Dear Mr. Bode:

Thank you for your recent letter inviting the Chief of Staff to be a Distinguished Luncheon Speaker at the Federal City Club sometime in August or September.

Regrettably, due to the commitments already set on Governor Sununu's schedule for the late summer, he is forced to decline your kind invitation. He asked me to convey his special thanks to you for keeping him in mind for this unique opportunity.

As for my name and my being in this revered White House, I can only say that history will tell which Jackie was most admired.

With the Governor's best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Baldinelli:

On behalf of the Chief of Staff, thank you for your letter concerning the issue of abortion.

President Bush recognizes that the subject of abortion is a very personal, often painful one for most Americans. He also recognizes that people of goodwill may disagree on social questions as difficult and complex as this one.

The President believes that abortion is wrong, and he is committed to protecting unborn human life. He will continue to support a human life amendment to the Constitution, with an exception for cases of rape, incest, or where the life of the mother is endangered. As for the issue of government funding for abortions, the President supports existing Federal law that allows taxpayer funds to be used for abortion only when the life of the mother is endangered. The President will also continue to encourage alternatives to abortion, such as adoption.

President Bush and Governor Sununu appreciate your views on this subject.

Dear Mr. Beckett:

Thank you for your recent letter regarding the MPLA offensive against UNITA positions in southwestern Angola.

Please be assured that the Administration shares your concern and remains committed to support of UNITA. We are doing everything possible to bring the offensive to a halt, to move the troops back to their bases, and to get genuine negotiations underway. The Department of State has made several public statements condemning the offensive and, in order to restore the status quo ante, we remain in touch with UNITA, with regional African leaders, and with the MPLA.

As you may already be aware, Angola was a major subject in the meetings President Bush had on February 12 with Congolese President Sassou-Nguesso. In addition, Vice President Quayle met with UNITA Vice President Chitunda on February 13 to underscore our commitment to UNITA at this critical juncture.

January 31, 1990

Dear Donald:

Chief of Staff John Sununu asked me to respond to your recent letter regarding his background and current responsibilities at the White House.

The primary responsibility of the Chief of Staff is to manage the President's agenda and the day-to-day operation of the White House. He oversees the development of domestic and foreign policy, communications, staff, budget, and relations with the press, the Congress, and State and local governments. He accompanies the President to most meetings and events worldwide and is often called upon to speak on the President's behalf.

John Henry Sununu was born in 1939 and spent most of his childhood in New York City attending parochial elementary school and, later, the La Salle Military Academy in Oakdale, Long Island. He went on to study engineering at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and earned his Ph.D. in 1966. While he proceeded to distinguish himself as an educator, engineer, small businessman, and community leader, he is most often remembered for his work as Governor of the State of New Hampshire. He was elected in 1983 and served for three terms until 1989, when he was asked by President Bush to serve as his Chief of Staff at the White House.

He and his wife, Nancy, have eight children. In his spare time he enjoys skiing, golfing, reading, and collecting baseball cards.

Governor Sununu is proud to be serving as Chief of Staff and feels that his diverse experience as an engineer and as a leader in both State government and private industry could be of special benefit to President Bush's Administration and to our nation as well.

I hope this information is helpful, and it comes to you with Governor Sununu's best wishes.

DOS WITH INCOMING

January 5, 1990

Dear Mr. Bartlett:

On behalf of the Chief of Staff, thank you for your recent invitation.

Due to a heavily committed schedule, Governor Sununu was unable to accept your invitation. Commitments made on his schedule are usually set 30 days prior to the event and, unfortunately, we received your request too late to consider.

Nevertheless, Governor Sununu asked me to convey his appreciation for your thoughtfulness and send you his best wishes.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline A. Kennedy
Assistant to the Chief of Staff

Dear Ms. Beaupre:

Thank you for your recent message regarding the firearms issue.

As you are aware, President Bush and the American people are gravely concerned about the availability of foreign-made weapons used by criminals to commit devastatingly violent acts throughout our communities. This is an intolerable situation and will not be allowed to continue.

On May 15, the President announced a comprehensive and commonsense program to effectively combat crime, with strong proposals to limit the access to illicit weapons. At the same time, the program will not infringe upon the rights of law-abiding citizens to own and use firearms. In light of your interest, I am enclosing for you a fact sheet which outlines the President's initiative in this area.

Thank you for taking the time to write.

Sincerely,

John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff

Dear Jim:

Chief of Staff John Sununu asked me to respond to your recent letter regarding his background and current responsibilities at the White House.

The primary responsibility of the Chief of Staff is to manage the President's agenda and the day-to-day operation of the White House. He oversees the development of domestic and foreign policy, communications, staff, budget, and relations with the press, the Congress, and State and local governments. He accompanies the President to most meetings and events worldwide and is often called upon to speak on the President's behalf.

John Henry Sununu was born in 1939 and spent most of his childhood in New York City attending parochial elementary school and, later, the La Salle Military Academy in Oakdale, Long Island. He went on to study engineering at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and earned his Ph.D. in 1966. While he proceeded to distinguish himself as an educator, engineer, small businessman, and community leader, he is most often remembered for his work as Governor of the State of New Hampshire. He was elected in 1983 and served for three terms until 1989, when he was asked by President Bush to serve as his Chief of Staff at the White House.

He and his wife, Nancy, have eight children. In his spare time he enjoys skiing, golfing, reading, and collecting baseball cards.

Governor Sununu is proud to be serving as Chief of Staff and feels that his diverse experience as an engineer and as a leader in both State government and private industry could be of special benefit to President Bush's Administration and to our nation as well.

I hope this information is helpful, and it comes to you with Governor Sununu's best wishes.

Sincerely,

Katie Winkeljohn
