Dear Bishop Dees:

Thank you for your recent letter concerning the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA).

President Bush recognizes that many Americans have been offended by some artworks that have received Federal grant money from the NEA. He, too, has seen what he termed "sacrilegious, blasphemous depictions that are portrayed by some to be art," and he pledged to speak out strongly against Federal funding of such works.

As part of his efforts to ensure that the National Endowment promote only the finest art available, President Bush named John Frohnmayer as the new Chairman of the NEA. The President has said, "I would prefer to have this matter handled by a very sensitive, knowledgeable man of the arts, John Frohnmayer, than risk censorship, or getting the Federal Government into telling every artist what he or she can paint, or how he or she might express themselves. So, I am against censorship, but I will try to convince those who feel differently in terms of legislation that we will do everything in our power to stop pure blasphemy."

Please know that the President appreciates the time you have taken to share your views.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

John H. Sununu
