TALKING POINTS

CIVIL RIGHTS LEGISLATION MEETING WITH CORPORATE PERSONNEL
MANAGERS, ATTORNEYS, ASSOCIATION AND FOUNDATION LEADERS
MONDAY, MAY 14, 11:30 A.M.
THE ROOSEVELT ROOM

- Thank you for coming today. I know some of you have come a long distance to be here, and we are grateful to you.
- We want to get your views on the potential effects of the Kennedy/Hawkins bill and your views on the Bush legislation. As you know, the Kennedy/Hawkins bill, in its present form, would in effect institute a quota system in hiring and promotion. This Administration is opposed to quotas and does not believe they are consistent with the equal employment vision that we all share.
- Because most of you are corporate human resource managers, and thus will be on the front lines having to deal with this legislation, should it become law, we have called this meeting to get your input. I would like to discuss the major points of both the Bush and Kennedy-Hawkins bill as they affect you. In particular, I'd like you to address the issues surrounding statistical imbalances, the issues of quotas, remedies and challenges to consent decrees. I am also open to discussing any other aspects of the bills with you.
- As you know, this President is committed to civil rights and equal employment opportunity. The first 17 months of this Administration has seen good progress:
 - a) The Civil Rights Commission has been reauthorized and under the able leadership of Art Fletcher it has been revitalized.
 - b) The President strongly supports the intent of the Americans with Disabilities Act -- which is well on its way to enactment -- to fulfill his pledge to help bring more disabled into the workplace and into the mainstream. We want to achieve this objective without adversely affecting the business community's productivity.
 - c) And, finally, the President recently signed into law the Hate Crime Statistics Act.
- President Bush has a solid record against discrimination and harassment in employment.
