OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
MORRIS H. CHAPMAN

August 8, 1991

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff to the President
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

The possible resignation of Alfred Sikes as Chairman of the Federal Communications Commission has come to my attention. In the event of Mr. Sikes' resignation, I wish to recommend John R. Price, Attorney at Law, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Not only has Mr. Price been highly successful as a corporate and broadcast lawyer, he is a staunch Republican who is a strong supporter of the Bush/Quayle administration. I would expect Mr. Price to be readily confirmed by Congress if he were appointed.

I understand that he was strongly considered when Mr. Sikes was appointed. If so, this would give me cause to be optimistic that the administration considers John Price to be highly qualified for the position.

I wholeheartedly give full support to his appointment. God bless.

Sincerely,

Morris H. Chapman

Dear Governor Sununu:

We are a public interest organization with thousands of donors from all walks of life and regions of this country. Although diverse, our membership shares a common concern for the well-being of the poor and disadvantaged.

It has come to our attention that the elderly and poor of Alabama are in danger of losing an essential Medicaid funding source, namely the voluntary contribution and provider-specific tax revenue program.

Since the inception of the Medicaid program, Alabama has sought to provide the poor and elderly with quality health care services. This mission has been made extremely difficult, however, by Alabama's relatively low tax base, steadily increasing number of Medicaid recipients and expanded federal mandates. As recently as two years ago, the Alabama Medicaid program was in serious fiscal jeopardy.

Today, the Medicaid program in Alabama is capable of continuing its quality health care services in a more cost efficient manner due to the innovative voluntary contribution and provider-specific tax revenue program.

We believe that federal regulations meant to restrict the use of such state legislated tax revenue programs would greatly diminish Alabama's ability to meet the needs of its poor, elderly and disadvantaged citizens.

Therefore, we ask that you reconsider the implementation of federal regulations that would prohibit the use of voluntary

Dear Governor Sununu:

It is with great pleasure that I invite you to be the keynote speaker at the New Jersey Young Republican's 1992 Lincoln Day Dinner. We are planning on having this event on or about Wednesday, February 12, 1992 in the Princeton, New Jersey area.

The event will serve as the kickoff for the New Jersey Young Republican effort for 1992. These efforts will include voter registration, helping out on the grass roots level of campaigns and fielding and supporting our own Young Republican candidates throughout New Jersey.

We are strongly committed to our Republican Party and the contribution we are capable of making toward the election of Republicans. We recognize the importance of political activism and are willing to do what is needed to ensure success in 1992. It was Abraham Lincoln who said "You can't escape the responsibility of tomorrow by evading it today." The New Jersey Young Republicans are ready to live up to their responsibility but we need your help and support. Our 1992 Lincoln Day Dinner should be the start of an outstanding year. Please contact me as soon as possible to let me know if you will be able to attend. You may reach me at the number below or Tony vanderBeek, the Lincoln Day Dinner Chairman, at 718-253-8828 during business hours.

Looking forward to hearing from you.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT-ELECT

August 2, 1991

Governor John H. Sununu
Chief Executive Office of the President
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

I am presently serving as President of the National District Attorneys Association, an organization that represents over 8,000 local district attorneys throughout the country. Over the past several years, our organization has had the pleasure of working very closely with the Department of Justice on a number of key issues that concern all of America's prosecutors. During the past years, we have had an exceptional relationship with the Department of Justice. The cooperation between America's prosecutors and the Department of Justice has resulted in the successful passage of many crime Bills that will help the criminal justice system in America.

Deputy Attorney General Bill Barr has had a great deal to do with forging a very close working relationship between our organization and the Department of Justice. He has shown exceptional competence and leadership in representing law enforcement and prosecutors on a number of issues. Bill Barr has shown that he is a friend of law enforcement and has won our trust and respect as well as admiration for a job well done.

I urge you to consider Bill Barr as successor to Attorney General Dick Thornburgh. Over the next year the relationship between NDAA and the Department of Justice needs to be closer than ever. This year will be a crucial time for all of law enforcement and a strong bond between the Department of Justice and NDAA is mandatory. With Bill Barr carrying on the work of Dick Thornburgh, we will continue to see positive results in this area. As we continue to seek enactment of the President's Anti-Crime Legislation and launch a host of new law enforcement ventures, we cannot afford to lose the close working relationship that we have had.

We know that as Attorney General, Bill Barr would continue and expand the cooperation between the Department of Justice and its state and local counterparts. I also know that Bill Barr will make an exceptional Attorney General and be a credit to the entire nation.

Sincerely,

THOMAS J. CHARRON, President
National District Attorneys Association

Hon. John Sununu

Dear Governor:

Per our conversation on Friday, August 2nd, I am writing to reiterate my strong objections to OMB's efforts to eliminate states' ability to collect provider specific taxes.

As we discussed, Congress clearly intended for states to have the right to levy specific taxes on health care providers in order to make up a portion of their matching payment for the Federal/State Medicaid program -- last year's budget reconciliation act codified this HCFA regulation.

If Mr. Darman is allowed to go ahead with his plans to eliminate states' authority to collect this tax, it will have a devastating effect on Alabama's Medicaid program. If provider specific taxes are disallowed, Alabama will be required to cut its $1.6 billion budget by $795 million. This would reduce the state's Medicaid budget by 49%. With almost half of its budget eliminated, the state would have to consider whether or not it is able to afford a Medicaid program at all. I have been contacted by Alabama Governor Guy Hunt and Alabama Medicaid Commissioner Carol Herrmann expressing concern about Mr. Darman's actions, and I have attached copies of their correspondence as further evidence of the impact this would have on the state.

By utilizing provider specific taxes, Alabama has made great strides in improving health care services to the poor and elderly. In fact, because of expanded and enhanced maternal and child health care programs Alabama's infant mortality has been reduced from 12.1 deaths per thousand births to 10.9 in one year. This is certainly in keeping with the President's commitment to eliminate infant mortality and his "Healthy Start" program.

STATE OF ALABAMA

GOVERNOR'S OFFICE

GUY HUNT
GOVERNOR

The Honorable Sonny Callahan
House of Representatives
1232 Longworth Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515-0107

Dear Sonny:

As you well know, Alabama has made great strides in improving healthcare services to the poor and elderly citizens of our state. I recently announced a significant drop in our infant mortality rate (from 12.1 deaths per thousand births to 10.9 in one year), and we are seeing improved access and quality of care throughout the system. We have been able to stabilize our rural health delivery system and improve health care services to children throughout the state.

We have been able to accomplish this through a voluntary contribution/provider specific tax program. In 1990 we collected $78 million, in 1991 $108 million and we are projecting tax collections of $220 million for 1992. Needless to say, this revenue is critical to the viability and even the very existence of the Alabama Medicaid program.

The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and the Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA) are attempting to illegally eliminate the state's right to tax and to expend state revenue. In Alabama, the loss of this state revenue for matching purposes would represent a total loss of $795 million. I do not need to tell you that such a loss would decimate the state's Medicaid program. Given a 49 percent reduction in its budget, Medicaid would be required to consider whether it is capable of meeting federal mandates and requirements under the Boren Amendment. The very real question would be whether we can afford a Medicaid program at all in Alabama.

The Medicaid program is a very successful program. We are implementing prevention programs that, over time, will begin to save the system money. We have made tremendous strides in improving our health indicators for children and pregnant women. We cannot let OMB take away our right to tax and to expend tax revenue as we determine best for our citizens.

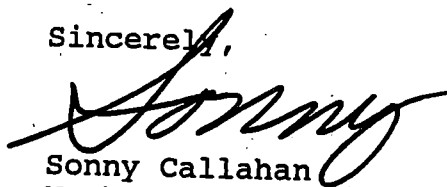

In addition, Alabama is one of the few states to fully implement the federal mandate to expand eligibility to pregnant women and children through age five up to 133 percent of the federal poverty level. Last year, this program reached almost 22,000 women and more than 25,000 children.

Alabama has raised the income limit for nursing home eligibility to highest allowed by Federal law. And, Alabama has increased the fees Medicaid pays for critical care services provided by pediatrician and neonatologists.

Although we have not always been able to make these claims, Alabama's Medicaid program is currently very successful and is serving a greater number of the poor and elderly in our state. The ability to utilize provider specific taxes has played an important role in this success, and anything you can do to encourage Mr. Darman to reconsider OMB's plans, will certainly be appreciated. I look forward to hearing from you.

With kindest personal regards, I remain

Sincerely,

Sonny Callahan
Member of Congress

EMBASSY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
PARIS

THE AMBASSADOR

July 31, 1991

Dear John:

I heard that Dick Rosenbaum would love to fill a vacancy on the U. S. Court of Appeals, Second Circuit, I have known Judge Rosenbaum for years, and have worked with him on many occasions. He is a first class lawyer. There is nobody more energetic and robust as well as just plain smart, than Rosie. He is also a gentleman and a strong force in New York politics.

I hope Richard Rosenbaum has a chance for that vacancy. I would be very happy to add my views to any that are sought.

Best wishes to you.

Yours ever,

Walter J. P. Curley

P.S. I liked seeing you in Paris again and wish it could have been longer.

Dear Governor Sununu:

It was good to hear you had an opportunity to meet with our Washington, D.C. Government Affairs staff recently to hear their concerns about the gas tax in the Highway Bill. Thanks for taking the time to meet with them.

As they explained to you, we are working against the tax increase, and we also think the legislation provides states with far too much flexibility to transfer significant amounts of highway money to mass transit.

On behalf of the 830,000 members in our AAA club (150,000 in New Hampshire and 680,000 in Eastern Massachusetts) we appreciate the President's pledge to veto any bill with a gas tax increase.

Please let me know if there is any action we can take for our mutual interest in either of our states which will be helpful to the President.

Best Regards,

Dwight L. Conant
General Manager

Mr. John Sununu
Chief of Staff,
The White House
17th and Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Sununu:

The purpose of this letter is to introduce, or to re-introduce, a dynamic group of serious-minded and internationally-oriented professionals. The International Council, launched by the Forum for World Affairs, has over the past 4 years gained a reputation for being on the cutting edge of international developments.

Typically, first-rate speakers offer practical international advice, liberally sprinkled with their candid reflections on where the world is going. Topics have spanned the international gamut -- from business and politics to thorny legal and security questions.

As you probably know, the Forum for World Affairs (the only world affairs council in Fairfield and Westchester counties), presently celebrating its 45th year, has an impressive record of presenting distinguished speakers, ranging from Eleanor Roosevelt and John J. McCloy to Paul Henri Spaak and Henry Kissinger. In recent years, Zbigniew Brzezinski, J. William Fulbright and David Rockefeller have been among those to address the large audiences at the Forum.

The more select International Council provides an unusual opportunity for members to talk with invited guests from the United States and abroad. Last year, I.C. events attracted such diverse and prominent individuals as Pulitzer Prize winner and New York Times reporter Serge Schmemman, Middle East expert Rita Hauser, United States Senator Joseph Lieberman, Ambassador

Stephen Bosworth (currently President of the U.S. - Japan Foundation), Ambassador Richard Gardner (currently at Columbia Law School and chairing a special U.S. - Soviet U.N. Committee), Helmut Sonnenfeldt (Brookings Institution) and Gaddis Smith (Yale University). A brochure on the Forum, as well as a sampling of Forum speakers and topics, is enclosed.

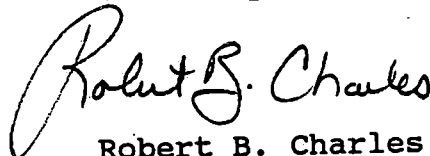

The I.C. is presently kicking off a new season. So far, we have a fine group of anticipated speakers. Your name has, however, repeatedly surfaced. As a result, the Council would be honored if you would consider joining us, to speak on an international topic of your choice some time in May or June of 1992.

Knowing that similar invitations will often land on your desk, I hope that you will forgive my presumption in submitting another. From your perspective, I guarantee an unusually receptive and highly sophisticated audience. You may fairly anticipate upward to two hundred I.C. members for your reception and address.

We earnestly hope that your schedule will permit an address to the International Council during the 1991-92 program year. Your off-the-record thoughts would be heartily welcomed by the I.C. membership; your expertise and analysis would be greatly appreciated.

I look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely,

Robert B. Charles
Member, Board of Directors of The Forum for World Affairs; 1991-92
Chairman, International Council

Postscript: Two topics proposed for your address, although the choice would be entirely yours, were: "How Should America Lead?" or "Ethics and America's Leaders".

American Pride

IS AMERICA'S FUTURE

July 23, 1991

Mr. John H. Sununu
The White House Office
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

As a member of the Executive Office of the President, you can have a tremendous impact on the redirection of America's efforts to ensure America has the strengths and resources required to compete in today's fiercely competitive markets. It is imperative we take immediate action to improve America's position among its foreign counterparts.

America's Pride is a not-for-profit organization committed to building a coalition of leaders to effect the changes necessary to fortify the foundation for America's future.

The first phase of the awareness campaign is directed towards government, industry and labor leaders, the media and private citizens to enlist their support and commitment to our efforts. The campaign will emphasize the major areas of concern that must be addressed to develop a long-term approach to improve our competitive ability in the global marketplace. The attached fact sheets briefly describe the serious nature of the concerns affecting America's ability to compete.

You can play an important role in providing the leadership necessary to ensure America is a country with the strength and ability to forge into the future with the same dynamism and pride that made it a world leader only a generation ago.

Americans are entitled to the assurance that their country has the capability to provide the foundation for a secure economic future. Will history look upon us as a courageous people committed enough to making the needed sacrifices to ensure we regain our competitive edge? Signing and returning the enclosed card demonstrates your personal commitment to making that answer a resounding "YES".

Sincerely,

William M. Callahan
President and Founder

SUBJECT: Presidential Statement for Expo 92

Several weeks ago when you met with Commissioner General Fred Bush and me, we discussed the possibility of the President making a short videotape statement about the United States Pavilion at the 1992 Universal Exposition in Seville, Spain.

Here is the proposed script outlining the importance of a successful, high-quality U.S. presence at the Seville Expo, which the President may wish to use for the videotape.

The videotape will be used to brief American private-sector contacts on the Expo and our plans for the U.S. Pavilion, and will be aired via USIA's satellite television network, WORLDNET.

Let me know if I can help.

Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House

Dear Governor Sununu:

This is to request your support for a memorial to Mahatma Gandhi in Washington, D.C.

Last year the National Capital Planning Commission came out in support of a memorial to Mahatma Gandhi based on the 1949 joint resolution for such a memorial (P.L.81-309). We strongly feel that the Commemorative Works Act which came into force in 1986, cannot be applied retroactively.

This memorial can serve as the focal point for the dissemination of Gandhi's philosophy of truth, non-violence and harmony among various ethnic/religious groups in this city and this country. This will support President Bush's "Kinder, Gentler Nation" theme and the new world order of harmony he envisions. Even Pope John Paul II said that following Gandhi's philosophy of "truth and respect for the unique dignity of every human being" we can create a new world order.

Mahatma Gandhi's philosophy has its roots in the American philosophy of Thoreau and Emerson. Its later impact on the Civil Rights Movement, should be viewed in terms of the development of American democracy and the turmoil and bloodshed this Nation avoided. We think the time has come for this message of truth, non-violence and harmony to go forth from this great Nation back to India and the many ares in the world that are rocked by violence and discord.

As Washington, D.C., is building its stature as an international city, a memorial to this great man whose philosophy has shaped events in Asia, Africa and more recently in Eastern Europe, is an appropriate addition to this city of memorials. Mahatma Gandhi is the only non-Western man included in Time magazine's 10 Most Important People of the 20th Century. The influence of some of the others, like Hitler, was very negative, to say the least.

STEERING COMMITTEE

- Mrs. Achamma Chandrasekaran

Members

- Mr. Kenneth Clair

- Dr. Anthony Swamy
- Dr. Vasant Telang
- Ms. Bonnie Seefeldt

Ex-Officio Members

- Dr. Gopal Basisht
- Dr. Oliver Wilson

I know you are aware that this is a project dear to the hearts of some of President Bush's great supporters, such as:

Dr. Raj Bhotra, Bloomfield Hills, Michigan
Dr. Zach Zacharia, Orlando, Florida
Dr. H. K. Janardhan of New York,
Mr. Dinesh D'Souza of the American Enterprise
Institute
Mr. Krishna Srinivasa of Atlanta, Georgia, and hundreds of thousands of others.

Please make sure that the National Capital Memorial Commission is aware of the White House support for such a memorial. We are counting on your help to make this memorial a reality.

Sincerely,

Achamma Chander

P.S.

The enclosed material will dispel some of the inaccurate rumors being used not to support a memorial to this man of peace, love and integrity.

Dear Governor Sununu,

In advising the President on appointments to the Holocaust Commission, could you kindly give special consideration to reappointing Bill Corwenberg of San Francisco? He is, himself, a Holocaust survivor, and he has been a friend and supporter of the President in a community where that is not common. I am happy to provide any further background on Bill you may wish.

Gratefully,
Tom

Dear John:

With all of the criticism you are unfairly receiving, I think you deserve a friendly note.

Your admirers know the quality of your work for the President and for the country. Your being there has prevented several ill-conceived notions from becoming official policy and your strength of will has led to successful negotiations with the Congress.

You have been available. You have listened. You take your job seriously and take responsible, well-thought-out positions. The country needs you.

You can take some solace from the fact that some of us know personally how the media victimizes anyone they think makes an easy story that appeals to the public's basic fears and prejudices.

Take care and keep your head down.

Sincerely,

Office of the Director

July 12, 1991

The Honorable John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House

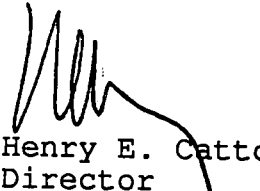

Dear John:

The enclosed reports summarize results of the first poll ever conducted in Albania, which we commissioned. Key findings are:

- Albanian public opinion is very friendly toward the West, as was demonstrated during Secretary Baker's recent visit. Albanians have a favorable opinion of President Bush and of the U.S.
- Virtually all Albanians say their country should adopt a multiparty system of government. Almost as many think a free market economy is essential to their economic development.
- At the same time, fewer than one in three think the country would have been better off if the Communists had never come to power. Half think Albania benefitted from socialism but now believe it is time for a change. A staunch one in ten thinks socialism still has a future.
- Urban Albanians prefer a radical rather than a gradual economic reform program. Rural Albanians are more cautious: as many prefer gradual as radical reform.
- A majority of Albanians express confidence in the EC and CSCE. Only one in five voices confidence in NATO.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

Henry E. Catto

Dear Governor

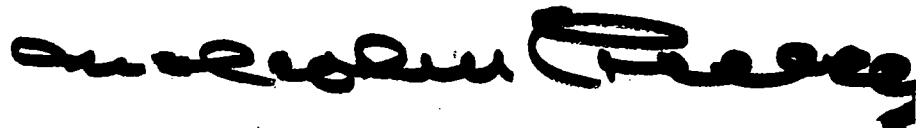

You did a great job in the face of media harassment in the talk show last weekend.

You are a top executive in the biggest and most important business in the country, and to quibble about how you should handle your travel is absurd.

You should do it in the manner that will keep you in touch and will be least stressful in your tough job.

I am sure the American people agree.

Dear John:

My good friend, Hal Haskell, has written the enclosed letter to President Bush. I am wondering if, perhaps, you could see that the President has an opportunity to read it and respond.

Hal is a former Congressman from Delaware and Mayor of Wilmington. He and the President know each other. Indeed, the President has been a guest at Hal's home and they have played tennis together.

Whatever help you could provide on this would be greatly appreciated. Please give my best to Nancy and I look forward to seeing you both again soon.

Sincerely yours,

July 3, 1991

The Honorable John Sununu

Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear John,

Enclosed is background information on Mr. Joseph Dawson Shine of Columbia, South Carolina. Joe is interested in an appointment to the federal bench, and I am writing to recommend that he receive every possible consideration.

I have worked with Joe Shine for several years. He has served as legal advisor to the State Budget and Control Board, and I am convinced that he is a person that should be considered for his legal talents and common sense to serve on the federal bench. He has worked in Washington, serving as Director of Ethics and Special Counsel to the Administrator for Ethics in the General Services Administration. He served as Attorney-Advisor to the Secretary of the Air Force. He has been in private practice and is a graduate of The Citadel. He holds a law degree from Harvard University. He has received many, many honors throughout his career and is a person that I think would be a welcomed addition to the federal judiciary and to the Bush Administration, if he were to be appointed. Though Joe Shine is black, I am making my recommendation on Joe Shine the individual without any regard to race. The strongest part of that recommendation would be that if I were in a position to make such an appointment, he would be at the top of any list that I would have.

I will be glad to provide any additional information that may be needed and appreciate your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Carroll A. Campbell, Jr.
Governor

Dear John:

Please find a copy of an invitation you folks have probably already received. We're all from New England and I'm sure we recognize the importance of this event and the great opportunity it represents.

I know the President and Mrs. Bush will be well received and their presence will help solidify and increase the major in-roads we have made in that segment of the voting population. I'm sure you already have given it serious consideration and I hope you can make it happen.

Dear Governor:

You may remember Jim Erwin in Maine endeavors and mine in New York endeavors. I last saw you and many Sununus, in the service elevator coming out of Senator Roy Goodman's New Orleans party.

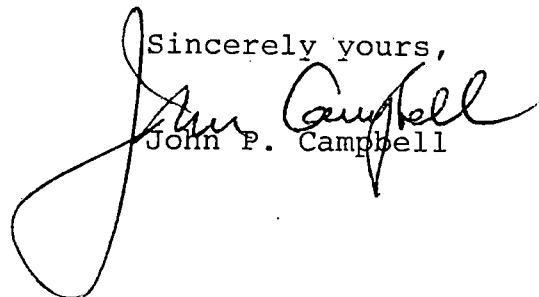

I am being measured for the box in my New York firm so am spending more time here. "Governor" Erwin and I (actually, he was Attorney General) are working on possibilities regarding Pease, we hope to become a major commercial airport. Boston could use help in that regard. It occurred to me that your office would get us in touch with the Transportation groups that may be working on this project.

Through my New York firm, I have a Frankfurt am Main office. The German interest in the possible development is considerable. The designation of Berlin as the capital to be will probably increase that interest.

If anyone can give us an idea to whom to talk, it would be appreciated.

Best wishes.

Dear Mr. Sununu:

I hope you will find IEEE Spectrum's enclosed special issue on "Asiapower: technology's Pacific tilt" to be useful and informative. We believe the issue to be the most complete assessment yet of electrotechnology's role in firing the spectacular ascent of Asia's Pacific Rim.

As seen by journalists and industry and government experts in the area, the issue describes how Japan and the four "tigers" are exploiting electrotechnology to create a tripolar world economic structure by the end of the decade. It also discusses how fierce competition among the immense region's advanced and emerging industrialized economies is intensifying the world's Pacific tilt.

As you may know, IEEE Spectrum is the flagship publication of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers, Inc., the world's largest technical professional organization with more than 300 000 members in over 130 countries. Among other recognition, Spectrum has been honored as a finalist in the National Magazine Award competition 10 times in the last 14 years. Spectrum won the Award three times.

If you would like additional copies of the special issue for your associates, simply send us their names and addresses, and we will mail them a copy promptly.

Cordially,

Donald Christiansen

Dear John:

We met briefly in New Hampshire when I was working as a volunteer in the Bush primary campaign.

I was sorry to read all the press criticism about your travels, especially the use of government vehicles and personnel in the New York area.

If you ever need transportation in and around New York I would be happy to provide it to you free of charge with no strings. My son or I will drive you in our 1990 Lincoln Continental. We don't have a car phone at the moment but I expect to be getting one by the end of the summer. In the past I have driven for Governor Malcolm Wilson, Barry Goldwater, Ken Keating, Asst. A.G. John Dunne, Congressman Norman Lent and many state legislators.

We live in Nassau County, about 20 minutes from either LaGuardia or Kennedy.

Have your staff call us if we can be of assistance.

As loyal conservative Republicans we are,

Sincerely,

Bill Corbett

Dear Mr. John Sununu:

It has recently occurred to me that I have not done a proper job of staying in touch with you since we last met.

I hope to correct this omission by occasionally writing or calling just to check on your wellbeing and to throw out some thoughts and ideas as I view them from the standpoint of business here in New York.

Alan Greenspan has been saying for months that the recession is winding down. Mr. Greenspan, I fear, is like Wall Street, which always acts as though it can "cheerlead" the way to better times. I wish it were true, but facts suggest otherwise.

New York's commerce is largely driven by real estate. The buying and selling of real estate creates profits of course, but the ancillary benefits also include jobs, new homes and tax revenues, and in general these exchanges fuel our actual economy.

In recent years and currently there has been very little "fuel". I'm not just another wealthy businessman complaining about high taxes. I am suggesting that the current state of taxation, both state and Federal may have created a serious drag on the state of the economy.

Your suspicion there is little altruism in business is true. Profit motivates activity. Without profit there is no fuel for activity. The 1986 tax laws have had the effect of a bucket of water on a campfire.

The motivation to turn over real estate is absent in the marketplace. As one looks at a prospective deal and considers capital gains, both state and Federal, extended years of depreciation, income tax, state and local sales tax, and transfer tax--why sell? Why not simply refinance? Why not indeed. This is what's happening.

Is it a coincidence that almost every form of government across the land is facing unprecedented deficits? I think not.

The golden goose has been slain, and there are feathers all over the place. Everyone's starving, and there's no reason for it.

We're both painfully aware the economy needs a "jump start". Taxation has in the past provided the spark. Taxation is now nothing but a ground wire.

All of this has come at a time when another of our nation's basic lines of productivity is under a relentless, almost arrogant attack. The auto industry, like real estate, has in the past provided the "fuel" for our economy. It seems to me at least that the auto industry should be able to be protected from its external enemies.

The real estate situation is an internal problem brought on by ourselves. The decline of our auto industry is the result of a foreign nation's direct attempt to undermine our economy.

The result of this "double whammy" is the recession of the past few years and this will not be solved by simplistic cheers of "things are getting better".

I'd certainly like to hear your thoughts on all of this and will be glad to provide more graphic examples of this plight should you so desire.

Meanwhile, I hope you are well and I look forward to hearing from you or seeing you soon.

Sincerely yours,

John A. Catsimatidis

Dear Governor:

I thought you might like the enclosed cover, which I bought in May on the East Berlin side of the Brandenburg Gate (along with the hat of a Red Army major). This isn't an expensive item, but I thought the "Germany Unity" cancellation to be somewhat historic and I knew you'd find it interesting.

I'm glad to see that the worst of press stories seems to be over for you. I know how tough this period must have been for you and your family -- there's no fairness to it but, sadly, it often goes with the turf.

Given the circumstances, thought you'd appreciate a true Ronald Reagan story. He had a puppy in the Oval office, which had recently been redecorated. Mike Deaver told the President he probably shouldn't have the dog in there. "Why not?" asked Reagan. "Because he'll probably piss on your leg," said Mike. Reagan looked at him for a moment, then said "That's ok; everyone else does."

Sound familiar?

Please let me know if I can ever be of help.

Sincerely,

John -

Dear John:

As a Republican and an Eagle I applaud the Administration's nomination of Clarence Thomas to the Supreme Court. While Chief of Staff of the Department of Labor during the early Reagan years, I had the opportunity to work with Clarence when he served on the EEOC. Now, as the CEO of The Jefferson Group, a large public affairs firm here in town, I would like to support his nomination in whatever way possible. With over 30 lobbyists working both sides of the aisle, I'm sure we can help. Let's discuss specifics at your convenience.

The Crown Royal Achievement Award

For the Benefit of the Jimmie Heuga Center

July 1, 1991

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear John:

Jimmie Heuga, in his efforts to reanimate the physically challenged, has established a magnificent precedent this year. With hopes of superseding last year's banner efforts, he has obtained a sponsor to underwrite his annual fundraising dinner. The Crown Royal Achievement Award Dinner, to benefit The Jimmie Heuga Center, will establish a model for quality and grandeur for future events of its kind.

The athletes being honored truly serve as positive role models for all Americans. The spirit and perseverance they have displayed in overcoming both emotional and physical barriers embodies the same inspirational message President Bush has put forth to the United States in his "points of light" address. Indeed, these individuals give us all the motivation to continue in the face of adversity.

For this reason, we would be honored to receive a videotaped salutation from President Bush congratulating the athletes who are being honored for their courageous accomplishments. A brief message from the President would ensure the success of the event and would make it a very memorable evening for the honorees.

Lisa Cochran, Vice President of Kessler & Associates in Washington D.C., will be able to provide your staff with any necessary details. She can be reached at (202) 547-6808.

Thank you again for taking this opportunity to help The Jimmie Heuga Center. I look forward to seeing you at the dinner.

Very truly yours,

Kiki Cutter

Re: Kuwait Reconstruction

Dear Governor Sununu:

Thank you for meeting with us for a roundtable discussion at the Hamilton Farm in Bedminster, New Jersey on June 12th.

As I indicated to you at that meeting, the Kuwaiti Ambassador recently advised us that American contractors coming into that country to perform work in connection with the repair of war damage to Kuwaiti public and industrial facilities were not bringing with them American tradesmen. Instead, they were hiring workers from Korea and other countries.

The American people won that war and American workers, especially during these hard economic times, deserve to benefit from the effort to rebuild Kuwait. It is offensive to all American workers that American companies, having won contracts to do this rebuilding, would turn their backs on their fellow Americans and hire other foreign nationals instead. I feel that you were offended or at least surprised to learn what might happen in Kuwait and I certainly hope you will use all of your resources to make sure American workers are not short-changed.

Governor, you made it clear to Vice President, Richard Tissiere that you would look into this matter for us.

Eagerly awaiting your response.

Respectfully,

John Critchley

DANIEL ROSS CHANDLER

June 19, 1991

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff of the President of the United States
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, DC

Dear Governor Sununu:

The purpose of my letter is to commend you strongly for the courage and the candor that you exhibit when criticizing the poor condition of public education in New York City. The negative response that your speech evokes from some bureaucrats in education comes because your analysis is correct and you speak your convictions clearly.

For the past twenty years, I have lived in New York City and held academic appointments in the State and City universities of New York and at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey. During that time, I have witnessed a complete collapse of essential standards that guarantee academic excellence. Twenty years ago, the open-admissions, free-tuition policy at the City University flooded the system with poorly motivated, usually unprepared students who were not enrolled to seek an education but "to represent a minority." A once great university system was destroyed. An ultra-liberal group of "professional educators" has entrenched itself in the educational systems of New York and New Jersey and cater to these disenchanted dissidents.

The unpardonable and unjustified limit to which this tendency has taken us is reflected by the "gag rules" imposed by some academic administrations. Under these prohibitions, criticizing a member of a minority is unacceptable, even to the point of expulsion from the university. I have gone to my mailbox at City College and discovered that a chairman of the department, acting under administrative pressure, completed the grade for minority students by writing in the grades for minority students. On another occasion, I dropped a minority student enrolled in a pre-medicine program for absences; she was reinstated in a summer school class and given a high grade to promote her prospects for admission into medical school.

Because the situation stinks to high heaven, a remedy can come only from outside the system. Under no conditions or circumstances should funds cut from New York City be restored; the pressure might bring some persuasion to secure a remedy. But a whole-scale change is imperative before legitimate standards can be achieved.

Most sincerely,
Daniel Ross Chandler

Dear John:

I'm looking forward to your coming out to Stanford sometime, whether to give a seminar or not. The offer of round trip travel reimbursement is open any time. Anything I can do to help on that or for that matter anything else, please count on me.

One reason I haven't written more often in the last couple of years is I didn't think I could give you very much direct help, being as I am in a different political party. However if you need a member of the Democrats for Sununu fan club, you've got one here.

Apparently when I voted for Nixon in 1960 it made me so sick to my stomach that I've never recovered. That perhaps accounts for my conversion.

By the way, I think that the current administration has done an excellent job of increasing the level of funding for basic research. As I understand it the NSF budget will be doubling in a matter of three or four years. I obviously want to see this continue because it improves the intellectual culture of the country. We may lose ground in applied research, but I think we can keep our position in basic research. The best way to keep the brain drain in our direction is through support of basic research.

Dear Mr. Sununu,

Thank you for taking time from your busy schedule to read my letter. Next month my husband and I will be bringing our three sons to Washington, DC for our summer vacation.

Is there any way that you could arrange a VIP or more extensive tour of the White House for us? I'm sure my oldest son, eleven years old, would love that. We would like to visit on Tuesday, July 23, 1991. (If that is not possible, any day during that week would be fine, we plan to stay until July 27, 1991.

We in New Hampshire are proud of you. Keep up the great work. I look forward to hearing from you soon. Have a nice day.

G.C.A. COMMUNICATIONS

248706

June 17, 1991

Mr. John Sununu
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear John,

Tell Sam Donaldson to go to hell! Give him my address and phone number, and I'll be happy to tell him myself. We used to call him the "White Rabbit" in the U.S. Capitol because he demanded of us (taxpaid employees) to give him preferential treatment because he worked for ABC! No one elected him anything.

Whew! That's not why I wrote, so bear with me on this. I have three separate items to raise with you.

They are in no particular order: A national policy dealing with drug dealers; a new national policy to rebuild US-Vietnam relations; and my offer to work for you for Mr. Bush' Re-Election.

Drug Dealers: These sleazies only have the ability to make money in America because they are IN America. Why not take advantage of the Gulf War and build an enormous prison there, but with this caveat: Upon capture and conviction of drug dealers, (with a Constitutional Amendment) they lose their American Citizenship! The U.S. Government gives them an option to leave American soil to any country who will have them, or face life in prison in Kuwait's desert! There are lots of reasons for this scenario, but politically, it will work, and the cost is very, very low due to the lack of need of additional jail space in the states!

U.S.-Vietnam: I know Bob Kimmett from my days in the U.S. Senate as his sister and my wife are good "buds." Well, I didn't serve in Vietnam while I was in the USAF, and I would like the opportunity to serve on your behalf to rebuild the economy of Vietnam while I am still a relatively young man (43 last week!!!), on behalf of the Bush Presidency. I look more European than Anglo-American, and frankly could lead our efforts there on behalf of American business and industry in that part of the world. If you have thought of this, please recall my offer to you to commence those efforts. It is a worthy project for both nations' people.

The Bush Re-election: I have been in a quandry as to why you have not called me to help you. Ron Kaufman asked me to stay on in '82 after the RGA, but I had to return to Oregon as my wife had delayed surgery due to the elections, and she was in no condition to move back to D.C. But, since 1980, we have taken Republicans, in a Democratic region, and won while everyone else was losing. George Bush lost Oregon in '88 because the wrong people did his race here against Dukakis. And, don't forget that I'm a West Virginian and have known Jay Rockefeller since he came to our poor state back in the mid-'60's just so he could buy his political career! That is one more reason that I could be helpful since I already know the "players" as well as having done over 1,500 of these campaigns.

...always felt that the Presidentials were cast in such a
...that a focus on additional seats in the Congress, Governors,
...never seemed part of the process. Just because one only
...electoral votes to win does not mean that losing the Congressionals
...to be acceptable. But, it seems to have since the Ford Campaign of
...through RWR in '80 and '84 and then again in '88!

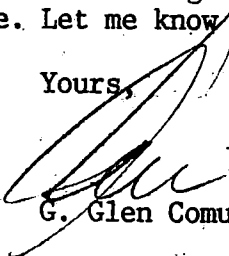

I think it essential to build a new coalition in urban areas in the west (defined as Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming, Colorado, Montana, Idaho, Alaska, Washington, Oregon and Hawaii) that can be Bush-Solid States that can also build majorities Congressionally. That legacy of the west coupled with the South, ought to provide you with not only a landslide election Presidentially, but an added benefit to gaining a majority in Congress. We did that in 1980 in the Senate on the basis of the Kemp-Roth Tax Cuts and the "Are You Better Off" Campaign that we established back in November 1977! You weren't on scene yet, John, but in H-227 of the Capitol, that campaign was hatched while Howard Baker, Bob Packwood and Pete Teeley argued AGAINST the strategy! We did it anyway, and WON...BIG!!!

Hence, my offer to work for you. I'll enclose my resume and some of my recent work for you. I grew up in the poverty-stricken hills of W.Va. When the people were marching in the streets in 1968, I went marching to my USAF Recruiter and served through 1973 and then attended graduate school before going to work in the U.S. Senate then later in the House. I have had several mentors in both parties including Senator Byrd whom I am told tangled with you over the budget. I can help you on the "Hill" as Max Friedersdorf can attest if you wish. But, I would like to serve again, John, as it has been about 8 years, and I like to work for good causes without becoming a full-time bureaucrat. My heart is in the private sector (as is my wallet), but I would like to do somemore work and given my immediate like of you, I would offer my services to you directly or to your designate. The political or international policy areas mentioned above are two strengths that I have using political and business and financial acumen. Capitol Hill's leadership are also former employers if you need some help with them.

Anyway, I did not mean to continue on so much. But, after seeing Sam take after you in a cheap shot, I thought that I should offer to help you. I've known George Bush for 20 years; turned down his son (George Jr.) who asked me to manage his Congressional Campaign in '78 (it was in Texas) while I was preparing to move to Oregon; know Jeb and helped him in 1980 when his father was running then in Oregon. I still have my "Bush" signs from 1980.

Well sir, that's it from ORYGUN. Come out here sometime and visit us. Mt. Hood has year-round skiing and the Olympic Team practices here. Besides, you need to see that the Northwest is more than Seattle. Politically, the GOP here is in the pits with illegal campaign activity being endorsed by its Chair (Berkman), and that's bad news (another reason that you need someone to ride roughshod over these little thieves). Thanks for listening. Keep your chin up. You're doing fine and so is the White House. Let me know if I can help you.

Yours,

G. Glen Comuntzis

THE PRESIDENT
EMERITUS

6-18-91

John,

This kind of sniping is really unfair to you. You are not a normal 40 hr per week employee and should not be judged as if you were.

Many of us appreciate all the quality support you have given our President, seven days each week and nearly 24 hours each day.

You are not an ordinary person, nor do you have an ordinary job.

Don't let these people who never stood in your shoes reduce your efficiency.

Re: RTC Collections

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Because Mr. Bush depends on your judgment for the success of so many of his programs, please know that the means exists now for his R.T.C. to collect countless billions in outstanding loans.

Because Caton Associates is an authorized contractor with that same R.T.C., as well as a licensed and bonded member of the American Collectors Association, you are assured that my plan for action is practical, available and has been demonstrated to be successful and profitable.

When you and Mr. Bush would like to implement these methods, please ask your personal representative for these matters to call me to arrange an appointment. All of us taxpayers can benefit.

Sincerely,

Paul Caton

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

The World Federation of Americans Abroad cordially invites you to attend a reception celebrating the commencement of its Second world Conference of U.S. Citizens Abroad. The reception will be held on Tuesday, June 25, from 6:00 - 7:30 p.m. in the Federal Suite at the Hay-Adams Hotel, One Lafayette Square, NW.

The World Federation of Americans Abroad (WFAA) was formed in 1990 to represent the roughly 3 million Americans who live and work overseas. A nonprofit, nonpartisan organization, the WFAA works with Congress and the Administration to develop a new set of policies to recognize Americans abroad as a national asset and to relieve hardships in the areas of voting rights, citizenship, education, taxation, Social Security/Medicare, veteran's benefits, security, and economic competitiveness.

As you are a key official in the Administration, we would welcome your attendance. Please RSVP to Ms. Jean Swift at Intercom International Consultants, (202) 887-1887, no later than Thursday, June 20. We look forward to seeing you at the reception.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor Sununu:

I wanted to thank you for the time you took to come to New Jersey and speak at Hamilton Farm. Your message was well received and of great help to all the assembly candidates.

Some time in the future I hope we have the opportunity to swap New Hampshire stories. It is one of my favorite places and a good hideaway for me.

Best personal wishes.

The Honorable John H. Sununu

Dear John:

I am pleased to send you herewith a newly released U.S. Information Agency publication, Inferno: The Legacy of Destruction in Kuwait. This pamphlet documents, in vivid human terms, the toll of Saddam Hussein's efforts to destroy the nation and the people of Kuwait. Its graphic photos testify to the extraordinary devastation of Kuwait's infrastructure and environment, as well as to the immeasurable suffering of its people.

USIA has just begun distribution of 23,000 copies of the pamphlet, in English and Arabic, to our embassies and USIS posts worldwide.

Inferno is the second USIA publication focusing on the conduct of the Gulf War and the fate of the Kuwaiti people. Our earlier pamphlet, Seven Months to Freedom, traces the crisis from the Iraqi invasion of Kuwait in August, through Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm, to the liberation of Kuwait. A copy of the earlier pamphlet is also enclosed.

These publications document for foreign audiences the brutal conduct of Iraqi forces in Kuwait and the remarkable response of the international community in defeating their aggression.

I hope that you will find them both to be relevant and effective and would welcome your comments.

Sincerely,

Henry E. Catto

Dear Governor:

I must admit it has been some time getting these pictures from the photographer which were taken last year at the NAMI Convention in Chicago. One is with NAMI President, Tom Posey, and the other is with me, taken just prior to the reception.

Tom and I would be very grateful if you would autograph the enclosed pictures and return them to me at the NAMI office indicated below.

Incidentally, subsequent to our conversation at the Convention, you will recall, I featured the First Lady in the next issue of The Decade of the Brain. Now, I am pleased to enclose a copy of our most recent issue, featuring Dr. Bromley.

If I can be of service in any way, please let me know.

TOWN OF

Honorable John H. Sununu
The Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

The Town of Seabrook presently relies solely on private septic systems to meet their wastewater disposal needs. The failure of these systems has created a public and environmental health problem which the town has earnestly sought to resolve by proposing to construct a public sewer and wastewater treatment facilities -- a difficult and expensive task. The Town of Seabrook, New Hampshire, proposes to build a wastewater treatment plant which is designed to treat the wastewater flows expected for the year 2010. A new system of sanitary sewers and pumping stations will convey the wastewater to the plant and a new ocean outfall will discharge the treated effluent approximately 2100 feet offshore. The average daily design flow is 1.8 million gallons per day (mgd) with a maximum month flow of 2.4 mgd. The treatment plant will provide a secondary level of treatment removing at least 85 percent of the solids and organic matter in the raw wastewater. The project is designed to comply with federal mandates for clean water and with the requirements of a discharge permit to be issued by the Environmental Protection Agency. Also, the facility was designed in accordance with the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services (NHDES) standards of design. NHDES must review and approve the plans prior to construction. The purpose of this letter is to briefly review the need for this project and to discuss the design features of the proposed treatment facilities which minimize the potential impacts. I hope that once you have reviewed the information presented you will assist the town in making this project a reality.

The need for a public sewer and wastewater treatment system is well documented. There are numerous recorded cases of septic system failures going back to the late 1960's. Elevated levels of coliform counts (bacterial indicator of wastewater contamination) were documented in the 1986 E. C. Jordan report and provide evidence of the septic system failures. The coliform levels exceeded the standards established by the State of New Hampshire for the Class B waterbodies in the vicinity of Seabrook. As a result of continuing bacteriological contamination, the Hampton Harbor was classified as "restricted" to the taking of shellfish. This restriction requires that the clam flats in Seabrook be closed depriving residents of a valuable resource. This action by the New Hampshire Division of Public Health Services was taken as a result of water quality data obtained in 1967 and 1968.

The major cause for the septic system failures in Seabrook is the underlying soil types which, in many areas, are unsuitable for use as subsurface absorption fields. All of the Town of Seabrook is currently serviced by individual septic systems, many of which have failed or are near failure because of soil types. The 1986 E. C. Jordan report identified more than 60% of the buildable land in Seabrook as having unsuitable soils for septic systems. In other areas where the soil may be acceptable, the depth to ledge of groundwater does not provide enough soil column to support a septic system.

Along the beach, seawater saturates the ground intermittently. This area is almost completely developed with the conversion of seasonal cottages to year-round residences. Septic systems that were designed to handle only summertime use are now operating continuously. Residents of the beach have experienced septic system backups during storm events due to the inability of the soils to handle both wet weather infiltration and subsurface leaching from individual septic systems. This also results in raw sewage perking to the surface. The majority of apartment complexes and mobile home parks have experienced frequent system failures, as have the developments along Lafayette Road (E. C. Jordan Co. 1986). Thus, the Town of Seabrook is faced with a widespread health problem associated with wastewater disposal.

To resolve these problems the Town of Seabrook began the design of a wastewater collection and treatment system in 1988. The design was based on facility planning studies conducted in 1977, 1986 and 1987. Numerous other studies have also been completed in compliance with state and federal permit requirements, including a site selection study, wetlands delineations and evaluations, geotechnical studies, wildlife assessments, bathymetric and seismic investigations, ocean current studies, benthic studies, effluent dispersion and dilution modeling and water quality studies. To date there have been 15 state and federal agencies involved in the review and permitting process.

Protection of the wetlands has been a major concern in developing this project. The alignment of the sewers and siting of the wastewater treatment facilities was done with the objective of minimizing wetlands impacts. Out of a total of approximately 65,000 linear feet of sanitary sewers proposed for construction only approximately 0.2% of the total length will cause any permanent impacts to the wetlands. Construction of the access road to Wright's Island and the wastewater treatment plant on the island will impact approximately 44,000 square feet of fresh water wetlands and 6,000 square feet of salt water wetlands. The fresh water wetlands which are on the island, have already been heavily disturbed by human activity. To compensate for this, a wetlands enhancement plan was developed. The plan will restore two areas of salt marsh which have been previously degraded. One area to the west of the access road includes approximately 3.4 acres of salt marsh. The other area, on the eastern tip of Wright's Island, includes about 0.45 acres of emergent marsh. The objective of the enhancement plan is to restore these areas to a typical New England salt marsh condition. The wetlands permits have been approved by the New Hampshire Wetlands Board and Governor's Council.

The United States Army Corps of Engineers (USCOE) Section 404 permits are pending. It is anticipated that the United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) discharge permit will be drafted shortly and hearings on the permit will be held during the summer.

During the design of the wastewater treatment facilities, reliability has been a major consideration. The treatment plant was designed for simple and reliable operation and all initial components are provided with backup systems. In this regard, the town authorized its design engineers to incorporate redundancies in the system to avoid the possibility of failure. We believe there are very few plants under construction or in operation today that have such a high level of safety designed into them.

All raw wastewater entering the wastewater treatment plant must be lifted up into the plant by the influent screw pumps. Three such pumps are provided. Each is capable of pumping greater than the maximum-month flow and any two pumps can handle the instantaneous peak flow. There is one pump available at all times as a standby.

The wastewater is then screened and de-gritted, to remove the larger and heavier solids, and sent to the secondary treatment portion of the plant. The type of secondary treatment employed will be the extended aeration process using oxidation ditches. This is a very conventional form of the activated sludge process which is noted for its ability to handle a wide variation in flows and loads, and for its ease of operation. The process consists of three oxidation ditches, each with two rotor-type aerators and two circular final settling tanks which are covered to prevent freezing. A pump building is provided to house the return sludge pumps. These pumps return sludge, settled out in the final settling tanks, to the oxidation ditches as required by the activated sludge process. Three pumps are provided with one pump available at all times as a standby pump.

After secondary treatment the effluent is disinfected with sodium hypochlorite. The contact time required for disinfection is provided in the effluent sewer. Much greater than the minimum required time (15 minutes) required for federal discharge permits is actually provided. From the point of chlorine contact to the point of dechlorination there are 115 minutes at average annual flow and 37 minutes of detention at peak flow. Three (3) sodium hypochlorite injection pumps are provided so that there will always be two backup pumps. The disinfected effluent is then pumped through the outfall. Three (3) effluent pumps are provided. Any two pumps are capable of handling the peak instantaneous flow and thus one pump is always available as a standby. Prior to entering the ocean outfall portion of the effluent sewer, the treated effluent will be dechlorinated.

Because of the two back-up pumps provided on emergency power, it is reasonable to expect that the chlorination system will always be in operation. The sodium hypochlorite system is simple to operate. It is based on metering a liquid chemical with no requirements for the vacuum systems and eductors associated with gaseous chlorine systems.

A concern raised during the permit review process was what would happen if both normal and emergency power were to be lost. If this situation should occur (and idealistically is unlikely) the treatment plant could not receive any wastewater because the raw wastewater pumps would not operate and there would be no effluent discharge. Thus, the treatment plant is incapable of discharging an un-chlorinated effluent, therefore removing the scenario promoted by opponents of the facility.

The normal power supply to the wastewater treatment facilities is very reliable. Historical records of power outages for the period 1975 through 1990 were obtained from the Exeter-Hampton Electric Company to document this. These records indicate that on the average there are one or two power outages per year with an average duration of approximately one hour each.

An emergency generator set is included to provide power during normal power outages. The generator set will be automatically exercised each week to verify that it is always operationally ready when needed. The generator will be capable of providing power for the following process units:

- Raw wastewater influent pumps (3)
- Bar screen
- Grit removal system
- One rotor aerator in each ditch
- Return sludge pumps
- Waste sludge pumps
- Final settling tank drive
- Chlorine mixer
- Sodium hypochlorite pumps (3)
- Effluent pumps (3)

In order to lose the ability to treat the wastewater to a secondary level of treatment, the plant would have to experience the simultaneous failure of at least four (4) of the six rotor aerators which are installed in the three oxidation ditches. Secondary treatment can be maintained at design flows and loads with one operable rotor in an oxidation ditch and if both rotors in a ditch were to fail, the wastewater could be diverted to the remaining ditch or ditches.

The probability of all the rotor aerators failing simultaneously is extremely small, and is for all practical purposes impossible. A major manufacturer of the rotor aerator equipment indicated that, based on their experience, you may expect, in a plant with 6 rotors, that one of the components in a rotor would fail a maximum of once in five years. With spare parts available, as provided for by the contract specifications, the maximum down time for the rotor aerator would be one (1) day. A spare motor is also required by the specifications. We are not aware of any plant which experienced the type of concurrent failures required to lose their ability to treat wastewater. We are aware of plant similar to the plant proposed for the Town of Seabrook which have been continuously meeting their EPA discharge permit.

The technical studies report previously completed by Normandeau Associates assumed primary treatment as a worst-case scenario, but it should be realized that the probability of this occurring is extremely minute. Even with just a primary level of treatment, the modeling showed that the effluent met all state and federal water quality criteria after initial dilution at the diffuser (the ocean outfall). Also, if the process were to be reduced to a primary level of treatment, it would be a very efficient primary treatment plant. Over ten hours of detention time is provided in the plant at the peak instantaneous flow rate of 5.7 mgd. Note, however, that the peak flow rate, as defined, will have a duration of only one hour. There are 33 hours detention time at the average annual flow rate of 1.8 mgd. Also, as stated previously, it should be assumed that chlorination of the primary effluent will always be maintained.

Another somewhat unusual feature about the proposed treatment facility is that all wastewater entering the plant must be pumped up into the plant. It cannot flow by gravity into the plant and the outfall. Thus, if there is no power, which implies a loss of both the normal power and the emergency power, then there can be no discharge from the plant.

The wastewater collection and treatment system will be expensive. The estimated cost for this project is over $40 million and it is anticipated that construction of the treatment plant and major sewers will require four years. However, the project will benefit the area in a number of significant ways. Most importantly, the failing septic systems and their associated public and environmental health hazards can be eliminated. Water quality will be protected from continued degradation by septic tank effluents. It is expected that this will improve the water quality in Hampton Harbor and allow for the eventual reopening of the clam flats at Seabrook Beach.

The area will benefit economically since a construction project of this magnitude will provide jobs for a variety of skills. The money spent in constructing the facilities will improve the local economy in general.

The money that will be expended in this aggressive four year construction schedule will create its own economy. The Town of Seabrook is currently experiencing an unemployment rate of 13.7%, nearly twice the state and national average. A project of this type would aide both the local employment picture as well as aid the economy of the New Hampshire seacoast and the economy of the north shore of Massachusetts.

Unfortunately, for reasons beyond the town's control, the process for receiving permits has been lengthy. We have been unable to obtain Corp and EPA permits on this project because of opposition from Massachusetts. The town has been required to complete additional studies at substantial cost because of the opposition to the siting of the facilities by the Congressional Delegation of Massachusetts, numerous state agencies, and the beach residents of Salisbury. The comments of those who oppose this facility are on file with the Army Corps of Engineers. None of the comments addresses technical deficiencies in the design of the plant by our engineer. I enclose an example of the Congressional opposition for your information.

In light of the information presented, I am writing to seek your assistance on this project. The timing of contracts is important because of seasonal construction schedules. The project is estimated to cost in excess of 40 million dollars. Under current economic conditions many municipalities are experiencing a 30% savings over construction estimates. If we are unable to take advantage of this year's construction schedule, we loose the benefit of a slow economy and the eventual operation of the facility will be delayed another year at a minimum cost of $1.2 million dollars.

The Town of Seabrook and its residents are committed to expending the resources required to successfully complete this project and your interest in the project is appreciated. Should you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact my office. Thank you in advance for your attention and assistance. I can be reached at 603-474-3252 if you wish to discuss any aspect of the project.

Sincerely,

Steven A. Clark

The Honorable
John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House

Dear Governor Sununu:

We are suffering a great loss with the resignation of Dick Thornburgh. This letter is to voice my support for a man of great integrity, loyalty and heartfelt compassion for oppressed victims of authoritarian bullyism, regardless of its source.

In the '70's, when I worked the counter-terrorist circuit in Latin America, Doug Gow, currently Deputy Director of the FBI for Intelligence, was the SAIC in Houston. We always landed our rescued hostages in Houston for hospitalization. Doug and his people, albeit professionally motivated, showed a great degree of victim compassion that I never realized was present within the FBI. Whereas most bureaucratic agencies would press for a lot of red tape, debriefings and humiliation, the Houston office was streamlined to the point of putting our rescued hostage with his family in less than one hour after touchdown, with no leaks to the press.

As you know, the 7C's was a quiet company. We did our job and left. The follow-up by Doug's people is a testament to his character and sense of values to the victims and their families. His sense of basic family value is needed.

I strongly urge you to propose Doug Gow to the President for consideration as our next U. S. Attorney General.

Sincerely,

Richard E. Clement

P.S. Doug is not aware of this letter at this time.

Dear John,

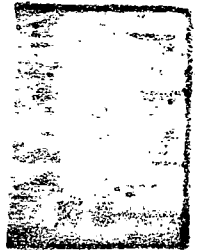

As I mentioned on the phone, I strongly support Warren Rudman to be Attorney General. He would be an absolutely outstanding choice.

In the event Warren will not be The President's choice, I would offer Ralph Lancaster for consideration.

You can see from the attached resume that he is one of the Top attorneys in the country and would be an excellent choice.

Sincerely,

Jill

Dear Mr. Sununu:

As a former participant in the President's Executive Exchange Program, I am disappointed to learn that this program is being terminated. I do not mean to suggest that from a distance I could offer advice to those who are much closer to the situation; I can, however, attest to the fact that my participation in the President's Executive Exchange Program significantly increased my understanding of the role of government. It also served to form a platform for my understanding of the need to develop business strategies that are consistent with the larger public and political objectives. Over the years, I have kept in contact with many of my fellow participants and have come to realize that our experiences in the Presidential Executive Exchange Program has affected us each in different ways; but, collectively has been very positive.

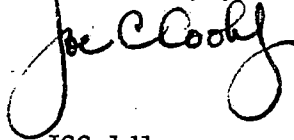

Today, more than ever, we are pulled apart by divisive tactics and a new sense of pluralism that seems to focus on micro issues with special interests. The opportunity to serve in a government capacity and understand the needs of larger constituencies helped me to develop an appreciation for an inclusive, rather than an exclusive, mind set. It is most unfortunate that in the time where we need more building of relationships and more cooperation, that a program oriented to develop leadership skills in these areas is being terminated. I do hope that you will reflect upon these aspects and support the continuation of such an important program. If changes need to be made in the administration or in the process of selection or management, these can be accomplished without giving up a very valuable development program.

Mr. Sununu
May 30, 1991

Thank you for your attention and your reflection upon this important subject.

Very truly yours,

Governor John H. Sununu

Dear John:

We have thought of you so often during these trying times as I am sure Nancy may have told you when I spoke to her recently. My fear of the media, and its insidiousness, has been justified one hundred fold during this ridiculous charade!

I expect that you know you have many friends who understand the vagaries of the press, and realize that their accusations are unjustified. It does not lessen the anxiety which I am sure you are experiencing as a result of this continual bashing.

Life goes on in New Hampshire in its 'dreamlike' state. We sometimes wonder whether or not the realities of life will ever make themselves known here. Must confess it is a pleasant way to live!

Raymond is in the middle of the real world at Dartmouth Bank, where there is no difficulty in determining what is going on in the outside world. Being back at work on a full-time basis was not what he wanted, but until things straighten out he has no choice. We are looking, and hoping, for a quick resolution of the situation.

We both wanted you to know that we are thinking of you, and hoping that your numerous duties will somehow overshadow all this unpleasantness.

Regards to you and to Nancy.

*Best,
Helen*

Mr. John Sununu

The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear John:

I would like to cordially invite you to participate in the 1991 Florida Victory Committee trip to Washington D. C. on June 12, 1991.

The Florida Victory Committee is an integral part of the Republican Party of Florida and all of the Republican campaigns in the State. This represents our tenth annual trip to Washington, and we would like to make it an extra special experience. Over the years we have been honored by Presidents Bush and Reagan, Vice President Quayle, most of the Cabinet members, and many other Washington dignitaries.

You will soon be receiving an invitation from White House Political Affairs for a White House briefing in room 450 OEOB from 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. on June 12. If this fits into your schedule, it would be preferred. However, if it would work better for your schedule to participate in our morning briefings at the Capitol Hill Club (10:00 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.) or our Luncheon at the Willard Intercontinental (12:00 noon to 1:30 p.m.) we would be very pleased to have you.

I would greatly appreciate hearing back from you as soon as possible so we may solidify our schedule. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Alec P. Courtelis

Dear John:

First, I hope all is well with you. I have followed the dust up concerning the travel problems, and concluded it was much ado about nothing; however, I am sure that the continuing retelling of the story has been disconcerting. Hopefully, it has now come to an end.

My reason for writing is not just to commiserate. I am following up a letter which Ed Woolard, the CEO of the DuPont Company had sent to President Bush in March. This followed up a brief conversation which Mr. Woolard and the President had when Mr. Woolard accepted the National Medal of Technology on behalf of DuPont. He invited President Bush to visit Delaware and the DuPont Experimental Station sometime this year or whenever it is convenient to his schedule.

The President's visit, obviously, could be used to underline the importance of research, development and technology in America's development and economic future. Obviously, such a visit would also highlight the contribution of Delaware's business and industry to the world.

I have personally visited the Experimental Station recently and was amazed to see some of the things which are going on there -- all the way from three-dimensional computers to a hazardous waste facility which is light-years ahead of most others in the Country. It is at this location that most of DuPont's significant developments have occurred.

The Honorable John Sununu

I realize that this is not a trip which would be made casually, but I would urge it as a special back drop for a scientific or high-technology initiative. Obviously, I don't need to explain to you the ease and convenience of traveling to Delaware.

Best personal wishes to you and Nancy.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Sununu:

On behalf of the trustees of the Committee for Economic Development (CED) I would like to invite you to join me and other member trustees, at a Hill breakfast session to discuss CED's newest policy statement, The Economy and National Defense: Adjusting to Military Cutbacks in the Post-Cold War Era.

The breakfast will be held on Thursday, June 6, 1991, beginning promptly at 8:00 a.m. and ending no later than 9:00 a.m., in the Rayburn House Office Building, Room B-338.

This CED policy statement addresses both the national and regional consequences of cutting defense spending. The statement argues that, with respect to the nation as a whole, the economic consequences of the reduction in defense spending should be small, and that savings derived from reduced military outlays should go directly into reducing the nation's huge federal budget deficit.

At the same time CED recommends ways that current adjustment programs can be redesigned to help ameliorate the economic and human consequences of reduced defense spending in those communities that are adversely affected.

I hope you can join us. Please let me know by calling Nat Sample of CED's Washington office at 296-5860.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor:

I understand that Carol Leisenring is a potential nominee for the Federal Reserve Board seat vacated recently by Martha Seger.

Carol has a distinguished record including service as senior staff economist for the President's Council of Economic Advisers. She holds a Ph.D. in economics from Michigan State and is currently Executive Vice President of CoreStates Financial Corporation.

I feel sure that Carol Leisenring would do an outstanding job for the Administration and the nation if appointed. She has been very highly recommended.

With all best wishes,

Cordially,

LAWRENCE COUGHLIN

Dear Governor Sununu:

I'd like to take this opportunity to tell you that the meeting I attended with the President and you in the Roosevelt Room on Monday, May 6 was not only productive but was very well organized.

My own Association has been active on Capitol Hill, both directly and indirectly via our membership, in order to support the President's fast track program. It appears that we will all be successful, and grateful, for this effort.

I'd like to point out, also, that Mr. Jeff Vogt, your Assistant Director for Public Liaison, did an excellent job in organizing the meeting. He handled the arrangements, and the people involved, with great skill, graciousness, and general all around performance.

Thanks again for the opportunity to be involved and supportive.

Sincerely,

William B. Cherkasky

RE: HAWAII

I've just returned from a several day visit with my friend, the Mayor of the City and County of Honolulu, Frank F. Fasi. Inasmuch as Hawaii has no Republicans in either the U.S. Senate or the House of Representatives, please keep in mind that Mayor Fasi is an outspoken supporter of the Bush-Quayle Administration. In addition, there are only three members of the State Senate and six in the State House that are Republicans.

Kindest personal regards.

JRC/cm

P.S. Mayor Fasi thinks both you and the Vice President are getting a bum rap from the news media.

PPS. State Senator Mary George is anxious to be of help in the '92. At the State Republican Convention earlier this month, she was elected "Honorary Chairman".

The Honorable John H. Sununu

The White House Office

Dear John:

Thank you so much for participating in the briefings and remarks for our New England Republican Council program on our Washington trip May 2.

You've been such a strong supporter of NERC over the years that it was a special treat to have you address us from your new platform.

NERC has not been very active for the last year or two, and this trip brought a diverse group of both old and new members together. We had an excellent program throughout the day and everyone went home with enthusiasm and with pride in our fellow New Englanders and their input into the workings of our government.

If there is anything we can do as a group, please let us know. (I already have someone who wants to get involved in Age in 2000.)

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Elinor J. Clapp

CITIZENS JURY

1990 MINNESOTA GUBERNATORIAL ELECTION

April 25, 1991

Chief of Staff John Sununu
White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

In 1990, average citizens played a unique role in the gubernatorial race in Minnesota. As the contest sank into charges and counter-charges regarding a sex scandal, the main element lending any dignity to the campaign was a novel new process called a "Citizens Jury". Germany and Great Britain have had success using randomly selected voters to screen candidates, but in the United States the Citizens Jury marked the first time that randomly selected panels of representative voters have been used to evaluate candidates in a major statewide contest.

Sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Minnesota and the Jefferson Center of Minneapolis, the Citizens Jury awarded highest marks to Arne Carlson, who defeated incumbent Governor Rudy Perpich last November.

Among the chief successes of the Citizens Jury:

- *37% of the voters who had received the primary and general election Citizens Jury reports found the information helpful in making their choice for governor on election day;
- *more than 94% of the jurors found the Citizens Jury process to be fair and unbiased;
- *a one-hour video summary of the general election Citizens Jury was broadcast more than 100 times by Minnesota cable TV channels in the week prior to the election;
- *the Citizens Jury generated substantial coverage of issues in both the primary and general election campaigns, and garnered editorial support from a number of Minnesota newspapers, including the Duluth News Tribune, Rochester Post Bulletin, St. Paul Pioneer Press, and Star Tribune Newspaper of the Twin Cities.

Equally important, the Citizens Jury panels made their evaluations independent of the opinion poll standings and fundraising capabilities of the candidates who appeared before them. An also-ran but respected contender, Doug Kallies, received exceptionally high marks from the panels, notwithstanding lack of party or financial support.

Please find enclosed a videotape summarizing the 1990 Minnesota gubernatorial Citizens Jury; a clipbook of articles on the project was mailed to you some weeks ago. Citizens Jury panels on arts funding and on housing were just completed in Rochester, Minnesota, and a panel on budget priorities for Minnesota's largest county will convene later this year. Work is also underway for the 1992 election cycle, with a presentation to the national League of Women Voters scheduled for June in Washington, D.C.

Sincerely,

Ned Crosby, Ph.D.
President

Dear Governor Sununu,

Given your background in academia along with the President's recent Ann Arbor address in the context of Political Correctness issues, I thought I'd send you a copy of a somewhat tongue-in-cheek essay I just wrote on Stanford & PCism. It reflects issues, thoughts & experiences that go back many years in my life (I spent a number of years at Stanford before eventually leaving to UC Hastings Law School). The essay involves matters that make up part of the greater culture war that has come to invade & pervade every aspect of American society, including all your efforts in the White House (eg. "choice" in education v. "choice" in abortion, Federal help v. learning self-help, etc.).

I also sent a copy to Andy, with whom I stay in touch. During the Campaign we had some good laughs over Stowie Carr columns in The Herald - I suspect Stowie, as Rush Limbaugh, is having a field day with the latest Kennedy capers.

Hope you enjoy the essay.

Best regards,
Paul Corley

Council on Competitiveness

May 13, 1991

Mr. John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

We are writing you in our role as National Affiliates of the Council on Competitiveness to urge that you consider seriously the recommendations contained in the Council's new report, Gaining New Ground: Technology Priorities for America's Future.

This report is the result of a two-year effort by top technology experts around the country to identify the critical generic technologies driving America's economic performance. It asks one basic question: Do our current national policies and priorities adequately address the commercial technology challenge facing the United States? It concludes that they do not and warns that unless America shores up its technological strength in the decade ahead, U.S. jobs, standard of living and, ultimately, national security will be at risk.

Gaining New Ground spells out where we are ahead, where we are behind and, more importantly, what we as a nation must do to strengthen our technological leadership. It represents the first time that the U.S. private sector has reached a consensus on these issues. In addition to proposals for industry and universities, the report spells out four recommendations for government action:

- o Make research on generic industrial technology a national R&D priority;
- o Create a U.S. economic climate more conducive to manufacturing, innovation and investment in technology;
- o Communicate the priority of technology and competitiveness to the American public and involve key policymaking bodies more closely in the issue; and
- o Develop policies and programs to ensure that America has a world-class technology infrastructure.

Each of these recommendations is backed up with discussion of specific government programs and policies that can make a difference. We urge you to consider them carefully in your deliberations of U.S. science and technology policies.

Sincerely,

THE WHITE HOUSE

Dear John:

Thanks for the Christmas card. I enjoyed seeing you on the cover of Time Magazine about a year ago, and I have been following your career closely. I am writing now about your current crisis - the funding of your trips. I just want you to know that you have my full support for how you have been leading your financial life. I know how hard it is to travel with a family on a fixed budget, even for professional conferences. My own son, Bill, is a Freshman at Pomona College this year.

If you are planning to come to the Stanford area sometime in the next few months (possibly for graduation?), I would be happy to arrange a small seminar for you to give. I could arrange to pay for your roundtrip travel from my unrestricted funds. These unrestricted funds are not derived from government contracts. Just a thought, because anyway you cut it, it looks like you might be cutting back on government travel.

The subject of your talk could be The Current State of Funding for Basic and Applied Research, for a wide audience in Engineering, or a somewhat informal seminar to my research group of 20 people on The Attitude of the Government Towards Funding of Academic Research. Other topics of course are possible. It would be nice to see you again.

Please give my best regards to Nancy. Count on me to help in any way I can.

Sincerely,

Tom Cover

The Honorable John Sununu
White House Chief of Staff
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Sununu:

This letter is to share with you concerns regarding the Office of Personnel Management's proposed guidelines affecting the Combined Federal Campaign (CFC), the annual charitable giving campaign for federal employees. After May 15, OPM will submit these proposals to the President for approval by executive order. We ask that you urge OPM to withdraw the proposals, and support efforts to establish a Presidential commission to study ways in which federal employees' contributions to the CFC can be used for their maximum benefit.

There are two proposals, which, if enacted would damage the United Way's ability to impact local needs. First, agencies would receive the same percentage of undesignated funds as they receive from designated dollars. Second, the donor could designate a gift to all local or national participating agencies. As a result, the undesignated funds which, historically, have assisted local communities in meeting pressing needs, would be diluted. Therefore, we are firmly opposed to OPM's measures, as they would reduce the availability of undesignated funds to local communities.

OPM estimates that, based on these changes, 1991 undesignated dollars would be reduced to 1% of the total campaign, down from about 12% nationally in 1990. Based on that figure and on United Way of Metropolitan Atlanta's share of undesignated dollars in the last campaign, United Way would receive less than $6,000 in undesignated funds for local agencies. That is a decrease of $189,210 from last year's amount.

The disturbing reality of such a sizable reduction is that there would be fewer resources to distribute among the seventy-eight agencies supported by the United Way of Metropolitan Atlanta. These agencies offer more than 250 community-based programs to people in a ten-county area which is home to more than 46,000 federal employees, many of whom benefit from these programs. There is no evidence to suggest that OPM's proposals are based on anything more than an arbitrary mathematical equation which is designed to achieve proportional distribution as opposed to meeting the needs of people in local communities. Among the organizations in our community that would be affected are the American Red Cross and the USO.

The cumulative impact of austerity cuts made to the federal social services budget, combined with reductions levied upon Georgia's Department of Human Resources during 1991, will limit the amount to public funds available. These funds are vital to the state's growing population of persons qualifying for Medicaid, AFDC benefits, unemployment insurance and other forms of public assistance. It has been our experience that when there are fewer public resources available, those in need of assistance turn to the nonprofit community to help fill the void in services left by these budget cuts. This condition underscores the need to maximize the potential of human care organizations to provide effective, quality services to their constituents. OPM's newly proposed guidelines however, would only frustrate our efforts to accomplish this critical objective.

The proposals also conflict with President Bush's stated commitment to empowering volunteer-oriented nonprofits, such as those supported by United Way. During his State of the Union message, President Bush re-affirmed this commitment by calling upon the "community of conscience" to contribute to a collective effort to address human service needs in our nation's communities.

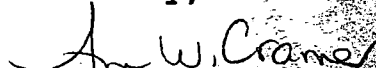

OPM has a responsibility to ensure that the money contributed by federal employees, particularly the undesignated donors, is distributed in a manner that is both thoughtful and responsible.

We urge your immediate action on this critical issue.

Thank you for taking the time out of your demanding schedule to support us in this matter.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Ann W. Cramer
Board Member

Dear John,

I want to take this opportunity to add my congratulations to you upon receiving an honorary doctorate degree from the University of South Carolina at Aiken. They could not have chosen a finer individual to deliver their commencement address and to honor in such a manner.

I regret that I had a conflict out of town and was unable to be there yesterday but hope that your visit was enjoyable and pleasant.

Hope to see you soon, and, in the meantime, please call upon me at any time if I can be of service.

Iris sends her love.

Warm regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Sununu:

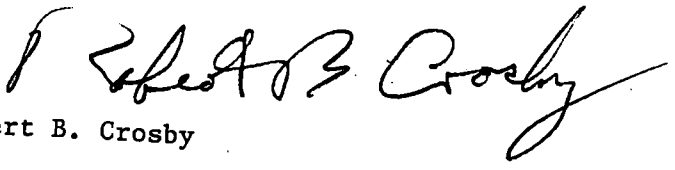

I am a former Republican Governor of Nebraska, Lieutenant Governor of Nebraska, Speaker of the Nebraska Legislature.

I urge you to veto Senate Bill 248. This bill would impose a scenic river designation without the customary economic impact assessment and without the customary environmental impact study. As a matter of fact, the scenic river designation would be imposed on the Niobrara River which is not in need of protection. This river is not threatened with economic development. One reputable poll shows that a majority of Nebraskans oppose intrusion of federal agencies. We have excellent laws and administrative agencies in Nebraska to protect rivers.

With highest personal esteem, I am

Sincerely yours,
