Dear Mr. Udwin:

This is to follow up on your earlier invitation for the Chief of Staff to join with you and Group W Chairman Burt Staniar for the Radio and Television Correspondents' Association Dinner on March 19.

While it was a difficult decision to make, Governor Sununu has accepted the invitation of another member of your Association for this year's event. Nevertheless, the Governor appreciates your kindness in thinking of him and you have his warm best wishes.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline A. Kennedy

Dear Mr. Voight:

Thank you for your invitation for Governor Sununu to be keynote speaker at the First Annual Maine Conservation Rights Congress on April 20.

We appreciate your extending this opportunity to the Chief of Staff. Although we are unable to make a commitment at this time, we are making a special note of your request. Your invitation will be carefully reviewed as the Chief of Staff's schedule develops, and we will be back in touch with you if he is able to accept.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Tisch:

On behalf of the Chief of Staff, I am pleased to inform you that he has accepted your kind invitation to be keynote speaker at a luncheon gathering of large city mayors in New York City on November 12.

However, I must caution you that the Chief of Staff's confirmed participation is contingent upon no other scheduling conflict which may require his presence elsewhere. Please contact me at (202) 456-6798 to finalize details.

Again, thank you and I look forward to working with you on this event.

Dear Mr. Van Vliet:

On behalf of the Chief of Staff, thank you for your recent letter requesting assistance for Mrs. Elaine S. Allin in securing an award of Dependency and Indemnity Compensation as the widow of Sherdie W. Allin, Prisoner of War and survivor of the Bataan Death March.

While Governor Sununu would like to be of assistance, he is unable to personally intervene in this matter. He asked me, however, to forward your letter and supporting materials to officials at the Department of Veterans Affairs, requesting that the case be given every consideration in light of the information you have presented.

Governor Sununu hopes this may prove helpful in resolving this long-standing case for Mrs. Allin.
