver for MFN treatment for China, and, in the event of congressional disapproval, veto a congressional resolution.

Sincerely,

Eugene J. Milosh
President

Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W.
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Our employees and those who depend on them in our communities very seriously need your help regarding a much needed change in the Title V or "acid rain" provisions of H.R.3030, which has been reported out of the House Energy and Commerce Committee.

We recently met with the President and Chief Operating Officer of a major Midwest electrical utility and his staff to show that it will be $20.87 per ton of coal less expensive for him to install scrubbers on existing coal-fired units, rather than switch to the closest, lowest cost low sulfur coal with the implementation of the Phase I "acid rain" requirements of H.R.3030 in 1995. The electric utility President responded that, due to requirements of the utility regulators in his state, they would have no funds to install scrubbers on their plants in 1995, that they have not considered scrubbers, nor will they; and that they will switch to low sulfur coal irrespective of the price difference in 1995. Furthermore, he explained that he would shut down his coal-fired units, which are providing the lowest electricity cost in his system, when the Phase II requirements become effective in 2000.

This is exactly what I explained would happen in my attached October 30, 1989 letter to Committee Chairman, John D. Dingell, and to all members of the United States Congress and Senate. In order to avoid locking out up to two-thirds of our Country's coal from the National energy mix and avoid the destruction of 1,260,000 jobs in America, three major items must be included in any Clean Air Act Amendment legislation enacted by the House:

1. The provision in the House bill whereby the Governor of a state has the right to intervene if the "acid rain" requirements of Title V of H.R.3030 cause economic disruption or significant job losses must be retained in the House Bill and in any final legislation that results from a House/Senate conference. This provision is currently not included in S.1630.

2. A provision must be included in the House bill and in any final legislation from a House/Senate conference to allow an electric utility a true freedom of choice and to obtain a waiver of the 1995, Phase I, 2.5 pounds of sulfur dioxide per million BTU emission requirements, if they commit by that time to the full 1.2 pounds sulfur dioxide per million BTU level by the year 2000. As presently drafted, both Bills mandate fuel switching to low sulfur coal or natural gas in 1995 and preempt the use of clean coal technology. Targeting fewer power plants in 1995 would also have the same effect. Simply stated, the 1995 sulfur dioxide requirements must be delayed to 2000 so that clean coal technology, which will not be available until 1997 and beyond, can be utilized. This will eliminate the devastating job losses, business failures, and economic disruptions that will occur in 1995 under the presently proposed "acid rain" legislation.

3. The provision included in the draft of H.R.3030 passed by the Energy and Commerce Committee providing for use of clean coal technology funds for stacked gas scrubbers (the Amendment of Congressman Sharp) must be retained in final legislation. This, too, will mitigate job losses and economic disruptions resulting from this Bill.

We will appreciate your attention to our critical requests within the next few days, before final House legislation is passed.

Sincerely,

THE OHIO VALLEY COAL COMPANY

Robert E. Murray
President and Chief Executive Officer

Mr. John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
Executive Office of the President
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20050

Dear Mr. Sununu:

The American Association of Exporters and Importers (AAEI), is a national organization comprised of 1200 U.S.-companies which export, import, distribute and manufacture the complete spectrum of products with over half trading with the Peoples Republic of China.

I respectfully request a meeting along with a select group of executives of major importers, exporters and retailers from AAEI to urge renewal of the annual waiver for MFN treatment for China.

Since the opening of trade with China a decade ago, total U.S. trade with China has almost tripled from $5.6 billion in 1981 to more than $14 billion in 1988. Virtually all U.S. firms involved in international trade would be affected by abrogation of a normal trading relationship with China, from actual out-of-pocket losses for importers and retailers, to lowered returns on the more than $4 billion in U.S. investment in China, to general chaos in the global market as firms seek new sources of supply.

Trade sanctions imposed for foreign policy purposes have a poor history of effectiveness beyond serving as symbolic gestures at the expense of irreparable injury to U.S. small business, a reduction in U.S. foreign market share, and higher prices for American consumers. The influx of free-market ideas and a higher standard of living brought about by the opening of trade a decade ago may have been the most important impetus to the democratic movement that erupted a year ago in China. Likewise, a cut off in trade and withdrawal of Western economic influence in China could precipitate further political repression of and economic injury to the most liberal, entrepreneurial sectors of the Chinese economy.

I will be in contact with your office to schedule the meeting anytime before June 3rd.

Sincerely,

Eugene J. Milosh

Dear Governor,

Just when you thought you were through with "The Chiropractic Problem" up jumps the devil. I know it is presumptuous of me to write you, however, I need your help.

You may recall when I petitioned you for a position on the Chiropractic Board that I listed on my resume that I am a trustee of a chiropractic college in Pennsylvania. Be that as it may, I am and we need help.

I humbly ask your help in seeking an expeditious resolution of the matter between the United States Department of Education (ED) and the Pennsylvania College of Straight Chiropractic (PCSC). The issue involves the institutional eligibility of PCSC to obtain Federal financial assistance for its eligible students pursuant to Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended. As stated in a Final Determination Letter from the Inspector General dated September 25, 1987, it was determined that PCSC "had failed to qualify as an eligible institution from March 1981, through June 1984, and was liable to ED for repayment of all funds it or its students had received during that period." The determination, affirmed by Administrative Law Judge Walter J. Alprin is in the sum of $3,048,706 of principal and the sum of $1,195,385 of interest and special allowances paid by ED.

PCSC's appeal does not question the findings of either the Inspector General or the Administrative Law Judge, but, rather, the underlying amoral aspects and apparent disregard for justice of the proposed penalty in the form of its potential negative impact upon the future of the students of PCSC. Because of the uncommon and disruptive historical circumstances that created this matter, (which you may recall) but were not within the span of control of the present administration of PCSC, the appeal must be made on a level above and beyond the normal scope of the law.

PCSC is a non-profit, non proprietary, tax exempt co-educational institution offering a resident course leading to the degree, Doctor of Chiropractic. PCSC is one of the seventeen chiropractic colleges located throughout the United States. The College is situated at 7500 Germantown Avenue, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The College serves the entire Northeastern sector of the Country.

The institution in the matter was originally named ADIO Institute of Straight Chiropractic. It was an unaccredited institution which sought to acquire Federal financial assistance for its students through the alternative 3IC method. As a result of internal management ineptitude during its early years, in 1984, ADIO underwent a complete reorganization of its administrative structure including a name change to the Pennsylvania College of Straight Chiropractic, a total revamping of its Board of Trustees, the release of two CEO's and a restructuring of its managerial procedures.

It appears to be the assumption of the Inspector General that the funds in this matter were directly disbursed to ADIO Institute of Straight Chiropractic, thereby making ADIO Institute completely liable for the expenditure of the funds. This assumption is erroneous (refer to $682,607 under Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965). ADIO served as an intermediary, not a broker, it served only to validate the authenticity of a student's matriculation. The loans were between the student and an independent agency. At any rate, all funds were delivered to matriculants and students dispensed the funds according to their educational priorities, which may or may not have been directed toward the college.

Although the administration of ADIO Institute may have acted impudently, it was in no way guilty of fraudulent behavior, as implied in the audit report. ADIO acted in good faith, submitted appropriate documentation to the Department of Education in a timely manner, and it provided the education in chiropractic as defined in its catalogue. ADIO assumed that approval for eligibility to participate in the Federal Programs of aid to education as cited in the letter dated March 4, 1981, from ED to ADIO was self-evident and viable. ADIO proceeded accordingly throughout the eligibility period, 1981-84. The funds were used solely to provide educational services to the students who received them. There was no extraordinary institutional or personal gains acquired from these funds. The students in this case used their Federally assisted finances to acquire the degree, Doctor of Chiropractic. They are no longer affiliated (other than in as "adopted" alumni) with PCSC. In all probability, most if not all, of those students have begun or completed the repayment of these loans. PCSC's annual loan default rate as reported by the Pennsylvania Department of Higher Education is less than 5%.

The salient points if this matter may be summarized accordingly:

1. the matter occurred between March, 1981 through June 1984,
2. the matter occurred in the early years of ADIO Institute as it attempted to gain solid footing as a College of Chiropractic.

3. Federally financed assistance funds were awarded to matriculants of ADIO,
4. three years after the matter, these funds were deemed by the Inspector General to be inappropriately awarded to ADIO students,
5. seven years after the matter, it was determined that ADIO (now Pennsylvania College of Straight Chiropractic) must repay to ED the total amount of funds ($3,048,708 principal and $1,195,385 interest),
6. none of the principals involved in the matter are currently with PCSC, therefore, any punitive measures would be assessed against innocents only,
7. PCSC is a struggling college, just capable of maintaining financial solvency, any punitive measures related to finances would force the College into bankruptcy.

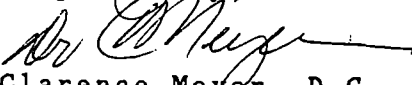

Regardless of the resolution of this case, PCSC has been immeasurably impaired by the actions of the Inspector General. Enrollment declined and therefore, income decreased. Faculty lost jobs. Administrative salaries were cut. During the period of economic decline, PCSC accumulated an indebtedness of over $400,000. PCSC lost prestige and professional status as well.

John, my request herein is for your support in the expeditious and fair resolution of this matter. A resolution that will permit the college to continue to serve the public as a provider of chiropractic education, as it has since 1977.

Naturally, I am very concerned about the impact of the determination on current students and administrators, who were not associated with the institution between 1981 and 1984. As I am sure you know, the effects of a substantial financial burden on a small institution could be devastating.

John, I do Thank You for listening to me and I hope you can help. Diane and I wish you and you family well and look forward to your return home.

Respectfully,

Clarence Meyer, D.C.

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff, The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Distinguished space scientists and engineers from industry, government and academia will participate in the international Case For Mars IV Conference in Boulder on June 4th through 8th. The organizing committee has asked me to invite you to deliver the keynote address.

The principal goal of this symposium is to explore the potential for human exploration and settlement of Mars in the 21st Century. Sessions will review the rationale for planetary exploration, scientific objectives, alternative mission strategies, and opportunities for international participation. Attending will be distinguished space experts from Germany, France, the Soviet Union, the European Space Agency, and Japan. The conference is being cosponsored by NASA, Martin Marietta Aerospace, Los Alamos National Laboratory, Lawrence Livermore Laboratory, the National Space Society, the Planetary Society, and the Rocky Mountain of the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics; the University of Colorado is our host.

Your views on the importance of space exploration for the United States and mankind would be of great interest to our attendees and the press. The best time for your talk would be at 10:00 a.m. on Monday, June 4th, but we could rearrange our program to accomodate your busy schedule. We hope very much that you will honor us with your presence.

Sincerely,

Thomas R. Meyer
Coordinator

Dear John:

In re: Presidential Appointment, Tennessee Valley Authority

I wanted to follow up on our conversation regarding the appointment of David L. Huber to the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Since we last talked, I have enlisted the support of Don Sundquist and Howard Baker for my candidate. Also Kentucky Democratic Congressman Carroll Hubbard, whose district is most affected by TVA, is supporting Dave.

However, Tennessee Democratic Congressman Jim Cooper, using the phony issues of competency and cronyism, is attempting to publicly trash Dave Huber. The reason for my recommendation here is that a current TVA Director told me that what they needed most was a "generalist" with management experience. Dave's unique blend of public/private and management/legal experience qualifies him for the job.

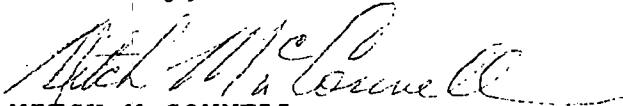

John, I view Cooper's attacks as purely political, but minor. Nonetheless, I wanted to bring this to your attention along with two recent Louisville Courier Journal editorials commenting on Dave's qualifications. The Courier, a liberal Democratic paper which did not support me, said about Dave:

And Mr. Huber, who worked for Sen. McConnell in county government and in Washington, and served as an assistant U.S. attorney, has proved himself a highly competent public official.

The Honorable John Sununu
May 3, 1990

Because Charles Dean's term expires this month, I urge the quick nomination of David Huber to the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Sununu:

I am writing to you as a follow-up to correspondence sent to President Bush dated February 1, 1990. At this time, we wished to bring to the President's attention two outstanding individuals, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kramer, whom we feel deserve special recognition for their contributions on behalf of infants and children with disabilities.

On June 9, 1990 the Long Island Association for Children with Learning Disabilities will be honoring Jerry and Debra Kramer as it's 1990 Humanitarians of the Year. We ask your assistance to help make this evening as meaningful to these outstanding citizens as we can. It would be most appreciated if President Bush would provide Long Island ACLD with a personalized letter to the Kramers which would be published in the Souvenir Journal distributed on the evening of the Annual Dinner Dance.

I am enclosing a copy of the initial correspondence to President Bush and a sample letter for your consideration and information. We would be most appreciative if the President could kindly reply within the next two weeks as we are adhering to very strict printing deadlines.

My sincerest thanks for your kind attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA

GEORGE S. MICKELSON
GOVERNOR

EXECUTIVE OFFICE
STATE CAPITOL
PIERRE, SOUTH DAKOTA
57501
(605)773-3212

May 4, 1990

The Honorable John Sununu
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

South Dakota has an emergency problem and I am asking for your help.

Here's The Problem And The Solution

If the Army Corps of Engineers continues to lower water levels of Lake Oahe between Pierre, South Dakota, and Bismarck, North Dakota, for the next thirty days, my state's fishing industry will be severely damaged for many years.

Hundreds of millions of fish eggs have been laid. Lower water levels will kill them, causing at least a $20 million negative impact in a rural economy where $20 million is a big impact.

The solution is to maintain the current water level of Lake Oahe for the next thirty days so that hundreds of millions of fish eggs can hatch.

Please intervene for us with the Army Corps of Engineers. Help us convince them to slow down the releases of water from Lake Oahe.

Instead of releasing 27,000 cubic feet of water per second, we want them to release 22,000 cubic feet per second. On a river as large as the Missouri River, that is a small concession to make for a short period of time that will have tremendous positive results.

The tows and barges don't need the water for navigation. The fish eggs need the water to survive and hatch.

Here Are More Facts

When the Pick-Sloan plan for management of the Missouri River was created almost 50 years ago, South Dakotans were promised substantial opportunities in return for flooding thousands of acres of our best land adjacent to the Missouri River.

Irrigation was supposed to be so successful that it would cause a projected annual hauling of 13 million tons of grain and other products on tows and barges from Sioux City to Kansas City.

Therefore, the Army Corps of Engineers has always given preference to navigation in the way it has managed the flow of the Missouri River so that tows and barges could operate between Sioux City and Kansas City.

As a result, the tow/barge industry on that portion of the river is one of the most heavily government subsidized businesses in America.

But, only a tiny percentage of those irrigation opportunities became reality. Tows and barges carry only two million tons of grain annually from Sioux City to Kansas City.

However, fishing on the Missouri River has exploded into a tremendous growth industry. Accordingly, South Dakota has spent millions of dollars in the last ten years to support, accelerate, enhance and promote the Oahe fishery and recreational fishing.

The positive results of all those efforts and all of that money could now be quickly wiped out by the third consecutive year of drought if the Corps of Engineers does not maintain current Lake Oahe water levels for the next thirty days.

Army Corps of Engineers' management of the Missouri River during the next thirty days could deliver a knock-out punch to our fishing industry.

The reason-- during the past few weeks, our walleye, northern pike and various forage fish, including smelt, have laid hundreds of millions of eggs in the shallow waters of Lake Oahe between Pierre, South Dakota, and Bismarck, North Dakota.

Lowered water levels in recent days have already killed all of the northern pike eggs. Almost fifty percent of all of the other eggs have also been killed because the Army Corps of Engineers continues to lower Lake Oahe water levels to support tow/barge traffic below Sioux City.

However, as I write this, there are only two tows hauling grain between Sioux City and Kansas City.

The tows and barges don't need the extra water in for the next 30 days. The fish eggs do.

If the Army Corps of Engineers continues its current water release policies for the next thirty days, 95% of all of the walleye eggs and 95% of all of the forage fish eggs in Lake Oahe will be killed.

But, we won't be losing just one year's hatch. The damage will be much more severe and long-lasting.

Forable John Sununu
1990

Forage fish, like smelt, are the basic building blocks of the fishery food chain. When they are gone, the already hatched, older fish have nothing to eat. So, they will die, too.

One federal fish and wildlife expert has already told us that he has examined Lake Oahe walleye that have the heads of ten-year-olds, but the bodies of six-year-olds. The older fish already don't have enough forage fish to eat and the starving process is beginning.

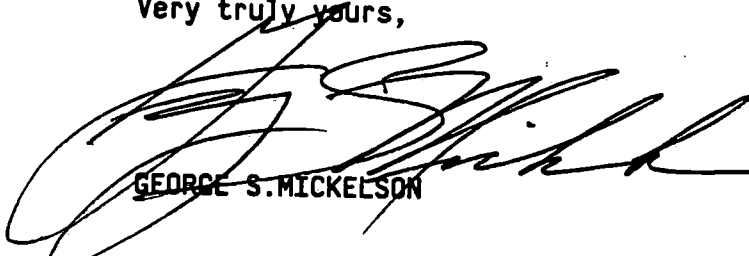

If drastic action is not taken to stop the destruction of these fish eggs, an entire industry will be crippled for many years to come. The cost of rebuilding our fisheries over the next decades would be enormous and probably beyond our means to do so.

Please intervene for us with the Army Corps of Engineers. Help us convince them to slow down the releases of water from Lake Oahe. Let Lake Oahe keep that extra water for the next thirty days.

Instead of releasing 27,000 cubic feet of water per second, we want them to release 22,000 cubic feet per second.

The tows and barges don't need the water. The fish eggs do.

Very truly yours,

GEORGE S. MICKELSON

TOKYO, JAPAN

April 24, 1990

Dear John,

Dear Governor Sununu:

I was delighted to meet with you and to have an exchange of views on Japan-U.S. relations, during my visit to Washington, D.C. earlier this month.

I believe the structural adjustment measures taken by both Japan and the United States through the SII process will not only benefit the both countries, but also other countries. While Japan is determined to further promote its structural reforms, your understanding on the SII process will be of great help in maintaining and strengthening our most important bilateral relationship.

I am looking forward to seeing you again in the near future.

Sincerely yours,

Nobuo Matsunaga

Mr. John Sununu
Chief of Staff
White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Our company is a producer and processor of eggs located in Concord, New Hampshire. We are very concerned about an action that the FDA has proposed -- banning gentian violet, a product that has been used successfully in the poultry industry for over 40 years.

If this occurs, the cost of producing a dozen eggs will increase at least 2 cents per dozen, which will translate into a cost to the consumer of at least 4 to 5 cents per dozen. Additionally, the cost to produce chickens and turkeys will increase at least 1 and 1/2 cents per pound which will translate into a 3 cents per pound increase to the consumer.

Economists predict that this one change in regulation will cost the economy over $300,000,000. FDA has indicated that they calculate the economic cost to be only $5,000,000. FDA is not familiar with production costs associated with the poultry and egg industries since there are NO REPLACEMENTS for gentian violet.

Mr. John Sununu
Chief of Staff
May 2, 1990

We urge OMB to insist that FDA consider this rule change a major rule change, and study the economic impact in depth, as required by statute.

Gentian violet has been shown to be both safe and effective by the top poultry scientists and toxicologists in the United States. Our company and the rest of the poultry industry, as well as the consumer, can not afford to lose this valuable production tool.

We would appreciate your interest in this matter.

Very truly yours,

Dear ~~Governor Sununu~~ John

As a Trustee of LaSalle Military Academy, I had the opportunity to visit with you briefly and listen to your message for the Graduating Class of 1989. It was a beautiful day and a delightful occasion to sit outside on the esplanade while recalling similar ceremonies for the Graduating Classes of the 50's. Your message was stirring, introspective and a measure of the cadet who use to practice public speaking thirty years ago with Rev. Brothers Basilian, Berard, Charles and Michael.

It is with pride I invite the President or yourself, to be the guest of honor and principal speaker at the annual convention of the National Automobile Dealers Association (NADA) being held at the Georgia World Congress Center in Atlanta, Georgia. As Chairman of the Convention, I can give you the choice of dates - either Saturday afternoon, February 9 or Tuesday afternoon, February 12, 1991. There will be more than 25,000 people in attendance.

The automotive domestic industry has been experiencing a recession that began two years ago and presently shows no light at the end of the tunnel. Remarks delivered by the President or yourself would certainly give vitality to our industry --the prime business indicator of our nation. It is important that the automobile dealers of this country, who are the entrepreneurs of small business, witness our administration's concern in recovering manufacturing jobs as well as pride in the quality of America's products.

There will be a meeting of my Convention Committee at the end of May. I would appreciate a reply that may give us a sense of your interest towards this invitation. Meanwhile, as a member of the Republican State Committee for New Jersey, I wish to express pride and appreciation for the manner in which you have successfully directed this administration and assisted the President of the United States.

Governor John Sununu

Enclosed are recent articles that you and Mrs. Sununu might enjoy reading if you have not already.

La Salle Military Academy will have a new president and headmaster effective August 1, 1990. His name is Brother Dominic Fontaine. The next couple of years will determine the ability of LaSalle Military Academy to continue their academic, military and spiritual education. Reductions in defense priorities may result in the elimination of Junior Army ROTC.

Very truly yours,

The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue N. W.

Dear Governor:

The Coalition for Fiscal Restraint (COFIRE) sent letters to every member of the United States Senate on Wednesday, urging passage of legislative line item veto authority for the President.

The positions expressed in these letters were endorsed by sixty-six COFIRE member-organizations.

For your information, I am enclosing copies of the letters as well as a list of the sixty-six supportive groups.

As is evident, the letters were tailored to reflect the vote of each senator on an identical bill last November 9.

Teams of COFIRE representatives will be making visits to the offices of targeted senators over the next few weeks to convey our strong support for this legislation and for general reform of the budget process.

We hope our efforts will be helpful.

Respectfully,

Michael Monroney
Chairman, COFIRE

Dear Mr. Sununu:

The American Association of Exporters and Importers (AAEI), is a national organization comprised of 1200 U.S.-companies which export, import, distribute and manufacture the complete spectrum of products with over half trading with the Peoples Republic of China.

I respectfully request a meeting along with a select group of executives of major importers, exporters and retailers from AAEI to urge renewal of the annual waiver for MFN treatment for China.

Since the opening of trade with China a decade ago, total U.S. trade with China has almost tripled from $5.6 billion in 1981 to more than $14 billion in 1988. Virtually all U.S. firms involved in international trade would be affected by abrogation of a normal trading relationship with China, from actual out-of-pocket losses for importers and retailers, to lowered returns on the more than $4 billion in U.S. investment in China, to general chaos in the global market as firms seek new sources of supply.

Trade sanctions imposed for foreign policy purposes have a poor history of effectiveness beyond serving as symbolic gestures at the expense of irreparable injury to U.S. small business, a reduction in U.S. foreign market share, and higher prices for American consumers. The influx of free-market ideas and a higher standard of living brought about by the opening of trade a decade ago may have been the most important impetus to the democratic movement that erupted a year ago in China. Likewise, a cut off in trade and withdrawal of Western economic influence in China could precipitate further political repression of and economic injury to the most liberal, entrepreneurial sectors of the Chinese economy.

I will be in contact with your office to schedule the meeting anytime before June 3rd.

Sincerely,

Eugene J. Milosh

Governor John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, DC

Dear Governor Sununu:

Last week I sent you an editorial piece printed in the Syracuse Herald Journal which criticized the President's record on education. In answer to this mistaken editorial, I wrote a letter to the editor and to the credit of the publishers, they printed my letter.

I am attaching the newswriter's letter, my letter and my printed letter. Unfortunately, the editor eliminated some of my passages which were most pertinent.

Many of us in education are proud of President Bush's educational initiatives and have great expectations for our Nation.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Michael Marge, Professor

Dear Governor:

I am writing to invite you to consider being a panelist at our November 1990 Politics of Energy teleconference to be held here in Washington, D.C. The exact date of this afternoon event would be largely determined by your and Mr. Hodding Carter's availability in November. As the enclosed materials indicate, the host and moderator of the Man, Energy & The Environment series has been and will be Mr. Hodding Carter, who will be on-hand for this program.

The Jefferson Energy Foundation is a broad-based 501(c)(3) organization, established four years ago to inform the American people about this Nation's energy choices and risks. Prior to and since its inception, America's energy condition has continued to deteriorate. Crude oil and refined product imports from overseas suppliers, many of which are politically unstable, have increased, such that they meet over fifty percent of our oil supplies. The export market for U.S. coal, which has consistently counterbalanced our international oil trade bill, is less healthy and robust. Public concerns about environmental protection have been awakened and heightened, with relatively less attention paid to equally valid concerns about economic growth and expansion throughout this decade or well into the next century. Our economic future is inextricably tied to our ability to fuel it with reliable supplies of energy. All of The Foundation's public education activities focus on developing a workable national energy-environment policy that balances these important national priorities.

Well over 150 sites are known to have "downlinked" and participated in The Natural Gas Debate. The audience included students at the participating universities (MIT, Penn State, U.C. Berkeley, etc.), as well as many educational and cable television systems' audiences, specific corporate locations (Mobil Coal in Denver, ARCO offices equipped with ARCOvision), the Auditorium of DOE's headquarters in Washington, D.C. and other subscribers of various teleconference-providing services, like the National University Teleconference Network (NUTN). As you know, the breadth of our reach will be extended in the Fall when the Adult Learning Satellite Service (ALSS) of PBS promotes and markets the balance of the Man, Energy & The Environment Series.

All of the members of our National Steering Committee, Board of Advisors, and Board of Directors are of the view that unless energy security is given the same priority on the political agenda as environmental protection, the United States will remain, needlessly, without the uninterrupted supplies of energy required to sustain our national defense and economic security. Only by choosing to produce and conserve more domestic energy in an environmentally responsible manner and rely less on imports, can the nation have control over decisions and events that affect its well-being. A prerequisite for accomplishing these twin goals is public awareness of the true nature of the issues and risks before us.

Over the course of the Man, Energy & The Environment series, 100 or more energy-specific (oil, coal, nuclear, natural gas, renewables) experts, drawn from the academic, political and corporate communities, as well as environmentalists, will debate and discuss their respective views about the shape and direction that America's emerging energy-environment policies should take. The deliberations of these experts will be guided by Mr. Hodding Carter, a most able and fair moderator and program host. Each of the energy-related programs will be hosted by a specific academic institution and be witnessed, thanks to linkage by satellite, by the other participating universities as well as other "downlink" sites around the nation on the actual day of each teleconference.

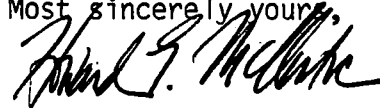

Only by informing the American people about the complex issues and choices that they and their elected leaders must confront about energy development and environmental protection can more viable and successful national policies be formulated. The Foundation will make a consistent and considerable effort throughout each program and the entire series to dispel the diverting idea that energy development and environmental protection are mutually exclusive objectives; rather, they are imperative national priorities, worthy of broad support.

We are attempting to bring this point home to those college students, who participate in each and every teleconference, and the American people who may wish to watch the edited version on PBS as well as cable and commercial television systems. I hope that you agree that this is unique and timely television programming, made available by a broad-based energy education organization (The Jefferson Energy Foundation), not allied with any particular energy industry group. Our funding has largely come from private individuals and foundations, which honor our neutrality and objectivity. In short and in sum, no other organization could undertake a project of similar scope and purpose.

The Honorable John H. Sununu

We would very much welcome your involvement on the Politics of Energy Panel. A preliminary roster of panelists is attached and the program for The Natural Gas Debate is enclosed. Please let me know if you would be willing to be a panelist and which dates in mid-November are most workable for you.

Most sincerely yours,

Howard G. McClintic
Executive Director

Dear John,

This is just a short note to cover three matters...

First, to enthusiastically congratulate you and Nancy for your well-earned John Carroll Society Awards --- and to sincerely thank you for your insightful comments on that happy occasion.

Second, to send along the (attached) most recent commentary on our Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award; and Third, to advise that I am receiving on Wednesday evening the local Fordham University Club's Lifetime Achievement Award --- and I am attaching a copy of my comments...

Again, enthusiastic congratulations!

Good Luck!

God Bless!

Most sincerely,

Dear Governor:

I would like to ask a favor, not for myself, I will do o.k., but for a program that I have been involved with for almost 20 years.

Perhaps you will remember it? MAYHEW, a special program for boys with problems, of school, petty crime, home and family, and just not having enough self confidence

The program runs all year, but the summer component on Mayhew Island, is the most important step for them to gain relationships, self esteem and make new friends. The Island is on New FoundLake.

This winter a major disaster took place on the island. A fire destroyed much of the property, especially the main building.

We have all been working, with volunteers, and a special fund raiser to get things opened again, the support of N.H. people has been fantastic.

We will open again! Now comes the question?
A real treat for all of us would be if you could participate in a special day of opening, of a new beginning for all. [Certainly the President is Welcome also] ← THOUGHT THIS TOO MUCH TO ASK? -

Time: Open From June 26 to Aug 7th. ( except the week of July 20-25)

I have asked staff to forward some information for you.

My best to you and your family.

Sincerely,

Mary. Thouts

Dear Governor Sununu:

I am delighted to inform you that The University of Akron Board of Trustees has approved that you be awarded the honorary Doctor of Science degree. You will receive your diploma when you speak at the University's morning Commencement exercises on May 26, 1990.

Congratulations to you for earning the University's highest academic honor. We commend you for your distinguished service to our nation and for your leadership in the advancement of science and engineering. We especially appreciate your willingness to join us in celebrating the 75th anniversary of the College of Engineering at The University of Akron.

We look forward to your visit on May 26.

Governor John H. Sumnu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor:

Thank you for my appointment with Hanns Kuttner when I was in Washington last week to chair the banquet of the National Managed Health Care Congress and introduce my friend, Mrs. Finestone, M.P. who spoke on the Canadian health system. I explained to Mr. Kuttner that, had I been able to see you, I would have suggested that the position of Presidential Adviser on the Elderly, which President Reagan abolished, be re-established. With the forthcoming 1991 White House Conference on Aging (WHCOA) and the increasing importance and growing numbers of older Americans, the time is favorable, if not indeed mandatory.

The recently released Pepper (Rockefeller) Commission Report, while failing to offer any program for implementation, contains a shopping list of problems confronting America's elders. I need not repeat the litany of issues but would call attention to one just beginning to surface which will generate a heated national debate in the months to come, viz., euthanasia or, as it is euphemistically styled, "the right to die."

The mistakes made at the 1981 WHCOA, at which I headed the Massachusetts delegation, embarrassed the Reagan administration. These gaffes can be avoided next year if there is someone with long experience in the field of aging to advise the President. I suggested to Mr. Kuttner that I would welcome this appointment. As Governor Ed King's Secretary of Elder Affairs in Massachusetts, I inherited a department described in the press as in "complete disarray" and made it into a national model for dealing with the problems of senior citizens and one which attracted international attention as well.

Mr. Kuttner agreed that my proposal made sense and would report it to Mr. Ron Kaufman and, presumably, through him to you. I also saw Congressman John Paul Hammerschmidt of Arkansas, a fellow member of mine on the Advisory Board of the Mildred and Claude Pepper Foundation and whom I had first met in London at an Inter-Parliamentary Union Conference. Knowing of my wide experience, he graciously volunteered to speak to Mr. Kaufman and also to President Bush when he meets with him in a couple of weeks.

A responsible agenda for the elderly needs to be developed, and elders need to become aware of the problems of others, not just their own. The 1981 WHCOA was too strong armed and totally alienated many people who did not come to Washington to fight. In the hands of knowledgeable, tactful, and diplomatic role models, dissent can be handled and channeled along with many other constructive points of view to reach a workable consensus which can serve as a testament to good will and commitment to social justice.

In closing, as an experienced and effective writer and public speaker, I can relate to the senior citizens of this country, especially since I am one myself. If you think my proposal has merit, I would appreciate your bringing it to fruition. Should you wish to discuss the matter personally, I can be in Washington on short notice.

With apologies for the length of this letter and the hope that all continues well with you, I remain

Cordially yours,

REFERENCE: Intolerable banking situation in New Hampshire

Dear John:

I thought that you might be interested in last week Thursday night's auction page in the Union Leader, which has grown from about two pages of antique auctions and 1/2 page of foreclosures a year or so ago, to today's condition in excess of six pages of foreclosures each week.

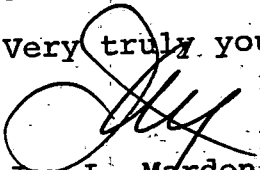

Contrary to what some people may think in Washington, D.C., that there is not a recession up here, there is an outright depression. In addition to construction and housing builders not being able to get mortgages, it is now at a point where lines of credit for retail and service businesses are being shut off.

Correspondingly to astronomical increases in the numbers of foreclosures, the bankruptcies have accelerated at an unheard of rate in late 1989 and early 1990. Both in commercial and real estate areas, potential buyers and tenants have joined in the negative feeding frenzy by saying, "I'm waiting until there is more blood in the streets."

Hopefully, your office and the bank regulators will take some positive steps prior to the construction, real estate, and banking industries all going down the drain up here.

On a more positive note, my neighbor, Roland Sallada, sends his best regards, as do Dot and I. We all enjoy viewing your jovial facade on national television on a regular basis.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Sununu:

During my official visit to the United States next week, I plan to raise several matters which I consider to be of critical importance to the CARICOM Region. One of those matters will be the impact of external debt and the role of multilateral institutions.

Enclosed, you will find brief remarks which I recently made on the subject. I hope you will find them useful. I look forward to discussing this and other issues with you in Washington.

Sincerely,

Michael Manley

Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Chief:

Many thanks for your time this afternoon to talk concerning the President's assistance in a fund-raiser dedicated to the New York State Senate Republican Campaign Committee. I appreciate your interest and understanding that this is a very high priority. If the Democrats were to control the Governor's office, the Assembly and the Senate, there is a distinct possibility that reapportionment could bring a switch of at least six Republican seats. AMERICA DOES NOT NEED 12 MORE DEMOCRAT VOTES IN THE HOUSE.

We are hoping to have a fund-raising event with the President as our honored guest here in Washington. Guy Vander Jagt has agreed to organize the event, and I am sure you will be hearing from him regarding this matter. There will be fund-raisers in New York, to be sure, but I feel we are in a good position to be very successful with an event here in Washington. It is noteworthy that Governor Cuomo participated in such an event for the opposition here in Washington, and they were very successful. It is truly unbelievable the amount of money the Democrats are prepared to spend in New York.

Please do all you can to find a date on the President's schedule so that we can press on with this most important priority.

With warmest personal regards, I am

Respectfully yours,

David O'B. Martin
Member of Congress

Dear Governor Sununu:

On behalf of the Cogeneration and Independent Power Coalition of America (CIPCA), I strongly recommend Terry A. Ferrar for the position of Commissioner of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC). Mr. Ferrar is a former member of the Board of Directors of CIPCA. While he served in that capacity, we found him to be extremely intelligent, well informed, and effective.

Mr. Ferrar has served in various capacities in the electric industry for eighteen years, and thus would bring a broad base of industry experience to FERC. He has a balanced approach to industry concerns and is known for his reasoned thinking on the multi-dimensional issues that are confronting the electric industry at this time.

Mr. Ferrar has met with Messieurs Robert Grady, Richard Schmalensee and John Schmitz, who were favorably impressed, as I believe you will be. I would hope that you could arrange a brief personal visit with Mr. Ferrar as soon as possible.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Christine L. Nolin
Executive Director

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House

Dear Governor Sununu:

I wanted to personally inform you of my interest in a Presidential appointment to the United Nations General Assembly.

As you may recall, we first met in New Hampshire when I directed the 50 States Project for President Reagan in 1983. We took a picture together, which you later graciously signed, at the June, 1989 Plenary Session of the Administrative Conference of the United States where I am a member of Council.

Enclosed is a letter from the Vice President which you may find of interest.

I relish the opportunity to serve our great nation once again.

Thank you for all of your past kindnesses and for your consideration in this important matter.

Sincerely,

Trudi Michelle Morrison

American Chamber Of Commerce In Egypt

log-in
CJAK-1

April 18, 1990

Mr. John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

The American Chamber of Commerce in Egypt is a private, non-profit group comprised of over 400 business leaders from key U.S./Egyptian companies representing a broad cross-section of the Egyptian economy. During its seven-year existence, AmCham Egypt has developed and maintained excellent relations with the business community and the government.

The Board of Governors of the American Chamber of Commerce in Egypt will be heading a delegation consisting of American and Egyptian private sector businessmen to Washington, DC, the week commencing April 30, 1990. This marks the sixth successive year that representatives of the Chamber have travelled to Washington, DC to meet with high-level US government officials and business leaders.

Our primary objective is to reinforce and enhance US/Egypt economic and business relations. To this end, we plan to meet and discuss the vital role played by the private sector in Egypt and to underline the seriousness of Egypt's commitment to greater economic prosperity while emphasizing the importance of US support for such policies. Also, during the course of our visit, we hope to emphasize the progress and achievements made so far in Egypt's quest to promote peace and stability throughout the region.

We would be very grateful if you would consider arranging time in your busy schedule to meet briefly with members of the delegation during our visit. Mr. Phil Hinson's office at the US Chamber of Commerce, telephone 463-5487, will be contacting your office to ascertain whether an appointment can be arranged.

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation and on behalf of the delegation, we look forward to meeting with you in Washington, DC.

Respectfully,

John F. Marrs
President

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

I am writing at the suggestion of Agriculture Under Secretary Roland Vautour to bring to your attention a prospective nominee for the President's Council on Rural America, who would represent the investor-owned electric utility industry and who, I believe, would contribute an important private sector perspective to the Council's deliberations.

In this regard, I would recommend for membership on the Council Mrs. Cathy B. Novinger, Senior Vice President for Administration, Economic Development and Government Affairs, of SCANA Corporation. SCANA is the holding company for South Carolina Electric and Gas Company. Mrs. Novinger chairs EEI's Rural Development Task Force.

In her position at SCANA, Mrs. Novinger manages substantial rural economic development efforts in South Carolina. Last year, the company participated in 15 local government projects, many of which were directed at rural areas. In addition, Mrs. Novinger focused SCANA's Summer Foundation on South Carolina's rural development needs. She is also a Board member of the U.S. Business and Industry Council, and chairs South Carolina's Rural Revitalization Foundation.

The enclosed resume indicates the full extent of Mrs. Novinger's substantial rural and economic development experience. For your information, her candidacy has previously been endorsed by Governor Campbell, RNC Chairman Lee Atwater and several members of the Senate and House Agriculture Committees.

I strongly believe that Mrs. Novinger would be an outstanding member of the President's Council on Rural America. She has distinguished herself in public and private service, and would bring to the Council the significant resources and insights of the investor-owned electric utility industry.

I appreciate the opportunity to bring this outstanding nominee to your attention. If I can provide you with any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

William McCollam, Jr.
