Dear Mr. Winkel:

Thank you for your letter regarding President Bush's position on global warming. Global climate change is an important public policy issue that deserves much attention, reasoned discussion, and appropriate action. On this, and a host of other environmental issues, the President is providing much leadership and action.

The President has proposed a dramatic increase in expenditures for research and monitoring to resolve critical scientific questions. We plan to spend about a half billion dollars for this purpose in the coming year. The President invited other countries to participate with us in this research at the Paris Economic Summit last summer.

The President's comprehensive Clean Air proposal calls for sharp reductions in the burning of fossil fuels from stationary sources, automobiles, factories, and a host of other commercial establishments. It also provides strong incentives for conservation, a major element in any global climate response.

The President also has approved increasing corporate average fuel economy standards for U.S. automobiles. He has announced U.S. support for a worldwide phaseout of chlorofluorocarbons by the year 2000. And he has directed the development of a comprehensive national energy strategy.

This February, the United States will host the next meeting of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change to help in developing a solid foundation for international action and for discussing the elements of a framework convention on global climate change.

We believe this is an issue that merits the attention and commitment we are devoting to it. We appreciate your concerns and having the benefit of your views.

Sincerely,

John H. Sununu

Dear Mr. Wang:

On behalf of the Chief of Staff, thank you for your letter concerning H.R. 2712.

Following the tragic events in Tiananmen Square in June, President Bush took action to ensure that no nationals from the People's Republic of China would be deported against their will. On November 30, the President took additional action to extend and broaden that protection. Since President Bush's directive accomplished the objectives of H.R. 2712 administratively, it was not necessary for this bill to become law.

President Bush and Governor Sununu appreciate your views on this issue. In light of your interest, I am enclosing material I hope you will find informative.

Dear Doris:

Chief of Staff John Sununu asked me to respond to your recent letter regarding his background and current responsibilities at the White House.

The primary responsibility of the Chief of Staff is to manage the President's agenda and the day-to-day operation of the White House. He oversees the development of domestic and foreign policy, communications, staff, budget, and relations with the press, the Congress, and State and local governments. He accompanies the President to most meetings and events worldwide and is often called upon to speak on the President's behalf.

John Henry Sununu was born in 1939 and spent most of his childhood in New York City attending parochial elementary school and, later, the La Salle Military Academy in Oakdale, Long Island. He went on to study engineering at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and earned his Ph.D. in 1966. While he proceeded to distinguish himself as an educator, engineer, small businessman, and community leader, he is most often remembered for his work as Governor of the State of New Hampshire. He was elected in 1983 and served for three terms until 1989, when he was asked by President Bush to serve as his Chief of Staff at the White House.

He and his wife, Nancy, have eight children. In his spare time he enjoys skiing, golfing, reading, and collecting baseball cards.

Governor Sununu is proud to be serving as Chief of Staff and feels that his diverse experience as an engineer and as a leader in both State government and private industry could be of special benefit to President Bush's Administration and to our nation as well.

I hope this information is helpful, and it comes to you with Governor Sununu's best wishes.

Dear Mrs. Wallace:

On behalf of the Chief of Staff, thank you for your letter concerning appropriations legislation for the District of Columbia, which permits the use of funds to pay for abortions.

The House of Representatives and the Senate have passed the District of Columbia appropriations bill for Fiscal Year 1990, which permits Federal funding for abortions under circumstances where the life of the mother is not endangered. A final version of the bill is being prepared by House-Senate conferees. President Bush has announced his intention to veto the appropriation bill if it is presented to him in its current form.

The President does not believe that appropriated funds should be used to pay for abortions other than in those cases where the life of the mother would be endangered if the fetus were carried to term.

Dear Mr. Wilson:

I'm sorry for the delay in responding to your letter regarding the firearms issue.

As you are aware, President Bush and the American people are gravely concerned about the availability of foreign-made weapons used by criminals to commit devastatingly violent acts throughout our communities. This is an intolerable situation and will not be allowed to continue.

On May 15, the President announced a comprehensive and commonsense program to effectively combat crime, with strong proposals to limit the access to illicit weapons. At the same time, the program will not infringe upon the rights of law-abiding citizens to own and use firearms. In light of your interest, I am enclosing for you a fact sheet which outlines the President's initiative in this area.

Mr. Manning

Sir,

This letter concerns the possible appointment of Judge
Cressler of Texas 14th Court of Appeals to the Director of the US Office of Government Ethics.

I am a Southern Baptist and member of East Enders Baptist Church of Fort Worth, Texas, a separating Church in the Southern Baptist Convention.

During the last ten years I have been saddened and frustrated by the political maneuvering and ethical actions of Judge Paul Cressler of Houston.

He has been one of the main instigators of the division in the Southern Baptist Convention between the unitarians, separatists, and fundamentalists.

He has helped to create an unwelcoming rift and division. He is a person who smashes people in his way out his way only to the Confederate spirit which has maintained up until this time.

It is my hope that a public hearing be done of Judge Cressler's appointment to the most ethical position in the government.

I am sure that the Southern Baptist Convention will be able to handle this situation.

Sincerely,
Orlando Walker

Dear Son Sumner,

I have been made aware through an article in the Houston Chronicle that Judge Paul Pressler's character is being questioned. I have known he and his wife many years and they are both above reproach. Their whole family is an example of a Godly home and his professional reputation is above reproach. You could not find a more humble, loving, ethical man than Judge Pressler to be Director of U.S. Office of Government Ethics.

Sincerely,

June Wallace

MEMORANDUM

TO: Honorable John Sununu, Chief of Staff, THE WHITE HOUSE, Washington D.C., 20500

FROM: Paul D. White, Managing Director

RE: The Nomination of Judge Paul Pressler

DATE: 8/28/89

Governor, please permit my total support of the nomination of Judge Pressler as director of the Office of Government Ethics. I have, as a veteran former journalist and executive, closely observed his behavior for a number of years, and found him the fairest, most ethical person. In fact it is honesty and outspoken demand for best behavior that has upset a small percentage of people in his denomination.

I am acquainted with numerous leading attorneys in Texas, all of whom will testify to his quality. He will be a tremendous value to the Administration and to the nation.

Thank you for giving this your attention. And, thanks for the fine job you are doing in what is often most difficult situations.

Dear Mr. Wright:

I'm sorry for the delay in responding to your letter regarding the firearms issue.

As you are aware, President Bush and the American people are gravely concerned about the availability of foreign-made weapons used by criminals to commit devastatingly violent acts throughout our communities. This is an intolerable situation and will not be allowed to continue.

On May 15, the President announced a comprehensive and commonsense program to effectively combat crime, with strong proposals to limit the access to illicit weapons. At the same time, the program will not infringe upon the rights of law-abiding citizens to own and use firearms. In light of your interest, I am enclosing for you a fact sheet which outlines the President's initiative in this area.

Thank you for taking the time to write.

Dear Senator Wilson:

Thank you for your April 3 letter inviting the Chief of Staff to meet with the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce during their visit to Washington later this month.

Regrettably, the heavy demands of Governor Sununu's schedule make it impossible for him to see this group. Nevertheless, he appreciates the opportunity extended to meet with them and hopes they will have a very successful trip.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline A. Kennedy

Dear Mrs. Waterhouse:

Thank you for your recent letter regarding the savings and loan industry.

President Bush is committed to cleaning up the problems of this industry and is determined to restore our entire financial system to strength and stability. In doing so, however, he has rejected the imposition of any new fee on depositors. Moreover, he has also made clear that all federally insured savings and loan and bank deposits will continue to be fully backed by the Federal government.

Your ideas and suggestions regarding this issue are appreciated and have been shared with the President's advisers. I am enclosing for you a fact sheet more fully describing the President's reform plan, and it comes to you with his best wishes.
