Mr. Albert B. Fay
1801 Dallas Avenue
Houston 2, Texas

Dear Al:

It seems a little ridiculous to be writing to you, who single handedly cut such a wide swath on the Goldwater Dinner. In any event I did want to say how much we of the Harris County organization appreciate the fine work that you did on the dinner.

I am sure you have discussed with Kearney the figures.

Many, many thanks for a tremendous job.

Best regards,

George H. W. Bush

Mr. James A. Beetron
4000 Westheimer
Houston, Texas

Dear Jim:

The dust has settled - almost. On behalf of the entire County organization I want to thank you for the job you did in organizing the Goldwater Dinner. This has certainly given us a wonderful boost in several ways. One, we can pay our people for a little while longer and two, Goldwater's visit charged up our people with a great deal of enthusiasm. Thanks, Jim, for all your hard work.

If ever you see anything that needs improving in the way the job is now being done at County (and I am sure there will be many such times) please give a holler. The longer I am in my job the more respect I have for the job that you did.

Best regards,

George H. W. Bush

Dear Jack,

I just wanted to send you a note of special thanks for your hard work on the Goldwater Dinner.

We have not gotten a final audited report but in general it looks like the Dinner cleared $55,000. Thanks, Jack, for your wonderful help.

If you ever have any suggestions as to how we can improve our efforts here in Harris County I would appreciate hearing from you.

Best regards to Mrs. Porter.

Very truly yours,

III. LEGAL CONSIDERATIONS: Special laws place some limitations on the solicitation of political contributions. The following rules summarize briefly some legal aspects on which all persons soliciting political contributions ought to be informed:

1. Corporation checks are not acceptable. Corporations cannot make political contributions. There is no exception.
2. Unincorporated companies, partnerships, and individuals can contribute.
3. All contributions must be accompanied by a name; no anonymous gifts can be accepted.
4. An individual's contribution of more than $3,000 to any one Committee is subject to gift tax. Under the current community property tax law, a husband and wife can each give $3,000 to a committee without being subject to gift tax.
5. The Hatch Act prohibits any person from making contributions in an amount in excess of $5,000 during any calendar year, advocating the nomination or election of any candidate for Federal office of for the success of any national political party. This section, however, does not apply to contributions made to or by a state or local political committee.
