Dear Mr. Johnson and Mr. Smick:

Thank you for your recent letter inviting the Chief of Staff to your "Series of Private Discussions," April 25 and 26, at the State Department.

Unfortunately, Governor Sununu must decline due to the numerous commitments already set on his schedule. He asked me, however, to convey his appreciation to you for your kindness in thinking of him.

With the Governor's best wishes,

Sincerely,

Jacqueline A. Kennedy

Dear Students:

I'm delighted to add my name to those who congratulate the St. Joseph's Collegiate Institute's Class of 1991.

You may now feel great joy and pride in having reached this threshold in your education. I offer you my hope that your achievement will inspire you to attain great goals, enrich your lives and, thereby, make our world a better place in which to live.

Again, you have my congratulations and best wishes for every future success and happiness.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Jukes:

Thank you for your recent letter inviting the Chief of Staff and Mrs. Sununu to serve as Honorary Chairmen for your 1991 Cultural Leader of the Year Dinner honoring Michel T. and Billye Halbouty on March 18.

Unfortunately, the Governor and Mrs. Sununu are unable to participate in your event. Due to the sheer volume of requests of this type which the Governor receives, he has adopted a policy of not lending his name or assisting in the promotion of events he is unable to attend. The Governor and Mrs. Sununu hope you understand that this is no way a reflection of the worthiness of your event and they certainly appreciate your kindness in thinking of them.

With best wishes.

Dear Mr. Jones:

On behalf of the Chief of Staff, thank you for your recent letter inviting the Governor and Mrs. Sununu to serve as Honorary Co-Chairs for an event to benefit The Sports Museum in Boston.

Unfortunately, the heavy demands of the Chief of Staff's schedule preclude him from being able to take part in the event and from being able to offer any assistance with its promotion.

Nonetheless, your invitation is appreciated and we have forwarded your letter to the appropriate White House staff for consideration on the President's schedule.

April 30, 1990

Dear Students:

Chief of Staff John Sununu asked me to respond to your recent letter regarding his background and current responsibilities at the White House.

The primary responsibility of the Chief of Staff is to manage the President's agenda and the day-to-day operation of the White House. He oversees the development of domestic and foreign policy, communications, staff, budget, and relations with the press, the Congress, and State and local governments. He accompanies the President to most meetings and events worldwide and is often called upon to speak on the President's behalf.

John Henry Sununu was born in 1939 and spent most of his childhood in New York City attending parochial elementary school and, later, the La Salle Military Academy in Oakdale, Long Island. He went on to study engineering at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and earned his Ph.D. in 1966. While he proceeded to distinguish himself as an educator, engineer, small businessman, and community leader, he is most often remembered for his work as Governor of the State of New Hampshire. He was elected in 1983 and served for three terms until 1989, when he was asked by President Bush to serve as his Chief of Staff at the White House.

He and his wife, Nancy, have eight children. In his spare time he enjoys skiing, golfing, reading, and collecting baseball cards.

Governor Sununu is proud to be serving as Chief of Staff and feels that his diverse experience as an engineer and as a leader in both State government and private industry could be of special benefit to President Bush's Administration and to our nation as well.

I hope this information is helpful, and it comes to you with Governor Sununu's best wishes.

Dear Mr. Jones:

Thank you for your recent message and for taking the time to share your thoughts with me regarding the trade barriers used by Japan to block imports of U.S. wood products.

I have taken note of your concerns and will forward your correspondence to the appropriate office within the Administration most directly responsible in this area.

Again, thank you for writing.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Jacobs:

Thank you for your recent message regarding the firearms issue.

As you are aware, President Bush and the American people are gravely concerned about the availability of foreign-made weapons used by criminals to commit devastatingly violent acts throughout our communities. This is an intolerable situation and will not be allowed to continue.

On May 15, the President announced a comprehensive and commonsense program to effectively combat crime, with strong proposals to limit the access to illicit weapons. At the same time, the program will not infringe upon the rights of law-abiding citizens to own and use firearms. In light of your interest, I am enclosing for you a fact sheet which outlines the President's initiative in this area.

Thank you for taking the time to write.

Sincerely,

John H. Sununu
Chief of Staff

Dear Mr. Johnson:

Thank you for your recent letter inviting the Chief of Staff and Mrs. Sununu to the National Journal's 20th Anniversary reception on February 7.

They would love to be with you; however, the Governor is expected to travel out of Washington with the President at that time. I'm sorry this could not be arranged.

The Governor appreciates your kindness and you have his best wishes.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline A. Kennedy

Dear Mr. Jopling:

Thank you for your letter forwarded through the courtesy of The Right Honorable Shirley Williams, inviting the Chief of Staff to address a meeting in the Houses of Parliament.

Your invitation is appreciated, but the heavy demands of Governor Sununu's schedule make it impossible for him to accept. However, your kind offer will be kept in mind if there is an opportunity to be in London at some future time.

With the Governor's best wishes,

Sincerely,

Jacqueline A. Kennedy
