d. As in the past, it is requested that Council members refrain from holding private social functions at times which conflict with scheduled Council events, particularly cocktail parties before Council dinners.

e. Dress will be optional on Thursday evening, black tie on Friday evening.

f. With the exception of the Head Table, seating for the Friday night dinner will be by drawings from bowls located outside the Commonwealth Room. Members and/or wives who have been asked to sit at the Head Table for dinner are requested to please check the seating list inside the Commonwealth Room during the cocktail hour in order to avoid last-minute confusion at the Head Table.

g. Your attention is called to the details for the Thursday evening dinner-dance, in memorandum from this office dated March 17, 1976.

h. The meeting will be formally concluded at the adjournment of the Saturday morning business session. However, the Tower Lounge will be open all day Saturday, including during the normal cocktail hour, will open on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock for coffee and other refreshments, and will remain open until about 2:00 p.m.

i. With reference to the Men's Golf Tournament, this will be held on Friday afternoon on The Homestead Course. The entry fee will be $10.00 (for prizes) and should be paid to the Club Pro by Council members before teeing off. The starter will assist those members and guests so desiring to make up foursomes. For the personal pleasure and convenience of the participants, it is important that they arrange for starting times well in advance.

j. Round-robin tennis tournaments will be held on Friday and all arrangements will be made by the tennis professional at the hotel, Mr. Pat Haynes. The ladies' play will be on Friday morning; the gentlemen will play on Friday afternoon. A reasonable entry fee for Council members will be established and should be paid to Mr. Haynes. There will be no entry fee for the ladies.

k. Prizes will be awarded for ladies who play golf at any of the courses on Friday. There will be no entry fee. Complete details are included in the special notice on Ladies Golf attached to this memorandum.

l. Coffee service will be available for the gentlemen during the meeting breaks on Friday and Saturday mornings. This will be set up in the Dominion Room. For outgoing calls only, there will be telephones installed on the upper level of the Commonwealth Room, where the business sessions are held, for the convenience of those gentlemen who have a need to use them during the morning breaks.

m. Dr. James Harnsberger will again be in residence at The Homestead for the duration of our meeting. His room number will be posted on the bulletin board in the Tower Lounge and anyone who has need of medical services should be able to reach him in his room, or through the hotel switchboard.

n. We are scheduling programs exclusively for the ladies on Friday and Saturday, May 7th and 8th. The complete details on these programs are in the attached special notice and we hope that as many ladies as possible will plan to attend.

o. The Ladies' Coffee Hours on Friday and Saturday mornings will be at 9:30 a.m. in the Tower Lounge.

p. The Homestead telephone number is Code 703, 839-5500. The Business Council office will be set up in the Valley Room, next to the Tower Lounge. The telephone extensions for the office are 2646 and 2647.

q. IT WOULD BE GREATLY APPRECIATED IF MEMBERS WOULD ADVISE MR. OR MRS. BURKE OF ANY LAST-MINUTE CHANGES IN DINNER PLANS OR DEPARTURE TIMES. MESSAGES MAY BE LEFT FOR THEM AT THE FRONT DESK, AT THE COUNCIL OFFICE, OR BY CALLING THEIR ROOM, 1126.

The Honorable George H. W. Bush
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear George:

Perhaps, if you will look in the files, you will discover that over the years The Business Council has invited the various Directors of Central Intelligence to most of its meetings at Hot Springs, Virginia and their attendance has been remarkably good, going all the way back to the time of Allen Dulles.

While the climate here in Washington has certainly changed somewhat, we would very much hope that you and Barbara could be our guests at our next meeting. Our first function at The Homestead will be an informal reception and dinner-dance on Thursday evening, May 6th, and we will continue with morning business sessions for the gentlemen on Friday and Saturday. There are separate, special programs arranged for the ladies and they also attend the one black-tie dinner on Friday evening, May 7th.

Your father had the highest regard for this organization and its members and we often talked about this group and its objectives when Agnes and I were enjoying our many Sunday afternoons of golf with your mother and father.

It would seem to me that you might find it of benefit to you in connection with your responsibilities to be with us and we hope that you and Barbara could attend for the entire session. If, however, your schedule is such that you could only be with us for part of the time, you would both be welcomed for however long you could stay. This office would, of course, handle all of your hotel reservations.

THE BUSINESS COUNCIL

March 17, 1976 - 2

Just so that you have it conveniently at hand, I am enclosing a copy of our current membership list and we would expect to have about 100 or so attend, with their wives. Our program at the moment appears to be high quality and the Friday evening dinner speaker is scheduled to be Secretary Kissinger. We do not ask the Director of Central Intelligence to appear on our program for fear of possible misinterpretation by the press, who do cover our presence at The Homestead.

Barbara could check the ins and outs of coming to such a meeting through acquaintances such as Ann Buckley, Millie Dent, Ellie Ingersoll, Loraine Percy, or others, as they have been with us on many earlier occasions.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

John W. Burke, Jr.
Executive Secretary
