Dear Mr. Ferris:

Thank you for your letter and sharing your views regarding the firearms issue.

As you know, this is an area of great concern to President Bush and to the American people. Last year, the President announced a major proposal for effectively combatting violent crime in the United States. The Administration's initiatives include proposals that will limit access to certain weapons by criminals, yet maintain respect for the rights of firearms owners. While Congress has taken action on some portions of the bill, the measure has not yet been fully addressed. The President has repeated his call for Congress to act on the Omnibus Crime Bill.

Again, thank you for taking the time to write.

TREASURY WITH INCOMING FOR RESPONSE

137637

May 7, 1990

Dear Mr. Frohling:

Thank you for your recent letter concerning the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA).

President Bush recognizes that many Americans have been offended by some artworks that have received Federal grant money from the NEA. He, too, has seen what he termed "sacrilegious, blasphemous depictions that are portrayed by some to be art," and he pledged to speak out strongly against Federal funding of such works.

As part of his efforts to ensure that the National Endowment promote only the finest art available, President Bush named John Frohnmayer as the new Chairman of the NEA. The President has said, "I would prefer to have this matter handled by a very sensitive, knowledgeable man of the arts, John Frohnmayer, than risk censorship, or getting the Federal Government into telling every artist what he or she can paint, or how he or she might express themselves. So, I am against censorship, but I will try to convince those who feel differently in terms of legislation that we will do everything in our power to stop pure blasphemy."

Please know that the President appreciates the time you have taken to share your views.
