The Hon. James D. Hodgson,
United States Ambassador,
Tokyo, Japan.

Dear Jim:

I don't need to bother you with book-keeping, but here is my check for $209.42 to cover hotdog rolls, potato chips, and the shipment of them.

The reason for this letter is simply to rethank you for the help of all your people there at Embassy Tokyo. There is a frustration factor in not being able to call your local supermarket for hotdog rolls, but your people helped to overcome all that and make our Fourth of July a big success. Again I am in your debt.

Warm regards,

George Bush

May 26th (Memorial Day- not too widely celebrated here)

Dear Paul,

This is a US holiday, thus I am my own typist, but Bar leaves this afternoon to see a son graduate and I want her to mail this tomorrow in the US of A.

Everything arrived in great shape. We are going to have the greatest red white and blue 4th of July picnic imagineable.

The cokes arrived also plus the coats and pant, the hats, the bunting, the plastic glasses- the works. I just can't tell you what a lift this will give things around here.

I am truly determined to make our National Day different. As long as we are here we can bring to some Chinese and all the foreign diplomats a little insight into our country through a relaxed 4th of July picnic type thing. Now I start praying for no rain.

We really loved your visit. I wish, now, that you had come about three weeks later. It was prettier then. Now it is lovely, but a little bit hot, though I am still swinging away with my racket in mid day (not for long I'm told)

We have had a massive turnover at USLO with Holdridges and many others about to go; but the replacements all appear to be A-1 people. I am very lucky in that regard.

Bar is going home to surprise our #4 son who did a first class job at Woodberry Forest School. He graduates in a few days. In June four Bush kids come out here. I feel like hog on ice -happier than the dickens thinking about it.

We have had some substantive things lately with the collapse in Cambodia and the ship incident. There is a great deal of misunderstanding about the US position, but I enjoy trying to set the record straight.

Life continues in its fascinating way out here. I am hopeful of getting back in late August for 10 days in Maine and maybe a week or two in DC for consultations. I sure hope our paths cross in the not too distant future.

Many many thanks for the happiness you will have given our little enclave out here. Everything is just perfect.

MEMORANDUM

TO : Mr. Bush ✓
THROUGH : Mr. Thayer [initials]
FROM : POL - Lynn Pascoe
SUBJECT : July 4th Reception -- Meeting with Protocol
Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs

Tang Lung-bin of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs Protocol Department called me in this morning to discuss arrangements for our Independence Day reception. I gave him a general rundown of what we had planned including the Chinese reception on the 3rd and the various events on the 4th. I told him that for the reception on the 3rd our intentions were basically to follow the same format that we have in the past two years. Tang said the general arrangements seemed fine to him although he was a bit interested in the details of the reception. We agreed (unless you have heard something else) that you and the leading Chinese figure would each make a very short toast early in the reception. We also agreed that there would be an area for you to sit with the Chinese VIP's when they first arrive but that you would sit down for only about 20-25 minutes and spend the rest of the time circulating among the guests. We also agreed that USLO would send a number of movie invitations to the Protocol Department for English speaking Chinese on the July 3 reception list.

From the desk of

JENNIFER FITZGERALD

For the past 4th of July celebrations the Liaison Office has provided a buffet supper for all the drivers. As you can see this is a major production number plus being quite expensive, I have checked with the British to find out what they do about this for the Queen's birthday.

They evidently serve tea and cakes (made by the additional cooks they have to hire) and give them lots of cigarettes and matches.

Do you wish to follow their lead?

Re: July 4

Mr. Wong, distraught, told me this am that he was unable to get help for either the 3rd or the 4th.

Everyone is 'busy' and the club has many of thier people at the Beach Club.

Please advise Mr. Liu of this state of affairs.

I AM NOT at all concerned about the 4th. We can impress all our kids and easily get that job done.

I am somewhat converned offer the 3rd though I am sure ,again, the kids will be glad to help.

Mr. Wong cannot get extra cooks or waiters.

Action: 1. ask Mr.Liu to please try with the 3rd as priority.

9 2. if that fails, let's get a little USLO meeting- HT, GB, Pascoe, Lesvesque, you and wet will overcome.....

Dear George:

Many thanks for your note of June 6. I share your delight that we were able to get "That's Entertainment" for your July 4th festivities in Peking. The real credit, however, should rightfully go to Frank Scotton in my shop and Bill Mendenhall of IMV who pursued your request with courage and determination worthy of a Texan.

Nothing would please me more than being able to join you in the celebration in Peking. In the meanwhile, every good wish for a smashing, successful July 4th. Hope you will keep in touch and let us know how we can continue to be helpful to you.

Warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Mr. Hal Wingo,

Dear Mr. Wingo:

John Burns told me of your gracious offer to send us some prints of the recent pictures he took depicting our life here in Peking.

On the enclosed contact sheets I have checked the ones we would like to have.

John also tells me that he thought you might now have some of the color shots that he took. I am particularly interested in one showing us surrounded by a large group of Chinese at the Tien An Men (Great Square). We do have a marvelous album here, and if one or two of the color prints are available, we'd sure love to have them.

We are going to miss John Burns here in Peking. He is perhaps the most perceptive reporter in Peking, and his talents will not be easy to replace.

I hope that my request for prints is not an imposition. John assured me that this matter had already been discussed with you.

Sincerely,

George Bush

JF:

Enclosed are contact sheets of the People pix. Arrangement is that Time-Life (People) will print up copies of any GB would like for his scrapbook. Since I will be gone by the time that an exchange of correspondence takes place, I suggest that the best thing to do would be for you (GB) to return the contacts directly to Hal Wingo, People Weekly, Time and Life Building, Rockefeller Center, New York, NY 10020, with the required pix marked with a (felt-tipped?) pen. He is alert to the arrangement, so all you need do is to say that I have handed the matter over to you in view of my imminent departure. It goes without saying that People will supply the prints as a courtesy, n.c.. There were also two rolls of color which none of us have ever seen, but I suspect that at least some of those taken in front of Tien An Men would be worth having prints (or slides) of--I know Mrs. B was intrigued to know whether a series showing the two of them surrounded by a crowd of Chinese worked out. My suggestion: When you return the monochrome contacts to Wingo, ask him to take a look at the color and send out prints or slides of any that might be good enough for the Bs to want for the album. Okay?

Seeya

J Burns

PS Would you mark two or three of the better shots showing Finocchi with GB, and forward them to F (at an address I'll leave with you) when they come in? F says one good shot like that should give him carte blanche at the Quirinale Palace. ("Ah! Ma Signor Bush, e uno di mi piu prossimi amici"). Yes, my Italian is as bad as my tennis.

I was sorry to get the telegram saying the Weintraubs and the Denvers couldn't come, but rest assured I understand perfectly. We will sit around playing Johnny Denver and Jane Morgan on cassette tapes on our new stereo system, and that will have to serve as a substitute - not, however, as good as having you all with us. But then in entertainment starved Peking tapes are better than nothing.

Pete keeps sending me clippings showing how great you are doing, and Barbara and I take tremendous pride in your enormous accomplishments.

I am hoping to be in Kennebunkport in August for a week or two. Wouldn't it be great seeing you and Jane there too?

Dear Jerry:

Your letters have been great, and so was Margaret's to Bar, which arrived after Bar left for the States. I cheated and read it.

I just want to thank you for two things: first, for working out the beer and cigarette deal for our Fourth of July celebration. What a blast of a picnic we are going to have. I hope Phillip Morris doesn't go broke airfreighting all that stuff out here to us. I got a cable from Jay Taylor and simply told him to have it shipped as soon as possible, knowing the delays that are encountered.

Secondly, I want to thank you for your great letter about the future. After reading your input, Devine's input, and Lias' input I am convinced the thing to do is to stay here and do as good a job as possible and not be trying to make any concrete plans for the future. There are rumors out of Washington about my coming back to have a role in the campaign, and these concern me very much... not something I would want to do. When Rog Morton was here I had a good talk with him, and if you see him he can fill you in on our discussions.

Love to Margaret. Ten days from now I'll be the happiest guy in all of China, since Bar and four of our five will be here.

Warm regards,

Dear Mr. Cullman:

My friends Messrs. Bemiss and Bryan of Richmond have told me about your fantastically generous and thoughtful contribution to what I know will be a great Fourth of July picnic here in Peking. I had a call from Japan Airlines yesterday saying that the beer and cigarettes were on their way in here. I want very much to have our picnic have a little flare and splash, and now you have guaranteed that it will. Chinese beer is excellent, but there is no substitute for American beer and cigarettes, neither of which one can get here in Peking. Our friends in the diplomatic corps and our Chinese friends I know will be mightily impressed.

I really do appreciate all of this, and please thank all those who helped make it possible for us to have American beer and cigarettes.

Many, many thanks.

Dear Pop

Concerning the beer -- I talked to our close friend Harvie Wilkinson here in Richmond, who is a Director of Philip Morris. That resulted in a call this morning from Hugh Cullman, President of Philip Morris International. Hugh says he is very pleased to have a part in this; that Philip Morris, at no cost to the LO or to you, will be pleased to air freight 30 cases of Philip Morris beer and 10 cases of Philip Morris cigarettes for your 4th of July bash. He asked: where should it be air freighted to? To whom should the shipment be consigned? When do you want it to arrive? He very graciously said if you choose not to take advantage of this offer Philip Morris will certainly understand and not be offended -- but clearly he was pleased to have the opportunity.

Concern that a letter would take too long, I have conveyed all this to Jay Taylor so he could cable you. I am writing this letter simply to put the story on paper.

When I hear from you through Jay or directly, I will immediately get back in touch with Hugh Cullman.

LIMITED OFFICIAL USE PEKING 1112

FOR EA/PRCM ARMSTRONG ONLY

1. We are inviting Chinese dignitaries to usual bilateral affair at Residence evening of July 3. Next day we will show a movie in the International Club and hold a traditional picnic at USLO for the Peking diplomatic community.
2. Would you provide us with a current list of countries which for policy reasons should not be invited to informal July 4 activities? While most non-invitees are obvious, we are uncertain about the state ^{of} US-Congo(B) and US-Yemen(Aden) relations. We would hope to have as broad ~~representation~~ representation as permissible.

Dear Pop

After checking with Jay Taylor yesterday, I called Hugh Cullman at Philip Morris; he is sending to you at your office in Peking, by air freight, 30 cases of Miller High Life beer and 5 cases of Philip Morris cigarettes. I feel sure he will attend to this promptly, so clear some space for the merchandise.

I am sure you want to write to Hugh. Here is his address:

Mr. Hugh Cullman
President
Philip Morris International
100 Park Avenue
New York, N. Y. 10017

Jay Taylor just called to emphasize the importance of no publicity of the Philip Morris gift. Feeling certain that Hugh had no such intentions, I was a bit uncomfortable about writing him on the point but did so to avoid any misunderstanding.

Cheers! Were off tomorrow morning to Maroon's graduation.

Dear Jack:

Great news about "That's Entertainment".

I have been trying desperately to plan a typical American picnic for the Fourth of July, and to do something different in entertainment-starved Peking. Now along comes your message about the film, and the icing has been decoratively placed on the cake.

Love to Mary Margaret, and many, many thanks.

Dear Mr. Org:

Mr. Horowitz asked me to give you the list of items Mr. Austin told Amb. Bush he could provide for the 4th of July celebration in Peking.

We presume that you will be having this shipment sent from Hong Kong. We have found in the past that it can take as long as from five to seven weeks to get things to Peking so as you can see we are working within a rather tight time frame.

Amb. Bush and the USLO staff greatly appreciate your help in this matter.

Dear Mr. Austin:

We are a little confused on the 4th of July project. A Mr. Org, from of all places Australia, contacted our Herb Horowitz asking him what it was he was supposed to provide for the celebration in Peking.

In order to keep things straight, I am enclosing a copy of the letter we have mailed to him.

The USLO staff is most grateful to you for what you are doing to help us have a fabulous 4th of July.

Sincerely,

Jennifer A. Fitzgerald

Enclosure: Letter to Mr. Org

UNITED STATES LIAISON OFFICE
Peking, People's Republic of China

May 2, 1975

Mr. Bill Fleischell,
RNC,
310 1st Street, S.E.,
Washington, D.C. 20003.

Dear Bill:

Special favor department - (to be done in spare time so as not to incur wrath of GOP hierarchy):

On July 4th we will have a big National Day reception to which we will invite certain Chinese officials and certain foreign diplomats.

The theme will be "an old-fashioned 4th of July Picnic" - informal...Cola, Beer, Hot Dogs.

Here are the basics:

Place - USLO (United States Liaison Office, Peking)

Time - 6 pm to 7:30 pm

Date - July 4, 1975 - Celebrating our 199th year

Dress - Casual

We will be having a movie in the small theater at the International Club. We will have two showings: the first at 3:00 pm; the second at 8:00 pm. Some picnic guests will attend the 3:00 pm, others the 8:00 pm. All will come to the picnic.

Now for my request. Could you design for me an invitation card for the picnic and a 4th of July Movie Ticket.

First, on the invitation card:

A card with red/white/blue border like the ones I had at RNC might be great. The invite should be informal, but it should read:

Mr. and Mrs. George Bush invite you to our 199th birthday - or,
to a July 4th picnic

Perhaps it would be better just to have the invitation on a colorful 8 x 10 sheet with little Uncle Sam figures shouting "beer", "coke", "hot dogs", etc. It is ~~okay~~ to use the American Flag. I would not use any China references.

Second, on the Theater Tickets:

We will need 500 red tickets (numbering not required), Time 3:00 pm;

and 500 blue tickets, Time 8:00 pm.

The Movie should simply be billed as "An American Classic" since I don't yet know what film we will get.

The Place: The International Club

A little footnote should read: Movie will begin promptly at 3:00 pm, or 8:00 pm.

While designing, maybe you could design a children's ticket, say for 10:30 a.m. (maybe we should to to three showings in entertainment-starved Peking).

At the picnic we will have little booths (bunting-draped) to pass out the cokes, beer, and dogs. This will be a real first for Peking - so unlike the stuffy receptions here. The invitation will really set the theme and that is why I need the Fleischell touch.

Could you send me a sketch or two. It would probably be better to get things printed back there and then the family can bring them out when they come in July.

I hope this isn't a terrible imposition. Don Rhodes can give you the dope on how to send your reply. If you are too damn busy to fool with this I will certainly understand, but tell me as soon as possible. Mail takes forever. In fact, in replying, have Don use both pouch and international mail to reply.

All's Well here. Spring in Peking is unbelievably beautiful.

Thanks, Bill.

Sincerely,

George Bush
