Dear Governor Sununu,

Enclosed you will find a copy of our most recent annual report. I hope that you might find a few minutes to glance through it. A number of months ago, I had written to determine if you might be able to determine if the President or Mrs. Bush might be able to speak on behalf of the adoption program of Children's Home Society. You had written that someone on your staff would be getting in touch. I have not had any further correspondence since then.

I really understand the demands of your schedule and would appreciate any assistance you might be able to provide. I hope that all is well with you and your family. Our prayers have been with you during this recent crisis in the Middle East.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

David A. Bundy

August 21, 1990

Honorable Governor John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

16412 KIPLING ROAD
DERWOOD, MD 20855

Hon. Gov. Sununu:

Without any desire to divert the administration's attention from its management of the Middle East crisis (which management I applaud), I would like to call your personal attention to the attached recommendation of Dr. E. W. (Ted) Webster for a Presidential appointment to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission. I believe that you will remember the distinguished Dr. Webster by his service in Massachusetts, as well as in Washington.

To me, the appointment of Dr. Webster would indeed be related in an important way to the events of the Middle East. With the kinds of technical judgements required by an NRC Commissioner, it is important to have Commissioners who have an understanding in depth not only of the physical, but also of the biological, aspects of safe regulation of nuclear energy and its important byproducts used in research and medicine. The safe, but reasonable, regulation of nuclear energy and its byproducts is important in re-establishing safe nuclear energy as an option to avoid not only dependence on oil, but also to eventually reduce the burning of fossile fuels that contaminate the environment and endanger our planet. It is also important to our children and future generations that we conserve fossile materials for their future value in producing chemicals of importance in medicine and industry.

Dr. Webster has the ideal background of knowledge and understanding for making the right decisions about nuclear energy and byproducts, and for helping the administration and the public put biological risks from human activities in proper perspective.

Please let me know if I can provide any further information or assistance in behalf of Dr. Webster's nomination.

Sincerely,

Allen Brodsky

Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

We had the pleasure of having dinner together several months ago in St. Louis and you will recall the discussion we had concerning the baking industry's need for uniform labeling reform. I very much enjoyed our dinner and hope that you will continue to call on Ralston Purina/Continental Baking Company to work with the Administration in reaching its goals.

Additionally, our national trade association, the American Bakers Association, has invited President Bush to address its annual convention in Washington on Tuesday, October 9, 1990. It would be a great opportunity for a traditional industry such as ours to hear from the President. We would appreciate any favorable consideration you can give to this request.

Again, it was a pleasure meeting with you and commend the Administration for the leadership that is being provided to this country.

Sincerely yours,

Robert W. Bracken

REB

August 20, 1990

Mr. John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

It would be presumptuous of me to assume that after breathing Montana air for three weeks I have a clear perspective of fast moving world events.

However, it appears, now that we have entered the fray, we must accomplish the ultimate objective as swiftly as it is deemed we have sufficient aircraft presence commensurate with adequate land force deployment. We must destroy Hussein and his regime. The risks of doing so cuts both ways. Failure to do so cuts even deeper.

If this objective is to be met, unlike the advice of so many experts, I believe time is not our ally. Whatever advantage we gain through a united but time consuming blockade will ultimately fade in the desert sun. Whatever fragile alliance President Bush has remarkably achieved will soon die of desert thirst. Our own media will, in time, become an additional burden now that we face another hostage ordeal. Granted, our nation's right to act in pursuit of its legitimate interests should not become hostage to hostage taking but it will and probably already has.

Though initially we came as defenders, in time, our presence will be likened to that of an unwanted conqueror. Incongruous as it may be, Saudi Arabia is now de facto our 51st state.

We must not indulge Hussein beyond our assured ability to take him out from above. As with Hitler, we have dire historical precedence of the consequences of appeasement. Furthermore, Hussein has given the world sufficient moral and legal provocation and basis. We wait at our peril, not only because the odds favor our becoming enmeshed in his spreading web of propaganda, deceit and cunning, but also because the likelihood increases that we cannot avoid being scorched by the searing cross winds of desert politics Mideast style.

I have listened to the news reports, interviews and advice of our array of expert guests. By and large, they come across as left brain thinkers. I hope the Administration will take a chapter from TAO and go with the fluid thinking of whole brain advisors. Analytical overload far too often leads to paralysis.

ununu

A peripheral benefit can also be the forging of a rational long term fiscal policy. If President Bush will hang tough in this area as well, he would have the backing and blessings of the American people. He sounded that way at last week's press conference.

Past this ordeal will come a whole new set of thorny issues and problems, least of which will be the due bill from our Middle East supporters who no doubt will renew their arguing that we disavow our support for Israel. But that is for another day and time.

Sincerely

The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor:

I am writing on behalf of Rev. Randall A. Terry, past President of Operation Rescue. It is my understanding that the federal government is trying to collect a $50,000 fine from him on behalf of the National Organization for Women. May I ask that you request the President and the Attorney General that they not seize their dwindling assets or attempt to close their office. The federal government should not be doing that type of work on behalf of anyone, especially the radical organization N.O.W.

As a supporter of the Republican Party for all of my life and one who has appreciated the principles on which our great Nation has been founded, I would hope that we would begin to see a change in the perspective and influence of the politicians in Washington, D.C. Please understand that my desire is to see our Country continue in the great tradition that has been established in the past. I am not seeking to be confrontational in any way, but only to ask for some assistance for this wonderful man of God and his family.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Dear Mr. Sununu:

The Board of Governors on behalf of the members of The Federal City Club have chosen you as the recipient for the Club's Annual Distinguished Service Award. The award is bestowed upon individuals who by their dedication to public service have enhanced the course of public affairs and the commonwealth. The public purposes to which you have been dedicated and the competence in which you have acted have made an indelible mark on the conduct of public affairs. Therefore, it is with great pleasure that the Board of Governors elect you for this award.

The presentation of the award will be made at a formal dinner party attended by members of The Federal City Club at the Capital Hilton Hotel. We respectfully suggest, at your convenience, the evening of November 14 or 28, 1990. His Excellency Yuriy V. Dubinin will be awarded the Club's Annual Distinguished International Service Award at the same occasion and, accordingly, your earliest notification of an acceptable date will be greatly appreciated.

If past award dinners are any indication, this indeed will be a gala and fun affair. We look forward to your acceptance of The Federal City Club's Distinguished Service Award at the Annual Dinner on one of these dates.

Very truly yours,

William H. Bode, President,

Pennsylvania Thoracic Society

August 15, 1990

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
Executive Office of the President
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Honorable Sununu:

The membership of the Pennsylvania Thoracic Society strongly urges you to oppose any deficit reduction plan that would force pharmacists to switch Medicaid patients to different drugs than those prescribed by their physicians, or which is otherwise based on the erroneous premise that chemically different pharmaceutical products can be used interchangeably.

Our concerns are prompted by the Office of Management and Budget plan, presented to the budget "summit" on June 20, that would attempt to save money in Medicaid through the practice of "therapeutic substitution"--the switching of a patient's prescription to a different chemical from the one prescribed, without the knowledge or consent of the patient's physician.

Acknowledging the danger of this practice, the OMB proposal would actually hold pharmacists harmless for patient injury or death caused by a drug switch.

Distinct pharmaceutical products, even though they may belong to the same therapeutic class, are not routinely interchangeable. Rather, such drugs are chemically different and are not equally safe and effective for each patient.

We refer you to the recent position statement on "Therapeutic Substitution and Formulary Systems" published by the American College of Physicians (Annals of Internal Medicine, Volume 113, Number 2, pp 160-163, 15 July 1990). In summary, the statement concludes:

1. Therapeutic substitution is more complex than generic substitution. Whereas drugs in a therapeutic class share similar pharmacologic and therapeutic properties, their differences are manifest when administered across a wide range of patients with differing physiologic and pathophysiologic status. These differences may involve the mode and extent of action, adverse effects, and potential interactions with other drugs.

August 15, 1990

2. Determinations of therapeutic equivalence often depend on clinical studies that are of limited size and thus fail to pick up idiosyncratic drug reactions, that underrepresent certain racial or age groups, or that exclude patients with underlying conditions that make them more prone to adverse reactions. Therapeutic ineffectiveness and adverse effects among the elderly are numerous.
3. Therapeutic substitution is appropriate only in hospitals with an effectively functioning formulary system and Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee. Physicians should recognize that on many occasions and in some institutions, therapeutic alternatives should not be used. The key determinants regarding the appropriateness of therapeutic substitution is the effectiveness of the formulary system and the Pharmacy and Therapeutics Committee.
4. Therapeutic substitution jeopardizes patient management when immediate prior consent is not obtained from the authorized prescriber and when documentation of substitutions is untimely or improper. Such practices must not be permitted. Physicians are ultimately responsible for the consequences of patient treatment. This necessitates immediate prior authorization from the prescribing physician before the administration of a therapeutic alternate.
5. The practice of therapeutic substitution may be acceptable in ambulatory settings that meet standards comparable to those of institutional settings. The challenges associated with therapeutic substitution and the limited mechanisms to monitor its practice and effects when done outside the institutional setting make its practice unsafe in most ambulatory settings. Presently, Illinois and Wisconsin explicitly prohibit therapeutic substitution outside of acute care settings. Other states vary in their restrictions on therapeutic substitution in nonacute care settings. The finding that immediate prior notification of therapeutic substitutions is not provided to physicians in most instances is disturbing.

August 15, 1990

If you would like additional information, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

J. Robert Burns, MD

DEAR MR. SUNUNU;

THE ARAB AMERICAN VOTING COMMITTEE, a non-profit organization, is publishing it's second guide book in October of 1980.

Early this year we received a congratulating letter for our first guide book in responce to our delivery of the first edition to you, which included a photo of you as the new Cheif of Staff and our pride as the highest ranking appointee of Arab American origin in the Bush Administration.

We are writing you to ask you for a letter of encouragement and advise to the Arab American community to go out and register so they can be able to vote for their choice which is the cornerstone of democracy.

Yours Truly

Dear John:

On behalf of the nation's Governors, I want to thank you for your willingness to meet with us in Mobile to discuss several of the pressing issues facing this nation. As a former Governor, your leadership and experience on issues ranging from the budget negotiations to transportation policy is vitally important. We are fortunate to have "one of us" in your position in the White House.

The Governors look forward to continuing our strong working relationship and hope that a resolution of the budget deficit issues is real and long lasting.

Hi John Sununu:

I respect your fast rise in the Republican Party. Don't forget the Japs are morons, fast in all directions.

We need a crew, the same as the F.B.I. or the C.I.A. We will call them WLAO, World Lookers And Overseers that the U.S. stays ahead of all countries in the field of manufacturing of every kind and education, or suddenly we will find ourselves left out. We are too nice of a country to everyone. We must protect the U.S.A. first, we will be the lowest unless we start now.

You are the guy that can form this WLAO. I have been all over the world and the U.S. dollar everyone wants because it holds it's value. There is not one country that does not have our U.S. dollar.

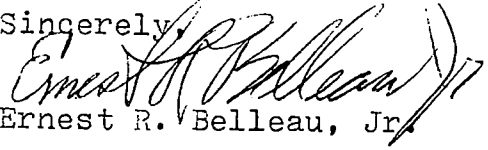

I have been all over South America, the dollar is King and we must keep it that way, the same as you did for New Hampshire.

Our weakest area is every country has borrowed from us, hammered on us and we just keep turning our checks for more. My respect goes out to all the great men who brought us this far and we must continue to be the world leader.

Should our money be called for new money this would cause a world catastrophe that we don't need. I have seen dollars in the most remote corners of the world, I still believe we can be the leaders

WLAO, they must be a group of the most intelligent and persuasive men. I know you can do it John.

Sincerely,

Ernest R. Belleau, Jr.

The White House

Dear Governor Sununu,

I understand that the Administration may propose raising $4 billion in revenue by imposing a "royalty fee" for the use of the broadcast spectrum that would equal 4% of the gross revenue of this station and every other radio station in this country.

I want to express WMAL's strong objections to this tax proposal. Four percent of this station's gross revenue is a significant amount and would be imposed on us at a time when local stations are facing a stagnant advertising market. Economic projections do not suggest that this market will improve in the near future, and, as you know, advertising is our sole source of revenue.

Radio stations provide news and public service programming to communities throughout this nation in exchange for government licenses to use the airwaves. We will continue to live up to these responsibilities to serve our local community, but we must voice our strong objections to a tax that singles out our industry with such Draconian results.

I urge you to oppose this spectrum tax and to communicate that opposition to the Administration and to all those involved in the budget negotiations. I look forward to hearing from you regarding this subject of concern for WMAL.

Sincerely,

Tom Bresnahan

Dear John:

I have received a copy of Jack Stephens's letter to you dated July 31, 1990, recommending Robert Bennett for appointment to the District 5 position on the Federal Reserve Board.

You may know Jack Stephens. In any event, he is one of the most successful investment bankers in the country, and his firm is probably the largest investment banking firm in the South. He is a rabid Republican.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.

U. S. CONGRESS

August 7, 1990

Chief of Staff John H. Sununu
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

I am writing to ask for your assistance in fighting an uphill battle. It is a battle of perception and unhappily a battle that is placing my campaign for U.S. Congress at risk.

As you may be aware, I became the Republican nominee for Congress by defeating the incumbent, Buz Lukens, and the former congressman, Tom Kindness, in a hard fought primary. The primary campaign left me with a debt of more than $155,000.

After the primary election, I received many congratulations and many assurances that the 8th Congressional District of Ohio was a safe Republican seat and a November victory would come easily, even though this was now an open seat.

However, no one gave my Democrat opponent that news.

The state and local Democrat organizations see their first opportunity in a number of years to claim the 8th District seat and are going all out to provide my opponent with support.

Additionally, my opponent has a very well known and well liked relative who happens to be a popular television actor on the NBC series "Cheers". Already this relative has arranged for thousands of Hollywood dollars to be given to my opponent's campaign. Recently, he also completed a one week tour of the district, raising money and earning media for my opponent.

The potential for more Hollywood money coupled with the strong support my opponent is receiving from labor organizations is very bothersome to me.

Which brings me to our perception problem.

The perception is out there that my race is over and that I don't need help to win in November. There has been no visible support for my campaign from the national party organization which tends to lead people to believe that my race is "safe" and thus not important.

I am asking for your help because this race is far from over. I, better than most, know what it is like to be the underdog in a race that is judged to be over. Two weeks before my primary, polling showed me more than twenty points down to Tom Kindness. But my staff and I knew that if we outworked Mr. Kindness, we could win. I judge that my opponent is thinking the same thoughts now regarding this race.

I am hopeful that your schedule will allow you to travel to the Eighth District of Ohio to assist me with my campaign. Whether it is a brief press conference announcing your support, being the honored guest at a fundraiser or even spending an entire day on the campaign trail, your help is greatly needed and would be greatly appreciated.

It is vital to the success of my campaign to have your assistance. Your support would send a strong signal throughout my district that this is indeed a very important race.

Again, I hope you will consider assisting me in my campaign. I have enclosed a small packet of information regarding my race and the district.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

John A. Boehner

Dear John,

I offer any help in the hearing process on Justice Souter. I spoke to Tom Ratch and offered a letter to my friend Joe Biden telling of my admiration for the work he did as atty General and on the Supreme Court. I'm sure you know I have noted no choice and I have no fear that Justice Souter will interpret the law and not legislate it. I strongly object that abortion is the only issue in this nomination and would express that belief

Senator Biden. What ever part you would want me to play, I would be glad to help.

New Hampshire should be

Dear John:

~~On September 14, 1990~~, I am hosting a meeting of the James Madison National Council of the Library of Congress. The Council is a small group of members of the private sector, CEO's and philanthropists, who have offered their expertise and financial support to the Library. The Council is an extremely important component of our plan to serve the nation by making the tremendous resources of this Library more accessible to its citizens.

We would be most honored if you could join us for lunch or dinner on that day, and if you could speak informally for a few minutes. Your presence would mean a great deal to the Library, and, of course, to me personally, and I hope that your very busy schedule will allow you to join us.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

James H. Billington

Re: "Nationalistic" Philosophy of Newly Proposed Apprenticeship Rules and Regulations
29 CFR 29

Dear "Governor" Sununu:

Please permit a brief expression of concern about the most recent draft of proposed new rules and regulations promulgated by the Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training of the U.S. Department of Labor. Of paramount concern to the states is the newly asserted monolithic concept for a national apprenticeship program that preempts state laws, standards, and rules. The legal basis for the assertive preemptive character of these proposed rules and regulations is a real puzzle.

The perplexing aspect of this scenario has been the apparent inconsistency between the nationalistic philosophy of these proposals and the frequently enunciated commitment to a policy of "new federalism" by the President and other leaders of this administration. Perhaps this document deserves a renewed and more careful review by the Office of Management and Budget and your staff. I should appreciate your giving your personal attention to this development. Please help!

Sincerely yours,

John C. Brooks

The Honorable

Chief of Staff
Executive Office of the President
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

One of my few regrets regarding this Institute's Atlantic Corporate Committee meeting in The White House on June 12 was that you could not participate as you did during our March 13, 1989 meeting. Our corporate leaders presented their assessments on "the most critical issues" of paramount concern to our Atlantic alliance in the following four areas:

1. Strength or weakness of the Atlantic economic alliance: Impact of "Europe 1992";
2. Business relations with Japan and the Far East;
3. Business relations with Eastern Europe; and -
4. Economic-business forecast: Impact of U.S. Government policies.

Your personal copy of the Atlantic Corporate Committee's White Paper/Special Report to the President and Congress of the United States -- reviewed on June 12 -- is enclosed, together with our publication reporting highlights of the June policy statements, including:

- The President's keynote challenge;
- Challenge from our Cochairman from the Congress, Senator Lloyd Bentsen;
- Corporate goals by NYSE Chairman/CEO John Phelan, Jr. and Europe's Dr. Peter Wallenberg; and -
- Statements from corporate and government participants from both Europe and the United States, including (for example) Italy's Trade Minister Renato Ruggiero, Olivetti's Carlo De Benedetti, European Round Table Chairman Wisse Dekker, Deutsche Bank's Hilmar Kopper, and our own representatives from the Congress.

I am writing this letter with a sense of both enthusiasm and urgency to invite your personal, selective involvement when we again meet here in Washington on February 5-6, 1991 for the presentation and discussion of the Atlantic Corporate Committee's second White Paper/Special Report to the President and Congress of the United States.

I would like to be able to announce the "good news" that you plan to be with us, for no more than 15-20 minutes, on February 5 or 6 when I write to over 100 corporate leaders at the CEO/Managing Board level in the United States and Western Europe and invite them to join with us February 5-6 ... and even more significantly, to present the proposals and counterproposals they consider most urgent within the spectrum of trade, investment, and economic policies.

Toward this end, I will be leading a selective task force across "Corporate Europe" and "Corporate America" to invite corporate executives to present their proposals -- what they most encourage and most oppose in political-economic-business policies impacting their corporations, and therefore, the strength of the economic alliance.

On February 5-6, in our sessions with corporate leaders, you will have the opportunity not just to hear their insights but state your own convictions regarding policy directions.

In parallel to extending this invitation to you, I am also writing your counterparts at the Cabinet level within the Administration who share responsibilities with you on international economic and national security policies, plus the following Congressional leaders who are already Members of the Atlantic Corporate Committee's "Congressional Partnership Committee" and therefore committed to this government-business initiative:

Hon. Lloyd Bentsen
Hon. Doug Bereuter
Hon. Bill Bradley
Hon. William S. Broomfield

Hon. Charles W. Stenholm

We also want you to know that we are working with a number of your Department's senior representatives at the sub-Cabinet level, but we believe it is important to our joint mission and would be mutually beneficial to involve you very selectively on February 5 or 6.

With all best wishes.

Cordially,

Dear Governor Sununu:

On Sunday, September 9th, we will celebrate the reopening of Ellis Island with dedication services of the Ellis Island Immigration Museum. We are delighted that President and Mrs. Bush will lead our ceremonies.

While the official ceremonies will take place on Sunday, the Foundation is sponsoring a preview benefit on Saturday evening, September 8th, at Ellis Island.

As you may know, all of the $345 million needed to restore both the Statue of Liberty and Ellis Island was raised by groups and individuals from all segments of the American society. Many of these individuals will attend our Saturday night event.

We would be pleased if you and Mrs. Sununu could be our guests for our gala preview and then, of course, join the festivities with President and Mrs. Bush the next day.

I am enclosing an invitation and am hopeful that you can join us.

Sincerely,

Stephen A. Briganti

White House Chief Of Staff
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Chief of Staff Sununu,

As a citizen of New Hampshire and taxpayer of the United States I am looking for your help.

In November of 1988 we hosted a recruiting conference for the U.S. Army Recruiting Battalion Brunswick. The conference went as planned, the hotel provided our end of the agreement and the final amount of the bill was approved for submission of payment to the Army by the officer in charge of the conference. As of this date we still have not received payment.

Through my own investigations and pursuit of payment (I have not received one formal piece of information from the Army explaining the delay) I was informed that the bill has been held up because of an error that was made by the Army. The officer in charge of planning the conference did not follow necessary procedures in obtaining a contract.

The Fox Ridge Resort has been denied payment of $32,264.82 for eighteen months through no fault of ours. I have asked for the aid of Senator Rudman and he has been helpful by writing to the Army Is there anything that can be done by yourself to speed up this process? This money is significant to our survival in today's difficult times.

Enclosed are copies of all correspondence that I have sent to Senator Rudman explaining my efforts in detail for collection and his replies.

Thank you,

Dear Governor Sununu,

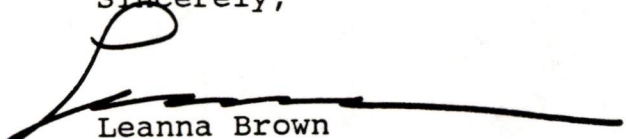

I am pleased to follow up on an invitation extended to you by the Morris County Republican Committee in New Jersey to be the keynote speaker at their Annual Champagne Brunch on Sunday, October 28, 1990 from 11:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Morris County voters gave George Bush the largest plurality in the state in 1988. I was very honored to serve as co-chair of the Bush/Quayle '88 campaign in New Jersey. In that capacity, and as a member of the Fund for American's Future, I traveled to South Carolina, Cincinnati and New Hampshire during the primary.

I joined Assemblywoman Nancy Tarpley in campaign activities in Amherst and had the pleasure of speaking with you at the pre-primary rally.

As the highest ranking Republican elected woman in New Jersey to support the President I wish to encourage your attendance on October 28th. Morris County is eager to welcome you to the #1 Republican county in New Jersey.

Sincerely,

Leanna Brown

Re: Appointment of David Souter as Supreme Court Justice

Dear John:

The last time we spoke, you accused me of being a "flaming liberal." While I do not think that that description is accurate, I am a Democrat, which may be the equivalent in some people's opinion! You know from my support of Linda Bisson's appointment that I support people regardless of political views if they are the right person for the right job.

In any event, I have approved of the choice of David Souter as the next Supreme Court Justice. I have tried one case in front of David Souter in his short service as a trial judge. I have argued quite a number of cases in front of him in the New Hampshire Supreme Court. I think he has a brilliant mind and is a person of high integrity.

If I can assist in the getting him approved in any way whatsoever, including speaking at the Souter confirmation hearings, please let me know.

Very truly yours,

LT. GOVERNOR ★ REPUBLICAN

163628

July 27, 1990

John Sununu
Chief of Staff
White House Executive
Office of the President
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

I need your help in California. Because of my strong pro-life beliefs, my being elected to the office of Lieutenant Governor is of significant importance to Republicans not only in California, but across the country. It is important now, and it will be important in 1992.

During the Primary, reporters dismissed my chances for winning because I am a pro-life supporter. I won that Primary 55% to 45% over a much better financed pro-choice opponent. With your help I believe we can end the argument that standing up for pro-life does not mean defeat on election day.

The talk is that many pro-life supporters will sit out the election this year. I have a strong following among these voters and I feel I can maximize the overall Republican vote in the November election.

My Democratic opponent, Leo McCarthy, is very vulnerable at this time. A recent poll showed him to be the least popular Democrat in the state behind Jerry Brown and Alan Cranston. The California Teachers Poll reported 27% to re-elect and 34% to elect someone new when asked about re-electing Leo McCarthy. As you know, these are disastrous numbers for a two-term incumbent.

With your appearance in California at two major dinners; one in Orange County and one in Los Angeles, I could realize a large percentage of the funds needed for my campaign. We have an extremely strong ticket this year, and with your help we can make Republican history.

Cordially,

Senator Marian Bergeson
Candidate for Lieutenant Governor
for the State of California

The Political Reform Act places a limit on the amount of contributions (including loans/$1,000 per person or company) made in a fiscal year (July 1 - June 30). This is not a request for a contribution in excess of these limits. Contributions for Marian Bergeson for Lt. Governor, 1990 are not tax deductible for federal income tax purposes.

Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

As the "budget summit" continues, the National Tax Limitation Committee wants to be sure that the position of the American taxpayer remains as a priority consideration.

To that end, NTLC has prepared a Telepost message to the President which articulates that position. This Telepost is signed by our President, Lewis K. Uhler, and hundreds of individual taxpayers from across America. Their message is representative of NTLC supporters numbering in the hundreds of thousands.

We would like very much to present the NTLC Telepost to you personally at the White House, and to have a photo of the presentation to be featured in our Tax Watch. The photo would not be distributed to the press, unless you choose to do so through the White House Press Office.

While the photographic result of the presentation is extremely important to our supporters, it would seem equally advantageous to the Administration as concrete proof of the President's continued concern for the Nation's taxpayers.

As you know, many groups and individuals, inspired by the media, have loudly criticized the President for his open consideration of new revenues in the budget negotiations. NTLC has not, although we have been urged to do so.

While we remain opposed to new taxes as advocated by the Democratic Leadership in Congress, we also remain supportive of and confident in the President's commitment to achieve real cuts in the growth of spending and true reform of the budget process.

The brief presentation we are requesting, scheduled at your earliest convenience, will provide additional symbolic evidence of this Administration's continued regard for the taxpayers who support the President. We would be most appreciative of your cooperation to facilitate it.

Sincerely,
Al Cors, Jr.

Bethlehem Steel Corporation

BETHLEHEM, PA 18016

CURTIS H. BARNETTE
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT

July 27, 1990

The Hon. John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave., N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Enclosed for your review and retention is a copy of Bethlehem's Report for Second Quarter 1990. Bethlehem's reported net income of $22 million for the Second Quarter and $43 million for the First Half was 74% lower than our net income for Second Quarter 1989 and 71% lower than First Half 1989. The decline in net income results from lower steel shipments and prices and from higher operating costs principally due to planned outages at our Sparrows Point, Maryland plant. Bethlehem continues to be a company in transition and certain sections of the Report are marked to indicate areas of progress and concern.

1. Lower Shipments.

Steel shipments were approximately 13% and 16% lower in the second quarter and first half of 1990 than in the year earlier periods, and our raw steel production declined to 65% and 67% of capacity from 81% and 82% last year, mainly due to the planned outages.

2. Competitive Pressures.

Severe market and competitive pressures continue to affect our (a) Rail Products and Pipe Division, (b) Bar, Rod and Wire Division and (c) Structural Products Division.

Higher Costs.

3. Production costs at steelmaking operations were higher, reflecting planned outages for relining a blast furnace and modernizing a hot strip mill, and for accelerated coke oven repairs.

4. Steel Related Operations.

Operating results improved at our Baltimore Marine and BethForge Divisions during the second quarter and first half of 1990 as we continued to implement the restructuring actions that were initiated in 1989. Our Freight Car Division reported increased operating income during the second quarter and first half of this year compared to the year-ago periods.

5. Liquidity.

Our cash and cash equivalents declined to $281 million at the end of the second quarter from $368 million at the end of the first quarter. The decline resulted from reduced cash provided from operating activities, higher levels of capital spending and continued pension funding.

6. Capital Expenditures.

Capital expenditures were $124 million during the second quarter and $224 million for the first half of the year. We currently estimate that for 1990 capital spending will be about $500 million compared to $421 million last year.

During the second quarter, we selected the suppliers for our two new hot-dip coating lines to be built at Sparrows Point and Burns Harbor, at an estimated $300 million in capital costs for the two lines.

7. Pensions.

We contributed an additional $70 million to our pension fund during the second quarter for a total of $162 million this year. Additional contributions during the remainder of the year will be considered as appropriate.

8. Clean Air Legislation.

Legislation is currently pending in Congress that would impose more stringent environmental control requirements under the Clean Air Act. Certain features of the bill concerning air toxics are not based on sound scientific data and available technology and, if enacted, could impose significant, unwarranted costs on domestic steelmakers. We continue to work towards reasonable legislation that would not be a major obstacle to maintaining international competitiveness.

9. Outlook.

We estimate that we will ship about the same amount of steel in the third quarter as in the second quarter. However, third quarter results will be adversely affected by the planned hot strip mill outage in August and continued coke oven repairs at Sparrows Point.

We recognize and appreciate your efforts, and those of your Staff. Please let me know if you have any questions, or if we can be of assistance in any way.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,

Harry Barrett

Dear John:

Since you are in the occasional business of picking "high profile" people for prominent government positions, I thought you might like to know of another such opportunity!

It is my understanding that there is a vacancy at the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) and I know that you must have many qualified names to review. I want to recommend Herbert Michael Fontecilla of Alexandria. Herb's professional experience includes a number of impressive positions in the nuclear power industry. He is currently Vice President, Regulatory Affairs and Analysis, The Flanagan Group. One strike against him may be his studies in nuclear engineering at MIT! One other negative may be his admission to being a Republican. On top of that, you and Herb share the same birthplace, as I recall.

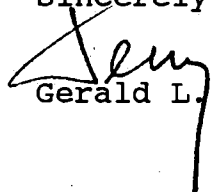

In any event, a lot of my friends think very highly of Herb and I hope you'll take the opportunity to review the impressive material I'm enclosing.

I wish you well on the confirmation hearings for my old friend Dave Souter. As Deputy Attorneys General in the early '70s, we worked together rather closely for several years and became good friends. He'll make a splendid judge.

Give my regards to Nancy and I hope to see you soon.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Gerald L. Baliles

The Honorable John H. Sununu

The White House
Washington, DC 20005

Dear Governor Sununu:

HELP! The National Day of Prayer was established as the first Thursday of May by a unanimous vote of Congress and signed into law by President Reagan on May 5, 1988. We have written to calendar companies asking that this date be recorded as they prepare yearly calendars. We have learned that many companies print their calendars several years in advance.

We are particularly concerned that the date be noted on National calendars, including those prepared and distributed by the Republican and Democratic parties. We were not successful in accomplishing this last year and wonder if your office might be able to help us with this matter? Is there anything you could do or any advice you could give us to make sure this happens in 1991?

Would you please see that the date is set on the White House calendar and that of President Bush? Also, we would like to ask for his involvement in whatever way he would choose to observe the day.

Mrs. James Dobson, Shirley, has consented to become co-chairman of the National Day of Prayer Task Force this next year in preparation for her full leadership in 1993.

You are much appreciated in our office and we are among the President's most enthusiastic admirers.

Gratefully,

Vonette Z. Bright

The Honorable John Sununu

Dear Governor Sununu,

It has come to our attention that Senator Timothy Wirth of Colorado will offer an amendment on abortion to the Department of Defense Authorization. The amendment would allow U.S. overseas military personnel and their dependents to obtain all reproductive health services permitted under U.S. law at military medical facilities. In the case of abortion services, the individual shall be required to pay for the full cost, including indirect costs of the service.

Military facilities are clearly operated by federal funds. Current law dictates that no federal funds appropriated to the Department of Defense shall be used to pay for abortions. This law is elaborated in the June, 1988 DOD memorandum and states that performing "pre-paid" abortions in military treatment facilities would not be authorized after September 30, 1988.

We also understand that there is an attempt underway to mute this issue before it reaches the Senate floor by nullifying the 1988 DOD directive, thus leaving it to the military hospitals and facilities to dictate their own policy. We find this contradictory to legislative history and an unwise reversal of an established pro-life policy clearly permissible under the principles established in Webster vs. Reproductive Health Services.

We ask that current policy remain intact and that any attempt to change it be emphatically rejected by the Administration.

Sincerely,

Gary L. Bauer
President

The World's Largest and Fastest Growing RV Owners Organization

THE GOOD SAM CLUB

International Headquarters: P.O. Box 500, Agoura, California 91301 (818) 991-4980

July 26, 1990

Chief of Staff John Sununu
WHITE HOUSE OFFICE
Executive Office Building
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

As Executive Director of the 800,000 families who belong to the Good Sam Club, an organization of Americans who own recreational vehicles, I am urgently asking that you consider the unfairness of incorporating any significant increase in the federal gasoline tax into the federal budget.

The majority of the members who belong to the Good Sam Club are retired or nearing retirement age, and imposing such a tax would be discriminatory to these families who represent the very heart of America. Most have seen military service and have worked for the privilege of enjoying their retirement years. For them, the freedom to visit the finest scenery this country has to offer in a lifestyle that they can afford is being threatened.

We also are concerned about the younger families in our organization who rely on the economy and convenience of traveling by recreational vehicles to enjoy family vacations. With the increasing pressures on today's families, we feel that imposing an additional financial burden to those seeking to strengthen family ties by enjoying togetherness in an outdoor setting is a threat to the family structure.

Please take our opposition to an increased gasoline tax into consideration during the budget summit. We feel that there are more equitable means of generating revenue than by taxing those who seek to enjoy the freedom of living in America.

Very truly yours,

Susan Bray

Executive Office of the President
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

On behalf of the Y-Group, an organization of 125 chief executive officers and other senior business leaders, I would like to invite you to speak at our next Washington meeting, scheduled for September 12 - 13, 1990.

The Y-Group has two basic goals. First, to provide a forum for discussion of key issues faced by business leaders and public policy makers. Second, to encourage businessmen to take a more active interest in the public affairs of our country.

We meet twice a year in Washington to gain some insight into what the future holds for business and to achieve a greater understanding of the role the federal government plays in that regard. Our meetings are totally off the record and since the group's founding in 1970, we have not had a single breach of that rule.

Past speakers, in addition to many key members of the Senate and House of Representatives, have included Vice Presidents Bush and Mondale, more than 20 cabinet secretaries from the Nixon, Ford, Carter and Reagan Administrations, and several senior members of the White House staff.

So that you will have a better idea of the makeup of our organization, enclosed is a membership roster and a listing of past speakers. I am sure you know most of the speakers and Y-Group members.

Honorable John H. Sununu
Page Two

I know how busy your schedule is, but hope you will be able to join us for an off-the-record exchange at one of our sessions on Wednesday, September 12, or for breakfast on Thursday, September 13. Our meetings are at the Westin Hotel at 2401 M Street, N.W. The speech topic would be of your choosing.

The meeting format provides an opportunity for a 20 - 30 minute presentation. After your remarks, we hope you will be able to join us for a question and answer period, which we also find to be a valuable and stimulating part of the program.

As program chairman for the next Y-Group meeting, and on behalf of the Y-Group's members, I hope you will join us in September. I have asked William Maloni, Fannie Mae's Senior Vice President for Policy and Public Affairs, to call you in the next few weeks to check your availability. Please feel free to call me directly if you have any questions in the meantime.

Best regards,

Roger E. Bird

Governor John Sununu:

As the Republican Party Nominee for the office of Lieutenant Governor, it is imperative that I reach as many Californians as possible in the next four months to win the General election. Having you at one or more of my major events would certainly insure an increase in my campaign funds so that I can reach that goal.

With Dianne Feinstein heading the Democratic ticket as the first woman to run for Governor, the road ahead will be long and costly. Additionally, my opponent, Leo McCarthy is a two-term incumbent with proven fundraising capabilities. The Republican ticket is a very strong one with Pete Wilson in the lead, but the Party and I need your help in California to succeed.

My Campaign Director, Kevin Sloat will be contacting your office in a day or two to discuss potential dates. Thank you for your assistance.

Cordially,

MARIAN BERGESON
STATE SENATOR

Attn: Mr. John Sununu
Chief of Staff

Dear Governor Sununu:

I will be attending the President's cocktail party scheduled for 5:00 P.M. Tuesday, July 31, 1990 at The White House.

I would appreciate a moment of your time to meet privately with you on a matter of great importance to me. I'm enclosing the information relative to the subject matter I wish to discuss with you.

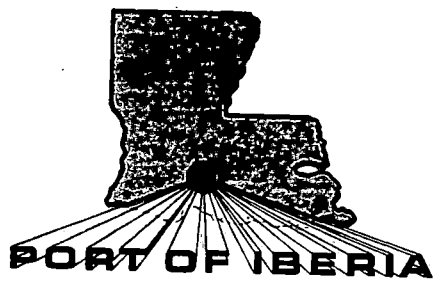

I will check into the Hays Adams hotel Monday evening, July 30th.

Sincerely,

GOV. JOHN SUNUNSU
THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON, DC 20500

Dear Governor:

Please forgive this hand-written letter. I am writing you in a state of desperation, unfortunately.

I was at the Federal Maritime Commission; they moved me to USDA, to a more suitable position. However, it was Equal Opportunity Specialist, a position which the Blacks and Hispanics objected to vehemently. Therefore, I was there for only two months.

I am now without employment, a single parent with two children. I am qualified to undertake a myriad of responsibilities, and would be willing to consider anything you, Chase or Ron might offer.

Thank you for your attention. I look forward to your reply.

Sincerely,
Amal

Dear Mr. Sununu:

The National Grange, this nation's oldest general farm organization which represents 325,000 members in 42 states and has 7,000 local chapters across the country, is deeply concerned about the size of the federal budget deficit. Enclosed please find a letter we sent to the President on May 10, 1990, in which we set forth the specific policies that were adopted at the National Grange's 123rd Annual Convention regarding the federal government's fiscal responsibilities and the federal deficit.

As you, and the other members of the Budget Summit, are searching for ways to reduce the 1991 federal deficit in accordance with the Gramm-Rudman-Hollings' mandate of $74 billion, we respectfully request that you do not include an increase in the federal motor fuel excise tax in your recommendations.

Unlike the current gas tax revenue, which is earmarked for the federal Highway Trust Fund, the new taxes would raise revenue for the general fund. The National Grange is strongly opposed to diverting highway user fees for reducing the federal deficit. We base our opposition on the following criteria:

- A deficit reduction fuel tax will seriously endanger the funding mechanism for both federal and state highway programs. Once the "trust" is broken in our dedicated highway funding mechanisms, there is no going back. We already know that this country's highways need more funding. Many states are already raising fuel taxes to fund their current highway programs. If the federal government raises fuel taxes for deficit reduction, it will be even more difficult to generate support for future fuel taxes that are needed for highway programs, particularly at the state level.
- Gasoline use varies widely depending on the geographical location. Residents of rural and western states have to travel much farther to get to work, obtain needed services, or shop than do people who live in more urbanized areas. A deficit reduction fuel tax would make different people pay different amounts of taxes based on where they live rather than on their ability to pay.
- Like all excise taxes, a deficit reduction fuel tax would be regressive and would hit the poor much harder than would other forms of taxation. According to the Congressional Budget Office, families who earn less than $5,000 annually pay more than 1.6% of their income in gasoline excise taxes compared to only 0.2% of those families who earn over $50,000 per year.

- Tourism is one of the major sources of state revenue throughout the nation. Eighty percent of vacation travel in the United States is by private vehicle. The travel industry has projected a $2 billion decline in tourism as a result of a 10 cents per gallon tax increase.
- The AAA commissioned Wharton Economic Forecasting Associates to study the economic impact of the major gasoline tax proposals. The study concluded that the near-term costs of such a gasoline tax are exceedingly negative. Thousands of people would lose their jobs, the amount of income tax revenues would be reduced by billions, auto production would be reduced, construction of new housing would decline, personal savings would be lowered and consumer prices would increase.

We respectfully request that the Budget Summit not recommend an increase in the federal motor fuel excise tax as a way to reduce the federal deficit. Study after study has pointed out the negative impact that such an increase would have on this nation's economy. Please do not rely on a "quick fix" of "gas pump economics" to correct the more fundamental, underlying problems of our fiscal and monetary policies that have created the huge federal deficit. We are ready to make the sacrifices. Are you ready to lead?

Respectfully,

Robert E. Barrow
National Master

Dear John:

This is to recommend Gloria I. Gaylord to you as an appointee to FERC. I can't honestly say that I know Mrs. Gaylord, however she comes highly recommended from people whom I think very highly of.

You may know that I worked as an engineer with the old Federal Power Commission (the forefather of FERC) and thus feel that I have a pretty good idea of its work. My review of Mrs. Gaylord's credentials convinces me that she would fit in as a great asset on the Commission.

I'd appreciate your serious consideration.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Re: The President's Supreme Court Nominee

Gentlemen:

In light of the recent resignation of Justice Brennan, I strongly recommend to The President the nomination of Justice Raul Gonzalez of the Supreme Court of Texas. Justice Gonzalez is an experienced conservative jurist, affiliated with the Democratic Party, but with strong electoral and Republican support in Texas. The following is a brief, but representative summary of his judicial philosophy. The opinions to which I refer have been attached for your convenience.

Strict Constructionism

Justice Gonzalez' dissenting opinion in Lucas v. United States speaks for itself. He begins by emphasizing that constitutional review of legislative enactments starts with a strong presumption of validity, then closes by decrying the "super legislature" activism of the majority as a violation of the separation of powers doctrine. 757 S.W.2d 687, 694, 701 (Tex. 1988). Further, Justice Gonzalez has taken to task his more liberal colleagues for their use of results-oriented jurisprudence to the exclusion of constitutionally binding principle. ALCOA v. Alm, 785 S.W.2d 137, 142-43 (Tex. 1990). Finally, and most recently, Justice Gonzalez hoisted his Republican brethren on their own "original intent" petard in construing the constitutional requirements for becoming a Texas Supreme Court justice. Sears v. Bayoud, 786 S.W.2d 248, 251-54 (Tex. 1990); see also Morrison v. Chan, 699 S.W.2d 205, 208 (Tex. 1985) (judge's duty "to construe statutes as written").

Abortion

Justice Gonzalez' first opinion as a member of the Texas Supreme Court openly criticized Roe v. Wade for contributing to a "disposable society." Nelson v. Krusen, 678 S.W.2d 918, 935 (Tex. 1984) (concurring & dissenting). In his own words,

It is my hope that the courts and legislatures of this nation, and our society, will continue to ponder the meaning and the value of life, even that of those yet unborn. Through this process of reflection and discretion, hopefully the pendulum of public opinion will swing toward the recognition of the rights of the unborn.

Id. The fact that Justice Gonzalez' first Supreme Court opinion dealt frankly with such a controversial subject speaks volumes for the confidence of his convictions.

Crime and Punishment

Unlike the U.S. Supreme Court, the Supreme Court of Texas does not exercise criminal jurisdiction. Over the last six years, Justice Gonzalez has issued only one opinion relating to criminal procedure. In L.G.R. v. State, a juvenile delinquency proceeding, he adhered to the "fatal variance" doctrine which requires that an accused be given sufficient notice of the charges against him in order to comply with the dictates of due process. 724 S.W.2d 775, 776 (Tex. 1987). Additionally, while Justice Gonzalez has apparently never written on the constitutionality of the death penalty, the opinions from his tenure on the Corpus Christi Court of Appeals indicate a conservative tendency on law and order issues. See, e.g., Williams v. State, 680 S.W.2d 570, 574-75 (Tex. App.--Corpus Christi 1984, pet. ref'd) (Miranda warnings not required).

Business and Professions

Justice Gonzalez has not been inclined to expand the civil liability of business, health care and manufacturing interests. ALCOA v. Alm, supra (manufacturing); Morisson v. Chan, supra (health care); Lucas v. United States, supra (health care). In Gaulding v. Celotex Corp., he held that various and sundry collective liability theories did not apply to the facts of an asbestos case. 772 S.W.2d 66 (Tex. 1989).

First and Fourteenth Amendments

Justice Gonzalez' opinions with regard to the rights guaranteed by the First and Fourteenth Amendments are unremarkable. In Carr v. Brasher, he carefully followed established free speech precedent before deciding the case on a state procedural point. 776 S.W.2d 567, 569-70 (Tex. 1989). In the aforementioned Lucas v. United States, his grasp of traditional equal protection and due process analysis is clear. 757 S.W.2d at 694-96. I am, however, unaware of any Gonzalez opinion dealing with free exercise or establishment of religion.

From a review of his opinions, Justice Gonzalez appears to have the conservative credentials and judicial philosophy publicly sought by The President. As a purely political matter, the Senate Judiciary Committee would have a difficult time advising against confirmation if properly presented to the media.

Political Considerations

Justice Gonzalez is the epitome of the Democratic majority's nightmare: a thinking, self-reliant, conservative minority. I believe he is the first Hispanic to sit on the Texas Supreme Court and he would certainly be the first on the U. S. Supreme Court if confirmed. Since Justice Gonzalez was recently popularly elected to the bench, hispanic organizations like MALDEF and LULAC would be hard pressed to oppose confirmation, setting up a possible schism in the civil rights lobby. Further, Senator DeConcini faces a large Mexican-American constituency in Arizona and if Senator Biden continues to harbor presidential aspirations, he will require support from that same constituency throughout the Southwest. Even Senator Kennedy may have to cool his rhetoric while shepherding Kennedy-Hawkins through conference committee. Finally, the stigma of vetoing a "civil rights" bill may be considerably lessened and the chance of sustaining a veto increased by elevating a member of the hispanic community to the highest court in the land. At a minimum, the Democratic members of the judiciary committee will have to proceed with caution.

On abortion, the fact that Justice Gonzalez has clearly placed his views in writing may be viewed as a kiss of death. It should be noted, however, that a non-publishing, conservative, white male nominee, however qualified, will surely receive the same withering scrutiny from the Judiciary Committee on this issue. Another Justice Kennedy is not in the offing. If The President nominates a moderate comparable to former Justice Powell, he must hope that either the Court declines to hear a case prior to the '92 election or that the nominee declines to cast a vote identical to Powell's in Roe. Unfortunately, the Court has already agreed to hear at least one abortion case next term. Confrontation seems inevitable even if the nominee has expressed no written opinion, so Justice Gonzalez' opinion in Nelson v. Krusen may not be as significant a liability, especially in light of other qualifications that make rejection politically unpalatable.

Final consideration is Justice Gonzalez' party affiliation. A loyal Democrat who cast the deciding vote and wrote the opinion preventing a Republican candidate from running for the Texas Supreme Court. Sears v. Bayoud, supra. Texans should admire loyalty as a virtue to be rewarded. The political assassination of a loyal Texas Democrat would be a considerable blow to the state Democratic Party, already struggling to maintain its majority status, and might possibly have serious presidential repercussions in 1992.

Parallels to the Brennan Nomination

Justice Gonzalez' background mirrors that of Justice Brennan in three important aspects. First, he is an experienced state supreme court justice (six years; forty-seven majority opinions). Second, I believe he shares the same Catholic faith as Justice Brennan. Finally, Gonzalez' nomination would repeat political history in that a Republican president would again nominate a Democrat to the court.

Because I believe Justice Gonzalez is well qualified to sit on our highest bench and that he is a man of integrity and character that either party may support in good conscience, I respectfully urge his recommendation to The President for nomination to the position of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Very truly yours,

Wade Birdwell

Honorable John H. Sununu
 Chief of Staff
 Executive office of the President
 1600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
 Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I am writing on behalf of the Association of Biotechnology Companies (ABC) to express our strong opposition to the proposal by the Office of Management and Budget to control Medicaid drug spending through therapeutic substitution.

ABC is a not-for-profit international trade association whose members consist of over 250 private biotechnology companies, state and academic biotechnology research centers, non-profit and government affiliated entities, and other organizations interested in biotechnology. Many ABC Members perform research and development in human therapeutics and diagnostics produced through biotechnology.

We are deeply concerned about the ramifications of the OMB proposal for the quality of care provided to Medicaid beneficiaries. We believe that the concept of therapeutic substitution is a dangerous one to impose unilaterally. It is clear that drugs intended for similar therapeutic purposes, but having different chemical make-ups, are different drugs. Patients experience different therapeutic effects, as well as differing adverse effects; therefore, any plan for substitution may have a significant impact on the health and well-being of the individuals receiving the drugs.

However, there are other problems with the proposal. First, it would surely result in Medicaid patients receiving the oldest and least expensive versions of a drug. All of the research and development expended to make new, more efficient and effective drugs would not benefit the Medicaid population at all.

July 24, 1990

Also, the proposal places an extraordinary amount of responsibility on the pharmacist but does not hold the pharmacist accountable -- it permits pharmacists to override the prescription of a physician. Taken together, these factors clearly suggest a cavalier attitude toward the well-being of the vulnerable Medicaid population.

The Association of Biotechnology Companies (ABC) has grave concerns about the advisability of the OMB proposal and urges you to consider it unfavorable. We realize the difficult task you are facing in stretching limited resources across many demands; however, we believe that you must look elsewhere for the money OMB would take from Medicaid.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Pamela J. Bridgen, Ph.D.

Supreme Court of the United States
Washington, D. C. 20543

CHAMBERS OF
CHIEF JUSTICE BURGER
RETIRED

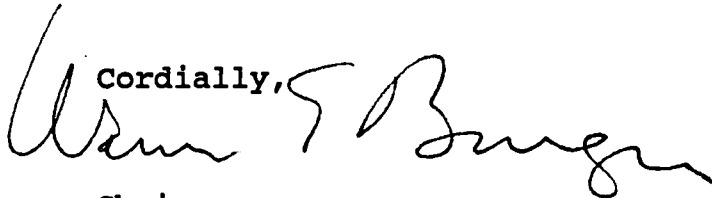

July 18, 1990

Dear Governor Sununu:

On September 17, 1990, the Commission on the Bicentennial of the U.S. Constitution will announce its plans on programs and projects for 1991, the year of the Bill of Rights. That announcement will take the form of a Special Report to the heads of the three branches of the government -- the President, the Congressional leadership, and the Chief Justice.

1991 will mark the conclusion of the Commission's five year commemorative program, and we hope to reach most Americans in some way. The Bill of Rights is probably the part of the Constitution best known to Americans, and we are hopeful that there will be widespread public involvement in our programs.

If the President's schedule allows, we would be pleased to have the opportunity to present him with a copy of the report in person on Monday, September 17. His support will be, as it has been, very helpful in bringing about what we have called "a history and civics lesson" for the American people.

Cordially,

Chairman,
Commission on the Bicentennial
of the U.S. Constitution

John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
Executive Office of the President
1600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

On behalf of the Chicago Committee of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, I would like to invite you to appear as a featured speaker with the Committee during the 1990 program year. It would be our pleasure and honor to host you.

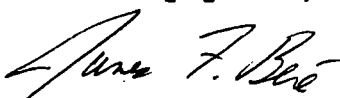

The Chicago Committee is composed of the most senior and influential business, financial, academic and other professional leaders from Chicago and the surrounding region. The Committee meets regularly with the most prominent national and international figures to discuss important issues in international affairs. The enclosed directory provides a sampling of recent speakers for the Chicago Committee and a list of the current membership.

Our program features luncheon meetings, although we do have occasional breakfast and dinner gatherings as well. Our speakers normally address the group for thirty minutes and then respond to questions from the members. All sessions are strictly off-the-record, allowing guests to speak with absolute candor.

We do hope you are able to accept this invitation in principle. Our staff will then contact your office to arrange a mutually convenient date and other particulars.

We hope to have the honor of including you in our program. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I am writing to you as a critical summit negotiator on behalf of the elected officials of the nation's cities and towns to support the federal deficit reduction objectives articulated by Chairman Dan Rostenkowski and to put the S&L bailout on a pay-as-you-go basis.

On Saturday our Board of Directors unanimously adopted a resolution urging your leadership in setting a goal of eliminating the deficit and fundamentally restructuring federal budget priorities to meet our nation's changing security needs. We believe significant deficit reduction and conversion from a military to a civilian economy is critical to ensuring the nation's future prosperity.

More importantly, we believe this issue is a test of leadership, accountability, and responsibility. For that reason, we are prepared to not only support a comprehensive effort, but also to participate in efforts to build broad public support for what must be done. With a majority of American cities confronting lower revenues and increased needs, we are only too understanding of the difficult choices which leadership requires.

Specifically, we support setting a 5-year deficit reduction goal of $600 billion. We recommend that defense spending be cut $200 billion. We recommend a combination of cuts in non-needs tested entitlement programs and non-priority discretionary programs, and tax increases to make up the remaining $400 billion. Attached, for your information, are federal revenue increases we would be willing to support to eliminate the deficit and reinvest in priority municipal programs.

To convert our economy to meet challenges to our economic security from global competitors, we urge you to devote $550 billion to deficit reduction and $50 billion to reinvest in our own country to insure that our human and physical infrastructure is competitive for the future. These are essential investments to the creation of an economy inferior to none in the next decade.

Finally, we urge you to adopt a dedicated tax to fund the S&L bailout on a pay-as-you-go basis. We strongly oppose efforts to borrow and pass this burden on to future Americans, to exempt the costs from Gramm-Rudman, to put the bailout off-budget, or to borrow through quasi-public corporations such as REFCORP. We believe that the consequences of long term borrowing to pay for past mistakes would significantly reduce the stock of capital investment at the federal, state, and municipal level - as well as with the private sector. We believe borrowing should be reserved for productive investment to make our economy stronger and more productive.

The choices you make in these closed door negotiations will have a significant impact on every city and town. They will affect municipal finances, public facilities and services, and the pocketbooks of every taxpayer. They will affect not just our federal deficit, but also our human and physical deficits.

We hope you succeed and stand ready to work with you.

Sincerely,

Bob Bolen, President
Mayor of Fort Worth

Subjects: 8th World Hydrogen Energy Conference & The Phoenix Project.

Dear Mr. Sununu,

Enclosed are some background materials regarding the 8th World Hydrogen Energy Conference being held in Honolulu, Hawaii, July 22-27th, 1990.

An energy and industrial transition from the "oil economy" to a "hydrogen economy" could create an unprecedented economic boom for the U.S., while virtually eliminating many of the more serious global environmental problems related to global warming (hydrogen combustion emits no greenhouse gases), oil spills, acid rain, urban air pollution (smog), sewage and landfill accumulations, or the production of any additional nuclear reactors. Moreover, as the arms race continues to wind-down, the mass production of renewable solar-hydrogen systems will provide a private sector alternative to the deficit-financed defense spending. This is because the renewable resource technologies will provide a relatively low risk and renewable rate of return on their investment, which means it is really a question of oil companies evolving into solar-hydrogen companies.

I have included a copy of Senate Bill 639, which specifically seeks to fund the development of hydrogen energy technologies in the U.S. (HR-2793 is the house-version of the bill), and two advance copies of a related book on the subject, The Phoenix Project: An Energy Transition to Renewable Resources, which identifies three types of solar technologies (i.e., Stirling dish gensets, ocean thermal energy conversion (OTEC) and wind energy conversion systems) that could be economically mass produced for large-scale hydrogen production. (Please refer to chapters 4, 5 and 6.)

It is worth noting that Stirling dish gensets are similar to automobiles from a manufacturing and cost perspective, whereas OTEC plants are like ships, and wind energy conversion systems are like airplanes. As such, these technologies are not like the unproven "cold fusion" systems that were never published in peer-review scientific papers – much less proven in the field. Indeed, wind, OTEC and Stirling dish gensets have been in use or under development for over 100 years, which means that if the billions of dollars that have been spent on nuclear and fossil fuel systems since World War II had been directed towards these renewable solar-hydrogen technologies, a global hydrogen energy system would already be in place. This only underscores the importance of strategic planing with regards to which technologies we want to see developed.

Hydrogen is an ideal medium to store the vast but intermittent supply of solar energy, and it is the only energy alternative that is non-toxic, essentially clean burning, and completely renewable. Hydrogen can be made from water, and when it is burned as a fuel, the water is returned in the form of steam. Our research, however, has shown that the most cost-effective source of hydrogen will initially come from microbes that will extract it from sewage sludge and landfill materials (i.e., garbage). This is no small consideration given the fact that the oceans are being poisoned by the billions of gallons of raw sewage that is being dumped daily, and that virtually all of the existing landfills in the U.S. will be full in about 8 years.

Two other key points that few people realize is that hydrogen is generally rated safer than gasoline or other hydrocarbon fuels in the event of accidents, and an energy transition to a global hydrogen energy system is being advocated by over 2,500 distinguished scientists and engineers from more than 80 countries who have formed the International Association for Hydrogen Energy (IAHE). The IAHE is also the primary organization that organizes the World Hydrogen Energy Conferences that are held every two years.

In spite of the fact that a transition to hydrogen would solve so many global economic and environmental problems, the IAHE and the hydrogen economy concept are essentially unknown by the vast majority of the world's citizens and their elected officials. You and President Bush have the power to change all that. This is a win-win situation for almost everyone, but what is really required is presidential leadership. Just as President Roosevelt brought together the War Production Board in World War II, President Bush now needs to assemble a U.S. Hydrogen Production Board, and to help establish an international industrial effort as well.

My initial suggestion is for you and/or any of your key staff members to attend as many days at the upcoming World Hydrogen Conference as possible. An appropriate follow-up briefing could be provided at Camp David to President Bush and the key members of his cabinet. An official administration policy statement could follow. Please give me or my associates a call if you have any specific questions on any of the enclosed materials. We will do whatever we can to be helpful.

Very Truly Yours,

Harry Braun

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Thank you for your thoughtful reply of July 12th.

I am sure you heard about the enclosed speech. It is a thoughtful, excellent statement, with which I mostly concur.

Personally, I believe in free choice for a variety of reasons, not the least of which is that the last place government needs to be involved, anatomically speaking, is in the birth canal.

Have a pleasant summer. We are off to Wyoming and Montana for some fresh air and scenery.

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House

Dear John,

Yesterday's lead story in the Wall Street Journal tells another unhappy tale about the telephone companies and their business practices.

In addition to the "Perverts Club," there are allegations here of insider trading, $118.5 million in overcharges, violations of the MFJ consent decree, misallocations of lobbying expenses, bid-rigging and other assorted difficulties.

This story, about NYNEX, follows by a few days a finding by the Georgia Public Service Commission that Southern Bell has been overcharging its customers at the rate of $180 million a year.

And that finding was preceded by revelations of misallocated expenses by Ameritech in Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin and Ohio.

This is only the most recent news, along with the GTE-Contel insider trading suit brought last week by the Securities and Exchange Commission. Nearly every telco has had its turn in the spotlight.

If these are the people who are supposed to save the consumer from the excesses of a few "bad actors" in the cable business, the consumer may not be all that grateful for his salvation.

Sincerely,

AMERICAN BANKER · BOND BUYER

A DIVISION OF INTERNATIONAL THOMSON PUBLISHING CORPORATION

July 13, 1990

Governor John H. Sununu
 Chief of Staff
 The White House
 Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

After 100 years of being the eyes and ears of the Municipal Bond Industry, The Bond Buyer will be celebrating its 100th anniversary of publication at the Plaza Hotel in New York City. To commemorate this dramatic and noteworthy event, The Bond Buyer will be holding a dinner reception at the Plaza Hotel on November 26, 1990 followed by a one-day conference on November 27. The conference theme is "A Century Of Municipal Finance...A Look Back & A Look Ahead" and we are pleased that every major association in the industry will be playing an active role in this event. Active participants and sponsors include:

- Public Securities Association
- U.S. Conference of Mayors
- National League of Cities
- Government Finance Officers' Association
- National Association of State Treasurers
- Municipal Securities Rule Making Board
- Securities Industry Association
- National Council of State Housing Agencies
- National Association of State Auditors, Comptrollers & Treasurers
- National Association of Bond Lawyers

Our senior level audience will include a diverse mix of issuers, investors, dealers, underwriters, bond counsel and government officials. A partial list of distinguished speakers includes:

- Edward Alter, Treasurer of Utah
- Robert Bowman, Treasurer of Michigan
- Harlen Boyles, Treasurer of North Carolina
- Richard Dixon, Treasurer of Los Angeles County
- Edward Armendariz, Director of Finance, MTA
- Jeff Green, Deputy General Counsel, Port Authority of NY/NJ

Dear John:

When I returned from several weeks of business in Europe, I was forced to go through mountains of material on my desks at home and the office. Somewhere, in all of that paper, I found the enclosed photograph of Nancy and the two of us. In light of the bi-partisan effort to assault the budget deficit, I thought the photograph might encourage you to look for the weapon you're holding and then use it!

Jeannie and I enjoyed seeing you and Nancy at the Kentucky Derby and hope that we'll have the pleasure of seeing you again soon.

With kindest regards, I am

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20003

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Winning often imposes upon the victor the burden of new thinking. The administration has been successful in accomplishing many doable acts, but I believe whenever Republicans wander off their own intellectual reservation they ultimately do themselves and the nation irreparable harm. I understand the need for trial balloons, but the process of sending up same tends to define the parameters of one's thinking. A trial balloon on taxing capital transactions is at best inconsistent with the long term essential needs of this country and the direction this administration should take.

If you want less of something, by all means tax it. Taxing capital transactions will assuredly result in a reduction of capital flows and increase the disparity of valuation between the growth and cyclical sectors of our economy, thereby making the latter more vulnerable to takeovers while increasing their capital costs and making them even less competitive. It is a bad idea which should be aborted before it takes on a life of its own and the economic anti-abortionists grab hold of it.

More and more, government becomes irrelevant and even detrimental, and though people may maintain their physical beings in this country, their increasing lack of participation is the best evidence of where their intellectual spirit lies and how repelled they are by trends. I have never been a strict ideologue, but I do believe in certain eternal verities. The enclosed articles touch upon much of what I hold intellectually sacred. This administration must not embrace the bankrupt and flawed thinking of the Democratic Party. In doing so, it will justifiably lose the nucleus of its support.

As we ultimately move toward the "one world" of which Wilkie spoke, I believe we will first settle on increasing geographic or continental competition. The sooner America better integrates its economic, social and political ties with South America and Canada, the better we can compete with the emerging European community and the Pacific rim nations. I was heartened when President Bush recently proposed this concept. The sooner we get at it, the better off we'll be. This should be our focus, not raising taxes in manners counterproductive to this goal.

Sincerely,

Richard E. Berkowitz

Dear Governor:

At Premark International, affirmative action is more than a governmental imperative. We believe affirmative action makes good business sense, and we say so in a statement of beliefs and practices, which we give to every employee. We have a good record in this area, and so do many other Fortune 500 companies, but we believe that the Kennedy-Hawkins bill now making its way through Congress could seriously undermine further progress.

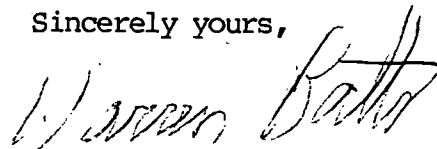

Premark is opposed to the Kennedy-Hawkins bill for two reasons:

1. The bill's burden-of-proof language makes a quota system the only safe harbor for employers.
2. Provisions for jury trials and punitive/compensatory damages would turn civil rights laws into a "lawyer's bonanza."

In short, we believe passage of Kennedy-Hawkins in its present form would mean a setback for affirmative action, for business and for President Bush. We urge your support on this issue in your negotiations with the bill's sponsors.

Premark International is a $2.6 billion multinational company with 14,000 U.S. employees. The company manufactures and markets premium products under such leading brand names as Tupperware, West Bend, Wilsonart, Hobart, Vulcan, Hartco and Precor.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. John Sununu
The White House

Dear John:

The State of Utah, like the State of Texas, from which you have recently heard, has a substantial concern about the position that the Department of Labor has taken to require overtime pay for a number of positions which were formerly exempt from FLSA overtime requirements.

Even though the potential liability in Utah is not as great as Texas is experiencing, such "administrative rulings" by the Department of Labor have the potential effect of requiring Utah to tax its citizens to raise monies to cover FLSA declared liabilities. This option is not acceptable to me.

I believe that new legislation is not needed. I believe, however, that the President can be helpful to all states by requesting that the Department of Labor revert from their recent administrative rulings affecting professional employees of state governments.

I am aware that the National Association of State Personnel Executives has filed a brief with the Department of Labor regarding this topic. I believe this brief outlines a reasonable approach and request your assistance with the Department of Labor. I have attached this brief for your reference.

It is curious to me that the Department of Labor would take such an entrenched position as they have, when many of the classifications they are studying, such as Social Workers, have 40-50% federal monies attached. The Department of Labor's actions penalizes both state and federal budgets.

Mr. John Sununu

Dear Mr. Sununu:

On behalf of the National Vietnam Veterans Coalition, we wish to apprise you of our endorsement of Ambassador Henry Cooper to be the new Director of the Strategic Defense Initiative.

We believe it imperative that the new director be both knowledgeable and committed to the SDI program. Moreover, as an organization that is committed to SDI, we want an individual as SDI director with whom we can work. We can do so with Ambassador Henry Cooper. We urge that the President appoint him to be the new SDI director.

Thank you for the consideration of our views.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Sununu:

Many thanks for your letter and the copy you sent of the video tape with the President in the Oval Office.

I deeply appreciate your assistance in making this tape possible. It turned out well.

The help that you and the President have provided for the Senate campaign means a great deal. Thanks, again, for everything.

The Honorable John Sununu

of the United States
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear John:

I am pleased to report that The 1990 President's Dinner raised $6,885,540, with all net proceeds directed to the House and Senate Campaign Committees for candidate support. This success would not have been possible without the help of thousands of people nationwide devoted to President Bush and this administration. I'd like to take this opportunity to thank you, John, for the tremendous support and cooperation we received from the White House staff this year, which is so vital to our success.

As you may know, I have agreed to serve as Chairman for The 1991 President's Dinner. I intend to get an early start to ensure that The Dinner continues to be a success and a fitting tribute to President Bush. Scheduling a date is my first priority. I would like to request that Wednesday, June 12 or Thursday, June 13 be put on the President's schedule for The 1991 President's Dinner.

Thank you for your help with this and I look forward to hearing from you soon. Should you have any questions or need any further information please feel free to contact me or have your staff contact Betsy Ekonomou, Executive Director of The President's Dinner, at 659-1771.

I look forward to working with you on another successful Dinner.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.

On behalf of myself and the entire State Senate Election Committee, I wish to thank you for your continued support of our Committee.

Everyone was so pleased to see both you and Nancy at our June 8, 1990, reception. Many people remarked that you were so relaxed and seemed to enjoy meeting old friends again.

I want you to personally know how much I have enjoyed working with you during our years of state service together. Those years will hold firm in my memory a true enjoyment of state service and a strong desire to achieve the best for our people.

I remain willing to help you and the President, if desired.

Gary L. Bauer, President

July 9, 1990

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor:

While the President's decision to embrace new taxes is not popular with the families our organization represents, our constituency is pleased that the Bush Administration appears determined to veto bad child care legislation. Indeed, we were heartened by the strong language used in your recent letter on the subject to Congressman Bill Goodling.

Just as the Goodling letter offered White House input on a number of key child care spending questions, we believe a letter offering White House input on key child care tax issues would also prove useful. Such a letter could call for the conferees to bring the new young child tax credit (adopted by both Houses) into full conformity with the President's FY90 and FY91 budget proposal by targeting this new credit to families who currently receive little or no benefit from the Dependent Care Tax Credit (DCTC).

Underscoring the Administration's support for such a credit would make clear that a simple expansion of the Earned Income Tax Credit, while certainly not at odds with the Bush child care proposal, does not fulfill the President's interest in permitting families that care for their own children to claim as many tax credits as families with day care expenses. Instead, full conformity with the President's proposal requires a new young child credit available to families who do not claim the DCTC.

We believe it is appropriate to raise this issue with the conferees since the House floor debate did not address the question of how the new young child credit would interact with the existing DCTC, much less a DCTC made refundable by Senate action.

Moreover, we believe there are a number of good reasons for pursuing this issue. A Bush-style young child credit is less costly than a young child credit that permits "double dipping" -- especially if the Dependent Care Tax Credit is made partially or fully refundable. This is significant given the serious (and appropriate) budget constraints faced by the conference committee.

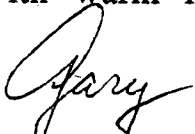

While existing tax discrimination alone is enough to merit adoption of a Bush-style credit, the fact that Congress appears hell-bent on increasing government day care subsidies makes this attempt to level the tax playing field all the more important. A new tax credit targeted to families that care for their own children would significantly offset the increased subsidies to day care users adopted by the Congress.

In addition, a Bush-style credit is the responsible answer to calls for paid parental leave. As the enclosed article makes clear, a Bush-style credit provides economic assistance to leave-taking parents without saddling business with burdensome labor costs.

Apart from urging the conferees to bring the proposed new tax credit for young children into full conformity with the President's position, we believe that House provisions capping the Dependent Care Tax Credit and Dependent Care Assistance Plans must be included in final legislation. Indeed, proposals to cap -- or even eliminate -- one or both of these discriminatory and poorly-targeted tax provisions should be included among revenue-raising options in the ongoing budget negotiations.

Again, thanks for digging in your heels on child care legislation. We hope that a precedent for a Bush-style tax credit can be set in the conference negotiations so that the bill that emerges in the post-veto environment is one that treats all families fairly.

With warm regards,

Gary L. Bauer
President

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor:

First, I want you to know how much I enjoyed the Warner-Nickles event in Williamsburg this past weekend and how much your participation added. I hope we can all do it again next year.

Recalling your Sunday morning comments about important issues in general and the Hatch Act revisions in particular, I just wanted you to know that not all of us have our heads in the sand.

Best wishes,

Gary L. Burhop
