Mr. John Sununu
White House Chief of Staff
White House
Washington, DC 20500

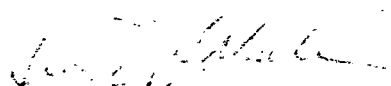

Dear John Sununu:

I just learned that you will be visiting our campus here at Oklahoma State University on April 19, 1990. I am delighted that you will be visiting us as a part of our Centennial Celebration. I wanted you to be aware that I am back at Oklahoma State University and let you know that if I can assist you in any way while you are here, please feel free to contact me.

Just as a reminder, we met at the New Hampshire Special Olympic State Games in the spring of 1988. At that time I was on loan to Special Olympics International from Oklahoma State University to help them develop a new sports program entitled "Unified Sports". I was the National office representative to the State Games at that time. We had just a brief opportunity to visit during the Opening Ceremonies of the Games, as I remember I almost froze on the platform. Last March I finished my tour with Special Olympics and returned to Oklahoma State University where I am the Director of the School of Health, Physical Education and Leisure.

Again, if there is anything I can assist you with on your trip please feel free to contact me. I will look forward to seeing you on your visit.

Sincerely,

George H. Oberle, P.E.D.

When I worked in New Hampshire and was an officer of the Greater Manchester Personnel Association the highlight of our program year was your annual visit. I enjoyed your wit and insight during dinner at the Highlander. The membership feedback about your remarks was always positive.

I have been asked to chair the Society for Human Resource Management's 1990 Northeastern Regional Conference to be held here in Portland Maine from Sunday August 19, 1990 through 1:00PM August 21, 1990. We would be honored if you would be the key note speaker for dinner on the evening August 19, 1990.

Affiliated with the National Society for Human Resource Management, the conference will be attended by some 225 Human Resource managers and executives from the New England States, Delaware, New York State and Pennsylvania. We expect an additional 85 vendor representatives as well.

Many national issues are of interest to Human Resource Executives; national day care, national health insurance, taxation of benefits, drug testing, and proposed changes in Civil Rights laws are just a few. I suggest this platform would be an excellent opportunity to present the administration's perspectives and positions on these and other relevant issues. Remarks will be published in one of our national publications, Resource.

I may be reached directly c/o Citibank, Maine, 100 Foden Rd. South Portland, Me., 04106. My direct phone number is 207-761-2673.

Sincerely,

William F. O'Neil, Jr.

Governor John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20501

Dear Governor Sununu:

It was a great pleasure to have you address the Lincoln Club of Orange County on February 6, 1990.

Kathryn and I will be in Washington March 16-20 and I would appreciate the opportunity to stop by to say hello. In appreciation for your appearance at the Lincoln Club of Orange County we would like to present to you a Lincoln bust, the Club's trademark for these past 28 years.

I recognize the sacrifice you are making being away from your wife and children and it places such a heavy burden upon your personal life but I know that your religious beliefs and personal convictions give you strength to carry it through. I would like to personally thank you for your commitment to our President and to our Country.

Looking forward to seeing you in March.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Sununu:

The purpose of this letter is to extend, through you, an invitation to President Bush to attend a Reception held by the St. Patrick's Day Parade Committee, Washington, D.C. whereat we invest the Grand Marshal and other Dignitaries.

The Grand Marshal for 1990 is Mr. R. John Riggins, former Washington Redskin fullback.

The Reception will be held at the Fort McNair Officers Club on Friday, March 9, 1990 between 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

A list of attendees (about 300) is maintained by Mr. John Soden, 14124 Ansted Road, Silver Spring, MD 20905. (301-384-8476).

An invitation is also being sent to Vice President Bush.

A formal invitation will be forwarded.

The Honorable John H. Sununu

The White House

Dear Governor,

My wife Lauri and I were honored to attend the Inaugural Festivities in Washington, D.C., just a year ago, and carried back to Montana our memories of that wonderful week. Our scrapbook contains many photographs of that exciting time. Among our special mementoes is a ribbon created by our mutual friend, Emile Roy. This was presented to us by Michael McCafferty of Regina, Saskatchewan, who is a great admirer of yours. As we celebrate that wonderful week by watching our video of the Inaugural ceremony and parade, we feel somewhat overwhelmed by our good fortune in attending this historic event!

My uncle, Christopher Phillips, was recently appointed Ambassador to Brunei, which was a great thrill for our family. I have also been recommended for an appointment with the Department of Interior and am anxiously awaiting word from Mr. Untermeyer's office on the status of that appointment.

We feel very proud that President Bush has brought to the highest office a sense of responsibility and dignity. He and Mrs. Bush have given the people of the United States the feeling of strength and stability so necessary to fight the problems of drugs and illiteracy. Lauri and I have every confidence that this Administration will accomplish its objectives, particularly in view of the very able staff the President has compiled. We were elated to read of your appointment, and wish you continued success in your important position with this Administration.

It is a pleasure for me to be able to write and thank you for all you have done in service to your country.

Sincerely,

R. Gary Olsen

Dear Governor Sununu:

To promote a better understanding between the private sector and government, we are co-hosting our 9th annual "Washington Conference" on Monday, May 7th. Our conference will consist of more than 200 businessmen and women from Florida and Ohio, all of whom are supportive of the Republican ideals and the philosophy of free enterprise. In previous years speakers have included: President George Bush (then Vice President); former President Ronald Reagan; Justice Sandra Day O'Connor; Justice Antonin Scalia; Honorable Casper Weinberger; Honorable Jeane Kirkpatrick; Honorable James Baker; and Honorable Dick Cheney to name just a few. As you may remember, you addressed our group last year when Senator Trent Lott co-hosted the event.

It would be an honor if you would be our kick-off speaker on Monday, May 7th from 9:30 until 10:00 a.m. in the Old Executive Office Building, room 450, to begin our constituents' memorable day in Washington. If this is not a convenient time or should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to have your staff contact any of us or Jim Conzelman at 225-2676.

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President of the U.S.A.
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington D.C., 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

January 6, 1990

I am pleased to present to you and your staff a recent two-volume release of our Foundation entitled Kitab-i Bahriye (Book of Navigation) written by Piri Reis (pronounced as peer-ee rays), a Turkish mariner, more than 640 years ago.

Thanks to the maps he drew and compiled, the great Turkish mariner, geographer and cartographer Piri Reis occupies an important place among the world's immortal pioneers of naval and maritime history and among the founders of economic, social and cultural geography. Even today Piri Reis's maps and his work, Kitab-i Bahriye, are accepted original sources that have been the subject of much debate and, in particular, are regarded with amazement and envy by naval, maritime and geographic scholars because of their infallible and edifying information; and it is noteworthy that they have managed to retain their currency for nearly five hundred years.

One of Piri Reis's earlier works is a map he drew in 1513 of the details of the coasts of the Americas. A reproduction of this map appears in the inside front and back covers of our two-volume set for your review. I am sure you will agree with me that it is an amazing accomplishment of accuracy achieved only twenty one years after Christopher Columbus had reached some of the islands in the seas bordered by these shores without realizing that they were a part of a new continent.

Please enjoy Kitab-i Bahriye and share it with your family, friends and colleagues, for, as the title page to it which is reproduced on page 34 eloquently proclaims, «whosoever reads this work, gazes upon it, expounds upon it, or reproduces and disseminates it will increase his merit in the eyes of God.»

Sincerely,

Ertugrul Zekai Ökte

Dear Mr. Sununu:

On Tuesday, August 7th, our organization will sponsor the "7th Annual National Night Out" crime and drug prevention campaign. Nationally, close to 21 million from all 50 states will light-up their neighborhoods and spend several the evening outside with neighbors and police as part of this unique, coast-to-coast, crime and drug prevention event.

We have enclosed some background material for your reference. This program, which is supported in part of the Bureau of Justice Assistance, U.S. Department of Justice, has generated extraordinary support and enthusiasm across the country. Our objective this year is to expand awareness and participation.

As you might recall, then-Vice President Bush kicked-off 1988's National Night Out at a ceremony we organized in downtown Philadelphia. (see enclosed brochure.) Last year, the national kickoff ceremony was hosted by William Sessions at the FBI Building.

Several months ago, we submitted an invitation to the President to participate in a national kickoff ceremony at the White House on (or around) August 7th. We are writing to seek any assistance you might be able to provide in helping us to make this ceremony possible. Mr. Hagan from the Office of Presidential Scheduling did respond to our invitation and we have enclosed a copy of his response for your reference.

The President's participation can have a major impact in bringing even more neighborhoods and law enforcement agencies together for this important anticrime event. Any support you can lend to our invitation to the President will be greatly appreciated.

We thank you in advance for your time and interest.

Sincerely,

Matt A. Peskin

The Honorable John Sununu

Dear Governor Sununu:

Enclosed you will find a copy of the letter that I have sent to the President of the United States. Of course, we are aware of the fact that he seldom sees these letters. I pray somehow that this one may get before him. Governor Sununu, it is obvious to me that the President feels that his election to a second term is a certainty. In some ways the political landscape would seem to dictate that. I know that he is counting on the fact that evangelicals would not go to the polls and vote for a Democratic administration. That just might not be the case to begin with but, even if it is, he is forgetting that literally hundreds of thousands of evangelicals may very well just not go to the polls. Where there is no confidence that anything can be done, most evangelicals will pour another cup of coffee and turn on the television to an interesting ball game. The President, by such actions as inviting the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force to the White House, has taken his greatest step yet in the disillusionment of the evangelicals of this nation. Evangelicals disagree among themselves about many things. This is not one of them. We have no desire to persecute or in any way injure those of gay or lesbian orientation, but we do earnestly believe that public recognition of these groups is devastating to the cause of the family. Please see to it that the President receives better advice. Otherwise, the tenure of the Bush administration would have to proceed, I believe, almost void of evangelical support. I move among the grassroots people on a regular basis as you perhaps know. The growing disillusionment is so thorough as to make it difficult to turn back in the future.

Thank you for your consideration.

Until He comes,

Paige Patterson

Dear John:

I enjoyed our conversation yesterday -- much substance on important matters. Enclosed is the charge to the Evans panel and some additional information about it. Bob White and I are following the deliberations closely.

Recalling our discussion about the annual carbon cycle, you are correct in that the natural cycle involves quantities of C going in and out of the atmosphere that dwarfs the annual anthropogenic contributions. However, the equilibrium between the atmosphere and the reservoirs is so well balanced that the anthropogenic contribution is not noise on top of large quantities but a clear signal that can be monitored riding through the residual seasonal oscillation. The famous graphs which show this and which you are undoubtedly familiar with are enclosed.

Call on us (NRC/NAS/NAE/IOM) if we can be of help.

Yours sincerely,

Dear John:

Following up on my letter about the possibility of President Gorbachev's visit to Minnesota.

Since it is now a done deal and everyone is excited about it, except Mike Hatch--who had hoped to win the DFL endorsement in June over Rudy Perpich--and the four remaining Independent-Republican gubernatorial candidates, I thought that you and your associates might be interested in some of the news articles, the editorial and especially the cartoon.

One thought for the future.....now the President must visit Minnesota because you can be certain the DFL are going to remind the voters that even the President of the USSR came to Minnesota, but not the President of the US.

As always, with very best regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Sununu,

At this time, we would like to indicate our support of Dr. Terry A. Ferrar as a candidate for a position on the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

We believe the White House should give his candidacy every appropriate consideration. We also encourage you to invite him for a personal interview.

Dr. Ferrar's academic record is impressive, as is his record of accomplishments in the business world. Dr. Ferrar is a man of great integrity who would enter the FERC with no preconceived agenda, and would therefore look at each issue fairly in the public interest.

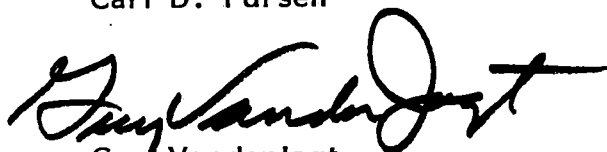

We encourage you to meet with Dr. Ferrar and ask that you keep us advised of your assessment of his candidacy.

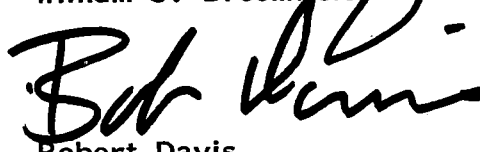

Thank you for your consideration.

Dear John:

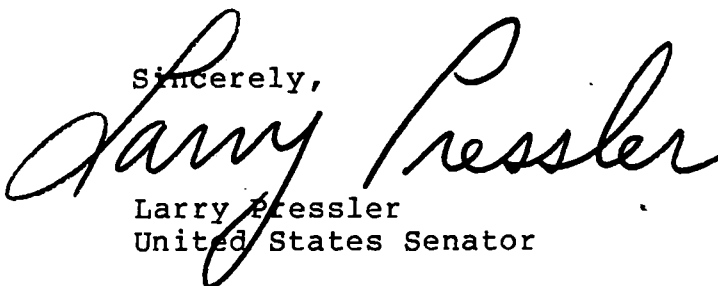

As you begin budget summit negotiations next Tuesday, I urge you to be fair in determining funding for rural health care, agriculture, and water development. Rural America cannot afford unfair budget reductions. There is a grassroots concern about the deficit, and the people in my state are willing to undergo belt tightening--but they expect cutbacks to be made equitably.

Congressional Budget Office figures show that federal agricultural spending outlays fell from $25.8 billion in 1986 to $10.4 billion in 1989. This is a sixty percent reduction in the federal budget for agriculture during a three-year period. Defense spending is projected to decline only twenty-two percent over the ten-year period from 1985 through 1995.

Any decrease in funding for agricultural programs will result in a loss of net farm income. This could result in additional migration of people from rural America to already crowded urban areas. Losing additional farm families through foreclosures and bankruptcy would have a greater detrimental impact on the budget than money spent now to stabilize our rural economy.

We must balance the budget, but it must be done fairly. Rural America, Social Security, small businesses, health care and education already have suffered unfairly from past budget cuts. I urge you to keep this in mind as you begin your negotiations on the federal budget.

Sincerely,

Larry Pressler
United States Senator

Dear Governor Sununu:

It has been a long time since we have seen you. I would like to bring you up to date on a couple of important things that have occurred in my life.

Jean's parents are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary this year and our son, Chris, achieved what we consider the ultimate in high school education (a perfect 800) in the math portion of the SAT's. He attends Winnacunnett High School in Hampton. His verbal score was 570 and while this could be improved, we are very proud of him in achieving these accomplishments. Needless to say, he was very excited when he received the results.

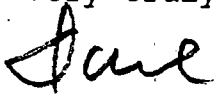

In honor of Jean's parent's 50th anniversary, we are taking them on a vacation to Williamsburg and Washington D.C. in late June. We will be arriving in Washington on Wednesday, June 27th and Bonnie Newman has arranged a white house tour for the 28th.

In conjunction with this tour, I wonder if it might be possible for Jean's parents and Chris to meet you. I know you have an extremely busy schedule. If you could arrange a meeting at your convenience while we are in Washington, it would be a great honor and thrill for all of us. We are scheduled to leave on Sunday, July 1st.

I have on many occasions relayed to them the positive direction you brought to New Hampshire State Government and how we in New Hampshire create our own destiny, which I believe has been very positive, over the years.

Congratulations on your contribution to the President's administration. You are doing an excellent job and I wish you the best for the remainder of President Bush's administration.

Very truly yours,

David J. Power

NAMES

National Association of Medical Equipment Suppliers

May 11, 1990

Mr. John Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

This letter is written to you as a "Budget Summit" member on behalf of the National Association of Medical Equipment Suppliers (NAMES). NAMES is a nonprofit association composed of over 2,000 suppliers of home medical equipment ("HME") in more than 3,500 sites nationwide. Pursuant to physician prescription, NAMES members furnish a wide variety of equipment, supplies, and services for home use, including traditional items such as wheelchairs and hospital beds, and highly technical modalities and services such as home morphine therapy and parenteral and enteral nutrition therapies. A substantial proportion of the users of these medically necessary items and services are Medicare beneficiaries.

The FY 1991 budget proposed by President Bush contains items that directly pertain to the home medical equipment industry, namely disproportionate Medicare Part B expenditure cuts focussing on HME (approximately $250 to $320 million). By this letter, NAMES registers its strong opposition to these items and urges you to keep overall Medicare expenditure cuts at a minimal level.

We understand that the Administration has proposed $5.6 billion overall Medicare savings, with Medicare Part B expenditure cuts "primarily for reductions in payment to physicians and durable medical equipment." NAMES strongly opposes further significant cuts to HME, particularly in light of the Administration's and Congress' objective of improving the health of the American people.

Suppliers of HME play a vital role in allowing many of our citizens, who might otherwise require hospital or nursing home care, to remain at home. These suppliers recognize the need to establish standards for payment under Medicare Part B. The HME industry also recognizes that, due to growing budget deficits, reductions in expenditures in Medicare Part B are unavoidable and is prepared to take its proportional share.

NAMES urges, however, that any cuts in HME reimbursement be made in a manner least disruptive of patient care and consistent with the framework created by the HME reform law as passed in OBRA '87. This major reform legislation was only fully implemented in June 1989 and completely overturned the HME reimbursement rules of the prior 25 years.

We as a nation ought to be encouraging home health care options, not ruling them out. This is true not just for fiscal reasons -- it's less expensive to keep people at home than it is in an in-patient facility -- but for quality of life reasons as well. Surely, if people can be properly cared for in the comfort of their familiar surroundings, we should be encouraging care at home.

If HME suppliers are driven out of business, people who are able to remain at home because they have HME available to them under Medicare Part B would be forced into more expensive in-patient health care facilities in order to receive the care they require.

Most of the Administration's deficit reduction proposals to reduce payment for home medical equipment were considered and rejected by Congress during the FY 1990 budget reconciliation debates. As examples only, the more inappropriate provisions which would have substantially eliminated Congress' recent HME work in OBRA '87 included:

- o an additional 5% off oxygen reimbursement;
- o a national cap at the median on all HME items;
and
- o a reduction in rental payments to 120% of allowed charges.

Nevertheless, the Administration once again urges adoption of these same provisions for FY 1991. NAMES respectfully submits to you that sound public policy dictates, once again, Congress should reject these proposals in their entirety.

The OBRA '87 HME reforms were designed to effect a 5% reduction in oxygen expenditures. However, in many states, the actual reductions approach 15%-20%, because the data base used to calculate reimbursement rates for oxygen supplies and equipment included patients who would not be eligible for oxygen therapy under today's more stringent coverage rules (the so-called PRN patient). Thus, oxygen reimbursement already is dangerously low in many states. NAMES is concerned that even further reductions at this time would seriously limit patient access and care and therefore, urges you to reject such a proposal in your FY 1991 budget deliberations.

In addition, setting a single national payment rate for all HME items would make it extremely difficult, if not impossible, for HME suppliers in high cost of living areas to continue to provide this equipment to Medicare Part B recipients. The costs of providing home medical equipment in many parts of the nation far exceed what a national payment rate would allow. Home medical equipment is not immune to the cost pressures which effect most other segments of the economy in any particular region because it is a service which must be provided using local resources, paid for at local costs.

Operational costs such as high overhead for leasing of warehouse space for storing equipment, labor costs, trucking expenses, heating and the like vary enormously from one geographical area to another. As such, the variance in local fees that exist in HME are essential for providing services. Unlike clinical laboratories which also have been targeted for a national cap, the HME industry supplies not only equipment for beneficiaries, but also provides on-going services to clients. HME businesses do not have the ability to shift costs to less expensive sites or conduct business through the mail as do clinical labs.

Setting a national payment rate is unfair, inefficient, and would seriously jeopardize the ability to deliver home medical equipment to Part B Medicare recipients in the many areas of the country where costs exceed the national average. While the short-term savings which might result from taking this action may seem compelling, the fact is that, before too long, if HME suppliers are driven out of business, many of those people who are able to avoid in-patient care would have no choice but to leave their homes, and enter a health care facility in order to receive the care they require.

Regional payment rates with a national floor and ceiling as in the OBRA '87 legislation is a far better policy approach, and Congress recognized this last year by rejecting a national cap for HME. NAMES urges you to do likewise for FY 1991.

Finally, NAMES is opposed to any further reductions to allowed charges on capped rental items. The current cap of 15 months at 10% of purchase price per month (150%) was adopted by Congress in OBRA '87 only after careful consideration of all the facts and circumstances. In particular, Congress realized that after the 15th month, suppliers are eligible for only a small service and maintenance fee paid semi-annually. Suppliers receive no further rental payments nor are they reimbursed for replacements if the original item is beyond repair. Thus the current 15 months (150%) provision was adopted in recognition of the substantial exposure to non-reimbursable costs suppliers face after the cap is reached.

As you begin your FY 1991 budget deliberations with Congress, NAMES thanks you in advance for your kind attention to these issues.

NAMES encourages you to contact us for further information on the HME industry and encloses a fact sheet on recent HME savings for your review.

Sincerely,

GEORGIA REPUBLICANS

May 7, 1990

Honorable John Sununu
Office of the Chief of Staff
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear John,

As you know, the State of Georgia is nearing a political turning point as the 1990 election approaches. Republicans in Georgia have the opportunity to elect a Governor for the first time since 1966. After qualifying a record number of Republican candidates, we stand on the verge of historic election gains at every level in Georgia.

Throughout the month of June 1990, the Board of Governors of the Georgia Republican Foundation will be conducting a membership drive with a series of events across the State. We would like to extend an invitation to Secretary Robert Mosbacher to be our Guest of Honor at one of the following scheduled receptions: June 5, June 7, June 21, or June 28, 1990.

The State Party has been informed that the Secretary's schedule is not conducive to a speaking engagement in Georgia. We are hoping that the Secretary's Office will re-evaluate that decision in light of the vital role our Foundation will play in the 1990 Republican elections in Georgia. Support for our candidates will be vital in the effort to make significant gains in our congressional, statewide, and local elections.

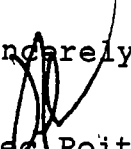

We at the Georgia Republican Party understand that the Secretary's political time is extremely limited, and would like to schedule his trip to Georgia with other travel plans.

Members of the Foundation pledge $1,000 annually to provide the necessary support to ensure competitive races throughout Georgia. The Foundation allows many of Georgia's top corporate and community leaders the opportunity to meet with local and national political figures. On December 4, RNC Chairman Lee Atwater and Congressman Newt Gingrich were our honored guests at the annual Foundation Christmas Party where we welcomed over 50 new members.

In the last year, our members have hosted events with former President Ronald Reagan, White House Political Director Jim Wray, Vice President and Mrs. Dan Quayle, and Former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger.

We are grateful of your time and consideration. Liz Harris at State Party Headquarters will be contacting you next week with further details on the event.

Sincerely,

Alec Poitevint,
Chairman
Georgia Republican Party

Dear Governor Sununu,

I enclose for your information details of the Soviet Trade Conference which is taking place in June.

At the same time I would like to take this opportunity to state that I completely support this administrations policy with regard to normalizing trade relations with the USSR and that this is the general feeling amongst the business community in the Northeast.

The Soviet delegates will be staying in New Hampshire from the 14th of June and if you are in New Hampshire during this period I am sure they would be more than interested in meeting with you.

I would also be very pleased to deliver any message from you personally or the Administration, both to the Soviet delegates and those attending the conference.

Yours sincerely

The Honorable John H Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, DC 20500

Dear John:

Thanks for your letter of April 5th. I am told that there was a good turnout for the Century Club dinner (Sally and I were out of the state), but the contributions totaled less than half the $500,000 plus that Vice President Quayle raised last year and I am sure you or the President would have raised this year. However, everyone is hopeful that the President will be coming sometime before the election and thus we shall raise the necessary funds to both retire Rudy Perpich and win a majority in the State House or Senate.

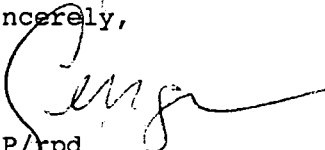

Our four-way race for the Independent-Republican gubernatorial nomination is expensive. You and some of your associates may be interested that I finally decided to support Arne Carlson for the reasons expressed in my letter (enclosed) to all the candidates. Since then, Arne has hired Jim Murphy as a campaign consultant, who has already been very helpful.

I am also writing to enclose a memo received from Sally's brother, Wheelock Whitney, Co-Chairman of the Arne Carlson Volunteer Committee. I am sure you understand that the last thing we want to have happen in Minnesota is to have President Gorbachov show up in Minnesota as a guest of Rudy Perpich's prior to the election. Anything you might do to communicate this message to those who will be responsible for President Gorbachov's schedule, will be greatly appreciated by all of us.

Last of all, Sally and I are coming to Washington next week for the Republican Eagles meeting and some other commitments. So hopefully, we shall see you at the White House reception, Wednesday the 9th. Sally also will be going to a National Federation of Republican Women tea the following day, having been persuaded to join the NFRW by a letter from Nancy.

Best wishes to all, especially the President. Thanks for the strong and thoughtful leadership that he is providing our country and the world.

Sincerely,

Dear John:

A word of advice. It is my understanding that the administration may have approved the Republican and Democratic nominees for the soon to exist vacancies on the International Trade Commission. As I understand it, it is Richard Feinberg for the Democratic spot and Carol Crawford for the Republican spot. The quicker their names are sent up, the better. It is also my understanding that Chairman Rostenkowski has a candidate and Lloyd Bentsen has a candidate. The longer the administration delays in sending forth its nominees, the more entrenched may other interests become in attempting to push theirs. Then we get ourselves in one of those situations where perhaps hearings are not heard and vacancies exist in the commission for a long period of time.

Sincerely,

BOB PACKWOOD

Honorable John H. Sununu
White House Chief of Staff
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Governor,

I am writing to ask for your aid in assisting me secure an appointment to the Federal Housing Finance Board as a member at large in Washington, D.C. The other choice would be to Secretary Kemp's Blue Ribbon Panel on Land Use and Zoning.

Over the past eighteen years I have accumulated experience and knowledge about the housing finance industry. As a native of New Hampshire, born and educated in its fine school systems, I felt a duty to the state to assist them plan for the future. As your appointment to the New Hampshire Housing Finance Authority in 1986 I felt that I have contributed to the development of several programs which ultimately fostered financing for low to moderate income families.

With a family of six of my own, I am aware of the problems facing our low to moderate income families. As our baby boom population now begins to look towards retirement during the next decade this will present another series of concerns for the housing industry and the government. I would like to assist in the solution rather than idly standing by.

Creativity is not new to me since during my early years of mortgage financing there was always the desire to assist families attain homeownership. While working for a bank in Keene, NH I help design a program called the "MORTGAGE GUARANTEE INSURANCE" (MGIC) in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. This program was later adopted by the Federal agencies of FNMA and FHLMC to be what is now called the temporary buydown.

Previously as President of the Mortgage Bankers Association of NH, I worked with all housing trade groups to promote safe and affordable housing initiatives. Presently, as Executive Vice President of Colonial Mortgage, Inc. situated in New Hampshire I am aware of the disturbing problems we as a nation face in the world of banking and housing finance. I have lectured to the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corp.'s School of Mortgage Finance on several times about the Secondary Market and its role. I am also the recipient of the highest designation, the "Certified Mortgage Banker" (CMB) from the Mortgage Bankers Association of America.

As a strong and dedicated republican I hold these concerns very dearly. The solution is not to throw more money at the problems but to develop a concerted effort to create private/public partnerships which will more readily be able to address these housing problems.

Coming from New Hampshire does not mean that I am naive about these problems we face but look forward to the challenge ahead. I feel that I can bring new light coming from the outside and not being prejudice about new ideas. I feel that I can bring to either of these appointments that same vigor in which I viewed the challenge of the appointment to the New Hampshire Housing Finance Authority.

I look forward to any assistance which you might provide and encourage you to discuss this letter with Clairia Monier, the Executive Director of the New Hampshire Housing Finance Authority or anyone else.

Enclosed please find a copy of my resume for your review.

Sincerely,

Paul T. Pouliot CMB

Dear John:

It is with great pleasure that I enclose the Washington Legal Foundation's 1990 First Quarterly Activities Report.

WLF witnessed a very active and successful first quarter thanks to your help. The first three months showed a dramatic increase in our pro-economic growth agenda by conducting both precedent-setting litigation and legal policy advocacy through such forums as timely publications, media appearances, and briefings.

Our aggressive and diligent work continues to earn WLF the leadership role in the public interest law and policy arena. Thank you for your continued loyalty. I urge you to review the report and let me know if you have any suggestions.

Warm regards,

Dear John:

This letter follows our telephone conversation on Monday (April 9) in which I described the forthcoming Conference entitled The Grand Market, East-West Relations and European Security After 1992: New Challenges and Opportunities, to be held under the co-sponsorship of the Institute for Foreign Policy Analysis and the Centre d'Etudes de Defense at the Palais d'Egmont in Brussels between June 21-22.

This meeting will have the support of the Belgian Government. The Minister of Foreign Affairs of Belgium (Mark Eyskens) and the Minister of Defense (Guy Coëme) have agreed to participate. We have been advised that it is likely that King Baudouin, as Head of State, will be present during the Opening Session. Furthermore, it is anticipated that the Conference will include participation at a high level from other West European countries as well as the European Community, the Western European Union, and NATO. For your information, I am enclosing a copy of our provisional agenda containing information about the principal topics to be addressed.

As I suggested on Monday during our telephone conversation, because of its timeliness, location, and level of participation, the meeting would offer an unusual forum for President Bush to present a statement of Administration policy in the aftermath of the Washington Summit and in the rapidly unfolding transatlantic security environment. I am bringing this meeting to your attention, and to that of Brent Scowcroft as well, in the hope that it might fit in with your planning for post-Summit activities with respect to NATO-European allies.

We have also extended an invitation to Vice President Quayle, a copy of which I am enclosing with this letter for your information. Before issuing the invitation, I have been in contact with the Vice President's National Security Advisor, Carnes Lord.

John Sununu

On behalf of the co-sponsoring organizations, I hope that we will be able to obtain official U.S. participation at the highest possible level. Do not hesitate to contact me if I can provide additional information.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Robert L. Pfaltzgraff, Jr.

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to The President
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

I write to share the concern of the nation's agricultural community over the possibility of changes to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission's jurisdiction.

Rarely do the diverse elements of agriculture reach a unanimous view on any one issue. But, as you will see from the enclosed letter co-signed by 18 leading agricultural groups, agriculture favors a strong, independent CFTC. (The letter was sent to key Members of Congress over the last 10 days.)

We hope you will take agriculture's unified view into consideration as the Administration continues to study this important issue. Specifically, we urge the Administration to resist the temptation to reformulate regulation of the nation's futures markets. These markets, as they exist today, are a model for the rest of the world. As other nations mimic these markets, we face an increasing competitive threat. In this environment, the United States must be very sensitive to upsetting the nearly 70-year regulatory framework within which these engines of economic innovation have developed and function today.

We believe a change in the regulatory structure would not only weaken our international financial market competitiveness, but could ultimately jeopardize the efficient, fair pricing of agricultural commodities. Accordingly, we urge the Administration to oppose legislation to change the current regulatory structure.

Respectfully,

Robert R. Petersen
President

Dear Mr. Sununu:

During the first week of August, the Weyerhaeuser Company's Information Services Division will be hosting a conference for computer center managers representing many of the largest manufacturing and distribution companies in the United States. The representatives attending the conference from these companies will gather in Seattle to discuss issues critical to the success of their computer support operations and hence key to the continued viability of their firms.

The discussions will focus on leading-edge technology issues including their projected requirements for future computing capability, data security and methods to assure continuous, uninterrupted computer support among others. As you know, discussions such as these often form a road map for much of America's business to follow.

With this as background information, I am writing to ask you if it would be possible to have President Bush provide welcoming remarks (30-45 seconds in length) via pre-recorded video tape. The tape could be produced in a single brief session any time in June or July.

I appreciate your consideration of this request and look forward to discussing it with you. Should you desire to reach me by telephone, my number is 1-800-654-9347.

Sincerely,

Board of Directors Panama Canal Commission

OFFICE OF
THE CHAIRMAN

11 APR 1990

Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

I was in Panama last week for meetings of the Committees of the Board of Directors of the Panama Canal Commission. We had two very productive days during which the Committees addressed a series of important personnel, operational and fiscal issues. The Board also adopted a statement in which it defined its mission to be "to insure the safe and efficient operation of the Canal...and take all appropriate steps to have a smooth transition to Panamanian control of the Canal on December 31, 1999...."

Although not yet formally appointed by the President, the Panamanian Board members participated fully in the Committee meetings. The spirit of cooperation, dedication and commitment, and the enthusiasm that was evident among the American and Panamanian Board members was most impressive. It augurs well for the Board's ability to meet the challenges it faces in the decade ahead to provide for "a smooth transition" to Panamanian ownership in accordance with the Panama Canal Treaty.

The Acting Panama Canal Administrator, Fernando Manfredo, and I paid a courtesy call on President Endara. We also had a meeting with First Vice President Arias Calderon. Mr. David Beall, the American Chargé d'affaires (in Ambassador Hinton's absence), accompanied us to both meetings. President Endara was most gracious and expressed his full support for the Panama Canal Commission, stressing the importance he attaches to this unique example of U.S.-Panamanian binational partnership.

Vice President Arias gave us his appreciation of Panama's economic situation. He made the point that Panama had made rapid progress on the political front but there had not been similar movement on the economic side. As a result tensions were developing. What was needed was a "transfusion" to get things started and break the bottleneck in the banking area. This would then set off a chain reaction in the rest of the economy.

Without being critical in any way, both President Endara and Vice President Arias made it clear that our aid was needed urgently to jump start the Panamanian economy. They expressed their appreciation for President Bush's efforts to expedite action. Both are aware, of course, that the delay in implementing the President's economic recovery program for Panama is dependent on congressional action and that there is not much more the Administration can do to speed things up.

There is, however, one area where perhaps you can be helpful in expediting action and providing reassurance of United States support for the Endara Government. That is the nomination by the President of the Panamanian Administrator and the appointment of the four Panamanian members of the Board of the Panama Canal Commission. All five names have been in the White House for some weeks now. Anything that you can do to expedite the nomination and appointment process would be most helpful and demonstrate our continued commitment to Panama and to the implementation of the Panama Canal Treaty.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be 'RW' with a stylized flourish at the end.

Council for National Policy

April 5, 1990

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor:

Since our joint meeting with the International Policy Forum last summer in Seville, Spain dramatic changes have occurred throughout Eastern Europe. With astounding speed, most of Eastern Europe is reaching for freedom and liberty. These changes will have a tremendous impact on how the U.S. conducts its business around the world.

This year, after the July 20-21 CNP/IPF meeting, where we will discuss developments in Eastern Europe, we would be pleased to have you join our post-Vienna trip to Prague, Czechoslovakia and Budapest, Hungary. You and I will have, through CNP, the opportunity to see changes first-hand and share in the excitement.

Our group will leave Vienna on July 22 and return there Saturday, July 28. IPF President Morton Blackwell and I will lead our families, members, and guests on a week long trip to Prague and Budapest. We will meet with some of the revolutionaries and reformers who've made momentous events happen.

We will hear of the experiences of freedom-loving people as they struggle to establish political, economic and religious freedom. Their leaders are anxious to meet us and get our advice.

Imagine standing in Wenceslas Square in Prague where a few months ago thousands of people "rang" their keys for liberty. Imagine watching Soviet troops pull out of Budapest where their tanks crushed the Hungarian people in 1956. Our contacts in the new governments are extensive and growing. So you are assured of meeting with those "in the know."

Just as we can give advice and encouragement to the revolutionaries in Eastern Europe, they can inspire us with their courage and conviction. And, of course, give us a few hints as to our own political participation.

Many accuse the West of just standing by as these tremendous events unfold. We can do something!

Let's learn about Russia's true intentions in Europe from those most at risk. Let's discuss how we can aid these fine people...truly our brothers and sisters...as they fight to regain control of their destinies.

Afterward, when you discuss events in Eastern Europe, you can "I was there." This trip will give us credentials which come from personal experience.

A boat will take our group along the scenic Danube River. Expert bilingual guides will aid us as we immerse ourselves in the rich history and stunning current events of these countries.

There will also be ample free time for you to see the sights of two of the most beautiful cities in Europe.

We'll travel from Vienna to Prague and Budapest in a luxurious air-conditioned coach. Accommodations in Prague and Budapest will be the finest.

I urge you to take this unique opportunity to gain the offensive and participate in rolling back the borders of totalitarianism and tour beautiful Prague and Budapest.

Please find enclosed an itinerary for the post conference trip to Eastern Europe. The complete cost for food, travel, guides, and lodging is $1240 per person, double occupancy; single occupancy, $1600.00.

My family and I will extend our trip and travel by car to Romania after Prague and Budapest. Anybody interested in "Bucharest after Budapest" should contact me at (713) 655-2819 for further details.

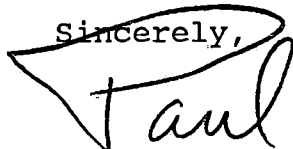

In order to guarantee this wonderful tour of Czechoslovakia and Hungary we must have at least 40 participants meet the April 30th registration deadline. Your 50% deposit is also required by April 30th.

The balance is due three weeks before departure.

Please return the enclosed registration form to Morton Blackwell at the International Policy Forum, 8001 Braddock Road, Suite 550, Springfield, Virginia 22151.

Please don't miss this exciting journey.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Paul". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned below the word "Sincerely,".

Paul Pressler
President

P.S. Please return the registration form right away. Space is limited. We don't want you to miss out on this historic trip.

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS

April 4, 1990

The Honorable
John Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

We need a little help. As requested by the President, Lee Iacocca has met with a number of the President's cabinet and advisers, some several times. He has apprised them of conditions in the auto industry and Chrysler's program for competitiveness.

We would appreciate any efforts you can make to schedule a meeting for Lee with the President and yourself.

Thanks and best regards,

Sincerely,

March 27, 1990

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff

Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

During our recent meeting, we discussed the need for federal guidelines that can be used by states during the reapportionment process.

Although redistricting itself is still a year away, Illinois has been collecting and evaluating data and information to prepare for the process. While doing so, we have found that, although past federal legislative and judicial decisions have a profound impact on reapportionment, there is no central resource available that pulls together the decades of legislation and court decisions that affect remapping. No comprehensive set of guidelines exists on such issues as minority representation, fair and equitable redistricting, acceptable population variances and standards for determining compact and contiguous.

It is our hope that the Attorney General of the United States could be persuaded to use the considerable resources of the Department of Justice to consolidate the available information and provide states with guidelines on these and other issues critical to reapportionment.

A definitive and comprehensive set of guidelines, which incorporate all applicable federal legislation and court decisions, would help state legislatures develop reapportionment plans which would withstand federal judicial review. Providing states with a clear set of guidelines based on existing law and federal court decisions could reduce the need for after-the-fact litigation and, therefore, help create a fair and equitable map with minimal population deviation in the shortest, least disruptive period of time.

Your support and assistance in this matter would be very much appreciated.

Sincerely,

James "Pate" Philip
Senate Republican Leader

Dear John:

As a member of the Board of Trustees of the Boston Ballet, I am happy to inform you of an extraordinary event happening in Boston on Saturday, April 28, 1990.

On that evening, Boston Ballet and members of the Kirov and Bolshoi Ballets will present the World Premiere of a glasnost Swan Lake, marking the very first American/Soviet collaboration in the history of western dance.

It would be an honor to have the President and Mrs. Bush and you and Mrs. Sununu as our guests here in Boston on April 28 for Swan Lake. They would be among an audience of top donors and supporters of the Boston Ballet at a performance and dinner/dance at the Wang Center for the Performing Arts. What would be the appropriate steps to ensure that they might join us?

I have enclosed some background materials about the American/Soviet Swan Lake. Please contact Swan Lake Gala Coordinator, Mary Flynn, at 617-738-4347 if you need any more information. She will check in with your office in about a week in the hope that you might have some word for us about the President's schedule.

On another matter, I am delighted to be working with Dr. Eugene Wong on the President's High Performance Computing Initiative.

Cordially,

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Executive Office of the President
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Ambassador Sununu:

The Semiconductor Industry Association (SIA) has requested that the U.S. Trade Representative identify Japan's continued non-compliance with its market access commitments under the U.S.-Japan Semiconductor Arrangement as a priority practice and Japan as a priority country for trade liberalization under § 310 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended. We urge you to support identification of Japan's non-compliance with its semiconductor market access commitments as a Super 301 priority practice.

Japan's practices are clearly trade distorting barriers and in breach of Japan's international obligations. With less than eighteen months remaining in the Arrangement, Japan has not adhered to its market access commitments. Based on the "gradual and steady growth" committed to in the Arrangement, the foreign market share should have been 16.6 percent for the fourth quarter of 1989. In contrast, foreign share of the Japanese market for the fourth quarter of 1989 has been estimated to be 12.9 percent. Whether any specific share is appropriate at a particular time is not the sole issue. The fact that U.S., European and Korean competitiveness is not being reflected in the Japanese market, demonstrates the degree to which the Japanese market is not functioning.

Japan's failure to comply with its market access commitments under the Semiconductor Arrangement has had, and will continue to have, a severe adverse impact on the ability of the U.S. industry to continue to compete as a world leader in semiconductors. Japan's non-compliance with its market access commitments cost U.S. and other foreign producers almost $800 million in lost sales in 1989. By 1991, at the current rate, this figure will grow to $1.6 billion annually.

The Super 301 provision was drafted to identify trade priorities. The drafters intended it to be used as a mechanism to set America's trade priorities, to address unfair trade practices and to remedy violations of trade agreements. The statute provides for the identification of trade priorities and for negotiation. Sanctions are only to be applied if found to be warranted. Japan's failure to comply with the Semiconductor Arrangement is clearly a priority issue, and should be so identified. In addition, Japan's pervasive system of trade barriers and its failures to implement trade agreements fully require that Japan be identified as a priority country under § 310.

In the 1989 Super 301 announcement, USTR Hills indicated that the 1990 exercise to identify priorities would "reevaluate the status of certain practices not identified today [May 25, 1989], in light of the progress made in bilateral and multilateral negotiations."^{1/} The Semiconductor Industry Association hereby requests that this review take place as stipulated in § 310 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended. With less than eighteen months remaining in the Arrangement, there is an urgent need for Japan to take prompt and vigorous action to comply with its commitments.

Identification of semiconductors as a priority practice and Japan as a priority country will convey to Japan that the U.S. Government expects the Japanese Government to adhere fully to its market access commitments made in the Arrangement. Japan must realize that the United States Government and industry will not give up their efforts for full and equitable access to the Japanese semiconductor market.

The U.S. industry is very competitive and has the export potential, at current capacity and investment levels (levels which would improve were the Arrangement enforced), for the industry to produce additional billions of dollars of semiconductors. President Bush's comments in the 1990 State of the Union Address apply fully to the U.S. semiconductor industry: "We'll match our ingenuity, our energy, our experience and technology, our spirit and enterprise, against anyone. But let the competition be free but let it also be fair. America is ready."^{2/}

If Japan's market were truly open, in the sense that the U.S. market is open, U.S. share in the Japanese market would far exceed the minimum level projected in the Arrangement. The comparison between U.S.-Japan semiconductor competition in open markets and in Japan is striking. In 1989 in the rest of the world, excluding the Japanese market, the U.S. industry had a 52 percent share, compared with 26 percent for the Japanese industry. In the open U.S. market, the U.S. industry supplied 66 percent of the market compared to 24 percent for the Japanese industry. While the U.S. industry has been held to the historic levels of 10-11 percent of the Japanese market for the last two decades, Japanese producers have more than doubled their share of the U.S. market since 1985.

The Arrangement has had real value and should be maintained. Enforcement of the Arrangement has resulted in the elimination of dumping in third country markets of key semiconductors, in the resurgence of U.S. capacity in DRAM production, in the preservation of a viable U.S. EPROM industry, and in the continued expansion of U.S. investment in other semiconductor product lines.

In addition, the Arrangement has been the basis for an additional sales of almost $1 billion dollars of foreign semiconductors in the Japanese market each year -- even at ^{1/} 1989 Super 301 announcement, May 25, 1989.

^{2/} Excerpt from President Bush's 1990 State of the Union Address, January 31, 1990.

...ent inadequate level of Japanese performance. When the Arrangement commenced, U.S. share of the Japanese market had dropped to 8.5 percent from its historical level of 10 percent. Without the Arrangement, the U.S. industry would not have the modest progress to the current 12.1 percent (fourth quarter of 1989) share of the Japanese market. Continued pressure is essential to further progress.

The U.S. Government has two options as to how to proceed regarding Japan's non-compliance with its semiconductor market access commitments. 1) It can use the procedures of the statute to designate its priorities, or 2) it can modify and/or increase sanctions. We respectfully submit that to do neither would represent an abandonment of U.S. national interest. We are requesting that the United States take the course of action of continuing to work with the Government of Japan to make the Arrangement work, within the context of § 310.

Placing Japan and semiconductors on the Super 301 list is not retaliatory or protectionist and the Semiconductor Industry Association regrets the necessity that compels us to request Super 301 status. To list America's trade priorities accurately, however, will demonstrate a firmness of purpose. It will inform the Government of Japan that the Administration finds the failure of Japan to abide by its commitments as unacceptable. More is at stake than just America's commercial interests. The credibility of the U.S. Government's trade policy is also at stake.

Sincerely,

Wilfred Corrigan

Governor John Sununu
Chief of Staff
THE WHITE HOUSE
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

SUBJECT: Second Annual IFKYO Trustee Reception, May 10, 1990
Hall of Flags - Washington, D.C.

Dear Governor Sununu:

I very much appreciated your initiative in speaking to interested DuPage County Republicans at the Hamilton Hotel on Saturday, March 10th. Your comments were not only informative, but served as an important source of motivation at the grass roots level.

I understand that you spoke with one such Republican in attendance, Thomas W. Fawell. Tom is a life-long hardworking Republican who, at my request, was good enough to host a reception for President and Mrs. Bush at his home during the 1988 Presidential campaign. You may know his uncle, Congressman Harris Fawell, Republican 13th District of Illinois. Tom also serves as one of four trustees for a worldwide charity headquartered in Illinois, which serves as the parent organization for Boys and Girls Clubs throughout the world. The name of that organization is The International Federation of Keystone Youth Organizations ("IFKYO"), which was originally founded by another stalwart Republican, W. Clement Stone, in 1978. The three other trustees who serve with Tom are Nicholas Wills, Chief Executive and Managing Director of BET Plc of the United Kingdom, David Golden, President of British Nuclear Fuels plc, and Martyn Richardson, Executive Vice President of Coca-Cola International.

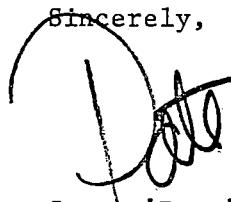

March 19, 1990

I understand that the Second Annual IFKYO Trustee Reception will be held on May 10, 1990 at the Hall of Flags, Chamber of Commerce of the United States, 1615 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. I further understand from Tom that he has, pursuant to your request, forwarded correspondence (copy enclosed) to your Executive Assistant, Mr. Ed Rogers, seeking direction and counsel in securing the acceptance of President Bush as the recipient of the First IFKYO International Voluntary Leadership Award.

It would be much appreciated if the President could accept the First IFKYO International Voluntary Leadership Award on May 10th in Washington, D.C.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear John:

Thank you so much for having Jackie Kennedy give me a call to explain why there was no possibility of your coming to Minnesota on March 31st.

It is truly incredible to me that I was being constantly asked to urge you to come by our party leaders and some of our elected officials, when it should have been quite obvious to them that there was no such possibility of you not attending the Gridiron affair.

Be that as it may, I hope that you will keep in mind that we would definitely like to have you come any time. We will organize appropriate events whenever you do and make your trip most worth while.

I also mentioned to Jackie that I thought you or some of your associates, like Andy Card, might be interested in the enclosed book, "Tribune of the People", that was authored by the former Associate Dean of the Humphrey Institute, based on a study they did that was partly funded by the Legislature. It concludes that Minnesota would be better served by a single house legislature of approximately 100 members, something that I have been advocating ever since I served my first term back in 1971.

Of interest, the author is now the Dean of the School of Social Sciences at the University of Texas and remarked that the Legislature in Austin was not ready for such a change.

Again, good to hear from you and very best regards to all.

Sincerely,

George (rpd)

Dear Mr. Sununu:-

It is out of context, of course, but the short quotation attributed to you at the bottom of page 8 gratified me as an old engineer getting close to the stage mentioned. The thought of someone in one of the nation's key posts cherishing his engineering outlook, the principles, and the rational addressing of problems is most encouraging. Steinman's depiction of the engineer on page 16 is only a small part of it.

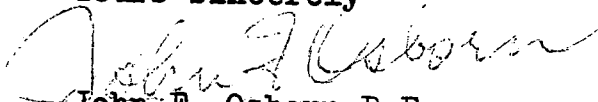

The piece by Carroll Maninger on the Greenhouse Effect on page 20 might be of interest to you. He is the man who was brought back from retirement at Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory to manage the assessment of problems from the Chernobyl fallout. The statements in this article can be backed up by quantities of research data and are to be viewed with forboding.

Hans Bethe on the opposite page and Glenn Seaborg on page 23 of the Sept. issue are both still very much around and are powerful respected figures in assessing the vital energy requirements that are facing us in the near future.

It is also to be hoped that you can bring your engineer's outlook to bear on the re-ordering of foreign commitments - occupation armies etc to yield better lives for us all along the lines of concern expressed in Ike's little quote on page 20.

Best wishes for a sustained successful career in "politics" before going on - or out - as a resolute "old engineer".

Yours sincerely

Dear Governor Sununu:

On April 20, the Republican Party of Florida will honor President Bush as our 1990 National Statesman.

Florida is "Bush Country" and the GOP has made great strides in Republican registration here. Under the leadership of President Bush, we intend to be the first southern state to obtain a Republican majority. For these and countless other reasons, we look forward to honoring the President as our 1990 National Statesman.

The Statesman's Dinner began in 1989 as legendary entertainer Bob Hope, in front of over 1,600 attendees, was honored as Florida's first National Statesman. In addition to honoring Mr. Hope, we honored all ten of Florida's congressmen in the year which they became the majority in Florida's congressional delegation.

Continuing with the tradition we will honor another outstanding individual -- a friend of yours and the President -- Alec Courtelis as our 1990 Florida Statesman. As you know, Alec has worked tirelessly over the years raising funds for the President and other Republican candidates. This recognition is long overdue.

We expect this to be a gala event and a very exciting evening. On behalf of the Republican Party I would like to extend to you and your wife an invitation to participate as honored guests with the President at our dinner for over 2,000 people. The Republican Party of Florida, of course, would be willing to absorb any expenses associated with your participation.

The Republican Party is on the brink of making history in Florida. With the re-election of Governor Martinez, gaining control of the State Cabinet and becoming the majority in the Florida Senate, we have a lot at stake. Your participation would help us greatly in our effort to raise the necessary funds to reach our goals.

Governor John Sununu

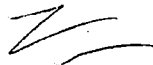

March 12, 1990

I sincerely hope you will be able to attend, and I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience. If you have any questions, please call.

Sincerely,

Van B. Poole

Dear Governor:

You are cordially invited to attend a reception April 2 in honor of the Aluminum Association's Board of Directors.

Our Board is in Washington to convene its annual Spring Meeting. A number of issues are on the agenda, including international trade and the environment. We'll also be reviewing the status of the aluminum industry and determining its strategy for the 1990s.

To kick off our meeting, we're providing the Board with an opportunity to meet the policymakers, government officials and private sector colleagues who have an impact on the aluminum industry. Therefore, I'm hopeful you will join us.

The reception will be 6 to 8 p.m. in the Senate Room of The Capital Hilton Hotel, located at 16th and K Streets, NW. Please have a member of your staff contact Becky Snedeker at 862-5196 of your plans to attend.

I look forward to seeing you April 2.

Dear John,

It was a pleasure to have had the opportunity to speak with you at the dinner in honor of Prime Minister Andreotti this past Tuesday evening, and to congratulate you on your recent election to the National Academy of Engineering. Having been named to the Academy at the same time, I felt that I was in very good company.

Our election to the Academy reminded me of the importance of engineering to the economic health and well-being of our country, and of the need to ensure that, as a nation, we continue to strengthen engineering and technical curricula at our schools and universities.

I hope your schedule will permit you to attend the induction ceremonies and dinner in October, and that we have the opportunity to meet again in the near future.

Sincerely,

THE WHITE HOUSE

Dear Governor,

Augusta and I watched the '88 election returns on TV with the Republicans Abroad in Geneva. President Bush did not need the absentee votes, but Connie Mack's victory has been attributed to absentee ballots, (as was George Dukmejian's). As you may know 80% of the overseas votes are Republican. Republicans Abroad (under John McCarthy and Barbara Hayward) hope to increase those GOP votes this Fall.

We are planning an RA fundraiser luncheon on 12 June in Boston at the Copley Plaza. We will target the New England business community.

You would be the ideal speaker, who would also attract a good crowd (and thereby, funds for overseas newspaper ads to generate more New Englander overseas voting).

Can you help us? The Copley is reserved for June 12, but the date can be changed if it would allow you to come. Of course, we would provide for transportation and whatever else is involved.

We will be in D.C., 27 March for the Senatorial Trust, at which time I will call your office to ask about the status of this request.

Augusta joins me in wishing you and Nancy all the Very Best,

Sincerely,

Joe

P.S. Your assistant Ed Rodgers, spoke at our last RA event in Palm Beach in January, and did a fine job filling in for Marilyn Quayle.

Dear Jackie:

I spoke to you Friday, March 9th about the possibility of John speaking to the members of the New England Fuel Institute in Boston on Wednesday, June 6, 1990. This will be a luncheon meeting at the Copley Plaza, and there will be 700 heating oil dealers from throughout New England in attendance.

Please let me know if John will be able to make this engagement.

Hope you are enjoying your work in the White House, and please convey my best regards to John.

Sincerely,

The Honorable John H. Sununu
The White House Chief of Staff
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

As a result of the Super 301 process, U.S. Government officials, concerned industry executives, and many supercomputer users have raised questions on the current and prospective competitive position of Cray Research, Inc. and the challenges we have encountered in trying to penetrate the Japanese public sector. In response, we have prepared a report which examines the expanding role of supercomputers, distribution of marketshare among the major manufacturers, and the importance to U.S. vendors of gaining access to the international market (especially the public sector in Japan) for sustaining a long run competitive position in the world supercomputer market.

Given the Administration's concern with the competitive position of U.S. industry in general and the recent focus on the supercomputer industry, I have attached a copy of this report for you. If after reading it you have any questions regarding our competitive position against Japan, please do not hesitate to contact me in Minneapolis or Suzanne Tichenor, Cray's Director for International Trade Affairs in our Washington office.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "John A. Rollwagen", is written over a horizontal line.
