MEMORANDUM FOR JACKIE KENNEDY

FROM: LYNN LAWSON
ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR
OFFICE OF POLITICAL AFFAIRS

SUBJECT: GOVERNOR SUNUNU'S TRAVEL TO NEW JERSEY
STATE PARTY EVENT - JUNE 12

In addition to the information provided in the state briefing, please note the following points.

The business roundtable is likely to question the Governor on what they view as overzealous regulations in the banking industry. It has been suggested that the Governor, in response, just articulate the Administration's banking policy. The group has a negative opinion despite the fact that they are not aware of the details of the policy.

Bo Sullivan, Bush-Quayle State Chairman, will meet the Governor upon arrival in New Jersey and will drive him to the event. Bo is a good resource for the local twist on the issues. I have asked him to offer the Governor just 3-4 points for discussion with the group.

The House Minority Leader is Chuck Haytaian (pronounced High-tie-an).

Please let me know if there is anything with which you are particularly concerned or if you would like any additional information.

im because the Iowan explained liberal in a way that didn't sound ashek said.

ll of The Washington Post report-y-raisers were "strikingly enthusi-two potential presidential candi-Bill Clinton of Arkansas and Harkin of Iowa."

and the Statehouse are pulling for representative Grumpy Fischer of le's battling cancer. The conserva-can is one who warned years ago some goofy spending practices. e right to say, "I told you so," and tant to exercise that right.

Mark Your Calendar: The Des Moines Register's pre-caucus debate among Democratic presidential hopefuls has been scheduled for Friday evening, Jan. 17, 1992.

Great Mentions and Trial Balloons: Former Lt. Gov. Robert Anderson is being mentioned as a possible candidate for Congress in the new south-central 3rd District against Republican Jim Ross Lightfoot.

And the word is Dick Johnson has hired consultants Mike Day and Jeannette Schmett to polish up his mailing lists, quite possibly for a run for governor in 1994.

Add the name of former Attorney General Tom Miller to the list of prominent former Iowa politicians who are putting together a "Citizen's League" for Iowa.

Also, Victor Preisser, the former head of the state Department of Transportation and the Department of Human Services, is thinking of coming back to Iowa. He's made some money in technology in California and is passing the word to friends he'd like to be of service again.

Three possibilities: 1) becoming the director of management for the state, 2) taking Mike Crow's old job at ISU or 3) taking a new job translating inventions at regents institutions into jobs for Iowans.

As one of the hotshots in Bob Ray's era, Preisser energized moribund state agencies and is the sort of talent Branstad needs now in the management department as he tries to end the state deficit problems. Branstad insiders say there are possibilities for Preisser to return but nothing has been settled yet.

Have Scissors, Will Travel: Branstad doesn't have a lot of time to worry about budget matters these days. According to his schedule, he has a lot of ribbon cuttings, tree plantings, flood tours and welcome home ceremonies to do for the TV cameras.

Recently some National Guard troops grumbled privately about having to wait at the Ankeny rest stop before coming home to Camp Dodge. Scuttlebutt had it that they were waiting for the governor to arrive. Not true, protests Branstad aide Dick Vohs. His boss was there early and had to wait in traffic for the buses to pass before he could get in, he said.

It works two ways. The politicians show up for all the military parades. And now the brass is helping the politicians raise money. For example, the Iowa Republican Party's calendar says Iowa National Guard public-relations officer Lt. Col. Robert King is the featured speaker at the Van Buren County Republican Women's fundraiser on June 27.

White House chief of staff John Sununu is scheduled to address a $50-a-plate Iowa GOP money-raising dinner tomorrow night. Because of controversies over Sununu's use of government aircraft, state GOP officials are being careful how they get him out here from Washington. No Air Force jets will be used. The Iowa GOP will be paying the costs of travel, most likely by private jet.

Statehouse politicians are sorting out their options in the wake of reapportionment that tossed many of them together. Senate Majority Leader Bill Hutchins of Audubon says he is not moving to Carroll to run for the state Senate from there. State Representative Mike Peterson, a Carroll Democrat, says he'll run for the seat against Republican Senator Jack Nystrom of Boone.

Hutchins is vague about whether he'll seek re-election against Republican Jack Hester of Honey Creek.

Wherever Paul Tsongas goes in his race for president he's greeted by the groan: "Just what we need, another Greek from Massachusetts." In New Hampshire, Tom Harkin was needled in a similar fashion.

After he did his bit about how he's the son of a coal-miner father and a Yugoslavian mother, one wise guy whispered to a Harkin aide: "Just what we need, another Yugoslavian from Iowa."

David Yepesen is The Register's chief political writer.

Dear Governor Sununu:

On behalf of the Republican Party of Iowa, I would like to request your participation in a fundraising reception to benefit the Party on Tuesday, June 18, 1991, in Des Moines, Iowa.

Since the announcement of you as our featured guest for our dinner, we have had inquiries from the press hoping that you would agree to a press availability. With your permission we would like to schedule a press availability shortly after your arrival.

Next, we would like to give our major donors (contributors that have donated $1000 or more to the state GOP) the opportunity of meeting you in an intimate and informal setting. We would schedule a small reception from 5:00 - 6:00 p.m. We would expect between 30-45 people to participate in this event.

From the Major Donor reception we would participate in a reception for our $300.00+ givers. This reception is from 6:00 - 7:00 p.m. Upon your arrival, we would ask you to make very brief remarks and then mix and mingle with our guests for approximately 25 minutes. We would have a photographer follow and take informal shots for our guests as a remembrance of the event.

The Abe Lincoln Dinner will begin at 7:00 p.m. The program will begin around 8:00 p.m and conclude before 9:15 p.m. I appreciate your consideration of this request and if you need any further details or have any questions, please feel free to call my Executive Director, Randy Enwright at 515-282-5105. I look forward to your reply.

MEMORANDUM FOR DAVID CARNEY

FROM: ANDY FOSTER

SUBJECT: IOWA GOP EVENT WITH GOVERNOR SUNUNU
UPDATE AS OF 6/11/91

This stands to be the largest non-Presidential event for the Republican Party of Iowa in at least ten years. Over 1,100 tickets have been sold, with 1,500 to 1,700 final sales expected. The Party will gross approximately $75,000 to $100,000 with this event -- a very significant amount of money by Iowa standards.

In comparison...Lee Atwater spoke at this dinner in 1989, with about 750 donors in attendance. Also, the President's trips to Iowa in 1990 averaged about $300,000 (gross), further underscoring the success of the fundraiser and the interest in Governor Sununu.

From a political standpoint, this event will have national overtones. A number of Democrat candidates/potential candidates for President have visited Iowa to "test the waters" and generally bash the President. Most recently, Iowa Democrat Senator Tom Harkin has floated his name as a potential candidate. A Des Moines Register poll indicated the Iowans would favor President Bush over Harkin by a 56% to 39% margin.

Governor Sununu will have a very captive audience -- the Iowa Republican faithful, the Iowa press corps, some national press, and last but not least, the Democrats. This will be a unique opportunity for a high level administration official to not only respond the Democrat's clatter, but to promote the President's domestic agenda and give a "100 days" update. I also think the Governor can and should take a few swipes at the Democrats.

The proceeds of this event will benefit both the state and federal accounts of the Iowa GOP. I will keep you up to date as more information becomes available.

SUNUNU TO ADDRESS IOWA REPUBLICANS

(DES MOINES)-- REPUBLICAN PARTY OF IOWA STATE CHAIR RICHARD SCHWARM TODAY ANNOUNCED WHITE HOUSE CHIEF OF STAFF JOHN SUNUNU WILL BE THE KEYNOTE SPEAKER AT THEIR ANNUAL ABE LINCOLN DINNER JUNE 18.

"I am pleased that Governor Sununu has agreed to come to Iowa. As Chief of Staff, he is a force in many of the day to day activities in the White House. Gov. Sununu will be able to give Republicans interesting insights into the current happenings in the nation's capitol," said Schwarm. "I trust he will be able to shed new light on the Persian Gulf War, and lend some words of encouragement as we head into a Presidential election year."

→ give a unique WH perspective on

In 1988, Sununu was one of the keys to the Bush victory in New Hampshire. After winning the New Hampshire primary, George Bush went on to a landslide victory over Michael Dukakis in the general election.

Prior to joining the White House, Sununu served three terms as Governor of New Hampshire. While in office, Sununu served as chairman of the National Governors' Association and Republican Governors' Association. During his tenure as chairman of the NGA, Sununu was able to obtain the organization's endorsement of his acid rain policy which was later passed by the New Hampshire legislature.

Schwarm also announced that Des Moines businessman Dick Redman will serve as the dinner chairman. "Dick put on very fine events for the Republican Party of Iowa in the past, and we are anticipating this will be an equally fine event. I am personally very pleased Dick agreed to serve," said Schwarm.

NOTE FOR ED ROGERS

Ed--

As a follow-up to the talking points for the ATA dinner I wanted to add two points for consideration:

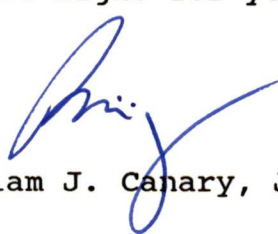

(1) Thank Tom Donohue (President, American Trucking Association) "for his continued leadership and support of the industry".

(2) Thank Chet Stranczek (Strand-zick) "for his leadership as Chairman of the Board, this year" (it is a one year term, which he is in the middle of).

Chet is also the President of Cresco Lines and long-time Mayor of Harvey, IL. He is an ardent supporter of POTUS and has met with him once (with a group of small business leaders). He also met and talked with (in Polish) Lech Walesa when Mr. Walesa was here two months ago. Chet was part of a business group that Secretary Mosbacher had put together. Chet also happens to be good friends with Secretary Derwinski.

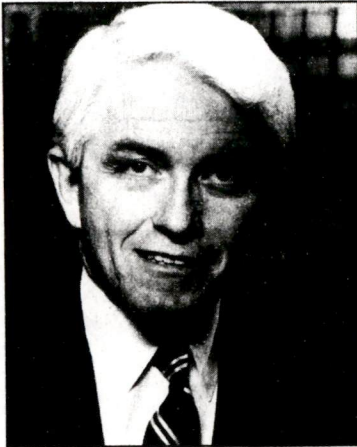

In addition, I've attached the ATA position on the "Highway Bill" as passed by the Senate last night for your review.

Thank you.

Truckline.SENATE COMPLETES HIGHWAY BILL;
FOCUS MOVES TO HOUSE DEBATE

On Wednesday, the Senate passed a $123 billion highway and transit bill, moving the focus of debate to the House of Representatives, where draft legislation is expected shortly after Independence Day.

FINAL SENATE BILL

The Senate bill is a mixed bag for the trucking industry. On the plus side, the Senate bill:

- o Funds a five-year highway program by drawing down the Federal Highway Trust Fund with no new taxes.
- o Establishes a 185,000-mile National Highway System, which was a main objective of ATA's testimony before the Senate Environment and Public Works Committee in May. That system will ultimately carry 75 percent of the nation's truck traffic.
- o Reauthorizes the federal Motor Carrier Assistance Program (MCSAP), which funds states' safety enforcement programs.

On the negative side, the Senate bill:

- o Does not provide enough money for the National Highway System it establishes;
- o Allows states to divert highway money to non-highway projects, including mass transit, Amtrak, and horse, bike and snowmobile trails;
- o Generally freezes LCVs to the sizes, configurations and locations where they operated as of June 1, 1991.

DEBATE MOVES TO HOUSE

In general, we expect the House version of the bill to be more in line with the needs of the trucking industry by:

- o Requiring state membership in International Fuel Tax Agreement (IFTA) and International Registration Plan (IRP);
- o Eliminating the Bingo Stamp program; and
- o Addressing the overweight container problem.

However, there are two issues of concern. House Public Works Committee Chairman Robert A. Roe, (D-NJ) advocates an additional five-cent fuel tax to boost highway and transit spending. ATA is strongly opposed to this and any other tax increase. The balance of the Highway Trust Fund should be spent first. The trucking industry paid 5 cents last year and none of that money is currently being spent on highways.

In addition, Representative Robert A. Borski, (D-PA), is gaining support for an LCV-freeze amendment, similar to that passed in the Senate. ATA is opposing Borski's proposal and advancing an amendment which would freeze LCV operations for only two years and tie the freeze to a study of LCV safety and productivity.

The LCV freeze is a direct result of the railroad's aggressive campaign against more productive trucks and the trucking industry in general.

CONTACT YOUR MEMBER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Congress returns home for the Independence Day recess on June 28. This is an excellent opportunity for you to personally let them know how you feel. The future of America's highway program is at stake.

Tell your Member of the House you want a bill with:

- o NO NEW TAXES OR DIVERSION OF HIGHWAY FUNDS;
- o An adequately funded National Highway System;
- o Tax simplification and uniformity requiring states to join IRP and IFTA and elimination of bingo cards; and,
- o A two-year study of LCV safety and productivity, not a permanent freeze.

ACT NOW!

Make an appointment to personally see your Representative in the district office, July 1 - 7.

Write or fax your Congressman in Washington. Write the U.S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515. The Congressional switchboard is 202-225-3121.

TALKING POINTS FOR

BEFORE THE

AMERICAN TRUCKING ASSOCIATIONS

June 20, 1991

- o Trucking is a key industry in the United States
 - 5 percent of the gross national product
 - 7.7 million employees
 - 66% of all American communities are totally dependent upon truck transportation for their goods and services
 - 78% of all freight transportation revenues
 - o Trucking industry supported Operation Desert Storm and was essential to its successful outcome, both in the United States and in Saudi Arabia
 - o Trucking has high visibility in the President's domestic agenda
 - Reauthorization of the highway bill was mentioned by the President as needed within 100 days
 - o Trucking industry was one of the first groups to endorse President Bush's highway program
- Trucking especially supportive of the National Highway System
- Ties the country together
 - Manufactured goods and commerce require good roads which the NHS would ensure
 - Efficient, new "Just In Time Delivery" methods require good highways, because it requires smooth, uninterrupted traffic flow
 - Key to international competitiveness (Japan and Europe spending billions of dollars to improve their highway systems)
 - Federal funds should be spent on roads which benefit the nation as a whole rather than being diverted to local, parochial interests

State tax simplification helps trucking to improve efficiency and productivity by eliminating duplicative administrative paperwork burden

- o ATA worked closely with DOT to secure passage of the National Highway System in the Senate bill. ATA will support a presidential veto if the final bill does not include a National Highway System
- o "National Critical Technologies" of March 1991 reported to the President on 22 technologies critical to the future prosperity and long term security of the United States identified surface transportation as essential to moving the nation's goods and commerce
- o ATA is aware of the President's deep concern for highway safety. ATA has fought for and won:
 - Passage of the Commercial Drivers License which will assure that each truck driver has only one license and has taken a test in the type of vehicle he/she will drive
 - Elimination of the Exempt Commercial Zone which allowed trucks and drivers to escape Federal safety regulations
 - Increased Federal funding for 1.5 million roadside inspections (a 1000% increase)
 - Mandatory random drug testing
- o ATA supported the President's Clean Air Program
 - ATA supported the President's/EPA emissions standards and is working to implement the new legislation
- o ATA supports the President's package of No New Taxes

MEMORANDUM FOR GOVERNOR SUNUNU

FROM: SICHAN SIV JS

SUBJECT: MEETING WITH AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL REPRESENTATIVES

This provides background information for your meeting tomorrow at 11:30 a.m. with representatives of Amnesty International (AI).

AI would like to build on the high profile given to human rights issues by the President during the Gulf War. Last Friday, they forwarded to our office 40,000 signed petitions to the President requesting that he continue work in support of human rights worldwide. A sample petition is attached for your review.

At tomorrow's meeting, Jack Healey, Director of AI-USA, and several of his colleagues plan to discuss ways to maintain momentum regarding the President's human rights initiatives.

Two points will be emphasized. First, that a "single standard" should be used globally in determining and fighting torture and other human rights abuses. Second, the President should take action to abolish torture worldwide.

As you know, AI, based in London, is a worldwide organization with over 1 million members in over 150 countries and territories. Nearly half of its membership are in the U.S. with 400,000 members. AI plays a specific role in the international protection of human rights. It has formal relations with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), UNESCO, Council of Europe, Organization of American States, and Organization of African Unity.

Jack Healy will be accompanied by:

- Carol Nagengast, AI-USA Board Chair
- James O'Dea, Director, AI-USA Washington Office
- Reza Jalali, Iranian Kurd (Please see attached bio)

Petition to President George Bush

WHEREAS ... you acknowledged that abuse of human rights in Kuwait was a prime reason for your decision to use military force and to remove Iraq from Kuwait. And;

WHEREAS ... you have stated that with the end of military action "we can see a new world coming into view ... a world in which freedom and respect for human rights finds a home among all nations." And;

THEREFORE ... I urge you to seize the opportunity which now exists and take these two critically important steps to advance human rights:

Employ a single standard for human rights. Torture is torture — whether in Iraq, or Syria, or Israel, or China, or Lithuania, or El Salvador, or Sri Lanka, or anywhere on earth. The human rights measuring stick must be the same. And its application must be consistent worldwide. If the U.S. Government, through its foreign relations policies, demonstrates the same concerns about human rights in all countries — both friends and foes — we will be making an impact on the lives of victims long before these abuses reach a crisis stage.

Take action steps to abolish torture worldwide. The crisis in the Gulf clearly showed that human rights violations, when ignored, are a powderkeg. If we allow massive abuses of human rights to go unchallenged for too long, the perpetrator may believe — as Saddam Hussein had every reason to — that he will be free to commit even more outrageous acts, including violating the sovereign rights of other nations. You, as President, can — and must — set the tone by openly speaking out against torture anywhere it is discovered. You must make it clear that good relations with the United States are not possible for governments which are responsible for human rights violations and that no exceptions will be made to this principle.

For where there is injustice, there is the seed of conflict. Where human rights are violated, there are threats to peace. I urge you to act.

Signed: _____

Please do not detach.

Sign and return the above petition along with the response form below to Amnesty International USA.
We will separate your petition and present it along with tens of thousands from other Amnesty Members to President Bush.

BIOGRAPHY OF REZA JALALI

Reza Jalali is an Iranian Kurd. When he was 15 years old, Jalali was expelled from Iran for his membership in a book club that distributed banned literature. He then moved to India where he finished high school, entered college and received degrees in civil engineering and social services. Jalali was a Prisoner of Conscience in 1981 when Jalali was imprisoned in Bangalor, India and again in 1982 for his peaceful opposition to the Iran/Iraq War.

In 1985, Jalali came to Portland, Maine to work for the City of Portland's social services division. Jalali is a member of Amnesty International, project coordinator for the Maine Kurdish Relief Fund, and president of the Maine Society for International Understanding.

FROM: SICHAN SIV 7/20
SUBJECT: MEETING WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

This requests your participation in a brief meeting with John Healey, Executive Director, Amnesty International and James O'Dea, Director, Amnesty International's Washington office. Messrs. Healey and O'Dea would like to meet with you and present petitions supporting further human rights efforts on the part of the Administration.

For your review I have attached a copy of the petition. As you will note their petition is not adversarial but builds on the President's human rights initiatives. The two main arguments of the petition are:

1. A single standard for human rights violations should be established by the Administration.
2. Further action steps need to be taken abolish torture worldwide.

Amnesty International is a well respected human rights organization with strong support in both the U.S. and abroad. Your time permitting, a brief meeting with Healey and O'Dea would be effective in reinforcing the President's leadership position in the area of human rights. Let me know how you wish to proceed.

The human rights measuring stick must be the same. And its application must be consistent worldwide. If the U.S. Government through its foreign relations policies, demonstrates the same concerns about human rights in all countries -- both friends and foes -- we will be making an impact on the lives of victims long before these abuses reach a crisis stage.

Take action steps to abolish torture worldwide. The crisis in the Gulf clearly showed that human rights violations when ignored are a powderkeg. If we allow massive abuses of human rights to go unchallenged for too long, the perpetrator may believe -- as Saddam Hussein had every reason to -- that he will be free to commit even more outrageous acts, including violating the sovereign rights of other nations. You, as President, can -- and must -- set the tone by openly speaking out against torture anywhere it is discovered. You must make it clear that good relations with the United States are not possible for governments which are responsible for human rights violations and that no exceptions will be made to this principle.

For where there is injustice, there is the seed of conflict.

Where human rights are violated, there are threats to peace.

We urge you to act.

After discussing the Thomas nomination with four Hispanic Bar organizations, they are very receptive to the idea of meeting with you to discuss their thoughts and what positions they are contemplating.

I have an excellent relationship with these leaders and my sense is that by providing them access to dialogue with you, we will have an excellent opportunity to ensure neutrality, or possibly even snag an endorsement.

The groups are : The Mexican American Bar Association
The Hispanic National Bar Association
Los Abogados
The Cuban American Bar Association

I would like to propose a small meeting in your office on July 23, 1991.

Please advise.

MEMORANDUM FOR GOVERNOR SUNUNU

THROUGH: FRED McCLURE, ^{for} ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT FOR LEGISLATIVE AFFAIRS

FROM: ARNIE HAVENS, SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT FOR LEGISLATIVE AFFAIRS

SUBJECT: Talking Points for Surface Transportation
Reauthorization

I want to thank all of you for coming down today to talk about the surface transportation legislation being considered by the Public Works and Transportation Committee.

Although the legislation was introduced only a week ago today, it seems to be on a very fast track. The Public Works Committee is scheduled to complete its mark up today. Despite the fact that Chairman Dan Rostenkowski (D-IL) has asked the Speaker for a full week to draft the tax package that is being pushed by the leadership at the Public Works Committee, it appears that the Speaker intends to bring this bill with a 5 cent per gallon tax increase up on the House floor before the August recess.

I want to underscore several points made by Secretary Skinner here today and in his letter to Public Works Committee Chairman Bob Roe (D-NJ).

The President is committed to enactment of a comprehensive surface transportation law this year. As part of his domestic legislative agenda the Department of Transportation submitted a proposal to the Congress early this year.

This proposal contains many important reforms. It provides a commitment to a strong transportation infrastructure increasing the highway obligation limitation by 39 percent over a five year period. And it does this without the need for a new gas tax increase.

By comparison, the legislation fashioned by the leadership of the Public Works Committee;

- * Does not contain most of the policy reforms from our surface transportation proposal;
- * In its current form it is violative of the budget agreement;
- * Presumes a five cent increase in the gas tax to help fund this $153 billion package.

AC sat
in for JHS 7-25-91

Let there be no misunderstanding, the bill before the Public Works Committee is seriously flawed and is not acceptable to the President in its current form. As for the gas tax increase, the President has stated on a number of occasions including as recently as yesterday, that he believes a gas tax increase is a bad idea at a time when the economy is in the early steps of a recovery and because it is inconsistent with the principles of last year's budget agreement. For these reasons, he has indicated that he will veto any surface transportation legislation that contains such a tax increase.

Dissuading the Democratic leadership in the House and many Members who have been promised demonstrative projects to oppose this nickel gas tax increase will not be easy. This is particularly true because we are assuming the Speaker and the Rules Committee will not permit the House to have a separate up or down vote on the gas tax issue.

Under the circumstances, we really need your help over the next several days to communicate to Members your opposition to this proposal by the Public Works Committee.

Based on the timing of this issue, it's our judgement that the focus must be on opposing the gas tax increase in this legislation.

Our goal with your support and assistance is twofold. First, obtaining votes in opposition to a gas tax increase in the Ways and Means Committee which would block a gas tax increase from being favorably reported by that Committee. Second, obtaining 146 votes in the House against the bill on final passage so that the President's veto could be sustained.

We think that by marshalling our resources and with your good efforts these two goals are achievable.

Once we achieve these two goals we feel we will be in a stronger position to negotiate a surface transportation bill which we all enthusiastically support.

Thanks again for your interest and willingness to help the President on this key issue.

An Introduction to HANAC

Current Programs
and Activities

Hellenic American Neighborhood Action Committee, Inc. .

HANAC is a nonprofit service organization originally formed in 1972 to service the needs of the Greek -American community of New York City. Based upon its performance and record of service the agency has since emerged as a major multiservice organization providing a wide range of programs to the general community at sites throughout the city. Projects currently sponsored include:

Senior Citizens services: Senior Citizens centers providing hot meals, recreation, and social services on a daily basis; employment and training services; preparation and delivery of meals for the homebound; recreation programs in local communities.

Employment services: Job development and placement services; vocational counseling and rehabilitation; programs of service to special populations including ex-substance abusers, welfare population, dislocated workers, work release prison inmates, and the limited English-speaking.

Education and training services: Adult literacy, English-As-A-Second Language, citizenship, remedial and basic education classes; computer and higher level skills training.

Youth services: Afterschool and evening recreation centers; tutorial programs; computer-assisted education programs; team sports activities; employment enhancement, job development and training placement; summer youth employment.

Substance Abuse: Treatment, prevention, counseling services.

Housing and community development: Senior citizens housing; weatherization services; home energy assistance; housing assistance.

Social Services: Information and referral; child and family counseling; crime victims/ crime prevention services; immigration assistance; substance abuse treatment and prevention; home attendant home care.

Transportation Services for the elderly and handicapped.

SOCIAL SERVICES

The HANAC Social Services program was the first to be funded and still remains the organization's principal window to the community. The service in essence performs a "mediating" function between the community and specialized services provided by the government and other institutions. Thus its primary purpose is to provide information, referral, and assistance.

The main service center is located in Astoria, Queens and is staffed with several full and part-time bilingual Social Workers. Field offices are located in Brooklyn, Upper Manhattan, and the Bronx, enabling the program to service the entire city.

The staff assesses the needs of clients seeking help, and provides the necessary information or assistance in obtaining it, which may include referral to another HANAC program or outside agency. Interpretation and translation are provided for those whose command of English is limited, as well as home visits for the elderly and homebound. Typical services include help with Social Security benefits, Supplemental Security Income, welfare, Medicare and Medicaid, Food stamps, unemployment, disability, landlord-tenant problems, permanent resident status, passport information, tourist and student Visas and extensions, protective services, voter registration, assistance in completing various forms and navigating through various bureaucracies, and virtually anything else the needy require.

These programs are funded through the New York City Human Resources Administration -Bureau of Purchased Social Services and the Community Development Agency.

CHILD AND FAMILY COUNSELING SERVICES

The HANAC Child and Family Counseling Service is staffed by professional bilingual psychotherapists and psychodiagnosticians and is funded through the New York City Human Resources Administration/ Special Services for Children. Its primary objective is to aid families in the resolution of problems of daily living stemming from marital conflicts, child abuse and neglect, conduct disorders, and educational problems. Counseling sessions are by appointment and professional standards of confidentiality are strictly observed.

Services include family therapy, child therapy, crisis intervention, adolescent group psychotherapy, individual therapy, achievement and diagnostic testing, psychological and educational evaluations, remediation therapy, curriculum design, and speech diagnostics directly with clients. Representation and referrals are also provided in conjunction with public and private schools, residential programs, day treatment programs, and legal aid.

The service is based in Astoria and services a citywide population, with office hours from 9AM to 9 PM.

SENIOR CITIZENS PROGRAMS

One of the very first areas of concern addressed by the Hellenic American Neighborhood Action Committee was the need to develop and provide services to the elderly of the community. To this end, HANAC opened the J.V.L.-Dimotsis-Vallone Senior Citizens Center in December of 1973 and the College Point Senior Citizens Luncheon Club in July of 1974.

The J.V.L.-Dimotsis-Vallone Senior Citizens Center is funded the Human Resources Administration/B.P.S.S.A. The Astoria center has a membership of over 3000 senior citizens and provides services to over 300 individuals on a daily basis. In its years of service well over one million meals have been prepared in the Center's kitchen. The College Point center is funded under the federal Older Americans Act through the New York City Department For the Aging, and currently provides service to over 200 senior citizens a day. A strong emphasis is placed on services to the frail elderly. Sixty meals a day are delivered to those members who are unable to come to the Center due to either permanent or temporary disabilities. Supportive services are provided to these individuals in an effort to improve/maintain their health and vitality.

The congenial atmosphere of the senior centers offer members increased socialization, the opportunity to develop new friendships, interests and hobbies, educational opportunities, assistance with personal problems, in addition to the meal program. Members are encouraged to play an active role in program planning and in the daily operation of the Centers. The Advisory Committee, comprised of senior citizens and community leaders meets regularly to discuss programmatic issues and formulate new goals for the program.

HANAC also sponsors senior citizens outreach programs at sites throughout the city which provide recreation, excursions, and services to seniors not in the catchment areas of the major centers. These programs are hosted at church community centers. These programs are funded through the New York City Department For the Aging and the Community Development Agency.

ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Adult Education programs are provided at HANAC's own facilities as well as at community center satellite sites. These programs provide English-As-A-Second-Language classes, adult literacy, basic education to non-English speaking adults, and citizenship classes. Additional programs and classes are provided for immigrants under the federal amnesty program. These programs are funded by the New York State Education Department and the New York City Community Development Administration.

HANAC has been a leading innovator in utilizing computer-assisted instruction for adult education programs and has been funded for a special evaluation project to assess computer software programs utilized in this approach.

EMPLOYMENT SERVICES

HANAC has sponsored a wide range of employment programs over the years, funded principally through the New York City Department of Employment. Beginning in 1973 with its first Job Development and Placement program the agency has provided programs in counseling, pre-employment education, public service employment, on-the-job and classroom training, work experience, and job placement services for adults and youth. Thus the organization has had extensive experience in the employment field which it has been able to build upon cumulatively owing to the continuity of services provided. This has enabled the agency to maintain a substantial job development and placement pool for both training and direct service programs.

Over the past decade the agency has provided employment services to over thirty thousand individuals and has placed over twenty thousand people in unsubsidized jobs in the private sector. As with many of the programs HANAC sponsors, the majority of those serviced are not of Greek origin, as these programs are designed to service the needs of the general community. On this basis HANAC was chosen to sponsor the principal New York City Testing, Assessment, and Placement (TAP) Center in Queens, which is the city's main public employment service. Thirty employees service 3,000 clients annually, providing professional testing and assessment of client needs through the counseling staff, employment preparation, job development and placement. HANAC also operates an outreach van program through the center, providing employment services to local communities.

Based upon its success in providing employment services, HANAC has been selected to provide a number of special programs targeted to particular population groups. These programs include Vocational Rehabilitation for ex-substance abusers, funded through the New York State Division of Substance Abuse, which provides job preparation, education, enrollment in training programs, and ultimately job placement in the private sector, enabling former drug addicts to become responsible, productive members of society. Through the Human Resources Administration HANAC is funded to provide a "job club" self-directed placement program to encourage public assistance recipients to find employment and leave the welfare rolls. Other programs are provided for Dislocated Workers- those laid off due to the changing industrial climate; work release prison inmates, to enable them to become productive members of society; and the limited English-speaking, who require English language training and bilingual assistance, funded through the New York City Department of Employment.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE

The agency sponsors three separate components dealing with substance abuse. The first is a treatment program assisting addicts to break the habit and enter the social mainstream. Intensive professional counseling is provided to those enrolled in the program. The second is a prevention program, designed to educate young people as to the perils of substance abuse. The third is an employment program which provides job counseling and placement for former substance abusers. All components are funded by the New York State Division of Substance Abuse.

TRAINING PROGRAMS

The HANAC Skills Development Center and Technical Training Institute provides classes in a variety of higher level skills occupations. funded through the New York City Department of Employment. Enrollment lasts anywhere from fifteen to twenty-four weeks, depending on course content, with the ultimate goal being placement in a long-term career opportunity in the private sector.

Towards this end HANAC's programs focus on advanced technology, and classes have been provided in Computer Phototypesetting, Data Entry and Computer Operations, Graphic Design, Nursing and Health Care, and Drafting, Food Services, Floral Design, and Accounting. Classroom training, however, is only part of the program, which also provides for counseling, basic and remedial education, employment preparation for the world of work, and job development and placement. Participants receive a stipend while enrolled in the training programs and are generally placed within thirty days of completion. Occupational training programs are provided for all age groups ranging from youth to senior citizens.

HANAC YOUTH PROGRAMS

The HANAC youth programs operate afternoons and evenings out of public schools and church community centers at some twenty sites throughout the city during the school year and on a full day basis during the summer months, and are funded principally through the New York City Youth Bureau.

Programs sponsored include athletic activities, consisting of individual and team sports, which provide instruction and tournament play to two thousand participants in several different sports. HANAC also sponsors a Youth Soccer League, utilizing its own athletic field, which the agency developed and improved on vacant city property. Recreational activities include table games, and arts & crafts at most centers. Other program components include remedial education, drug prevention, group counseling, individual tutorial assistance, employment counseling, and job placement.

HANAC was the first agency to provide computer education programs for young people in the city, and remains a leader in this field. This innovative program provides both instruction and recreation for twelve hundred children at several installations throughout the city during the school year. In the past HANAC sponsored summer day camps at sites throughout the city and for the past four summers has operated a daily Computer-Assisted learning center for young people under special grants that otherwise have been allocated only to major universities. HANAC also sponsors an employment program during the summer that provides jobs for several hundred young people in community service programs throughout the city. HANAC has also been funded for a special summer project to promote and develop interracial harmony and understanding

Throughout the year HANAC also sponsors a remedial educational program for out of school limited English-speaking youth. The program provides basic education and English-As-A-Second-Language classes to enable participants to attain a level of comprehension sufficient to enable them to advance to higher level skills training or obtain a job. These programs are funded by the New York City Department of Employment.

CRIME VICTIMS/ CRIME PREVENTION SERVICES

The primary purpose of this program is to educate the community as to the importance of reporting crime to the police and to provide a comprehensive support system of advocacy services geared towards and sensitive to the needs of the victim/witness. Concurrently, both program and agency staff continually work towards the more general goal of improving the ways in which the criminal justice system deals with the plight of the victim or witness. Crime prevention services including education and security assistance are also provided.

Program staff are involved in ongoing public education accomplished through public addresses, multi-lingual public service announcements, flyers, brochures, newsletters and newspaper articles. Telephone counseling, telephone reassurance and information and referral services are provided daily.

In depth advocacy services are available and provided to an ever expanding number of clients. Clients are given assistance in completion of necessary paperwork, case records are maintained and clients are kept informed of progress. Escort services to court and police appearances are provided including ongoing education and explanation of procedures. The program is funded through the New York State Crime Victims Board and NY State Division of Criminal Justice.

HOUSING AND WEATHERIZATION SERVICES

HANAC recently broke ground for the Archbishop Iakovos Senior Citizens Housing Project in Astoria, which will provide over a hundred units of housing for the elderly. funded by the federal Housing and Urban Development Administration.

HANAC sponsors a number of programs geared towards neighborhood preservation and rehabilitation. Activities include assisting building owners in preparing applications, determining the scope of work, preparing estimates, and securing rehabilitation financing as well as assisting homeowners in obtaining low-interest home improvement loans. The programs also provide general housing information regarding current housing laws and assistance to tenants.

HANAC also sponsors a number of programs in the field of weatherization and home energy assistance. funded through the New York State Department of State Division of Economic Opportunity. These programs assist homeowners in energy conservation, home improvements, and weatherization repairs. Homeowners are assisted in completing applications, obtaining financing, estimates, and housing assistance. The program distributes energy conservation related literature to building owners, homeowners, and tenants, encouraging energy efficiency. It also provides information concerning the availability of and methods for obtaining various government subsidies and tax incentives related to housing energy conservation measures.

TRANSPORTATION SERVICES

This program provides transportation for the elderly and handicapped through busses operated directly by the agency and car service providers. In recent years HANAC has recognized the ever increasing need to provide transportation services to the frail elderly, thereby giving them increased access to available community nutrition, health, social and recreational services. The provision of transportation services enables them to fully participate in the life of the community. These programs are funded by the New York City Department For the Aging.

IMMIGRATION SERVICES

Due to the recent implementation of the new immigration law the demand for assistance in this area has mushroomed. To meet this need HANAC recently began an Immigration Assistance Program to supplement its existing social service programs. The program assists immigrants in the preparation of applications and the entire process of normalizing their status to attain legal residency and citizenship.

Classes in civics and the English language are also provided free of charge through the federal amnesty program.

The architect of the American Dream. All immigrants dream of the lofty goals set by the few who dare to reach higher than they can reasonably be expected to achieve.

George Kaye is one who made the dreams work. He built his father's candy business into a colossal chocolate novelty manufacturing business. On his way to unbridled success, he is revered for humanitarianism and dedication to Hellenic ideals.

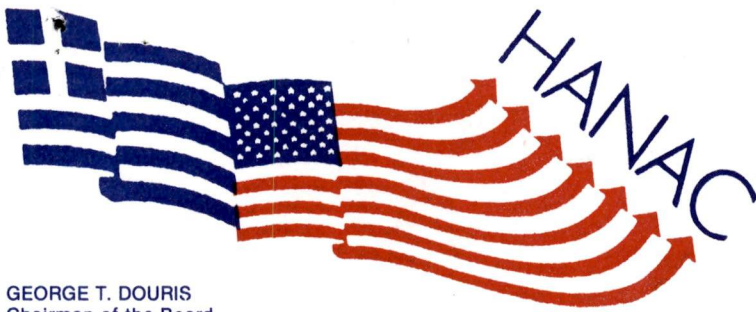

His father, Emmanuel Katsoris, was the first of the family to embrace the new world, when he arrived in America in 1901. Ten years later, he started his own business on Staten Island, manufacturing ice cream and chocolates. It was this business that his son would eventually build into Superior Confections, Inc..

Along with his two sons, Michael and George, Jr., and his brother, Peter, the Vice President, George Kaye introduced a new technology in the manufacturing of chocolate novelties that was largely responsible for the development of Superior's distinguished client base which includes the leading retailers, chains, and department stores nationally.

Beyond his career advancements, George Kaye further defined his character with community involvement. Fifteen years ago, the late Borough President Anthony Gaeta appointed him to the Staten Island Overall Economic Development Corporation. Eventually, he joined several others in the community to form the commercial Gateway Bank, which has since grown to five branches, including one in Bay Ridge, Brooklyn. As chairman of its loan committee, George Kaye has made significant contributions to charitable organizations and helped local businesses.

George Kaye is also actively involved in the Order of Ahepa. He is a founding member of the Staten Island Michael Constant Chapter #349. He has 31 years of service on the Parish Council and an undying devotion to Holy Trinity and St. Nicholas Church. He is now the Building Chairman for a larger new church and cultural center to start construction this October.

His success and dedication in all his efforts is a tribute to his immigrant parents, he likes to say. That same spirit and focus is directed to members of his immediate family - Evangeline, his wife; Michael, George Jr., and Melanie, his children; and Michael, Stephanie, Melissa, and George, his grandchildren.

It was a pleasure speaking to you the other day. We at HANAC are looking forward to meeting Gov. & Mrs. Sununu at our dinner on October 25th at the Plaza Hotel, NYC.

As discussed, enclosed please find a brochure on HANAC and a copy of George Kaye's bio, our other honoree.

As discussed our cocktail hour begins at 8 P.M. in the Terrace Room, which is on the mezzanine floor. It runs about 45 minutes to one hour. There is a formal staircase or elevators to get the attendees to the Grand Ballroom which is on the second floor.

The dinner is held in the Grand Ballroom. We begin our program when everyone is seated which is usually about 9:15 or so. We try to keep the program to half an hour running time. When we put the program together, I will speak to you about it. In order to reach the Terrace Room or Grand Ballroom, by phone, you must call the switchboard and be transferred, 212-759-3000.

We will send a limo to LaGuardia Airport to transport the Governor and his party to the Plaza. Just let me know where they will arrive.

A suite will be available to freshen up if they wish. If they decide to stay the night, we will provide a suite for them. Just let me know, even if it is the last minute, and I will make the arrangements. Our affair is black tie.

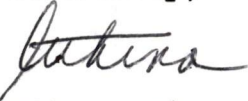

HELLENIC AMERICAN NEIGHBORHOOD ACTION COMMITTEE

Dear Mr Sununu,

I want to take this opportunity to express our appreciation of your support for the American Promenade. Our fundraising efforts are well under way throughout the United States.

We have finally received building permission on privately owned land on the main highway at the gateway to Jerusalem.

I would like to meet with you some time in the next two to three months to bring you up to date on our progress and to give you a personal introduction to our work which will highlight and enhance the American/Israel relationship.

I enclose a copy of the letter you sent to us, together with information about the project.

Very sincerely yours,

Rabbi Eliot Sherman

A monumental symbol of the bond between two great nations, the United States and Israel, launched to commemorate four decades of Israel's independence and the 200th anniversary of the American Constitution and the Bill of Rights. A place of exceptional beauty, educational and emotional inspiration for an anticipated one million Israelis and tourists annually.

Features 50 marble monuments along a cascading stream leading from a waterfall, each monument bearing the flag and seal of one of the 50 American states and names of its governor, U.S. senators and a Founding Father - a prominent individual from each state appointed by the Commission who has played an outstanding role in furthering the development and welfare of the people of his state and of Israel.

Situated in the first American town in Israel, Kiryat Telshe Stone, overlooking the main Tel Aviv - Jerusalem highway at the gateway to Jerusalem.

To be developed with the enthusiastic backing of the leaders of both the United States and Israel.

The only site outside the United States to display on a permanent basis the flags and seals of all 50 American states.

In addition to the Promenade, a pavilion will accommodate a standing exhibit of historic photos, documents, artifacts and archives attesting to the close ties which bind the nation and people of America to the Jewish people and the State of Israel. Trees and flowers native to the U.S. and Israel will landscape the site.

Governor John H. Sununu
Executive Office of the President
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Governor Sununu:

We have not had an opportunity to talk since you were kind enough to come to our Hamilton Farm for the GOP fundraiser.

Since that time, I have become significantly more concerned about the economy. Beneficial is a leading lender to middle class America and, as such, we are a coincident indicator of the state of the economy. During the last several months there has been a greater weakening in the state of the consumer than I had previously witnessed in this economic cycle and, indeed, a greater weakening than I have seen in my 15 years as CEO.

I would like to fly to Washington to discuss this with you as I believe it has significant implications both for the economy and the forthcoming Presidential election. I need no more than 10 minutes of your time.

These economic statistics are important since they represent what is reality to the voter as opposed to ivory tower economic prognostications.

Best personal wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Jackie:

The White House Fellows and I are delighted at the prospect of meeting with Governor Sununu on September 16 at 9:30AM in our offices located at 712 Jackson Place, N.W.

The format for meeting with the White House Fellows is strictly "off the record" and opening remarks by the speaker are usually followed by an informal question and answer period.

I am enclosing a copy of The White House Fellowships brochure and short biographical sketches on the 1991-92 White House Fellows. In addition, I am including a list of the Fellows' government assignments in Washington.

Please thank the Governor for agreeing to meet with us. We look forward to seeing him on September 16.

Sincerely,

Lynne J. Walker
Education Director

Betsy L. Anderson
New York, New York

Betsy L. Anderson, 34, is a corporate attorney at Davis Polk & Wardwell in New York, New York, where she worked on domestic and international financing transactions in the firm's New York and London offices. Anderson joined Davis Polk after serving two years as a law clerk for the Honorable Charles S. Haight, Jr., United States District Judge for the Southern District of New York. Born in Eagle River, Wisconsin, she earned her bachelor's degree from the John Hopkins University, and was Deputy Director of Investigation for the Public Defender Service for the District of Columbia during and following her university studies. A Rhodes Scholar, she received a bachelor's and a master's degree in Jurisprudence from Oxford University and a law degree from the Yale Law School. Anderson's philanthropic work includes coaching disabled athletes for the Special Olympics and helping renovate buildings on the Lower East Side of Manhattan to provide housing for low-income families. She is affiliated with the Oxford Society and the American-South African Scholarship Association.

Joseph S. Broz
Evergreen, Colorado

Joseph S. Broz, 34, is a physicist and technology consultant. Raised in Colorado, he received his bachelor's degree in physics from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Cambridge and obtained his Ph.D. in theoretical physics from the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Zurich, specializing in the theory of magnetic nucleation. As an undergraduate, he founded an energy research consulting practice where he developed five patent-applied operating methods for enhancing oil recovery from depleted petroleum reservoirs. He was also awarded a U.S. patent for an environmental safety illumination system. In 1985, Broz assisted in founding a joint U.S.-French company for the production of ultraporous membranes utilized in semiconductor manufacturing. He served as Scientific Advisory Board Chairman and co-directed product research until the public underwriting in New York in early 1989. He was a volunteer member on the Board of Directors of JOIN, a program which assists juveniles on probation with the Denver Juvenile Court.

William B. Caldwell IV
Columbus, Georgia

William B. Caldwell IV, 37, is a Major in the United States Army serving the 82d Airborne Division. Born in Columbus, Georgia, he earned a bachelor's degree in engineering from the U.S. Military Academy, West Point where he was a Cadet Corps Deputy Brigade Commander. Caldwell earned a master's degree in systems technology from the Naval Postgraduate School and in combined operations from the School of Advanced Military Studies. The Chief of War Plans in the 82d Airborne Division, he was the primary planner and participant in Operation Just Cause, combat operations in Panama. In August 1990, as Battalion Executive Officer, Caldwell was second in command of one of the first units deployed to Saudi Arabia. During Operation Desert Storm, he was the Brigade Operations Officer for a 3200-person task force during its combat mission in Iraq. Caldwell's honors include the Hanawald Award for Leadership, the Master Tactician Award, and the Bronze Star from the Gulf War. He is also a volunteer guest speaker and group leader for adoptive parent groups.

Margarita H. Colmenares
Los Angeles, California

Margarita H. Colmenares, 33, is an Executive-on-Loan from Chevron to the Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers (SHPE), where she is completing her second term as national president. SHPE is a non-profit organization which provides mentors and financial assistance to students pursuing engineering and science careers. Born in Sacramento, she received her B.S. degree in civil engineering from Stanford University. As an environmental engineer, she has reviewed and implemented air, water and hazardous waste environmental regulations. Colmenares is a board member of the National Coalition of Engineering Societies for Pre-College Mathematics & Science Education involved in a project to recruit 100,000 engineers into the classroom, and is an advisory committee member for the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Colmenares keynotes throughout the U.S. on the importance of raising technical literacy. She has participated in Leadership America, National Hispana Leadership Initiative and the U.S./Mexico Emerging Leaders Program.

Darlene L. Cox
Newark, New Jersey

Darlene L. Cox, 38, is the Chief Nursing Administrator at the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey Medical School (UMDNJ). A Pennsylvania native, she earned a bachelor's degree in nursing from Cornell University, and a master's degree from the University of Michigan. At UMDNJ-University Hospital, Cox manages over 1,200 employees and a $45 million budget. She has worked extensively on the advancement of nursing and the improvement of health care delivery systems. In 1988, Cox was chosen to attend the Johnson and Johnson-Wharton Fellows Program in Management for Nurse Executives. She has testified before state and local committees on professional nursing, health care and education related issues. She is an active member of the Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc., participating in their Teen Mentoring Project and Health Fair. A chairperson of Health Projects for the North Jersey Unit of the Negro Business and Professional Women's Club, Inc., Cox initiated a nationally recognized program to nurture boarder babies at the University Hospital.

Charlene Y. Douglas
Cleveland, Ohio

Charlene Y. Douglas, 38, has recently earned a Ph.D. from the Johns Hopkins School of Hygiene and Public Health. Her research focused on occupational stressors and those psychological elements which effectively buffer work stress. Her undergraduate education was completed at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland, Ohio where she earned a bachelor of arts degree in American studies and a bachelor of science in nursing. Her clinical experience includes pediatrics, public health, and psychiatric nursing. In 1981, she earned a master of public health degree from Johns Hopkins University and joined the faculty of the University of Maryland School of Nursing where she taught psychiatric and community health nursing, leadership and management, and a course on life's stressors. Community service has included supervisory work in a Women's Health Project, blood pressure screening, psychiatric liaison for a women's shelter, mentor programs for high school students, and teaching Sunday school.

W. Scott Gray IV
Alexandria, Virginia

W. Scott Gray IV, 33, is a Lieutenant Commander in the U.S. Navy serving in the Naval Sea Systems Command in Washington, D.C. There he is directly involved in all ship, submarine and combat systems acquisition and lifetime maintenance issues for the Navy. Originally from Rhode Island, Gray earned his bachelor's degree in mechanical engineering from the United States Naval Academy. Upon completion of the Navy's Nuclear Power Training Program, he was assigned to the nuclear attack submarine USS BERGALL (SSN 667) in the Engineering Department and became Weapons Officer. As a policy analyst in Navy's Bureau of Personnel, he made strategy recommendations in Navy manpower, personnel and training matters. Gray then served aboard the nuclear attack submarine USS LAJOLLA (SSN 701) as Navigator and Operations Officer, and aboard the ballistic missile submarine USS OHIO (SSBN 726) as Engineer Officer. Gray is qualified as a Navy Nuclear Engineer and for Command in Nuclear Submarines.

1991-92 WHITE HOUSE FELLOWS

William F. Hagerty IV
Tokyo, Japan

William F. (Bill) Hagerty, 31, is an international management consultant with the Boston Consulting Group. Raised in Kentucky and Tennessee, Hagerty earned a bachelor's degree and a Jurisdoctorate from Vanderbilt University. He has represented Western companies against Japanese acquirers, authored Asian expansion strategies and aided the globalization of numerous American and European corporations. Hagerty chairs the Japan-Far East Council Friends of Scouting Campaign, the largest fundraising and leadership recruitment effort undertaken for Scouting in the Far East. As pro-bono advisor to Kentucky, Hagerty is helping the State create an international research park. He was Program Director for the American Chamber of Commerce's "Market Japan" program. Hagerty's commentary on United States and Japan trade issues regularly appears in the American and Japanese press, and on international broadcasts. He has been published on securities and bankruptcy issues, and is member of the New York Bar.

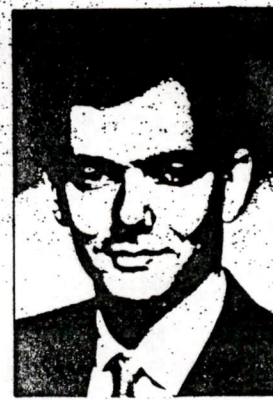

Mark R. Hagerott
Kent, Washington

Mark R. Hagerott, 30, a Lieutenant in the United States Navy, serves in the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations, Strategic Concepts Group, as a political military specialist. He is a graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy. As a Rhodes Scholar he received a master's degree in politics and economics from Oxford University. A naval surface warfare officer and a nuclear engineer, Hagerott has held positions in both engineering and ship operations. He served several years in the Pacific Fleet and deployed to the Persian Gulf region during the Iran-Iraq war of 1988. During the Gulf Crisis he stood watch as Plans Officer in the Navy Crisis Action Center. Active in his community, he taught Sunday school and led bible study sessions in the Lutheran Church. While stationed in San Francisco in 1989, he was awarded the Humanitarian Service Medal for his contributions to the earthquake rescue operations after the October disaster. He is actively involved in his family farming partnership in North Dakota, and recently served on the 1990 Fitzgerald Scholarship selection board at the U.S. Naval Academy.

Patrick T. Harker
Cherry Hill, New Jersey

Patrick T. Harker, 32, is Professor of Decision Sciences at the Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania and the director of the Fishman-Davidson Center for the Study of Service Sector. The Chief of Staff will arrive, as agreed, at the Barnstable Municipal Airport on Sunday, September 22 at 6:30 p.m, tail number 60204. The plane will then taxi to the Hyannis Air Service Hanger (617) 775-2020 where Mr. Lynch will be waiting for him. Andy Card will also accompany the governor.

I understand that the governor will proceed to the hotel where he will participate for the last 15 minutes of a reception. He will then proceed to the dining room (?) where you will introduce him, present him with the Presidents award and he will commence his speech. Following his speech he will make the decision whether to stay for dinner or leave.

I'll need a list of those at the head table and will these be the same people at the reception? Also a phone number where I can contact the governor while at the hotel.

I think that's it for now. If you need me over the weekend you can call me at (202)456-1414, this is the White House operator and she'll know how to reach me.

SUBJECT: HEAD TABLE - SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1991

DATE: September 18, 1991

In regards to those individuals who will be seated at the head table, the following individuals have been invited to join us:

John & Jean DeGoes (Supt - East Providence, RI & Vice Pres)
Dick & Pam Marx (Supt - Calais, Me & Past Pres)
Tom & Helen Cullen (Supt - Milford, MA & Program Chair)
Linc & Marge Lynch (Supt - Avon, MA & Exec Dir)
Ray Raudonis (Supt - Pelham, NH & Pres NH Supts)
Dick Goodman (Exec Sec NH Supts)
Andy Card
Governor Sununu
Ed & Pam Melanson

I reviewed the time that Linc Lynch would be meeting the Governor with him. Regarding the the reception, the location of the reception is a little distant from the banquet area, consequently, what Linc and I would like to propose is that the Governor skip the reception. Linc would bring him to the banquet area at 6:45 and we could introduce Governor Sununu and Andy Card to the folks who will be at the head table and then begin the program at 7:00 PM with introductions and invocation, and continue with the program as we had previously discussed.

Unless I hear differently from you, I will run with this change.

Thank you for your assistance.

SUBJECT: GOVERNOR SUNUNU - NEASS PRESIDENT'S AWARD INTRODUCTION

DATE: September 11, 1991

The attached is how I propose to introduce Governor Sununu. If there is anything that you think I should include or exclude, please do not hesitate to let me know.

As I stated to you, Lincoln Lynch, Executive Director of the New England Superintendents Association will meet the Governor at the Hyannis Airport at approximately 6:30 PM. He informs me that it is only a 15 minute drive to the Cape Plaza Hotel.

The award banquet is scheduled to begin at 7:00 PM. I propose to have the invocation at 7:00 PM, and then I will introduce the head table. Following these introductions, I will introduce Governor Sununu. As you are able to read, my introduction should not take more than five minutes. Governor Sununu will then have as much time as he would like for his remarks.

Following Governor Sununu's remarks, dinner will be served. If he wishes to stay, he is certainly invited to do so. If he decides to leave, that is fine. Lincoln Lynch will transport him to the Hyannis Airport.

I believe that about covers it. If it does not, please let me know.

Thank you for all of your assistance!

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER - EQUAL EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

JOHN SUNUNU PRESIDENT'S AWARD INTRODUCTION

The recipient of this year's President's Award of the New England Association of School Superintendents was selected to receive this award because no other Governor or indeed, any public figure in the history of the state of New Hampshire, has left such a positive long lasting legacy on improving education in the state. What Governor Sununu did was to recognize early on that to impact positive changes in New Hampshire education, the infrastructure had to be addressed. The infrastructure in New Hampshire addressed by Governor Sununu was the total kindergarten through the university system.

On the national scene as the Chairman of the Task Force on Technology subcommittee of the National Governor's Association in 1986, Governor Sununu was instrumental in the formation of the partnership between the National Governor's Association and the United States Department of Education to place into practice specific education reforms cited by the National Governor's Association in its 1987 report "Time For Results". Sixteen school districts from eight states were selected to put into practice the education reforms. The project was for a five year duration, ending in 1991. A final report on this project will be published later this year by the United States Department of Education.

Governor Sununu introduced and implemented the idea of taking technology used in business into the schools to enhance each teacher's ability to teach. The program was called the Governor's Initiatives for Excellence in Education. He proposed and the legislature supported this program and raised approximately 8 million dollars. Most of you are probably familiar with the computer component of the program. Approximately 4,000 computers were provided to New Hampshire teachers.

One additional program begun during Governor Sununu's last year in office was the New Hampshire Alliance for Effective Schools in which a coalition of the Governor's Office, the State Board of Education, the State Department of Education, the New Hampshire School Board's Association, the New Hampshire School Administrator's Association, the New Hampshire Principal's Association, The New Hampshire Teachers Association, The New Hampshire Federation of Teachers, New Hampshire Congress of Parents & Teachers, New Hampshire School Volunteer Program, Council of Business -

Industry Leaders for Education, Business & Industry Association, the New Hampshire Charitable Trust, the University System of New Hampshire, and Legislative Leaders. The Alliance made possible the development of the School Improvement Program, now in its third year, a proven model for school restructuring.

The Governor in implementing these programs, worked through the use of the so called "establishment" to achieve these dramatic programs. He worked with two fellows you know very well. Dr. Robert Brunelle, who at that time was Commissioner of Education, became the Executive Director of the Governor's Initiatives Program and his successor, former Commissioner Dr. John MacDonald, now Deputy Secretary of Education for Elementary and Secondary Education as a moving force in the Alliance for Effective Schools.

The testimony to Governor Sununu's enlightened leadership is that these programs continue today, years after he left the Governor's office for Washington. As President Bush and Secretary of Education Alexander take aim on education with "America 2000", the programs that Governor Sununu introduced to New Hampshire during his tenure in office will serve as excellent models for encouraging and fostering lasting change in education.

The Chief of Staff will be traveling to the Cape Cod Plaza Hotel to give the keynote address to your group on Sunday, September 22 at 7:00 pm.

I need to coordinate with you his travel arrangements. Key questions that need to be addressed are: what is the closest airport to the hotel; who will be picking him up; what subject would you like him to address; how many in attendance; will there be press there and perhaps I can answer questions you may have. I now plan on having him arrive at the hotel about 6:40 pm, speak at 7:00 pm and I'd like him out of there by 7:45 pm.

You can reach me at (202)456-6797 any time today.

Dear Ms. Kennedy:

I thought I would share with you the "first ever" edition of the New England Association of School Superintendents' newsletter. Any fault with the quality is to be blamed on the printing machine and not on the computer system. This was done on a Macintosh SE with a laser printer. I am mentioning the brand of computer because we got this equipment through Governor Sununu's "Governor's Initiative for Excellence in Education". I thought it was only fitting to prepare the first edition of the newsletter on a computer system that the Governor was instrumental in placing in our possession. I will make sure that everyone attending the conference knows this little bit of trivia!

Please note that Paul Johnson is also going to be recognized at the conference. Moments of Recognition awards will be presented on Monday evening, September 23rd. Each year three of the six New England states select individuals to recognize. As you are able to see, in addition to New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Maine will also be honoring one of their own.

Until I hear from you regarding arrangements for the Governor's trip...

Sincerely,

Edgar R. Melanson

Newly Renovated Cape Cod Plaza Hotel to Host 1991 Conference

Following a $1.8 million refurbishment, the Cape Cod Plaza Hotel will host the 1991 New England Association of School Superintendents Annual Conference, September 22 - 24, 1991. The former Sheraton Hyannis Hotel was sold late in 1990 to American General Hospitality Incorporated, which is overseeing the comprehensive renovations.

The evaluations our membership provided the conference planning committee and the Board of Directors strongly urged that the Board look for a new site for the NEASS Conference. To address these concerns, the Board of Directors appointed a three member subcommittee - David Cressy, John DeGoes and Tom Cullen, to work with Executive Secretary Lincoln Lynch on possible alternative sites. Because of the size of our conference, there are few hotels and conference centers large enough to accommodate NEASS. After much discussion at its April meeting, the Board of Directors voted to return to the Cape Cod Plaza for 1991. This decision was made because of the lack of availability of other sites for the planned dates and because of the extensive renovations underway at the Plaza. NEASS has a proposal from the Tara Hyannis Hotel for 1992 which the Board will entertain if our accommodations in September of 1991 do not meet the expectations of the membership.

The Board expects another tremendous conference this September. They hope all members will be satisfied with the quality of the accommodations, the excellence of the workshops, and the fellowship and goodwill of hundreds of New England superintendents.

MAINE, MASSACHUSETTS AND NEW HAMPSHIRE TO AWARD MOMENTS OF RECOGNITION

Three retired superintendents are awarded Moments of Recognition each year. This year, Maine, Massachusetts and New Hampshire will be the states honoring retired superintendents from their respective states. On Monday evening, at 7:00 PM, September 23rd, the following individuals will be honored:

John A. Houghton, former superintendent of schools, Hallowell and Madawaska, Maine;

Dr. William M. Mahoney, former superintendent of schools, Norton, Massachusetts; Glastonbury, Connecticut; Hingham, Massachusetts; and consultant with NESDEC;

Dr. Paul O. Johnson, former superintendent of schools, Salem, New Hampshire.

The awards will be presented by Dr. Ralph Ryder, (Maine), Kenneth R. Johnson, (Massachusetts), and Terrance F. Holmes, (New Hampshire).

Governor John H. Sununu, 1991 recipient of President's Award

President Edgar R. Melanson of Whitefield, New Hampshire, has announced that The Honorable John H. Sununu will be awarded the President's Award at the 174th Annual Meeting of the New England Association of School Superintendents. The former Governor of New Hampshire and President George Bush's Chief of Staff will receive the President's Award and will address the conference on Sunday, September 22nd.

Governor Sununu, the 93rd Governor of New Hampshire was commissioned Chief of Staff to the President of the United States on January 21, 1989. Prior to becoming the Chief of Staff, he served three consecutive terms as Governor. As Chief of Staff, Governor Sununu oversees the daily operations of the White House and its staff.

Governor Sununu assumed office with a background of nearly 20 years experience as an educator, engineer, small businessman, and community leader.

The Governor gained both regional and national recognition through his chairmanship of the Coalition of Northeastern Governors, the chairmanship of the Republican Governors' Association, and his election in 1987 to the chairmanship of the National Governors' Association.

The Governor attended the Massachusetts Institute of Technology at both the undergraduate and graduate levels, and earned his Ph.D. there in 1966 in mechanical engineering. From 1968 to 1973 he was associate dean of the College of Engineering at Tufts University where he had been an associate professor of mechanical engineering since 1966. He was invited to join the Advisory Board of the Technology and Policy Program at MIT in August, 1984.

174th Annual Conference Programs

The program for the 174th Annual Meeting of the New England Association of School Superintendents will focus on meeting the national education goals as presented by President George Bush.

There will be four programs presented at 9:00 AM and the other four will be presented at 10:30 AM. The programs are:

From Plaistow, NH, "Distance Learning"

Mr. Raymond Tode, director of technology for the Timberlane Regional School District, will give an overview of the district's many initiatives in technology with particular focus on the latest initiative, Distance Learning.

This network provides hard wired, two-way interactive audio/video connections between each of the six schools in the district. The network was designed and built with the cooperation of the two cable companies serving the four towns of the district; with a satellite dish download capability at Timberlane Regional High School. The strengths of the system appear to be a) accessing student programming, b) in-service programming for staff, and c) the dissemination of student programming and other district activities into the homes of cable subscribers over a dedicated educational channel to meet public relations and general information needs.

From Gloucester, MA, "The Gloucester Spectrum Objectives"

The program will be presented by Dr. William J. Leary, superintendent of schools in Gloucester, MA, and Dr. Christine L. McGrath, newly-appointed superintendent of schools in Tewksbury, MA.

Project Spectrum is an innovative approach to assessment and education of preschool children. The project uses as its theoretical framework the theory of multiple intelligence developed by Howard Gardner of Harvard University. Harvard's Spectrum Team has identified key abilities in several areas of intelligence including logical-mathematic, linguistic, bodily-kinesthetic, musical, spatial, and social understanding.

Gloucester's Spectrum Team has incorporated the theory of multiple intelligence through the use of the Modified Spectrum Field Inventory developed by Harvard University and through the development of thematic multi-disciplinary instruction. The curriculum supports the development of regular kindergarten skills through the use of Spectrum methodology.

From East Providence, RI, "Parents as Teachers"

This new program recognizes that children learn more during the preschool years than at any other time in life. By offering parent-child programs through its public schools, East Providence is leading the state in the effort to improve children's language, social, intellectual, and physical development. The program:

- *helps parents give their children the best possible start in life, laying the foundation for later school success;

- *is a flexible program for all types of parents;

- *has been found to be highly effective. An independent evaluation showed that participating children:

- were significantly more advanced in language development than other 3-year-olds;

- had made greater strides in problem solving and other intellectual skills;

- were further along in social development than their peers;

- demonstrated competencies that are predictive of and essential to later school achievement.

From Wallingford, CT. "Restructuring Mathematics Education for the 1990's and Beyond"

The presentation will focus on the experiences of the Manchester, CT, school system as it successfully designed and implemented a K-6 mathematics curriculum defined by NCTM Standards for School Mathematics 1989. Particular attention will be given to curriculum and assessment development, in-service training for teachers, school board and parental involvement, and student achievement.

Cited by the National Science Foundation in 1986 as one of twelve exemplary math projects in the country, the Manchester, CT, elementary school math program is a model in the national effort to improve the quality of mathematics instruction.

Presenters of this program are Marcia B. Kenefick, assistant executive director of the Capitol Region Education Council in Windsor, CT, and Dr. James P. Kennedy, superintendent of schools in Manchester, CT.

From Turner, ME. "Alternatives that Work for High Risk Students"

The six key components of this dropout prevention program are as follows:

1. Credit by Objective
2. Individualized Self-paced Instruction
3. Goal Setting
4. Advisor/Advisee Model
5. Flexibility
6. Community Involvement

The presenters of this program are Bette Thibeault, Director, M.S.A.D. #52 River Valley School and M.S.A.D. #52 Adult & Community Education, and Stan Sawyer, superintendent of schools, M.S.A.D. #52

From the State of Vermont. "The Vermont Mathematics Portfolio: What It Is, How To Use It."

The Vermont alternative assessment process has received national recognition, and Dr. Robert Kinney, mathematics consultant for the Vermont Department of Education will explain the Vermont Portfolio in detail.

From the State of Massachusetts. "Local Indicators of Success"

Dr. John Collins, superintendent of the Shrewsbury Public Schools, became a little irritated when a local publication evaluated the schools in his area using the average SAT scores of the students. He worked with other local superintendents, organized the committee for the Massachusetts Association of School Superintendents, and put together a strong case for using a wide variety of statistics to evaluate the success of local school districts. You won't want to miss this outstanding research document which every superintendent could use to benefit his/her district.

From Lancaster, New Hampshire. "Operation Cooperation"

"Operation Cooperation" is a project designed by Patrice McDonough to empower children and their extended communities with skills to become their own play-leaders, while establishing a repertoire of cooperative games, activities, and resources. It introduces a cooperative process of problem-solving by playing games in an established playcommunity. "Operation Cooperation" means removing the elements of "advantage", with a goal that all players will find it mutually beneficial to help one another. In "Operation Cooperation" activities, the challenge comes primarily from the playing itself: working together, making decisions, and doing your best. Almost any activity or task can become an "Operation Cooperation" activity.

All in all, it should be an outstanding program and it is hoped you will be able to take a couple of days from your busy schedule to participate.

Edgar Melanson, Superintendent,
Whitefield and I would like to recognize Governor Linn for his support of public education with the President's Award at the annual meeting of the New England Association of School Superintendents.
Realizing a final commitment is unlikely at this time, we would like to determine his level of interest in the award.

The Award ceremony is Sunday evening September 14, 1991. About 300 will be in attendance. We request
15 minutes or so of comments. If the governor is interested in attending,
we will follow up with more details.
Please respond to Edgar FAX 603-837-3811
or telephone 837-9363

MEMORANDUM FOR GOVERNOR SUNUNU

FROM:

SHIREE SANCHEZ
BOBBIE KILBERG

SUBJECT:

Hispanic Briefing / Drop by
OEOB Room 450 / 5:30 p.m.

The briefing today commemorating Hispanic Heritage Month is a policy briefing to address two major issues of importance to the Hispanic community. Your drop by will follow Secretary Alexander and Ambassador Carla Hills.

Secretary Alexander will discuss the Executive Order on Educational Excellence for Hispanic Americans, and introduce the newly appointed Executive Director of the White House Initiative on Hispanic Education housed at the DOE.

The President will announce the Advisory Commission on Hispanic Education Thursday, September 19th in Los Angeles at the Hispanic Media Roundtable.

Carla Hills will discuss the status of the NAFTA negotiations.

The audience represents a broad cross section of the community from around the country: Hispanic Alliance for Free Trade coalition members, business and organization leaders, and leaders from the education community, including 10 university / college Presidents who are members of the Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities.

Your remarks welcoming them to the White House and highlighting the President's commitment to these issues will reinforce our outreach. Perhaps you could take a question or two if your schedule permits.

* We would like you to briefly meet 2 Hispanic Alliance for Free Trade board members and the Executive Director of the Alliance in the holding room prior to your introduction. Your thank you for their efforts to date and encouragement to continue would be most welcome.

Ms. Mary Anne Chalker, Board Member / Los Angeles
Ms. Linda Guerra Matthews, Board Member / San Antonio

MEMORANDUM FOR THE CHIEF OF STAFF

FROM: GARY FOSTER
SUBJECT: Interview Requests

Below is a list of interview requests you have received. Some of the requests are timely, and others are a bit more open ended. If you want any more information regarding these, please let me know.

* Bob Woodward, Washington Post

9/24 - 12:30 - 100:15 tops
Bob and David Broder are doing a very in-depth series on the Vice President. Both of them have traveled with the Vice President and have spent time with his staff and others. Marlin has a request in for Broder to see the President. Bob would like an hour with you to discuss the role that the Vice President has played in the Bush Administration, your relationship with him, etc. The Vice President's office has asked us to cooperate with them and I would have to abide by their wishes and recommend you do this.

John Harwood and Michel McQueen, Wall Street Journal

9/27 1:00 - 1:20
John is new to the White House beat and would like an introductory meeting with you. They would also like to talk to you about our domestic agenda. I think they should be near the top of your list to try and see.

Richard Benedetto, USA Today

10/3 100:20
Another domestic agenda chat. I recommend.

* w/k 10/4 2:00 - 2:20

Mike Kranish, Boston Globe

Fairly new on the beat and would like to talk to you about the domestic agenda. Mike is nobody's favorite reporter, but you should probably see him at some point.

- more -

* Boston Herald

10/1 10/1 115-145
Andrew Miga, in the Herald's Washington Bureau, has requested a lunch or just a meeting for his publisher, Pat Purcell, and editor, Ken Chandler.

* Mort Kondracke, "American Interest"

This is his cable television show which is taped on Thursdays. He had requested you for yesterday, but you obviously couldn't accomodate the request. He would like you at another time, at your convenience.

* Larry King

I believe you know about his outstanding request for anytime and about anything.

* "Nightly Business Report"

This PBS show has requested a 15-20 minute interview with Helen Whelen on the economy and other domestic items.

* Ken Walsh, U.S. News and World Report

Wants to start again with regular get-togethers either individually or with a group. Ken has an article about the President's lack of domestic agenda in the current issue.

* "FOX Morning News"

Another request for anytime and about anything. We should probably keep them in mind for when the White House is doing a big offensive on a certain issue, but for right now, I think Ed has them covered.

* Sam Donaldson, "ABC News"

Sam has said he will give you a "fair shake" with a profile on you. Any recommendation on this one would have to come from someone with a higher pay grade than mine.

Several of these reporters have been more persistent and would like an answer as soon as possible. They are Bob Woodward of The Washington Post, John Harwood of The Wall Street Journal, Andrew Miga of the Boston Herald, and Mike Kranish of the Boston Globe.

THE CHIEF of STAFF has seen

Having been impressed by the way you are heading the great staff one of the greatest Presidents of the U.S,who is in fact "rewriting" contemporary European and World History,it was certainly a privilege to meet you in Ambassador Sotirchos' home,last July,during the dinner that President Bush gave.

During a short talk we had then,you assured me that I could see you whenever being in Washington,though -if you remember- I had expressed my doubt if such a request would even reach your desk...You had then told me that the system you use doesn't leave any doubt....

Anyway,now,not as a secretary of Sports and Youth,but heading a delegation of Greek Parliamentarians of all parties,I will be in Washington on September 10,16,17,18,19.

I don't know,if there is any free time during these days in your very heavy -I'm sure- agenda,but I would be extremely privileged -again- to see you and to have a short talk with you.

10 mini

10 & 16 are the only good days - if you're interested

Sincerely yours

Fanny Palli-Petralia

Dear Ms Kennedy

Thank you very much for your letter and, of course, the Governor, for accepting my request. The system, he described to me, does really work, beyond any imagination...

As for the subject, I propose a short talk on some special aspects of contemporary Greek-American relationship within the framework of the rapid changes in Eastern Europe and the Balkans...

Sincerely,

Fanny Palli-Petralia

P.S.

I am forwarding a short curriculum vitae.
