DIRECTIVE TO THE DIRECTOR-GENERAL SECURITY SERVICE.

OK + up file

1. In your appointment as Director-General of the Security Service you will be responsible to the Home Secretary personally. The Security Service is not, however, a part of the Home Office. On appropriate occasions you will have right of direct access to the Prime Minister.

ML 5

2. The Security Service is part of the Defence Forces of the country. Its task is the Defence of the Realm as a whole, from external and internal dangers arising from attempts at espionage and sabotage, or from actions of persons and organisations, whether directed from within or without the country, which may be judged to be subversive of the security of the State. In consultation with the Colonial Office, you will assist and advise Colonial administrations in carrying out their parts of the above task. You should arrange to meet appropriate requests for advice and assistance in their own security programmes made to you by Commonwealth or Allied foreign Governments.

3. You will take special care to ensure that the work of the Security Service is strictly limited to what is necessary for the purposes of this task, and that you are at all times fully aware of the extent of its activities.

4. It is essential that the Security Service should be kept absolutely free from any political bias or influence and nothing should be done that might lend colour to any suggestion that it is concerned with the interests of any particular section of the community, or with any other matter than the Defence of the Realm as a whole. You will impress on your staff that the work of the Security Service has no connection whatever with matters of a Party political character and that they must be scrupulous to avoid any action which could be so misconstrued.

5. No enquiry is to be carried out on behalf of any Government Department unless you are satisfied that an important public interest bearing on the Defence of the Realm, as defined in paragraph 2, is at stake.

6. You and your staff will maintain the well-established convention whereby Ministers do not concern themselves with the detailed information which may be obtained by the Security Service in particular cases, but are furnished with such information only as may be necessary for the determination of any issue on which their guidance is sought.

7. You will, of course, consult with other Departments when questions are raised affecting their responsibilities.

(Signed) David Maxwell Fyfe.

THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

Dear Sir David -

Thank you for that great briefing.
You are you able associates compressed one whole lot of a lot of valuable information into a short period of time. Thank you so much, and

(1)

please thank your associates too -

I look forward to cooperating fully with you - Sincerely

Aug Bush

Dear Richard,
The highlight of our hectic but most informative trip was seeing you and Anne again.

Thanks for your time - and hospitality. I loved the dinner at the Club - a first for me.

I was most impressed with your people - their dedication, their professionalism, and then spirit of cooperation

All of them make my tough job with easier -

What would we do without friends? -

Sincerely,

George

Dear Maurice,

What an impressive operation you run - what magnificent people

Thank you for an unforgettable visit

I came away, not relaxed for our mission is tough - but, rather, reassured -

Reassured that we at C/I are working with highly competent dedicated people ~~and~~ with whom we share a mutual purpose.

I want this cooperation to continue and it will -

Please thank all your troops - from Division Chiefs to the cook (perhaps in that order but not necessarily)

I look forward to seeing you soon.

Cordially yours -

George B.

Sir Michael Hanley

March 28

Dear Sir Michael,

Just a quick note to say how grateful I am for all your time, for the time given us by your people; but most of all to say how impressed I was with the spirit of cooperation demonstrated by all.

I expect our visit was disruptive to schedules, but tell

(1)
your troops, please, that we are grateful and we are impressed.

I look forward to seeing you in the future and working with you

Thanks so very much

Sincerely,

March 28

Dear Marty,

I enjoyed our visit - all too brief - I was most impressed with the people I met in your Embassy.
Thanks for the visit in your office and for joining us at lunch.
Let me know if we can do anything here.

to make things

easier —

I + was good seeing you again —

Dear Bill -

I can't thank you enough for your enormous hospitality.

The visit clicked - largely due to your thoughtfulness and planning.

Ben will I am sure, write to say thanks for all the
"homework" + treatment

(11) but let me add my thanks for that too (Incidentally that young doctor literally ended my shoulder pain with those relaxants.)

I regret I had no more time to listen to those who are doing so much in the field -
an impressive group.

Thanks for your written support and more for your dedication and obvious effectiveness for this Agency -

Dear Friend, (Perhaps this is too informal but this is how I feel.)

Thank you for your enormous hospitality.

I came home feeling deeply about the importance of our relationship —
and about our common purpose.

The luncheon was spectacular - but the conversation and getting your impressive views on the troubled world surpassed
even that delectable souffle -

An added dividend was Barbara's great feeling of warmth
for your charming note.

Please come on way soon (1)
so we can continue what I know will be a fruitful relationship.

To you and all

I was most impressed with the professionals that I met in London.

Sincerely and with respect -
