Dear Mr. Lessey:

On behalf of the Chief of Staff, thank you for your recent letter and invitation for him to be your guest at the Annual Wallow of the Military Order of the Carabao on February 3.

Dear Mr. Li:

On behalf of the Chief of Staff, thank you for your letter concerning H.R. 2712.

Following the tragic events in Tiananmen Square in June, President Bush took action to ensure that no nationals from the People's Republic of China would be deported against their will. On November 30, the President took additional action to extend and broaden that protection. Since President Bush's directive accomplished the objectives of H.R. 2712 administratively, it was not necessary for this bill to become law.

President Bush and Governor Sununu appreciate your views on this issue. In light of your interest, I am enclosing material I hope you will find informative.

Dear Ms. Lester:

On behalf of the Chief of Staff, thank you for your card concerning appropriations legislation for the District of Columbia, which permits the use of funds to pay for abortions.

The House of Representatives and the Senate have passed the District of Columbia appropriations bill for Fiscal Year 1990, which permits Federal funding for abortions under circumstances where the life of the mother is not endangered. A final version of the bill is being prepared by House-Senate conferees. President Bush has announced his intention to veto the appropriation bill if it is presented to him in its current form.

The President does not believe that appropriated funds should be used to pay for abortions other than in those cases where the life of the mother would be endangered if the fetus were carried to term.

Again, thank you for writing.

Dear Governor Sununu,

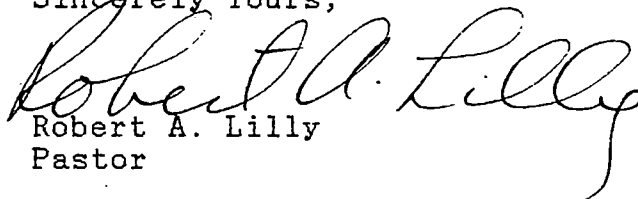

It has recently come to my attention that President Bush is considering Judge Paul Pressler of Texas, to be Director of the U.S. Office of Government Ethics. I would like to take this opportunity to recommend Judge Pressler.

For years as a Southern Baptist I heard many negative things about Judge Pressler. It seemed he was a man of great stature, who not only carried a big stick, but also used it on everyone. In 1987, I had the privilege of meeting Paul Pressler and found he was not at all what I had been told.

Judge Pressler is, first and foremost, a man who knows and loves the Lord, Jesus Christ. The Judge is a man of great convictions and courage, who knows who he is and what he believes. He is a man who will stand firm no matter how hard the wind blows.

I am grateful to God that I can call him my friend and feel that Judge Pressler would be an excellent choice for Director of the U.S. office of Government Ethics.

Sincerely Yours,

Robert A. Lilly

Dear Ms. Locke:

I'm sorry for the delay in responding to your letter regarding the firearms issue.

As you are aware, President Bush and the American people are gravely concerned about the availability of foreign-made weapons used by criminals to commit devastatingly violent acts throughout our communities. This is an intolerable situation and will not be allowed to continue.

On May 15, the President announced a comprehensive and commonsense program to effectively combat crime, with strong proposals to limit the access to illicit weapons. At the same time, the program will not infringe upon the rights of law-abiding citizens to own and use firearms. In light of your interest, I am enclosing for you a fact sheet which outlines the President's initiative in this area.

Dear David:

Chief of Staff John Sununu has asked me to respond to your recent letter regarding his background and job at the White House.

First, the Chief of Staff's primary responsibility is to manage the President's staff and run the White House operations. Mr. Sununu travels with President Bush to most of his meetings and anytime he leaves the White House complex. Many times, the Chief of Staff holds meetings on the President's behalf when the President's schedule will not allow him to attend.

Mr. Sununu's goals as Chief of Staff are to advance the policies of President Bush and his Administration.

Before being appointed to this position, Mr. Sununu served as Governor of the state of New Hampshire. He was Governor from January 1983 to January 1989.

Mr. Sununu was born in Cuba in 1939. He went to school at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, earning his Ph.D. in the field of mechanical engineering. He has 20 years experience and service as an educator, engineer, small businessman, and community leader.

Mr. Sununu has a wife and eight children. His wife and the two youngest children reside with him in the Washington area.

I hope this information is helpful and it comes to you with the Chief of Staff's best wishes.

Sincerely,

Katie Winkeljohn
Special Assistant to the Chief of Staff
