12 March 1976

Dear Jennifer:

I am pleased to tell you that we have forwarded Mr Bush's letters to the addressees.

During the visit, Mr Bush remarked to me that if he had the time he would make a follow-up trip. I know he is very busy but in the event circumstances and time permit, I will be happy to host a visit by him to us or any of our facilities.

If there is anything more needed, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Sincerely,

Jack

JOHN E. KULPA, JR

NOTE FOR: Miss Fitzgerald

SUBJECT : DCI Trip, 11-15 February 1976

Jennifer:

In order that the various members of the DCI's party can make hotel/motel reservations nearby the Director, we need to know where he will be staying in Los Angeles on 11 February, in the Sunnyvale area on 12 February, in Seattle on 13 February, and Denver on 14 February.

We also need to know if he has any personal arrangements for lunch in San Antonio on 11 February, and for lunch in Los Angeles on 12 February. The dinners are open throughout. I am sure we can arrange informal meals with the contractors if he has any preferences or desires to that end.

John N. McMahon
Associate Deputy Director for Administration

It may be best if the Director plans for lunch at Rockwell
