Dear Dick:

Your recent letter made me pause and reflect upon the many wonderful people in our lives who are often taken for granted and who give so freely of themselves to make the world a better place in which to live. Arlene was certainly one of these individuals, and I have very fond memories of her. Heartfelt sympathies to you and your family.

I appreciate your thoughts on the recent Summit on Education, and I think you will see that the President has indeed taken very strong measures to involve all the Governors, encouraging them to initiate action plans along the lines which you mentioned in your letter. I'll see to it that the right people at the Department of Education are aware of your views, and that your query regarding possible federal assistance for NHSBA's May 1990 convention is made known to them as well.

Again, Dick, sincere condolences. I'm glad you wrote.

Dear Ms. Gilliland:

On behalf of the Chief of Staff, thank you for your letter concerning appropriations legislation for the District of Columbia, which permits the use of funds to pay for abortions.

The House of Representatives has passed and sent to the Senate the District of Columbia appropriations bill for Fiscal Year 1990, which permits Federal funding for abortions under circumstances where the life of the mother is not endangered. President Bush has announced his intention to veto the appropriation bill if it is presented to him in its current form.

The President does not believe that appropriated funds should be used to pay for abortions other than in those cases where the life of the mother would be endangered if the fetus were carried to term.

Might I be straight forward so as to conserve your valuable time.

Dear Governor Sununu:

This letter is in regard to the recommendation for Judge Pressler to become the Director of the U.S. Office of Government Ethics. I am very much in favor of his appointment and hope that you will consider him very strongly. I found him to be impeccable in his character and integrity. He is a man of conviction and one that is willing to go against the stream if necessary for principle. These men are exceedingly rare and he would certainly fit a needy position in the government.

Dear Mr. Gardner:

I'm sorry for the delay in responding to your letter regarding the firearms issue.

As you are aware, President Bush and the American people are gravely concerned about the availability of foreign-made weapons used by criminals to commit devastatingly violent acts throughout our communities. This is an intolerable situation and will not be allowed to continue.

On May 15, the President announced a comprehensive and commonsense program to effectively combat crime, with strong proposals to limit the access to illicit weapons. At the same time, the program will not infringe upon the rights of law-abiding citizens to own and use firearms. In light of your interest, I am enclosing for you a fact sheet which outlines the President's initiative in this area.

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

I apologize for the delay on responding to your letter written in April regarding the tragic situation in Lebanon. Please know that President Bush appreciates the points made in your letter and he asked me to respond on his behalf.

We condemn the savage and indiscriminate shelling that has plagued Beirut over the past several months. The President and his Administration are deeply concerned over the deterioration of the situation in Lebanon and the escalating suffering of innocent Lebanese.

We have been giving strong support to international efforts for a cease-fire, particularly the appeal by the Arab League. In addition, the President has urged Syria and all internal Lebanese parties to stop the shelling and step back from confrontation. We are continuing our intensive discussions with General Aoun, the Lebanese Muslims, the Syrians, representatives of the Arab League, and at the United Nations. In every case, we are urging in the strongest possible terms the need for a lasting peace.

The Administration has reiterated to all participants in the fighting that only a political dialogue, not force of arms, will lead to a sovereign, reunified Lebanon, free of all foreign forces. The United States remains committed to the restoration of Lebanon's unity, sovereignty, and territorial integrity, with the disbandment of militias and the withdrawal of all foreign forces, including those of Syria.

We share your concern regarding the great suffering taking place in Lebanon and I want to assure you that we will continue to seek feasible solutions. Thank you for taking the time to write.

Dear Mr. Guy:

Thank you for your recent letter inviting the Chief of Staff to speak at various events for engineers in the months ahead.

Due to the limitations on Governor Sununu's availability to participate in many out-of-Washington events and the uncertainty of his schedule later in the year, he is forced to decline your invitation.

However, Governor Sununu asked me to thank you for your kindness in supporting him as an "engineer manager," and you have his very best wishes.
