9. The Savings Pass-book is the evidence of the account and should be carefully safeguarded. In the event of loss of pass-book, the depositor shall give immediate notice in writing to the Bank. The law provides that before a duplicate pass-book may be issued, the loss of the original must be advertised in a local newspaper for three consecutive alternate weeks and if the lost pass-book is not found within two months after the date of the first advertisement, a duplicate pass-book may be issued. After the issuance of such duplicate book, all liability of the Bank on account of the original book shall terminate.

Deposits in the name of one person as trustee for another may be withdrawn by such trustee, and in case of the trustee's death, if no written notice of the existence and terms of a legal trust has been given to the Bank, the beneficiary of the trust may withdraw the deposit. Other deposits in the names of deceased persons can be withdrawn only by legally qualified trustees, executors or administrators as the case may require.

12. All checks are accepted for collection only and credited subject to final cash payment and are handled at risk of depositor. This Bank will use due diligence in selecting responsible collecting agents but will not be responsible for their acts or omissions, negligent or otherwise, or for loss of items in process of collection.
