Honorable William H. Gleysteen, Jr.
Deputy Assistant Secretary
East Asian Affairs
Department of State
Washington, D. C. 20520

Dear Bill:

I appreciate very much the spirit of your letter of March 12th.

I served in the Congress for four years and served as Chairman of our Party for two years. Thus many of my closest personal friends happen to be members of the House and Senate -- not professional friends, close personal friends. When I left Washington at one of several going away parties I naturally said to these people "come see us" and I meant it. Frankly, I think it would be very useful to have them do just that. I cannot conceive of any member of Congress that I invited doing anything that would embarrass our policy but I can see how some might understand it a little better.

The Roth visit will be pure sightseeing. He and Jane, his wife, are attending a Tokyo Conference and he asked if he might come to Peking for two or three days to look around. I will try not to set up any appointments with Chinese officials for him. Indeed I don't know at this writing whether they will even give him a visa.

In the future, I will simply advise members of the House and Senate that I am not free to invite them without their first getting approval of the Secretary of State. However, I would strongly urge that this be carefully thought out back there. I do understand Congress pretty well, and I do not believe this would be understood very well on the Hill.

Perhaps I am over reacting to the Secretary's expression of

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

"concern". In short if it is a firm decision I will abide by it, but I want to be clearly on record as disagreeing with it. I will do my best to see that it causes no problems but if pressed I will simply tell the truth and say that I am not free to invite members of Congress without prior State Department approval.

Yours very truly,

George Bush

Dear George:

As you know from Oscar's telegram, we checked with the Secretary before passing your messages to Senator Roth and PRCLC. Our memo to him recommended that he concur, which he did. However, I thought you should know that he also expressed concern about such invitations to members of Congress. He did not explain his concern in his notation on the memo, but I imagine he has two points in mind. One is the pent-up demand in Congress for visiting the PRC, and the White House desire to handle this problem carefully. The other is the possibility that the Chinese might think that this procedure could become something of a "back door" for members of Congress who are unable to get there by the front door, i.e. a PRC invitation. This consideration may also apply to others whom you invite, but you are the best judge of what the traffic will bear.

We appreciate your letting us know about this invitation, and believe it would be useful, if at any time you should contemplate a similar invitation, to let us know before you take it very far with either the Chinese or the member of Congress.

Incidentally, we understand Senator Hugh Scott is working on the Chinese for a second, private visit to China.

Best regards,

W.H.

The Honorable George Bush
United States Ambassador
The American Embassy
Peking, People's Republic of China

Dear George:

I have only now returned to the office after the summer recess -- and hasten to send this inadequate expression of gratitude for all of your generosity and congeniality in Peking. I admire enormously the job you are doing in that far away place. For all of us it was a refreshing and reassuring way station on our short journey in China. I fear we caused you considerable inconvenience and am thus more grateful for the cheerful response to all needs at all hours. I was much impressed, too, by your staff, including of course my dear friend, Harry Thayer. He is a good man and you are fortunate to have him. Please remember me to him.

Nancy joins in sending you our thanks for everything and our best wishes,

Sincerely,

September 4, 1975

The Honorable Sam Nunn
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Senator Nunn:

During your visit to the Hua Shan Hospital in Shanghai August 29, you requested the names of the patients whose operations you saw. The patient with the brain tumor was Ms. SUN Su-hsiang; the patient with the thyroid tumor was Ms. PANG Hsueh-hing. Their surnames are in capitals.

Sara and I enjoyed very much the opportunity to accompany you and Mrs. Nunn on your trip through China, and hope to have another chance to see you in the future.

Please let us know if there is anything more we can do for you.

Sincerely,

Support vs export of revol.

"export" = when China would impose ideas on other countries whether they liked it or not

2. Mao always taught us
"in making a rev. in any country, people in that country must act in conformity with conditions in that country"
so revolution cannot be exported

"when we copied it's a rev.

Dear Jimmy,

The Slabbs want to buy a carpet, don't like the selection at the Friendship Store, and hope to find a better store in town.

If you know or can find out a place I can take or send them Saturday, could you leave a note to me. Bill or I will pick it up late this afternoon (Friday) after we get through doing the wall.

Thanks ☺

Sara
