Dear Governor Sununu:

It was a honor for all of us in attendance at the recent Antiochian Christian Conference to have you come and address the gathering. I am a third generation Lebanese American from a family who has been highly motivated, hard working and has stressed the value of a good education. More importantly, my family has stressed the value of "family" and "religion" and the recent conference is evidence of those kinds of values.

I found your words in your keynote address insightful and thought-provoking and we do pray that all of the efforts of President Bush's administration towards peace in the Middle East as well as elsewhere in the world will have successful results. We all applaud your efforts and your courage in facing this very difficult world-wide problem. We also hope that the Bush administration will achieve success in domestic endeavors, particularly the problems facing our country with respect to high crime, health care costs, education, the drug problem, the homeless and the economy.

I enjoyed meeting your lovely wife, Nancy, and your wonderful parents at the recent meeting. Miss Sally Abodeely, who is my mother's second cousin, has often spoken of your wonderful family and your wonderful acquaintance and I am happy to have had the opportunity to finally meet you and your family.

Best of luck to you in your endeavors.

Yours truly,

Joyce A. Nader

Dear John:

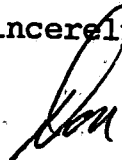

Thank you for joining our Republican Policy Luncheon yesterday, and your request of support for MFN for China was very timely as the results of the vote last evening indicated.

Enclosed is a copy of a letter signed by Republican colleagues elected to leadership positions who support me as Chairman of the 1992 Platform Committee.

I would be honored to serve in that capacity and certainly would enjoy working with you to form an excellent platform and foundation for a successful election in 1992, as well as building our base and party in the years ahead.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

DON NICKLES

Dear John:

You were great to arrange the President's visit to Mount Rushmore and all of America benefitted from his presence and his remarks.

He has many more pictures than walls to hang them on, I know, but this shot of the President at the foot of Mount Rushmore seemed to us to be extraordinary and I thought he might like a memento of how we used it.

Best wishes to you. Let me know if I can be helpful in any way at any time.

Cordially,

Dear Governor:

A good navigator can survive any storm. as you will. Remember: justice is elusive but often prevails.

Set aside the "slings and arrows" and go about your service to your country knowing in your heart that you have done your best where it counted.

June 17, 1991

Dear John,

I want to thank you for my appointment to the President's Commission on the future of international broadcasting; I know all such appointments are problematic to the appointer -- Lincoln once said every time he appoints a man to a job he makes one friend and five enemies -- and one way I'll thank you is to do my best to produce work that is a credit to the administration.

I am also writing to tell you of my support for Richard Rosenbaum for the vacancy on the Second Circuit Court of Appeals. Dick is a man of extraordinary experience, ability and judgement who has been a highly respected political force in this fractious state for more than a quarter century. His work as a Republican leader is well known and rightly admired, as is his record as a Justice of the Supreme Court of New York. But the Rosenbaum I like best is the one who has for many years given strong rhetorical and practical support to so many of the views so deeply held by conservatives, such as support for the death penalty, abolishment of the state Parole board, support for lower taxes -- when coming out, early in the '80's, against high state inheritance taxes he bluntly declared, "A man ought to be able to leave his farm to his wife without paying taxes", a statement which made this incipient conservative sit up and take notice -- support for reducing the size of government, and opposition to Medicaid funding for abortions.

I've known Dick personally since I moved back to New York two years ago, but because he's been such a presence in this state I feel I've known him longer. Most politically aware New Yorkers probably feel the same. He helped bring the state party through the rough shoals of the '60's, '70's and '80's -- through the rise of modern liberalism New York style, through Vietnam and Watergate and the past decade's right-left disagreements. And rarely have these tensions been worked out, soothed and straddled with as much civility, good grace and leavening humor. (A Rosenbaum moment: years ago at one of the Republican National Conventions, Dick, as a Republican leader who was more of the Bush persuasion than the Reagan persuasion, saw that the latter's supporters had arranged a rousing chant. One side of the hall would shout

Reagan! The southwestern state would answer with a full roared, "Ole!" Dick watched, and signalled his troops.
suddenly someone in the back of the hall was bellowing
"Reagan!", and the New Yorkers in the gallery were answering,
"Oy vey!" I tell fellow conservatives that surely a man of such good natured battle deserves not only our high regard and affection, but our support.)

Dick is also exceptionally energetic and vigorous, which will help with the 6 1/2 day-a-week workload circuit judges have.
I truly believe he will be a credit to the bench and to the Administration.

My best to you, John, and when next you come up to these parts I hope we can say hi and catch up.

Peggy Noonan

The White House

Dear Mr. Sununu:

Thank you for your letter, as always it was a pleasure to let my voice hear in your behalf especially when media accusations are exaggerated and ill intentioned.

I am enclosing my latest column for you to read it and of course to show it to the President, in this column I am saying that there seems to be a campaign against Republican personalities such as the attacks against Mrs. Nancy Reagan, against yourself and against President Bush.

It is an absurdity to try to blame President Bush for the inflation, for the unemployment, for the world crisis, for the banking crisis and so on, the Democrats have no issues, no agendas, no programs, nothing, so they resort to insults, low blows and innuendos, but the american people know better and they are realizing as time passes how capable and skillful our President really is.

Mr. Sununu, I would also like to take this opportunity to remind you about my last request for a meeting with the President at a soon to be date, thank you Mr. Sununu.

As always with my best wishes,

Javier Navarro

CONFERENCE ON LEBANON (June 27-30, 1991)

Dear Governor Sununu:

Pursuant to our discussions at the AAC meeting last week, we in the Task Force are quite concerned that we have been unable to get a commitment from an appropriate level U.S. official to be our keynote speaker at the banquet (Saturday, June 28) and to open the inaugural session (Thursday, June 27).

You indicated when we spoke last week that you were pursuing Secretary Baker's participation. We could not be more pleased. If he would agree to either time slot, then we would pursue the other.

Your active participation is invaluable in this regard. We appreciate your willingness to assist us given all your other commitments.

Should Secretary Baker be unable to attend, perhaps it would be appropriate to invite the Vice President to be our keynote speaker. If so, would you advise us on how best to proceed?

We've also not given up on your participation at some stage of the conference.

Best wishes,

Thomas A. Nassif
Chairman

Grover G. Norquist
President

May 16, 1991

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Governor:

Have we done something to toughen up the federal furlough program?

Whenever I ask folks at the White House about this, they always say "yeah, we should do something" but I don't know that we have yet.

I would hate to go into the 1992 election without some tightening up of the furlough program at the federal level.

Take care.

Sincerely,

Grover Norquist

I do not play golf
just wanted to impress
you with the card!

Ha! Ha!

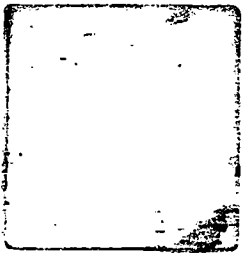

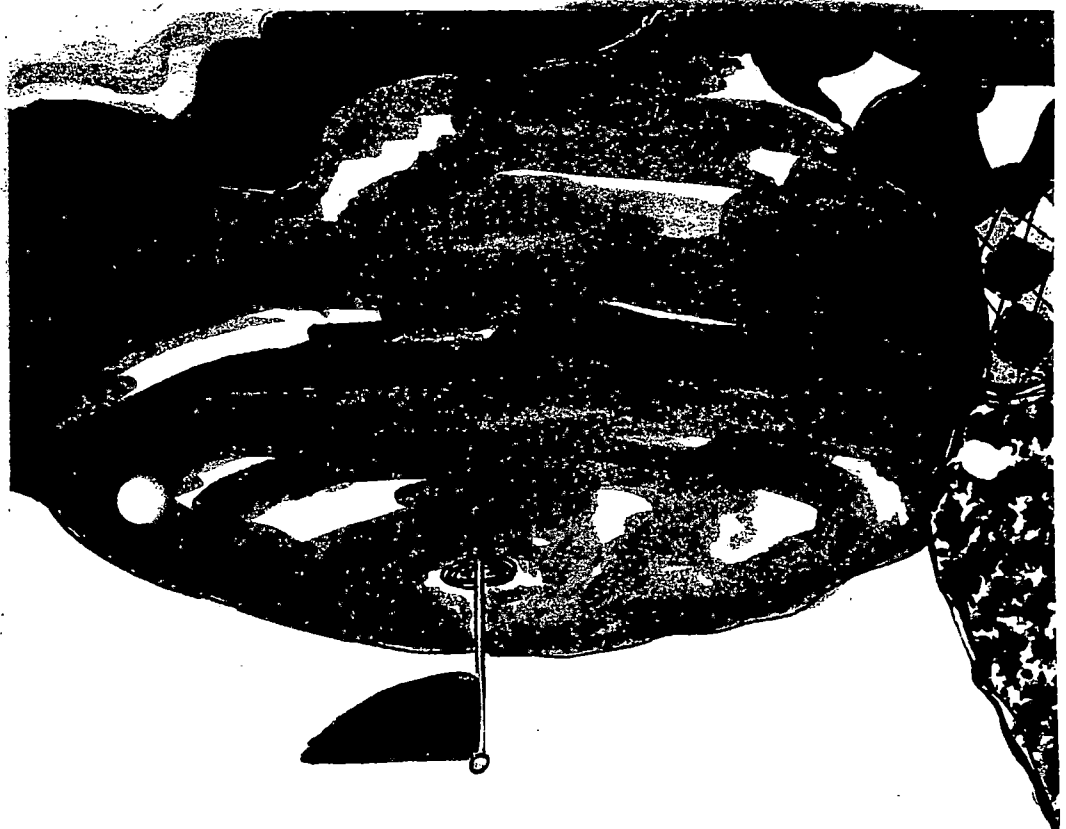

Dear Gov. Sununu,

It was great as always
to see you and Nancy. You both look terrific! 5/91

You know you are always in our prayers, so do not be discouraged about this recent barrage of nonsense! We love ya!

Thank you for taking time to say hello and inquire about my family.
They are so appreciative of your kindness. My mother finds it amazing

 as do we that you take the time to remember us in N.H. esp. considering we're Dems!! Thank you!!

Ed Dupont is working so hard, but it isn't easy. I brought him to Nashua to meet the movers & shakers and they are going to help N.H. Ed was pleased.
 We miss you!
 Love ya!

The Honorable John Sununu
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear John:

As you know, we have invited you to speak at CSFA's National "Commitment to Education" Conference in Minneapolis, Minnesota, September 26-27, 1991. I write to keep you up to date with plans for the Conference.

Enclosed is a special issue of CSFA News that describes the Conference in greater detail. You will note that we are planning a unique, major, national event. The Conference will bring together for the first time a wide variety of people concerned about education -- business executives, local community leaders from towns and cities throughout the nation, educators from both the collegiate and precollegiate level, government leaders, and others. General sessions, breakfast roundtable discussions, and panel presentations will focus on the variety of programs that are already working to make a positive difference in student motivation and achievement.

CSFA Executive Assistant Jolene Christensen or I will call your appointments secretary within the next two weeks to begin the process of checking on your availability. I realize that you likely will not be able to commit to an appearance at this point. We will plan to stay in touch as the date draws closer. We are prepared to alter the Conference schedule to fit with your time available.

With best wishes to you in your important work for our nation,

Sincerely,

William C. Nelsen
President
