Dear George,

Kate and I were thrilled
to hear the great news. Frankly, with a Thalman like yours you were bound to get the job...

we know that you will make the Agency a better place —
just like U.S.U.N. or the H.Q.'s of the G.O.P. when you were in charge.

All your friends on the East River are gratified though we all realize how tough it is going to be for us to get a chance to see you with the heavy workload ahead.

Better times awaits you.
Don't forget that Allan Dulles spent a lot of time there in past years.
much love to you both
from Kate and Sadri.

Peking, November 5th, 1975.

My dear George,

We hear and read about your elevation to a high post (and no doubt to a lot of hard and not always agreeable work), and we would like to send Barbara and you our warm congratulations and our best wishes.

Apart from this we are not very satisfied with the decision; we are going to miss both of you very much, and I guess that is the sentiment which is shared by most of our colleagues. We hope that the new things which you have put to the American Liaison Office will remain after your departure.

With much love to Barbara and all the best Folmar P.

Ambassador George Bush,
Chief of the American Liaison Office,
Peking.
