Dear Jane,

Nancy and I were so sorry to hear of Frank's passing.

While the days ahead will not be easy for you, we hope you will take comfort in knowing that your many friends are standing by to help in any way.

Please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.

Dear Reverend Jackson,

Enclosed is a copy of our Civil Right legislation, a section-by-section analysis of the bill, and a fact sheet describing the critical features it contains.

I think you'll find this bill addresses the tough problems of discrimination in the workplace and eliminates discrimination without creating an imperative for quotas.

I would be happy to hear your comments on this legislation.

We all enjoyed seeing you the other night. My best to you and your family.

Dear Ralph,

I was deeply honored to have been selected as "Person of the Year" by the ARCS Foundation and appreciate your good words.

I look forward to having the opportunity to read your story about the genesis of the Kennedy Center and the role President Eisenhower and Sherman Adams played in its creation.

With good wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Father McNally,

Thank you very much for your kind note. It was very nice of you to take the time to write and I appreciate your kind comments.

Perhaps we will have a chance to stop in again the next we have an event in the area.

Until then, please keep us in your prayers.

Dear Mildred and Peter,

I understand you will be celebrating your 50th wedding anniversary this month and I want to join with your family and friends in saying -- congratulations!

The institution of the family is indeed the most important structure in our society and the love you share today and every day stands as an inspiration to those around you.

Nancy joins me in sending you both every good wish for your 50th year together!

Dear Pete:

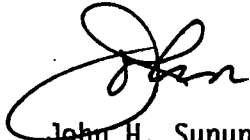

It was great to see you again!

I received the second shipment of buttons and they are just terrific! The boys loved them.

Sorry about the budget, but I think you look good in black!

My best to Joan. Except for her terrible taste in men, she's a great lady.
